HOUSTON JUDGE HOLDS POLL TAX-LAW INVALID

Houston, Tex., Oct. 23.—The poll tax law enacted at the last session of the Legislature was declared unconstitutional by Judge J. D. Harvey in 18th District Court this morning. This decision will allow women to vote in the general election, November 2, without payment of poll tax.

The decision was rendered in a mandamus suit filed by Mrs. Mary F. Hinkley against E. V. Ley, presiding officer of the Woodland Heights precinct. The decision of Judge Harvey will allow the women of Walker County to vote as the jurisdiction of his court extends over that county.

Mrs. Hortense Ward, leader of the suffrage movement in Harris County, has estimated that the decision will allow approximately 30,000 women to participate in the November election.

In rendering his decision, Judge Harvey said: "The law attempting to impose on women a poll tax prerequisite to their voting in the general election to be held next month or in any other election held during the current year is void and women have the constitutional right to vote in all such elections without the payment of poll tax."

Curton Won't Comment

Austin, Tex., Oct. 23.—Because he does not think it proper for him to discuss a case now in court, Attorney General C. M. Curton today declined to comment on the decision of Judge J. D. Harvey of the 18th District Court at Houston, holding the emergency poll tax law passed by the last special session of the 36th Legislature unconstitutional, and that women may wish to change a single one of the prophecies which have been made of Republican victory. The conviction has been getting stronger day by day until now it is unbreakable, that the voters of the United States, American men and women, will, on Nov. 2, do their duty at the polls, and this year their unquestionable duty means the election of the standard-bearers of the Republican party.

Campaign Compared
The campaigns of the Republicans and of the Democrats have been conducted on two different levels—the former on a higher plane and the latter on a distinctly lower plane.
The Democratic national candidates largely have indulged in charges of various kinds against their opponents, which not only could not be proved, because they had no foundation in fact, but which finally both Mr. Cox and Mr. Roosevelt had to drop because they saw the futility of further pursuing a course which simply was alienating all the friends they had.
The Republicans have conducted their campaign on what might be called a "plan of issues." The people understand issues and they understand facts when they are presented. Their verdict will be given at the polls Nov. 2, and it will be in behalf of Harding and Coolidge.

HOW CHAIRMEN OF THE TWO PARTIES VIEW RESULT

BY GEORGE WHITE,
Chairman Democratic National Committee.

New York, Oct. 23.—The Republicans have built up a splendid political machine. I freely concede it. Equipped with vast funds, their astute chairman has done a good job. With his tireless energy and political skill it would have been extraordinary had he failed.

Our organization moves by faith alone, his by machinery. We will have expended by the end of this campaign about one-fourth of our legitimate requirements. The bulk of the moneyed interests are against us, for reasons best known to themselves. It has been like digging in the frozen Klondike to get enough money for a portion of the publicity necessary to spread the truth about the most falsified document in the world's history—the League of Nations.

Predicts G. O. P. Defeat
That is the situation. Yet we will win. Why? asks the cynic who is certain that the election goes with the organization and the money. My answer is that there never was a political machine so large, so efficient, so rich, so powerful that the American people couldn't break it when they wanted to.

Mr. Hays is one they are going to smash into splinters on Nov. 2. And the reason is simply that the Hays machine would keep us from achieving the ideals for which we fought the war, and would seek to destroy the only compact assuring world peace ever agreed to by nations both great and small.

BY WILL H. HAYS,
Chairman Republican National Committee.

New York, Oct. 23.—Just eight more working days—and fighting days—if you will—before the main contest comes, and at its close victory for Harding and Coolidge, and the Republican party.

There is nothing in this late day of the campaign to make anyone

wish to change a single one of the prophecies which have been made of Republican victory. The conviction has been getting stronger day by day until now it is unbreakable, that the voters of the United States, American men and women, will, on Nov. 2, do their duty at the polls, and this year their unquestionable duty means the election of the standard-bearers of the Republican party.

LORD MAYOR OF CORK SUCCUMBS FROM HUNGER

Monday morning at 5:40 o'clock, Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, Ireland, died from starvation in Brixton prison of London after the 74th day of a hunger-strike. Some nourishment had been administered by physicians towards the end while he was unconscious.

Terence MacSwiney was 48 years old and was one of the most prominent Sinn Feiners. He started life as a draper's assistant, but became a poet, author and a playwright before taking up politics seriously. Later he became violently anti-English.

In Wakefield jail, Yorkshire, in 1916, he met Murial Murphy, daughter of a wealthy Cork distiller, who visited the jail, and shortly after, war, they were married, despite much opposition.

MacSwiney was elected as a Sinn Fein member from Cork of the British Parliament in 1918, but never took his seat. He was present at the first session of the Irish parliament in 1919, when the establishment of the republic was confirmed and was elected lord mayor of Cork in 1920.

For various political offenses he had been in jail with brief intervals of liberty, since January, 1916, and in October, 1917, secured his release from jail by hunger striking.

As soon as news of the lord mayor's death began to spread through the city small knots of people began moving toward Brixton prison. The police, however, did not allow anyone to move into the street leading to the prison entrance, keeping the people moving so that a crowd would not form. Fears previously have been expressed that the lord mayor's death might cause a demonstration at the prison.

PLAN FOR BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION HERE

Cashier E. H. Prescott of the Chas. Schreiner Bank is getting literature in reference to a Building and Loan Association, which it is proposed to organize at Kerrville.

There will be about $30,000 capital, payable by installment. The expense of operation will be low, as only a secretary will be employed at a small salary.

A building and loan association is a very beneficial organization for any town and especially needed at Kerrville, where residences are so scarce.

When solicited to take stock, respond at once by subscribing for all you can conveniently carry, as it will aid in the upbuilding of Kerrville, as well as enable a number to buy and own their homes.

DIXIE LYCEUM BUREAU TO HAVE INTERESTING PROGRAM

The Dixie Lyceum Bureau have an excellent and interesting program arranged for Kerrville this season, notice of which has recently been sent E. H. Prescott.

There are four numbers announced. The first will be on December 2nd, the second on January 5th, the third on January 14th and the fourth on February 11th.

Included in this program is a lecture by Lincoln McConnell, L. L. D., the "Guy that Delivers the Goods." He is certainly an entertaining talker.

The Musical Art Quartet is a fine combination of instrumental musicians and male singers.

The Berkley Sextette are a fine body of good looking girls, who will make you sorry when their entertainment comes to a close.

ANNUAL RED CROSS MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Several women and men met Wednesday afternoon in the court room of the Court House and elected an executive committee for Red Cross work in Kerr County.

Dr. S. E. Thompson made an interesting talk on the necessity for continuing the Red Cross work.

Rev. W. P. Dickey told of the great benefits accomplished by Red-Cross activities.

Mrs. J. S. Wheelless rendered a report of the State meeting, which she attended recently.

W. G. Carpenter acted as chairman. Rev. Dickey, Mrs. Geddie and Mrs. Young were appointed a committee by Chairman Carpenter to select an executive committee, and the following were reported and approved:

Mrs. Richard Holdsworth, Geo. W. Walthers, Howard Butt, Mrs. J. S. Wheelless, W. G. Carpenter, Harris Hardin, A. B. Williamson, R. L. Schmerbeck, Dr. J. D. Jackson, Mrs. John W. Burney, Dr. S. E. Thompson, Dr. W. P. Dickey, Mrs. H. C. Geddie, Judge Julius Real, Mrs. Geo. Meeks, Mrs. Geo. Walker, Dr. J. E. McDonald, Rev. W. A. Smith, Mrs. J. B. Young and Mrs. Wm. Lee Secor.

The committee met immediately after adjournment of the county meeting and elected the following officers: W. G. Carpenter, county chairman; Mrs. J. S. Wheelless, vice chairman; R. L. Schmerbeck, secretary, and A. B. Williamson, treasurer.

High School Notes

The football boys and basket-ball girls have arranged to play the football and basket-ball teams of Llano next Saturday afternoon at Llano. They will leave Kerrville Friday afternoon and return Saturday after the games.

There is to be a Hallow'en party in the High School Auditorium Saturday, October 30th. All High School students are invited to come in masquerade costumes.

A large chorus has been organized among the High School students and are doing splendid work under the leadership of Mrs. Dickerson.

The Better Schools Amendment will be fully explained Monday night, November 1st, at the High School Auditorium. Don't fail to be there.

Chas. Schreiner Bank
WOOL AND MOHAIR COMMISSION MERCHANT

TODAY AND TOMORROW

To a great extent, the usefulness of the Chas. Schreiner Bank is due to the fact that it is a permanent institution—an established business managed to serve patrons day after day, year in and year out.

Thus, as a customer of the Chas. Schreiner Bank you are served today with a full measure of bank service, which is important to your larger success. Then, as you advance from one success to another, you have this institution with you, step by step, this year and during the years that follow, taking an interest in your advancement and lending encouragement at every turn. Become associated with an institution that will serve you tomorrow as well as today.

KERRVILLE AFFILIATED WITH WEST TEXAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

J. E. Farrow, assistant organizer for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, with headquarters at Stamford, was in Kerrville Monday and Tuesday.

He made a talk to several members of the local Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon in reference to the benefits to be derived from joining the former organization.

Later, in conjunction with Secretary Baker of the Kerrville body, Mr. Farrow secured the number of memberships that he had allotted this place in order to secure affiliation with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

KING ALEXANDER OF GREECE DIES FROM A MAD MONKEY'S BITE

Athens, Oct. 25.—King Alexander of Greece died at 5:20 p. m. Monday. His death was due to wounds received when a pet monkey attacked him early in October, the king being badly mutilated.

The death of King Alexander gives rise to the question of succession to the Greek throne.

Former King Constantine was reported, according to Swiss dispatches of October 17, as intending to take advantage of the situation created by his son's grave illness by returning to Greece and claim the throne.

Premier Venizelos last Sunday expressed himself as confident that Prince Paul, Constantine's third son, would not be prevented from taking the throne of his father, as the latter would learn from the coming elections that there was no prospect for his return.

GOLD'S COFFEE HOUSE IN ELEGANT NEW QUARTERS

About four months ago, E. Gold opened Gold's Coffee House in the old stand of the Rock Drug Store, and with the valuable co-operation of Mrs. Gold, there has been built up a most excellent patronage. The motto they adopted, "Place to Get Good Eats," has been lived up to in every particular.

Mr. and Mrs. Gold not only supply the hungry satisfactorily, but are courteous and genial in their association with patrons, making them feel at home.

There is no surprise, then, that the Gold's Coffee House has already outgrown its quarters and requires additional space. In the selection of another building, they are fortunate in securing the room formerly occupied by Cash-and-Carry Grocery, the lower story of the Pampell stone building next door to Rawson's Drug Store.

This room has been specially arranged for a high-class cafe and more space is secured for the accommodation of increased patronage.

Mr. and Mrs. Gold deserve the success achieved, because they have worked hard and faithfully to please the public.

Nearly a Serious Accident

The young son of L. Reif was hit by the delivery truck of Butt Grocery Friday of last week. The boy was riding a velocipede up and down the sidewalk and the delivery truck came out of the alley at quite a clip and struck the boy knocking him over.

Fortunately, the injury was not serious, but might have been fatal. More care should be taken by delivery drivers, as well as others in running autos around Kerrville. Most of the time the speed is too great, and the drivers seem to think it the business of the pedestrian to get out of the way.

MAJORITY PAPERS OPPOSE GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

A summary of the results of the questionnaire from the country at large shows that the opposition to Government operation of railroads is general. Out of 5,154 editors replying, 4,466 or 86 per cent voted their communities against the proposition. This is an increase of 3 per cent in the opposition as compared with the results of a similar questionnaire sent out by the Press Service Company a year ago in connection with the question of turning the railroads back to their owners.

The papers heard from in the present poll are 1,857 Republican, 1,350 Democratic, 1,458 Independent and 462 miscellaneous. Not only did political bias play no part in the replies but sectional differences seem to have no appreciable effect on the result. The combined circulation of the papers whose editors replied is 11,428,817, which means a constituency of at least 44,000,000 readers.

Junction Jots

Eagle, Oct. 22: Mrs. W. W. Allen and daughter, Mrs. Summers, and Mrs. Raymond Allen left Monday for San Antonio. After a visit of several days Mrs. Allen will go to Mineral Wells, Houston and other points. The other parties will return to the ranch.

Beginning at Six Mile the highway will be extended toward Roosevelt. Kimble County has $10,000 to put in on this part of the highway and the State Highway has seen fit to help her out to the amount of $30,000. In all $40,000 has been set aside for the extension and the contract will be let in a few days.

About 4 o'clock Sunday morning a big barn at the home of Dr. Wright's, about six miles from Junction burned. The barn and contents were a total loss, aggregating a loss to the doctor of several hundred dollars. The origin of the fire is unknown at this time. We were not able to learn whether the barn and contents were insured or not.

The value of Kimble County as a farming county, as well as a stock raising county, is yet in her infancy, as will be seen from the following news item we gathered during our news gathering round this week. Judge Coke R. Stevenson brought to town a stalk of common sugar cane from his ranch farm this week that measured twelve feet and six inches in length and six and three quarters inches in circumference.

SINGLE MAN IS CREDIT RISK; YOUNG GIRL OPPOSITE

Amarillo, Tex.—The young single man presents the greatest risk to the merchant in extending credit, according to statistics of the Amarillo Business Men's Association. On the other hand, the risk incurred when credit is given young unmarried girls is less than any other class.

The young man who asks for credit usually does so in good faith. When the time for settlement arrives, if he is unable to meet his obligations, he seemingly does not care whether the obligation is met. The girl, however, will make sacrifices that she can ill afford rather than to have it said that she is not good for her promises.

The case of the married man differs. His rating is generally based upon his wife's reputation for economy. As a general rule the wife proves to be an asset to her husband.

Tourists Flock to Paris

Paris, France.—With the coal strike promising a hard blow at winter comforts in England and labor and other disorders in Italy threatening to banish the joys of a winter in Rome, Paris is becoming the social refuge of Europe.

Incoming trains and boats are choked with business, voyagers and American tourists, thousands of whom see all hope of a quick voyage homeward going glimmering as liner after liner is held up because of a shortage of coal at every port from Marseilles to Liverpool.

As a result of this situation the fashionable hotels are refusing guests although the tourist season is normally long past, while facilities at the great restaurants in the center of Paris are strained to accommodate the sudden influx of custom.

J. P. Morgan, at the first sign of the oncoming coal strike, left London precipitately and is now in Paris, holding daily mysterious conferences with heads of the French finance department. The conferences have led to the rumor that another loan has been perfected.

HERE'S SOMETHING THAT WILL PROVE INTERESTING

A perfectly good, fresh stock of tires and tubes offered at cost. Better buy yourself for that tire you need right now before we run out of your size.

The Overland touring cars were reduced $150.00. They are now $1,025.00 delivered, with complete equipment. The factory guarantees this price will not be lowered before June, 1921, and maybe not then. We have used three of these wonderful little cars upwards of four months now for service cars. One of them in particular has been over more miles and rougher roads than the average family car would be put over in two years, and it has held out remarkably well, and is ready for several more four-months periods of hard service. They seem to be made just for this country. Ask for a demonstration.

If you want to buy a used car cheap, come around and let us show you the following:

Chevrolet touring car	$250.00
Ford touring car	425.00
Ford light truck	250.00
Maxwell touring car	500.00
Studebaker touring car	300.00
Denby 2-ton truck	110.00

We have a well equipped repair shop in charge of first-class mechanics. If there is something wrong with your old boat, give us a trial.

Thrown on His Head

Comfort News, Oct. 21: On Sunday, while Erhard Seidensticker was riding a horse through a field on his farm, the animal reared and threw Mr. Seidensticker, who fell on his head.

Fortunately, he landed in plowed ground, but even at that he was stunned by the fall, and sustained sufficient concussion of the brain to impair his speech. He received prompt medical attention, and is gradually recovering from the effects of the shock. The doctor states that Mr. Seidensticker will soon be normal again.

Vote For Better Schools!

Next Tuesday we are going to hold an Election in Texas, one of the purposes of which is to determine whether each school district shall have the right to use as much of its own money as it sees fit for the education of its own children.

If the Amendment fails to pass it will mean disaster to the Rural Schools of Texas.

It is not sufficient for each family to educate its own children. The happiness and safety to life and property depend largely upon the kind of people among whom you live. The perpetuation of a Democratic Government depends upon the education of the masses. If you have done nothing for the Amendment, then in the name of the children---future Citizens of Texas---won't you go to work now and stay on the job to the finish?

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH
Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.
"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."
For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.
If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too.

The Sun hereby announces the candidacy of Walter G. Peterson, who is the Democratic nominee for Assessor. He solicits the suffrage of all the voters of Kerr County, upon a record of efficiency.
The Sun is authorized to announce J. A. Peril as an independent candidate for County Commissioner in the Fourth District of Kerr County.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES
By Father Kemper

Hallow'e'en
This year the Vigil of All Hallow's, or All Saints' Day, falls on Sunday and in consequence Saturday is the appointed fast and abstinence day. On Monday, being a holy day of obligation, there will be no classes at Notre Dame Institute or Our Lady of Guadalupe School. High Mass will be sung at 7:15 a. m., followed by Benediction of the E. L. Sacrament.
Tuesday is All Souls' Day and will be observed in St. Mary's with a Requiem High Mass at 7:15 a. m., for the repose of the soul of the founder of Notre Dame Institute, Mr. Wm. Kemper, and all other deceased benefactors. Special memento will be included for Father J. G. Barrez, former pastor of Kerrville, who died during the year on a visit to his relatives in war-stricken Belgium.

Notre Dame Notes
Miss Margaret Rose Cross, one of the boarders at St. Mary's Convent, enjoyed the visit of her father from San Antonio on Sunday.
Miss Louise C. Strackbein left on Monday for Planterville, where she will conduct the public school, which does not begin till November 2nd.
Mrs. G. A. Stowers, widow of the well-known furniture man, returned recently from a Californian motor trip with her daughters, Bonniel and Hazel. Miss Bonniel has entered the Columbia University to perfect herself in artistic dancing and short story writing. The younger daughter, Hazel, is attending the Gardiner School. Both were missed this summer in our parish and at their ranch beyond town.
Father Kemper motored to San Antonio on last Friday with Mr. Pease, ex-mayor of Corpus Christi, in order to visit his twin nephews, Henry and Willie Voiss, and also Freddie Nyc, at St. Louis College. He met there the Very Rev. Provincial of the Brothers of Mary, Father Traggesser, who accepted the plans for a new building to be constructed immediately. This school started with a record-breaking attendance of 265 High School boarders and had to refuse admittance the first week to over forty applicants.

Notre Dame Provincial
Very Rev. Dr. Chas. L. O'Donnell, C. S. S., a Notre Dame class-mate of Father Kemper, was appointed Provincial of the Holy Cross Order with jurisdiction over several universities and colleges conducted by this community, among them being St. Edward's College at Austin. Father O'Donnell was selected among all the Hoosier poets by the Indiana Legislature to compose the State poem for the Pan-American Exposition. We anticipate a visit from this personal friend of James Whitcomb Riley and Joyce Kilmer on his first southern inspection trip. The former Provincial, Very Rev. Dr. A. Morrissey, who visited Notre Dame Institute a couple of years ago, was made coadjutor Superior General of the entire order with right of succession.
On Thursday of last week, Rev. John Heuel, a Roman class-mate of Father Kemper, and now secretary to Bishop Lynch of Dallas, was received with the latter in a private audience by Pope Benedict XV.

Mrs. Thos. Scoggins came from Houston on Saturday to visit her invalid husband at Dr. Thompson's Sanatorium. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mary Lee, of Our Lady of the Lake Academy at San Antonio. Tom Scoggins Jr., had just returned from a Northern shoe convention, during which time he called on his brother, Conroy, at Notre Dame University.
Miss Hilda Mosel spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mosel. She is holding her position with the San Antonio Public Service Co. at a salary three times as big as she drew during her seven years as teacher at Tivy High School. The manager of Tivy Hotel, Chas. W. Davis, is at this writing seriously ill with tuberculosis. He has a wife and five little children to support, and not a dollar wherewith to secure provisions. It is true that Kerrville has many stranded penniless strangers, but while they are with us, Divine Providence will look favorably upon us for every "drop of water given in His name."
Mrs. Eva Morris of Portland, Ore., is visiting her invalid mother, Mrs. Wm. Brice, at the Tivy Cottage.

Parent-Teachers' Club
At the last meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Club it was voted unanimously to take up the study of Child Welfare and conduct a systematic weighing of each child once a month. The State University furnishes record cards which are sent to the parents, together with the monthly report cards, to be signed and returned to the teacher. A table, showing what a child should weigh at certain ages, is printed on these record cards and enable the parents to ascertain whether their child is up to standard or not.

The club will assist in every way possible and the hearty co-operation of the parents is desired, so by working together we may give to each child health and happiness and at the same time be building a better future citizenship.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Rev. G. M. Macdougall, Rector

Sunday, October 24th, was one of the best days we have had this year. One member said that upon approaching the church the number of cars parked in the vicinity reminded her of a theater, there were so many. There was certainly a fine congregation and several things conspired to make the service unusually interesting. The handsome Processional Cross, presented by one of the church's most devout members, Miss Mae Louise Schreiner, was used for the first time having arrived last week. The staff of the cross is of highly polished oak with joints of bronze, while the cross proper is of burnished brass with a sheen like pure gold. Its entire length is over six feet. Master James Young made an excellent and reverent crucifer, and headed the procession of white vested chorists who wended their way from the Parish House to their place in the choir stalls singing the thrilling hymn, "The Cross Is All Thy Splendor." Before the short service of consecration the rector made a few fitting remarks expressive of deep appreciation of the generous spirit of the young donor of the cross. The inscription chaste engraved on the reverse side reads: "To the Glory of God. Presented by Mae Louise Schreiner, October, 1920."

The Vested Choir, under the competent leadership of Mrs. John Burney, rendered the "Te Deum Laudamus" and the "Venite" in fine style, and the music throughout was thoroughly inspiring. Miss Wallis, a visiting friend, sang the Offertory Solo in a full, rich voice.
A Notice Board with the services of the church, the name of the church and that of the rector, has been placed in position at the front entrance, and with its very churchly appearance, adds a long felt want to the parish. The work of painting and lettering the board was done as a gift by Mr. Wall. The evening service was omitted in order that all who wished might attend the Baptist meeting now in progress.

The rector wishes to express his appreciation of the large box of high-class groceries and vegetables along with a roast of pork which came from one member last week, and the magnificent quarter of mutton which arrived this week. May the blessing that says, "It is more blessed to give than to receive," be theirs in abundance. Nor, while mentioning gifts, must one omit the fine little Jersey cow that arrived from another donor with a heart of gold a few weeks ago.
One prominent citizen the other night when the thunderstorm was at its height said that he thought he had been struck with lightning and was dead. Another still more prominent citizen said with concern: "Did you begin to feel warm?"

Methodist Church Notes
Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Smith return to Kerrville this week from the Annual Conference at San Marcos. Mr. Smith was returned by the Conference to this charge for another year.
The entire membership of the church are delighted to have him as regular pastor, and will extend a cordial welcome to him and Mrs. Smith.

Woman's Society
The Woman's Society of the Presbyterian Church met last Thursday at the church with eighteen present.
The study for the afternoon was on Home Missions, led by Mrs. W. A. Simmons, assisted by Mesdames Jackson, Doyle, Dunbar, Reichert and Harwood. Miss Linette Jeter, a talented reader, who has recently moved to Kerrville, delighted her hearers with a selection appropriate to the occasion.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
J. B. HOLT, Pastor

We are greatly gratified at the splendid co-operation of the community in our revival meeting. The attendance has been fine considering the weather, and every one who attended received a great blessing. Brother Andrews is a great preacher of the Word as all will testify, and Brother Thomas is a soulful singer of the Gospel. These brethren are helping us very much.
Sunday was one of the most spiritual days it has ever been my privilege to pass through. At the morning service five made profession of faith and there was one addition by letter. Mrs. Lavonia B. Dickerson, our new music teacher, united with us at that hour.
By the time this reaches you the meeting will be almost at an end. Let us thank God for every evidence of His Divine presence and power during the meeting. The church is under lasting obligations to the St. Charles Hotel for the splendid gift of the free entertainment of our preacher and singer during the meeting. We are also glad indeed that many of our people had these brethren in their homes for dinner, and others wanted them but they could not get all the way around.

We regret the absence from the city of Brother Smith of the Methodist Church and Brother Dickey of the Presbyterian Church during the meeting.
We thank every one who helped in any way during the meeting, and we are indeed grateful for financial assistance given by so many.

Hunt Happenings
Mr. and Mrs. Will Baldwin spent last Saturday in Kerrville.
Mrs. Lee Hardin, who has been very ill with appendicitis, is reported some better.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crow visited Mr. and Mrs. Phillips on their South Fork Ranch this week.
Mrs. Harris Hardin has returned from a several weeks' visit to friends in San Antonio and Houston.
J. W. Mayhew, from Louisville, Ky., has been here the past week, the guest of his brother, Zeb Mayhew.
Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Walsh and Dr. and Mrs. E. W. McCamish and children of San Antonio are spending the week-end at La Junta, the ranch home of Dr. Walsh.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crider and son, William, have returned from an extended visit to Mr. Crider's sister Mrs. Moore, at Bandera and are again located at their ranch on the South Fork.
Since the fall crops have all been harvested, school attendance has increased about 25 per cent. Last Friday afternoon, a splendid program was rendered by the members of the Literary Society recently organized. Open meetings of the society will be held every two weeks, when special programs will be given for the parents and friends of the school.

Will Drill in Gas Well
San Antonio Express: The National Production & Refining Company will probably drill in its gas well near Three Rivers within the next two weeks or as soon as the cement sets and necessary tools arrive. The gas will be brought in at a depth of 871 feet and immediately afterward the company expects to drill for oil at around 700 feet, where it was encountered in the first well.
The well is known as the Stitz No. 1 and a showing of oil is said to have been encountered at about 500 feet. Casing was set at 700 feet and a smaller hole carried on down and casing set at 871, the smaller casing having been set from the top of the ground. Later oil in small quantities came out at the top between the two casings and the company believes that this shallow oil is in sufficient quantities to be developed.

PILING UP HAPPINESS

DOES each year find you wishing and hoping for better things in the future—and regretting lack of accomplishment in the past?

There is one sure way to fill your horn of plenty to the brim with all the good things of life. It entails no sacrifice now. It merely means the forming of a good habit.

Save! That good old formula for success is as true now as when it helped build the fortunes of our pioneer railroad builders, manufacturers and promoters.

Applying it on a small scale in your own way will bring you results in proportion.

MORAL OBLIGATION STRONGER

Our Supreme Court holds in the suffrage case that those who participate in a primary are not legally bound to support the nominees of that primary, meaning thereby there is no legal punishment that can be administered to a voter who violates his party pledge; but this holding of the court does not relieve the voter from the moral obligation he voluntarily assumed when he entered the primary, and the moral obligation should be held above any statutory provision that could possibly be enacted. To hold otherwise would render our primary system ridiculous and without force—a farce pure and simple.

Beyond question, it is the duty of every voter who participated in the recent Democratic primary, to support

DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE SEEMS ASSURED

"You can say to the people of Texas that they will have plenty of company when they roll up their mammoth Democratic majority on November 2, for victory is now absolutely assured."

The above is a message of great importance which Gov. Cox sent from Baltimore. He meant every word of the message; they should believe in it. Democrats should believe in the man who uttered it.

Never before has a presidential candidate made as remarkable a campaign as has Mr. Cox; practically alone until the last few weeks, he has fought the fight of the party, until, by his perseverance and display and strength, big men of the country, as well as the rank and file, have rallied to his support.

Nay, some have been driven to the fold.

Anyway, Democrats are beginning to sit up and take notice of their leader—and do not forget, the Republicans are doing likewise, but for different reasons. Somebody's political fence is about to tumble.

It should be a pleasant duty for the Democrats of this country to help Mr. Cox finish the campaign. He started it and almost had to finish. The spoken word and the ready dollar will help make the finish a credit to Governor Cox and to Democracy.

Read this:

"Yes, and there is every manifestation of a landslide for the league," said Governor Cox in speaking of his fight for Democracy's plan for world peace. "Four months ago the Republicans were so sure that this was a 'cinch' for them that a few members of the Senate oligarchy met in a smoke-filled room, nominated a 'stuffed shirt' for the presidency and decided that the Senate cavel should take over that great office."

On every hand, optimistic reports indicate the success which Governor Cox deserves and will command November 2nd.

SCHOOL AMENDMENT DOES NOT RAISE TAXES

It should be made clear to all voters that the proposed school amendment does not RAISE taxes. It is a LOCAL OPTION measure. Those who favor local self-government cannot consistently vote against this measure, for it grants to each district the privilege of deciding whether it will or will not provide good schools for its children. Voters of large cities, incorporated under the general law, should be made to understand that this amendment does not affect their schools, and should be appealed to, to grant to the country people the same privilege which the Texas Constitution enables their own schools to enjoy. Rural voters should be apprised of the fact that the State Constitution discriminates against them in this respect, and should be urged to place the country on an equality with the city as to school privileges.

25-CENT WOOL

A report came from Del Rio Tuesday of this week, to the effect that wool that had been shipped from Del Rio to Boston had sold in Boston for 25 cents a pound. And the news seems to be authentic. It came as quite a shock to the local stockmen, this being a very low price. But if things the ranchman must buy continue to go down in price the ranchmen will be able to get by on it, especially if they have to. And Mr. Schreiner is not being knocked any more for selling a lot of wool for 30 cents—Edwards County Leader, October 22nd.

The Schreiner Wool & Mohair Commission Company have not sold any wool this season as low as 30 cents, as 35 cents was the lowest price of any marketed. It seems that some influence in Edwards County—though possibly not instigated locally—takes special delight in misrepresenting the Schreiner Wool & Mohair Commission Company. However, such unfair practices appear to hurt those indulging in them more than those aimed at, as the receipts of wool and mohair at the Schreiner Company's warehouse are as large or exceed those of any season up to date.

Dear News: We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than someone's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a fair price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar our citizen makes will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.

The 15-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Caton of Medina died Monday night at the local hospital, where he had been brought for pleurisy. Since having the influenza last winter the boy had been in ill health. The remains were taken to Medina for burial. It was an only child, and Mr. and Mrs. Caton have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Miss Ouida Dunbar received a message from Memphis, Tex, Tuesday stating that her sister, Vera Mae, was to be married to Adell Elliott Tuesday evening. Fredericksburg Flashes Standard, Oct. 23—Aug. Ahrens was aroused last Wednesday night by the barking of his dogs. Upon investigating he found that a big rattlesnake was seeking a getaway in his yard.

Last Saturday, while Wm. Itz and his son, Benno, were hunting hogs on the Geistweidt Ranch in the Hilda community, they found a hog that was torn up considerably. As they were riding away discussing how the hog had met its fate, suddenly to their surprise, they discovered a large Mexican lion in a tinnet. They shot the animal before it could escape. It measured 5 feet and 7 inches from tip to tip and weighed 230 pounds.

On Monday 58 head and on Tuesday 87 head of dairy cattle were shipped from here to Houston. Messrs. Jno. Heep and Jno. Ostrow accompanied these shipments. These cattle, 66 head from Gillespie County and 79 head from Mason County, will be shipped by the American Dairy Cattle Co. of Chicago to Germany to relieve the shortage of milk which children particularly need so badly. Several head of cattle have not been delivered from our county, and these will be shipped at a later date. The local Red Cross Chapter donated two cows for this purpose.

An Easy Way to Get Bigger Grain Yields with Less Seed

Planting with a grain drill, instead of with a broadcast seeder will cause you no more work, in fact, considerably less, and in a short time the saving in seed will pay for the drill.

That, in itself, is sufficient reason why we want you to see the John Deere-Van Brunt Grain Drill we have on display. There are other reasons that apply only to the Van Brunt. This drill has a patented, adjustable gate force feed that successfully handles any size seed from alfalfa to bearded oats without choking.

The force feed compels the seed to leave the grain box in even continuous streams and the seed is protected until it reaches the bottom of the furrow.

That is why a field planted with a Van Brunt Drill makes such a pleasing appearance to the eye—and why it adds extra money to your bank account. All of the grain is ready for harvest at one time. There are no bare spots in the field and you can feel absolutely sure that no seed is wasted in planting. Come in and let us show you how easy it is to regulate the flow of seed so that an equal amount is placed in each furrow—simply moving a lever regulates the quantity sown.

VOTE AND WORK FOR THE SCHOOL AMENDMENT ON NOVEMBER 2ND.

(By Annie Webb Blanton, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.)
NEED OF MANY WORKERS.

It is when we try to inform the people of Texas as to the merits of any measure that we realize that Texas is not really a state—it is an empire. Compare the Lone Star State, with its 252 counties, with its neighbor, Oklahoma, which has 77 counties, or with tiny Delaware, which has three. It soon becomes obvious that to give adequate publicity to even the most meritorious measure, an army of workers is needed.

When we remember, further, that the general attitude in Texas has been to vote against constitutional amendments, we realize that the patriotic citizens of Texas must go out into the highways and byways to arouse the necessary enthusiasm for the educational amendment to make it the notable exception to the rule its friends all predict it will prove to be.

NATURE OF THE AMENDMENT.

Texas now has a district tax limit of fifty cents on the hundred dollars of property valuation. Only two states, Texas and Virginia, have so low a limit. Half of the states of the Union have no limit on the tax that districts may vote for school purposes. The unjust side of this tax limit is that while large cities are exempt from this provision, the village school and the country school are shackled by its terms. The proposed amendment to article 3 of section VII of the constitution will grant the same privilege to all schools—it will permit the country school district as well as the city to vote for its schools such support as it deems necessary.

THE AMENDMENT DOES NOT RAISE TAXES.

The proposed amendment does not raise taxes, nor does it permit any school board to increase taxes. It simply leaves each district free to continue its present support to its schools, or to increase this support, if it chooses. Before any tax can be increased, the rate must be decided by a vote of the taxpayers of the district. This amendment is, therefore, a measure of local self-government.

ATTITUDE OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES.

The state democratic convention of 1920, at its recent meeting in Fort Worth, endorsed the passage of this amendment as a part of the platform of the democratic party. The republican candidate for governor, in a recent address, stated that he would prefer that the people of Texas should fail to vote for him than to fail to vote for this amendment. At this writing, other parties have not expressed their attitude.

A MISTAKEN IMPRESSION.

A few persons have expressed the opinion that, since their districts receive from the state more than they pay to the state, it would be best to vote against the amendment, and let the state support their schools. The mistake in this is (1) that the state can not and will not continue to support those who do not help themselves and (2) that such an attitude is condemned by most of the right-minded patriotic citizens of the state. The four million dollar appropriation was made by the legislature over the emergency until the amendment can pass. The legislature will have no convenient surplus next year, to appropriate for the tax rate has been lowered. Moreover, many members of the legislature have declared that, if the people vote down this amendment in November, they will make no more appropriations to the schools from the general revenue. Some of them have asserted that they will even vote to discontinue the two-million-dollar appropriation for rural schools. If the amendment fails to pass, the schools will have no recourse. Two thousand of them closed their doors last year. Our teachers will flock to other states, where a living wage is offered. Many have already gone.

STATE SUPPORT THE SAME FOR CITY AND COUNTRY SCHOOLS.

The politicians frequently harp on the difference in support of country and city schools. This difference lies in local support. The state gives the same per capita for the country and the city child. It favors the country child, in that it makes a special appropriation of two million dollars for rural schools. While Texas stands tenth in state support of schools, it ranks as forty-fourth in local support. Shall this continue?

OUR RANK IN EDUCATION.

The Russell Sage Foundation in its recent investigation of all the states of the Union ranks Texas as thirty-ninth in education. Shall a state that is first in size, first in agricultural products, third in production of oil, and seventh in wealth be satisfied to remain thirty-ninth in education?

DANGER TO DEMOCRACY.

Texas is about ten per cent illiterate. Twenty-five per cent of our children do not advance beyond the fourth grade. The average is the sixth grade. That means that, in future, we shall have a sixth grade citizenship. The only safeguard of the democratic institutions founded by our forefathers, the best protection against bolshevism, the wisest economy for the state, is education. Give the country boy and girl a fair chance! Work and vote for the Better Schools Amendment on November 2nd.

Why Not a Fighting Chance?

There is none of America's boasted "equality of opportunity" for the children of Texas today.

Two boys, let us say, are born into the world, equal mentally, physically, and morally.

One goes to school in a shanty, presided over by a poorly paid, poorly educated girl in her "teens" who has so many "grades" that real teaching is impossible. The boy is without the advantages of good books, manual training shops, experimental apparatus, physical examinations, physical training, or the instruction of a well balanced, cultured teacher of high ideals.

The other boy attends a well-supported two or three-room country school, presided over by professional, experienced teachers. Later he is sent to the consolidated rural high school made possible by the foresight and progressive views of the community's patrons and trustees. This school is equipped with a good library, shops, gymnasium and a plot for experimental farming. There is a physical director and students are examined so that any incipient eye, nose, throat or other bodily trouble is arrested before becoming chronic.

The two boys, born "free and equal," in neighboring communities reach the age of 21. One, possessing the assurance that is the hand-maiden of wholesome knowledge, has developed into a vigorous, contented, progressive, dependable farmer, an honor to his community, his state, and his country. The other is a shiftless, diseased, dissatisfied, shame-faced ne'er-do-well, a burden to his family and a menace to his community.

Whose is the blame?

Remember that, the difference in support of schools rests with the local patrons, not with the state. The state gives the same per capita to every child in Texas; but it favors the country child in that it makes a special appropriation of $2,000,000 for rural schools.

"Why Can't We Have Good Schools in the Country?"

One of the school supervisors of the state department of education recently talked to a young girl on the train, who lives on a farm in the black land belt. She was a girl of about fourteen, whose square little body and straightforward sincerity of eye indicated unusual physical and mental strength. She said she loved her farm home although the work of cooking, canning, washing and ironing, sewing and sometimes working in the field was heavy. She did not mind the work, but she wanted more than anything to go to school in order that she might be a teacher.

The year before she had finished the sixth grade which was as high as the school in her district went.

CASHING IN

Saturday Evening Post: The bomb that burst in Wall Street in September was heard all over the country. The thoughtless, the heedless and the foolish—all those whose attention can be secured only by a loud noise—stopped to listen and to ask: "What's happened? What's the matter?"

Nothing new or surprising has happened—nothing that has not been happening for some years now. We are cashing in on thoughtlessness, heedlessness and foolishness—and there are too many red chips in our stack.

For two years bombs have been bursting all round us, undermining industry and attacking the foundations of the Government itself. The New York explosion killed a handful of innocent working people and destroyed a small amount of property. Those other bombs have killed their thousands and have wiped out hundreds of millions of the country's working capital. These shocked and questioning citizens, having ears, but very little above them, heard the noise in Wall Street, but failed to hear and grasp the significance of the explosions that preceded it—the striking, the profiteering, the slacking, the grabbing, the boring from within and the hell-raising from without.

Now we are cashing in on our ignorance and indifference, or the demagogism and bolshevism that have grown out of them, on our failure to do our duty as voters and citizens. We have been too busy with our business to explain it, to defend it and to save it; too wrapped up in enjoying the pleasures, the opportunities and the liberties that America has given us to fight for them.

As a result, we have a generation of anti-American propaganda to counteract; a vast number of subtle fallacies that are being accepted as axioms to expose; a mass of lies that have almost become vested interests to nail; a propaganda of hate and destruction to meet with a counter-propaganda of truth.

To assume even theoretical perfection for any human system is the sheerest nonsense. As opposed to the bad, the worse and the worst of socialism, communism and anarchy, there can be only a good, a better and a best. Judged solely by results, for the pink, red and crimson systems are all in operation in different parts of the world, government on the American plan—even though the service could be vastly improved—is that good, better and best. But it can never be one hundred per cent good with a fifty per cent leadership and voters who are ninety-nine per cent interested in other things.

Business is the blood and the brawn of every nation. Science works unceasingly to serve it and statesmanship to find new fields for its expansion, though too often blindly and stupidly, through physical conquest, mandates, protectorates and spheres of influence. Contending systems of government are at root contending systems of business. Discarding verbiage and verbiage, flowers of speech and dead cats of denunciation, we find this basic proposition: A has worked, saved, managed and acquired goods and land. B wants goods and land, but he is unwilling or unable to work, save and manage for them, to secure them by a combination of skill and self-denial. So he demands that the government be changed to fit his deficiencies. If all the silk shirts and other forms of foolishness into which the high wages of the past five years have been put were now in the savings banks the laboring man could buy a tremendous stake in the land and the industry of the country. But he who lacks the brains to deny himself and to save when times are easy lacks the brains to keep a business going, especially when times are hard. It is much simpler to make a success than to keep one.

The country's business is what the malcontent is really after, and he believes that his prosperity is assured if he can take it over. So his attacks, no matter what guise or disguise they assume, are really on our business system.

Naturally in an affair like business, that has its roots in the fundamental struggle for existence, that from its very nature engages so many elemental human instincts and passions, there are plenty of weak spots plenty of opportunities for just criticism, plenty of openings for destructive attack. Considering the absolutely unchangeable motives and instincts that must always be at the base of business, we have less reason to wonder that there are some rotten spots in the system, some rascals prospering unduly under it, than that on the whole it is so sound, so clean, so honestly and honorably conducted. There are many blind, greedy, dishonest and incompetent men in business today, but they are not half so blind, greedy, dishonest and incompetent as the red leaders who would displace them.

Because so many people will believe anything bad that they are told, because so many will believe anything that carries with it a promise of unearned gain to themselves, because the world is so given to generalizing from particular instances, American business, that has on the whole functioned admirably, that should have the intelligent approval of the people for the wide prosperity that it has brought to the Nation and their discriminating disapproval of the bad that is in it, has been indiscriminately abused, blackguarded, hampered and held up.

Because from time to time some men at the head of big businesses have proved crooked we have allowed the enemies of our social order to charge, and we have half believed, that all big business men are crooked. Because in the past some of our railroad systems have been looted we have rather generally credited the continuing lie that looting is the sport of railroad kings. Because Wall Street is the address of some unscrupulous speculators and dishonest promoters we have half accepted the fiction that all Wall Street men are unscrupulous and dishonest. Because some of our legislators have been corner-grocery orators of parochial mind and small-change experience, who never before were able to earn so much money as they receive in office, and do not believe that anyone else could earn more honestly; because they understand little of the intricacies of commerce, and suspect and distrust everything that they cannot understand, we have come to believe that size is sin and that what we cannot do is necessarily wrong or dishonest.

Starting in a small way a generation ago, this propaganda has been spread through radical parties and papers, through pinks and reds, and a lot of the stuff has stuck, not only in the minds of the ignorant but also in the minds of those who should, and also too often do, know better. The demagogue has found that we are all willing to attribute our failures to the machinations of the "money trust" and our inability to make good in bigger jobs to the plottings of "the system," so in every sentence he builds up his bogies and calls on the people to knock them down; the radical labor leader has found in trouble making between employer and employee a source of continuing place and power, so he tries to keep the pot boiling over; the timid politician who wants to hold his job has found that the way to hold it is to tell the voters what he thinks they want to hear. Corporation baiting has become the easiest way to an easy life, with the best baiter hooking the biggest fish.

There is plenty of corruption and waste in business, but the good—and it preponderates—should not be restrained along with the bad. Big business and little business, farmers and storekeepers, white-collar men and silk-shirt mechanics, average out about the same in human nature. But the tendency toward sound methods is, if anything, more pronounced in big than in little business, because the former is under closer observation, is more stringently regulated and stands to lose more for its sins.

This long campaign of selection, suppression and misrepresentation contributed to the making of the Wall Street bomb. The red and pink press in greater or less degree, deliberately or unwittingly helped along the work. The average business man does not see the radical press or the mass of red publications—leaflets, pamphlets and books. He does not know that tons of literature, printed in every known language, are circulating daily through shops, mines, camps and homes, picturing him as a thief and an oppressor of the poor, and America as a land of slaves and slave drivers. The wording of this stuff is clever and careful when it has to go through the mails, but the meaning and the intent are there. The man in the street has been told, but only half believes; that the red borers are busy in factories and mines and homes, working noiselessly and tirelessly to make trouble between capital and labor—any kind of trouble, for hate is the first lesson in red education.

Nothing was neglected that might contribute its mite to the making of the bomb. The red leader is by nature an opportunist, because everything that stirs up discontent, strikes and class hatred makes for his ends. He is glad to have those who will not see red see pink; those who will not stand for communism espouse socialism; those who will not swallow socialism demand government ownership; those who believe in private ownership taught to parrot phrases like: "The rich are growing richer and the poor poorer; there's no justice for the poor man; the corporations own the Government; the workers are wage slaves; and so on, though not a single one of these statements will stand analysis. The doctrinaires, the extremists of theoretical perfection, who have led theoretical lives, whose idealism ignores the proved facts and unbeatable rules of life, are often through their very sincerity able allies of the forces of disorder. There is no ignorance so profound as the secondhand experience of the cloistered man, no knowledge that is so much revised by practice as that taught in his books.

We are cashing in, too, on our immigration policy—our carelessness as to whom and how many we let in, and our indifference as to where they go and what they do, once they are in. We have a tremendous job on our hands to Americanize those who are here—a generation or two of hard work ahead of us. Then what of these new hordes? Is there really any good reason for us to bring them in to help us exploit our rapidly diminishing resources, to pump out our oil reserves faster, so that we can buy more automobiles and burn more gas? To cut down the last forest to make more lumber to house more undigestible citizens? To speed up to get out more ore to smelt so that we can build more ships to bring over more men to work in the steel mills? Why not develop what is left of our country slowly, sanely, safely and solidly?

In the haste to get rich quick, business overreaches itself and works toward its own destruction. Heretofore, one great source of our strength, one great bulwark of our nation, has been our vast store of undeveloped resources, our wide spaces of unsettled country. In the crowded manufacturing nations of Europe man lives under artificial conditions and with the basic processes and limitations of business obscured. Here we have always been close to first causes, getting out the raw material of civilization and seeing and learning at first hand the foundations and the inexorable rules of business. Most native-born Americans who made their own way developed a saving quality that we called horse sense. It was based on a personal knowledge of first principles. The fallacies of the red, the false premises on which they are based, have no chance with one who is endowed with this quality. But it becomes scarcer as men crowd into the cities and dilute their old Americanism with the new Europeanism.

Something is wrong, insists the man who is looking for a remedy—and who has one all ready to spring. Something is wrong and something always will be wrong. Radical systems are wrong because they are based on wrongs—wrong that nothing can correct, because they are wrongs of distribution—not of wealth, though there are wrongs in that, but wrongs of distribution by Nature, of unequal apportionment of brains, muscle and moral fiber. The American system of government is based on rights—the right to equal justice, equal opportunity, and the right to work honestly for anything you want.

Government is not perfect, business is not perfect, but both are better than their detractors credit them with being, both better than anything their detractors could achieve. We need stronger leadership—leadership that is neither radical nor reactionary, but moderate. One trouble with leadership, not only in America but the world over, is that the men who have the best organizing and managerial brains rarely occupy important posts in public life. Statesmen and diplomats, whose first concern must be with trade, are seldom business men. They are almost invariably members of the professional classes—elements that should be in the picture, but not the whole show.

Business must fight its enemies, but it must fight with clean hands. War must be waged not only on the enemies without but on the enemies within its ranks, whose greed, unfairness or dishonesty furnishes the radicals with their texts against all business. Then the demagogues, the red press and the whole crew of bomb makers can be shown up and cleaned out.

With all its faults, business has more to be proud of than to apologize for. But it has been on the defensive so long that it has almost come to believe that there is something immoral about building up a prosperous enterprise, something that is not quite what it should be about trade, something almost indecent about a big business. A loud-mouthed minority of demagogues, ignoramuses and reds have cowed business, crippled it and put it on the defensive. It is now cashing in on its past cowardice. It still has plenty of chips left, but unless it takes the offensive it will cash in for keeps—busted.

CENTER POINT COMMENTS

By W. D. Burney

Mrs. N. O. Reynolds is spending a few weeks at Marlin. James McElroy returned to Ponca City after a two weeks' visit to relatives here.

F. C. Nelson, manager of the Center Point Mercantile Co., went to San Antonio Tuesday on business for his firm.

A. F. Loessin, representing the Daily Express of San Antonio, spent several days in Center Point last week.

Tom Morrow from Princeton, Collins County, is visiting his sister, Miss Ora Morrow. He thinks of locating here if he can find employment.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Harris arrived here last week from Gonzales. They come to try the virtues of our climate and expect to remain here through the winter.

M. K. Hood was in Center Point last week visiting home folk. He had just returned from the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Mr. Hood reports all that country on a great boom.

The Center Point Garage changed hands this week, having been bought by W. H. Witt and T. L. Cox. J. T. Hill, the former owner, retains his blacksmith business and will continue the same at the old stand.

The rains of the past few days have put an excellent season in the ground and it will not be many days now until our fields will be clad in a coat of green as the wheat and oats begin to grow. Quite a large part of the land is being put in wheat and oats this fall.

W. P. Cowden returned last week from Hollis, Okla., where he had gone to accompany the remains of W. R. Coldwell, who died in San Antonio. Mr. Coldwell being a member of the local camp, W. O. W., the camp sent Mr. Cowden to accompany the body to the old home for burial.

Mrs. Ann E. Nowlin had the pleasure of a visit last week from her son, Dan C. Nowlin, whose home is in Wyoming. Mr. Nowlin left here about thirty-five years since, seeking his fortune in the wild Northwest, and this is his second visit to the home folk since he first went away.

The Center Point School, with the aid of the Mothers' Club, will give an entertainment at the school house on Friday evening, the 29th inst., to which the public is invited. There will be plenty to eat and drink, and we understand that ex-Congressman Martin Dies of Kerrville will make an address.

WHISKEY COST 16 1/2 CENTS A GALLON IN THE OLD DAYS

Austin, Tex., Oct. 25.—Shades of profiteers and merciless bootleggers know that whiskey was bought for 16 1/2 cents per gallon, sugar for 4 1/2 cents per pound and raisins at 4 1/2 cents per pound, sold by New Orleans firm to the State Lunatic Asylum in Austin on June 10, but in the year 1866.

This fact came to light when City Commissioner J. W. Graham, known to the Rotarians as "Dad," found an old invoice of the date mentioned, when his father, the late Dr. B. Graham, was superintendent of the asylum in this city. Whiskey at $100 per gallon, sugar at 14 cents per pound and raisins at present prices are in sad contrast to the figures of yesterday. The invoice reads: One 40-gallon keg of distilled whiskey, at 16 1/2 cents per gallon, $6.77. The sugar was quoted at $18 for a 400-pound barrel and the raisins at $2.50 for a 40-pound box.

Minister Fasts to Convert Daughter

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 23.—Kentucky has an unique hunger striker. The Rev. Joseph Woodriddle, who has ministerial charge in the Russell County Mountains, has not eaten for 27 days, and he said today he would never eat again unless his young daughter, a school teacher, became converted and joined a church.

Six weeks ago, Rev. Woodriddle started a revival of the Denmark charge near his home. While other converts came up the sawdust trail, his own daughter refused to hear his pleas. Then he announced publicly his intention of ceasing to eat unless she, too, was converted.

The Rev. Mr. Woodriddle then stopped taking nourishment. Now, he is barely able to walk. Meanwhile the daughter, unruffled, apparently, by the unusual case continues to hold her school sessions.

L. Nikola, Lutheran pastor, requests that The Sun announce his church will celebrate Mission Festival next Sunday, October 31st, at Kerrville. German services will be held at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and English services in the evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited.

OUR POLICY IS NOT TO SIDE STEP

Did you ever notice how peculiar most of us humans are in the matter of sidestepping? The man who can't play golf dubs it "an old man's game"; the chap who can't dance will side step a two-step and ask his partner to "sit it out" with him; the man who never had the pluck or price to go to Europe shouts "See America First!" One of the firmest policies of this firm is not to side step. We tell you what we have and we tell you the whole truth, not half truths. We don't claim to be infallible—all we can do is to try to have everything you want just when you want it and at prices that are reasonable. You may be sure that anything and everything you purchase from us is just as represented. If for any reason you think you have not received value for your money, bring back the goods. If you don't want them we don't want you to have them. We spend a lot of time studying your needs and means, and when we put anything in our stock you may be sure it is worth all we ask, most times a little more. We step straight ahead successfully, because our policy is never to side step.

Drilling in Bandera County

Hondo, Tex., Oct. 27.—The Graham well, on the Britsch lease, being drilled by Roberts et al., is down 220 feet. It is just over the line in Bandera County.

The exact location of this test is 300 feet north of an old abandoned water well in which it is said a good showing of oil and gas once was encountered at about 20 feet.

George Uhl of San Antonio spent the week-end in Kerrville. He leaves November 1st for the City of Mexico, where he goes as a member of a firm of architects, a branch of the McKenzie Construction Company, with whom he has been associated in the building of the Tubercular Sanatorium below Kerrville. Mr. Uhl made many friends during his stay here, who wish him success in his new field of labor.

Banks Form Corporation

Washington, D. C.—Relief is promised cotton growers to the extent of $60,000,000 through a new corporation organized by members of the American Bankers' Association here.

The corporation will be chartered at once under the Edge act, with $12,000,000 capital, 50 per cent, or $6,000,000 of which will become immediately available. Corporations created under this act are empowered to do business to the extent of ten times their actual subscribed capital.

Subscription Honor Roll

The following have either subscribed or renewed the past week to The Kerrville Mountain Sun:

W. H. Burrell, L. Reif, Mrs. L. Hook, Mrs. Fred Evertson, Mrs. B. Brautigam, L. M. Ballinger, Miss Kate Frazier, J. H. Ward and B. F. Denton, Kerrville; F. B. Klein, Hunt; Jno. Reinhard, Comfort; West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Stamford; Mrs. Mary F. Davis, Valparaiso, Ind.

J. F. McCann of Victoria, a noted artist, who is spending several weeks sketching the beauties of the Hill Country, has gone up the river to Harris Hardin's for a few days to investigate the scenic possibilities of the Upper Guadalupe.

WHAT HAPPENS

When a Canal Cannot Do Its Work?

IF YOU ever were on an irrigated farm, you have seen that a system of canals kept that farm supplied with water. You have seen also what a contrast there was in the plants along one canal able to distribute its water properly and the plants along another canal unable to distribute water properly. On one hand you saw plants that were sturdy and vigorous; on the other you saw the same kind of plants wilted and well-nigh dead.

THE CAUSE? One canal was clear of obstructions; the other canal was not. What should the farmer do—"doctor" his wilted plants or clear their canal and let nature restore the plants? Well, is there any reason why disease should be treated some other way?

Disease of the body, like disease in plants, is a result of being deprived of life-giving energy. In the case of plants, it is water; in the case of one's body, it is nerve energy. REMOVE THE CAUSE that obstructs the flow of either, and health will replace disease. It is not quite so simple, however, to locate the cause of disease as to locate the cause of the wilting plants.

In the case of the plants, one need only follow the canal that should provide those plants with water and he will find its water obstructed. He can remove that obstruction himself. In the case of disease, an obstruction must be found, too, but one's body conceals it and it is discovered ONLY by the trained touch of the Competent Chiropractor or by the all-seeing eye of the Marvelous X-Ray.

Just like the canals that supply a farm with water, there are a system of nerves that ramify to every part of one's body. These nerves distribute the nerve energy that sustains life; they receive that energy from larger nerves that emit from openings on each side of one's spine; and they, in turn, receive it from one's brain. Now, if a jolt, jerk, jar, or anything should move these openings out of alignment, the spine at that opening begins to pinch the large nerve at that point. So long as this continues, a normal flow of nerve force CANNOT pass through that nerve, and disease results—just as plants wilt when denied the flow of moisture they need.

Therefore, the VALUE of the services of a Competent Doctor of Chiropractic. Several years' training has taught him where to locate the CAUSE of the trouble; and, having found it, how to REMOVE IT, with consequent relief to a sufferer. He doesn't attempt to "doctor" the particular part of the body that is diseased; he REMOVES THE CAUSE so that part of the body may obtain what it needs, then nature takes care of the condition just as it takes care of the plant. Don't aggravate your condition by WAITING; see a Chiropractor NOW.
