THANKSGIVING DAY PROCLAIMED BY GOV. NEFF

Executive Calls Upon People of State to Give Thanks for Many Blessings, Thursday, November 30.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 25.—Governor Neff has issued a proclamation, officially designating Thursday, November 30th, as Thanksgiving Day. He urges the people of Texas on that day to "gather about their home firesides, their church altars, or in their public forums" and thank God for the "abundant manifestations of His goodness and mercy."

This is the text of the proclamation:

Causes for Reflection

As the somber days of autumn come, with yellowing leaves, harvested fields and leaden skies, our thoughts turn in reflective meditation to the bleak New England shores where the Pilgrim Fathers, in solitude of trackless forest and on the grim, gray, barren coast, first knelt in thanksgiving to Almighty God for deliverance by His hand from the oppression of autocratic government, and for the meager physical blessings of a precarious existence. From these primitive days until now, the custom has prevailed. We of this generation, in this State, have uniformly continued its observance.

Thanksgiving Day, old as it is, takes on almost each year a new meaning. Events have given to it lately a significance nearer that of pioneer days as we have seen the danger that threatened our forefathers and routed them from their European homes lift itself from its long hiding place and menace the liberty they established in this new land. As they were delivered, so were we, though by effort and sacrifice, in the aggregate, manifoldly greater than theirs. As they were thankful for a raw New World without institutions, organizations, or government and without wealth or means to supply physical life except as they wrung it from stern nature by manual effort, manifoldly more ought we to be thankful for developed America with its churches and school houses crowning a thousand hills and nestling in as many valleys; with its hospitals, asylums and homes for the helpless; with its civic and benevolent organizations for the help of mankind everywhere; with its science, invention and art revealing the hidden forces of nature and harnessing them for the service of man, in supplying conveniences and relieving the drudgery of home, office and farm; with its hum of factories swelling in the musical whirl of a million machines; with its trade whitening the seas with the sails of a thousand ships bearing our products to all the world; with its wealth, culture and happiness incomparably surpassing that of any other people.

Thursday is Designated
In deference to the long standing custom of our people, and in response to their universal desire to set apart one day of the year as a day for Thanksgiving and prayer, I, Pat M. Neff, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby designate Thursday, the 30th day of November, 1922,

THANKSGIVING DAY throughout the State. Let all who reside within the broad borders of Texas on that day turn aside from their customary occupations, and with spirit filled with reverence and gratitude to Almighty God for His boundless mercy and the innumerable blessings He has bestowed upon us, gather about their home firesides, their church altars or in their public forums and let their voices and prayers ascend to God in fervent thanks for the abundant manifestations of His goodness and mercy, and in humble supplication for a continuance of His benevolent protection and provision for our spiritual welfare and physical needs.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of our State to be hereon impressed at the City of Austin, Texas, this 21st day of November, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Twenty-two.

PAT M. NEFF,
Governor of Texas.
Attest: S. L. STAPLES,
Secretary of State.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE TO BE AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The churches of Kerrville will unite in a Thanksgiving service this Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. F. A. White, pastor of the Methodist Church.

The program will be as follows:

"My Country 'Tis of Thee"; invocation, Dr. G. M. Macdougall; song by the congregation; Scripture reading; hymn; prayer, Dr. J. B. Holt; special music by choir; sermon; offering for relief of needy; special music by choir; benediction, Rev. F. A. White.

True gratitude for kindness is a mark of noble character; ingratitude is the ugliest mark of a base soul.

If we people of the Hill Country will, for one day, think of the numberless blessings which we enjoy, instead of dwelling upon the things which irritate us, or the other things which we would like to have, we would burst out in thanks-giving to the Great Giver of all good things.

If we would spend an hour in comparing the condition of our country, our business, our homes with the condition of the millions of Europe and the East, we could not find words to express the praise that would rise in our hearts to God Almighty for His goodness to us.

Let us for this day think of "All His Benefits" and as we "Count our many blessings, count them one by one, let us not fail to assemble ourselves together and publicly offer our thanksgiving in His house.

Miss Schreiner Introduced

The decorations and arrangements of the hanging vines were exquisite, and typically Italian, at the parties given Wednesday of last week, at the St. Anthony Hotel in San Antonio by Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Schreiner, at the formal presentation of their daughter, Miss Mae Louise Schreiner.

Peacock Alley was wrought more homelike by a lavish use of oriental rugs, deep upholstered chairs and divans. A lattice of white, festooned in Southern smiles, formed a screen for the lower end of the room, where roses and chrysanthemums vied in their beauty for first place. Windows were filled with silver baskets of roses, while on tables and the floor were tall baskets of chrysanthemums.

The hall leading into the ball room resembled in miniature hot house, a hedge on each side of palms, and in front of these masses of roses and chrysanthemums. A panoramic view of the spacious ball room resembled a luxurious drawing room, rugs of rare weaves being placed at intervals, while at hand were comfortable chairs and lounges.

Mrs. Schreiner stood just within the ball room, smiling with her Miss Schreiner and the immediate family of the honoree. Tall flare baskets with massings of chrysanthemums formed a background for the receiving party.

In the center of the room was a long Italian table on which rested a dark green willow basket filled with Columbia roses and ferns, also hereon were placed silver candlesticks holding green tapers. In the windows and on tables were silver baskets of roses and chrysanthemums filling the lower spaces, all along the length of the room, alternating with floor lamps shaded in rose. The walls were hidden by drapery of Southern smilax, and the wall sconces were surrounded by bouquets of midget chrysanthemums. At the far end of this room the debutantes were introduced, standing just in front of this green smilax background.

In the tapestry this same intermingling of pink roses with yellow and orchid chrysanthemums was observed. On the table at either end was placed the coffee and tea service, where close friends of Mrs. Schreiner presided, also hereon was a large basket filled to overflowing with roses and ferns, its handle wound in a garland of pumosa. At the four corners of the table were tall silver candlesticks holding pink wax tapers.

The cake table, placed near the entrance, was most attractive, holding individual cakes in the form of baskets and crescents embossed in the daintiest Dresden flowers.

Many attractive costumes were worn, rich in chiffon, brocades, velvets and glittering with beads, pearls and sequins.

TIVY HIGH SCHOOL SWAMPS NEW BRAUNFELS BY SCORE OF 77 TO 0

Tivy High School's fast and furious football team easily defeated New Braunfels on the local gridiron last Saturday by the score of 77 to 0.

The visitors never did have a look-in, as Tivy scored on the first play made, a line buck by Stevens, and he was not touched by an opposing player. Every time the home boys got the ball they had a touchdown before the fourth down.

New Braunfels showed the lack of fight and coaching. They have one of the cleanest teams that has played here this season and were "good sports" in overwhelming defeat.

Every man on Tivy's squad was a star and had his chance in this game. Tubby Rees intercepted a pass and carried it over from the 30-yard line. Tivy's interference, which was one half Frank Moore, was right and perfect. Every man in the back field scored touchdowns as follows: Stevens, 3; Moore, 3; Saenger, 3, and Chaney, 2.

The visitors were best on short end passes, but never were able to follow them up with other plays.

Thanksgiving Day at 3 p. m., Tivy will give the public another chance to see her football machine in action, when they play the fast St. Anthony College eleven of San Antonio. So be there pulling for the boys, who are trying to put Tivy and Kerrville at the top of the athletic map. Show your loyalty to your school and town.

CHARMING PARTY GIVEN BY MRS. GEORGE MORRIS

Mrs. George Morris complimented Mrs. R. V. Bowen of Cincinnati, Ohio, and New York, with a charming Bridge Party last Saturday afternoon.

Masses of autumn leaves brightened the whole house, and yellow chrysanthemums glowed against a background of ferns on mantle, piano and desk.

Greeting the guests were Mesdames Morris, Bowen, Siddy and Bell, house guests of Mrs. Morris.

Prizes were not played for, but each guest chose a favor from a large basket, from the shape she liked, and each guest claimed to be better pleased than her neighbor.

The invited guests were: Mesdames Bowen, Bell, Siddy, Danger, Walter Real, C. E. Emerson, S. E. Thompson, E. E. Palmer, Scott Schreiner, A. C. Schreiner, A. C. Schreiner Jr., J. D. Jackson, J. W. Carey, Ally Beitel, E. H. Prescott, J. S. Wheelers, Carl Allen, Lee Wallace, G. F. Schreiner, Lee Mason, Sid Rees, Hy. Kuhlmann and Blanch.

Attractive Bridge Party

Miss Helena Brown was hostess to a three-table Bridge Party last Saturday afternoon, complimenting Mesdames Dan Auld and Thomas Matthews, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Brown, about three miles from Kerrville.

This most attractive home was artistically decorated with autumn leaves, mistletoe and chrysanthemums, the brilliant leaves, green mistletoe and soft white blossoms intermingling most effectively.

Mrs. Matthews received consolation prize, a Japanese bud vase; Miss Elsie Johnston received first prize for having high score, a scented pottery, and the honorees received Houbigant's flaconettes.

The invited guests were: Mesdames Dan Auld and Thomas Matthews, the honorees, and Frank Hart; Misses Elsie Johnston, Mary Louise Barnes, Yolande Robinson, Margaret Thornburn, Ruth Garrett, Lucille Williamson, Kate Remschel, Jewel Carey, Edna Henke and the hostess.

GOVERNOR NEFF FAVORS NEW STATE CONSTITUTION

Brenham, Tex., Nov. 28.—Governor Neff addressed a large audience of citizens of Washington County here tonight. Hon. Buck Searcy presided and introduced the speaker.

This was the first of ten addresses which the Governor will make before the organization of the Thirty-eighth Legislature, and stressed the need of a new Constitution and the calling of a convention for the purpose of drafting one by the incoming Legislature.

He paid a glowing tribute to the 56 heroes of Texas who assembled in Old Washington, on the Brazos, in 1836 and drafted the first Constitution, saying that the Constitution they formulated the verdict of history pronounced a model of its kind.

This was in the days of the Republic and it was the first written document known to civilization to abolish imprisonment for debt, create a homestead law, recognize woman as a legal entity with equal property rights with man. Passing on, he reviewed the Constitution adopted in 1845 at the time that Texas ceased to be a Republic and the twenty-eighth star glorified the proud folds of the American flag.

Three other Constitutions came in the fullness of time, the third being adopted in 1866, which succeeded after another in 1869. Then came the Constitution of 1876, which was drafted by John H. Reagan and 79 of the representative citizens of the State.

This was nearly 50 years ago, when only 176,000 boys and girls attended the schools of Texas, while today 1,300,000 answer roll call. He declared that Texas needs a new Constitution in order to perfect the educational system, to assist in the building of good roads, in the conserving of flood waters, in the conservation of natural resources, in the handling of public utilities, in the building of factories, in working out the problems of transportation and declared with emphasis that the State in the matters of education and jurisprudence is hobbled and hamstrung by the limitations, inhibitions and prohibitions of a Constitution written by sound statesmen who could not have dreamed of this mighty, complex, complicated civilization of ours.

"I am for a constitutional convention, to write in the light and learning of this generation, a new Constitution for Texas," said the Governor. "If it is good when written, the people will go to the polls and adopt it; if it is bad, the people will go to the polls and reject it."

Speaking of the Constitution adopted in 1876, the speaker said, "Texas then had a population of only 800,000 inhabitants. Now we have 5,000,000. All West Texas, now rapidly becoming the center of wealth and population, was so sparsely settled at that time that not even one delegate from that vast territory was sent to the convention that wrote the Constitution under which West Texas now lives."

"At that time there was not a town in the State with a population exceeding 15,000. Now we have cities with more than 200,000 inhabitants. At that time there was not an oil well in Texas. Now we are producing and have been for some time 10,000,000 barrels of oil a month, most of it going out of the State without paying proper tribute to the government on account of technical provisions of our present Constitution."

There is one survivor of the 80 Texans who made the Constitution of 1876, and the Governor paid this graceful compliment to this connecting link of the old and the new Texas: "As the lone representative of that memorable gathering somewhat as a connecting link between that glorious past and the still more glorious future, W. P. McLean of Fort Worth, crowned with more than four-score years of service nobly wrought for Texas."

THE RELATION OF THE PARENT-TEACHERS' CLUB TO COMMUNITY

(By MRS. E. H. SIDDY)

The home can never lay its burden of responsibility on the school. During the first five years, at least, of the child's life he is subject almost entirely to home influences. By the time he enters school his character is already largely determined. The responsibility for it rests upon the shoulders of the parents, and it is the greatest responsibility any human can have.

This being true, it is fortunate that the kind of home background our children shall have is within our control; with some exceptions the real essentials of a sane, active, happy life for them lies easily within our reach. What we need is to get clearly into our heads just what those essentials are.

A spirit of peace and harmony in which to live and grow, an atmosphere of cheerful industry and fair dealing, and plenty of opportunity for right mental and physical development—these are the right of every child, and are as readily secured in a four-room house or flat as in a mansion, in country or village as in city.

When we have only ourselves to choose for we are responsible only to ourselves if we choose badly, but when we have children then we are responsible for our choice to God, to society and to ourselves. We dare not choose badly.

The best way to bring up children is by no means the easiest way. Fortunately, most parents, down deep in their hearts, are looking not for the easiest, but for the best way. It is not selfishness that prevents them giving their children the best, but only confusion of mind—like the tired little mother, who was so worn out with the hard work on her little girl's dress that she slapped the child for accidentally upsetting a chair.

Parenthood must be taken more seriously. It would be well if every father and mother would hang in some prominent place in the home, and read every morning, some such confession of faith as this:

"I owe a debt to my children, having brought them into the world, their father and I owe it to them to furnish them a happy, free life of physical health, cheerful industry, intellectual growth, and moral dignity and sanity. To pay my part of this debt I have at my command a certain amount of money, physical strength, intellectual and spiritual force. If I am to keep my honor untarnished I must, as every honest debtor does, use my resources first of all to keep up the payment of my debt."

In other words, you are duty bound to give your best, do your best, and do not blame the child if it is a failure.

The Share in the Child's Education
The school is gradually taking over much of the teaching that used to be done in the home. This is happening through no design of either. It is due to a change in the conditions of life.

When the mother carded and spun the wool and wove it into cloth to clothe the family; when she salted down the meat for winter use; when she dried apples, made soap and did all the sewing and cooking—her daughters helping her—not only learned habits of industry, but learned to care for homes of their own.

When the father farmed or had the carpenter shop in the barn, or his blacksmith shop across the street, and helped out the family income by keeping up a vegetable garden and doing all the tinkering and repairing about the house, the boys got, through him, their education in hand-work.

But with the coming of factories and the regulation of the trades, those things disappeared from the home, and the school was called upon to supply their modern substitutes.

And now another branch of training seems to be transferring itself to the

DONATION ACCEPTED BY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

At a joint meeting of the Session and Board of Deacons, at the Manse of the Presbyterian Church, Tuesday evening, the proposal of the A. C. Schreiner's to replace the old church with a modern building, was formally received and joyfully accepted.

This congregation has long since outgrown its present cramped quarters and the plans for the new structure are to fill all the requirements of the activities of the different branches of the local organization in Kerrville, taking cognizance of the fact that it will be the official place of worship of the students from the Schreiner Institute.

GEO. E. DRYDEN BUYS CRIDER RANCH FOR $58,248.00 CASH

One of the largest real estate deals made in this section for some time, was the purchase of the Crider Ranch by Geo. E. Dryden, for which he paid $58,248.00 cash. There are 9,708 acres in this ranch and it is located at the head of the South Fork of the Guadalupe and also on the banks of Medicine River. It is considered one of the best ranches of its size in this country. Mr. Dryden bought it from Gus F. Schreiner. The ranch is being stocked.

Other real estate transfers the past week were as follows:
Thos. Frayne to Bessie M. Baker, lot 9, block 2, Lowry Addition to Kerrville; $150.00.

E. Galbraith and A. E. Burton to R. L. Mangum, 60x200 feet on Barrett Street, Kerrville, known as the Lewis Lee place; $2,500.00.
J. C. Keifer and wife to J. T. Clark, half acre in Ingram; $600.00.
Lee Burney and Geo. L. Sellers to M. K. Hood, the Center Point Roller Mills property; $3,500.00.
Kerr County School Trustees to J. T. Clark, one acre in Ingram, known as the old school property; $600.00.

Bridge for Mrs. Matthews

Mrs. A. C. Schreiner Jr. entertained with a most charming Bridge Party at her home last Friday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Thomas Matthews of Spearfish, S. D.

The holiday decorations of autumn leaves and pink and white chrysanthemums, with a generous use of glowing lights, made this perfectly appointed home even more beautiful.

There were six tables of players. Mrs. J. S. Wheelers received a silver salt and pepper for high score; Mrs. Hugh Perry hand-painted show trees for second high score; the honoree receiving silk underwear.

A plate most palatable and pretty was passed to the guests by Mesdames Jackson, W. G. Garrett, Jr. and Schreiner, and Misses Elsie Johnston and Mary Louise Barnes.

Boston Wool Market

Boston, Mass., Nov. 24.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: "While the market generally has been quiet during the last week, the long awaited opening at London has unquestionably encouraged the wool markets both here and abroad. A good attendance is reported at the colonial auctions and prices have opened higher on Merinos, slightly above par on fine cross breeds and 5 to 10 per cent dearer on low and medium crossbreeds compared with the October sales. Bradford instantly responded to the demonstrated of the market, both in London and in the colonies, where the markets are a bit higher." The Texas market is practically cleared of the fall wools, general sales being close to 120 clean basis, landed Boston, or in the range of 46 to 47 cents in the grease in Texas, for the best wools.

COLLEGE GIRLS' DRESS, SLANG, PAINT, SMOKES AND MANNERS PLAYED

New York, Nov. 23.—The campaign committee of Adelphi College, Brooklyn, which has been asking subscriptions for a new building, has become thoroughly convinced that Alonzo B. See of Brooklyn, president of an elevator company, does not care to contribute to its fund.

"If I had my way," Mr. See wrote in answer to a request for a contribution, "I would burn all the women's colleges in the country. The young women of our country do not need to be educated; the education they need is to leave off smoking cigarettes, stop using slang, stop their swaggering, give up their bold and brazen manners, their paint and their powder, and their lip-sticks and their high-heeled shoes, and to cease to dress indecently."

"Of all the fool things in the world, the college for women is the worst. When they graduate from the college they cannot write a decent hand; they know nothing of the English language; they have their minds twisted with psychology, logic and philosophy and a lot of other stuff. "Nothing could be better for the girls now in college than to be taken out and put to hard manual labor for a year or so, so there might be put into their heads a little trace of sense."

SEARCH-SEIZURE DRY PROVISION CONSTITUTIONAL

Austin, Tex., Nov. 23.—The Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday upheld the constitutionality of the search and seizure provision of the Dean prohibition law and decided that liquor can be seized while being transported without violating the constitutional rights of the defendants. This is the first time the higher court has ruled on the question. It was in the case of Rudolph Welchek, from Brazoria County, judgment of the District Court assessing punishment at one year for transporting liquor, being affirmed.

Judge O. S. Lattimore, who wrote the opinion, said that nothing in the opinion is intended an enlargement of any claim of right to enter private premises without search warrants for purposes of search and seizure. "The right of the citizen to be secure in his home and private premises and possessions from such unlawful and unwarranted entry, search and seizure, is as secure as the Bill of Rights can make it," says the opinion. "It should be held sacred by officers and good citizens, and infringement thereon may be defended against to the last limit. The man who so intrudes does it at his peril. This much is said in caution against misunderstandings."

MICHON-DOYLE WEDDING

The first nuptial High Mass to be offered in the Convent Chapel was sung Wednesday of last week, feast of St. Cecilia, the patroness of music. The occasion marked the wedding of a former student, Miss Ella Maria Doyle, to August Dominic Michon. The latter's brother and sister, Frank and Adele, acted as official witnesses, and Mrs. Elmer Ruff, godmother of the bride, was matron of honor. Immediately after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. A. Michon were sponsors at the baptism of Miss Louise Cecilia Colbath. Acolytes for both ceremonies were Martin Louis and Johnny Joe Michon, nephews of the groom.

The Cecilia Choir, which was observing its patronal feast, furnished the Gregorian music, and their organist played a favorite wedding march as the bridal retinue entered the sacred edifice.

A festive breakfast was served to the immediate relatives at the home of the groom's mother. His brother, Frank, was host at the social and jamboree given to the newly-weds that evening.

The neo-convert, Miss Colbath, will make her First Holy Communion on the feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, when another adult will be received into Mother Church by baptism.

Thanksgiving at Notre Dame

This Thursday, owing to the National observance of Thanksgiving, the chapel exercises will be held in the Convent oratory instead of at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. No classes will be conducted at either of the schools. On the previous evening the pupils rendered a program for their mutual and private amusement. A more pretentious entertainment is in progress for the yule-tide.

St. Mary's Auxiliary will meet this Friday evening in Washington Hall to discuss parochial activities for the Christmas season. Officers of this Auxiliary were greatly aided by Notre Dame pupils in pushing the Red Cross Drive which closed on Thanksgiving Day.

The birthday of the vice president, Miss Angeline Kemper, was remembered Thursday of last week with a shower of mail, of candies and of fruit. Particularly generous were the members of the Brownson

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincaid, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. The headaches became very frequent. I heard of and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."

Theford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, when it is torpid, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. It is the natural way. Be natural! Try Black-Draught.

Sold everywhere.

During the first week of December a program of Americanization will be arranged at Notre Dame in conformity to the plans of the American Legion for this Nation-wide Education Week. All students will be expected to memorize the American Creed, and to write essays suggested by the spirit of this patriotic profession. According to the Legion's outline, the slogan for this Sunday is: "A godly nation cannot fail!"

Others in my family had been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills so I tried them. They corrected the trouble and put my kidneys in good condition."

TO HOLDERS OF 1918 WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

During the war the Government offered War Savings Stamps, paying about 4 per cent, as a method of saving for people of small means. Since the war, and to take the place of War Savings Stamps, the Government offered Treasury Savings Certificates in denominations of $25, $100 and $1,000, now sold to investors at $20.50, $82 and $820, respectively. They pay 4 per cent if held until maturity, five years from the date of issue. About $625,000,000 of War Savings Stamps, series of 1918, become due January 1st, 1923, and the Government now offers to issue Treasury Saving Certificates in exchange for them, affording the owners an opportunity to continue a safe investment with good interest.

Saving has furnished the life blood for many nations and insures prosperity to the people. The Government is doing everything possible to encourage saving in the United States by offering sound and attractive securities for the investment of small sums. If you want to save, and insure your future, it would pay you to investigate Uncle Sam's Saving System. (Advertisement 50-1tc).

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor

BAPTISTS HAVE BANQUET

Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, a number of men, who are members of the Baptist Church, and others there as guests, were given a banquet in the basement of the church building.

The committees having the banquet in charge were composed of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Burton, arrangement committee, and L. W. McCoy and W. B. Anglin, committee on invitation.

The basement of the church was decorated with flowers, autumn leaves and pot plants, making a most pleasing effect. A long table was arranged in the shape of a "T," and on it were lovely bouquets and fruit artistically arranged.

F. E. Garrett served as toastmaster and proved that he had special talent in that difficult role. Talks were made by J. L. Tullis, H. C. Geddie and J. B. Holt. Little Eileen Garrett and Jimmie Holt sang a duet in a lovely manner, and Misses Lucile McCoy and Martha Holt rendered some excellent instrumental music on the piano; Miss Edith Tullis gave a recitation that was much enjoyed.

There was a large crowd present and they seemed to enjoy the occasion very much. Several joined the Bible Class and there was some discussion of a Laymen's Baptist Union, which will no doubt be organized.

The Baptists will have other similar meetings so that there may be more concerted work and a better spirit of comradeship. There are several new members recently located here and they were given a cordial welcome at the banquet.

REPORTER.
Center Point W. M. U.

At the lovely home of Mrs. H. C. Milam of Center Point the members of the Woman's Missionary Union of Tivy High School last Friday, subject for discussion was "Buckner Orphans' Home," which was led by Mrs. W. L. Skinner, ably assisted by several of the members. Another feature of the program, which was also enjoyed, was a song by three little girls, who are active members of the Sunbeam Band.

During the social hour, Mrs. Milam, assisted by the members of Circle No. 2, served a most delicious salad course.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Holt, accompanied by Mesdames Jack Moore, Hodges and J. L. Tullis, were guests at this delightful meeting and appreciated very much the splendid fellowship with the Center Point W. M. U. in their missionary and social meeting.

An office manager of a large corporation uses a method all his own for discovering to what mental type applicants for positions as clerk and stenographer belong. He strews the anteroom with the latest copies of magazines ranging from Zippy Tales and Cinema Scandals to the more staid and worth-while publications. Ofttimes while waiting, the applicant picks up the periodical interesting him or her most.

Presbyterian Men's Club

The Presbyterian Men's Club held its regular meeting in the dining room of the St. Charles Hotel Tuesday evening, and about twenty-five members and several visitors had a most enjoyable evening.

After the preliminary formalities, the music committee, under the direction of H. C. Robinson, presented a musical program. The Tivy High School Orchestra, directed by Miss Hattie Garrett, offered several numbers most creditably. The Misses Garrett and Carey delighted the club with two selections, and the program was completed by some unusually good work by the Robinson Glee Club.

The study of the evening was a discussion of "What Did Christ Add to the Idea of the Kingdom of God?"

Leslie Adkins discussed Christ's teaching that, instead of being an eternal and material organization, the Kingdom was, first, a change within each individual, changing the man so that he would be a new sort of a man and thus make a new sort of social order.

W. G. Garrett showed that the second revolutionary idea introduced by Christ was that of the value and dignity of individual manhood.

The third revolutionary idea of Christ, the new motive and method of development of the Kingdom, was to have been discussed by Ally Beitel, but on account of illness Dr. Dickey substituted for him. He showed that Christ taught that, instead of force, the method of Christ's Kingdom was to be good will to others rising above enmity and self interest, and the method was to be unselfish service: "For the Son of Man came, not to be ministered unto, but to minister and give His life as a ransom for many."

After the discussion, a half hour was very pleasantly spent in social chat and the enjoyment of a delightful lunch.

The next meeting will be the second Tuesday of December, and it is expected that a large number of both old and new members will be present.

Parents' Day a Success

The members of the Parent-Teachers' Club were hostesses to the parents of Tivy High School last Friday.

Over 100 parents were present, and what appreciative and interested visitors they were!

They were first guided to the classrooms of the Grammar School, First to Sixth Grades, inclusive, where school work of all kinds artistically decorated the entire walls. An excellent display of sewing was seen in Mrs. Shelburne's room, which shows what little children can do when they are guided by skillful hands.

Mrs. Knox, the president of the club, had asked Mrs. Real to let the program show the parents what the children are doing at the half-hour period every day, so after enjoying the regular work in the class-rooms, everyone went to the auditorium where the following program was rendered:

A number of beautiful selections by the High School Orchestra, songs by some of the High School students, folk dances, drills, beautiful little parables by the First Grade, dramatization, story-telling, physical exercises, and a grand opera selection on the Victrola, which showed that music appreciation is taught in all the grades successfully.

Immediately after the program, all were ushered into the Domestic Science room, where refreshments of coffee and sandwiches were served.

Everyone expressed themselves as having such a pleasant afternoon.

Visit the schools often and see what your children are doing.

Woman's Missionary Society

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church met Tuesday afternoon for their regular missionary and social meeting at the home of Mrs. R. D. Inscore, the subject for discussion being on medical missions, and the program was most interesting and helpful, with Mrs. Jack Moore as leader.

The price of eggs is proof that the poultry business will pay in this section.

Turkeys are scarcer in this section than last year. Try to raise more turkeys next year.

Get your copy ready for the Christmas edition to be issued by The Mountain Sun. We must have it next week, and as early as possible.

It is reported that President Harding is going to take the bit in his teeth and do some party bossing. If he don't there will not long be any party to boss. So far he has shown very little capacity for leadership.

The Mountain Sun will issue about a 24-page Christmas edition December 15th. This creditable sized newspaper for a country town is made possible by a liberal and progressive lot of business men, who believe in advertising.

Something has got to be done to prevent heavy loaded trucks from traveling on the newly built highways after a rain. If there is not any legislation to cover this urgent need there will have to be some enacted, or quit the heavy expense of building improved highways.

The Sun is issued a few hours ahead of time this week to give the force a chance to take a rest for Thanksgiving and to enjoy that memorable day. We extend to all friends and patrons best wishes and much joy for this occasion. This country and people have much for which to be thankful, so do not forget it.

Georges Clemenceau, the great Frenchman, while in this country making a Nation-wide tour in the private car of some American, tells some plain facts that rather grate on the sensitive ears of some of our people. While he is engaged in this discourteous job, it is a proper time for some of our leaders to tell the Frenchman and his government some plain truths they ought to hear and consider—and they are doing it. France, instead of attempting to economize and pay her debts, is keeping a huge standing army; France backed the murderous Turk so that he could again get a foothold in Europe and keep up his fight against Christianity and decency; France has caused all of the friction in the dealings with Germany; France is not willing to sign the disarmament treaty, thereby entailing great expenditures to keep up the rivalry in warships and other modes of destruction. In brief, France has cast off from her moorings of a republic and deserted her former efforts in behalf of the down-trodden masses of the world.

The rain came at a very opportune time, as with the approach of cold weather, the conditions for sowing would be less favorable than now.

Kiss clinics for marriageable girls to solve America's divorce problem, are advocated by a noted Parisian stage beauty who is visiting Chicago. "A woman's whole heart should be put into every kiss she gives her husband," she declared. "A kissable woman will keep any normal man anchored at home. Too many wives think they can hold their husbands through their stomachs. Scientific love is more practicable than domestic science."

In the interior of Argentine, cattle are so plentiful that beef on the hoof often sells for less than two cents a pound and cattle are sometimes given to the butcher on condition that he shall return the hide to the owner.

J. N. Keith, revenue agent of San Antonio, was here on business Tuesday. Mr. Keith is the field man, representing the Estate Tax Unit of the revenue department. He is a very pleasant and courteous gentleman.
 J. E. Davenport of San Antonio was in Center Point last Thursday. Mr. Davenport has recently purchased a part of the Hildebrand Ranch on the head of Mason Creek and expects to become a permanent citizen of this section.
 The Woman's Missionary Council of the Methodist Church were entertained in a social meeting by Mrs. Chas. Rees in her home Monday afternoon. Quite an interesting literary program was rendered. There were 30 guests present. Delicious refreshments were served at the closing hour.
 Fred Thalman, manager of the Bandera County Ranchmen's and Farmer's Association, was here last Friday looking after the shipment of the fall clip of wool, which was recently sold to a Boston firm. The price was near 50 cents. This means prosperity for the wool grower, but how about the one hundred million people in the United States who buy clothing?

OVER HALF OF FLINT FOLK DEPENDENT ON BIG BUICK FACTORY

Flint, Mich., Nov. 25.—The twenty years of Buick, culminating in the record smashing output of the last three months, is one of the amazing achievements of industrial America.
 The story of Buick is essentially the story of Flint, which has increased from a population of 13,000 in 1900 to 100,000 at the present time. It is estimated that more than one half of these people are either employees of the Buick Motor Company or are their dependents.
 "Didn't you read about Buick building nearly 202,000 cars in October?" asked one old resident. "Well, Buick is going right along at the same pace now." The old resident's information was fully verified at the Buick factory, where they are turning out in November as many cars as scrupulous manufacture will permit.
 "Production figures for November may not equal the October total, but they will come within a respectable distance of it," said General Sales Manager E. T. Strong.
 Back in 1911 Flint people were just as greatly surprised over a production of 16,000 Bupicks in an entire year's time. And since then they have seen Buick constantly growing until the big north end plant now covers more than 20 acres of land and gives work to 18,000 men and women.

Need a County Agent

County Agent Oswald and a representative from the A. & M. College were in Hunt the past week, talking with the citizens concerning the continuing work of the County Demonstrator. It is generally understood that the Commissioners' Court has agreed to discontinue the work of the County Demonstrator at the close of this year, on account of the expense incurred in the tick eradication possibly leaving the county in debt. Of course, we all understand that the eradication of the fever tick is not a matter of volition with us. However, we have to bear all the expense, while in the County Demonstration work the Federal and State Governments voluntarily pay half, leaving it optional with the county to accept or reject. If we reject that money goes to some other county and we lose our part and interest in both the Federal and State appropriations.
 The Federal and State authorities regard this as an investment in the youth of our country, and the more interest we take in it and the more we get out of this service the better the investment. After having the benefit of these appropriations for some years and now reject, they would consider it a poor investment and would not be anxious to extend this privilege to us again soon.
 Perhaps the Commissioners' Court feels like the people of this county are not taking the interest in this work that they ought to be taking and for that reason they are discontinuing it. If that is the case, it behooves the citizens of this county to manifest a greater interest and show them that they appreciate the efforts being made by the A. & M. to bring their work right to our doors, saving the big expense of sending the boys and girls to an agricultural college. Let us not be like the people in the time when Christ cast the demons out of the demoniac and they went into the swine, and the swine rushed into the sea and drowned. The people came out and besought Christ to leave their country, thus showing that they regarded swine more than humanity. Many of our American people have made themselves the subject of many slurs by their efforts to improve their stock by the introduction of new blood while they are doing so little for the development of the youth of their homes.

 Let us get together and see if we can induce the Commissioners' Court to reconsider and if possible retain a County Demonstrator.

THE RELATION OF THE PARENT-TEACHERS' CLUB TO THE COMMUNITY

school—one which was formerly considered as belonging entirely to the home—that of character building. Once the "Three R's" stood for the complete work of the school; later much of the remaining alphabet was added, but the aim was still instruction and information.

Today it is recognized that education is worth while only in so far as it develops upright character, and all schools must stand or fall by the test. All this means that the share of the school in the child's education is much greater and more important than ever before. It means that parents have no longer an excuse for not interesting themselves in the schools, and that they and the teachers must "pull together" if the schools are to render full and complete service to the children of the Nation.

There is no school bad enough to spoil a child from a good home, and there is no school good enough to atone for a child from a bad home. The Education the Community Gives Children

The community, for its own sake, in its own self defense, in rearing the future citizens of the country, should see to it that they have the opportunities for recreation, for play and education, to which every child is entitled.

Community problems are practically alike in city, village and country; on the one hand there are joy-loving children and youths seeking happiness, on the other a neighborhood offering what?

The old saying that "Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do" is as true now as it ever was. The community that provided no wholesome pleasures for its young cannot wonder at their downfall. And what could be more tragic than that the very cry for happiness which renders childhood and youth so attractive should lead them astray.

With no idea of looking at the dark side, it still must be admitted that few communities are as yet providing opportunities for wholesome activities for the young—of wrong things there are an abundance. There seems to be a tireless activity about the forces of evil—why is it that forces of good are so slow to see, so reluctant to move?

For right or wrong every community is educating its children. Let us study our neighborhood and know what influences it exerts. Let us support and develop the good and stamp out evil with more good. Criticism alone will not help, destruction is not enough. We cannot supplant something with nothing, even if the something is bad. Wherever an evil is uprooted we must see to it that good is planted.

The neglected child is a menace to America's future.

Community Spirit

Community spirit must be aroused if community activities are to be successful. Where this can be done many interesting activities may be provided for the young, and their elders, too, with almost no outlay of money and only a reasonable outlay of time, thought and trouble.

Let a small group of interested people meet in somebody's home, discuss those needs which it is possible to supply and plan for a larger meeting to follow, in which these needs shall be set forth by the best speakers the neighborhood can provide. At this larger meeting present a plan of work, get pledges in open meeting from citizens who will do a definite share; then form the young people of the community into groups, each group directed by two adults. Choose a name for the younger group (since they are not eligible to membership in the Parent-Teachers' Club) "Good Citizenship League," for example, and have monthly meetings for reports in progress. The work undertaken may be weed fighting, tree and shrub planting, a health campaign, or anything needed.

The older people may have their minds entirely upon the work, but the young will supply the fun that makes things go—you may trust them for that—and the frequent meetings, with a common purpose, will be good for young and old alike.

Arousing a community spirit is not easy—no worthwhile thing is—but every active effort to do something for the community deepens and develops community spirit in the one who does it. Enthusiasm and earnest effort, like measles, are infectious. Let us not fear a very bad case, and the more the better. It is hard for a small group to carry the whole load.

Nobody really likes house cleaning, indoors or out, but a clean-up day is different. First, because it is only one day; second, because it can be turned into a festival, and last, because everybody is ready with praises and maybe prizes when it is done.

It is doing things together that makes hard work easy and dull work pleasant, and so clean-up day may easily come to be ranked with the gala days of the year.

Every community should have a tree planting day, and interesting programs with community singing, which develops so wonderfully good fellowship, are much to be desired.

The school of the future will not only teach the children during the school hours; it will be the center of community activities; it will educate adults upon the current issues of social, political and economic life; its doors will be open sixteen hours out of twenty-four for community purposes, and it will be used for all clubs and societies in the neighborhood.

Why should the school house be closed and dark when the community has need of it? School and home together practically make up the community, and the Parent-Teachers' Club better than any other agency can plan, push and promote all lines of community interest.

It rests with you to decide what work is most needed and then put your shoulder to the wheel and accomplish results.
