

Bull Town Bulletins

By

Bill Ellis

READERS OF THIS column will probably realize (if they don't, then this is by way of pointing it out) that up to this point, ye editor has chosen not to waste even an inch of space commenting on President Reagan and the so-called Iran-Contra affair.

We figured all along--and rightly so--that the mass media would provide plenty of "overkill" on the subject. Boy, have they ever.

Now that the Tower Commission has made its report, and that former Chief of Staff Donald Regan has been bumped and Sen. Howard Baker has been named as his replacement, maybe--just maybe--we can see the news out of our nation's capital taking on a different slant.

For more than three months, members of the national media have hounded the president to death. They have built up the Iran-contra affair in an attempt to make it President Reagan's own personal Watergate. As one writer adeptly put it "They have waited with pencils poised and cameras ready for the Tower commission report. To the dismay of some, there was no indictment of Ronald Reagan for a cover-up or unlawful activities. Whatever mistakes were made were not in goals but in execution."

Those who attack the president on every small point are still grinding out copy pointing to Reagan's age, lack of attention to detail, and his forgetfulness. But these things, according to the rank and file, are not nearly enough to call for a vote of impeachment.

Members of the liberal broadcast media and congress have attempted to exploit the Iran crisis in hopes of steering the country away from President Reagan's conservative program.

Overlooked by these over-zealous "protectors" is the fact that the American electorate has twice overwhelmingly chosen Ronald Reagan as their leader. They liked his stance on such things as family, foreign policy and having faith in themselves.

Reagan has been one of the most popular presidents of this century. He has established himself, and given Americans considerably more pride by fighting such things as big government and inflation, and putting Communism on the defensive.

Former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, appearing in Amarillo last week, commented to the effect that the Iran-contra affair has diverted national attention away from more pressing matters. It's the type of diversion that you don't need when you are trying to maintain your country's image with world powers, and as a leader in the free world.

As commentator Andy Rooney said this week, we need to change our tactics in this country. Rather than waiting until a president is dead to honor him with a holiday or monument, Rooney suggests that we practice being a little more kind to him while he is alive (and on the job).

Rooney posed the question, given all of the flack that President Reagan has had to face since the emergence of the Iran-contra deal, "Who would even WANT to run for president, anyhow?"

Based on what we have seen over the years, there will be a number of "takers" for the president's job, as the 1988 election approaches. But as Rooney implied, such things as the recent anti-Reagan campaign may, in fact, cause some who might be more qualified to hold the office to say to themselves "I don't think it would be worth all of that --"

And that would cause the country to be hurt, rather than helped, by all of the do-gooders we've heard during the past three months.

Well, we didn't intend to bore our readers with this much comment about the Iran-contra affair. Sorry about that.

Lions Club Hears School Officials

Tom T. Hall Day Slated At S. Plains

Plans for Tom T. Hall Day, set for March 26 at South Plains College, are shaping up with a guest appearance by Hall, dedication of a $500,000 music production facility named in his honor, bluegrass fair and open house, jam session with Hall and the World's Largest Bluegrass Band, dedication banquet and an evening concert featuring the famed country music performer.

The Maines Brothers are also scheduled to perform that day.

Hall first visited SPC with a Nashville television film crew in 1979 and shot footage of the college's unique country and bluegrass music program for inclusion in a PBS special, "Bluegrass Spectacular." The international recognition generated by Hall's initial interest in the program boosted its growth tremendously, said John Hartin, instructional coordinator of country and bluegrass music

Tickets are $10 a person for the banquet and concert and will be available soon, said Hartin. Seating is limited, so interested persons should purchase their tickets early.

For more information on Tom T. Hall Day at SPC, contact the SPC College Relations Office at (806) 894-9611.

Rites Held For Former Resident

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Ellis:

Thank you for your interest and support of widening U.S. 60 in Parmer County as stated in the February 18 edition. Here is an update on the status of that project.

The State Highways and Public Transportation Commission has authorized the highway department to begin right-of-way acquisition along U.S. 60 in Parmer and Castro Counties. This is the first step towards making U.S. 60 a four-lane divided highway in both counties. The department is working diligently to complete the right-of-way acquisition process.

To date the department has completed appraisals on approximately 80 percent of the parcels needed in Castro County. We have made purchase offers on approximately 65 percent of the parcels needed in Castro County and are awaiting a response from the landowners. In addition, we have completed a right-of-way map for the section between Friona and the Castro County Line.

In the process of acquiring right-of-way we must follow state law which is designed to protect the landowner and the State of Texas. It is a lengthy, but fair process.

We agree with your statement that U.S. 60 needs to be widened. We are hard at work to see that it becomes a reality.

Sincerely,
William M. Pope
District Engineer
District Five

T. Willard Attends Convention

Flossie Rhinehart underwent emergency gall bladder surgery on Friday of last week at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. I talked with her husband Lester on Monday and he said she had over 100 stones removed from her liver and gall bladder. She was in surgery most of the day. She is getting better now and will probably be released on Thursday or Friday of this week.

L.M. Bell of Farwell passed away Sunday and services were held on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Bell lived in Bovina with his family many years ago and at one time managed the Bovina Gin. His wife preceded him in death ten years ago. He was survived by seven children, 23 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren. He was Ella Jo Stormes' grandfather.

Mary Jane and A.M. Wilson went to Brady weekend before last and spent the weekend with their niece and nephew, Marie and George Gourley. During the weekend the family and friends from San Antonio went to Burnet and enjoyed a river cruise that took them on the Colorado River for about three hours.

During the cruise they enjoyed seeing many different kinds of wild life. They saw bald eagles, deer, wild turkeys and goats. She said it was a three deck boat and they really had a good time. This is an all-year river cruise and the next two months will be nice to see the bluebonnets while they are in bloom.

On their way home the Wilsons stopped in Abilene and visited with their daughter Suzanne and her family.

Rebecca and Rusty Smallwood of Lubbock were in Bovina over the weekend to visit Rebecca's parents, Larry and Judy Hodnett. The family attended church together on Sunday.

Sunday afternoon Larry Hodnett suffered a broken ankle while he was playing basketball with his daughter, Jo Linda, in their driveway. We understand he had two broken bones in his ankle.

Congratulations to Raymond and Raquel Rocha on the birth of their first child, a little girl, Angelica Maria. She was born Saturday, February 28, and weighed nine pounds, seven and one-half ounces. Also congratulations to Bovina grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rocha, Jr., and Milly Martinez, who is a great-grandmother.

Mary Jane Wilson was surprised with a birthday luncheon, held at the home of Sue Naegle of Clovis, with twenty-three guests. This was a week ago Saturday and the group enjoyed a good time even though it was a cold miserable day and snowing outside. Also attending were Mary Jane's daughters Pam of Bovina and Suzanne of Abilene. Another treat was a telephone message wishing her a happy birthday from Trudy Skjerve of Norway. Trudy lived with the Wilsons 21 years ago and was an exchange student from Norway. Mary Jane has kept in touch with her all these years and said she is now married to a dentist and has three sons.

We express our sympathies to Mearle Morgan, whose brother has passed away. Services were held Wednesday of last week in Jacksonville, Florida. He was Rayburn Holmes, 61, who suffered a fatal heart attack. He was survived by his wife and three children.

We want to wish Nettie Rhinehart a happy birthday. She was 93 on Thursday of last week. If you would like to drop her a card, her address is Golden Age Nursing Ct. 1201 Norris St., Clovis, N.M. 88101.

Patsy Webb of Adrian and her daughter, Becky, who is a student at South Plains College in Levelland, were in Bovina for a few days visiting with Patsy's mother, Sid Lloyd. The ladies enjoyed shopping and eating out in Clovis.

Maesie Flynn returned home about the middle of February from spending two and one-half weeks with her sister, Opal Lehr of Mooreland, Oklahoma.

Opal was hospitalized for two weeks, suffering with problems of arthritis. While she was in the hospital she fell out of her bed and broke her wrist. Maesie went to Oklahoma to be with her sister after she was released from the hospital. Last weekend Maesie had company at her home. Her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller of Mooreland, Oklahoma.

Suezy and Billy Smith went to Coleman and Brownwood last week and visited friends, Walter and Doris Hodges, and an aunt, Hallie Bivins.

On Sunday the Smiths had dinner at Billy's sister's home in Farwell, Fern and Butch Tharp. Other family members included Billy's two brothers and their wives, Glen and Wanda Smith of Ft. Smith, Arkansas and Dean and Georgina Smith of Lovington, New Mexico, and Billy's sister and brother-in-law, Wilma and Howard Whitener of Pleasant Hill. The Smiths also visited Sunday in Lubbock with their son and daughter-in-law, Kevin and Yesha Smith.

Maesie Flynn has received a letter from Nellie Crook, who lived in Bovina for many years and is now living in Grand Prairie. Nellie said she is getting along fine after having surgery on her eye. She is living in an apartment complex and is able to go to the beauty shop in the building and also play bingo. On Sunday she attends church services with a friend and either has her children for lunch or goes to their home, but she is happy in Grand Prairie.

Juanda Murphy has been in Ballinger with her father who had recently undergone surgery. They came back to Bovina last Friday and he will be having surgery sometime in the future.

Over the weekend, Mr. Patton's brothers and their wives came to visit him. They are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Patton of Tow, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Patton of San Angelo. They were in Lubbock over the weekend visiting a brother, Willard, who had had surgery.

Joe and Sue Fowler have recently returned home from a trip to California. They drove to San Diego and visited with their daughter and family, Nancy and Bert Hardin and their daughters, Ashley and Allison. Sue said they were there for three weeks and the sun shone beautifully all the time they were there.

Tessie Jones was released from the Clovis High Plains Hospital after being in the hospital for a few days. She came home on Saturday evening and her husband, J.T., said her condition has improved and she is able to be up and walking some.

Opal Sikes has returned to Prairie Acres in Friona and is no longer in the hospital. She is Gwen Clements' mother.

Congratulations to Daryl and Kerri Hawkins on the birth of a son, Kody Ryan, born Sunday, March 1. Also congratulations to grandparents living in the area, Erith and Lavoida Hawkins of Bovina, Len and Sue Allemand of Hub and great-grandmother, Gwen Pryor of Friona.

SMILE--The wife who drives from the back seat isn't any worse than the husband who cooks from the dining room table.

Open house began on Monday at Ridgelea School from 2:30-3:30 p.m. for pre-kindergarten through first grade.

Grades 2-8 observed open house at the Bovina School from 3-4 p.m.

The theme is "Share Our Success" and a science project was displayed in several classes.

Refreshments were served in the Bovina School cafeteria with several parents and grandparents present.

Tammy Willard, owner and manager of the Master's Book Room in Clovis, New Mexico, attended a regional convention sponsored by the Christian Booksellers Association in Arlington, Texas.

The group participated in reviewing the newest products available for their store and attended workshops and other educational activities to assure that their Christian bookstores continue to be on the leading edge and remain in the forefront of excellence.

Tammy attended the informal and roundtable discussions and on-target workshops including how to sell Bibles, principles of effective financial management, and how to market your products to area churches.

Tammy and her husband, Dennis Willard manage and own the Master's Book Room in the Hilltop Plaza in Clovis, New Mexico, next door to Baskin-Robbins.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By DONNA ECHOLS

This week has found us indoors watching the rain and knowing that it is cold again outside. The First Baptist Church Women came and did nail and hair care last week and the Friona United Methodist Women and Rhea Women came this week. Next week the women from the Bovina United Methodist Church will be here.

The Friona United Methodist Church held our services last week and the Assembly of God Church came this week. Next week the Bovina United Methodist Church will be here at 4 p.m. Please join us. We would like to thank the church members who bring the Sunday morning worship service tapes for us to enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter and Amy Hromas came last Friday and shared songs, music and stories with us. Olive Lawrence will celebrate her birthday on March 1 and her family came this Thursday and brought her a birthday dinner to enjoy. Mrs. McGowen's daughter from Bountiful, Utah, came to visit and was here all week. Mrs. Colebank is back in the home after a stay in the hospital. Ben has been going to the basketball games and has been enjoying watching the Squaws play.

Tommy Jones came back from a trip to California and brought Ruth Jones an orange that is the size of a cantaloupe. She has not eaten it yet. The residents have been enjoying newspaper reading in the lobby at 10 a.m. each morning by Debbie Sweatt, our activity director. Some discussion has been shared concerning the Nuclear Waste Dump site search. Mr. Cooper feels very strong that this area in Texas is too good and fertile to damage and that the site should be in Utah or Nevada where the land seems to be barren. Debbie states that if you have any puzzles to share with our residents, to please call her at Prairie Acres.

We would like to extend our sympathy to Minnie Dickson on the death of her son, Weldon Dickson. We have received a memorial for Sloan Osborn from Lillie and Billy Baxter. We have also received memorials for J.C. Mears from Katie Osborn and John, Jo and Marcia Blackwell. The Blackwells gave memorials for Sloan Osborn, Daisy Hart, Emmie Louise Horton, Ruth Edelman, Roscoe Parr, Bill Baxter and Weldon Dickson.

We have purchased needed items from this Love Fund. They include two projector lamps for our projector, beauty shop supplies, popcorn popper, training films for employees, and bingo prizes for the residents. We also have purchased a chair scale for weighing the residents. One-half of this dollar amount was paid by the Charley Roy McGhee estate. Future plans for the Love Fund are to buy new carpet for the front lobby.

We are also looking at purchasing, or by donation, a nice game table for the front lobby for the residents to play games on. We are presently using card tables which are not very sturdy for wheel-chair participants.
