"ALL HALLOW EVE."

A Brief History of The Event—Fun
For the Boys and Girls.

Friday, October 31, was "All Hallow Eve," and the boys and girls of the city had the day in mind for many weeks past. They know that it is a night of mirth and mystery, especially devoted to mischief, fun, incantations, divinations, charms and spells, but very few of them or their elders understand its real significance, or can tell whence it derived its name.

It is many centuries since the Roman church, finding it impossible, from the great and constantly increasing multitude of saints, to set apart a separate day for each one, decreed that November 1
should thenceforward be kept as a day in honor of all the saints, and that it should be known as "All Hallow Mass or All Saints' day," and that the night of October 31, immediately preceding it, should thereafter be kept as a vigil and be known as "All Hollow Eve," these occasions being still observed in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches.

From its first organization "Hallow Eve" has been invested with a peculiar mystic character. It is an almost universal superstition that supernatural influences then have unusual power, that devils, witches and fairies are abroad, that all living humanity can be detached from corporal restraint and made to read its own future or to reveal to others what fate may have in store for them. These may be justly regarded as relics of Pagan times.

In all ages countries "Hallow Eve" has been deemed, as it still is,
the occasion par excellence for divining the answer to that momentous question which absorbs so large a share of the thoughts of romantic young men and maidens,
"who is to marry whom?" The means employed to gain this much desired information are as quaint and curious as they are numerous and varied. For this reason every clime and every country—almost every district of every country—
has had its own charms and spells peculiar to itself, and they have furnished an almost inexhaustible
theme to folk poets and compilers of folk lore.

Those of Scotland have been most graphically described by that greatest of all poets of the people, Robert Burns. In his poems of "Hallow E'en," he has given us a most vivid account of more than half a score of "Hallow Eve" charms and spells peculiar to the Scotland peasantry.

Water, nuts and apples bear a prominent part in the spells and charms of "Hallow Eve." A quaint old book of charms, published in Edinburg in 1690, entitled "Old Father Time's Bundle of Faggots Newly Bound Up," declares that an infallible means of getting a view of your future husband or wife is to go to bed on "Hallow Eve" with a glass of water, in which a small sliver of of wood has been placed, standing on a table by your bedside. In the night you will dream of falling from a bridge into the river and being rescued by your future wife or husband, whom you will see as distinctly as though viewed with waking eyes. The charm is thus alluded to by the English poet Gay:

"Last Hallow Eve I longed my love to see,
And tried a spell to call her up to me;
With wood and water standing by my side,
I dreamed a dream and saw my sweet bride."

There can be no question that the observances of "Hollow Eve" are derived from those of the old Roman festival of Pomona, when divinations and the consulting of oracles and omens were universally practiced. Lighting bonfires is one of the most universal of "Hallow Eve" usages, yet the Germanic and Celtic nations were both accustomed to kindle them on October 31, centuries before they ever heard of the Christian religion and its vigil of "All Hallow Eve."

It is probable that the boys of those old races indulged, on that date, in the same mischievous practices which now afford so much pleasure to our Albuquerque youngsters, and no doubt the little sons and daughters of the ancient Romans, Germans and Celts carminated the municipality (or, in the vulgar, "painted the town red") quite as extensively as the children of Albuquerque, by ringing door bells, running away before they can be answered, beating the pannels of front doors with cabbage heads, misplacing signs, gates and fences and raising old Nick generally—Albuquerque Citizen.

News About New Mexico Judge.

Special dispatch to the Globe Democrat.

Washington, D. C., October 26.
—Judge A. A. Freeman, who was recently appointed associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico, has got into hot water. "A A. Freeman, of Tennessee," was the way the nomination read when sent to the Senate. But Judge Freeman has really been practicing law in Washington for several years. His home has been across the Potomac, in Virginia, long enough for him to become interested in the politics of the Alexandria district. This is the distrre. represented in congress by W. H. F. Lee, son of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Gen. Lee's renomination was secured at the expense of considerable dissatisfaction in his own party. The republicans saw an opportunity to smash the machine by quietly supporting an independent democrat, Mr. Frank Harte, of Alexandria, and accordingly adjourned their convention at Manassas without a nomination. Several republicans of the district did not approve of the program. They issued an address demanding that a straight-out republican nomination be made which would, of course be directly in line with Gen. Lee's interests. Strangely enough, Judge Freeman, notwithstanding his appointment and confirmation to the Few Mexico judgeship, came forward as the leader of the straight-out faction. At the bottom of the address Judge Freeman's name led all the other signers. To nominate a republican was to insure Gen. Lee's election, but Judge Freeman insisted that it must be done. He is now in New Mexico or on his way there. Maj. Hine, the chairman of the republican convention which decided to make no nomination, but to aid in splitting the democratic vote, has written a tart reply to Judge Freeman. In the course of it he says: "It has always been considered of questionable propriety for members of the judiciary to take any active part in political contests. Is it not even more so for the gentleman from Tennessee, serving in New Mexico, to attempt to nullify the action of a Virginia convention?"

HENRY J. MILLER DEAD.

Henry J. Miller, aged 37 years, died at his room in the Cromwell block last night about 1 o'clock from typhoid fever, after an illness of a few weeks.

Mr. Miller was born in Wayne county, New York, where now resides his mother, who is 79 years old, and a number of relatives and life-long friends. A few weeks ago E. S. McPherson, room-mate of the deceased, wrote to his mother, informing her of her son's illness. In her answer she used the following words: "If Henry dies I have nothing more to live for." A telegram has been sent to a relative, residing near the old mother, telling him to break the news as gently as possible to her. Mr. Miller has a brother-in-law, Mr. Dunning, in business at Concordia, Kan., and he has been informed by telegram of the death.

Henry J. Miller started for the west in the spring of 1880, and in the fall of that year established himself in the general mercantile business at White Oaks, Lincoln county, the style of the firm being Dunning & Miller—he having charge of the business, Mr. Dunning remaining in Kansas. For seven years he did a thriving business, but desiring to see California, he sold out and left for Pasadena, where for about a year and a half he conducted a cigar store. This was during the boom in southern California, but on its decline he disposed of his stock at a good margin and returned to White Oaks. In May, 1889, he came to Albuquerque in company with E. S. McPherson and A. Guittard, and with the latter bought out the business of M. C. Zirhut, on Copper avenue. It did not prove a profitable undertaking and after several months the firm closed, Mr. Guittard returning to White Oaks with his wife, but Mr. Miller remained here and had charge of the carriage repository of J. Korber & Co., up to his death.

He was taken ill on the 25th of last September, and was constantly confined to his room. About a week ago his attending physician, Dr. Pearce, reported him getting along finely, but it seems he took a relapse from which he began sinking rapidly, dying at the hour mentioned above.

He was quite a fleshy gentleman and enjoyed perfect health until his present sickness, which is attributed to the drinking of the water now being used in the city. Mr. McPherson has been off and on with the deceased for nine years, and states that he had the most agreeable disposition of any man he ever knew—possessing a generous, whole-souled heart. He made many friends here, who will be pained to read the obituary of his death.

The body has been taken in charge by Undertaker Strong, and while no answer has been heard from his relatives it is likely his remains will be shipped east for burial.

Mr. Dunning, brother-in-law of J. H. Miller, deceased, arrived yesterday afternoon and will take the remains east with him on the 11:25 train to-day. All friends who may wish to pay their last respects to the deceased will please call at the undertaking rooms of O. W. Strong before that hour.—Albuquerque Citizen, Oct. 31st.

RESTORED HIS WIFE'S HEALTH.

My wife suffered for years from debility and general breaking down of health, the results of diseases peculiar to women. A few bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) restored her to perfect health. It built her up, increased her appetite and weight, until she is now a picture of health. The speedy recovery of my wife from her long illness caused all of my, and several of my neighbors, to take S. S. S. As a tonic we are all delighted with it.

BABY CURED.

My baby had the worse case of Catarrh that I ever saw a child afflicted with. The nasal discharge was very large and very offensive. Having some personal knowledge of the curative properties of S. S. S. I gave the baby a course of S. S. S. using nothing else. In a short time the discharge from the nose stopped, and the Catarrh was cured entirely and permanently, as there has been no return of it since. DAVID ZARTMAN, May 10, '90. Independence, O. THE RESULT IN LINCOLN COUNTY

The Democrats of Lincoln Co. have won a victory, and the Republicans have met defeat. Every candidate on the democratic ticket has received a majority, except Talliaferro and Salazar. It may take the official count to fully determine the question on Treasurer, between Salazar and Weidman; also on Clerk, between Sena and Talliaferro. From the very latest and most complete returns, the democrats have carried everything. Joseph for Delegate and McDonald for Representative, will carry the county by 100 majority; and, with the vote in Chaves and Eddy, 400 majority, the ticket will be elected by 550. With the decreased number of votes, Lincoln county, both old and new, has preserved the record as being reliably democratic.

The vote for Joseph compared with his vote of 1888, is larger than in 1890. The total vote cast is lighter. After the superhuman efforts put forth by our republican friends, they have been defeated all along the line—only a solitary man elected on their ticket.

In the territory at large, sufficient returns have been received to insure Joseph's re-election by 3,500 majority. And throughout the country, democrats have elected congressmen and the next house will be democratic by 26 majority. In the New Mexico legislature, returns indicate that the democrats will have a small majority in both branches.

Our roosters are accordingly at the head of our columns, and now and henceforth, New Mexico, Lincoln county and White Oaks, will be classed as being surely democratic. This makes democrats grateful, and a happy lot.

See later returns on local page.

Now that the election is over and the excitement and anxiety in regard to the result is at an end, we can turn our attention to the business now in hand. Court will be called in special term at Lincoln, in a few days; perhaps the second or third week in this month, and all persons who as witnesses or jurors, were summoned at regular term should bear in mind to be on hand at the first day of the special term. As soon as we learn the date set, we will advise our readers. The Judges, on the 7th, will meet at Las Vegas to arrange plans for the future. Judge Freeman, the new judge from Tennessee, will most likely be assigned to Lincoln, Chaves and Eddy, to which will be attached Socorro county.

Several points have been named as the future home of the new judge. Socorro on the extreme side and Roswell at the other, are both anxious for the headquarters. Either town will be far from a central point. Lincoln should be selected as the County seat; most central point at which U. S. Court could be held. It is equal distant from each side of the new proposed district; between Socorro on the one side and Roswell on the opposite. White Oaks can present the strongest and most substantial reasons for Judge Freeman to make White Oaks his home. We have the best schools in the district, and the Bar at White Oaks is the most numerous, and have the largest practice in the circuit. There are 7 attorneys, all admitted to practice, who reside here, one at Lincoln, 3 at Roswell and 3 at Socorro. It would accommodate all to have Judge Freeman conduct court in chambers, at White Oaks, and be a most convenient point for everyone. The distance from White Oaks to several county seats, is about as near a central point as could be selected. Before Judge Freeman finally determines to locate, he will visit White Oaks, and such inducements for a pleasant home and good comfortable residence will be placed before him that we all hope he may be our neighbor. The members of the Bar of White Oaks, are, with their numerous clients, entitled to the court in chambers at this point, and by a proper and fully prepared presentation of the necessity for it, and the saving of time and travel to the Judge and Court officers, by locating at White Oaks; business will be greatly expedited. While White Oaks is not a county seat, the Judge is not prohibited from locating and making it his home. Come and see us Judge Freeman, and we have no doubt of your conclusion.

Special to the INTERPRETER.

The sensation of the hour in Washington, in which even politics are eclipsed, is the first appearance as an advocate of ex-President Cleveland in the Supreme Court of the United States. The audience benches in this legal log-bank are usually empty, but the announced argument of Mr. Cleveland filled them as they have not been filled since the days when Webster laid down the law. Perhaps this illustration is inapt, as there is no comparison between the men. Mr. Cleveland is nothing of an orator. He simply talks, but his talk is full of sense. His argument, therefore, while devoid of rhetorical figures, and anything but declamatory, proved a strong one, concise,—he spoke but half as long as his associate—logical, and with every evidence of careful thought and precision of statement, both as to fact and law. Incidentally, it might be added, he should have proved a success as a supreme court lawyer, as his eighty minutes talk pays him fifty thousand dollars if it convinces the sleepy old monks who tell us what's in this free and blessed country. After Mr. Cleveland got through the old and brilliant lawyers who make the supreme court their particular stamping ground gathered about him with hearty congratulations; among the first of whom were Mr. Bayard, his secretary of state, and Mr. Garland, his attorney general. Another member of his cabinet, Justice Lamar, occupied a seat on the bench, and smiled his acknowledgements. Two members of the tribunal he addressed were of his own selection. Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Lamar, who with Judge Fields, of California, make the only three democrats on the bench. The Republicans have five with one vacancy caused by Judge Miller's death, and which will be filled by Harrison, thus making two thirds of the court republican.

Ere another week passes the elections will be a thing of the past, and many now anxious will have had that anxiety allayed, "one way or the other." The best opinions of the politicians here, if it is not too late to bring in prophecy, is that the next House of Representatives will be decidedly democratic—over twenty-five, perhaps thirty or forty majority. This is not the prediction of democrats, of course they think a victory is at hand, but the old codgers who have made politics a study for many years and approach it not with the enthusiasm of partisans but the philosophy of thinkers. These men too, are hail fellow well met, with all the public men of both parties, get on the inside of matters at the clubs and other rendezvous and in fact, but re-echo the best judgment of those who ought to know, and they laugh at the idea of the next House being republican. It is doubtful if these men if called on to vote, would know which side to take, so firm has become their habits of thought as political philosophers. But they have unerring judgment and that judgement is now that the next Speaker of the House of Representatives will be elected by Democratic votes.

REPORT OF CHURCH COMMITTEE.

White Oaks, N. M.

Oct. 31, 1890.

We, the committee duly appointed by the authorities of the Congregational Church do hereby make the following preliminary report:

We came to White Oaks to investigate, impartially, rumors and reports, which had and were seriously affecting the work of the Congregational Church and School. We extended an invitation to all who had facts bearing upon the issues before us, to present them.— We are grateful for the kindness with which we were received and the clearness and willingness with which the testimony was given.— we have taken down, in writing, a large quantity of evidence, have called on many of the citizens, have heard all sides, followed all clues, interviewed all persons whose names were in any way mentioned, and with justice to all sought to trace each rumor to its source. As a result, we find trouble of long standing in the community, intense feeling and bitter animosities, which have been exceedingly painful and unpleasant, not only to those most concerned but to the citizens generally. These conditions have seriously crippled all religious and educational work, and if continued, with the present decreasing population of the town, would in time render work with benevolent funds of the Congregational Church inexpedient and well nigh impossible.

As a committee of the Church we did not come to either investigate or vindicate the character of men and women not members of the Church of Christ. Rumors which charge citizens of this town with the gravest and most atrocious of crimes, viz; the destruction of moral character, we have followed till we have found their sources. But in every single case of rumor or report affecting the christian character and ministerial standing of the pastor of this church, or the purity and worth of other members of this church, we have been unable, after the most diligent and penetrating inquiry, from a large number of witnesses, to find proof of the accusations by any absolute, fact. We find a cordial support by the community of the work carried on by the Congregational denomination in the church and school in this place and that the present membership is united and zealous to do the work of Christ.

The evidence taken is on file in Albuquerque. The final and full report will follow in due time.

Ed. Fitzpatrick will depart for Costa Rica, C. A., on Tuesday.

To-day the mail will close at 3 p. m., for the East, and this will be the case hereafter.

Sheriff Nowlin is at the Railroad, where he went to meet Mrs. Nowlin, who has been on a visit east for some time.

Peter McCourt has been busy the past few days fixing up cornice and tin work for the new court house.—Roswell Register.

R. E. Lund arrived home on the stage Thursday evening. Mr. Lund's friends are confident that he will be appointed clerk of the court in this the new district.

To our friends at Roswell, Lincoln, Nogal and Red Cloud, we desire to thank you for sending returns of the late election so promptly.

The candidates for Clerk of the Court in the new 5th district, are R. E. Lund, T. W. Heman and E. S. McPherson, also E. McB. Timoney.

We were disappointed in receiving telegrams from the R. R. The telegraph wire is being moved from Lava to Carthage. When it is completed connection will be made from Nogal to Hill's ranch, and by the 25th the wire will be moved to Carthage. At this time we miss the usual telegrams.

Geo. Ulrick for the past two weeks has been at Liberal, Kan., in attendance on his sick partner, W. C. McDonald. While Mr. Ulrick is a republican, he will be gratified to learn that his wing of the republican party contributed to the only success that the party met with; that is, George Sena can thank Chairman Woodland and Geo. Ulrick more than any republican in the county for the large vote given him.

U. Ozanne, the Lincoln and San Antonio mail contractor, brought W. J. Littell's family down in a special coach from White Oaks Thursday and they will reside here permanently in the future. Will is very much elated in consequence. Mr. Ozanne says he will soon put on a weekly coach between here and the railroad for the purpose of hauling passengers and express, such as oysters, fruits, etc.—Roswell Register.

W. M. Dunning, brother-in-law of Henry Miller, who died in this city the other day, arrived last night from Logan, Kan., and will leave to-day with the remains for Williamson, New York, where they will be laid to everlasting rest beside the grave of his father.—Citizen, 31st ult.

W. N. Hightower, of Lincoln county, who left on the 8th of October, with Gen. Carr and fifty soldiers from Ft. Wingate, for a big hunt in the mountains eighty miles north of Fort Defiance, came in from the west last night, en route to his home. The party killed forty two turkeys, out of the number twenty-one being killed by Mr. Hightower, five deer and any quantity of small game. It was the most successful hunt yet reported in the southwest.—Citizen.

Col. Hinman Rhodes, whose appointment as agent of the Mesquero Apaches is announced from Washington, has long been a ranchman in Socorro county, and his home is some five miles from Gov. Ritch's ranch, Engle. He is a staunch Republican, and has the backing of many of the leading citizens of New Mexico. Prof. Chase, of Romona school, says he is an excellent man for the place. Col. Rhodes was in active service during the war of the rebellion and came up from the ranks to be colonel. He served two terms in the Nebraska legislature, and a man of good habits and very capable.—Southwest Sentinel.

Mr. Rhodes and son arrived in town Wednesday and are guests of Judge Bellomy. The gentleman are brothers-in-law, and have not met in ten years.

FOUD—A Gun; which the owner can have by proving property.—Stewart of White Oaks.

M. Whiteman and family will leave for Roswell Sunday morning. Mr. Whiteman came for them on Thursday evening. We are sorry to lose them, even for a short time. Jos. H. will remain in White Oaks for some time, to attend to the business and clear up matters generally. Mr. Whiteman has a great deal of property here and a good many tenants. Everyone joins us in wishing Mr. Whiteman and family good-bye and hope to see them return in the near future.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

A fine Mounted Grindstone, for sale cheap.—Stewart of White Oaks.

Joseph in all precincts in Chaves Co., has 342 majority; McDonald 370, and Richardson 418.

The splendid vote for McDonald in Chaves county is in a large measure due to the unwavering democracy of such men as Pat Garrett and Jas. R. Brand. There was no democrats in Chaves county who differed on the Legislative or Congressional ticket.

Looking over the field, how singular the figures. Following is the vote by precincts between McDonald and Gallegos, and Joseph and Otero. Compare them:

	Joseph	Otero	McDonald	Gallegos
Lincoln 96	97	53	137
S. Patrie 35	49	19	67
Ruidoso 30	25	33	26
Picacho 67	20	34	33
Las Tablas 30	21	18	35
White Oaks 98	54	103	42
Nogal 45	32	57	24
Bonito 56	4	57	4
Redcloud 4	5	6	3
Lower Penasco 33	8	49	7
Raventon 9	37	6	37
Weed and Upper Penasco	not heard from.

White Oaks republicans have only one consolation—they gave Sena a larger vote than Otero.

RAIN! RAIN! RAIN!

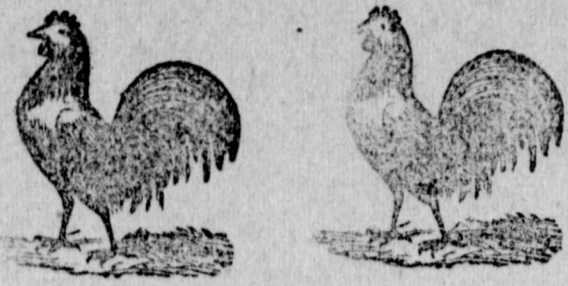

If there's one set of men who appreciate a good waterproof coat it is the farmer. He knows that a "Fish Brand Slicker" costs him less per year than any garment made. Did you know it rains or snows one day in three the whole year through? A "Fish Brand Slicker" makes every day a pleasant day to its lucky owner. Go anywhere with it in rain, hail, sleet, snow, or blow, it is wind and water proof. Costs less than rubber, and lasts ten times as long. Rubber is good for show days, but will rip in a week. If you want a coat for hard wear and hard weather, get the "Fish Brand Slicker." Every good thing has its imitation, so has the "Fish Brand Slicker." Look out. Beware of worthless imitations, every garment stamped with "Fish Brand" Trade Mark. Don't accept any inferior coat when you can have the "Fish Brand Slicker" delivered without extra cost. Particulars and illustrated catalogue free.

A. J. TOWER, - Boston, Mass.

A sharp decline has recently occurred in the cattle market. It was so low before that every cattleman in the country was embarrassed. Common cows sold in Kansas City the other day at 75 cents to $1.25 a hundred. And yet beefsteaks cost just the same as they did ten years ago when such cattle brought from $3 to $4 per hundred. The McKinley bill, which imposes a tax of $10 on each head, has the effect of still further depressing that industry, while it has increased the cost of living about 25 per cent.—Stock Grower.

This is only another nail. It is the universal cry from all sides. Cattlemen are producers and like farmers are not protected. Only capital and monopoly need look for protection from a Republican source.—Advertiser.

With a fund for the campaign of $700 contributed to defeat McDonald and Roberts, and the personal canvas of some very prominent republicans who went throughout the county with Cruz Gallegos paying expenses and distributing the aforesaid fund and the circulation of the most bitter and uncalled for stories against a few republican friends of McDonald. The workers against McDonald met with a deserved rebuke and defeat in every county in the district. In the White Oaks precinct Gallegos received 42 votes. There was only four Mexican votes polled in the precinct, 38 good, true and g. o. p. members went down with the brave Gallegos and the Gallant E. McB Timomey.

The race issue was the one made and 38 in White Oaks was all. If there had been more Mexicans in White Oaks, Gallegos would have received more votes. To the gentlemen who tried to defeat McDonald in the manner pursued, it must be a most annoying disappointment, to have Me carry the district by over 700 and the county by 125 majority.

McDonald during the canvas was a sick man and unable to get home; in fact is there still, and refused to allow his friends to make any expenditure, and he himself has put no boodle into the canvas. When he comes home he will have the gratification of knowing, that notwithstanding the superhuman effort of the aforesaid enemies, that no especial work by friends was performed—he has been so handsomely elected. To the republican friends and neighbors of Mr. McDonald, in White Oaks and throughout the district; he will fully appreciate their assistance against the vigorous protest of party friends.

GOOD-HALIOGRAPHY.

The seventeenth volume of Alden's Manifold Cyclopedia extends from Gogo (a town and seaport of British India) to Haliography (a description of the sea), and compares favorably with its predecessors in its skillful editing, handy form, excellent typography and binding, and its remarkable economy in cost. While in magnitude the Cyclopedia compares closely with Appleton's or Johnson's, and is considerably larger than the latest edition of Chamber's, it is vastly more comprehensive than either of them. Besides covering the usual ground of a universal Cyclopedia, it includes also an Unabridged Dictionary of the English language, every important word to be found in Webster's or Worcester's, and not a few besides which have grown into the language since their latest revision. Considering this comprehensiveness and its editorial and mechanical excellence, its price is hardly less than marvelous, being only a fraction of that of other high class cycedias. Specimen pages and easy installment terms sent free. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York, Chicago, and Atlanta.

Civil service has gone by the board. All the fruits of Mr. Cleveland's endeavors to give the American people a pure government, has been sacrificed to the political necessities of the Harrison administration. Collectors collect, bullies browbeat and state men sleep, while the executive departments have lost their virtue and the clerks their money.

What awaitest a man, though, if he loses his own soul?

Government employes have been persistently blackmailed by political squirts who have come into prominence simply because decent men could not be got to do the work required of them. Mr. Harrison knows this as well, if not better, than you or I, but no move is made, no word spoken, as of and by authority.

A correspondent who owns a large ranch on the Pecos River in southern New Mexico, writes: "I have been hearing a great deal lately about the abundant rains and fine grass on the Pecos in southern New Mexico. I am just back from my ranch, and am very much disappointed. Grass is none too good, although the cattle are looking well and mending rapidly, and will go through the winter all right. I anticipate hard times in the spring, and poor chance to gather cattle then unless we get exceptional rains. The overstocking of the ranges will take some years to recuperate even with good seasons. Calf crop is small, not over 35 per cent. even of last year, and that was short."—Stock Grower.

The Eddy Argus says: Until the railroad is extended, Roswell will get her freight from Eddy, thus saving a haul of over a hundred miles. Lincoln and other towns will also get their supplies from Eddy, making this an important shipping point.

Gladstone on the McKinley Bill.

London, Oct. 29th.—Gladstone arrived in Dundee to-day, and was presented with the freedom of the city. He made an address in which he referred to the commerce of the city which he said was threatened by the adoption of the new American tariff. He would not, however, he said, bring a railing accusation against the people of the United States. Protection, although it might inflict incidental collateral blows on other countries, it did far greater mischief to the country which adopted such a policy. Gladstone then proceeded to contrast the decrease in the tariff in England with an increase in the United States. He said he found comfort for England in the fact that it was not true that any tariff adopted by any government on earth could interfere seriously with Great Britain. The first effect of the McKinley bill would be to raise the standard of prices in the United States. This meant a diminished power of exportation; this again which while we were damaged in one of our twenty markets we derived the benefit on the other nineteen, from the diminished power of the merchants of the United States to compete with British merchants in any of them; this being due to the augmentation of prices in the United States and increased restraints under which merchants of the later country have to work. He advised manufacturers to allow America to find out for herself the evil effects that will follow the adoption of the high tariff.
