Active work of construction is now being done on the Fort Worth & Albuquerque R. R.

The world's fair committee has fixed the dates of the fair to be from April 30th to October 20th, 1892.

The senate committee on irrigation will recommend an appropriation of from $250,000 to $400,000 for experimental artesian wells.

The mountains of New Mexico are covered with snow. There will be water in abundance for irrigation in this territory this year.

Judge Wm. C. Hazledine is in Washington and recently made an eloquent plea for the admission of New Mexico before the committee on territories.

The greatest strike of labor history has just been inaugurated by the coal miners of England. Two hundred and sixty thousand persons, men, women and children, have stopped work. This strike virtually stops the production of coal in England and, if continued, will soon compel the suspension of operations by the iron works and all manufacturing, throwing millions out of employment. The possible consequences are absolutely appalling. All this is happening in a free trade country. What conclusions are our Democratic friends drawing from it?

The Las Vegas Seminary, both the old and new buildings, were destroyed by fire Saturday night the 15th inst. There were in attendance at the institution of learning 153 pupils, about twenty-five from abroad. The school was opened in the Buckingham on Monday morning last. The entire house and grounds have been thoroughly cleaned, and the rooms enlarged, so that the pupils will be comfortable and not crowded. It is hoped by the management that all the patrons of the school will stand by them for a short time when the Seminary will be rebuilt in a more substantial and attractive manner than ever, and will offer advantages equal to the best equipped eastern schools.

The tower of the Chicago world's fair will be 1,000 feet in height, 600 feet higher than the one which astonished the people of the earth at the French exposition. Already it is as good as determined upon, and the Phoenix iron works has offered estimates for the construction of the tower, pronouncing the plan for it entirely practicable. It will cost $1,500,000, or $500,000 more than the Eiffel tower. At the base it will be a circle 400 feet in diameter, diminishing to 276 feet in diameter at the top. Around it from base to summit will wind a roadway seventy feet in width in spiral fashion, on which cars will be run at one minute headway by a system newly invented. The whole distance from top to bottom will be three and a quarter miles by car line. Also there will be another road upward running between the curves of the spiral already described, for a driveway, by which carriages may be comfortably driven round and round to the very top. The grade will only be a little more than forty feet of ascent in every 1,500 feet or so of journey—that making one circuit of the tower at the bottom and a little more at the top.

Rumblings Caused by Mr. Gould's Present Trip to Texas.

From the Fort Worth Gazette.
 The visit of Jay Gould to Texas is neither for health or pleasure, and when his present physical condition is considered, it is not unreasonable to suppose that it was business, and business of more than ordinary importance, connected with his railroad property here that brought him to this state. He has visited one health resort (Hot Springs) since he left New York, and at that he remained too short a time to be benefited by the thermal waters. His investigation of his property here, his tarry in Abilene, and his long stay in El Paso, coupled with a trip over the White Oaks railroad grade as far as it has been graded, and the purchase of a large body of land at El Paso, all go to show that he has made this trip for business purposes.

It can be seen by less shrewd railroad men than Mr. Gould that there are roads now building that threaten to snatch from the Gould system valuable territory unless said system extends lines into it. There has been talk for some time of extensions both to the north and south from points on the line of the Texas and Pacific west of Fort Worth, and the frequent stops made by the Gould party on the trip from Fort Worth to El Paso is a straw going to give some color to these reports. That the Texas and Pacific will build from Sierra Blanca into El Paso, no one who is the slightest degree posted in railroad matters will doubt. The trip of Mr. Gould over the unfinished White Oaks road from El Paso, which runs to the northeast from that city, it is believed, will result in the purchase of the road by Gould, and that he will complete it to some point of connection with another line of his system. By doing this, the Rock Island, which is surely headed for El Paso, will in a measure be headed off, as this road can be completed far into the territory northeast from El Paso before the Rock Island touches Texas soil. How long the matters that will result from the "Wizard's" trip to Texas will be in developing cannot, of course, be stated, but in good time they will come.

Abandonment of Ft. Seldon.
 From the Rio Grande Republican.
 The president last Tuesday signed the order abandoning Fort Seldon and turning over the reservation to the interior department, subject to the act providing for the disposal of abandoned military reservations, passed July 5, 1884.

This act provides that the secretary of the interior, if it is his opinion public interest so requires, may cause any part of the reservation to be regularly surveyed, or subdivided into tracts less than forty acres each, or into town lots. Then each tract to be appraised by three disinterested persons to be appointed by him. When the appraisal is approved they shall be sold to the highest bidder for cash at not less than $2.25 per acre. The buildings are to be appraised and sold at not less than their appraised value. Special Agent Sledge received instructions from the secretary of the interior Thursday to see that settlers were kept off of the land until the department took action in the matter, it having been notified that settlements were being made.

HOMESTEAD.

446, Andrew Crawford; 572, Joseph Hole; 172, Heirs of Rafael Montoya, deceased; 448, James M. Miller.

Persons holding final receipts will be entitled to their patent upon the presentation of the former.
 Jay Gould note in the El Paso Bulletin: The great railroad wrecker and reconstructor will take hold of the White Oaks abortion and will put it through Lincoln county and from White Oaks connect with his eastern system, shortening the distance to St. Louis by 250 miles. He will extend the T. & P. from Sierra Blanca, Texas, to this city, a distance of ninety miles, and thus relieve the G. H. & S. A. of further annoyance from this source. This will necessitate the erection of depots, round houses, work shops, in this city. He is interested in securing cheap fuel which is another incentive to his completion of the White Oaks road. He will construct a line from El Paso through the Sierra Madres connecting with the Deming line in the vicinity of Corralitos. Mr. Gould invested in El Paso real estate, during his stay, in the sum of $21,000 as shown upon the records, but good authority places the sum involved to a sum approximating $50,000.

The New York Sun has been speculating on the result of the next census. It estimates the gains over 1889 as follows: In the New England States, from 4,010,529 to 4,500,000; in the Middle States, including Maryland and West Virginia, from 12,196,886 to 15,000,000; in the Western States, including the Pacific Coast, from 16,005,081 to 23,500,000; in the Southern States, from 16,837,316 to 22,000,000. Total 65,000,000. The greatest estimated gains are in the west, and the next greatest in the south. These two sections will gain in representatives, in congress and in presidential electors. New England will lose, and the Middle States about hold their own. Neither party will gain materially over the other. But the actual result may differ widely from this estimate.

The El Paso Dam.

In connection with the proposed international dam above El Paso, a project which affects Dona Ana county in this territory greatly, it might be well were some of the influences and agencies at work in its behalf investigated. A correspondent informs us that Major Anson Mills, of the U. S. army, who has been detailed to investigate and report upon the feasibility and construction of the dam and lake, is largely interested in El Paso real estate. Of course the carrying out of the project, if our information is correct, would enhance the value of his real estate. Major Mills, we understand, is a competent engineer and an honorable gentleman, but, if he owns a large block of real estate at El Paso, no matter how correct and honest his views in regard to the dam project are, people will make remarks. It is human nature.

Again, our correspondent informs us that the effect of the dam and lake will put many and many an acre of valuable land held by small owners, and for many years at that, and situated in New Mexico, under water and render such lands entirely valueless. An El Paso syndicate is also reported already at work securing at comparatively small cost lands in the vicinity of the proposed dam and lake (the latter is to be about eight to ten miles wide and about twenty miles long) in order to unload the same to the government, which of necessity must have these lands, at a good, round advance. The attention of the senate and house committees on irrigation is called to these matters. This territory is vitally interested in the case. Why El Paso county, Texas, should be benefitted at the expense of the people of New Mexico is just a little more than we can see—Santa Fe New Mexican.

We oppose the use of public money for any enterprise of the kind. Plenty of private capital can be had to do it, and it will be better done than by the U. S. government.

There has been introduced in the senate a bill to repeal the timber culture laws. The bill further provides that any person who has made an entry on public lands under the timber culture laws, who has for four years complied with the provisions of said laws, shall be entitled to make final proofs and acquire a title by paying $1.25 per acre. Pending action the house went into a committee of the whole on the pension appropriation bill. March 20.—The proposition to repeal the timber culture laws was discussed for nearly an hour yesterday. Mr. Payson, chairman of the public lands committee, called up the bill. He said that it was supported by the secretary of the interior and the general land commissioner. Several members opposed the repeal of the law, but the majority of the speakers were in favor of it on the ground that the law was a cover for fraud, and that it had not proved successful in any particular. The Dakota representatives were especially vigorous in advocating the repeal. The subject went over without action. It looks as if the bill would be passed by a large majority.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Attend the school exhibition.

Easter Sunday the 6th of next month.

Mr. Goldberg, representing Loewenthal & Myers, wholesale liquor dealers of Albuquerque, is in town.

Dr. and Mrs. Wallace are recent arrivals in Roswell. Mrs. Wallace, formerly Mrs. Harris, is well known to the people about Roswell, she became the wife of Dr. Wallace a few weeks ago in Mississippi. They will make the Pecos valley their home. The Dr. is an energetic business man, having retired from the practice of medicine he will engage in a general real estate business in this country, he is a heavy real estate owner in the east and has bought and sold a great deal of property in the past few years.

Among the arrivals at Roswell, during the past week, we note that of Frank E. Downs, W. E. Downs and Dwight Downs, who are guests of P. F. Garrett. F. E. Downs is engaged in the cattle business in the Guadalupe mountains, some 100 miles south of this place, and is a nephew of M. A. Upson. Dwight Downs has recently disposed of a business, (the manufacture of woolen goods,) at Providence, Rhode Island. There is good prospect that he will invest in real estate in the Pecos valley, probably in close vicinity to Roswell. W. E. Downs is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, and still a student of Lick Observatory, Cal., but has a vacation of one year. He is in communication with L. M. Long, C. E., with purpose of engaging in business in this valley. These gentlemen, introduced by Messrs. Garrett and Upson, are heartily welcomed.

Mr. Pete Penosky, one of the successful fishermen of Roswell, gave us two fine bass the other evening, caught by him in Spring river, that made a delicious meal.

C. C. Fountain, road supervisor, is after the poll tax, and the boys are all kicking. Pay up and let us have the roads of the county in as good a condition as possible.

S. S. Mendenhall returned from White Oaks Monday. He took our St. Louis reservoir parties to that place to catch the Carthage stage. He reports a good trip and his party safely off.

C. C. Fountain informs us that he is prepared to carry express to Roswell and Las Vegas via Fort Sumner. Express will come through without delay, charges to be paid on this end of the line.

J. W. Carter makes his bow to the Chaves county people this week. They have their store well stocked with new and fresh goods, which they are selling at reasonable prices. See their ad. and try them.

John J. Cockrell is much better, his illness was temporary. From a letter received by a White Oaks attorney, John J. is transacting business as usual and will be at Lincoln at court, or before—Interpreter.

Capt. J. C. Lea is plating an addition to the west side of Roswell. The new addition will contain 100 acres, and is the best property of the town company. We predict a rapid sale of lots in this addition.

Notice the change in the meat market ad. Mr. Minter is now associated with Wm. Fountain, the old reliable butcher. They will improve the business and keep always on hand the best meat the country affords.

The Albuquerque National Bank has a new advertisement in this issue of the REGISTER. This is one of the best institutions of the kind in the territory. A safe depository and pleasant gentlemen associated with which to transact business.

The raffle for the town lot put up by Mr. Francis, will come off as soon as the remaining numbers are taken. There are only a few left, and those wishing numbers can obtain them of Mr. Richardson, Gilmore's drug store, or at Rivers' saloon.

Mr. Solomon Jaffa left Roswell for his home in Trinidad, last Sunday morning, via White Oaks, Mr. Nathan Jaffa taking him that far in his private carriage. He will be back in Roswell June 1st next, to attend the meeting of the reservoir company.

The brick yard is not a very progressive institution, but we presume the bad weather is the cause of the delay in making brick. If the court house does not go up any faster than the hotel the county will have to rent buildings to hold court in for a year or two.

W. G. Lane, E. Roseberry, M. H. Roseberry and O. T. Roseberry, of Springer, are in Roswell and the valley looking for a location. They are carpenters by trade, and will remain here and take up some land if the town and country will afford them work, they say. It will afford them work sure.

Col. George Stonerod and Mr. R. G. McDonald, two of Las Vegas' prominent citizens, arrived in Roswell Tuesday evening. Mr. McDonald is here to look after the interest of the business of what was the firm of Booth & McDonald, but now R. G. McDonald, and Col. Stonerod is here to look at the country. The Col. we hope will be induced to become interested in the Pecos valley by the purchase of some real estate.

Dr. and Mrs. Wallace are recent arrivals in Roswell. Mrs. Wallace, formerly Mrs. Harris, is well known to the people about Roswell, she became the wife of Dr. Wallace a few weeks ago in Mississippi. They will make the Pecos valley their home. The Dr. is an energetic business man, having retired from the practice of medicine he will engage in a general real estate business in this country, he is a heavy real estate owner in the east and has bought and sold a great deal of property in the past few years.

E., with purpose of engaging in business in this valley. These gentlemen, introduced by Messrs. Garrett and Upson, are heartily welcomed.

The Reservoir.

The meeting of the reservoir company was adjourned last Thursday, after a very satisfactory series of meetings, at which the business of the company was thoroughly outlined. The details in the management of construction was all considered and arranged. The plans and specifications for the dam are now being drawn by experienced hydraulic engineers and architects of St. Louis, and will be in Roswell ready for contractors to figure upon by the first of May, before which date the advertisement for the letting of the contract for the whole work will appear in the REGISTER. The contract will be let June 1st next, at a meeting of the company to be held in Roswell, and work will begin immediately after and pushed to completion as fast as possible.

This work will include the first reservoir, and furnish water for 40,000 acres of land. The rates for water have not been discussed as yet, but the company have expressed themselves enough to warrant us in saying that the rates will be liberal to the settler. They want only a fair return for the money invested, and that they ought to have. Eastern farmers looking for a desirable place to secure a home cannot do better than locate in this valley under this reservoir. The land is certainly superior in quality and the country is a most beautiful one.

Any communications addressed to L. M. Long, chief engineer, for information in regard to land under the reservoir will receive prompt and courteous attention.

FIELDS OF FIRE.

How the Blaze Spread in the Cherokee Strip—A Graphic Report.

TOPEKA, March 18.—From private dispatches just received by one of the Cherokee Strip Live Stock association members from their agents along the border from Arkansas City west to Englewood, 180 miles, it is learned that the entire Cherokee Strip, sixty-six miles wide, from the Arkansas river to "No-Man's Land," has been burned off by a band of conspirators who are working in the interests of the boomers.

An eye-witness of the destructive prairie fire says that when the fire started a deep red glow was seen springing up on all sides, lighting up the heavens with a lurid glare. Gradually the glow deepened to blood-red, and the sky, which was unobscured by a single cloud, became covered with smoke. As far as the eye could reach was a sea of curling flames. The great clouds of smoke ascended gradually to the zenith and were wafted northward by a gentle breeze.

What was at first supposed to be a drove of antelope caught in the fire proved, on closer inspection, to be an organized band of mounted men, who were engaged in kindling fresh fires in the tall grass.

A BARREN WASTE.

The country is now devoid of vegetation. It is one great barren waste. Wild animals of all kinds fled by the thousands before the advancing flames. By lighting "back fires" the boomers managed to evade the fearful effects of the flames. The idea was theirs and it was a preconcerted plan to rid the strip of 200,000 cattle and remove the greatest barrier to immediate settlement of the country.

The cattlemen had hoped to enjoy undisputed possession of the lands by virtue of their lease with the Indians until October 1 next, the date set by President Harrison for the final removal of the cattle.

At a meeting of the principal directors of the cattle company it was decided that the cattle would be given into the hands of the Kansas farmers to be fed until the grass on the Kansas plains has sufficient growth to make good pasturage.

The president of the Kansas Live Stock Sanitary commission, in this city, was appealed to to-day by wire to suspend the quarantine against the importation of Texas cattle, and in all probabilities this will be done at once.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.

These are emulsions and emulsions, and there is still much skinned milk which manufactures as cream. Try as they will many manufacturers cannot so dispense their cod liver oil as to make it palatable to sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion of PURE NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL, combined with Hypophosphites is almost as palatable as milk. Now this is reason as well as for the fact of the stimulating qualities of the Hypophosphites. Physicians frequently prescribe it in cases of CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, BRONCHITIS and CHRONIC COUGH or SEVERE COLD.

All Druggists sell it, but be sure you get the genuine, as there are poor imitations.

Revival of an Old Color.

How many years is it since claret color was in fashion? To look back it seems an age, since it was worn in dresses and bonnets, like reading of the Crimean war or the Indian mutiny. It really is not as far back as either of these events, the last heyday of this pretty color, but it is so remote that dating it is difficult. In those days dress materials were few in number, and the choice of one for a winter costume was limited to about as many as could be reckoned on the fingers of one hand. Now we should look out for a centipede, if that kind of calculation were to be made, for there seems to be no end to the varieties of textiles offered by enterprising manufacturers. In the time of claret color the best stuff was French cashmere, though there were imitations known as coburg, French twill, etc., and there were other mixtures with a good deal of cotton interwoven, the color of which was fleeting and went out, leaving red spots, if a drop of warm liquid fell on any part. The new claret is to be seen in cloth, velvet and plushes, and very beautiful it is. Our eyes for color change their standard from year to year, but to present taste the new claret is a sadder tone, with the old brightness dimmed down. Oddly enough some of the present reds suit it; and stranger still, old rose does not hurt it in the least, maize harmonizes, not perhaps the old color, contemporary with claret, but the new one known to the French modistes as ble.—Nottingham (England) Express.

Took Him for a Tree,

Not very long ago the keeper of the wild cattle at Chillingham escaped being injured by them in a way which shows how much may be accomplished by presence of mind. They were being fed, and he in some way had got between them and the hills, when, something having alarmed them, they made one of the mad rushes in which, like Highland cattle, they often indulge. He gave himself up for lost, as he was in the open ground where the two continents had to meet as they came flying around the paddock. Partly because he was a Scotsman, and resolved to die with "his face to the foe," but still more because he knew fight to be certain death, he folded his arms, drew himself up to his full height, and stood perfectly motionless. He says he himself expected to be killed, but the cattle, perhaps mistaking him in the dusk for a tree stump or a gate post—to which his gaunt figure bears no slight resemblance—swerved as they approached and scampered past without touching him.—Montreal Star.

"Ah, that horse was a gallant beast," said Gen. Vane. "You should have seen him at Antietam—he sent the battle afar off." "You bet he did," said Kuhl, "if you were on him."

Judge—to Prisoner: "What did you shoot that man for?" Prisoner: "By gravy, Jedge, he was only ten feet off, and I couldn't miss him without ruinin' my reputation." The case was dismissed.

"How beautifully soft it is," he murmured, laying his hand on her glorious white arm. "How less beautiful, but oh so much softer," she tenderly replied, laying her jeweled hand on the top of his venerable head.

Wife (affectionately)—How is your rheumatism this morning, John dear? Husband—Pretty bad, my dear; pretty bad. W.—Why don't you try the mind cure? H.—There ain't anything the matter with my mind. It's my joints, dear; my joints.

Mother (to her old maid daughter)—"Why, Julia, what do you mean by using the family Bible in that way? You are scratching out figures in the family record and inserting others." Julia—"It is a record of my birth, isn't it?" "Yes it is," "Well, I'm lowering the record."—Texas Siftings.

We'll Suppose a Case.

You are nervous and dyspeptic, your appetite flags, your slumber is broken or disturbed by uneasy dreams, or you court the sleepy god in vain. What shall you do? Try an alcoholic excitant to stimulate appetite, deaden the nerves at bed time with a narcotic! Neither of these. Try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It will, believe us, be more than a trial. You will continue to use this justly renowned nerve invigorant and stomachic. It is in the exigency supposed just what is wanted. It is a healthful stimulus to appetite and digestion, does not excite, but quiets the brain and nerves, is an excellent diuretic and a speedy reformer of a disordered condition of the liver and bowels. It counteracts a tendency to rheumatism, nullifies the prostrating effects of overwork, mitigates the infirmities of age, and hastens convalescence. Persons exposed to rough weather should use it as a preventive, as should also tired students and business men.

So confident are the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy in their ability to cure Chronic Catarrh in the Head, no matter how bad or of how long standing, that they offer, in good faith, the above reward, for a case which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.

Headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness, difficulty of clearing throat, expectoration of offensive matter; breath offensive; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once. Thousands of cases result in consumption, and end in the grave.

By its mild, soothing, antiseptic, cleansing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Remedy cures the worst cases. This infallible remedy does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs, "creams" and strong caustic solutions with which the public have long been humbugged, simply palliate for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs, as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrums, but it produces perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases of Chronic Catarrh, as thousands can testify. "Cold in the Head" is cured with a few applications. Catarrhal Headache is relieved and cured as if by magic. It removes offensive breath, loss or impairment of the sense of taste, smell or hearing, watering or weak eyes, and impaired memory, when caused by the violence of Catarrh, as they all frequently are. Sold by druggists, at 50 cents. Manufactured by WOOD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
