MAKE A $90,000 DEAL

W. L. Souther Trades Brady Property to That Amount for Big Ranch in Sutton and Crockett Counties.

One of the biggest transactions in real estate which has transpired locally in several years is constituted in a contract between W. L. Souther of this city and John Martin, of Ozona, papers for which are now in the hands of the attorneys for examination of titles, etc.

Mr. Martin is a brother of P. J. Martin, one of Brady's business men, and owns a large ranch between Sonora and Ozona. He came over to Brady with his family about two weeks ago looking for town property, and the deal with Mr. Souther was begun at that time. By the terms of the deal Mr. Martin will get the Souther stone business house, corner Blackburn and First streets, the opera house property just to the rear, the old

M. Jones corner lot on Blackburn street and just opposite the Souther stand, fifty acres of land adjoining the fair grounds property on the north, Mr. Souther's handsome $5000 residence in the south part of town, and probably some other Brady town property. Mr. Souther will get in exchange for all this a splendid ranch situated in Sutton and Crockett counties embracing 12,340 acres, 3000 head of sheep, 1400 head of cattle, 40 horses and mules and various other items going with the ranch. The valuation placed by each on his stuff is approximately $90,000. The papers are up and if the titles come up right the deal will be closed.

LOSES LEG AT OIL MILL

W. H. Gentry Steps in Seed Conveyor at Brady Oil Mill and Suffers Amputation of Member.

W. H. Gentry, an employe at the Brady Oil Mill (the Bencini mill) suffered an accident late Tuesday afternoon which resulted in the loss of his right leg at the knee.

Mr. Gentry was at work in the seed house and in some manner not explained stepped into the run which holds the seed conveyor. In an instant his foot and leg were drawn under the sharp knives of the conveyor and the limb terribly broken and lacerated.

Physicians were summoned and it was immediately decided that amputation was necessary. The limb was accordingly at once removed at the knee joint.

Mr. Gentry is a young man, twenty-three years of age, and has a wife and two children. He is reported as doing well since the operation, and will doubtless be out again in the course of a month or six weeks.

Railroad News.

A party of railroad officials embracing prominent men from both the Frisco and Santa Fe systems are due to be in Brady today. At this time the conflict over right-of-way in North Brady will be threshed out. Perhaps other matters will be arranged, but of this The Standard is not informed.

Mr. A. M. Case and wife, of Fort Worth, are registered at The Queen. Mr. Case informs The Standard that he will have charge of the Frisco construction work on the first fifteen miles out of Brady on the Menardville extension.

Doole-Melton.

A marriage of much interest to Brady people because of the local prominence of the contracting parties was that which united the lives of Dr. T. P. Doole and Miss Mamie Melton, solemnized at the home of the bride's mother in Fort Worth Monday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of the late Col. Melton, and is widely known and universally loved here. With her mother she has been living in Fort Worth since the death of her father. The groom is also well known here, a member of one of the most prominent families in the Brady country, and at present a practicing physician at Fredonia, which point will be their home.

Dr. and Mrs. Doole came in Tuesday and have been visiting relatives here during the meeting of the District Medical Association. They will go to their home at Fredonia today, and the best wishes of all Brady people will attend them.

Mason Wants Santa Fe.

A dispatch from Mason to the daily press a few days since states that the people of that town have just about given up hope of getting the Frisco and are now making overtures to the Santa Fe to build into their town. Several of the large cattle shippers say they will sign a contract to ship all their cattle via the Santa Fe if that road will build to Mason. The impression at Mason, according to these dispatches, seems to be that the Frisco has given up the idea of building from Brady, via Mason, to San Antonio.

PRESIDENT LOCKE HERE

Promoter of the Colorado, Texas & Mexico Road Spent Monday and Tuesday in Brady.

Morris R. Locke, president of the Colorado, Texas & Mexico Railway Company, was here Monday and Tuesday, having just returned from a trip to Llano and through Gillespie and Kendall counties. To a Standard reporter Mr. Locke said:

"Everything is in line south of Brady for the building of the Colorado, Texas & Mexico railroad. Construction will begin as soon as the preliminaries can be arranged, and the counties named have asked for thirty days time in which to comply with the terms of the deal."

Mr. Locke says the whole southern country wants railroad connection with Brady, and if Brady is not the railroad center for this section of Texas it will be the fault of its business men. Mr. Locke went north over his line Tuesday, and will return to Brady about Nov. 15, at which time he will meet the McCulloch county railroad committee.

Ed Broad, who bought the house just vacated by Julian Davis near the public school building, has added several rooms and porches and has made of the place one of the nicest in that portion of the city.

Fire at Waldrip.

Our Waldrip correspondent writes under date of the 15th to the effect that three barns belonging to D. W. Hill were destroyed by fire that night, with a loss of 150 bushels of corn, several tons of cotton seed and other feed stuffs. Our correspondent adds that the dwelling of Mr. Hill was only saved by heroic work. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been due to spontaneous combustion.

THREE more shipments of Ladies' Suits and Coats received this week and two more will arrive before Saturday, which makes a total of thirty-one shipments this season. We are right up to the day with the new things. Why buy your suit out of goods made last spring and delivered in August when you can get a suit made during the past ten days in the late styles and more especially when you can get a tailored garment for less than you pay for "hand-me-downs." We handle the only line of Ladies' Tailored Suits, Coats and Skirts in Brady, and we sell the new things in Furs.

Our men's suits are moving. If we don't sell you a suit it will be because you don't look through our line.

We are not going to boast of our business, but watch the throng of people at the Grand Leader and note the smile on their faces and you can judge the cause.

We are leaders in the gent's furnishing line in Brady. We are here with the lines that denote style quality and we make the price right.

Our Dorothy Dodd Shoes for Ladies are coming to Brady as fast as the steamship and railroad can bring them from Boston, so wear your old shoes just a few days longer and then you can get a pair of Dorothy, which means no more corns or bunions, no more headaches caused from cramped feet.

Ready for Business and Getting Some of It

OUR new store is open for business and we are already receiving a very nice share of the public's trade. While all our goods have not yet been received and our fixtures are not all yet in place, we are ready to take care of your orders in Dry Goods and Groceries, and if we can't show you where it is to your advantage to trade with us on the cash basis we won't expect your business.

Our stock will be one of the most complete in Brady and will consist of standard lines of high-grade merchandise. Our terms will be STRICTLY CASH TO ONE AND ALL ALIKE. Buying in large quantities for cash and selling for cash will enable us to quote you closer prices and render you better satisfaction in every way. If you have never tried the cash system of merchandising you will be surprised at the savings it will offer you, and we ask you to put us to the test.

We are in the cotton business, too. We want to buy your cotton and will pay you the best prices. Bring us your cotton whether you buy a dollar's worth or not; we will buy it anyhow, and if you do buy from us at the same time we will make it interesting for you. We are here to do business and will make the prices right, both in buying your cotton and in selling you our goods. Come in and see us and get acquainted with us and our business methods. Remember the place—west side square, in the Rice corner building.

DOCTORS VISIT BRADY

Fourth District Medical Society Held its Annual Convention in This City Tuesday and Wednesday.

The San Angelo, or Fourth District Medical Society honored Brady by holding its annual convention in this city Tuesday and Wednesday, and the attendance was quite good, there being about forty physicians present for the sessions. Among the number were men prominent in the medical life of the state; such men as Dr. Bacon Saunders, of Fort Worth, Dr. John T. Moore, of Houston, and others.

The association was called to order in the district court room at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday by the president, Dr. C. M. Alexander, of Coleman, with Dr. J. W. Ellis, of Lampasas, at his post of duty at the secretary's desk. Rev. T. P. Grant delivered an invocation, after which Thos. Bell on behalf of the citizens of Brady extended a welcome to the visitors in his usual graceful style. This speech was responded to by Dr. T. K. Proctor of San Angelo, after which the association immediately got down to business. A very strong program of papers and discussions followed. The business of the association was in three "broken doses," there being held a night session and a morning session on Wednesday.

Following the Tuesday evening session the visiting doctors were tendered a banquet at the Queen by the local physicians. This banquet was one of the most enjoyable affairs of its character ever held in Brady. Mine Host H. N. Cook had prepared an elaborate menu, served in splendid style, and Dr. Frank Boyd, of Fort Worth, made a most excellent toastmaster, presiding with dignity and injecting enough humor into the situation to put everybody at ease with himself and in good humor with the world at large. The toasts were responded to in fitting style and it was in the early hours of Wednesday morning when the banqueters dispersed. The menu was as follows:

Oysters
Sweet Pickles Stuffed Olives
Roast Young Turkey
Cranberry Sauce
Saratoga Potatoes French Peas
Shrimp Salad
With Tomatoes and Green Peppers
Cheese Sandwiches
Vanilla Ice Cream
Coffee and Cigars

At the final session of the society the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. A. C. DeLong, president, San Angelo; Dr. J. W. Ellis, secretary and treasurer, Lampasas; Dr. S. C. Parsons, counselor, San Angelo. San Angelo was named as the meeting place for next year.

Pecans at the Fair.

No premiums were awarded on pecans at the fair last week because there were no entries made in accordance with the terms of the fair catalog. Nevertheless there were some very fine pecans shown, and perhaps special mention is due the exhibit of J. D. Parker, of Voca, this county. Mr. Parker showed no less than fifteen different varieties of pecans, some of them being of a size to cause much comment.

T. J. Wood also had some very fine pecans on exhibit.

We have on display the nicest, the largest line of rockers ever shown to the people of this country. We can please you and give you a value and one that cuts deep into competition. O. D. Mann & Sons.

The South Bend Watch, the one that will run while frozen in a solid block of ice, sold by J. V. Searcy, jeweler.

Streets to be Sprinkled.

O. D. Mann & Sons have received their new street sprinkler and have started it to work to show its merit. This firm has decided to keep down the dust in Brady if they have to do it themselves. The sprinkler is a Studebaker, the best made, 600 gallons capacity, and with the pumping plant, water tower, piping, team, etc, will represent an expenditure of about $1500. A pump with gasoline engine will be installed on the creek, 2-inch pipes laid to the business district and a large storage tank erected, so that there may be an abundance of water for the purpose at all times at a minimum of cost. The plant will be installed as soon as the work can be done and the dust nuisance will soon be abated in the business district. Brady will owe a debt of gratitude to this firm for its enterprise in this matter.

A pain prescription is printed upon each 25c box of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Ask your doctor or druggist if this formula is not complete. Head pains, womanly pains, pains anywhere get instant relief from a Pink Pain Tablet. Central Drug Store.

There has yet been found no clue to the party who stole the two bales of cotton from the Lohn gin on the night of the 14th. The cotton was bought by A. W. Wood at an early hour the following morning, the check was cashed as soon as the bank opened for business and the party seems to have made a clean get-away without leaving a trace as to his identity. The amount involved was about $143.

Mrs. Jack McGaughy, of Brownwood, was over for the fair last week and to visit her husband at The Queen. After meeting Mrs. McGaughy one does not wonder that Mr. McGaughy has acquired the title of "Happy Jack." He has the right to be happy and his genial disposition is not to be wondered at.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocers everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt nuts, etc., have been cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute", too. No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. Test it and see. Dr. Shoop created Health Coffee that the people might have a genuine coffee substitute, and one that would be thoroughly satisfying in every possible respect. Sold by all grocers.

A showing of a bale each of peavine and peanut hay by C. W. Corbell, of Voca, was noticed at the fair last week. These two forage crops are among the best to be found for milch stock, and are easily grown: The peavine hay is equal in feeding value, ton for ton, to wheat bran, and better for milch cows than alfalfa or any other kind of hay. When properly cured and baled it commands a price equal to alfalfa and is always in demand. McCulloch county ought to raise much more of this hay. The two bales shown were each adorned with a blue ribbon.

Singing Convention at Lohn.

Owing to the number of singers and leaders of note from a distance that attended our last convention we have decided to prepare and publish the program after we assemble. We find it next to impossible to prepare a program showing proper courtesy to all leaders and organizers, or to adhere to one prepared beforehand when we do not know just whom to expect. It has already been shown that this is no longer a McCulloch enterprise alone, as Concho and San Saba county singers too, were present at our last meet, and these, with Coleman county also, are to be ably represented at Lohn. So come, all singers and lovers of song, and let's make this even a better convention than we had at Fife, which is saying much.

THE HOBGOBLINS OF SCIENCE

Protection of the Human Race Against Destructive Microbes Has Become a Mania.

Montclair bakers must now deliver their bread in "sealed antiseptic bags," so that no microbes may get in it.

The fears of the Psalmist regarding the pestilence that walketh in darkness and the destruction that wasteth at noonday were merely a mild form of vague apprehension by comparison with the vivid alarm now excited by bacilli and bacteria, says the New York World. These microscopic foes of man have taken the places of the giants and the hobgoblins of former days. In the new folklore of fear it is the invisible dwarfs of disease that wage eternal warfare on man. They are the terror by night and the arrow that flieth by day.

Asceptic boxes for handkerchiefs, aseptic bags for bread—what next in the evolution of the microbe mania? The wonder grows how the race has been kept from extinction exposed as our grandfathers were to the unchecked ravages of these subtle enemies.

The Palace Drug Store has recently installed a cigar case which goes far toward making this popular store fully deserving of the name it has been given. It is one of the handsomest cases of any kind to be found in the city.

Notice to Exhibitors.

BRADY FAIR ASSOCIATION.

The Sweden Band.

Brady fair visitors were treated to some good music during the fair last week. The Sweden Band, an organization of men and boys of the Sweden settlement about five miles west of town, were given the music contract by the fair management, and be it said to their credit no one has any cause to regret that a home band was employed. The band numbers thirteen pieces, and is under the leadership of C. A. Jacobson. They made good music.

Dr. P. A. Baze and wife of Mason and Dr. Jackson and wife of Voca, were here this week for the meeting of the medical association.

If Sick

Don't risk even one single penny! And I will tell you why I say this. It is because every package of Dr. Shoop's medicine is absolutely free of all faults. No one need risk even one single penny. Just think what this means to the suffering sick! No risk, no expense, nothing whatever unless health first returns for 30 full days, and without the risk of a single penny, you can use either of my two famous medicines—Dr. Shoop's Restorative or the superior Rheumatic Remedy. Then why take any chance whatever? Why purchase any medicine whose maker dare not back it just as I do by this remarkable offer?

And besides, I am not a doctor. My "No pain purgative" oil has made Dr. Shoop's Restorative a favorite in every drug store in the land. The risk here, we said, "We take no chance whatever here." For twenty years Dr. Shoop's medicines have become thoroughly standardized all over America. And I have a good honest and responsible druggist in every city and village everywhere to act as my agent and sell these selected drugs and medicines to you. These selected drugs and medicines with the sick—and the entire risk is mine alone. But write me first for an order. I have an agent in almost every community—but all druggists are not authorized to grant the 30-day test.

So drop me a line, please—and thus save all disappointments and delays. Besides, you are free to consult me by letter as you would your home physician. Do so freely and fully—if you desire. My advice and the book below are yours—and without cost. Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I have helped thousands upon thousands by my private prescription or personal advice plan.

Besides, the books will open up new and helpful ideas to you. They tell of my 30 years experience at the bedside in homes and in Hospitals. All phases of sickness and relief are told of here. They tell of my "No pain" "inside nerve" no larger than a silken thread that gives to the Heart, its impulse. How the Stomach and Kidney each have an inside or power nerve. How these organs surely falter when these controlling or master nerves begin to fail. How Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing nerves, and rebuilds, and restores the lost tone and power. I can surely help you—if it is within the power of medicine to do so. My best effort is surely worth your simple request. So write now, while it is fresh in your mind, for tomorrow never comes. Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

BRADY, TEXAS, OCTOBER 28, 1909

PUBLIC SCHOOL BONDS.

There have been no new developments in regard to having the order of election as issued by the school board revoked and a new order issued for two ward buildings instead of one. As the situation now stands there will be an election held in Brady Independent School District Nov. 9th, on the question of issuing bonds to the amount of $15,000 for the building and equipping of a new ward school building in said district.

There should not be any doubt of this bond issue carrying. Should there be any doubt in the mind of any voter regarding the necessity for the additional building, that voter should take a trip to the present school building and view the situation. The last available room has been provided and seated with new desks, and the new teacher is in her place. Yet at this early date in the school year there are not more than a dozen vacant seats in the entire building. At the beginning of the term following the holidays last year there were enrolled 126 new pupils. This year there will be fully as many to enter at that time. In addition to these the population has increased, the number of scholastics is much greater, and the cotton picking season will come to a close during November and before the first of December the school will be badly crowded. By the opening of the January term the present facilities will be totally inadequate to take care of the children of the district.

What are we going to do about it?

What else can we do about it except to vote these bonds, build and equip the new building as quickly as possible and prepare to take care of our school interests as it should be done.

There should not be a dissenting vote. No other issue should be allowed to obtrude itself at this time. The move to erect two ward buildings instead of one may be a worthy one; probably is a worthy one. But if we haven't the means to erect two buildings let's go ahead and erect one, for which the means are assured. Neither should the location of the building be allowed to cut any figure in the unanimity of the people's vote. You have elected a school board. You have empowered them with the province and the duty to look out for your school interests. There is only one duty you as a citizen now owe the school, and that is to vote the bonds and leave the ensuing details to them. This is what should be done. Let's do it.

THE FAIR A SUCCESS

Large Crowds of Visitors, Good Exhibits

and Good Races Characterize
Brady's Annual Fair.

The second annual meeting of the Brady Fair held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, was a success. The town was thronged with visitors, the exhibits, races and attractions were good, and the financial end came up bright.

The exhibits, taken as a whole, were not as good as last year, due to the drouth which prevailed during the spring just when field crops were maturing. But while this is true, and the exhibits were not extensive, yet the quality was there, and a wide variety of products was covered.

The races were better than last year, and were witnessed by big crowds each day. This feature of the fair proved quite a popular one and was highly enjoyed. Financially the fair came out well, though perhaps the total receipts were a little short of the previous year. Everything considered, the second annual entertainment may well be characterized as a success and satisfactory to all concerned.

A full list of the prize winning exhibits in all departments is given herewith, the list being as provided us by the fair association:

Some Good Reasons.
There are many reasons why the people prefer to trade with J. F. Schaege. First, he uses nothing but the best materials in the construction of his goods. Second, he employs none but expert workmen. Third, he employs no crooked methods. He calls superior saddles good, and inferior harness bad. Yours for a square deal, west side square.
You will find us at the same old place, in the old way, selling our goods on their merit alone. We know no other way and do not care to learn any other way. Our main stay is Hardware and Furniture. O. D. Mann & Sons.

WALDRIP WARBLINGS

Waldrip, Texas, Oct. 24.
Editor Brady Standard:
The heaviest rain of the year fell here Monday and continued through the night and most of Tuesday. Cotton picking this week was impossible but oat sowing was taken up during the latter part of the week. All oats sowed before the rain are up and looking fine. Cotton picking will begin afresh today. We are making much more than we expected and every day the frost stays off allows us some more. Most all feed stuff has been cut and stored for future reference.
Pecan gathering is in full blast. Good prices has caused the careful gathering of each tree. The crop has netted the people quite a neat sum. One day last week one of our merchants here bought 3000 pounds at 7 1/2 to 12 1/2c per pound.
We are looking forward to the restoration of our bridge as the commissioners of Coleman and McCulloch counties are to be here today to investigate the matter.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson, of Blanket are here on a visit to Johnson's mother, Mrs. R. E. Johnson.
Messrs. Winstead, Randals and Hays attended the fair and report a splendid time. Every body expected to go but the rain interfered.
Little Ruby McBride fell out of a farm wagon last Thursday breaking her collar bone and bruising her shoulder but at present is doing well.
Hurrah! for Brady, she is going to get that creamery sure. If cream and cows is the only bonus the company needs we can furnish that in quantity enough to keep a half dozen busy.
Sorry the rain affected all the correspondents but irregular mail service owing to the swollen streams and heavy roads made it impossible to do better.
The Colorado river has had from 4 to 15 ft. of surplus water in it all week.
PROGRESS.

Waldrip, Texas, Oct. 18.

Booming, well yes. Between railroad meetings and railroad talk we can barely find time to gather cotton or hull pecans.
Verily, "a thing of beauty is a joy forever." We have always known that our county was God's garden spot so it just makes us glad to be alive and see others recognize the fact.
Love your country and stick to your home town; push, pull and help will make anything. You may think you are not absolutely necessary but you are, else you never would have been created.
It is essential for everybody to help at all times in any enterprise so let's all hustle as one in securing the three railroads that propose to come to Brady. They will come through our coal and oil fields.
Now we can plant our truck. Yes I am going to have a truck patch, apiary and poultry yard. Many times I have tried on a small scale and always been successful. With a market convenient it can be done profitably. Many times I have planned and thought of the time when this country would be turned from vast pastures and long-horns into what nature really made it for, just a big happy neighborhood entirely independent, raising everything we eat and wear and dwelling in peace and harmony together. Every day brings us nearer to a realization of these happy things.
Newspapers—yes they come first. Railroads and telephones have caused distance to cease to be a factor in country life.
Brady is our county site and has held our reverence so long that we could not transplant our affections. It must be always our representative town. It's in McCulloch and that ought to be sufficient. The man who said, "live in hope and die in despair" must have suffered from indigestion, as we have lived in hope always and have lived to see too many hopes realized to ever think of despair. Anyway if we had to die in despair we wouldn't die at all but just put it off until another time.
Our commissioners have got busy looking into the bridge question and when they get busy they get results. We need roads, too, our wagon roads are a disgrace and must be remedied.

It wastes too much horse flesh and man's patience to haul a load of farm produce 20 or 30 miles over these trail freaks called roads.

That Fair—well it is sure to be a success, it is so necessary. An annual fair and a United Confederate Veteran re-union are as necessary in the south as a cotton mill. The farmer keeps up our interests in our yearly work and makes us proud of the county we live in and glad to show it to others. The latter brings to gather the grandest old men that ever tramped to martial music. They love each other as brothers and each reunion marks an epoch in their dear old hearts. It gives the youth of to-day a chance to get a few ideas of patriotism that cannot be learned elsewhere. Lets have both every year. Look out for the cars we are coming to the front so fast we get dizzy. PUSH, PULL and HELP and if you can't get enthused—tie you had better practice.
BUTS BODY.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the cause, rather than the effect would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the heart, and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by Central Drug Store.

MILBURN MIX-UPS.

Milburn, Texas, Oct. 23.
Editor Brady Standard:
A. B. Clardy and family left last Wednesday for New Mexico, their future home. We regret to lose such a family as the Clardy's from our midst.
Mr. Fuston and family, from near Richland Springs, have moved here, and will occupy the Clardy home.
There has been services at the Baptist church every night since Tuesday, conducted by Rev. Moran, Missionary of the Brady Baptist Association.
The best rain we have had in a long time fell here last Monday, and although it injured the cotton some, it was a great blessing to the country.
Most any day, the vegetable wagon of J. B. Jones, can be seen loaded with fine turnips, tomatoes sweet potatoes and other vegetables.
With such a good season in the ground, farmers are getting ready to plant wheat and oats.
Our school began last Tuesday. Prof. Taylor, principal and Miss Butler of Bangs, assistant.
Gathering pecans and picking cotton is the order of the day now, but neither crop is as good as usual.
Mr. Radford Burk will move on his farm, and Prof. Taylor will occupy his town place.
The R. B. McCarty apples will soon be on the market.
L. W. Williams and Edgar Beakley attended the Brady Fair Thursday.
Rev. J. C. Thames will go to Onion Gap today to fill his appointment.
Correspondents come on with your items and let's have news from all over the country.
IDAHO.

We want your furniture business. Why? Because we have the stock, the quality, and price. We know we can make it to your interest to make your selection here. Cash or credit. In either case you get great value. O. D. Mann & Sons.

J. P. Waddill was a county court juror this week. He returned home Tuesday, the court having finished the docket.—Rochelle Record.

The fair is over but Kirk, the tailor, is still rushed and is still after more business. Let us fix up your old clothes to look like new. Phone "Nuf Sed" and he will do the rest.

Our stove surgeon is ready to call; just phone him, that will be sufficient. O. D. Mann & Sons.

If the Floor is Warm the Whole Room is Warm

The fire in the Wilson Heater is so perfectly under control that with very little attention to the dampers, your rooms can be kept in a constant, healthful temperature. The celebrated Down-Draft creates perfect combustion in the Heater so that the whole heater gives out heat instead of just the top portion, as is the case with other heaters. You know, of course, that hot air rises so that when the Wilson heats the floor as well as the upper air of the room the whole room remains at a steady even temperature.

WILSON HEATER

To the Public.

The livery business of Thompson & Co., The Brady Auto Co., and the auto business of Thompson & Co., have been all consolidated under the name of the Brady Auto Company. A VERY BUSY MAN.

Charming Experience With an Over-worked Irish Watchmaker.

I fell in with a delightful man at a little town in County Fermanagh. I wanted a little thing done to my watch, and I asked him how long it would take to do it. He assured me that he was driven to death with work and was up till late every night trying to get ahead, but that he would try to find time to mend my watch some time before 7 o'clock, when he nominally closed. Then he followed me to the door of his shop and began to ask me questions about America. He pointed out different passersby and told me their life histories. And every once in a while he would say: "I've not had a day off for nearly a year, not even bank holiday. Never a minute for anything but work. I've an order now that's going to keep me busy, except for the time I'll give to your watch, all the rest of the day. And dinner eaten in my workshop to save time."

I bade him good day and didn't go near there until 7 o'clock in the evening. I found him outside the shop discussing the strike of the constabulary at Belfast with a neighbor.

"Awfully sorry, sir, but I've been so busy today that I've been unable to finish that job. It'll not take over twenty minutes when I get to it. Can you come in the morning?"

Next morning I was at his shop at 9 o'clock, and he was just taking down the shutters. Said he worked until 10 o'clock the night before, but seemed farther behind than before. If I'd come up into his workshop he'd fix my watch while I waited.

Up there he had some photographs to show me that he had taken a year ago and had only just found time to develop. We talked photography for twenty minutes, and then he fixed my watch in a jiffy when he got to work.—From "Just Irish," by Charles Battell Loomis.

A VOTE OF THANKS.

The Way Dwight L. Moody Handled the Question in England.

Possibly the most novel response ever made to a request to return a vote of thanks to a chairman was that made by Dwight L. Moody during his first visit to England.

He had attended a meeting at which the Earl of Shaftesbury was chairman. The duty of proposing a vote of thanks was assigned to him and the announcement made:

"Our American cousin, the Rev. Mr. Moody of Chicago, will now move a vote of thanks to the noble earl who has presided on this occasion."

The whole thing was quite out of Mr. Moody's line. English formalities might or might not have come gracefully from his lips had he attempted them, but he did not. With an utter disregard of conventionality he burst upon the audience with the bold announcement:

"The speaker has made two mistakes. To begin with, I'm not the Rev. Mr. Moody at all. I'm plain Dwight L. Moody, a Sunday school teacher. And then I'm not your American cousin. By the grace of God I'm your brother, interested with you in our Father's work for his children.

"And now about this vote of thanks to the noble earl for being our chairman this evening. I don't see why we should thank him any more than he should thank us. When at one time they offered to thank our Mr. Lincoln for presiding over a meeting in Illinois he stopped it. He said he'd tried to do his duty and they'd tried to do theirs. He thought it was about an even thing all round."

That opening fairly took the breath away from Mr. Moody's hearers. Such a talk could not be gauged by any known standard. Mr. Moody carried his English audiences with him from that beginning to his latest labors.

Who He Was.

At the crossing of the river Styx Death met a stranger with a grin on his face.

"Who are you?" demanded Death.

"I am your manservant," replied the stranger.

"My manservant?" repeated Death, somewhat puzzled to know what the new arrival meant.

"In other words, the valet of the shadow of Death," chortled the stranger.

It is perhaps superfluous to add that before journeying hence the stranger had been a professional jokesmith.—New York Times.

Three Meals at Once.

"Now, Mary," said her mistress, "you must come to the door of the drawing room and say, 'Breakfast is ready, and supper is ready, but dinner is served.'"

The newly corralled domestic inwardly digested the concise instructions and that evening convulsed the guests who were awaiting the announcement of dinner by stepping between the portiers, dopping a courtesy and repeating, "Breakfast is ready and supper is ready, but dinner is served!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Badly Expressed.

"The human monstrosity!" said a young lady attending a fair with her sweetheart. "Threepence! Wouldn't you like to have a look at that, Herbert?"

"No, dear," answered Herbert, anxious to bestow a neat compliment; "I am quite content to look at you."—London Mail.

A Tart Retort.

"Can a politician be a good Christian?" was once asked of the late Senator Ingalls of Kansas, when he replied, "With God all things are possible."

KILLED THE JAGUAR.

The Terrible Boa Constrictor of the Mexican Jungle.

I had been traveling for about an hour, trying to locate the source of the Santa Rita and winning every inch of ground by hacking and slashing with the machete, when I was startled by a most fearful scream, which seemed to come from somewhere immediately behind me. Turning round and looking back over the trail I had just made, I saw a great commotion taking place among the vines, dead leaves and decaying branches which carpeted the ground, and the blood-curdling screams I had heard rang out again and again. Returning a little nearer, I discovered a "tiger," or, properly speaking, a jaguar or American leopard, and it was writhing in the coils of an enormous boa constrictor. The great snake appeared to have the side of the jaguar's head in its mouth and a coil or two of its body around the neck of the beast, which was making frantic efforts to regain its liberty. The snake had its tail coiled round a small ebony tree about a foot in diameter, and whenever the hapless jaguar relaxed its efforts the serpent would swiftly release itself from the tree and make an attempt to get another coil around the body of its opponent.

I stood there fascinated with horror and yet forgetting my fear in the interest I was taking in this terrible fight between beast and reptile. Presently the snake with an incomprehensibly quick movement succeeded in getting two more coils around the body of the jaguar, but not without receiving severe laceration from the formidable claws of its victim. Then, letting go the jaguar's head, where it seemed to have a firm hold, the boa constrictor raised its head seemingly in triumph and, with its tail still wrapped round the tree, lifted the body of the jaguar up in the air. I heard the bones crack under the fearful strain, and with one awful, despairing scream the jaguar fell back, dead!—World Wide Magazine.

THE SHIP'S CAPTAIN.

At Sea He Is a Caesar, and His Authority Is Absolute.

When you have passed down through the Narrows and then passed Sandy Hook you see a man in whiskers and a reefer climbing down a rope ladder that drops him into a waiting boat.

It is the pilot. You have dropped the last link connecting you with shore except wireless telegraphy, and you are now a member of a community that for a few days, a week, is as much an entity as any nation.

The captain is pacing the bridge. Until you reach shore again he is your overlord. His decision is final and without appeal. He can order you locked in your stateroom or he can put you in irons.

If occasion arises he can alter the course of the ship and land you wherever he pleases. You have recourse when you get ashore, but if he wants to drop you at the Azores when you have paid passage to Bremen he can and will do it.

His authority extends to every part of the ship alike, from the cargo to the saloon deck and from the engine room to the scullery.

Navigating a ship is a ticklish business and one that requires that there be no division of the highest authority. So, for the brief period until he touches port, he is your czar.

The ship is a great community, sometimes with a population of 5,000 souls, living, eating and sleeping under one roof. It has its policemen, its firemen, cooks, butchers, bakers, doctors, clerks, carpenters, electricians, boiler-makers and a horde of personal servants.

In the control of this organization the captain has at his right hand his officers. The ship's officers are the important persons in the detail management.—Bookkeeper.

Her Bargain.

An Oil City man, who was detained at the house for a part of the day, handed his wife, who was going downtown, a quarter of a dollar and requested her to get him three cigars for it, according to the Billiard.

When she returned she handed him the package, remarking exultantly: "That shows that women can beat men all hollow when it comes to making purchases. I found a place where I could get eight for a quarter instead of three. Isn't that going some?"

And the poor man, as he took his medicine, merely remarked: "It certainly is, dear."

Stoats Hunt in Packs.

In some years stoats appear to be more numerous than in others, and they are seen not in ones and twos, but in dozens, hunting together in small packs. Stoats will hunt together from scent and in full cry like a pack of hounds, one always keeping the line and followed closely by the others. This sight has been recorded by different observers who have also seen weasels hunting in the same way.—Fur News.

The Resemblance.

Miss (making an unexpected raid on the kitchen)—Who is this, Mary? Mary—Me me brother, please 'm. Mistress—Indeed! But he doesn't resemble you in the least. Mary—No'm! But he was remarkable alike before 'e 'ad 'is beard shaved off.—London Sketch.

AS TO LOSING MONEY.

A Case Showing the Importance a Ten Dollar Bill May Reach.

"To some men," said a man now of amplest means, "the loss of $10.00 might be a joke, and then to some the loss of a ten dollar bill might be a tragedy."

"Poor? Why, we were so poor that we had to count every cent, every penny. Not that we were miserable. We were very far from that. As a matter of fact, we were happy, but we certainly did have all the time to wait very close to the wind."

"There were four of us—wife, two children and myself—and, bless you, how we did have to figure and scribble to make both ends meet. I've never the time, many a time, when a nickel was of great importance to us, when it was the last cent for carfare. I often think what a blessing it was that we were none of us ever sick; that nothing ever happened to us. I don't know what we'd done if there had."

"I was going to tell you what it might be to some folks to lose a ten dollar bill."

"Ten dollars was the amount of our monthly rent, and whatever else we did we always saved out of my week's pay the weekly proportion of the rent, to have it ready when it was due. I always used to get a ten dollar bill in my pay envelope, and when it came to the last Saturday in the month we just used to take the ten dollar bill out of the envelope to pay the rent with, and then we had the amount we'd saved out of three weeks to go on for current expenses."

"Well, one last Saturday that happened to come three days before the end of the month we took the ten dollar bill out of the envelope as usual for the rent and as usual my wife put it away—she always looked after the finances—and there we were all comfortable and happy, with the next month's rent all ready, and then on the last day of the month, when she went to get it out to have it handy when the landlord came she couldn't find it!"

"If that wasn't a tragedy I don't know a tragedy when I meet it. I don't suppose I took it quite so hard as she did, and I'd have shown it as little as I could anyway on her account, but to her it was nothing less than a calamity."

"When the children had gone to bed we tore the house apart. We looked and looked and looked into every nook and corner over and over again, but that ten dollar bill, with all that it meant to us—and I doubt if you can imagine how much it did mean—was gone. That was the first thing we had on our minds when we woke up in the morning, and gloomy enough for us that morning was. And then when I was eating my breakfast in our modest dining room she looked in at the door from the kitchen, and 'I've found it!' she said, and so she had, just where three days before she had hidden it away, and so was our great gloom changed to joy—to joy with a large, large J."

"Yes, sir. We got more now, by considerable, and now she has what she wants; now she doesn't have to skimp. In these days I take her home myself now and then a ten dollar bouquet. We can afford it. But I never shall forget as long as I live how we felt when we thought we'd lost that ten dollar bill or the joy that came to us when we found it, for, you see, how a loss strikes you depends so much on how much you've got."—New York Sun.

Climbs Up the Trunk.

The native elephant driver never has to bother with a step ladder in mounting his beast after he has trained him for a little time, for the easiest way to get up is to ascend by way of the trunk. Standing in front of the elephant, the driver grasps him by the ears, this being a signal that he wishes to mount, and the obedient monster promptly arches his trunk so that the master can easily step upon it and go right on up to the top of the elephant's head.

"I understand from the physician," said the first member, "that Tom has brain fever. He'll recover, but it's thought his mind will be a blank."

"I trust the diagnosis is incorrect," came in fervent tones from the second member, "inasmuch as Tom owes me $100."—Lippincott's.

WONDERFUL, IF TRUE.

R. H. Gregory of Ashland, Vt., has demonstrated that the theory of a frog living without food or water is beyond a doubt the truth. Gregory made an experiment after reading a magazine statement that frogs had been known to live hundreds of years while sealed in a brick wall. Sealing a frog, Gregory placed it in a hollow of a tree and sealed it with cement. Years passed and the man forgot the frog. Gregory was a mere boy when the creature was shut out from liberty. A few days ago the tree was broken. Gregory had his attention called to the hollow, the cement breaking with the fall of the tree. Removing the cement, the frog leaped out as live and hearty as when it had been sealed up.—Exchange.

That Lame Back Means Kidney Disease

And to Relieve the Lame and Aching Back, You Must First Relieve the Kidneys

There is no question about that at all—for the lame and aching back is caused by a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder. It is only common sense, any way—that you must cure a condition by removing the cause of the condition. And lame and aching back are not by any means the only symptoms of derangement of the kidneys and bladder. There are a multitude of well-known and unmistakable indications of a more or less dangerous condition. Some of these are, for instance: Extreme and unnatural lassitude and weariness, nervous irritability, heart irregularity, "nerves on edge," sleeplessness and inability to secure rest, scalding sensation and sediment in the urine, inflammation of the bladder and passages, etc.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are an exceptionally meritorious remedy for any and all affections or diseased conditions of these organs. These Pills operate directly and promptly—and their beneficial results are at once felt. They regulate, purify, and effectually heal and restore the kidneys, bladder and liver, to perfect and healthy condition—even in some of the most advanced cases.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail postpaid.

If you are, you naturally desire to secure the best lines for the money you spend.

Here's an endorsement of the

FOOS GASOLINE ENGINES

OFFICE OF
Traveling Freight Claim Agent
Harrisburg, Texas

June 6th, 1909.

THE FOOS GAS ENGINE CO.,
Springfield, Ohio.

GENTLEMEN:

A representative from your factory was at my place today and examined my Foos and suggested some slight repairs, namely: A new gasoline valve spring and a push rod notched finger.

By my own fault, some months ago I accidentally broke the governor on this engine and sent you for new parts, but the two new pieces now ordered are actually the only repairs that this engine has had or needed in the ten or twelve years it has run, and your man, Mr. Geo. Oates, who was here today, can tell you that the engine, for practical use, is almost as good as it ever was. As I told him today, I would rather pay for a Foos than have any other make free of charge.

Please send me by mail one part No. 72 (push rod notched finger) and one part No. 126 (gasoline valve spring.)

Send me the bill and I will remit.
Respectfully,
J. B. GILBERT.

A Wonderful Winchester Victory.

At the Grand American Handicap Tournament, held in Chicago, June 21-26, and participated in by nearly 500 trap shooters, D. A. Upson, of Cleveland, Ohio, won the Amateur Championship of America; Fred Gilbert, of Spirit Lake, Ia., the Professional Championship of America; Frank Fischer, of Eagle Grove, Ia., the Preliminary Handicap; Fred Gilbert, High Average for all targets trapped; and John R. Taylor, of Newark, Ohio, High Average for Double Targets. The Grand American Handicap resulted in a tie between John R. Livingston, of Springfield, Ala.; William Wetleaf, of Nichols, Ia.; George E. Burns, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Fred Shattuck, of Columbus, Ohio. In the shoot-off of the tie, Shattuck won, scoring 20 targets; Mr. Livingston, who shot from the 19 yard mark,

Jones Calls It Off.

San Angelo, Texas, Oct. 22—(Special) Colonel Morgan Jones writes that for the present negotiations with reference to the building of the Abeline Northwestern into San Angelo from Ballinger are called off. He gives as his reason the fact that the Miles & Paint Rock road has been sold, and not knowing who has bought it, or what territory it will cover, he does not care to build into San Angelo. He expresses himself as being desirous of building here, but until he ascertains just what the Miles & Paint Rock line is going to do he will not make any move in this direction.—Fort Worth Record.

WILL GET CREAMERY

Practically Certain Now That Brady Will Organize a Home Capital Creamery Company.

Mr. J. W. Quinn, whom we mentioned last week as being in Brady for the purpose of interesting local capital in the establishment of a creamery, is still in the city, and informed us yesterday that it was almost a certainty that he would be successful in his efforts.

A number of local men are interested in the proposition and the details are being rapidly arranged. A meeting of business men and others interested was held last night to discuss the matter, and Mr. Quinn addressed the farmers at the court house Monday afternoon relative to the benefits to accrue to them as a result of the establishment of the industry.

At the farmers meeting there were present perhaps thirty farmers and cow owners. Mr. Quinn made them a practical talk, giving such information as was desired, and which, boiled down, was the effect that a creamery would pay the farmer for his butter fat at a rate that would mean a monthly revenue from each cow of from $4.00 up, according to the quality of the milk produced. In short, the farmer would realize about one cent a pound for his milk, and would get the skim milk back to feed to hogs, chickens, etc. After his talk was concluded about ten men present signed the cow agreement, a total of 67 cows being secured immediately.

Among the men signing the agreement were two who put down seven or eight cows, but who said that they would later enter an agreement to milk from thirty to fifty each. It is easy to be seen that a total of three or four hundred cows will be had as a starter. Two hundred is the minimum number required.

Another meeting of the farmers is called for 2:00 o'clock next Saturday afternoon, to further discuss this matter.

The Standard is gratified at the manner in which the creamery proposition is being received, and we expect to be able to announce next week that the company has been finally organized.

Guessing Contest.

In The Standard's guessing contest at our fair grounds booth during the fair last week S. A. Benham and S. R. Mills, of Brady, tied for first prize, each guessing that there were 580 beans in the jar. Mrs. S. R. Mills won second prize with a guess of 590. F. C. Bode, of Pontotoc, won third prize, his guess being 595.

First prize was a year's subscription to The Standard and the Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News. Mr. Benham gets The Standard and Mr. Mills the News. Mrs. Mills takes a year's subscription to The Standard as second prize, while Mr. Bode will receive The Standard six months as third prize. The orders have accordingly so been entered.

The contest attracted considerable attention, and several hundred names were registered. The Standard's booth, with its free ice water and rest room features, was evidently greatly appreciated, and we were enabled to meet and greet numbers of our readers from all over the Brady Country.

That Waldrip Bridge.

The McCulloch County Commissioners Court went to Waldrip Tuesday and met there the commissioners from Coleman county. A decision was reached that a new steel bridge of the most modern design should be constructed at the Waldrip crossing at as early a date as possible. Each county will call an election for bonds to the amount of $9000 each for the purpose.

The people of Waldrip and community had prepared a big picnic dinner for the officials and all report a most enjoyable time. The Standard is glad to see this matter thus settled, as this bridge has been long needed.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by Jones Drug Co.

Likes The Standard.

One of our readers in the northern portion of the county writes The Standard as follows: "I do enjoy The Standard so much. The absence of 'patent' matter, which is always stale and never read, makes the paper contain about twice as much as the average local paper. Your efforts for improvements over the county in general are much appreciated. Thanks will be due you for the creamery if we get it. You have done well."

The Standard accepts this little bouquet in the spirit in which it was offered, and is glad to know that our efforts for the general welfare of McCulloch county are appreciated. We have done what we could in the past and expect to do all we can in the future to promote the industrial, moral and social interests of the county. We feel that we are located in the best county in the state and we are proud of it. As to the actual worth of the paper as a newspaper we leave our readers to judge for themselves, and we do little boasting. Just now we are not giving our readers as much news as we did through the summer, for the reason that our local business men demand considerable of our space, but in the face of that fact we think the amount of good reading matter carried each week will compare favorably with any other country weekly in the state, and a little later on we expect to do better. We also expect our country correspondents to do better later on. Just now they are all busy with their own affairs and have not time to write, but later on they will come in again and help us continue the publication of what we started out to give you—"the best paper McCulloch county ever had."

—Kodak finishing at the Penny Store by L. W. St. Clair.

You know this is the best year to hold cotton. Ship it through Tom Elliot.

Miss Nellie Knight, of Lampasas, visited friends in Brady during the fair.

Ask for floor-shine. Something new, and it pleases too. O. D. Mann & Sons.

E. R. Crockett, of Stacy, had a fine display of McCulloch county tomatoes at the fair last week.

—Just received—100 boxes of window glass. We can beat anybody's prices. Jones Drug Co.

That Old Watch can be repaired by J. V. Searcy, the jeweler, who will repair it as it should be done.

Big furniture values. Best quality, all under one roof. We know how to please you and give you your money's worth. O. D. Mann & Sons.

A full house of pianos and organs just arrived. Come to see us while here attending the fair, and make our store your home. Bourland Music Company, Syndicate building, northeast corner square.

Lewis Brook had some very fine alfalfa hay on exhibit at the fair last week, grown on his farm at Camp San Saba under irrigation with genuine artesian water.

The number of pupils enrolled in the Rochelle school is now between 165 and 170 and the increase yet to come in will run the enrollment near the 250 mark. Professor Lowrance informs the Record that the present seating capacity will be inadequate and that the building will, in all probability, be too small to accommodate the large number of pupils. Judge Walker informs us that the school bond election would be ordered at once and with a new $10,000 school building—we're going to have it—you can bet on this hustling little city making one of the best and most substantial towns in West Texas.—Rochelle Record.

The Fife Exhibit.

The Fife people were the only ones to have a community exhibit at the fair last week. If every community in McCulloch county had done as well as Fife the agricultural features of the fair would have been something to be proud of indeed. While this was not a good year for the gathering of such exhibits, yet the Fife people managed to get together a very creditable display of corn, cotton, milo maize, kaffir corn, Egyptian wheat, oats, pecans, fruits and vegetables generally, the whole making up a most attractive feature of the fair and attracting much favorable comment from all visitors to the exhibit tent. The Standard congratulates the people of Fife for their enterprise in this matter, and trusts that another year will find other communities falling in line.

A cook stove is something you will not have to buy every day, and for that reason you should be careful in making a selection. We handle the National. They took the gold medal at the World's Fair in 1904, and if they were not the best stove on the market they certainly would not have been awarded the gold medal. Satterwhite & Martin.

A. B. Carrithers, of Eden, has sold his property there and will move to Brady. Mr. Carrithers has just returned from Washington county, Arkansas, the place where the big red apples grow which have made Arkansas famous. He says they are purchasing a new plan of making cider in Washington county this season. They feed the big red apples to the rosy-cheeked girls and then squeeze the girls.

We will sell you the best bed spring on earth for $3.50. If you don't think they are the best spring you ever saw for the money, come and look and be convinced. Satterwhite & Martin.
