Teachers Institute.

E. L. White, superintendent of public instruction in McCulloch county, has again demonstrated the stuff that good educators are made of by securing the co-operation of Mason, Menard and Concho counties in the holding of the McCulloch County Teachers institute at Brady October 18th to 22nd. This means that there will be an assemblage of about 200 teachers in Brady at that time.

Not only this, but Brown, Coleman and San Saba counties continue to co-operate and work in harmony with the McCulloch institute.

Mr. White has likewise been highly successful in his efforts to secure a splendid body of lecturers for the institute, and the number includes not only men of highest standing in educational matters in the state, but men of national reputation as well.

In connection with the holding of the institute, it is urged upon the citizens of Brady that they put forth every effort to assist in entertaining and caring for the delegates during the holding of the institute.

PEAR VALLEY PICNIC.

Celebrate Building of the New School Building.

The citizens of Pear Valley have planned a big old-fashioned Basket Picnic and Barbecue for next Friday, September 24, to commemorate the building of their handsome new $4200 school building, now under construction by Contractor W. P. Gray.

With characteristic enterprise the Pear Valley folks have arranged a splendid program of entertainment for the visitors that day, and in addition will have an abundance of barbecue, pickles, bread, cakes, pies and everything good to eat.

The program is announced as follows:

12:00 m.—Old fashioned basket picnic and barbecue.

2:30 p. m.—Match ball game.

5:30 p. m.—Match basket ball game.

6:30 p. m.—Box supper.

At the box supper a cake will be awarded to the most popular young lady. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time.

You ought to see a New Home or Free sewing machine with an electric motor attached. We show them in our window. O. D. Mann & Sons.

ROAD BUILDERS.

McCulloch Citizens Improve Road at Own Expense.

If there is anything The Standard editor takes pleasure in commending it is road work, and his attention has been directed to two localities where the citizens have, at their own expense, improved the roads and placed them in first-class shape.

The first of these, Messrs. Henry Smith, Will Priest and Ab Spraggins, not only worked their allotted five days on the county roads, but they put in several days of their own time improving the Bissett tap road leading from the Pear Valley community to the Coleman road. The improvement included grading two miles of the road and placing it in first-class condition.

Overseer Peel is also to be commended for the work done by him on the Salt Gap road, he having done much good work on the road at his own expense.

Not only are these gentlemen benefitting the county through their efforts, but in addition to the benefit they, their neighbors and the public in general, derives from the improved roads the example is one that is well worth following.

One quality—only the best. Where? Kirk's, of course. Nuf Sed.

MEETING CLOSES.

Rev. Reynolds Concludes Meeting at Baptist Church.

Rev. J. M. Reynolds concluded a very successful meeting at the Baptist church Sunday night. During the two weeks of the meeting, Rev. Reynolds has had good attendance and his forceful and earnest sermons created growing interest throughout the meeting, with the result that fifteen additions to the church were had.

At 4:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon ten of the candidates were received into the church by baptism, the baptismal service being held in Brady creek at the Coleman bridge crossing. Sunday night's services resulted in five more declaring themselves and baptismal services will be held for these on next Sunday afternoon.

BRADY, TEXAS, Sept. 21, 1915

THE INSTITUTE.

October 18th to 22nd Brady will hold in her midst some 200 teachers in attendance upon the McCulloch County Teachers Institute, held jointly with that of Menard, Mason and Concho counties. The large attendance will make the occasion something more than an institute—it will equal a conference.

There is not a city in the state but what is alive to the importance of securing a conference, convention or association. It means something for the town. Just as Dallas takes pride in being known as "The Convention City," so should Brady be proud of the fact that through the efforts of Superintendent E. L. White, Brady has been selected as the meeting place of 200 teachers.

Most of the teachers will be strangers here. Many of them will be young ladies. Brady and Brady citizens should put forth every effort to entertain and care for these guests. Doors to private homes must be thrown open to them. And as many schools have not yet begun, or are just beginning, consideration should be given the fact that many of the teachers will not have an over-abundance of finances. Therefore, it is urged that reasonable charges be made for board and lodging.

Help Brady attain the reputation of being the most hospitable and best all-around town in Texas. It will pay. It will bring the teachers back.

Cut your weeds.

Join the Parent-Teachers club.

Brady is proud of her schools.

Not too late to swat the fly.

Brady still continues to offer a splendid market for all manner of produce.

There is nothing the matter with girls wearing ankle watches, that is if they do so for convenience, because men's eyes invariably follow the laws of gravitation.—Hamilton Record.

It is hard to realize, and it is harder to make a visitor believe that Brady does not support a first-class band. Brady has ample talent—but Brady citizens are somewhat backward about encouraging a band. The town that hath not a band to toot its horn, that town's horn is not likely to be tooted.

ON THE WATCH.

People wear ankle watches so they can watch their step.—Temple Telegram.

Watchu mean, watch their step? The watch watch the watches' step, or the people watch the watches' step? Or do we watch the people's step that watches watch?

The rolled stocking has not yet made its appearance in Brady. We have been looking for it, and never expect to abandon hope.

A surprisingly large amount of oats has been shipped from Brady this year. The Standard will endeavor to obtain figures—they'll startle you into admiration for McCulloch, the best county "what am."

"Stop my classified ad about wanting to rent the hotel," phoned Ed Wade, "I have rented the hotel as a direct result from the very first insertion." The Standard's classy Classified ads are read by everyone—they work while you sleep.

An appeal is made to the fathers and mothers of Brady to take greater interest in the Parent-Teachers club. In every city where the citizens are alive to greater and better educational work, the Parent-Teachers club wields a power and influence for good that cannot be minimized. Brady needs a good, strong Parent-Teachers club to co-operate with the teachers. Great good for the future generation can result from earnest effort along this line just at present.

George L. Rheay was a business visitor in Brady Saturday, having come up from Rochelle for the express purpose of becoming acquainted with the Brady merchants, and of soliciting their business for the Rochelle Record, of which he has just assumed management. Mr. Rheay is from Seadrift, having exchanged his newspaper plant there for the plant of the Rochelle Record, and Will Hamilton, former editor of the Record, going to Seadrift to assume management of the plant there. Both Mr. Rheay and Mr. Hamilton are enterprising and hustling newspaper men, and The Standard trusts each may meet with success in their chosen field.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Despite the heavy rains of last week, cotton came in quite briskly yesterday and quite a bit of it sold for 11c. The market, middling basis, ranged around 10 1/2c.

W. H. Morgan, an expert saddle maker, arrived Sunday morning from Clayton, N. M., and will have charge of that branch of the business for J. F. Schaeg. Mr. Morgan has the reputation of being one of the best saddle-makers in West Texas, and as Mr. Schaeg has built quite a reputation along the line of turning out only the highest class saddles, he feels quite fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Morgan. Mr. Morgan for a number of years was located at Coleman, and is well and favorably known throughout this section.

seated on a limb and right in line of fire, he couldn't resist the temptation to try killing three birds with one shot. Just as he raised the gun he noticed mud on the end of the barrel and hesitated an instant while he sought to brush the dirt away with his hand. A deafening roar and a tingling pain—and the index finger of the left hand was clipped off and the middle finger bruised and split. The doctor then bethought himself of the fact that, for the first time in his life, he had failed to put the trigger on safety. The injury proved very painful, the bone in the dismembered finger being shattered badly, and requiring skilful surgery. The doctor came to town yesterday to have the finger redressed. C. H. Waddle accompanied him to see that no further accidents befell him.

John Spivey, one of The Standard's Nine friends, beats the world when it comes to rais-type-setter. It has taken the "pep" out of the business for him, and made him a restless wanderer. Like the birds, William Henry is migratory. He likes the balmy breezes of the South in the winter time, and when the sap begins to rise and the trees begin to bud, he hears the call of the North. He tarried in Brady only long enough to greet the "prints," then was on his way to Brownwood.

The Magic Washing Stick.

"The Magic Washing Stick is the thing—it sure will do the work. It makes the clothes so white and clean," says Mrs. M. L. Beaver, Canton, Texas. We want you to try this article at our risk. Mrs. Joe Hall yesterday favored The Standard office with some peaches, the largest of which measured 9 3/4 inches in circumference and five of them aggregating two and one-half pounds in weight. Mrs. Hall has five trees, and while each tree produced only a limited quantity, it made up the lack of quantity by increased quality and size. The peaches are of the cling variety, have a beautiful color, and a firm, deliciously flavored meat. The editor is saving the seed for planting and within the next three years or more, hopes to be able to return the gift with interest.

Dr. J. P. Barton says he did not drag the gun through a wire fence. Oh, no! But he didn't know it was loaded. Last Thursday he was out hunting in the Lohn neighborhood and was having fine luck. He had bagged quite a nice bunch of doves and was pretty well satisfied. But when he beheld three doves ing bees. We can prove it by the "sample" beet left with us last Friday by Mr. Spivey. This beet weighs the trifling total of 7 1/2 pounds, and the only reason we do not lock it up in the office safe at night is because it is too big for anyone to carry off right handily. The beet was grown on the Dave Harkrider place near Nine, where Mr. Spivey has been farming the past couple of years, and when we get tired of looking at it, Mr. Spivey has assured us that we may cut it up and eat it the same as any garden beet. Who can beat this beet?

William Henry Rogerson paid The Standard office a fraternal call Saturday. William Henry is one of the old-time "prints," and in his day has "stuck" many a line o' type. In the days gone by he was one of the mainstays of Kalamity Bonner, when that celebrity published a paper in Lampasas. In fact, he has worked upon practically all the papers in this section of the state, and is known far and wide among the newspaper fraternity. The advent of the linotype was a deadly thrust at W. H.'s profession, and he has never yet become reconciled to the iron

Bird cages. O. D. Mann & Sons.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health.

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

"FLOWERS FOR THE LIVING."

Brady's Fire Truck.

The trade trippers were given a splendid exhibition by the Brady fire department Wednesday during their forty-minute stop in our neighboring city. The exhibition was one which inspired each Brownwood man to a determination to work incessantly until an up-to-date fire truck is secured for this city. Brady has indeed given Brownwood a worthy example.

The big truck whizzed out of the fire station and up the street and in a jiffy was throwing water out of sight against a stiff wind. The work was done easily and quickly and far more effectively than is possible with the old equipment now at the command of the Brownwood department.

The Bulletin realizes the present condition of the city's finances, and knows that the city has no funds available for purchasing a fire truck such as is needed to answer the demands made upon the volunteer firemen. But some way must be found to purchase the truck, and that without delay. The investment in equipment would be more than saved in case of a great fire, and a great fire may occur at any time. Brownwood is too large a town to be without adequate fire fighting equipment. We cannot afford to have our smaller neighbor fifty miles south of us outstrip us so far in this respect.—Brownwood Bulletin.

The Royal Road.

There is a proposition on foot to launch a Penny Daily in Brady, John E. Bonser and son being sponsor for the move. The local field has been pretty thoroughly tested out, not only from the standpoint of weekly newspapers, but the daily field, as well, has been tried out with the result that the experimenters were poorer and wiser after the attempt than they were before. The further fact that there is not a town the size of Brady in the state that supports two weekly newspaper and job offices, and a daily newspaper and job office in addition, would make the undertaking appear most foolhardy.—Brady Standard.

Far be it from us to butt into anybody's game, but we are for the man who has already established his business. The sooner somebody else tries out the field the sooner will it become known that it is not the royal road to wealth.—Temple Telegram.

The Brady Fire Engine.

To all the Brownwood visitors, especially to those who were members of the local fire department, the Brady fire truck was very interesting. It demonstrated that it could make high speed in racing through muddy streets to a fire, and could throw four streams of water higher than any building in the town. The engine was a powerful one, and worked as smoothly as a watch. The Brownwood boosters were prepared to tell Brady people about our great fair, but after witnessing the performance of the big fire truck and engine could not think of many nice things to say about Brownwood's fire fighting equipment. The courtesy of Fire Chief S. M. Richardson and his volunteer firemen was greatly appreciated by the Brownwood visitors.—Brownwood Bulletin.

BROWNWOOD FREE FALL FAIR.

The Brownwood Free Fall Fair, October 6, 7, 8 and 9, promises to be one of the greatest entertainment events in the state. The agricultural and live stock exhibits promise to exceed all former shows. There will be also Art, Textile, Poultry, Horticultural, Educational, Culinary exhibits, Baby Beef and Pig club exhibits and a Better Babies show.

The entertainment features will be numerous and varied, including a Goat Roping contest, in which a new Ford automobile will be given away, football games, dances, gorgeous parades, band concerts, novelty contests, performing elephants, lions and horses and the Great Patterson shows, consisting of thirty cars of equipment and sixteen high-class shows and many free acts.

Two big bands will furnish music for the Brownwood Fair and there will be something doing every minute of the day and night.

The railroads have granted low rates and special trains. The rates from this section are as follows: One and one-third fares for the round trip from all stations. Tickets to be sold October 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th, limited to return to the original starting point on October 10th. On Thursday, October 7th, special train leaving Menard early in the morning, return, leaving Brownwood late at night, with the following rates obtaining: Menard, $2.00; Callan, $2.00; Whiteland, $1.75; Brady, $1.50; Rochelle, $1.25; Placid, $1.00; Mercury, $1.00; Winchell, 75c; Brooksmith, 50c.

LOCAL BRIEFS

A. A. Lange left Sunday night for Dallas, where he will look over Santa Claus' offerings in the way of dolls and toys. He will also stop in Fort Worth upon his return, and most likely invest in some Christmas fireworks.

The carpenters have completed work on the handsome new home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. White, and the interior is now being finished and decorated. Mr. and Mrs. White will occupy the home in the next two or three weeks.

J. M. Stewart and son, Gordon, are here from their Sutton county ranch to attend court. On account of the heavy rains they were unable to drive their auto and made the trip from the ranch to Menard, a distance of 120 miles, in a hack, coming to Brady from Menard on the night Frisco.

G. J. Berger, one of our Teuton allies, brought us a peach of a remembrance yesterday. Rather it was a peaches remembrance—a whole sack full. He said he had read of several instances wherein the editor reported having been favored with fruit of unusual excellence, and he wanted to see if we could equal the peaches his orchard produced this year. The largest of the peaches measured 9 3/4 inches, which looked to us like the extension of the limit, but strange to say, Mr. Berger's remembrance had not been in the office more than an hour before Mrs. Joe Hall sent some in, which, while they did not excel Mr. Berger's in any way, equalled his largest one in circumference. Mr. Berger's were the late-maturing cling peaches, and his crop was so short that he canned all for home use—always excepting, of course, those that reached the editor.

CONCHO GRAND JURY.

Returns Indictments Against Simmons and Blackburn.

The grand jury for the September term of court adjourned last Saturday noon, after having returned nine indictments. Six of these were misdemeanors, and three felonies. One party was billed for unlawfully selling intoxicating liquors. T. G. Simmons was indicted for manslaughter in connection with the killing of C. A. Bengtson last February. His bond was set at $2500, which has already been arranged by competent sureties. Seaberry & Young of Paint Rock and Doss & Baugh of Ballinger have been retained by the defense as attorneys. Walter Early, the district attorney, will prosecute the case.

An indictment was also returned against H. J. Blackburn, charging him with the murder of J. H. Bryson near Millersview last April. A habeas corpus proceedings was had, and counsel agreed on the bond, which was set at $5,000. Walter Early and T. C. Wilkerson, both of Brownwood, and S. S. Odell of Fort Worth will represent the state in the prosecution. Woodward & Baker of Coleman, and Seaberry & Young of this city will defend in the case. This case promises to be one of the most interesting ever tried in Concho county.—Paint Rock Herald.

C. W. L. SCHAEGER

MASON MAVERICKS

From The News.

Alf Reeves, the always-happy ranchman of Capitola, was here Saturday telling of the fine time he enjoyed at the Fredericksburg fair. He says the crowd was so large that it occurred to him that if the German government needs more men they should send over to Fredericksburg for them, as there were men enough there to whip all the allies. But Mr. Reeves forgets that Fritztown folks are all very peace-loving and do not want to fight.

Wm. Geistweidt, Sr., and son, John, were here Saturday from Hilda. The former recently passed his 82nd birthday, and although feeble, is able to ride about and enjoy seeing his friends.

J. S. Capps was here Wednesday from his ranch and informs the News that there are now eight men at work on the Spiller mine, and that it is reported that a much larger force will be put on. There is also talk of repairing the road from this property to Castell and putting on motor trucks to move the ore. The tract on which the operations are going on is a 75-acre tract belonging to the Wakefield syndicate, who did quite a lot of prospecting there with a diamond drill about twenty-five years ago. It is estimated that the property contains manganese worth $5,000,000, and now that there is a demand for iron and steel it is believed that the property will be developed.

J. W. White is delivering this week 500 cows and calves to Rudolph Bauman and Myrick Johnson at $80 for each cow and calf. It is reported that the purchasers have resold at a profit of $9000.

Wednesday morning at 2:00 o'clock it commenced raining and continued with little cessation until about 9:00 o'clock, the precipitation being three inches. It is said to have covered a large scope of country, putting up rivers and creeks and delaying the mails. Rain set in again about 7:00 o'clock Wednesday night and continued until next morning about 9:00 o'clock, another three inches falling, making a little over six inches.

Brady and Fredonia mails were the only ones that came in Wednesday.

To Drive Out Malaria
And Build Up The System
Take the Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents.

MELVIN RUSTLINGS

Melvin Advocate

The Utsey gin has turned out 572 bales and the Bauhof gin 528, making an even total of 1100 bales ginned in Melvin this season, and ginning just fairly started. C. E. Taliaferro, public weigher, has weighed over 1000 bales, quite a lot has been shipped, and the price paid in Melvin this morning was 10.75.

Dr. B. B. Beakley attended a professional call at Pasche Wednesday and as he started homeward he found that Brady creek had just come down on a six-foot rise, leaving him on the other side. He sped his car to the next crossing only to find that the flood had reached there too. Then began a race to the Melvin crossing which was reached just in the nick of time, for as the doctor's auto chugged across, the wall of water was seen coming down.

Lee Roberts of Brady is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. S. T. Huddleston.

Prof. Boyd Commander visited in Brady yesterday.

Sheriff Wall was here from Brady Tuesday.

O. C. Utsey, the gin man, went to Brady Tuesday on business.

MENARD MESSAGES

From The Messenger.

Two San Antonio men were in Menard Friday looking over the ground for a new railroad connecting up this territory with that city. They are representing a Pennsylvania syndicate, and the road will be from San Antonio to San Angelo by the way of Fredericksburg, Mason and Menard. The men investigating the proposition state that they expect to report favorably on it.

Lee Russell of Fort Worth and Sidney Webb of Clay county have purchased the 77,000-acre ranch of D. Hart. This ranch is located in Val Verde and Terrell counties. The consideration was $350,000.

Menard county was visited Tuesday night by the biggest rain which has hit this section in years. It started shortly after 12:00 o'clock and continued a heavy downpour until 6:00 in the morning. The government rain gauge at the bank, which holds 3 1/2 inches was running over and other gauges around town showed a total rainfall of 4 3/4 inches.

W. R. Burrier and family and Mrs. Walter Schaeffer returned Sunday from Fredericksburg, where they took in the big fair. Mr. Burrier reports it the best yet. He brought back with him a mastodon's tooth as a keepsake. This tooth weighs twenty pounds and is in a fine state of preservation. He says that he is going to keep on gathering up these teeth until he gets a mouthful and then he thinks he will at last be in a position to do justice to the lodge banquets held in Menard.

The Menard public school shows an enrollment of 252 for this year, with many more additions expected.

Mrs. Gordon Deavers returned Tuesday from a visit in Brady.

SAN SABA SAYINGS

From The Star.

Miss Grace Russell returned last week from an extended visit with relatives at Brady.

Mrs. Will Melton and little daughter, Frances, of Cherokee were the guests of Mrs. G. W. Gray Saturday while enroute to Brady for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Will Russell and children have returned from a visit with relatives at Brady and Rochelle.

G. A. Arheiger made a business trip to Brady the first of the week.

Arthur Balch of Brady is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Harry Belovsky.

From The News.

Mrs. Armour Walters and son, Johnnie, came down from the ranch in McCulloch county Saturday for a few days' visit. Johnnie will attend the high school this winter.

The parties returning from the Fredericksburg fair report that Travis Locklear was the favorite racer on the track there. His horses came first in seven races and second in three. That makes ten races, and we guess that was about all they had time to pull off. Locklear has a dandy stable of horses, and he has been winning at all the races he has made.

A. J. Gatlin died in San Saba at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 14. He was taken with a violent hemorrhage Sunday afternoon, but prompt medical attention gave him relief. His sons, Oscar and A. L., of Goldthwaite came to see him and stayed with him until Monday afternoon. He was apparently doing nicely until near noon Tuesday, when he suffered another attack, which proved fatal. His family was notified at once, but death came before any of them could reach here.

Clark English was the victim of a very painful accident Saturday. He was washing his hands in a bucket of gasoline at Elton Noble's garage. The bucket was most too close to the vulcanizer and some kind of an explosion took place, burning his hands considerably.

RICHLAND SPRINGS RIPPLES

From The Eye-Witness:

The timber for the derrick of the Richland Oil Co.'s first well arrived Saturday and the big boiler, engine and well drill came in Tuesday. A force of men was put to work on the derrick Tuesday morning and the work of moving the heavy machinery of the well rig begun Wednesday morning. It is anticipated that the derrick will be completed today some time and that actual drilling will begin early in the coming week.

Mrs. A. J. Jobs went to Brady Sunday, accompanying Mrs. S. S. Jobs, who returned to her home at Junction.

Mrs. G. W. Thornton, Misses Ethel Davenport and Nolia Wise went to Brady Sunday in Dr. Nelson's car. Mrs. Thornton remained for a visit, the others returning that evening.

Will Hamilton and wife passed through town Sunday enroute to Seadrift, where he has traded for a newspaper plant. He sold his lease to Geo. L. Rhea of Seadrift.

Miss Ruth Crane, who has been in the Temple sanitarium for some days, arrived on the train Tuesday. We are glad to report her much improved.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Dr. R. A. Lindley reports the sale of his marking ink as reaching astounding proportions. Although the ink was first placed on the market late this season, in fact, after the gins had begun running, yet the ink is being used by some 750 gins and more than 300 cotton yards throughout Texas, while between 150 and 200 cotton buyers have purchased the ink for their own personal use. Dr. Lindley has thirty-five agents in as many counties in Texas—in brief, he has a live local representative in each cotton producing county. As an illustration of the merits of the ink, the doctor showed The Standard editor a telegram just received from the National Compress Co., Taylor, Texas, requesting immediate shipment of a dozen cans of ink. The Taylor compress had previously bought ink, and the telegram evidenced their complete satisfaction with the trial order. The doctor also calls attention to the fact that bales of cotton in the local yard, which were marked less than an hour before the big rain last week, show the number and marks as plainly as when they were put on, despite the three days' downpour. Likewise, bales that have been in the yard the past eight or nine months give proof of the excellence of Lindley's marking ink by the clearness of the markings.

Readers of the Brady Standard have, no doubt, read the report in the daily press of the disappearance of Dr. Thornton R. Sampson of Austin, who was lost in the Estes Park region in Colorado, and who, it is feared, has met death by a fall in one of the precipitous gorges of that region. Dr. Sampson was numbered among the lecturers secured by Superintendent E. L. White for the Teachers institute to be held next month. He was acknowledged one of the best, if not the very best, educated men in Texas. He spoke Greek fluently, and was conversant with a number of languages. Likewise, he was an ardent student of nature, and of social and economic problems. He was vitally interested in the problem of rural advancement, co-operation and educational betterment, and it was along these lines that he was to have addressed the teachers institute. It had been the doctor's habit for a number of years to engage upon long tramps, and it was upon his return from California that he decided to explore Estes Park. Nothing has been heard of him for the past three weeks, although forest rangers have scoured the Park region. A reward of $500 has been offered for the recovery of Dr. Sampson, dead or alive.
