

Home Demonstration Club News

Among the eight orchard demonstrators two have done some outstanding work in starting new orchards and adding to their old ones. Mrs. E. M. Howell of Red Mud has put out this year the following trees: 15 jujube trees, 15 cherry trees, 2 pear trees, 100 dew berry vines, 12 blackberry vines, 4 plums, 2 figs, 30 grapes, 8 currants, 10 gooseberries, 2 persimmons, and she plans to put out 24 strawberry vines this spring. The most of these trees Mrs. Howell got from Mr. Craddock, who lives in the Highway community. Mrs. Ed Fuqua of Red Mud has put out just about as many trees and as many varieties of vines but the exact figures have not yet been given to the home demonstration agent Mrs. Howell has in her old orchard 12 peach trees, 4 apple trees, 4 plum trees and 4 apricot trees. With these twelve varieties of fruit and her vegetable garden, Mrs. Howell will be an excellent 4-H pantry demonstrator and show how to live at home on the adequate diet.

During the month of February it is estimated that at least 50 women made hotbeds and planted tomatoes, lettuce, peppers, cabbage and carrots in these hotbeds. An interesting experiment which emphasized the value of hotbeds was carried out. One woman planted tomatoes and peppers in buckets in a south window at the same time she planted the same kind of seed in her hotbed. It took two weeks for the seed in the cold buckets to come up and five days for the seed in the hot bed to come up. This year many of the women are going to try re-setting their tomatoes twice, from the hot bed to the cold frame, and from the cold frame to the garden.

Mrs. B. F. Middleton of Prairie Chapel made on her White Leghorn flock of 132 hens during the month of February, $39.52. Her flock averaged 13 eggs each during the month. During the month of January when there was three weeks of snow, her flock brought her $18.45. She has warm houses for the flock, and feeds them what they need regardless of what the feed costs, and feels that she cannot afford not to feed them.

J. C. PAYNE CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER PRECINCT 3

The Texas Spur is authorized to announce J. C. Payne, of two miles west of Spur, as a candidate for County Commissioner of Precinct Number Three, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary election to be held July 26th. Mr. Payne has been a citizen of this section for a number of years, and is personally known to the voters of Precinct 3. He is one among the best citizens and most progressive farmers of the country. As county commissioner he would be progressive and at the same time conservative in the expenditures and administration of public affairs. Voters of the precinct are respectfully invited to give Mr. Payne's candidacy a due consideration at the polls in the coming primary election.

U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Upholds Decision for the City of Spur

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals this week rendered a decision upholding the decision of District Court at Lubbock in the injunction suit of the West Texas Utilities Co. and the City of Spur. The decision in brief rules that the City of Spur has the awful right to govern the use of streets and alleys, and regulate the franchise rights and privileges of the city government. It is not yet announced whether or not this case will be carried to the Supreme Court for a further and final decision on the points at issue, as appealed by the Utilities Co.

A. J. Hagins Has Dinner on His 79th Anniversary

Last Sunday the relatives of the Hon. A. J. Hagins of Jayton celebrated his 79th birthday with a surprise dinner.

Those who were present and assisted Mr. Hagins in celebrating this anniversary were the following:

P. E. Hagins, wife and children Gladys, Mary Pearl and Alan, of Spur; Jesse Hagins and wife; R. E. Lee and wife and four children; N. J. Driggers and wife and two children, all of Spur; D. D. Hagins and wife and Elmer and Wilson of Gilpin; Cal Hagins and wife and children, Arline and Paul Dale, of Duck Creek; E. R. Hagins and wife and children, Omega Earl, Maurine, Betty Lou and Ruth of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Heathington and children, Wayne, Joe Frances and Claud of Sagerton, Texas; Lillian Hagins, A. J. Jr., Arthur Sam and Nettie Beth Hagins, and Mike Yoakum, Jayton; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hawkins, Fairmont; C. R. Bennett of Spur; Miss Faith Elliott of De Leon and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hagins.

Dog's Head Shows Full Evidence of Hydrophobia

As was mentioned last week in the Texas Spur, a mad dog bit Orville Bailey, ran through the Steel Hill community attacking anything and everything in its path and biting a number of dogs, chickens and possibly livestock, and causing much excitement and concern on the part of people of the neighborhoods. After being killed, the dog's head was expressed to the Pasteur Institute at Austin, and after examination a telegram was received stating that there was unmistakable evidence of rabies or hydrophobia.

Serum was immediately forwarded to County Health Officer Dr. T. H. Blackwell, who is now giving Orville Bailey daily treatments to counteract the possibility of hydrophobia development from the bite of the mad dog. Upon the advice of County Health Officer Blackwell all stray and worthless dogs are being killed, and several fine dogs having a possible encounter with the mad dog in the Steel Hill community have been killed. Dr. Blackwell further advises that all dogs be muzzled or treated with vaccine of which he now has a supply.

The mad dog, a small black and white spotted fice, it has been learned belonged to Clarence Ellis of Spur, and was an unusually intelligent family pet and plaything for his children. The evening before running rampant in Steel Hill community, the dog showed signs of irritability and restlessness and was ejected from the rooms of the Ellis home, whereupon it no doubt departed on its mad dog meanderings.

Every precaution, as it should be, and as advised by the County Health Officer, is being observed by the citizenship in preventing and avoiding the possibility or probability of the development of a general "epidemic of rabies or hydrophobia" in the country.

Interscholastic League Meet at Dickens City March 20 and 21st

The Dickens County Interscholastic League Meet will be held in the city of Dickens Friday and Saturday, March 20th and 21st. The literary events will be had Friday, and probably tennis will be arranged for the afternoon. Saturday will be given entirely to athletics.

All desiring to make entries for athletic events are requested to make application to O. L. Kelley, Director of Athletics, not later than Wednesday, March 18th.

The meet is expected to be one of the most interesting had heretofore.

R. S. HARKEY FOR CONSTABLE OF PRECINCT 3

We are authorized to announce R. S. Harkey as a candidate for the office of Constable of Precinct No. 3 of Dickens County, subject to the voters in the Democratic Primary election to be held July 26th, 1930. Raleigh Harkey has been a citizen of the county about thirty years. In fact he was reared in Dickens county, and has ever been recognized as one among the best citizenship. In years past he has served in an official capacity, having acted as deputy sheriff and constable, and assisted peace officers at various times in the discharge of official duties and the enforcement of the laws of the land. Raleigh Harkey is well fitted and suited for a place as peace officer. He would be calm and collected and use good judgment in a crisis, and at no time would he shirk a duty when called upon. With his experience and qualifications he will be in position to assume the duties of Constable without the hindrance of initiation to the place, and voters of this precinct are respectfully solicited to give his candidacy a due and deserved consideration at the polls in the primary election.

Cade for Congress In Opposition to Marvin Jones

In announcing my candidacy for Congress from the 18th District, I do so fully advised of the fact that the political machines are against me, but with the fixed purpose in my mind of having the majority of the votes when they are counted.

I believe in organized labor as a counter-balance for the powerful monopolies and mergers of the day, and, if elected, will fight for and support organized labor.

I am a member of the American Legion, and will support strenuously all of its legislative program, especially as regards legislation in favor of disabled veterans, and the proposed law of universal draft.

I am opposed to the tariff on oil as sponsored by Mr. Jones because the oil tariff would protect the major companies more than it would help the independents, and as in the case of all high tariffs, the farmers and laborers of the country would have to pay the bills in high priced gasoline, kerosene, and oil.

I propose to support strenuously anti-trust legislation, regulating the activities of chain stores, and other big corporations which are smothering the life out of our country. However, the anti-chain store bill as suggested by Mr. Jones is absurd, and probably unconstitutional, and I am opposed to it, as the only way to regulate and control monopolies is by direct attack.

I especially want it understood that I am radically in favor of stringent legislation to protect and help the farmers, as I was reared on a farm myself, and know the value and the amount of work tied up in every dollar that comes into the farmers' hands. James O. Cade, Attorney-at-Law, Amarillo, Texas.

Vocational Agriculture Boys Go to Fort Worth

Mr. Bethel with about 25 of his Vocational Agriculture students left this morning (Friday) for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth.

A Ford truck was their means of transportation. Mr. Bethel is going on the ruck with the boys and a good time is planned by all.

Mr. Bethel stated before he left that the boys will visit any industry between here and Fort Worth that comes within their scope of work.

The boys will visit the packing house while in Fort Worth, and as many of the boys have never been through such a place this alone will be worth the trip.

Mr. Bethel said that the boys, while in Fort Worth, will remain together, and will be subject to his direction at all times. He has already proven himself capable of properly managing a group of boys.

It is indeed fortunate that the boys of this class have such a privilege. It is the first time within the history of the school that such an undertaking has been attempted.

Vocational agriculture as a subject has been in the Spur High School for only three years, but in that time it has made wonderful strides and is indeed a great asset to the town and county.

This trip will be very educative and beneficial to the boys, as well as affording them a pleasure jaunt, and Mr. Bethel feels that the ones who make this trip will be better prepared to go on with the work after they return from the trip.

Those making the trip were: Robert Cross, Clarence and Meril Foreman, Jack Hargrove, Clark Howell, Herman McArthur, Clinton Bennett, J. P. Carson, Lloyd Huidway, Tommy McArthur, Jack Blackwell, Woodrow Simmons, Frank Verner, Marcus Copeland, Ray Dickson, Lewis Dunlap, Stafford Forbis, John Gray and Cloyce Gowens.

C. P. AUFILL FOR WEIGHER IN PRECINCT NO. ONE

The Texas Spur is this week authorized to place the name of C. P. (Charley) Afill, of McAdoo, in the announcement column as a candidate for the office of Public Weigher of Precinct Number 1, which includes the voting boxes of Dickens, McAdoo, Duncan Flat and Midway, his announcement being made subject to the action of the Democratic Primary election in July.

Mr. Afill has been a resident citizen of McAdoo the past five years, where he has been engaged in farming. He is capable and qualified in every respect to fill the office of Public Weigher, and if favored for the place will not only make accurate weights but keep a clean, comprehensive record of every transaction, and extend every courtesy and consideration to all who have dealings with his official department. The voters of Precinct Number One are very respectfully solicited to consider the claims and qualifications of Mr. Afill before casting a ballot in the approaching election.

Large Crowd Is Present at School on Visiting Day

The Spur School system witnessed its greatest day of visiting Tuesday, March 11th. It seemed as if there was a real, old-fashioned revival meeting in progress at each of the three schools. People who had never seen inside the school buildings came and saw the plan in its "every day" clothes. The name for this occasion was changed from last year's Parent's Day to Visitor's Day. This was done to get every citizen who should have an interest in our schools to feel the need of coming. Interest in this event was started and sponsored by the Parent-Teachers and the school students put the grand finale on by bringing in men and women who were apparently too busy to come. The combined efforts brought approximately 900 visitors to our school. This was indeed the banner year for our school.

In the monthly meeting of the P. T. A. in the afternoon a greater spirit of enthusiasm prevailed than ever before. Only once had there been such a large attendance. Yet this meeting was by far the greatest for the magnetic spirit of enthusiasm moved every one to a higher resolve to know and to help the school in all of its efforts. Mrs. Payne, the chairman of the program committee, had the members entertained by Mrs. Williamson's high second grade students in play and song. After this Mr. Thomas spoke on "What the Parent-Teachers Association Means to the School." In this subject he pleaded for a continuance of closer contact acts by the patrons, and for the same parental guidance in senior high school as is given in the elementary school.

He especially urged the triple alliance of parent, teacher and student. By this alliance of understanding, most all troubles will have been solved.

The president then turned the organization into a business meeting. The election of next years' officers was the most important business transacted. Mrs. Luther Jones, a very capable and experienced worker in the P. T. A. organization, was unanimously elected president for the ensuing year. Mrs. E. S. Lee, Mrs. L. R. Barrett and Mrs. W. D. Wilson were elected first, second and third vice-presidents, Mrs. J. M. Foster was chosen secretary, with Mrs. E. S. McKee treasurer. All of these ladies have an interest in the schools that will get things done.

The association voted unanimously to send the new president to Stamford to the Parent-Teacher convention.

A word of compliment is due the retiring president, Mrs. Riley Wooten. It was largely through her efforts that money has been raised to pay for play ground equipment for the new school, and innumerable other things have been accomplished during her administration.

Above all things we patrons cannot afford to let this enthusiasm wane. Let each of us pledge ourselves to attend the next meeting the second Tuesday of April, an especially give Mrs. Jones our hearty support next year.

Carlsbad Cavern Highway Meeting at Matador Monday

One of the most important movements in promoting the further progress of Dickens as well as other counties along the line, was the Carlsbad Cavern Highway meeting held Monday in Matador for the purpose of securing Federal aid and recognition for this highway which is of national and international importance.

A large delegation from Dickens and all points on the highway from Oklahoma City to El Paso were in attendance upon the meeting, participating in the discussions and plans in securing federal recognition and aid in making this a paved highway from coast to coast. The Matador people prepared and served a barbecue dinner and otherwise entertained the large delegation in handsome manner.

The Carlsbad Cavern Highway extends from coast to coast, and has been designated by the state departments from Oklahoma City to El Paso, through Matador, Dickens, Crosbyton, Lubbock, the famous Carlsbad Caverns and to El Paso, where it becomes an international line in connection with a national highway of Mexico. The highway, we understand, has been taken over by the Federal Department from Syracuse, New York, to Oklahoma City, and when completely accepted will become a paved highway without a single break from coast, by way of Carlsbad Caverns, which are becoming famous throughout the nation.

This Carlsbad Cavern Highway is one of the first to pass through the entire country from coast to coast and become recognized and accepted as a Federal project. A most complete and comprehensive map of the route has already been printed and issued, and eventually millions of people will pass this way. The people of Dickens are fortunate in being in position to offer an already paved highway and far-sighted in working for and securing designation of this important highway thru the county.

Two Distilleries Operation Captured On Catfish

Wednesday afternoon Constable E. C. Rawlings and deputy sheriff R. E. Lee, in company with Sheriff Bob Goodall and Ike Taylor of Kent county captured two stills on Catfish on the line of Dickens and Kent counties. Both stills were running when they were found, and 14 gallons of whiskey were taken together with 250 gallons of mash, which was destroyed. Four Mexicans were landed in the Clairemont jail.

Geo. W. Grubbs, of southwest of Spur, was in the city Tuesday. He and Mrs. Grubbs had just recently returned from Newcastle where they were called on account of the death of his brother-in-law, D. E. Meyers, an old timer of that section and a highly respected citizen. Mr. Grubbs had not visited that section for a number of years and stated that he was surprised at the city building and development progress in evidence at the various points. Young county, he stated, had had rain and grain crops were good and most promising of bountiful harvests at this time. On his home place in the Red Mud country, Mr. Grubbs said that he and other farmers of that territory were pretty well up with farm work, and were now ready for rains and the planting season.

Utilities Company Building New Power Lines

Construction of a 22-mile transmission line between Estelline and Turkey will begin within the next three weeks and at the same time, a 60 Kv substation will be erected at Estelline. It has been announced by the engineering department of the West Texas Utilities Company.

The Estelline to Turkey transmission line, 22 miles long, will be a 220 kv line built on 29 foot H frame poles and will include one mile of double overhead ground wire on each end of the line. The steady yet practical growth of Cottonwood, Turkey, Gasoline, Flomot and other towns in that section has made it necessary to build this transmission line as well as other lines in this section in order to provide adequate service for this area's present and expected population.

Simultaneous with the above construction, work will begin on the building of a 60000 volt substation at Estelline. This substation will house three 250 Kva transformers and a 66kv automatic reclosing oil circuit breaker. In addition busbar supports, controls and a 66kv oxide film arrester will be installed. The necessary steel fencing to comply with safety rules will be built around the substation. This substation is to replace the present 33kv sub which is becoming inadequate to serve the increasing demands for electric current.

Bob Coss of northwest of Spur, was among these here during the past week, trading and transacting other business.

Trade at Home

Chas. Gunn, of north of Spur a few miles was on the streets Wednesday. Mr. Gunn states that his farm work is now well up, and he is waiting for a rain and planting time now to put his seed in the ground.

Trade at Home

W. B. Ford of Kalaray, was here Wednesday meeting with his friends and trading with Spur merchants and business interests.

Konjola Wins Triumphs Every Day Everywhere

New and Different Medicine Welcomes Any Test—Results Are What Count

MR. RAYMOND SCHMIDT

Results are what count; mere words and promises mean nothing. Konjola has won fame and friends just by making good, and that is the medicine sufferers want and should have. Imagine the joy of Mr. Raymond Schmidt, R. F. D. No. 1, when he was able to say:

"Though I know it to be true I find it hard to believe Konjola in just three months ended my sufferings of nine years' duration. For that long time I suffered from indigestion, constipation, kidney trouble, and catarrh. No food agreed with me; every night I had to get up several times and the catarrh certainly added to my misery. In those nine years I tried no end of medicines and treatments, and every one was a miserable failure. But how different with Konjola! Week by week I grew better, and in three months I was my old self again. To me Konjola is the most wonderful medicine in the world, and I recommend it with all my heart."

Konjola is sold in Spur at Sanders Pharmacy, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

V. M. Cole and wife, of Oklahoma, spent Tuesday in Spur, looking the city over with a view of locating here and making this their home. Mr. Cole recently sold his city property in Durant, Oklahoma, where they had been located for years, and are now seeking a location in Western Texas. He said he had never before heard of Spur—adding that city advertising had evidently been neglected—and was surprised that a modern city here really existed. V. M. Cole is an auctioneer of twenty years experience, and is also an upholsterer and second-hand furniture dealer of experience. He is also a "booster" and no doubt would be a real asset to Spur City interests.

How to Play BRIDGE

Series 1929-30 by Wynne Ferguson

Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

Copyright, 1929, by Hoyle, Jr.

ARTICLE No. 15

One of the best ways to study the game of Auction Bridge is by comparing the different ways of bidding and playing hands at Duplicate Auction. In Duplicate, the same hands are played at different tables, and the final bid and the method of play is usually very different at the different tables. Here are two hands that were played in a recent tournament, held in New York City, that illustrate these points very well:

No score, first game. (1) Suppose Z bids one spade and A bids one no trump. What should Y bid? (2) Suppose Y bids two hearts and B bids three diamonds, what should Z bid? (3) Suppose Z passes, A bids three no trump and all pass, what should Y open? (4) Suppose Y opens the three of spades, what should Z play? Think over these various questions and decide whether or not the suggested bidding is correct. An analysis of the hand and of what happened at various tables in the tournament game will be given in the next article.

No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one spade. A and Y passed and B doubled. (Informatory). Z, the dealer, with a very strong hand, bid two spades over the double and all passed. A opened the jack of diamonds and A B were thus able to win the first three tricks. At the fourth trick, B, who was in the lead, led the five of spades. The problem is for Z to so play the hand that he will win the balance of the tricks against any defense.

Solution: The point of this hand is for Z to win the first spade trick in Y's hand and then play the ace of clubs.

There are no trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y Z win all of the tricks against any defense?

Solution: Z should lead the queen and jack of hearts. A and B follow suit and Y should discard the ace and king of clubs. Z should now lead the nine of diamonds. A should discard the seven of diamonds and Y the four of diamonds. Z should now lead the eight of clubs. A can do one of two things: (1) discard the jack of diamonds or (2) the eight of spades. (1) Suppose A discards the jack of diamonds. Y should discard the five of spades. Z should now lead the deuce of spades, finesse the queen and thus win the balance of the tricks with the ace and five of spades. (2) Suppose A discards the eight of spades. Y should discard the five of diamonds. Z should now lead the deuce of spades, finesse the queen and thus win the balance of the tricks with the ace and five of spades and the ace of diamonds. It is a pretty little problem in the forcing of discards and should be carefully studied.

Electrical Servants for Your Home

"The application of Electricity to household appliances has done more to raise the standard of home-life than any other single factor," is the opinion of a well known home economics authority.

Just contrast the difference between the Modern, Electrically-equipped home of today, and homes of similar means a few years ago.

No longer does the housewife grow old before her time... no longer does she slave and toil about her kitchen and household tasks... no longer is she shut off from the rest of the world because of lack of time to enjoy and appreciate the better things of life.

Does your home reflect the spirit of this New Day? Are you receiving all the economical benefits possible through the intelligent application of electricity to your home?

One of our Household Engineers will be glad to show you how cheaply you can secure the enormous advantages of "Complete Electrical Service."

West Texas Utilities Company

R. E. Slough, of Dickens, was one among the business visitors on the streets of Spur Tuesday of this week. Mr. Slough is farming fifty or sixty acres of land in connection with his filling station business, stating that everything is doing well in both lines of business at this time. However in the farming line farmers are beginning to look for rain, regardless of the fact that we still have a very nice season from the recent big snow storms. Filling station men may have few worries—because people are going to buy gas and travel regardless of rains and crops.

How CARDUI Helped Her

Mrs. W. A. Cox, a well-known professional nurse, of Burnside, Ky., writes:

“I was in very bad health, and only weighed 110 pounds. I read in the papers about Cardui, and thought I would give it a try-out. After I had taken one bottle, I could see that I was improving. After I had taken it a month or two, I began to gain, and I weigh at present 168, and have weighed that for some time. I am now 55 years old, and can do as much work as the average middle-aged woman can.”

“I would advise any woman, who is weakly and in a run-down condition, to try Cardui, but not to expect one bottle to make her well. I take two or three bottles a year, now, and I feel fine.”

POULTRY

LEGUMES USEFUL AS GRAIN FEED

Each Hen Could Profitably Use Pound of Hay Daily.

The Ohio experiment station has done some valuable work in testing out the use of alfalfa, clover and soy bean hay as substitutes for green feed for the laying flock. They found that each bird could make profitable use of about one pound of leafy, fine-stemmed, bright hay per month. The hay should not be coarse or contain a high per cent of crude fiber.

It is nearly always possible to get at least a limited amount of such hay from the last cutting of alfalfa or the second cutting of clover. A considerable number of farmers are cutting a small portion of their alfalfa late in the fall, after the removal of the last regular crop. The least mature of the soy beans, when they have been cut for hay, are equally satisfactory.

These Ohio tests indicate that these three, alfalfa, red clover and soy beans, are equally valuable if cut and cured properly. In these tests the feeding of the hay in hoops of poultry netting was found to be very satisfactory. Cutting the hay in half-inch lengths made the feeding easier and the hens ate more. A silage cutter or feed chopper can be used to cut the hay.

The shatterings that accumulate where the alfalfa or clover is handled in feeding the cattle or other live stock is equally valuable if the hay is of good quality and not injured by weathering or heating in barn or stack. Alfalfa meal made from green hay in the mash or fed as a separate part of the ration, is another green feed substitute.

Litter Not Desirable Place for Grain Feed

Experimental work at several stations as well as the practical experience of a large number of poultry keepers prove that hens do not need to hunt in the litter for their feed in order to lay well. More and more people are feeding the whole and cracked grain to the poultry in troughs to keep it cleaner than it would be if scattered in the litter.

Litter is highly desirable in a poultry house during the time that the flock is kept confined, but its virtue is in keeping the feet cleaner, the floor drier and more easily cleaned, and the house warmer than when no litter is used, and not to furnish a place to hide the grain feed. Some grain will be dropped in the straw or chaff, or shredded fodder or peat moss, even though troughs are used, and the hens will scratch for it. But deliberately scattering the grain in the litter, unless there is no container available, serves no useful purpose.

Poultry Hints

It is good business to hatch chicks early.

In hauling eggs to the market, do not expose them to the direct rays of the sun.

Insist that the buyer pay cash for your eggs, and that he buy them on a quality or grade basis.

A standard incubator which will successfully hatch chicken eggs should hatch the turkey eggs with equal success. Many have been used successfully.

All parts of the incubator should be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected. One per cent formalin can be used. Then level the machine and regulate carefully to the desired temperature.

Poultry raisers not being fortunate to have clover, alfalfa or other green feed ranges, or those wishing to plant green feed for summer use in their poultry runs, will find sudan grass very good.

Male birds with large combs are most apt to become frosted after they are wet.

A lot of poultrymen confuse lice with mites. Lice stay on the birds all the time, whereas mites attack them only at night and hide in cracks and crevices during the daytime.

Often ducks make a very disagreeable puddle around the drinking fountain. A good device to prevent ducklings from forming such a puddle, is a wire covered frame.

Raising pullets is one of the most important jobs of the poultry keeper, for unless these new pullets are grown right, they will get off to a poor start and the year's work will be seriously hampered.

Should the young pullets show any signs of unthriftiness, the poultry keeper will do well to see if there are any intestinal worms present in the flock.

Proper housing of the poultry flock generally pays dividends in more eggs and healthier chickens.

SPECIAL NOTICE

On account of the undisputed prevalence of Rabies in Dogs (hydrophobia) in this community, all owners of dogs in Dickens county are hereby notified to muzzle their dogs or keep them tied. All stray dogs should be promptly killed. Dogs and cats spread hydrophobia, and for their protection as well as for the protection of the public, all such animals should receive an immunizing dose of anti-rabies vaccine.

One little boy living near Steel Hill has been bitten by a mad dog, and is now undergoing treatment for the prevention of the disease, and we would hate to see others have to undergo this treatment just because of the carelessness of some dog owner.

Respectfully,
DR. T. H. BLACKWELL,
County Health Officer.

C. R. Edwards this week made a trip to Dallas and other points in the purchase of goods for his Ar-La-

Tex-O-Store just recently established in the city. The arrangement of the new store advantages differs from the old methods of displaying goods as well as the manner and convenience in serving customers. The system of buying also differs, in that a combination of buying in big lots makes a saving in wholesale as well as retail.

W. B. Pipkin Has Birthday Dinner On March First

The coming of a birthday is of interest to us all, young and old; so when Bro. Pipkin casually remarked to some of his friends that he would have his 84th birthday on March 1st, the neighbors began planning a surprise for him on that day. With Mrs. Morris as chairman and Mesdames Sutton, Bush Pipkin and Claude Pipkin as her co-workers, they worked quietly but successfully. At about eleven o'clock on last Saturday morning a dozen or so cars drove out to the lovely Pipkin home east of McAdoo to offer happy birthday greetings. These cars were well filled with appreciative friends, many handkerchiefs for the shower and baskets of delicious food. Mother Pipkin had been informed of coming events so was very calm but happy. The spontaneous handkerchief shower was first, then visiting. At twelve thirty, we were led to the spacious dining room which Mrs. Bush Pipkin had adorned for the occasion and the table was a most beautiful sight. The centerpiece was a crystal cake stand which held the most beautiful and delicious silver cake decorated with 84 red, white and blue candles in the "Lone Star" pattern. This was typical to those of us who really know Father Pipkin; for the Lone Star State became his state by choice many years ago and he has been true to it and was one of the real pioneers who helped to make it; red, white and blue also typifies his patriotism to his country through his long and useful life. Mrs. Claude Pipkin who baked the cake, lighted the candles and Brother Pipkin boyishly blew them out, laughing that he still had "plenty of wind, even if he was 84." He, with Mother Pipkin, the sons and the pastor, Brother Laney, were seated and the feast began. Seven or eight tables were served to the many courses by neighbors and friends. The feast was delicious in every detail and when all had eaten, yet there was more.

A thanksgiving service was conducted by the pastor after dinner, and he quoted the 103rd Psalm.

Rev. Laney had known this good man and his wife all of his life and they had been an inspiration to him in his religious life; for it was in this home that he prayed his first prayer in public. Mother Pipkin asked him to give his life to God first in his childhood, and her father, Brother Riley, had been his first Sunday school teacher when he was so small that he was permitted to sit in the teacher's lap. Bro. Joe Poole led in singing two appropriate songs, one being "I'll be no Stranger There," which was a favorite in this home. Testimonies were called for, and Brother Pipkin responded first with a quotation from Hebrews, that he quoted verbatim. Every one present talked and a fitting climax for the service was a prayer of thanksgiving by the oldest child, Rev. C. D. Pipkin of Matador. And little wonder that he could feel and express such a grateful prayer; for his has been a goodly heritage to have been reared in such a Christian home, and members of the Methodist church, and are worthwhile citizens. Few characters known to this writer have studied the Bible more as a layman, or memorized so many passages, and few can quote accurately so many hymns of Zion as can this 84-year-old scholar. I have never seen a layman who seemed to live more for and love his church more. He moves forward in the late evening of his life full of faith, hope and love for his fellow man and God. His physical eyes are growing dim, but his eyes of faith are as bright as the noon day sun. He is an inspiration to the friends who left him and his delicate wife on the doorstep and wished them "many more happy birthdays."—Mrs. J. A. Laney.

Spur Laundry Secures New Wash Man and Driver for Wagon

The Spur Laundry Co., under the capable management of Mr. Dave Wilson, has just secured the services of Mr. Tom Helton as wash man for the laundry. Mr. Helton has been employed with Wilson Bros. the past fifteen years at other points, and is not only experienced and capable but particular and painstaking in his work, so much so that the management feels secure in guaranteeing every piece of laundry work passing through the wash department.

The Spur Laundry Co. has also secured the services of a new driver for the laundry wagon, in the person of Mr. Virgil Wilson, a brother of Manager Dave Wilson, and will be prompt and courteous in calling for and making deliveries of laundry.

The Spur Laundry not only has capable, experienced, courteous and accommodating workmen and employees throughout, but is one of the best and most completely equipped small laundries to be found in all of Western Texas, and as a result is attracting and enjoying an extensive and deserved patronage throughout this section.

Forbis Buys and Ships Choice Car Calves to Ohio Feed Lots

A most interesting cattle sale was made this week, R. C. Forbis having purchased fifty five choice calves at a price of thirteen cents a pound, from H. O. Albin. The calves had been running on wheat field pasture. They weighed an average of 453 pounds each, and will be shipped by Mr. Forbis to Ohio feed lots to be finished for the beef market.

This purchase and shipment of choice calves is an indication what may be done with some care and attention and the aid of small grain field pasture. Yet we are of the opinion that these calves could have been fed and finished here for the beef market as well and as cheaply as in the Ohio feed lots. In marketing the finished products, all of the profits to be realized will thus remain at home—and feeding and finishing cattle at home is especially urged, since the Spur country is one of the most productive feed producing sections of America.

Plans Maturing to Pave Highway from Dickens County Line West

We note from the Crosbyton Review that Crosby county has met all requirements of the state highway department and that plans are now maturing to pave Highway 53 from the Dickens county line west through Crosby county, the route having already been approved and contract let for the work, except a few miles from the Canyon to Crosbyton, where a contemplated change of route is being considered.

Highway 53, which extends through Dickens county and is already paved, is a designated state highway and will very probably become a federal highway, since it has already been mapped and designated as a link in the Carlsbad Cavern Highway, extending from New York to the line of Old Mexico, by way of the famous Carlsbad Cavern. It is planned to pave the entire length and every link of this highway.

Edwin A. Dann Moves Offices to More Commodious Quarters

Last week Edwin A. Dann, chiropractor, moved his office to more commodious and handsome quarters in the Wendell building. He now has a suite of three or four rooms which will be furnished and equipped to care for his practice in a more acceptable manner. The offices include a reception and waiting room, together with rooms for examination, treatment and care.

"WINDY WILLOWS"

"Windy Willows" will be given by the senior class of Dickens High school Wednesday evening, March 19th. This is a story of an awkward country boy but every inch a man, a rich girl who loves him and a bank robbery that is fixed. Bubb Tibbs mixes the papers of his speech and when his dishwashing machine blows up, tears will follow laughter. Admission 15 cents and 25 cents."

Albert Jordan was here Wednesday from his farm home on Duck Creek. Albert is one among the best farmers of the country, and states that his farm work is now well advanced and ready for the rains and the planting season. Albert Jordan has the distinction of being the "biggest farmer" in the country, in that in a single year he paid an income tax on the production of thirty thousand dollars worth of cotton.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY NOTES

Monday, March 10th, the Senior Missionary Society of the Methodist church entertained the Belle Bennets, Torchas and Juniors with Mesdames Payne, Smart, J. P. Simmons, S. H. Twaddell and S. C. Rawlins as hostesses. A beautiful Oriental Pantomime was given by the Juniors under the able direction of Mesdames W. B. Vaughn and J. R. Laine. After a number of peppy games in which all participated, a delightful refreshment plate of sandwiches, tea and cake were served the following:

Mesdames Audrey B. Jones, G. H. Stack, H. H. Hawley, D. J. Dyess, M. C. Bryley, S. C. Rawlins, T. E. Stafford, J. R. Laine, J. C. Payne, C. Hogan, J. E. Morris, A. Watson, J. T. Powell, G. B. NOTICE

Percy Jones will hold services in Spur on Sunday morning, the 16th. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Cal Martin, of the M System Grocery Wednesday made a business trip to Haskell and other intervening points.

F. W. West, of Abilene, spent the first of the week in Spur looking after his farm property interests to the southwest of the city. In earlier years, Mr. and Mrs. West resided in have made their home in Abilene. They have many friends here now who are always glad to hear of them and to know they are living comfortably in their adopted home.

Joe Long, manager of Sanders Pharmacy of Spur, attended the West Texas Druggist Convention Thursday and Friday of last week in Fort Worth. Joe reports a beneficial as well as enjoyable convention, but refused to give all the details.

Dr. M. L. Nichols and Hamilton, formerly of Spur, but now of Littlefield, last week brought a car load of mules and horses to Roaring Springs, and which will be sold through this section of country. Doc Nichols says the Plains country is a fine, rich section—but that Spur is hard to beat. His friends here will join us in the hope that he may prosper even beyond his expectations on the Plains.

District Manager Owsley, of the West Texas Utilities Company, was in Spur the first of the week. He informed us that a considerable building and improvement program is now under way in this section of the district properties, larger plants being established at points and high lines being extended. The West Texas Utilities is a big concern and is contributing much to the development progress of the entire country and Western Texas in particular.

Mrs. E. L. Tanner entertained last Thursday at her home, honoring Mother Tanner, Mrs. Daniels of Iredell, and Mrs. W. T. Andrews Jr., the occasion being a one o'clock luncheon, and which was a most pleasant for each one of the number of favored guests.

PROGRESSIVE SUPPER GIVEN
BY ENTRE NOUS CLUB

Thursday night the Entre Nous
Club members are enjoying the regular annual "progressive supper."
The first course of the supper is being served by Mrs. Senning, the second course by Mrs. Golding, and the third course by Mrs. Davis. Following the third course, the membership will play forty two at Mrs. Davis'.
This is an annual event and always proves one of the most pleasant club events of the year.

Mrs. Effie Post, of Waco, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. D. G. Hisey, and Fred Hisey and family.

Mesdames W. T. Andrews Jr., and her mother, Mrs. Daniels of Iredell, visited Sunday in Quanah with Artman Daniels and family.

McAdoo News Briefs

Second Quarterly Conference.

The Second Quarterly Conference for the McAdoo and Afton Methodist churches will convene at Afton on March 15th and 16th. Preaching at 11 a. m. Saturday by Dr. R. A. Stewart, and dinner at the church. Business meeting at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Cypert was taking the school census this week and things are looking bright for a larger school for the coming year.

Rev. Laney will fill his regular appointment here at McAdoo next Sunday at 11 a. m. and in the evening; he will preach at Wake at three in the afternoon.

Miss Jewell Laney and her cousin, W. C. Morgan of Hereford, came over from Texas Tech last Friday and spent the week end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Laney. Both of these students were on the honor roll for the term and are working their way through school.

Miss Obara Hamblen spent Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Hamblen, at Abilene, Texas. Her father's pastor of First Church there.

The Woman's Missionary Society had its regular meeting at the parsonage Monday at 2:30 with the president, Mrs. Robinson, in the chair and conducted a brief business meeting. Mrs. Wisner then took charge and conducted the Home Mission study lesson on "Getting on With Our Neighbors." A profitable discussion was enjoyed in studying our near neighbors and our neighboring races and just how to benefit them. A car of members planned to go to the Council Meeting of the Methodist Church at Amarillo for one or two days. This is the very first time so great a gathering of Methodist women has been entertained in the Panhandle; so all should go that can do so.

Mr and Mrs Claud Pipkin went to Lubbock for her mother last Sunday; she will spend some time with Mrs. Pipkin.

WHY I LEFT THE EAST
(Requested)

Now isn't it amazing how some people fume and fret,
And declare that Western Texas is the "Sorrowfullest country yet?"
How they fuss and how they grumble,
How they yip and yap for rain;
And we often hear them threaten to be going East again.
"Back east it rains a-plenty, and the gardens, how they grow!"
And they have all kinds of edibles,
The whole year 'round, you know."
Don't talk to me—I know it; for I lived there years and years;
And again that verdant country on my vision reappears;
And I see myself a-sitting by the fire in summer time,
And a shaky, creepy feeling over me begins to climb;
How I shake! and how I shiver! Then I tumble into bed.
Where I rage and toss with fever,
While they bathe my aching head.
Then they lead me in to dinner, to a feast they said was good;
But I do not even taste it—only sigh,

and wish I could,
Tho they coax me and persuade me, "just to eat a little bite",
I turn away, disgusted, for I have no appetite.
Next, I see my husband lying of the fever, almost dead,
And my oldest boy crying, "Mother, come and bathe my head."
"Mother, put more cover on me!" cries another, with a cry;
While another shouts, "Oh, Mother—come and fan me or I'll die!"
And I see myself at midnight, by my sick child on my knees,
A-crying and a-praying for the Lord to send a breeze.
Next, I find we've had an auction, now perhaps, my friend, you've guessed,
Why we left that verdant country for the dry, disheartening West.
But, my friend, we don't regret it—never mind now, what we eat;
We are happy and contented, and we count it quite a treat
To be always up and going—yes, our wealth has taken flight;
But we have a greater blessing—we have got an appetite.
And the nights are so refreshing, and so pleasant that it seems
We just can't get up of mornings, till the sun pours down his beams.
No more slaving in the crabgrass, till we don't know how to rest;
Up and in the field at daylight—we we don't need to in the West.
Step, my friend, and count your blessings: think about our pleasant nights;
Think about our generous people—think about our appetites.
Hush your mouthing and complaining, let your grouches die at birth;
For our glorious, Western Texas, is the grandest place on earth.
—Ella Kellum Bennett.

MRS. M. J. HARRIS DEPARTS

Mrs. M. J. Harris was born March the 21st, 1845, in Murray county, Ga. Died March the 9th, 1930, at 8:15 P. M., aged eighty-four years, eleven months and twelve days. Was married to W. J. Beck in 1865. To this union were born nine children, seven of whom are living. They are:
Mrs. C. W. Wise, of Noel, Mo.;
Mrs. Laura Jones, Tallespossee, Ga.;
Mrs. Ross Clark, Nocona, Texas;
Mrs. Georgia Sorrells, Cleburne, Tex.;
J. A. Beck, Seymour, Texas; T. B. Beck, Electra, Texas, and Mrs. Lillie Henry, Roaring Springs, Texas. All were present at the burial but Mrs. Wise and Mrs. Jones. Mr. Beck died December 11th, 1884. After his death she was married to A. C. Harris. To this union no children were born.

Grandma, as she was affectionately known by her friends, has made her home with Mrs. F. F. Henry for a number of years. She was a member of the Baptist Church and had lived a devoted Christian for many years. Many times we have heard her tell in the devotionals of her love for her Savior. For a number of years she had been an invalid, unable to attend church. We should not grieve for her, for she has only gone on to her reward to await our coming. A long and useful life with its portions of sorrow, toil and suffering is over. She has fought a good fight; she has kept the faith; from henceforth there is a crown of righteousness for her.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church at Dickens. Rev. W. B. Bennett officiating. Miss Earnest led the singing and Mrs. Crego played the piano. The pallbearers were J. C. Smiley, J. Smith, R. T. Belcher, W. S. Smiley, Lee Glen and Joe Rose. Interment was made in the Dickens cemetery.

All their friends from Duncan, Flat who could possibly come were there, eager to show their love, willing to do anything to help them, sympathizing with them in every way. The floral offerings were lovely, and showed the love and esteem in which the deceased was held. Though we cannot help but miss her, let us not selfishly grieve for her, for she has gone where God shall wipe all tears from her eyes; and there shall be no death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. We tried our best to keep her here, but all our efforts proved in vain; And tho we miss her—oh! so much, We would not call her back again. For tho we've laid our mother down, With breaking hearts beneath the sod,
She is not dead—she has a crown Of everlasting life with God,
W. B. BENNETT.

The DAIRY

CLEANLINESS IS BEST FOR CALF

Every Utensil Should Be Washed and Sterilized.

To have a runt among the calves usually means that some one has failed at the calf management job. Perhaps one of the most over-looked tasks is that of cleanliness of quarters.

"Cleanliness is one of the most essential things in the whole process of feeding the calf," relates James W. Linn, extension dairyman, Kansas State Agricultural college, by way of cautioning dairymen against the ills of unclean quarters and feed. "Especially is this true as long as it is necessary to feed whole milk or milk substitutes."

Every utensil, including the bucket, dipper, separator, and can, should be washed and sterilized at every feeding, recommends the extension specialist. Such a practice will insure against foreign material or bacteria getting in the milk.

Temperature and quantity of milk are important considerations to be given calf management. It will pay dairymen to use a thermometer and see that the milk is kept at the normal temperature at production time as possible. It is essential to feed the calf its milk at the same temperature each feeding.

Linn recommends weighing to the tenth of a pound the milk fed the calf. His formula calls for one pound of milk to each ten pounds of live weight of calf until 16 pounds daily is reached. Do not increase above that amount.

Proper Feeding Rule to Follow in Cold Weather

It is a good rule in winter feeding to allow one pound of grain or concentrate feed per day to cows for each four pounds of milk they produce testing 3 to 3½ per cent fat; or one pound per day for each three pounds of milk if it tests 5 per cent or more of fat. This rule may be used as a guide to determine how much grain to feed during the pasture season. With the grass still in fairly good condition one-third as much grain as is required in the winter season will ordinarily be enough, but as the season advances and the grass shortens and dries a gradual increase becomes necessary.

Judgment, however, must be the main rule always. The aim should be to maintain production and the condition of the cows. Cows in the advanced stages of their milking periods that are only producing 10 to 15 pounds daily will not ordinarily require concentrate feeds during the pasture season.

Cream Will Deteriorate Even in Winter Season

Cool weather does not mean that cream can be held several days without damaging its quality, points out J. O. Barkman, in charge of dairy manufacturers at the experiment station of the University of Kentucky.

Sweet cream held at a temperature of 50 degrees for a week or ten days makes a poor grade of butter. Such cream may be of low acidity and sweet to the taste when churned, but the resulting butter will have an old flavor.

Winter cream kept in cellars where such vegetables as onions and cabbage are stored will have a bad flavor. Likewise, cream kept in the kitchen is exposed to the odors of foods being cooked, and to the heat of the stove.

Cream should not be allowed to freeze, as frozen cream makes an oily butter of poor quality.

Dairy Facts

Live stock farming is often said to be one of the most satisfactory ways of maintaining soil fertility.

Watch the position of the cream or skim milk screw in the cream separator. Any change in this screw will affect the cream test.

So far as investigations have gone, there are no cases that have shown that the calves from a tuberculosis bull or even from a cow inherit tuberculosis.

Cows continue in much better physical condition and maintain their milk flow at a higher level throughout the winter months when legume hays are fed in place of non-legumes.

Trouble with stringy milk may usually be overcome by thoroughly boiling and disinfecting all utensils, according to dairy experts at University Farm, St. Paul.

See that the calves' bowels are in normal condition and their appetites keen. If off feed, it is apt to be from indigestion or impure milk.

Keep the dairy cows in the barn on all cold, stormy days. The additional milk obtained will pay for the extra feed and care.

Mesdames C. C. Gay and M. C. Terry, and Miss Mildred Terry, of the city of Dickens, were shopping and visiting in Spur Tuesday of this week.

Trade at Home—
T. M. Green was here Tuesday on business from Dickens, spending several hours here also meeting and conversing with friends. Mr. Green is among the earliest settlers here, having resided here before the organization of the county. He has rendered public official service, and has ever been foremost in promoting and pushing movements for progress and advancement of public interests.

Trade at Home—
Mrs. E. P. Tayloe has returned to her home in Tennessee after having spent several weeks here with her daughter through an operation her daughter underwent an operation for appendicitis and has been in the Nichols Sanitarium for several past weeks. Mrs. Tayloe was formerly Mrs. H. P. Cole, spent the greater part of her life in Dickens county, and has hundreds of friends and acquaintances who are always glad to see her.

Trade at Home—
Judge H. A. C. Brummett was in Spur Tuesday from the county capital spending several hours here on professional business, and incidentally meeting with his friends. The Judge two years ago retired from politics to engage in the practice of law. However, since his retirement, his friends have solicited him to run for United States Senator, State Legislature, Congress, as well as county offices. Continued solicitations are forceful. Judge Brummett is too good a public man to remain in the background, and in public office will be in better position to render real service to the country.

Trade at Home—
J. W. Garrett of southwest of Spur, has been spending several days of the week in the city on business, and awaiting a decision of the higher courts on a case recently appealed.

Trade at Home—
J. E. Britton and son, Tut, spent the past week end in Ardmore, Oklahoma, visiting with Mrs. Britton and other relatives and friends of that state.

Trade at Home—
B. M. Remington was called again the first of the week to New Castle on account of the death of Mrs. Remington's father. Mrs. Remington has been at the bedside of her father the past several weeks, he having been critically ill throughout the time. We join their many friends in Spur in extending sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Remington and family in this hour of bereavement and sorrow.

Trade at Home—
Robert Nickles, of McAdoo, was in Spur Wednesday of this week, transacting business affairs and also meeting with his friends and acquaintances of this section. He stated that everything is now o. k. on the plains, and that farmers are all up with their work, waiting for rain and the season to put in another big crop. The grain crops of the plains are looking good and have been of great value as pasturage, many cattle having been driven to the plains and placed on wheat fields the past several months.

Trade at Home—
Wilbur Perry left Wednesday for a business trip to Dublin, looking after his mother's farming and property interests. However, these interests may not consume all of his time—since the Fat Stock Show is now in full swing in the city of Ft. Worth.

County Commissioner M. F. Hagar of Kent county, was among those in Spur Wednesday. He was looking after some road building project in this territory, just across the line in his county. Considerable road work is now being conducted throughout Kent county, which county will soon boast of as fine roads as any in this part of the West.

THINK OF YOUR AUTOMOBILE IN TERMS OF TOMORROW

Ultimate cost is as important as first cost in the purchase of an automobile

WHEN you purchase an automobile you are making an investment of a considerable amount of money. It is essential, therefore, that you give careful thought to the best selection and know what you are getting for your automobile dollars.

The first cost is important because it may mean an immediate, satisfactory saving. Of equal importance is the ultimate cost after thousands of miles of service. This ultimate cost is the true measure of automobile value.

THE first cost of the new Ford is unusually low not only because of economies in manufacturing, but because the same principles that inspire these savings are extended to every other step that means greater service to the public. It is easy to see that economies in production would be of little value if they were sacrificed later through high charges for distribution, selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, does business on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company. His discount or commission is twenty-five to fifty per cent lower than that of any other automobile dealer. You gain because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

The difference in selling cost, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, amounts to at least $50 to $75 on each car. This is as important as economies in production in keeping down the price you pay for the new Ford.

THE low ultimate cost of the new Ford is the result of sound design, quality of material and unusual care in manufacturing. Friction and wear are reduced by the accuracy with which each part is made and assembled.

These factors combine to decrease the cost of operation and add months and years to the useful life of the car. The good performance and low yearly depreciation of the new Ford are indicative of the enduring quality built into it at the factory.

SERVICE charges are on the same fair, economical basis as the making and selling of the car and replacement parts are always available at low prices through all Ford dealers. In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost.

Think in terms of tomorrow, therefore, when you purchase an automobile. For tomorrow will reveal its true worth.

Red Top and Catfish News

The old timers' gathering at Post last week had a gathering from both Catfish and Red Top. They report an interesting program and bountiful refreshments.

Joe Keeney and Dave Stiles, two old timers here, but now living in New Mexico, sent apples from their orchards as treats for the gathering. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Howell, a son on February 25th; the mother and son are getting on nicely now.

On Friday evening Mrs. Lon Fuqua of Lower Red Mud settlement, entertained quite a crowd in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stoneman, who were married recently. A prize for one of the games was a miscellaneous shower for the bride, which contained many useful gifts. All report a nice time.

Mrs. Will Rhodes and Mrs. Matt Howell were in Spur last Saturday.

Mr. Elmer Cross and wife have moved into our midst, they now living on the Rhodes farm.

Messrs. John and Oldie Harrington were in our community the first Monday.

Mr. Ed Fuqua was suffering with a very painful arm last week following a vaccination against small pox.

Brother Berry of the Christian church held services at the Higgins school house the first Sunday. A nice crowd was out and enjoyed the services.

Mr. Lon Fuqua and family spent Saturday night and also Sunday with Mr. Ed Fuqua and family.

Jim Cross and family had dinner with Ed Fuqua and family Sunday.

Dick Cravy was at A. E. McClain place last week. I think he is trying to get enough kudzu vines set to try out for hog pasture. The vine is doing well where Mr. McClain has it on his Red Mud place.

Rankinville is improving a new shop and garage combined. It has just been erected and is now ready for work.

Mrs. Jennie Fry recovered a part of her flock of hens that were supposedly stolen from her place last week. Perhaps we are going to be compelled to lock our hen houses, but unless some of them are made more substantial, it will do but little good. Let us hope that this incident will be a lesson to others, as the suspect was captured.

Mrs. Betty Cravey has been quite ill but is improving now.

Trades day at Spur drew quite a crowd again and Catfish and Red Mud were both well represented.

Mrs. taw Cravey has gone to the Plains to be with her parents, who are both sick.

Dad Rucker was taken to Crosbyton last week and placed under the care of a doctor. We have not heard how he is getting along.

SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Dickens

Notice is Hereby Given That by virtue of a certain execution issued out of the Honorable County Court of Dickens County, on the 20th day of February, 1930, by order of Thurty-Four and 60-100 Dollars and costs of suit, under an execution, in favor of Roy L. Harkey in a certain cause in said Court, No 430 and styled Roy L. Harkey vs K L Dodson, G W Dodson, placed in my hands for service, I, G L Barber as Sheriff of Dickens County, Texas, did on the 16th day of March, 1930, levy on certain Real Estate situated in Dickens County, Texas, described as follows to-wit: 50 acres out of Survey 4, W. A. Mynatt. Grantee; Abstract 1107-1-2, out of the south side of said survey, and levied upon as the property of G W Dodson, and that on the first Tuesday in April, 1930, the same being the 1st day of said month, at the Court House door, of Dickens County, in the City of Dickens, Texas, between the hours of 10 a m and 4 p m, by virtue of said levy and said order, I will sell said above described real estate at public vendue for cash to the highest bidder, as the property of said G W Dodson And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Texas Spur, a newspaper published in Dickens County.

Witness my hand, this 6th day of March, 1930.

Sheriff Dickens County, Texas

W. M. U. Observes Week of Prayer With Great Interest

The Spur W. M. S. began their Week of Prayer Monday with an all day celebration in which everybody had a part. It was the best day our W. M. S. has had for a long time. A goodly number of women were present and the program was absorbingly interesting from start to finish. A refreshing enthusiasm pervaded the atmosphere all day. There was not a low note sounded. Every woman knew her part and told her story well. The program brought out the needs of home and foreign missions most forcibly. Every woman present must have been inspired to do more for home and foreign missions from now on. Every Christian should wake to the crying need of those who are less fortunate than ourselves, both at home and abroad, and work harder in the future for Christ than ever before. The following took part in the program, Mrs. George Williams presiding.

Subject—"The World at the Door."
Watchword—"Be ye steadfast as laborers together with God."
Song—"My Country, 'Tis of Thee."
Prayer—Mrs. M. D. Ivey.
Devotional—Mrs. F. G. Rogers.

McAdoo News Briefs

Rev. L. S. Ballard of Dallas, General Secretary for the Missionary Baptist Church of Texas, will preach at the Methodist Church in McAdoo next Sunday at 11 a. m., and at 8 p. m. He will cover the South Plains in the next two weeks looking after the work in general of the Association of the Missionary Baptist Church. Rev. J. W. Isbell, local pastor, states that Bro. Ballard is an excellent speaker and wonderful preacher. All Baptists are urged to be present and the public is invited to come.

Mesdames Robertson, Emory, Wisner and Laney went to Spur last Saturday afternoon and selected new furniture for the local parsonage.

The Missionary Society had an interesting meeting Monday at the parsonage. Mrs. Emory conducted the meeting, using the Voice program. Mesdames Morris and Sutton gave the leaflets. Plans were completed for sending a car of delegates to the Council and Annual Conference at Amarillo next week.

Quite a large delegation of citizens went to Matador Monday to the road meeting. Among them were Messrs. Geo. Harris, O. Morris, Laney, Weeks and Emory.

The second quarterly conference will be held at the Afton Methodist church on Saturday and Sunday of this week for the Afton Methodist church. Preaching at eleven a. m. Saturday and business meeting in the early afternoon. Dinner on the ground. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Miss Alma Jo Ince, Mr. Jimmie Edmondson, Miss Louise Rodgers and Mrs. Oscar Nallie spent a very pleasant afternoon at the Sneed ranch Sunday, returning home by way of Crosbyton.

WE DELIVER

Why Break Your Back—Just Phone Us

Our new driver will call for your wash. It is placed in a separate compartment of a modern sanitary machine. It is washed in pure soap and soft water. It is dried in patent hot air machines, by a process which makes it unnecessary to iron flannels—and the heat kills all germs.

All wearing apparel that need it is starched. All table and bed linens are ironed. Everything is returned DRY, and everything is ready for use, except the small, frilly pieces, which you can easily iron at home.

We now have a new wash man, Tom Helton, who is an expert, and hereafter every wash piece will be guaranteed perfect in every particular. Bring us your laundry.
