NUMBER 52

ENTRY WEEK IN TEXAS SPUR'S "SHOWER OF GOLD" CONTEST; $1500.00 TO BE GIVEN AWAY

CASH PRIZES TO WORKERS RANGE FROM $10 TO $500

THERE WILL BE CASH COMMISSIONS FOR THOSE NOT PARTICIPATING IN LARGER PRIZES.

Is Your Child Entered

CHILDREN RANGING IN AGES FROM SIX MONTHS TO 13 YEARS ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE.

Campaign Just Started

This is entry week in The Texas Spur "Shower of Gold" subscription extension campaign.

Who is going to win the $500.00 Grand Prize during the next few weeks? Will the winner be in your family The Texas Spur is after subscriptions; more circulation; you ought to be after the $500.00 for that boy or girl.

Have you read over the rules and regulations?

Have you considered what it will be worth to your child in after years to have won that $500.00? If you have not, do it now. Think and think and think again of what it may mean. Just a few weeks of interesting, delightful work for your boy or girl—a work in which you can help immensely.

That $500.00 can just as well be awarded to your youngster as to anyone else in the Texas Spur trade area. The management of The Texas Spur has no preference. The campaign manager doesn't care who wins. But you do care who wins.

And, don't think, just because this announcement is a week old, that the race is won. It is not won by a long shot. Your boy or girl (from 6 months to 13 years old) is not behind. The race is only starting and by entering that child at once, you will be starting on even terms with others. So fill in that entry blank now and bring it to The Texas Spur office.

If you wait another week or longer, it will be that much harder for your boy or girl to catch up—much harder than it is right now. A couple of weeks time makes a big difference. Remember this subscription extension campaign won't last forever. It soon comes to an end.

It takes a little time to get such a business campaign started but, when it is well under way it moves. That is the reason the campaign manager is urging you to enter your boy or girl right now. He knows how important it is to get a running start. You know that a boy or girl can jump farther with a running start than from a stock-still position. Well the same principle applies in this "Shower of Gold" subscription extension campaign.

Then too, you ought to look at this side of the picture. Where in the world can your boy or girl earn as much as $500.00 lump sum in a year's time, much less only a few short weeks, except in this contest? Nowhere, of course. It will return the winner many dollars for each hour's work. It will pay you to put that boy or girl in the race and then get out and help to push them across the line—the winner of the big money. Can't you see that it is only right that you should help that youngster for a few weeks, when the winning of $500.00 will mean much to that child? Of course you do.

So, don't delay longer, but fill in the blank and send it to the campaign office; or better yet, bring it in, with the youngster with you, and learn all about this proposition. It will be a surprise to you to learn how easy it is to become the top winner.

There are also other prizes, worth working for, but you will want to see your boy or girl win the $500.00 Grand Prize.

The steady worker wins, if he gets started soon enough. Make sure that your boy or girl is given every break by being entered right off. As time rolls by, the chances of winning dwindle. But now, the field is wide open to anybody, with the chances even to all.

Don't delay for your child's sake. If you do, in the future years, you will always have one big regret.

Enter that boy or girl and be happy in the thought that you gave the youngster a chance to win a big prize in life. Act now, today, this minute. The business experience will be a valuable training for your child and for yourself over and above the money that you receive for your honest effort. Be sure and bring a good picture of your little child (a good Kodak picture will do).

Regarding Assignment Of Pool Proceeds

There has been a demand from creditors and others for information relative to their obtaining producers' surplus tax-exemption certificates, pooling them in the name of the producer and receiving for the government check.

We have taken this matter up with the Division of Cotton and they again remind us that it is the duty of the county agent or assistant in cotton adjustment to deliver government checks to the payee designated there-on, unless otherwise instructed by the Secretary.

Tax-exemption certificates are for the purpose of paying the ginning tax on cotton and are not to be used as collateral. Surplus certificates may be pooled or transferred at the rate of five cents per pound to another producer in an amount necessary to pay the ginning tax on his cotton, produced by or for him, in excess of his Bankhead allotment. They are not for speculation. Your regulations are very clear concerning speculation in tax-exemption certificates.

We quote you as follows from the Division of Cotton:

"Reference request opinion on assignment pool proceeds. We advise that the manager of the pool has no authority to recognize any transfer or assignment and that the assistant in cotton adjustment is authorized to deliver a check issued by the pool or a certificate issued therefrom upon the liquidation of the pool only to the person named as payee on the check or named in such certificate."

The State Board admonishes you to follow the regulations and the interpretations thereof from this office to the letter. This is the best way to keep out of trouble.

Trusting that the above information will explain county agent's action toward this matter in the future, I am,

Your very truly,
G. J. LANE,
County Agent, Dickens County.

Truth in Advertising

(By Carl Proctor)
Truth in advertising should be more than a catch phrase. It should mean that every printed word produced by or for a store should be nothing but the unvarnished truth. We go to every end to make our advertising that. A 15% reduction in merchandise is not a stupendous reduction. A part-wool blanket is not "all wool." Ordinary muslin is not "Hope Muslin." There is a difference when you can depend upon a store's advertising. You have faith in the store, faith in its merchandise and faith in its policies and prices. You are not afraid to act upon its suggestions. Our advertising will always be found to be truthful.—THE FAIR STORE.

Concerning Rights —Whose Rights?

Mark Sullivan, story journalist and AAA hater, lays down this pronouncement as a fundamental principle of government: "The farmer should have the right to decide what crops he should raise, and how much."

"That is a 'right' that has no value. Farmers like everyone else are primarily concerned with income. The right with which they are concerned is the right to live. In a world of controlled prices they can live only by controlling their prices, which means adjusting production to effective demand. The right to raise corn on every available acre is of small consequence compared with the right to get a living price for that corn when it goes to market."

"So much for the farmer's side. As a principle of government the right of an individual to do as he pleases with his own property is secondary to the rights of the public."

"The city property owner cannot add a porch to his home without a building permit. He cannot build a bonfire in his back yard without the consent of the city council. He cannot keep a pig to furnish his own meat. If he builds a new home, the location and plans must satisfy the building commissioner, and a host of inspectors pester him until you would think it was their house instead of his that is being built."

"It is no longer legal for a man to beat his own wife. It is against the law for him to keep his children out of school to mow the lawn. If he tires of these restrictions on his personal liberty, he cannot even take his own life legally."

"The day of rugged individualism in land ownership is past. The right of the farmer to let his Canada thistles go to seed has been taken away. He cannot peacefully enjoy the company of his tuberculosis cows. He cannot plant barberry bushes around his home to propagate wheat rust. Government inspectors interfere in his right to produce cornborers unmolested."

"That is only a start. We are approaching the time when a title deed will not give its owner the right to ruin his farm by letting it wash away to the river. We are beginning to realize that this same land will have to produce food for our grandchildren. Our right to ruin that land is not a right at all."

"Our rights as property owners are secondary to the rights of the public. Public interest demands that we farm better, that we stop soil erosion and the wasting of soil fertility. Public interest demands, too, that we refrain from ruining our markets by producing too much. The rights of all of us are superior to our individual rights to do as we please."

"Mark Sullivan and other rugged individualists may not like that, but they will have to submit to it."—The Prairie Farmer.

Now, when it comes to a cigarette that will suit you... you want to think whether it's mild, you want to think about the taste

That Chesterfields are milder and taste better is no accident...

The farmer who grows the tobacco, the warehouseman who sells it at auction to the highest bidder, every man who knows about leaf tobacco will tell you that it takes mild, ripe tobaccos to make a good cigarette.

In making Chesterfields we use mild ripe home-grown and Turkish tobaccos.

Home Demonstration and 4-H Club News; Dickens County Communities

EXHIBIT TO BE SATURDAY

The annual club exhibit will be held in the director's room of the Spur Security Bank Saturday. All products must be in by 5:00 Friday afternoon. Mrs. John Bachman, chairman of the exhibit committee will check in all products and with the help of the committee will arrange the exhibit.

Miss Norfleet Grimes, home demonstration agent of Lubbock county will judge the products and will give a judging demonstration Saturday morning at 10:00. Every club should have representatives in to hear the judging.

CLUB WORKS ON RECIPE FILES

The McAdoo home demonstration club met in an all day meeting with Mrs. Leonard Cox, Tuesday, September 23, each member bringing a covered dish.

The morning was spent in making recipe files. Miss Pratt was there in the afternoon for the regular meeting. She gave information concerning the Ball Jar contest and judging the yard of the demonstrator. She also discussed storing dry foods and seeds, and the labeling and arrangement of canned foods.

Those making recipe files were Mrs. A. Y. Allen, Mrs. Leonard Cox, Mrs. Norman Eldredge, Mrs. C. A. Allen, Mrs. Johnnie Wooley, Mrs. J. S. Hodges, Mrs. Jim Earley, Mrs. Price Brownlow, Mrs. G. G. Allen, and Aline Allen. Others present were Mrs. L. B. Fox, Mrs. Jim Eldredge, and Mrs. D. E. Woods.

DEMONSTRATOR SHOWS AN IMPROVED YARD

"After being chosen yard demonstrator for my club my already high interest reached a much greater height and I determined to make our yard attractive," Mrs. R. Y. Allen told members and visitors of the McAdoo home demonstration club Tuesday afternoon when it met with her for an achievement program in yard work Tuesday afternoon. "I have always been enthusiastic over pretty yards but supposed they were too expensive for us. After investigation I found the expense to be much less than I had expected so I began to make plans for a pretty yard."

"When the planting program was drawn, my husband and I moved the shrubs from the middle of the yard and used them in foundation plantings. Then we spaded and leveled the ground and planted Bermuda seed. We sodded the lawn, planted and have living 18 nursery shrubs and 26 native shrubs, planted and have living 5 trees for shade and background, laid three walks, and built a sanitary toilet and spent only $4.25."

"The picture made at the beginning of our work shows a bare desolate looking place. One passing by would never have taken a second look but now the ground is covered with a solid turf of grass, in the background along the garden fence in the back yard are brilliant flowers blooming, and well placed shrubs about the base of the house. Several people have told me they never pass now without wanting to stop. My family and I have agreed that every effort we put forth to make our yard beautiful has been worth the time and energy we spent in doing it," she added.

CLUB HOLDS ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM

"I am glad I was a yard demonstrator for I made improvements I know I never would have made if I had not been demonstrator," Mrs. T. D. Hale told members of the Prairie Chapel home demonstration club on Wednesday afternoon of last week at her achievement meeting.

Only two members laid flagstone walks but all the cooperators repaired their yard mences and removed the rubbish and learned and located five native shrubs, a report of the cooperators showed.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. F. Alexander, Mrs. Leslie Peak, Mrs. Johnnie Hale, Mrs. R. C. Alexander, Mrs. C. W. VanCleve, and visitors, Mrs. Vaughn White, Mrs. Carl Randolph, Miss Pratt and Mrs. O. C. Thomas of Spur, who judged the yard.—Reporter.

DUMONT GIRLS VISIT GARDEN AND PANTRY

The garden and pantry of Estelle Clark, garden demonstrator for the Dumont 4-H club, were visited Wednesday afternoon. Estelle planned her garden in the early spring to have vegetables for her family the year round.

The girls tried to identify specimens of native shrubs and trees and found there are many plants common to the county they do not know by name.—Reporter.

DEMONSTRATOR TELLS OF WORK

The first thing we did to improve my yard was to remove the old picket fence, reset the posts and build a wire fence," reports Mrs. T. D. Hale of Prairie Chapel club. "Then the ground was broken deep and level. We laid a flagstone walk using red shale rock that is very pretty with the green grass growing between them. We set the Bermuda grass roots in rows about eighteen inches apart. As it grew wet set runners out between the rows until it is now a solid turf across the front. We have set the sides and back yard this fall."

"We had enough trees already growing. I set a few shrubs in the foundation planting and will complete it this fall," added Mrs. Hale.

CLUB FILES RECIPES

"The home demonstration club cook book is my best source of recipes," said Miss Cora Durham, farm food supply demonstrator for Duck Creek home demonstration club, at the meeting in her home to file recipes. "I have copied many of the recipes from it for my files for I did not want to cut the book."

Mrs. J. L. Hagins, who was the club's delegate to Short Course gave a report of her trip.

Those present and working on the files were Mrs. E. Durham, Mrs. J. L. Hagins, Mrs. C. R. Bennett, Mrs. H. A. McLaurin, Mrs. E. E. Hagins, and Miss Cora Durham.—Reporter.

GARDEN SHOWS A NET PROFIT

"When I became a garden demonstrator for the Dumont 4-H club I determined to make our garden better and to have more vegetables from it," Estelle Clark reports in the story of her garden work. "Mother, Miss Pratt, and I planned the garden for our family so that we would have enough vegetables to use fresh and to can for the winter supply. As a result we planted several varieties of vegetables we had never tried before."

"From the garden we have had fresh vegetables every month, have canned 273 quarts and stored 200 pounds of dry and dried vegetables. The garden shows a profit of $110.70."

A WELL ORGANIZED PANTRY

Beginning with the top shelf of the pantry, canned foods should be stored in the following order: fruit, tomatoes, preserves, pickles, relish, starchy vegetables, other vegetables, miscellaneous foods, proteins, store dried beans in containers, such as coffee cans, that can be covered. Those were the important points in Miss Pratt's talk to the Twin Wells home demonstration club in the home of Mrs. C. C. McCombs, September 20.

Present were Mesdames Don Merriman, Tol Merriman, Ella Hooper, J. A. Hutto, Tom Gilmore, Miss Gladys McMeans, Minnie Mae McMeans and Elizabeth Williams.—Reporter.

CLUB HAS PLANT CONTEST

In a contest to identify native plants the McAdoo 4-H club girls learned Tuesday morning that they need to study their plants more closely. To learn native flowers, shrubs, and trees is one of the goals in club work this year.

The Ball Jar contest, which consists of one quart each fruit and vegetables will be held at the next meeting of the club that will be an achievement program at the home of the garden demonstrator.

Members present were Clara Rich, Daisy Jo Rose, Louise Dozier, Dorothy Lee Hines, Doris Early, Mary Lee Brock, Wanda McLaughlin, Ruth Ward and LaRue Holmes.—LaRue Holmes, reporter.

CLUB VISITS CELLAR AND GARDEN

In the garden achievement program of the McAdoo 4-H club Tuesday morning, Clara Rich the demonstrator, showed her cooperators the food she and her mother have canned and stored in the cellar. The eight varieties of vegetables she was growing in her garden now. She also showed the girls her bedroom which she has improved as bedroom demonstrator last year.

Members present were Ruth Ward, Marjorie Jones, Daisy Jo Rose, Wanda McLaughlin, Mary Lee Brock, Louise Dozier, Dorothy Hines, and Doris Early.—Reporter.

No Texas Oleo No Wisconsin Butter

Promoting its own dairy interests, Wisconsin has pressed its war against oleomargarine, made from cottonseed oil. The Legislature has just about taxed it out of the state on the spurious ground that it is unhealthy. Now restive under the sharp retaliation from the Southern States, the Wisconsin Senate seeks to keep the law for its dairymen, but placate the boycotters from the South.

So from the capital city of Madison comes a unique document entitled a Senate resolution and setting forth: "That it is the sovereign right of the state to protect the health and well-being of its citizens and so has increased the tax on oleomargarine; that Wisconsin purchases a long list of excellent Southern products; that the boycott is a two-edged sword but Wisconsin will not use it against the South; and that the Senate hopes 'that time and sound thought will prompt our good neighbors of the South to resist all selfish impulses and help in the continuation of trade relations which have so long continued on a most friendly basis.'"

With due respect to the Wisconsin

Senate, cotton growers and cottonseed oil producers will receive such buncombe for no more than it is worth. If oleomargarine were deleterious, health authorities would act to prohibit it and not the Legislature to tax it. Even Mr. Guy Tugwell, undersecretary of agriculture, in his searching expedition for all injurious foods and drugs, has made no complaint against cottonseed oil products. People of forty-seven states eat them and remain well.

The Senate's soothing syrup detracts nothing from the fact that Wisconsin keeps a rank statute that does by indirection what no state can do directly under the country's constitution. This nation cannot afford to have the states set up a kind of "nationalism" as between themselves.

DAIRY NEWS LETTER FOR OCTOBER, 1935

In a great many instances good pasture such as oats, barley or wheat will be available for the dairy herd during October. In some sections sudan pasture will still be available. This will permit the dairy man to save the silage for a later date. The small grain pasture is fine. It stimulates a large flow of milk and lowers the cost. However, it should be remembered that small grain pasture in October and November is very watery. Therefore, to get the best results the cows should have access to some dry bundle feed or hay. The cows will not eat very much dry roughages, as a rule, but that little does a whole lot of good. In addition to the dry roughage, the cows will need some concentrates such as ground ear corn or ground grain sorghum heads and cotton seed meal. In this case use a mixture of 300 pounds of ground ear corn or 300 pounds of grain sorghum heads and 100 lbs. of cotton seed meal. Give each cow per day, two and one-half pounds of this mixture for each gallon of milk she produces. If the cow is getting silage use a mixture of 200 pounds of ground ear corn or grain sorghum heads and one hundred pounds of cotton seed meal; and give each cow, per day, three and one-half pounds of the mixture for each gallon of milk she produces.

In either case if oats are available and cheap enough, 100 pounds of ground oats may be substituted for 100 pounds of the ground ear corn or grain sorghum heads.

October is a good time to check up and see if adequate shelter is available for the cows during bad weather. This shelter need not be expensive—anything that will turn the wind and rain and give room for all the cows. If the cows are dehorned less space will be needed. If the cows are not dehorned October is a good time to dehorn them. Dehorning, if properly done, will not knock the production very much and for only a short period of time—about a week or ten days.

In a great many sections, there is a large crop of late feed such as hegar, kafir, milo, red top cane, etc. These crops are very hard to cure into good quality dry feed in the late fall. All this feed can be saved by putting it in trench silos. Not only will the trench silo save it, but it will be worth twice as much per acre made into silage than it would be cured into dry bundles, even if it could be properly cured. It will, also, keep longer in the trench silo than it would stacked as dry bundles. If no ensilage cutter is available put the bundles in the trench, however, be sure and cut the string around the bundle after it is placed in the trench. If the bundles are shingled in, no packing will be necessary.

REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS ON EMPLOYMENT OF TRUCKS

Removal of restrictions on employment of trucks under contract for the Works Progress Administration today was expected to expedite the prosecution of projects all over Texas.

State Administrator H. P. Drought announced that the requirement that trucks be covered by public liability and property damage insurance had been lifted but it was made known simultaneously that district safety directors will certify all trucks and their equipment before they go onto WPA jobs.

It was believed that this procedure would allow the Treasury procurement office to go ahead rapidly with invitations to bid on trucks and that districts soon would have the entire force of more than 12,000 men working on the projects authorized up to now.

The fact that not all of those authorized to be employed actually are working was attributed in part to this regulation which prevented employment of trucks and a consequent steady flow of materials to the projects.

"Although the requirement of insurance was highly desirable," Drought said, "it was found that when this was enforced, truck operators would not bid."

Truck owners throughout the state desiring to bid on WPA projects were urged to contact safety inspectors at the twenty district WPA offices.

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936

Why do we say The New Ford V-8 for 1936?

What is new about it?

Of course, the newest engine in the low-price car field is still the V-8 engine. Since Ford made it available to all car users (keeping it as economical as cars with fewer cylinders) the Ford V-8 has been the newest engine on the market, and remains the newest for 1936.

You may buy a car on minor "talking points"—some specially advertised feature "with the car thrown in"—but after all, it is the engine you buy when you buy a car. Hence we put the engine first.

Other new points about the car make a long list.

Its lines are much more beautiful. The hood is longer and sweeps forward over the distinctive new radiator grille, giving the car a length and grace that are instantly impressive. The fenders are larger, with a wide flare. Horns are concealed behind circular grilles beneath the headlamps. New steel wheels.

Ford upholstery—always of sterling quality and excellent taste—is rich and enduring. The appointments of the car, have a new touch of refinement. There is no question about the increased beauty of the Ford V-8 for 1936.

In more practical matters, many improvements have been made—Steering is made easier by a new steering gear ratio. The cooling system circulates 5½ gallons of water through a new, larger radiator. Natural thermosiphon action is assisted by two centrifugal water pumps. New style hood louvres permit a rapid air-flow around the engine.

Easier, quieter shifting of Ford gears—The gear shift lever now travels a shorter distance.

The two qualities you want in brakes—Brakes that stop the car with ease and certainty. Ford Super-Safety Brakes of the long-tested, fool-proof, mechanical design.

Safety—as always—in the electrically welded genuine steel body. Safety Glass all around at no extra cost. Hundreds have written grateful letters because this glass has protected the safety of their families.

A car you can drive without strain all day, if you like, in city or country. Steady, holds the road, responds to the driver's touch like a well-trained horse. You don't have to "push" or "fight" the Ford V-8—driver and car easily get on terms of good understanding with each other.

An engine has much to do with the roominess of a car. Very much indeed. A long engine uses up car space. The compact V-8 engine permits much of the ordinary engine space to be used by passengers.

It really is a great car in every way, this 1936 Ford V-8—the finest, safest, most dependable Ford car ever built. Now on display by Ford dealers.
