VOL. IV.

ROBERT LEE, COKE COUNTY, TEXAS, SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 1894.

NO. 38.

NEW RULE PROPOSED.

IT WOULD PREVENT FILIBUSTERING IN SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—A rule is proposed that incorporates the principle that the affirmative votes on a call must be a majority of those officially recorded, both as voting and as present, and not voting in order that the vote shall be a legal one to decide the pending question. The proposed rule is as follows:

“But should a quorum fail to vote and the point be made that no quorum had voted there shall be a call of the house and the yeas and nays of the pending question shall at the same time be ordered. The clerk shall call the roll and each member as he answers to his name or is brought before the house under the proceedings of the call of the house shall vote on the pending question. If the member fails to vote or refuses when present to answer to his name then any member can announce to the speaker that a member, giving his name, is present and failed to vote or answer to his name on such call, thereupon the speaker shall get the clerk to note the name of such member on the journal as present. If those voting on the question and those declining to vote or answer to their names shall together make a majority of the house then the speaker shall declare that a quorum is constituted and the pending question shall be decided, providing the affirmative vote is a majority of those voting and those present and not voting.”

Silver Men Weakening.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The house did nothing today, and there was no disappointment, because no one expected it to do anything. It is evident, however, that many of the silver men are becoming disposed the compromise. They are beginning to believe that they can never pass the Bland bill as it now stands and are willing to strike out the section which provides for the coinage of the bullion and limit the coinage to the seigniorage. Some of the silver men are far from disposed to changing the line of the fight or making any concessions, but unless something is done to change the rules of the voting quorum which they so much desire is extremely improbable. One thing sure is that the silver men having the Bland bill on the right way will not yield it to any other measure if they can prevent it.

Nothing Done Yet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The proceedings of the house yesterday were more orderly than they were Thursday, but the Democratic party was not in a less pliable condition. There was not as much yelling and quarreling and disorder, but there was just as much Democratic bolting and weakness. The first thing that came up was Mr. Reed's motion to discharge all the arrested members, because there was no authority for their arrest. Mr. Bland had a substitute for this, which provided for the discharge of the arrested members without any allusion to the authority for their arrest. The arrested members were discharged and the business was then to vote on Bland's motion to have debate till to-day, when a vote should be taken. The latter was lost by only one or two votes. An adjournment was then had but during all this time somebody was talking and the utterances were very interesting.

Hawaiian Report.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Senator Morgan submitted the report he has been preparing on Hawaii to the full membership of the committee on foreign relations yesterday and it was adopted by a majority vote. The Republican members of the committee voted for Senator Morgan's report and the four Democratic members voted against the report drawn by the Alabama senator. These four Democrats will prepare a majority report next Monday morning.

Railway Postal Clerks.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—There are more than 8,000 railway postal clerks in the service of the government. Most of them will be benefited by the bill of Representative Hopkins of Illinois, which was recently reported by the house committee on postoffices. The bill creates seven classes of clerks other than are provided for by the present laws, salaried at $1,600 and $1,800.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The available cash balance in the treasury yesterday was $138,542,426, national bank notes received for redemption $296,063, government receipts; internal revenue $883,688, customs $471,372, miscellaneous $41,605.

Copper's Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Congressman Cooper of Texas yesterday introduced a bill to repeal the act authorizing the secretary of the treasury to sell bonds. He will follow this up with another bill to provide for the redemption of the greenback notes.

Indian Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Members of the house committee on Indian affairs say that the appropriation for the next fiscal year for the Indians will not be materially reduced.

An Exciting Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Speaker Grier was sick yesterday and Mr.

Doorkery of Missouri took the chair, and from that moment the Republicans, backed up by the New York Democratic delegation, had a veritable monkey show with the Democratic side. The members who had been arrested claimed that the warrant for their arrest was worthless. Gen. Sickles took the floor and insisted on making known why he was arrested. He declared that he was to all intents and purposes in chains and demanded a trial at once. All the time he was trying to speak the house was in an uproar, some of the members were laughing as if their sides would not stand their movement, while others reticulated wildly and demanded that the chairman make Mr. Sickles take his seat, while others growled and walked about as if they were in misery. After a while the pandemonium ceased sufficiently for the speaker to bring to call the arrested members to the bar for excuses for their absence. None of them came for some time. Finally a Republican named Adams from Pennsylvania came forward and gave his excuse for being absent that he went to his home to perform the highest act of an American citizen, that is to vote. The Republicans fairly yelled with delight and it became impossible to do anything. In vain did the speaker try to get the speaker for order. The assistant sergeant-at-arms carried around the mace, which is generally supposed to quell the most obnoxious member, but he was on this occasion almost jered to his labors. Finally some one moved to adjourn. Mr. Sickles kept repeating: "Don't do this and leave me in chains." His sallies were greeted with roars of laughter by the Republicans, who gave him every encouragement. Mr. Outhwaite, following the Bland side, made the motion to adjourn. This was voted down, many members of the Democratic side voting against it because they thought the motion to come from Mr. Bland. Again pandemonium reigned and everybody was talking at once. Finally Mr. Bland himself made the motion and it was carried, but this was not done until a roll call was forced by Mr. Bourke Cockran.

Are Doing Nothing.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The Democrats in the house are beginning to awaken to the fact that the country is getting very tired of their way of doing business, or rather their way of not doing business. Since Friday last the clerk of the house has done nothing but call the roll. Mr. Bland moved that a vote be had on his bill, and on this the yeas and nays were called. This vote developed that no quorum was present and this point was at once made by an opponent of the measure. There was a quorum present then and has been every hour since, but the Republicans and a few Democrats refrained from voting, and under the rules the speaker would not count them. As soon as no quorum was evident a call of the house was ordered. The Republicans and silent Democrats answered now and a quorum was present. Mr. Bland renewed his motion for the previous question and the vote ordering it again developed no quorum, the Democrats and Republicans remaining silent. The call of the house again follows and thus the days have been spent for the past four days, and no quorum or vote yet.

Mills Not a Member.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Senator Mills is no longer acting as a member of the senate committee on finance and Senator McPherson has resumed his place as a member of that committee. The report of this change was noised about the capitol soon after the senate met yesterday and was confirmed by Senator Mills, who, in reply to a question concerning the correctness of the report, said: "Mr. McPherson has been a member of the committee all the time and I have never been a member of it. I simply went on temporarily to represent him while he was sick and now he has come back and taken his place."

Senate Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—There was considerable talk about the senate yesterday of the prospect of a Democratic caucus to consider the tariff bill. Senator Gibson, who has been co-operating with Senator Gordon and others to secure a duty on coal, said yesterday afternoon that he considered a caucus inevitable and he thought it would be held during the first part of next week or possibly the latter part of the present week.

They are Trying.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The Democratic members of the senate are much disturbed over the situation concerning the tariff bill. They tried yesterday to make a decided effort to agree upon the features of the bill so as to insure its passage. They did not make marked progress, according to all reports, and they will continue their efforts to-day and Saturday undisturbed by other official business, as the senate has adjourned until Monday.

Sabine Pass Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—To all appearances Sabine Pass will not receive anything like the appropriation asked for. A million dollars was wanted and Cooper has been making a strong fight for a large appropriation.

Gives a Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Twenty-five ladies, the remainder of the National Woman's Suffrage convention which has been in session in Washington for a week past, appeared before the house judiciary committee yesterday morning.

At a Party's.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 25.—Fire was discovered in a cottage at 446 South Twenty-fourth avenue yesterday morning by neighbors, who broke into the house to extinguish the flames. In a closet they found Mrs. Freddie Rothschild, owner of the cottage, badly burned and her clothes consumed. She says early in the morning a freemason came on her cellar and overpowered her. He then saturated her clothes with kerosene, placed her in the closet, set her on fire and locked her in. She then fainted and did not recover consciousness until after being discovered by the neighbors. Physicians believe the woman will recover. The police are of the opinion that the tramp was none other than Mrs. Rothschild's husband, from whom she had been separated.

Work Resumes.

SHERBROOK, Ia., Feb. 21.—

The shenzies of a quarter of the city on Commerce street near Fannie, were started about noon yesterday by the rapid discharge of a pistol accompanied by the screams of a woman. Tennis Wood, an attorney, had shot and mortally wounded Julia Johnson, another negro woman. The shooting was the culmination of jealousy and the finale of previous trouble between the women over the attentions of a white man. Both were under peace bonds. The woman was found lying on her face in her bedroom where she had retreated from the yard after being shot. J. C. Woods, a white man, testified at the inquest that he was sick and lying down when the shooting occurred, and that the deceased burst into the room, staggered to the bed and fell on the floor. When Julia opened the door she said she was "shot at, murdered, killed," or something of the sort. She was shot twice, once through the back and a flesh wound in the thigh.

Italian Starving.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Feb. 21.—

Several weeks ago nearly all the Newcastle manufacturers and the railroads centering here decided that in future they would employ no Italian labor, but would give the work to American citizens. As a result the Italians are actually on the verge of starvation. Many excellent records had been made and the spectators were already satisfied that they had seen the most marvelous feats of ski-running possible. When Hemmestvedt came down the last time he leaped through space the enormous distance of 120 feet, which eclipses by far all the records both in this country and Norway. The champion fell in a hard place, but did not hurt himself seriously.

Boatman's Fight.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 26.—

In a fight which developed into a free fight, in the boarding house of Joseph Tornassak Saturday night, about forty Hungarians and Poles participated. During the battle knives, guns and clubs were used with terrible effect. Peter Nossic was fatally stabbed in the abdomen. John Piker had his skull crushed in. John Tramp's eye was gouged out, and John Nutch was shot in the shoulder. A number of others were more or less seriously injured. The outbreak was the result of bad blood between the boarders, most of whom were drunk.

A Double Tragedy.

GALLATIN, Tenn., Feb. 24.—

The story of a double tragedy comes from Hughesville, Macon county. Fuller Lawson, an employee of Ben Hudson, felled some trees into a stream that was the dividing line between Hudson and Frank Conyer. Conyer called upon Lawson and said he must quit. Lawson would not. Conyer then attempted to shoot him. Lawson struck him with his ax, inflicting a fatal wound. Finally Conyer succeeded in getting two balls through Lawson's body and one through his head, killing him outright.

A FAMILY CREMATED.

THE FATHER, MOTHER AND FIVE CHILDREN BURNED.

A Desperate Fight at a Boarding House at Hazleton, Pa., in Which Several Men Were Seriously Hurt—Breaks His Own Record.

GURDON, Ark., Feb. 26.—News has been received here of the burning of a farm house and its occupants ten miles west of Murfreesboro, in Pike county, on Wednesday night. John Wert, a farmer, his wife and five children occupied the house, and all perished in the flames. The building was constructed of logs, with a large fireplace built at each end. While the family were asleep fire flew upon the floor and in this manner the dry timbers and other inflammable materials became ignited. When discovered the next day the entire building was reduced to ashes and only the charred bodies of the occupants remained.

Champion Ski-Runner.

REN WING, Minn., Feb. 26.—

There seems to be no limit to the possibilities of the ski-runner in leaping through space. At the tournament held Saturday afternoon Torjus Hemmestvedt, the world's champion ski-runner, broke his own record by sixteen feet. A previous thud had rendered this course icy and correspondingly slippery, and the contestants dashed down the steep incline with almost lightning-like rapidity. Many excellent records had been made and the spectators were already satisfied that they had seen the most marvelous feats of ski-running possible. When Hemmestvedt came down the last time he leaped through space the enormous distance of 120 feet, which eclipses by far all the records both in this country and Norway. The champion fell in a hard place, but did not hurt himself seriously.

Boarding House Fight.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 26.—

In a fight which developed into a free fight, in the boarding house of Joseph Tornassak Saturday night, about forty Hungarians and Poles participated. During the battle knives, guns and clubs were used with terrible effect. Peter Nossic was fatally stabbed in the abdomen. John Piker had his skull crushed in. John Tramp's eye was gouged out, and John Nutch was shot in the shoulder. A number of others were more or less seriously injured. The outbreak was the result of bad blood between the boarders, most of whom were drunk.

Death Bed Confession.

SPRINGDALE, Ark., Feb. 23.—

Four years ago a woman living at this place named Gambotis was killed. Living with her was a man named Charley Crouch, and suspicion pointed to him. At the trial, however, nothing could be proven and he was discharged. Crouch has just died at Fayetteville and before expiring confessed to the crime. He also confessed to the murder of a man named Bodger at Fayetteville several years ago, and also to the murder of a negro at the same place.

Died of His Burns.

GUTHRIE, Ok., Feb. 23.—

A 3-year-old son of C. Thompson, a farmer, was playing near the fire, when his clothes caught fire. His aunt reached him first and she was terribly burned about the face and breast while trying to extinguish the flames. The mother grabbed the child from her sister and her hands were so badly burned that the flesh dropped off. The little one died yesterday, and the mother's hands are so badly crippled she will no longer have any use of them.

Hydrophobia.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—

A man violently ill with hydrophobia caused a panic in a crowd of poor who sought aid at the county agent's office. He gave his name as George Barket, a laborer, during a lucid interval, but soon became violent again and, barking and screaming, attempted to rush at the people about him. After a terrible struggle he was overpowered and taken to a hospital. His malady is the result of a dog bite received two months ago.

In Mail Matter.

PADUCAH, Ky., Feb. 22.—

Florence McMurdy, wife of Fred McMurdy, was arrested here Tuesday night with a companion named Charles Jacob. She was dressed in mail attire and broke down at the jail when it was to be searched, exclaiming, "I'm a girl." She has a mother and three sisters living in Pittsburg. Jacob is also from Pittsburg. The girl will be sent home.

True Bill for Murder.

ROSELLE, N. M., Feb. 23.—

On the 17th the body of C. S. Vansickle was found buried in a haystack near here, mangled and with two bullet holes in the head. Yesterday the grand jury found a true bill against Antonio Gonzales and Eugenia Arragon for the murder of Vansickle. There is much excitement over the trial.

Saves the Saloon Keeper.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 22.—

Mrs. Alice C. Siler, being built yesterday against Oscar Westfall of Belle-ville for $5,000 damages. She alleges that her husband got intoxicated on liquor sold by Westfall and shot a neighbor, for which he was sentenced to six years in prison.

Female Memento.

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 24.—

The Scotch rifle Masons here have revived an old practice, one sanctioned by France, and admitted, "by adoption," two ladies, wives of Masons, to the consistory. The admission carries with it the right to wear the Masonic apron.

A Crisp and Complete Synopsis of Recent Round-Ups Carefully Selected and Arranged Readable from Every Portion of the Empire State.

Recently a difficulty occurred between Oscar Crosby and Reese Massie, both colored, on the Jones farm in the Brazos bottom, about six miles from Hearne. Massie, with a drawn knife, chased Crosby. Crosby afterward shot him with a shotgun and instantly killed him. He also shot and seriously wounded another negro, who was in company with Massie at the time. Crosby surrendered to the officers.

Colorado City was visited by a sand storm a few days ago. The wind was from the north the cloud of dust was plainly visible half an hour before it struck the town, when the sky shut out the sun and turned light into darkness. This lasted for more than an hour. Many people were alarmed. The wind was very high, but no damage has been reported.

At Colorado, Mitchell county, recently Jack Dennis was shot and instantly killed at the colored Baptist church. After the meeting Lee Newman called Dennis to one side, saying he wished to talk with him a few minutes. They walked away about thirty steps when two shots were fired. One ball hit Dennis in the right breast and killed him instantly.

Mrs. P. R. Mitchell of Corpus Christi, after lighting a lamp, threw the match on the hearth. By some means her dress became ignited and she was soon almost enveloped in flames. Her husband ran to her assistance and extinguished the flames. The lady escaped injury, but Mr. Mitchell sustained serious burns on the hands.

A freak of nature was recently exhibited at Honey Grove in the shape of a pig which had its nose where the top of its head should have been, and its eyes gazed from the place where its mouth should have been located. It had no mouth, but what was evidently intended for its upper jaw was located in the region of the neck. It soon died.

At Ben Arnold, Milam county, a few nights since F. D. Hare, while on his way from Cameron and within a half mile of that place, was held up and robbed of his purse containing $30. The robbers fired three shots, one passing through his hat and one through his coat. The robbers were masked.

San Johnson and D. D. Jones, both colored, attended services at the colored Baptist church at Gonzales a few nights since and got into a fuss, which resulted in Jones being disembowelled.

ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Happenings of General Interest Collected from Various Sources.

At Buffalo, N. Y., recently Leroy Harris, alias John Heart, accused of postoffice robbery, performed the remarkable feat of holding up a whole courtroom and making his escape. Heart asked permission to retire to the lavatory, returning, cried as he leveled his revolver, "hands up." Everybody held up his hands and Heart walked to the door, opened it, and passed out, locking the door from the outside and taking the key.

There is great religious excitement among the people of the town of Juarez, Mex., and surrounding country over the appearance among them of a beautiful young girl who pronounces herself to be their patron saint, Anita. The girl has performed some very remarkable cures of serious diseases by simply laying on of her hands, and the Indians of that section are wild over her.

James J. Hahn, who stole $74,000 in negotiable bonds from the safe deposit vault of his sister, Mrs. Susan Schwartz, in Natchez, Miss., some time ago, and decamped to Guatemala, has arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in charge of a detective. Fifty-five thousand dollars in bonds and $4,000 worth of diamonds taken from the safe deposit vault at the time of the robbery were recovered.

Recently at Paducah, Ky., the steamer City of Paducah ran into the Tennessee river bridge, throwing it out of gear and preventing trains on the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern from crossing. The steamer had a large portion of her upper works carried away and a hole below her water line compelled the captain to run her ashore to save her from sinking.
