SPRAINS

S. A. Head, Child Tex. writes March 11th, 1901: My wrist was sprained badly by a fall that it was never fully healed. I used several remedies that failed—negative relief, then Ballard's Snow Liniment and was cured. I can heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from sprains. 22-700 2112 J. Kest's Drug Co.

Richard, Savel Dr. Given's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy
"B. L. Dyer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors called bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief."

ABSCESS

W. H. Harbison, Cleveland, Miss. writes Aug. 10, 1897: I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the joints of my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I could have a cast leg, so one day I went to J. P. Lord's drug store (which is now in Denver Colo.) He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment. I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best Liniment in the world.

ANGER'S, with few exceptions are in the line of constitution or habits. They may, however, result from blows or from foreign bodies introduced into the skin or flesh, such as splinters, thorns, etc. For sale by Evans Drug Co.

A REMARKABLE RECORD
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a remarkable record of use in over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of colic, in thousands of cases, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturer which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the droopy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. A combination of other harmful substances and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For Sale by EVANS DRUG CO.

NEGLECTED COLDS.

Every part of the mucous membrane, the nose, throat, ears, head and lungs, are subjected to disease and blight from neglected colds. Ballard's Household Syrup is a pleasant and effective remedy. For sale by Evans Drug Co.

EDITORIAL WHIFFS.

All things are fair in War, Love and Politics, its a drone that will not enter either like his last dollar was invested, as the fruits of all are on the extreme.

A ten weeks drought was broken by a general rain Sunday night, it will help people, crops, grass, stock and every thing to some extent, it is never to late for good to be done, we are sure Coke County, will reap wonderfully from this bath that cooled another earths fevered brow.

A few dollars and a little time spent on our Temple of Justice, would add greatly to its appearance and value, we feel sure some one will come to the rescue of this handsome edifice.

Why can't we unite into a band of Merry Makers, and have fount, plus tending a flower garden and a beautiful green lawn with shade trees, wouldn't it be enticing to weary workers these hot summer days.

"A stitch in time saves nine"

Editor Pulitzer, of the New York World, gave two million dollars, for a school to promote Journalism, guess he has been reading the RUSTLER and sees the room for improvement, just watch Robert Lee, grow with her paper.

We want a live wide awake Correspondent at Bronte that will send in the news every week, this means you if you are blessed with being one of her inhabitants, the County news makes our paper interesting. We Rustler's can not visit each section as often as we would like too, we have to stay near home so we can reach our six shooter if the wolf comes to our door.

Bill Arp (C. H. Smith) one of the South's most noted Penetrating Pushers, died at his home in Cartersville, Ga. last week, as a humorist he won fame and fortune, he brought his name from a comic mountaineer, for one hundred dollars, and as years rolled by he visited this humble home for news and cussings, also to strengthen his imitating powers he finally gave him a good home that he was living in a few years ago. Col Smith was 77 years old, the readers of the Atlanta Constitution learned to love Bill Arp above any one.

RELIGIOUS DEBATE.

There is soon to be a Religious discussion in Robert Lee conducted by two well-informed ministers of the gospel, no doubt these men are desirous of doing good and finding the truth on their respective sides, but will they do it Nay Nay, The people will be left in probably worse condition than before, no good can possibly be derived from such discussions. When the rules of debating are strictly adhered to there may be some good in it, but when either or both of the contestants are bent on apparent victory and resort to every thing to stir up strife and envy, such a debate is disgusting and reflects no credit on the churches they represent, The Rustler is opposed to it from the start. But we are not opposed to any thing that would elevate and lift up fallen humanity.

We are sorry to have to crowd out communications from Sando, Hayrick, Olga, Edith Bronte and Graham Valley. A page of this week leaves us in a bad shape for space, but the paper is contemplating enlarging to an eight column. We would like to see our correspondents to send in the news as often as convenient and we will publish them if possible. We realize that those kind of letters is the life of a country paper.

Louis Creamor, aged 26 years died at the city hospital Saturday morning of typhoid-pneumonia and the remains were interred in the city cemetery the same afternoon at four o'clock after services at the grave by Rev. E. F. Goodson. He was a cowboy and was engaged on the plains works. Mr. Creamor was a stalwart young man, over six feet in height and weighing 200 pounds. He had many friends among the cow men and his demise is very much regretted.—Carlsbad N. M. Current.

Will you kindly publish this with the above notice of the death of Louis Creamor, better known among the cowboys of the plains as "Bigun". No one here knows the whereabouts of any member of his family, so send this to you, knowing that Creamor formerly lived in Robert Lee, in hopes that someone may read it who knows the present address of his mother; and send her a paper. DIVIDE BARBECUE

Last Thursday (25th) quite a number of Robert Lee people went out to the beautiful grove near Simpson School House to help those genial Divide people devour the "fatted calf" our contingent arrived just as dinner was announced and as good luck would have it there was plenty of room for everybody. Ample justice was done to the well cooked beef, mutton and other edibles that were placed before the people. After dinner was over the Water Valley String Band, struck up some lively airs which some of the young people tipped the light "foamatic" too until the wee sun' hours of the morning. The grove is one of nature's beauties, an ideal place for such occasions.

A cigar race came off in the afternoon which was won by Homer Murray, time 23 seconds. B. H. Hedson made second time.

Many were the praises heard on every side in regard to the management, good order, that prevailed. Water melons, peaches, cold drinks etc were in abundance. About six o'clock the crowd began to disperse, some feet remained over night a cloud in the west looked as if the flood gates of heaven would open and give this drought stricken country a rain, but the cloud soon melted away, and the spirits of the people were again doomed to disappointment. Our crowd arrived about ten o'clock foot sore, as we had to walk on account of darkness. Long may the Divide people live and give us other feasts as enjoyable as that one, again soon.

One of the number.

Come Birdie, Come.

I see an article in the San Angelo Standard copied from the Colorado Clipper, saying the hard luck down in Coke (the great rabbit center of the west) saying, Dave Dyrnes of Mitchell Co. branded 1500 rabbits, last spring and expected his fall crop to go considerably above that which would number something over 3000 rabbits on one ranch in Mitchell Co. How is that for the great rabbit center of the west. That is more rabbits than ever was in Coke. So Mr "Clipper" you will give up, you may have the honor of having the banner county in the west for rabbits, no wonder Mitchell Co. can boast of her wealthy stockmen when they have got registered jack rabbits. I have heard the editor of the Clipper had lived on rabbits so long that the doctors told him his offspring would all be long eared and wild. So I sit up to you Mr Clipper. And now I will tell you what we have in Coke. We have the best land, grass, water and timber, more more corn, cotton, wheat, oats, melons and fruit than any county in the West. As for the best people, schools and churches, fewer criminals than any county in the state, and a newspaper, all of which makes us proud we live in the garden spot of the world.
