The Robert Lee Baptist Church is to have a guest speaker next Wednesday night (Dec. 9) at 7:00 P.M. Miss Sue Snider, a missionary on furlough from Ghana, Africa.

Miss Snider is a native of Dallas, Texas and is residing there while home for a year's furlough from her work as a Southern Baptist missionary in Ghana. She was educated at T.S.C.W. Well, they did it! Their next assignment is to topple Wheeler, rated by sports writers as the No. 1 Class B team in the state, the game to be played at Shamrock, in the Texas Panhandle.

In the bi-district, Wheeler wheeled over Matador, which not long ago was top rated. The Steers have held rating near the top for awhile, and their 2 point loss to Eden dropped them a few places, to tenth before the Throckmorton game.

Those wishing to make the trip to Shamrock by chartered bus should contact City Hall with cash at the earliest possible moment.

Arrangements were being completed Wednesday night or first thing Thursday morning.

While the specialists give Wheeler the edge, locals who saw the game at Hamlin aren't buying that, especially Ronnie Baker, who came back from Hamlin bareheaded (he threw his hat away) and romped into telling you-all who didn't see it, and refresh the memory of those who did.—Editor

By RONNIE BAKER

With the boys all that day, I saw it coming. They were ready, and they had the confidence in each other to do their job.

The defense, which any football team is built around, was next to perfection, holding the Greyhounds to only 21 yards rushing the first half, and 41 yards passing. Total that up, and you can see why they couldn't score.

The fans should be proud of their team, and that is an understatement of what I just can't put into words.

First Quarter

The Steers received the opening kick-off with Gartman returning to the 37 yard line.

On the first play, Thetford stepped back and, with Hatch speeding down field, he hits him with a long pass, where Hatch is stopped on the 10 yard line. The play covered 53 yards right quick. It took all 4 downs for the Steers to score, but Dodson punched over from the 2 yard line.

Try for extras failed. The Steers now led by 6 to 0.

After Dodson's kick, Throckmorton could move only 5 yards before being forced to punt. The rest of the quarter was consumed in a punting contest between Dodson and Max Chick of Throckmorton, both kickers keeping the ball around each other's 30 yard line.

Second Quarter

With Robert Lee in possession of the ball at the 27 yard line, the Steers began another drive. A 4 yard run by Gartman, another 4 yards by Thetford, 2 successive 18 yard passes to Williams, a 7 yarder to Wink, an 11 yard run by Dodson, and a quick 3 yards to Hatch for the T.D. Try for points failed and the Steers led now 12-0.

Dodson kicked off to the 7 yard line, with no return. The Greyhounds took to the air. They completed one for 29 yards, and on the next pass, Thetford makes a diving interception on Throckmorton's 43 yard line.

The Greyhounds held, and Dodson punted out of bounds on the Greyhound 10 yard line. The Steers then held them to short yardage, and they punted out to the Steer 29.

The first half came to an end soon after, with the Steers in possession.

Third Quarter

Dodson's kick was fairly short, and was returned to the 35 yard line. With the Greyhounds taking to the air again, Hatch intercepted and returned 30 yards to

Santa Puts Down December 19 For Robert Lee Trip

You can spread the word that Santa Claus will be in Robert Lee a few days before Christmas. Saturday, December 19, is the date, by arrangement with the Robert Lee Board of Community Development.

A committee of local helpers was appointed Tuesday noon at the regular meeting.

Santa will use his own conveyance to reach Robert Lee, then be met by the Robert Lee fire boys and ride the big fire truck into town, with his bag of candy especially packed for this particular visit.

Gerald C. Allen, Chairman of the UCRA, at the meeting of the Robert Lee Board of Community Development Tuesday noon, said this proposed agreement would be incorporated in papers submitted before the Texas Water Commission at their meeting on December 14 in Austin.

It would provide for Robert Lee, Bronte, and Ballinger, along the Colorado River to have their future needs supplied, and for San Angelo to get water in case of emergency arising from running out of water over there, and only in such emergency.

Spelled out in detail, but not yet acted upon by the directors of the two bodies, it marks another step in working out a joint program satisfactory to both agencies.

Mr. Allen expressed the belief that the case for the project is in good order for the hearing.

Mrs. Lee Tubb Was Pioneer In This Community

Funeral for Mrs. Bettie Beatrice Tubb, 88, longtime resident of Robert Lee was held at 3 p.m. Friday in Robert Lee Methodist Church. Burial was in Robert Lee Cemetery directed by Williams Funeral Home.

Mrs. Tubb died at 12:15 a.m. Thursday in Morris Nursing Home at Roscoe after a long illness. She suffered a broken hip last July in a fall and had been confined to bed since.

Born Feb. 8, 1876, in Leon County, Mrs. Tubb was married to the late John Lee Tubb Jan. 14, 1894 and moved to Coke County in 1903. They lived at Sanco a year before moving to Robert Lee in 1904. Mr. Tubb died in 1956.

She was a longtime member of Robert Lee First Methodist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Arthur M. and Edward (Jake) Tubb, both of Robert Lee; a daughter, Mrs. Mabel Parker of Eldorado; three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

For years Mr. and Mrs. Tubb operated a hotel in Robert Lee, which also served as a friendly meeting place for town and country friends in by-gone years.

Rev. B. B. Edmiaston Dies Following Fire

Heroic efforts of Bronte's volunteer firemen and the staff of Bronte Hospital failed to save the life of a retired Methodist minister who was trapped Tuesday night in his burning home in the southeast part of Bronte.

The Rev. B. B. Edmiaston, longtime Methodist minister, died at 5:15 Wednesday morning. Dr. John R. Harris, who worked with the injured man all night, said cause of Mr. Edmiaston's death was massive inhalation of smoke. He also had first, second and third degree burns on his face and on parts of his body, the doctor said.

Several attempts were made to enter the burning house from the time it was discovered about 9 p.m. until Martin Lee was successful in pulling the fallen man to the front door of the home. From there several firemen carried him to the waiting station wagon of C. B. Barbee. He was rushed to Bronte Hospital where the doctor and a corps of nurses worked all night to save his life.

The fire was discovered by a neighbor, Mrs. Bobby Vaughn, when she heard Mr. Edmiaston's cry for help. She ran to the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Stout who live next door to the Edmiaston residence. The fire alarm was turned in there, and everyone in the vicinity was soon alerted to assist in fighting the fire. Mrs. Vaughn and Roy Wayne Stout were first persons at the scene.

Attempts were made by C. B. Barbee, Stout, R. W. Sims and others to enter the house and rescue Mr. Edmiaston, before Lee was able to get him to the front door.

Young Stout was the only one who apparently suffered any injuries from the inhalation of smoke and from the heat. He went to the hospital about 11 p.m. Tuesday and was reported Wednesday morning to be recovering satisfactorily.

The fire started in the southeast corner room of the house, apparently from an electrical short. Those who checked the ruins say they believe Mr. Edmiaston was in the kitchen at the time, went from there into the room where the fire was, and then headed for his living room where he was overcome by the smoke.

The house was heavily damaged, but firemen put out the blaze once they got their equipment in operation.

The first issue of the Newsletter I mentioned some time ago was mailed to nearly 300 hundred homemakers in the county last week. I am sure I missed a number of persons who would like to be on my mailing list. If anyone did not receive a copy and wants to receive the next one which will be mailed in early December, send me your name and address soon.

I appreciate the many nice comments that I have heard and read on the forms that have been received since the mailing. I hope to make each newsletter worthwhile to a ny homemaker who receives it.

The committees for planning the lunches and concessions for the Stock Show will meet in my office Thursday. Council members who are to assist with the planning are Mesdames B. J. Lockett, J. B. WHAT'S NEW—Jet-age styling has caught up with the household brush. Te newest version as two-tone bristles shaped to a point for nudging into corners with soap or detergent suds. A svelte grip handle holds this brush securely in hand.

To prevent staining a "company" tablecloth, cover it with clear plastic yardage. This adds a lovely sheen and permits using a sudsy sponge to erase spills and spots right on the table! For a season touch, use a solid cloth in the traditional color, arrange appropriate cut-out pictures over the surface and then spread the plastic cover carefully. And remember to launder the cloth itself occasionally.

After leather gloves have been washed, dried, and "worked" on the hands for softening and re-shaping, store them flat and unfolded. To keep them clean, cover with tissue paper rather than a plastic bag. The reasons: leather must be able to "breathe" and tends to discolor if stored in air-tight plastic.

"Fishnets" are fast becoming decorating favorites because these airy fabrics achieve a light, spacious effect on windows and add softness to large wall expanses. Many such nets (made of acrylic, polyester, and nylon fibers) are safely sudsed in washing machines.

Preston Smiths In Brief Visit With Robert Vaughans

Lt. Governor Preston Smith with Mrs. Smith stopped in Robert Lee on his way from Lubbock to Austin the other day for a visit with old friends, the Robert Vaughans.

The Lieutenant Governor, just re-elected for his second term, has his residence in Austin, but still maintains his home at Lubbock and travels back and forth quite a bit.

His job in Texas corresponds with the vice-president's job in the national government, except that perhaps he has a good deal more influence proportionately on the state legislation than the vice-president ordinarily has on national legislation.

Preston Smith is a man to see nowadays in state affairs, and is being talked for governor if and when John Connally steps aside.

COUNTRYSIDE

By STERLING LINDSEY

The screw worm is still making indentations and headlines. The state's number of cases was the yearly high—a total of 30 cases reported. All but two of the cases were from the lower portion of the state, but the fact remains that we still have screwworms. A hard freeze over the entire state would be helpful, but we need to do our part, also. Any suspected case should be submitted for identification.

When is the best time to prune trees? We are asked this question many times during the year, and the question cannot be answered without additional information.

There should be a reason for all pruning, and when one should prune should be determined by the reason for pruning.

If your object is to shape a tree, generally speaking, such wholesale pruning should be done when the tree is dormant. Also, deadwood can be removed from trees without injuring them. Spring pruning, however, is recommended when doing correctional pruning, since the wounds heal faster than at other times of the year.

Pruning trees during the early fall tends to reduce plant hardiness and, in general, is not a good practice.

Evergreens should not be sheared in late summer or fall as the cut ends may not heal over until spring.

Dead branches can be removed now.

Providing adequate winter protection for trees, shrubs and flowers is a problem which all homeowners must face. The amount of protection needed depends on the natural hardiness of plants, severity of climate and exposure, and the condition of the plant at the time.

Winter injury to plants is usually attributable to two factors—severe cold or loss of moisture from shoots and branches. Extreme cold will cause twigs, stems and roots to freeze, prompting cell tissues to break down.

Excessive loss of moisture, which frequently causes winter killing, is due largely to the effect of strong, drying winds during periods of brilliant winter sunshine.

Evaporation of moisture from twigs, branches, canes and leaves (in the case of evergreens) continues at a slow rate through the winter. To supply this moisture, plant roots must continue to absorb water.

When evaporation is rapidly accelerated by prolonged periods of winter wind and sunshine, plant roots are unable to supply moisture fast enough. Branches and canes become withered and, if this condition is sufficiently aggravated, it often results in dying back of a large portion of the plant or in its death.

Therefore, one of the important preparations for winter, say plant authorities, is to see that the soil is adequately supplied with moisture. If rainfall has been slight during the summer, the ground should be soaked thoroughly before freezing weather sets in, if possible.

To protect half-hardy shrubs and newly planted shrubs, some wind protection is advisable.

Lack of moisture in the winter can be just as costly as in the summer. The difference is that we do not see the damage until later.

the Throck 42 yard line. With no gain and an exchange of football by the two clubs, Throckmorton had possession at the 25.

Another attempted pass was picked off by Hatch at the 40 yard line. Off and running, he heads for the corner and goes in standing up, no extra, and now it's 18 to 0.

Kick by Dodson to the 10 is returned to the 28, and with short yardage gained the third quarter ends.

Fourth Quarter

After driving to the 21, the Greyhounds lost possession, and the Steers took over. With short yardage made, Dodson punted to the Greyhound 43. Throckmorton in turn has to punt to the Steer 29, and the Steers move to the 36 before being held. With Dodson back to kick, the Greyhounds poured through and blocked the kick. Jay Gober scooped it up at the 25 and ran untouched for Throckmorton's only touchdown of the night. Try for extras was stopped, and with little time left the Steers now led 18-6.

Throckmorton short kicked to the 50 yard line, Vosburg fell on the ball to give the Steers possession, and they proceeded to run out the clock.

The Steers as a team were tough, with Pitcock and Roach constantly throwing the opposing QB for losses; Sparks, Askins, Dodson plugging the minus yardage holes; Wink and Gartman constantly in on the tackles; Williams and Hatch knocking down and intercepting passes—Walker Thomas, and all the others that played—they just did the job.

Former Nell Cowan,
Pioneer Publisher,
Honored At Norwalk

Formal dedication of the city-landscaped triangle at Funtun and Rosecrans avenues as a memorial to the late Nell Donovan, pioneer publisher of the Norwalk-Call semi-weekly newspaper, will be Thursday at 10:30 a.m., Mayor Demy Apodaca made the announcement at Monday night's City Council meeting.

The date marks the first anniversary of the passing of one of the city's foremost leaders, the mayor said in making the announcement.

Mrs. Donovan and her late husband Donald, were pioneer copublishers of the newspaper when it was printed on a flat bed press a few blocks away from the memorial site. Both were active in civic affairs. Mrs. Donovan carried on the work in leadership of the community civic affairs prior to the incorporation of the city. She was an original member for Incorporation of Norwalk and later served on the Norwalk Historical Committee.

A bronze plaque mounted in concrete, paying tribute to Mrs. Donovan will be unveiled by the councilmen during the dedication ceremonies.

Editor's Note — The above is a clipping sent in to the Observer by Mrs. P. E. Mahon. Mrs. Nell Donovan was formerly Nellie Cowan whose father was George Cowan, owner and publisher of the Robert Lee Observer from 1904 to 1924.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Elliott during Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ramsey and family of Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Delmo Elliott and family of Voca, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goff and family, Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Elliott and family, Katemey, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Squires and family, Hamlin.
