ONLY FEW MORE DAYS TO SIGN CONTRACTS FOR BEET SUGAR FACTORY

The Best Proposition Ever Introduced to This Valley

Must Sign Contracts at Once to Insure This Project

Several times the Herald has undertaken to point out the real merits of sugar beet industry that is now the topic of the day. So often have we discussed this proposition that it really has become natural and is deemed to be the leading article in the paper. There has been enough hard work and time spent trying to promote this one industry to have had sugar factories all over New Mexico. There is no reason why any intelligent person cannot immediately see that it is the best proposition ever offered the people of this valley.

Time after time someone that raised this valuable product has made statements telling of its benefit to the country and how some started without anything and became rich. This year there were fifteen thousand tons of sugar beets shipped from land inside the city limits of Chicago, to a factory in the state of Wisconsin. The growth of sugar beets there began in a small way but as they found they could state' with irrigation. There is no doubt but what a million and one-half dollar sugar factory in this valley would be worth looking at.

A factory in this valley would mean a pay roll of from five hundred to six hundred thousand dollars a year for labor and sugar beets. In the first place it gives every man who does not have a position a chance to do something for himself by working in the factory if he is opposed to growing the beets. The factory alone will employ four hundred sixty men and, it will require from one thousand five hundred to two thousand people for the growing of these beets. These people must be fed, clothed and housed, besides about eight hundred teams must be cared for. Imagine how six hundred thousand dollars would improve this town and surrounding country. This factory would mean an increase in population of from four to five thousand people within one year's time and an increase in farm and city property values of from fifty to one hundred per cent.

Under the present irrigation project we have ten thousand acres of land which has been the salvation of many farmers for the past two years. If we secure the factory we will have thirty-two thousand acres more under private pumping systems which will mean future prosperity to those who enter into one of these agreements. Who is it that does not want prosperity to enter? We know of no one who wants to see a few more years like principles to promote the closing of these contracts for this factory.

When the factory is built there will necessarily be more enterprises follow which will have a tendency to greater increase our population and expend more money. If you believe this is a good proposition and that others will be derived from this, then you have spent sufficient time in idleness and the time has come for you to use a little head work in this affair. Let's get the factory and when the whistle from the factory sounds from on high you can truly say that for once you labored conscientiously for the welfare of the best proposition ever offered the citizens of the Portales Valley.

Teachers Association

The teachers of Roosevelt county, New Mexico, will meet in regular session at LaLande, New Mexico, on the 26th and the 27th of this month. An interesting program has been prepared, and all teachers of the county are urged to be present, to take part in the discussions of the leading questions pertaining to educational progress in eastern New Mexico. Statehood inspires the hope, long delayed, of a school system furnishing a more complete curriculum, requiring special equipment and specially trained teachers and other desirable conditions that have not been obtainable in the rural schools of the past.

The teachers of Curry and other adjacent counties are cordially invited to attend this important meeting, to aid and inspire by their presence and words of counsel, their fellow workers in this great crusade for an educational revival in the sunshine state of New Mexico.

Ask your railroad agent for rates when buying your tickets, as we are asking some reduction from railroad officials. LaLande will be able to furnish ample accommodation for all who may attend the association. The cost to each teacher will be light, as directors are asked to allow pay for the day used in this wise way for the benefit of all pupils.

Respectfully,

S. L. Johnson, President,
Charles E. Toombs, Secretary,
Mrs. S. F. Culberson, Co. Supt.

Watrous Girl Wins Prize

Out of the five thousand one hundred and two essays that were written upon the Educational Value of the Demonstration Train which the Santa Fe railroad company exhibited about two months ago, three hundred and seventy-five essays, representing as many schools, were submitted to the judges. Miss Clarice Brady of Watrous won ninth place in the eighteen prizes that were offered. She is doing first year high school work at Watrous. A. L. Wilson of Cromer, Roosevelt county, is principal of the school.

Mother's Club

The Mother's club will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon at three o'clock. The art exhibit at the Commercial club rooms is attracting a great deal of interest and a great success in every way. The exhibition closes Saturday night and between now and then everyone should make it a point to see the exhibit if possible.

THE WOODMEN LODGES INSTALL OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR OF 1912

A Big Supper Followed the Installation of Officers

Some Addresses Followed in Behalf of the Order

The members, and their families, of the Woodmen of the World and Woodmen circle lodges met at the Woodmen hall Monday night and installed their worthy officers for the year. After the installation had been administered by both orders, the table which so many wanted to see was arranged, reaching from one end of the hall to the other and the many delicious edibles prepared by the good ladies were placed thereon. The guests situated themselves about the table and bowed their heads while Mrs. E. E. Green led in prayer. Never before did the Woodmen have more to eat at any time in the way of chicken in all styles, ham, roast beef, roast pork, salad of all kinds, celery, cake, pie, black coffee, and in fact everything that could be brought to the human mind for such an occasion as this, "and they did eat."

Following this much loved part of the program, a few of the many speakers of the town were called on to briefly state some facts in regard to Woodcraft. In response to this call Mr. A. J. Smith made a short but able address, stating the good of the order as a fraternal organization as one that fed well. Dr. Garmany made some brief statements in regard to the order stating that he was proud of it and was glad to be its camp physician. Mr. Cox made an impromptu address beneficiary to the order, explaining why the members should attend more and since his election as consul commander he would do everything possible to create an interest in the lodge and asks the cooperation of all the members. Messrs. Dobbs, Pearce and Duncan were called on for an address but were only able to say that "they were too full."

Inda Humphrey, an old member of the order and one that is always there (when they eat) made a few remarks in behalf of Woodcraft. Last but not least in this part of the program, "Billy" Green, the new elect banker did plant himself on the platform before the audience and show by his oratorical talent that he was a relative of Demosthenes. He told of his trip as a delegate to the head camp convention which met at Mineral Wells, Texas, last March the 13th, stating some incidents that happened there that were of interest to everyone and especially he felt afterward that he did not belong to the order merely for what good it might be to him but for the good he might be to others.

Mrs. S. F. Culberson made a very able address, as is her custom, in behalf of the Woodmen Circle, showing the good of the order, its growth and some remarks in regard to its future. Mixed and mingled with streams of oratory were some special songs by Messrs. Pruett, Mayo, Howard and Duncan, as a quartette, that brought forth soulful harmonies in that pleasant hour. Mr. Jack Pruett sang a very appreciative solo and Mr. Jean Mayo sang a beautiful hymn entitled, "The girl that wanted to get married," specially for the benefit of the "old maids" that were present and in warning to those that were young and not yet married.

Mesdames W. W. Green, S. F. Culberson, C. S. Hart, B. J. Reagan, Maude Smith and K. W. Jones, who lives at Texico, sang that old familiar hymn, "Near-er My God to Thee," and we must say it was indeed beautiful. The officers installed for the W. O. W. lodge were: Messrs. W. M. Cox, consul commander; J. M. Huffman, advisor lieutenant; G. W. Carr, clerk; "Bill" Green, banker; J. B. Maxwell, escort; Walter Crow, watchman; Jack Norris, sentry; Dr. J. S. Pearce and Dr. J. F. Garmany, physicians; C. P. Mitchell, C. M. Dobbs and Inda Humphrey, managers.

The following were installed as officers of the Woodmen circle: Mesdames B. J. Reagan, guardian; Lee Wolfarth, advisor; Mattie Mitchell, attendant; Maude Smith, clerk; Emma Jones, banker; Annie Boucher, chaplain; Joe Smith, inner sentinel; C. M. Dobbs, outer sentinel; C. S. Hart and Annie Culberson, managers; Mrs. S. F. Culberson, past guardian, installing officer and J. P. Deen, escort attendant.

Is Your Name Written Here?

The secretary of the commercial club reports the following members as being in good standing: W. I. Luikart, T. J. Lomax, J. B. Priddy, C. P. Mitchell, Jeff Hightower, W. E. Lindsey, W. W. Van Winkle, T. J. Molinari, A. D. Wallace, W. S. Berry, R. M. Sanders, C. O. Legch, C. V. Harris, Roy Connally, W. B. Reid, G. M. Williamson, S. A. Morrison, J. P. Deen, Fred Crosby, G. L. Reese, H. B. Ryther, G. V. Johnson, Coe Howard, R. A. Larson, A. F. Jones, J. R. Darnell.

There is really not one good reason why every business man in the city should not find his name in this list. Let's hope that by the time the secretary makes his next report there will not be one name of any business man in the town missing.

DEMONSTRATION TRAIN WILL ARRIVE HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY MORNING

Will be of Great Interest to Everybody in the Valley

Some Prominent Speakers to Accompany This Train

When the big agricultural demonstration train arrives here on January 24th at 8 a. m. the school boys and girls will have an opportunity to enter into a very interesting contest with a substantial reward attached. The New Mexico Bureau of Immigration, Dr. W. E. Garrison, president of the agricultural college and J. D. Tinsley of the Santa Fe railroad have offered three prizes for the best letter of five hundred words or less on the subject "What I learned from the Agricultural Demonstration train." The first prize is ten dollars, the second five and third three dollars. The contest is open to every school boy and girl under 15 years of age and is governed by the following rules:

First: The contest is open to all school children under 15 years who visit the train. No entry will be considered from a contestant over 15 years old.

Second: The letter must not exceed 500 words. It must be written plainly on white paper, using one side of paper only. Contestants name and address must be written plainly at top of letter.

Third: The letters must be addressed to the New Mexico Bureau of immigration, Albuquerque, N. M., and marked on face of envelope "Demonstration train contest".

Fourth: All letters must be submitted on or before February 10th. No letters received after that date will be considered.

Immediately after the close of the contest all letters will be submitted to a committee of three judges to be selected by President Garrison and Mr. Tinsley. The result will be announced and the prizes awarded as soon as the judges have made known their decisions.

A feature of the work of the agricultural demonstration train will be the encouraging of boys' and girls' Industrial Clubs, and it is hoped that all the school children will visit the train while it stops here. The contest is aimed to encourage the school children to get all possible benefit from the train.

Lively interest is being shown in the demonstration train all over the state and the indications are that it will be welcomed by a large crowd at every stopping place. The train starts from the Mesilla Valley Thursday, January 11th, and will be on the road fifteen days. It is in effect an agricultural college on wheels. Remember the date and hour of arrival here and be at the station when the train arrives.

The success of the first week's run by the New Mexico agricultural demonstration train now on tour of all points on the Santa Fe lines in New Mexico has surpassed the expectations of the most enthusiastic of the pro-grow them successfully, every little patch was planted until now about four times as many beets are produced annually. It is but a fact to say that if beets can be grown in the city of Chicago on small truck patches, certainly they can be grown in this valley, under the pumping system of irrigation, where the soil is as fertile and where the proper implements can be used to an advantage. The standard of these Chicago beets was sufficiently high to warrant the grower being paid from $6.50 to $7.02 per ton. The yield of these beets was from eighteen to thirty-three tons per acre, therefore, it can be seen readily that the grower was getting over one hundred fifty dollars for each acre he had in the production of this vegetable. These people were handicapped for the want of help, but the sugar company went to their relief and now they are in such a position as to handle the beet culture as well as other farming industries. If beets can be raised in Kansas and in the incorporate limits of the city of Chicago, surely they can be raised in the fertile valley of the "sunshine the ones which have just passed. This proposition, as offered, presents the very thing our people have been praying for these many years past, a cash crop and the means whereby it can be produced. Many of the industrious farmers have been trying in every way possible for a system of irrigation that was adequate and within their resources. Why then should so many hesitate when there is something to be gained and it is impossible to lose anything, from the fact that it cost nothing to start, such advantage is seldom found. How many companies in the world are going to lend you money at six per cent interest, with a stock in there company balancing interest, to improve your land and thereby place you on easy street? We dare say they are few and far between. This sugar beet proposition is an answer in every respect to the many solemn prayers of the people who have merely existed through these dry seasons. Mr. MounDay and his associates have done everything possible, in accordance with good business

DEMOCRATIC IN POLITICS

Our Evil Genius

The evil genius of the Republican party is actively at work. The Honorable "Bill" Andrews, ex-state chairman in Pennsylvania, thrice delegate from New Mexico, able and fearless defender of the rights of the "peopul," renowned scholar and notoriously clean and progressive politician, desires to be the first United States senator from New Mexico; and, although he has not said so, it is also rumored that he also wishes to be the third member of the national senate from Pennsylvania. Last night, under the title of "Retrospect and Forecast," the Optic republished an editorial from its issue of November 10, 1908. It will be remembered that the editorial in question appeared in this paper just a couple of days after Andrews was re-elected as delegate in congress by a majority of less than four hundred. With respect to Mr. Andrews the policy of the Optic has not changed one iota since the editorial utterance of November 10, 1908. Quite the contrary: we have now more reason for opposing Mr. Andrews than we have ever had. His policies are responsible for defeat of the republican party in the recent state election. By attaching himself to the party in 1904 and fairly clubbing his way to unsavory victory in 1906 and 1908, Andrews has brought complete discredit upon the organization and, in addition, has so blinded the Republican political leaders that they could not see defeat if Bursum were nominated for governor.

For seven years Andrews has been an incubus on the Republican party. And now he wants to go to the United States senate! There is not a single thing that can be said in favor of Mr. Andrews' candidacy. His election to the senate will be a disgrace to New Mexico and the ruination of the Republican party in this state. He has no ability of any kind except the ability to take Andrews at whatever cost. His chief characteristic is a kind of low cunning that has been very helpful to him in political intrigue.

Imagine this individual on the floor of the United States senate, accredited from New Mexico! Every decent citizen in the state will hang his head in abject shame if the coming legislature perpetrates such an atrocity as to elect Andrews.—Las Vegas Optic Republican.

Richeson Sentenced

Probably the murder that has caused more or less friction in some years and one which has practically come to a close is that of Miss Avis Linnell of Hyannis, Mass., by the Rev. Charles V. T. Richeson of Boston. During the entire trial Rev. Richeson denied the crime of which he was charged, and so firm was he in his denial that the parents of the young lady thought him innocent. He was found guilty of murder in the first degree on circumstantial evidence, but the sentence was not passed on him until January the 9th.

On this day he walked in with an expression on his face as if he had lost all hopes and stood at the bar of justice, declared his guilt of the premeditated murder and heard Judge Sanderson pronounce the death sentence in the electric chair during the week of May 19.

Richeson has stated that he should like to be imprisoned for life instead of being electrocuted, not that he may escape death but that he may live to help some one. His counsel will appear for executive clemency and put forth every effort to obtain life imprisonment instead of death as punishment.

Obituary

Nannie E. Reynolds (Deacon), who died at her home near Portales on December 28, 1911, was born in Oakdale, Rockbridge county, Virginia, October 8th 1847. She was the eldest child of Douglas and Myrtha Deacon. She was married to M. C. Reynolds December 24, 1867, and to this union were born thirteen children and by the kind providence of God they were all spared to her except one. She leaves a devoted husband, seven boys and five girls besides the many friends to mourn her loss. She was in poor health for some time but was able only a few months ago to visit her children, her last visit being the one with her son who lives in Portales. While here she realized that the end of her life was near at hand and requested to be taken home. It was there she spent most of the past nine years of her life and the old home no doubt brought her many pleasant memories. Those who have known her best can ever remember her kindness and her pleasant countenance that shined at home day by day as well as at church.

She sought Christ early in life and for many years has been a faithful member of the Methodist church. Her seat is vacant now; the clothes with many other treasures are laid away in memory of mother but she has been clothed with the robe of righteousness, and has gone to be seated with Christ and the dear ones gone before. I would say to the lonely father and children that if they will live worthy and die as happy as mother you may be an unbroken family in heaven for years and years will roll on and death will come to us and will separate all earthly ties. So while we mourn her loss let us be thankful that she was prepared to go and that she was spared to even see her youngest child of age.

So far as I know she raised a family highly honored and respected. She was buried at Duncan, Oklahoma, where she peacefully awaits the resurrection morn.

We loved her, yes we loved her
But Jesus loved her more,
For he sweetly called her home,
To that bright shining shore.
Sad was the hour of parting
From those who loved her dear,
Happy will be the meeting
When we meet her over there.
MATILDA HUNTER.

motors of the idea. The train started Thursday at La Tuna, near the Texas line in the lower Mesilla Valley. Two hundred farmers attended the meeting. There were two hundred and fifty people present at the little station of Berino; more than two thousand at Las Vegas; three hundred at Dona Ana; two hundred at Rincon; close to two thousand at Deming; one hundred and fifty at Hatch; three hundred at San Marcial; three hundred and ten at San Antonio; eight hundred at Socorro; three hundred at Alamillo, with sixty wagons hitched along the right of way; three hundred and thirty-two at Sabinal, a whistling post, where twenty-nine rigs and twenty saddle horses were lined up around the train; more than one thousand at Belem and three hundred at Las Lunas. Probably five thousand people passed through the train at Albuquerque Sunday, while a large crowd attended the meeting and heard the lectures in the Albuquerque Commercial club Saturday night. The first week's attendance of approximately twelve thousand people absolutely guarantees the success of the train and proves the deep interest in it throughout the state.

The school children especially are showing deepest interest in the train and almost without exception they are taking notes preparatory to writing letters to be entered in the letter writing contest for three prizes of ten, five and three dollars for the best letters on the subject: "What I Learned From the Agricultural Demonstration Train." These letters must not exceed five hundred words in length, must be submitted on or before February 10th, to Demonstration Train Contest, Bureau of Immigration, Albuquerque, N. M., and, the contest is open to all school children under fifteen years of age who visit the train. The train will reach Portales for a stop of two hours and fifteen minutes at eight o'clock, January 24th. Be sure and be there when the train arrives. The following make up the train staff:

J. D. Tinsley, agricultural train demonstrator, Santa Fe railroad; Harry J. McCowan, as assistant to Mr. Tinsley; W. E. Garrison, president of the agricultural college; Luther Foster, director, college experiment station; F. L. Dixby, agricultural college irrigation expert; W. T. Conway, superintendent college extension work; W. H. Simson, professor of animal husbandry; Fadian Garcia, horticulturist; E. P. Humbert, professor of agronomy; J. W. Knorr, and J. E. Mabie, assistant farming experts, H. H. Heuing, secretary, New Mexico bureau of immigration.

The entire staff is taking part in the lecture and demonstrating work and no farmer who has his own interest at heart can afford to miss the train. The train is not for farmers alone, however, and everybody is invited to visit it during the stop here. The slogan of the train is: "Better Farming in New Mexico," and in this every citizen in this community has a direct interest.

At last New Mexico has been admitted into the union. No longer do we live under a territorial form of government. Now that is just exactly what the First National Bank has been doing for the past number of years. We have always had this time in view and consequently the increased demands upon our facilities consequent and incident upon the new order of things, finds us fully prepared and willing to enter upon and do our full share toward the advancement and prosperity of the best country the sun ever shone upon.

To the Public

For the past five years we have been in the hotel business in the town of Portales and have done what we thought was honorable in every respect to our customers but have failed to receive the necessary courtesy that should have been extended to us by some of the citizens. We have spent considerable money for improvements in order to make the hotel a desirable and first class place for commercial men as well as regular boarders and by this means we feel that we have done something toward rendering the best service to be found in the Pecos Valley. We positively will not allow any loafers around and furthermore, undesirable characters will not be permitted to enter our doors. We close our doors at 5:30 p. m. and after that hour no one will be allowed to enter unless it be a guest. Kindly remember this, if you have been a "sweater" and hereafter when you want anything you are welcomed in, but not to stay. Very respectfully,

THE PORTALES HOTEL
