

SWEET 'N SOUR

By A. DILL

Sure 'n you know what great holiday next week brings, don't you now? Of course it is St. Patrick's Day, and may the Banshee's haunt your foot steps and the little people make havoc of you if you don't wear the green next Tuesday. It's for your own good we're thinkin' too, for a bit of green on Saint Patrick's Day means you'll not be bothered with snake bite all year. About the kind of snakes that get in boots we'd not be knowing, but about the others we're very positive. If you aren't willing to take our word for it, we know a quite reputable leprachium we can refer you to who will assure you of the truth of it. Despite the legends which invariably spring up about a great person, St. Patrick is very real, and the Irish people to whom he brought the first knowledge of Christianity, (when as a Bishop he entered Erin the year 431), will celebrate his day next week with that special cheer that Irish hearts are capable of.

This week and next is also Girl Scout Birthday Week and you are asked to remember the many worthwhile ways that Girl Scouts serve your community. A parade will be held Thursday at 4 p. m. with the high school band.

Visit one of the many troop meetings held weekly in the Girl Scout Little House and see Scouting in operation, you'll come away with a profound respect for these youngsters of your who are learning to work, with one another and love it.

Nice to see—Mary Mae and Benny Clusky visiting friends and relatives in Baird last week. Also visiting in Baird were the J. F. Boren's of Abilene who were here to see Mrs. Boren's mother, Mrs. Wylie James.

Something nice should be said about the Caldwell's of the Caldwell Furniture Company, so we'll just say it. A few days back when second graders were working on a cowboy unit in school the Caldwell's sent generous scraps of plastic for the children to make miniature saddles and chaps out of. See? We told you they were nice, and it takes nice folks to do nice things.

Congratulations to Ethelyn McGowan's youngest Brownie Troop who had their Investiture ceremonies Tuesday afternoon, and are now full fledged Brownie Scouts and registered as such with the National Girl Scouts. Members of the troop who wear the gold Brownie pin are: Carol Lynn McGowan, Karen Bearden, Patti Sammons, Peggy Payne, Alice Scott, Vicki Finley, Lula Mae Walker, Janece Hatchett, Roberta Lawrence, Paula Corn, Linda Jean Presley, Linda Jean Schaffrina and Lois Weed. Parents and friends attending the meeting were John Shrader, Miss Sibyl Meyers, Mrs. Gene Finley, Mrs. Medford Walker, Mrs. Lowell Corn, Mrs. Wanda Sammons, Mrs. Pleas Scott, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Bill Hatchett, Sr., Bill Hatchett, Jr., Mrs. Jack Simms and Cheryl Sue Simms and Mrs. Carroll McGowan.

Our Callahan County Museum received a valuable donation this week. Jud Gilliland presented the museum with a brass merchandise check from the "Two Brothers Saloon" in Putnam, Texas. Jud's grandfather, Doc Atchison, found the rare old check but it is Jud who makes the donation.

Spot of beauty in town is the W. D. Boydston yard where an unusual tree is in full and gorgeous bloom. The tree is a "Flowering Peach" and one of the few in this part of the country and well worth your while to go by and see.

Had a fine chat with Edmund Webb in town the other day. He and his family have been visiting friends away from here, and also the Olaf South family in Sweetwater. The Souths, of course, have more friends here than you can count, and it's good to hear from them and also the Webbs, who we count it a privilege to know.

Want a show tip this week? Remember "The Champ" with Wally Beery and Jackie Cooper many years ago? "The Clown" is a 1952 version of the story with Red Skelton in the leading role. My money would buy "Road to Ball" for with Hope and Crosby in a flicker you are always sure of high entertainment.

And that closes shop for this week except for a note to Carolyn Nichols. They say that your declamation, which you took from the school column in The Baird Star, takes on exceptional beauty when you say it, and to Mrs. John Bowlus, your coach who suggested this for you, and to Mrs. C. H. Siadous, who helped so wonderfully with your speech training, and especially to you, my dear, who have the magic to make words come trobblingly alive, thank you for choosing the article, here at The Star we count it a compliment that you did.

Rain Is General Over Callahan

Good old soakin' in kind of rain fell over the entire county the first part of the week.

Changing temperatures early Sunday brought light showers that lasted through Tuesday.

Nope, we didn't get the kind of moisture San Angelo and some other points received, but what precipitation we did get every drop of it soaked into the soil.

Baird reports 1.25 for the week; Clyde 1 inch, Putnam 1.10, Cross Plains 1.

Bill Works, Miss Pencle Works and Mrs. Bess Elder made a business trip to Dallas this week. Mrs. Frank Gardner and children spent the week-end in Oklahoma.

Man Gathering Eggs Kicked on Chin

R. C. Speegle, who can drive a tractor within inches of a fence row, or put up six wire fence one mile long in a day, cannot gather eggs without being kicked on the chin.

Last week Mr. Speegle, who is living on the Robert Buchanan farm about two miles southeast of Putnam, decided to stay home from his present job of building fence. While waiting on his wife to prepare the clothes for the weekly wash, he decided to gather the eggs from the nests at the cow lot. He had looked in several nests, then seeing a hide-away place he thought would be a good place for a hen to lay, he bent down to look.

A cow happened to be close by hiding from the hee-fles, and was unnoticed by Mr. Speegle. Frightened by his sudden appearance she jumped and lashed out with her foot just as he stooped to look for the eggs, kicking him on the chin. His son-in-law, Vernon Donaway, drove him to the doctor. Two stitches were taken but he said that no teeth were knocked out.

Charles Jacobs plays the part of Grandma Perry, while Grandpa Perry is played by Ocie McQueen John Appleby, a helpful friend, is played by George Sutphen. Fine Example, If Not Record, Is Set

WILL D. BOYDSTUN

W. D. Boydston, Baird merchant and a pillar in the local Baptist Church, has set a mighty fine example if not a record or two of some kind.

Mr. Boydston, on March 8, marked 41 years and two Sundays of uninterrupted attendance at Sunday School. Whether at home or away visiting he invariably has found his way to the church of his choice and located a class group.

Brother Will is in fine health for a man past 40; and enjoys a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Another record of some sort which Mr. Boydston is hanging up for someone to kick over is—He has missed one (1) day.

In the past 60 years, not getting to his place of business. That one occasion was this winter when the flu bug bit him and Mr. Will "just couldn't get there." A life-long Baptist, Mr. Boydston remarked recently that he was "thinking seriously of joining the Methodist church, but then this last shower came along."

PUBLISHER

Even those who are life-long Democrats? I believe, will agree it desirable to have a two party system in Texas. Too many times we have been neglected at the conference table because of the tradition of always voting Democratic. The Republicans have figured there was no use in giving us consideration and the Democrats have figured they didn't have to. Although voting Republican in the last election Texas is still a Democratic State. The scandals in Washington and the personal popularity of Eisenhower caused the change. It is hoped, however, that the Republican party will so conduct itself in office as to build support among the independents and former Democrats.

It is essential that local Republican party leaders recommend men of stature and who have the respect of their community, to fill the local patronage jobs. It is time to steer away from petty politics and make a contribution to the establishment of a two-party system in Texas which will create a more healthy situation for all of us. Several weeks ago I mentioned some of the bills before the state legislature designed to make travel on the highways more safe. Since then I read about the system used in New Jersey and which we might do well to copy. It is a point system and 12 points result in the suspension of the driver's license. Under the system a driver gets three points for careless driving, four for speeding, six for reckless driving, eight for leaving the scene of an accident, twelve if held responsible for involvement in a fatal accident and twelve for driving (or permitting another to drive) under the influence of alcohol or dope.

Drunk drivers lose their license automatically for two years the first time. A second conviction for drunk driving means a minimum suspension of 10 years.

To fully appreciate the extent of soil erosion in Texas I recommend a plane trip. While flying to the coast this week it was difficult to enjoy the trip and see at the same time the vast amount of soil erosion. It is amazing how clearly the thin places show up from the air. Having been closely associated with soil conservation work for a number of years I know great strides have been made. At the same time I know the surface has only been scratched when compared to the great need. It is a program which must have the support of all the people. The full extent of the need for soil and water conservation probably will not come until the time when this country does not have enough food for all its people; when many go to bed hungry each night, as they do in most of the world. That will be a hard way in which to learn a lesson.

TOO MUCH SLASHING MAY DAMAGE THE TREE

Washington

"As It
Looks

Did you ever take the wrong road out of an unfamiliar town and have to turn back to get on the right highway? If you have had this experience, were you a little bit stubborn about admitting to yourself and to others who might be riding with you that you were wrong and maybe even too stubborn to stop at a filling station to ask proper directions? If this has happened to you it has to me, of course you lost time and effort.

My wife, Ruth, tells me that I depend too much on "dead reckoning" and not enough on highway signs. I usually figure that the man who made the map didn't know as much about the directions as I knew, and that probably the highway signs were incorrect anyway. It has always been a temptation to me to keep driving in the hope that a highway sign will appear showing that I am correct or that I will intersect the proper highway, and as a result, I would have cut through and saved time. My success at this has not been frequent.

What this leads up to is the Constitutional Amendment relative to the making of treaties and executive agreements. There should be no "short cuts" in arriving at treaties and agreements made by the President of the United States which have the effect of becoming the Supreme law of the land.

Legislation has been introduced in the Congress to amend the Constitution to prevent such action by the President which could deprive citizens of this country of their Constitutional rights.

Treaties are more supreme than ordinary laws passed by the Congress, since the laws we pass here in Washington are invalid if they do not conform to the Constitution. Treaties can take powers away from the Congress and give them to the President. Likewise, treaties can take powers away from the States and give them to the Federal Government. In the case of certain actions in branches of the United Nations, treaties or agreements could take power away from this Government and give them to some international body.

It is conceivable that such treaties and agreements made with foreign powers could completely nullify the provisions of State Constitutions, State laws, State Supreme Court decisions, and Federal laws covering the same subjects as the treaties cover.

The Supreme Court has held that treaties and agreements made with foreign powers by the President, even though no approved by Congress, could supersede the Constitution and become the supreme law of the land.

It has been proven over and over again that we cannot live in this world alone. We could not exist and maintain our present standards regardless of war without other nations of the world, but we should be very careful that no treaties or agreements made with foreign countries should ever deprive us of the precious rights guaranteed us under our Constitution.

Therefore, it seems highly important that we take some action to amend our Constitution to provide that in our dealings with other nations, we will not contract away our individual rights. A Constitutional Amendment is now proposed and, if passed by Congress, would be submitted to the State Legislatures. It would be necessary for two-thirds of the States to ratify it to make it effective.

In my opinion, we have allowed some of these people running parts of the United Nations to get us on the wrong road. We have been desperate to achieve peace and prevent war, and I suppose have hesitated for fear of wrecking the United Nations to "about face" and come back to the main track. Unless this is done, I fear the United Nations may go the way of the League of Nations, and other efforts at world cooperation. If anything is any more serious, it is to allow ourselves to become a party to certain Socialistic schemes for which we pay in both money and sacrifice of individual Constitutional rights.

The bill introduced is known as the Bricker Amendment. Hearings on this measure are now in progress in the Senate Judiciary Committee. I expect to support it in some form or other. I am opposed to the movement of World Federation and Atlantic Union. The actions of some of these branches of the United Nations result in some of the same general principles advocated by these two organizations.

Short-cuts can get us in serious trouble. We need to read the signs placed before us a long time ago by our founding fathers. These signs will not prevent progress or world cooperation but they will prevent someone or some group from giving away our heritage which we hold so dear.

Down Memory Lane

MARCH 11, 1910

The weather has been exceedingly warm the past week up to Wednesday night, when a light rain fell and yesterday morning was rather cool.

Patterson, Brindley, Wendell Russell, Harold Austin, M. T. Ramsey, Gloucester King, Joe Fraser and Bob Cox.

T. E. Powell, President of the Board of Trustees, received a warrant yesterday from the Comptroller for the principal accrued interest on the Baird School District Bonds for $20,686.10. There is no reason now why work should not begin at once on the building that has been delayed for years.

County Court is in session this week. Not much doing, most of the cases being continued. One woman was fined for taking a drink of liquor on a train, the first case of the kind in this county.

The First National Bank building in Putnam is progressing nicely and is to be finished by the first of next month.

The T. & P. Railway is building a new set of stock pens west of the roundhouse. Some say these feeding pens will be used to feed out western cattle. Boyles just got in a carload of new buggies with steel roller bearing springs.

The Putnam Land and Development Company is being kept busy answering inquiries, selling lots and writing deeds.

Spring Is Here!

Before we start our news items this week, we would like to call your attention to the fruit trees that are in bloom. We hope that the fruit is not killed by being so early, but doesn't it make you feel full of happiness just to look at the pink and white blooms, and this nice shower we are getting will really make everything grow.

There is a fragrance in the air that can only come in the springtime when the trees are in full bloom. There is a certain something about spring that makes every one want to sing. Some how we forget our sorrows for a time when we behold the handwork of God and there is a well being that comes from within our hearts. So let the happiness loose and spread the joy you feel.

What could be better news than to hear from some one that enjoyed a copy of the Star so much that he immediately sent his subscription to the paper. Since this letter will interest all friends I am glad to share it with you.

It reads in part: "Thank you very much for the February 20th copy of the Baird Star which I have read with genuine interest. The sample was so gratifying that I am enclosing my check to insure receipt of subsequent issues.

"It is always a gratifying occasion when 'my home town' friends call on me in the Capitol City. The evidence of being remembered after a lapse of more than a score of years is as flattering as is the disappointment of having missed seeing some who may not have been here.

"With kindest regards and best wishes, I am

Yours truly,

Royce White, who recently received his discharge from the Army, is now at home and is working for his brother, Alton White, who owns a grocery store here.

Parents Enjoy Visitation Week

Last week was visitation week at the school and if you did not go, you really missed something. Sometimes we do not realize it, but our children want, more perhaps than anything else, for us to visit their room to see the things they have learned to do. It is their desire to show us that they have done their best.

Each room had a variety of free-hand drawings, splatter paintings, themes, and colorful decorations above and on the blackboards. The children in the fifth and sixth grade room had tables displaying their hobbies. Jimmy Putnam showed some red ants that were building a home in some dirt which he had placed in a gallon jar. He has a collection of shells. Beth Isenhower and Doris Clark showed their doll collection.

The Rhythm Band, which consists of the four lower grades in grammar school, performed with a number of songs. These children showed perfect timing and their voices blended beautifully. This, of course, is the result of the teachers untiring patience.

It is a great pleasure to visit the school and to realize that such a wonderful understanding and cooperation exists between the teachers and students.

Trustees Honored With Dinner

Members of the Putnam School Board and Mr. Fred Cook, the president of the County School Board, were served a delicious turkey dinner with dressing and all the trimmings last Wednesday at the school lunchroom. The dinner was cooked and served by Mrs. E. E. Sunderman and Mrs. Lee White. It was a wonderful dinner and it is easy to see why Mr. Perkins is so successful with his lunchroom.

Mrs. Graham had a brother, Tom Mayes, to visit her Sunday morning. They all drove to Roscoe that day to visit another brother and sister. Tom Mayes lives at Arlington.

Robert Clinton Presents Program

The Department of Music at Cisco Junior College presented "Youth and Music" directed by Robert Clinton and featuring the A Cappella Choir, at the school auditorium last Thursday. This is the same program that was presented this week on a concert tour of several North Texas towns.

The special costumes, staging and lighting made this program by far the best that has been presented here.

The Cisco Junior College Choir gave an excellent musical program at the Putnam school auditorium last Thursday night. It was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Bobbie Clinton's many friends are always glad to have him bring his musical talent over, that we may enjoy the wonderful progress of his efficient teaching. Putnam is proud to have had a part in the early training of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clinton. Bobbie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clinton, Sr. Mrs. Clinton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lowery. Both were pupils of Mrs. Earnest Waddell, who teaches music in the school here.

After the program, punch, cookies and sandwiches were served to the choir by the Study Club in the school library.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Putnam High School is giving a box supper March 20 at the school auditorium. The ladies will furnish the boxes if the gents will buy them. Everyone is invited.

Gail Williams gave a party for the high school Monday night. Everyone had a wonderful time. Refreshments of cokes, cheese sandwiches, cake and cookies were served.

First and Second Grade News

By GAYLE BURNAM

We were very glad to see our mothers last week. We had 26 guests to register in our guest book.

In first grade science we are studying machines, hand machines, electric machines and machines with springs.

We have small snails added to our aquarium.

Mary Joe Brazil visited with her uncle and aunt at Ranger over the week-end.

Gayle had a guest for the week-end, her cousin, Dianne Everett.

Joe Roy Bentley visited over the week-end at Houston. He showed his class-mates the route he took and told about the things he observed along the way. While at Houston he went down to the docks and saw how ships were loaded. (Editor's note: It is remarkable for children of this age to be able to give a detailed description of a trip taken. Some children only want a funny book to read or perhaps to sleep. Children much older than he, fail to be as observant.)

Ricky Isenhower went hunting with his father last week. They caught a fox but failed to catch the bob-cat that has been killing their chickens.

We were proud of our student director for Rhythm Band, James Isenhower. If all the children watch him we do not make many mistakes.

Linda's friend, Billie Moore, came to visit her last week and time rolled around for Billie to go home much too soon. They had a wonderful time playing dolls. Billy Wagley visited with Linda last Saturday. They tried to catch some red ants for a science study at school.

CHURCH NEWS

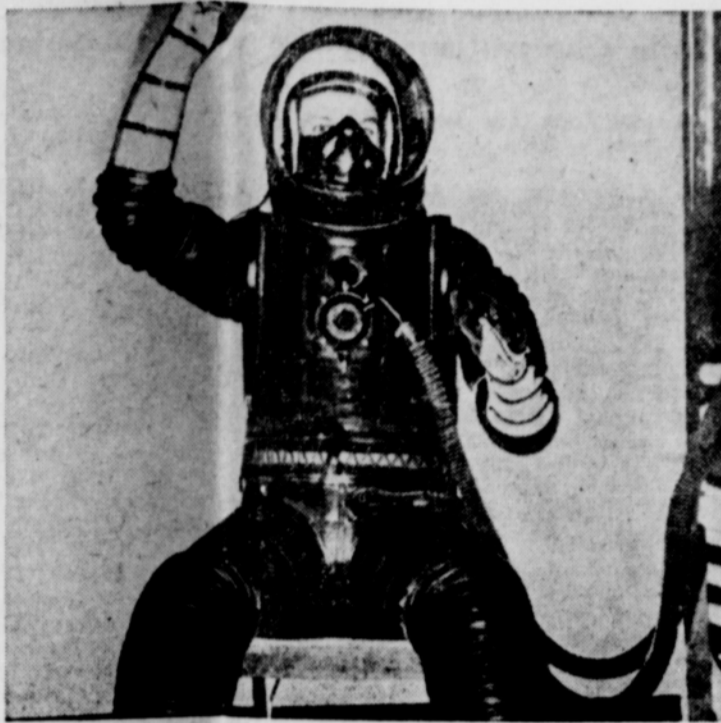

Brother Lee Hollis may be the new preacher for the Baptist church. He plans to come to the Wednesday evening service this week.

Rev. W. L. Milner, pastor of the Methodist church, preached at Wesley Methodist church Sunday evening in Cisco.

The Church of Christ had a visiting preacher Sunday, Bro. Jack Davis. Bro. Justice preached at Baird Sunday and is preaching there next Sunday also, but will be back with us after that.

Mike Pruet of Cross Plains was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellison Pruet, last week. He enjoyed his visit to the school and thinks it is the grandest place he has been. He is of pre-school age but has already learned the first rule in any game and that is "to play fair."

VEDA YARBROUGH

Well, another week has passed. My how time does fly, especially when you get older, although I am not old—just getting old.

Spring will soon be here according to the old saying, when you see blue birds and red birds spring is here. Well, I saw both of them this morning and they were singing a spring song or at least that is what I thought they were singing.

Mrs. Pearl Peterson from Spokane, Washington, visited in the Jim Yarbrough home Wednesday and Wednesday night. Mrs. Peterson's husband, Major Peterson, has gone over seas for a year. He is a regular Army man, having been in the Army some 20 years. Mrs. Peterson is the former Pearl Park. She will leave Monday for a visit in Dallas with her sister, Mrs. Cliff Walker, then go to Eldorado, Arkansas, to visit her mother, Mrs. Anne Park, and another sister, Mrs. Ruben Brooks, and family. While here, she visited almost all her friends and relatives. We are always glad to have Pearl visit us as we call this her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Alvie were over in Cisco Saturday afternoon shopping.

Little Dianne Everett, of Cisco, spent the week-end with her grandma and grandpa Burnam. Little Alice could not come because she has the chicken pox. Wonder why they call it chicken pox? Alice hurry and get well so you can come to grandma's, too.

Mrs. Willie McCollum and Veda Yarbrough visited Mrs. Dell Jones Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Jones is recovering from the flu. Mrs. Jones sister, Mrs. Dove Gunn, of Spur, is visiting her. They plan on going to Eldorado to see their sister, Mrs. Anne Park, who will celebrate her 90th birthday the 27th of March.

Mrs. Arno Roggenstein is visiting her mother in Snyder this week.

The youngest son of Mrs. Lee Hock was able to be brought home from the Callahan County Hospital where he has been a patient for two weeks with pneumonia. Sonny we are glad you are back home and will soon be able to return to school.

Dick Yarbrough sold a calf Thursday at the auction sale in Abilene. Dick says the price is quite lower than a year ago but guessed he would just have to be satisfied with the price and just hoped they don't keep going down.

The new highway is really looking good. There is caliche on half of it. Surveying is being done now for the rest of the right of way to the Moran highway. Many hope it is completed by the first of next year.

Miss Betty Mobley and Mabel Carrico visited with Veda Yarbrough Friday morning. They also visited with Ollie Burnam. Mabel says she doesn't know what she will do for a new Easter frock as most of their cow feed came in gunny sacks and she doesn't think she would like one made of them because she wants flowers on her dress.

Well, folks, if your old hens are not laying like you think they should just try building them a new nest. I built mine a new long row of nests last week, and believe it or not, next day I got 10 more eggs than I had been getting. Guess some of them did not like the old nests.

A Yarbrough has four calves in the feed lot, and they are really getting fat. I think he plans on taking them to Abilene this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burnam and daughters, Retha and Gayle, spent the day Sunday with Mrs. Mary Ramsey of Putnam. They also visited in the Mabry Tatum home Sunday night.

Jim and Veda visited in the Clyde Coats home Friday evening. Mrs. Coats is recovering from the flu.

Kim Burnam spent Friday afternoon with his grandmother and played with his cousin Dianne Everett.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burnam attended the funeral of Perry Triplett in Cisco Thursday afternoon. We were sorry to hear of Mr. Triplett's death.

Mrs. Jesse Youngblood of Cisco visited Friday afternoon and night in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Glen Burnam and family.

We had a slow rain Sunday night. The gauge showed about one inch and it is still raining slow. We hope it continues to rain and fill the tanks.

The last report I had from the hired hand on the poor farm everything was going along as usual—so see you next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan and their daughter visited the Odoms Sunday.

Monday was the opening of National Smile Week. How many of you started it with a bright smile? Did you smile all the week, or only a day or two? The National Smile Week Committee call the people who smile a lot, Joy Scouts. The qualifications for a Joy Scout is to smile, and Monday was really the appropriate day to start the National Smile Week. The people did not seem the same as they gathered Monday and talked of the rain and mist that was falling, and the prospects of more to come. Instead of the gloom of the past several days, there was a touch of joy and goodwill in the air. As the old cowman told the group of artists, the most beautiful scene for a painting was Sunshine on Mud. There is no place where this could be more appropriate than West Texas. From the check on the rainfall each month is better. January had a total of .05, February .69 and the rain for March is already here. We hope it is a sign of more rain to come.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pruet were business visitors in Baird Monday.

FARM BUREAU RESOLUTIONS

If all organized "pressure" groups were as wise and reasonable as the American Farm Bureau Federation, the United States would have much more balanced and effective economic legislation and policies.

Many pressure groups have followed the policy of "get ours" regardless of what happens to the general economy. But a study of resolutions adopted at the Farm Bureau convention in Seattle this month shows that this large farm group has developed a program in which all segments of the economy are given a balanced place.

The Farm Bureau fights for many things of particular advantage to farmers; but it does not, for example, demand economy in government except where agriculture is concerned. One resolution states that "No participation in efforts to ment of our economy, including agriculture, (should) be spared achieve a balanced (federal) budget."

The AFBF support a continuation of price support program that will protect the farmer against radical fluctuations in prices. But the resolutions add: "It is not, however, the responsibility of the government to guarantee profitable prices to any economic group."

And the resolutions state: "In order to encourage high production per man in agriculture, the emphasis in farm programs should continue to be on adequate prices in the market place rather than on income subsidies."

The AFBF, in our estimation, does not demand anything from the government that is not both advantageous to agriculture and the national economy as a whole.

The Parent-Teacher Association met on Tuesday, March 3, instead of their regular meeting on the first Wednesday in order that Mrs. Lynn Ault, our county nurse, could explain the purpose and result of the TB patch test which was given to the school children on Monday, March 9.

Mr. Walter Francisco returned last Saturday from a weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Reed Francisco of Grand Prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Isenhower and daughter, Elaine, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Veda Yarbrough last week.

Mrs. Earlene Clark and daughter, Doris, and the Isenhower children went to the show Monday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Everett drove to Fort Hood Sunday to visit with their son Pfc. Billy Jim Everett who was recently sent there.

Frank Mendez has returned home and has received his discharge after being over seas stationed in Germany. His plans for the future are not yet known.

Mrs. Ruby Pruet recently returned from a four day visit with her brother, Mr. Carl Gunn, who was seriously ill in the Amarillo hospital. She made the trip with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Pruet and son, Mike, of Cross Plains. It is believed that Mr. Gunn will soon return to his home at Tulia.

His condition is still serious, but he seems to be stronger than he did a week ago. The Pruets visited with relatives and friends in Amarillo and on the way home, Mrs. Ruby Pruet saw her sister, Mrs. Alex Kittrell, Mrs. Gladys Edwards, and Mrs. Guy Steen, who were also visiting Mr. Gunn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Pruet and son, Mike, visited with a buddy of Army days who lives in Amarillo just a few blocks from the hospital in which Mr. Gunn was a patient. They had the opportunity to climb the cliffs in the canyon. The Pruets returned home by way of Spur in order to see the Rev and Mrs. Hick Burnam. The Burnams are well and send hellos to their friends and relatives.

Capt. Hugh C. Cehryver, Jr., U. S. M. C., and T/Sgt. Charles L. Sands, U. S. M. C., were visitors in Baird on Tuesday, calling on The Baird Star office and at the high school.

Mrs. Slim Ballenger, underwent major surgery at the Baird hospital one day last week and is reported to be feeling fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woody have been in Abilene with their daughter, Nina Lois, who underwent surgery last Friday at an Abilene hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burton and girls visited over the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Moore and Pat and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bailey and Wanda, of Loraine.

Everyone with whom we come in contact today is displaying a big smile due to the fine rain we are receiving. We are hoping for more.

The Cottonwood P.-T. A. met Friday in regular session. Plans are for a musical program to be presented at the school auditorium on the night of March 20. Anyone desiring to take a part in this program is invited to do so. Food will be on sale in the lunch room at all times during the program and proceeds will go into the P.-T. A. funds. Any donations of cake, pie, donuts, etc. will be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Ault, our school nurse, visited school on March 9 and gave TB patch tests. Our school was 100 per cent in taking these patch tests.

The Knowledge Club of the Cottonwood School entertained the school and P.-T. A. with a program during Public School Week. A work table was on display. Also a story contest. Jeanie Albrecht won first place on her story, Barbara Archer second, and Frances Burton, third.

Oplin Observations

By Mrs. Daphne Floyd
Odds and Ends Opportunity Offered in Open Order

Last week being Public School Week, a group of ladies from the community paid their tribute by going back to school for a day and visiting school at Nolice last Tuesday, March 3. The school had planned a nice program and extended an invitation to the public to visit on this day. The ladies attending were: Mmes. Emma Poindexter, Alice Hopkins, Louise Nobles, Winnie Jordan, Sam Windham, Clyde Floyd, F. F. Beaver, Maxine Poindexter, Olf Clare and Selmon Carrell.

The Oplin gin set an all time high record in its ginning season when it ginned a bale of cotton last Wednesday, March 4. Some of the old timers allowed as this was the latest the gin had operated. It was of interest to know that 163 bales of cotton were ginned at Oplin the past ginning season. We might add, though, that the 163 bales ginned included cotton from the surrounding communities in Callahan County, Oplin having the only gin in Callahan county. The gin is owned and operated by the Johnson Brothers, Frank, Maurice and Tommie.

Birthday greetings go out to little Johnnie Windham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Windham, who celebrated his first birthday Thursday, March 12.

At his own request, we are sending belated "birthday greetings" to Zack McIntyre, who celebrated a birthday last Thursday, March 5. Quote Zack: "I don't care who knows I am 39???" ha! (That one is good for a laugh, isn't it, folks?)

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller and daughters, Sherry and Caroline, of Stamford visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller, last Sunday.

Mrs. Hicks Bryson, a former resident of Oplin, is reported to be back in the Hendrick's Hospital. Mrs. Bryson has recently undergone two major operations and it is now feared one will be necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Mart Pentecost of New Mexico were visitors in Oplin last Saturday. Mrs. Pentecost is the former Myrtle Allen, daughter of the late Bub Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kirkendoll were on the sick list last week. Mr. Kirkendoll also suffered a slight knee injury when a tractor tongue fell and hit his knee, causing a bad bruise.

Kathleen Beaver attended a F. H. A. meeting at Stephenville last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyd Floyd recently had their grandson, Donald Wayne, Gilbert and Freddy, visiting them. Sybil, the boys mother, also accompanied them. The grandparents were sorry to hear that Gilbert had taken a severe cold since his return home. Due to Gilbert's throat injury several years back, a cold always adds to his difficulty in breathing.

Baptist Church Notes

We are happy indeed to have our pastor back home again after being away in revival at Pleasant Grove.

A study course will be held beginning Monday night, 7:30. March 16. It is a study on "Soul Winning." Teachers: Beginners, Primaries, Bible stories, Mrs. H. B. Terry; Juniors, H. B. Terry; Intermediates, Mrs. Riley Fugitt; Young People, David Whitaker; Adults, Bro. Fugitt. Come, bring your family.

Curtis Chatham, who recently surrendered to preach, will bring the message Sunday night, 7:30. The Friendship Sunday School class of First Baptist Church, met in the home of Miss Jennie Harris, Thursday night, February 27, with Mrs. Dee Young, co-hostess. It was a business meeting followed by social hour. The following officers were elected to replace vacancies left as the class was divided February 15: Mrs. Elva Smith, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. B. Atchison, stewardship, vice president; Mrs. C. J. Redwine, fellowship vice president; Mrs. Bonnie Thompson, Mrs. J. W. Burks, group captains; Mrs. G. H. Tankersley, assistant secretary-treasurer. A social hour followed. Punch and cake were served to the following members: Mrs. Myrtle Berry, Miss Jeffie Lambert, Mrs. J. W. Burks, Mrs. C. J. Redwine, Mrs. L. Meredith, Mrs. B. H. Freeland, Mrs. Dee Young, Mrs. G. H. Tankersley, and Miss Lorena Gunn. The next meeting will be in the Educational Building, Mrs. C. J. Redwine and Mrs. B. H. Freeland, hostesses. Our hearts were made happy Sunday as we heard two wonderful messages from two young men who are both giving their all to the Lord. Our associate pastor, Bro. David Whitaker, brought the message Sunday morning. His subject, "Christianity," was inspiring and Bro. H. B. Terry brought a message on "Son." Sunday night, let's all pray for our young ministers.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rockey were business visitors in Dallas Tuesday and Wednesday.

Allan Johnson, manager of West Texas Utilities Company, Baird office, attended the Spring Frigidaire Appliance Show in Fort Worth Monday of last week.

Grain seems to have come alive over night and it is really beginning to grow. As bad as they need the grazing that might come forth, most farmers will take their cows off the grain to give it a chance to grow and make something.

Questions and Answers

Q—To train under the Korean GI Bill, I understand that I need at least 90 days military service, unless I was discharged sooner for a disability. Must all the 90 days have occurred after the Korean fighting began?

A—Not necessarily. You could qualify provided any part of the required 90 days of your military service took place after June 27, 1950, the date of the outbreak of hostilities in Korea.

Q—I'm taking institutional on-farm training under the World War II GI Bill. What happens if my annual income report isn't submitted to VA by the March 1 deadline?

A—If you don't send in your annual report on time, your IQ subsistence allowance may be cut off as of March 31.

Q—I'm a World War veteran, and my U. S. Government Life Insurance permanent policy has just lapsed, through oversight on my part. When I reinstate, must I pay interest on the premiums in arrears?

A—You won't be required to pay interest if you reinstate within three months from the due date of the premium in default. If you wait longer than that, 4 per cent interest compounded annually must be paid on the premiums in arrears.

Q—What is the deadline for getting a GI loan?

A—For World War II veterans, the deadline is July 25, 1957. For veterans eligible under the Korean GI Bill, the deadline is 10 years after the end of the current emergency period—a date not yet set.

West Texas C. of C. Sums Wes-Tex Growth

Growth of population and impressive advances of industry in Texas, particularly in West Texas, are reflected in reports summarizing the increases in sales of electricity by 12 major private utility companies, and of natural gas by the private companies that serve the 132 counties served by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, according to a report published in its magazine, West Texas Today.

A recent report made for the 12 major electric utility companies shows they sold nearly 13 billion kilowatt hours in the year ending last July 31, as compared with 5.5 billion in 1946.

By the end of 1953, the same 12 firms will have augmented their generating capacity by another 650,000 kilowatts.

Natural gas distributing companies that operate in West Texas sold 147 billion cubic feet of gas in 1951, as compared with 122 billion cubic feet in 1949, according to annual reports of the Gas Utilities Division of the Texas Railroad Commission.

The number of domestic consumers served by these gas companies increased from 516,470 in 1948 to 602,508 in 1951.

Electric company payrolls increased from $11,087,650 in 1933 to $43,911,469 in the year ended last July 31.

An interesting fact developed in the report on business of the electric utilities companies is that the price per kilowatt hour declined from 18.8 mills in 1945 to 17.4 mills in the year 1951.

In the same period, taxes increased from $8,422,500 to $62,128,458, running $18,000,000 a year higher than the payroll total. Gross revenues rose from $62,500,000 in 1938 to $233,367,971 this year.

As of last July 31, the dozen firms served 1,706,594 customers. These included 1,255,220 residences in cities and towns, 202,025 rural customers and 249,349 commercial consumers. They served a total of 760,500 customers in 1938.

The private utilities sell electricity to 75 rural co-operatives. The REA systems used 3.3 per cent of the companies' total output.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pitzer visited their son and family in Greenville, Texas, who is Chief inspector for Temco Air Craft Corporation. Also visited in Dallas and Mrs. Pitzer's brother in Fort Worth and sister in Mineral Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Caldwell visited with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas of Albany over the week-end.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

FORT WORTH.—The Soil Conservation Service has announced results of its new four-state survey of soil moisture and plant cover conditions, reporting that half of Texas and more of Oklahoma on March 1, 1953, remained in the grip of the South-west's most damaging drought.

However, Regional Louis P. Merrill of SCS reported that in approximately 140 counties of eastern and central Texas and in some areas of southeastern and north central Oklahoma moisture and other conditions have improved and, in his opinion, these areas are no longer on the critical list.

Rains in parts of North Texas and Western Oklahoma since March 1 will revive wheat and other winter crops, but much more moisture will be needed for spring planting and to restore stock water supplies, Merrill said.

Good rains in recent weeks have relieved dry weather conditions in Arkansas and Louisiana. Most areas in these two states now have adequate soil moisture and plant cover is in good condition and improving, the regional SCS head reported.

In September, following a similar survey, Merrill reported that from the standpoint of area involved, duration, effect on land cover, persistent high temperatures and in the scantiness of effective rainfall the Texas drought was the worst on record.

"Our new check-up shows that for the most part there has been no relief in the stricken areas," Merrill said. "Fall rains in this north central Texas area have removed it from the drought category, and the section immediately north of Haskell, one of the reference points in our drought study, is improving. However, the Texas Panhandle area now must be added to the area involved. The Amarillo section has had 20 months of poor moisture conditions."

Merrill said the study by his office showed the dry weather duration at eight Texas reference points as follows: Big Spring, 30 months; Del Rio, 38; Falfurrias, 40; Fort Stockton, 28; Lubbock, 34½; Haskell and San Angelo, 29; and Amarillo, 20 months.

The average duration of the drought at these points is 31 months. The 1933-36 drought in Texas lasted 24.4 months and the one in 1916-8 ran 24 months.

The sketchy information gathered by historians on the 1885-87 drought indicates that dry period though intense and costly, lasted only 23 months. The current drought did not hit Oklahoma until June of last year.

In 83 counties of the wheat-growing areas of Texas and Oklahoma the winter cover crop is in poor or only fair condition. In Cimarron County of the Oklahoma Panhandle, for example, wheat on 50,000 acres of the 100,000 acres planted to this crop last fall did not come up. These 50,000 acres have been chisled to prevent soil blowing. The wheat on 30,000 acres is thin and spotty. On the remaining 20,000 acres it is only fair.

The wheat cover in Hansford, Ochiltree and Lipscomb counties in the topmost tier of the Texas Panhandle is small and thin and beginning to turn yellow for want of moisture. Only a timely rain can save the crop in those counties, field reports to Merrill said. Other Texas counties reporting wheat cover in poor condition included: Donley, Tom Green, Sterling, Glasscock, Hutchinson, Callahan, Runnels, Concho, Menard, Moore, Deaf Smith, Oldham, Carson, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Borden, Scurry, Schleicher and Kendall.

Reports to Merrill said that other Oklahoma counties where the wheat cover is in poor condition included: Beaver, Glasscock, Harper, Ellis, Woodward, Major, Woods, Oklahoma, Caddo, Seminole, Garvin, Greer, Pushmataha, Washita, Muskogee, Beckham, Kiowa, Kingfisher, Okfuskee, Love, Hughes, Pottawatomie, McClain and Tillman.

Cattle are wintering in many parts of Texas and Oklahoma in fair to weak conditions, Merrill reported. Where they are in fair condition in the drought areas, he added, it has been only because of heavy feeding, an added expense that has severely pinched many stockmen financially, and because of mild weather.

Livestock herds in the dry areas of Oklahoma and Texas have been further reduced as the drought has cut deeper into ranges and pastures, reports to Merrill showed. In Maverick County of Southwest Texas, where cultivated land is under irrigation, the cattle wintered in fair condition but this was because only 25 per cent of the normal animal population remained and they have been on feed for some time. Seventy-five per cent of the normal cattle population had been sold off or shipped to other areas for pasture. In Irion and Reagan counties of Texas 90 per cent of the cattle and 80 per cent of the sheep herds had been sold or shipped out. Stockmen in Howard, Martin, Borden and Scurry counties had sold or shipped 80 per cent of their cattle.

Eighty per cent of the normal cattle population of Pottawatomie County in Oklahoma and two-thirds of the cattle of Greer County have been sold or shipped away, Merrill said his field reports showed. Oklahoma counties in which cattle herds have been reduced by 25 per cent or more because of the drought include: Nowata, Seminole, Greer, Grant, Tillman, Pushmataha, Washita, Muskogee, Arburckle, Kiowa, Kingfisher and Sequoyah.

Water supplies for livestock in areas having well are adequate and in no immediate danger, Merrill said, but in some areas where stockmen depend on surface supplies, the source has dried up and water is being brought in.

One of the present threats is the lack of enough moisture to plant spring crops, including corn and cotton, the field reports to Merrill showed. Field men of SCS report that more than 50 counties in Texas and over 25 counties in Oklahoma do not have enough moisture for spring planting. (Texas counties: Donley, Tom Green, Wilbarger, Taylor, Sterling, Glasscock, Uvalde, Swisher, Moore, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Oldham, Motley, Carson, Terry, Concho, Cochran, Irion, Reagan, Lamb, Howard, Dawson, Midland, Crane, Ector, Jones, Martin, Lynn, Borden, Scurry, Schleicher, Clay, Shackelford, Collingsworth, Hall, Young, Starr, Mitchell, Garza, Gaines, Winkler, Ward, Hockley, Wheeler, Hale, Val Verde, Foard, La Salle, Balor, Throckmorton, Sutton and Edwards.)

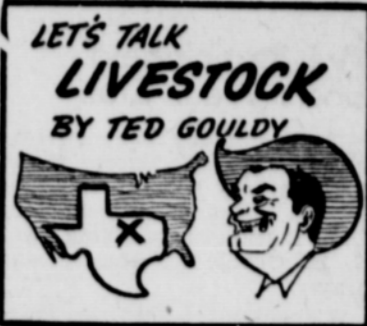

(Oklahoma counties: Cimarron, Texas, Beaver, Harper, Ellis, Woodward, Major, Woods, Comanche, Seminole, Garvin, Greer, Washita, Beckham, Kiowa, Kingfisher, Love, Hughes, Cherokee, Canadian, Logan, Jefferson, Cleveland, Alfalfa, Roger, Mills, Creek and Dewey.)

The drought has seriously affected application of soil conservation practices, Merrill stated. In many instances farmers have not been able to begin certain conservation practices, such as the planting of cover crops, because the land has been too dry.

"In some soil conservation districts of the drought area," Merrill said, "reports from our technicians show that the application of conservation work has been curtailed as much as 80 per cent."

The drought, however, has increased farmer interest in conservation work, the field men agree. Practices that were established before the drought or during more favorable periods in the drought have paid good dividends. Farmers have indicated a growing interest in using their land within its capabilities and giving it needed conservation treatment, Merrill said. They are making an earnest effort to keep cover, either living or dead, on their land throughout the year.

Damage from the rainless summer in Arkansas and Louisiana is still in evidence although the dry spell has been definitely broken. Because the soil was dry, farmers in both states were unable to plant fall pasture and feed crops. Grasslands as a result suffered from over-use and farmers were compelled to feed more heavily for a long period. Careful management of pastures is needed for the grasses to be restored, Merrill emphasized.

FORT WORTH.—The sheep trade and the sheep country shared the limelight at Fort Worth Monday. Milk fat lambs were strong to 50 cents higher and topped at $23, a new high for this year's crop of genuine spring lambs. Top for old crop woolled fat lambs was provided by the FFA and 4-H Club youths of Cottle and King counties, who brought their lambs to Fort Worth and sold them at $22. This was the first experiment in feeding lambs for these youngsters.

The sheep country, major portions of it, got the best rains in a long, long time, and jubilant sheepmen in those areas had hopes for green feed in the near future. Grain farmers in the area would make grain, and the possibility of some early grass and weeds that would make fat spring lambs was enhanced. Numerous points reported three to five inches and more, enough to soak the ground and put out stockwater.

Salesmen on the Fort Worth market expressed the view that a very good market for fat new crop lambs in the last two weeks of March for the Easter trade loomed. Greek Easter dates coincide with Easter this year. Last year some 40 to 50 pound lambs topped at $40 here for the Greek trade. While that figure is not in the cards this year, Fort Worth salesmen would not be surprised to see some prices well in excess of current lamb prices.

Cattle news was depressing again. Numerous shipments of X-Disease cattle appeared and it was reported that the cattle poisoning might be much more widespread than originally feared. Heavy runs of cattle appeared all over the country again Monday and prices were uneven and tending lower. Hogs were largely steady at Fort Worth and topped here at $21.50 and $21.75. Sows $16.50 to $19.

Good and choice milk lambs $22 to $23; good and choice woolled lambs $21 to $22. Stocker and feeder lambs $16 to $20. Yearlings and two's $17.50 down; aged wethers $8 to $12; old ewes $7 to $10. Old bucks $7 to $8.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings $18 to $22, the Cottle-King county calves at $22, one at $24. Common, plain and medium butcher steers and year-

New Ford Trucks On Display Today at Rockey Motor Co.

Ford Division will introduce the broadest line of trucks in the company's 50 year history when its 1953, all-new trucks go on display in Ford dealerships throughout the United States today, March 13.

Covering the widest range of ratings and designed for the greatest economy and driver comfort ever known in a commercial vehicle, the 1953 Ford trucks will be offered in four distinct lines, in 20 new series and in more than 190 models.

All of the new trucks will feature new, one piece curved wind-shields—largest in their field—with swept-back pillar posts and 55 per cent greater visibility. And the new F-100 Series of light duty trucks will be equipped for the first time with Fordomatic fully-automatic transmissions or automatic overdrive as optional equipment.

"Our 1953 truck line represents an investment of more than $50,000,000 in research, development, engineering, testing and dies and tools as well as more than four years of hard work," L. D. Crusoe, vice president of Ford Motor Company and general manager of Ford Division, said.

"Every truck in the 1953 line has been completely redesigned with a revolutionary new approach to truck engineering—the driver himself. In our new trucks every component effecting driver fatigue has been designed and engineered not only to do its job better and to last longer, but also to ease the burden on the driver—to make his job simpler and less tiring and to permit him to get his job done faster and with corresponding savings in operating costs.

"We have placed all the ex-

Available with fully automatic Fordomatic transmission for the first time, this new 1953 Ford F-100 Series of pick-up and panel delivery trucks meets nearly 50 percent of all hauling needs. It also is available with four other transmissions including automatic overdrive. The F-100 features an entirely new "driverized" cab termed "the roomiest, most comfortable truck cab on the road"; a new one-piece, curved windshield and a 4-foot wide rear window.

perience and know-how gained by Ford as the builder of more than 17,000,000 commercial vehicles for the American road into these trucks. Before introducing them to the public we have tested them over more than 300,000 miles of highways in all parts of the country from Arizona's desert roads to the Allegheny mountains. And we believe these new trucks will revolutionize the industry."

The 1953 Ford trucks range from 4,000 pounds to 27,000 pounds GVW and up to 55,000 pounds GCW ratings in the new F-900 series, the largest truck ever built by Ford and a 1953 addition to the Ford truck line.

Outstanding features of all the 1953 Ford trucks, according to L. W. Smead, general sales manager of Ford Division, are the completely new "driverized" cabs and the elimination of double-clutching through use of new synchro-silent transmissions on all models. Also shorter wheelbases, wider front treads and repositioning of springs make all 1953 Ford trucks easier to handle and to steer, more maneuverable and with shorter turning radius.

Other important features, Mr. Smead said, are 4-foot wide rear windows; new wider seats with five feet of hip room comfortably seating three men; exclusive Ford counter-shock seat snubbers which absorb road shocks for a softer, smoother ride; greater ease of servicing all models and Ford's exclusive offering of either three V-8 or two 6-cylinder modern, high compression engines noted for their economical operation. Engines range from 101 h. p. to 155 h. p.

The four basic lines of 1953 Ford trucks are:

Conventional F-Series: F-100 pick-up, panel, stake and other models, available with a choice of five transmissions including Fordomatic and automatic overdrive for the first time; F-200 and F-350 light duty; F-500 and F-600 heavy duty; and F-700, F-800 and F-900, extra heavy duty "Big Jobs" offering truckers a greatly increased choice of trucks in this line.

Cab-forward C-Series: C-500, C-600, and two new extra heavy duty series—the C-750 and C-800. This is a new "close coupled" design with the engine moved forward 12 inches providing a full width cab seat and eliminating the engine tunnel. This new series provides maximum engine accessibility for service and can haul 35-foot trailers legally in every state.

Parcel Delivery P-Series for multi-stop delivery: P-350, and an all-new P-500, A P-600 is available on special order.

School Bus B-Series: B-500, B-600, B-700 and B-750, with wheelbases up to 233 inches, GVW up to 20,000 pounds and 60 passenger capacity. The largest school bus in the 1952 Ford line carried up to 54 passengers.

There also is a Courier sedan delivery available.

"This greatly expanded range of models permits the 1953 Ford truck line to provide the right truck to handle practically every hauling job," Mr. Smead said. "In the new truck line we have the most advanced chassis in the truck industry. We have new, stronger frames with deeper channels which are parallel up to the extreme front end thus and improving service accessibility more room for engines. This change also permits greater turning angle of front wheels.

"Although the basic CA (Cab-axle) dimension remains unchanged, the wheelbase has been reduced by four inches on all conventional models through the F-600 Series, by moving the front axle four inches of the rear. To handle the increased loading of front axles, all front axles have been correspondingly increased in load-carrying capacity while at the same time front springs have been made longer, increased in load-carrying capacity and designed to give a better and smoother ride. On the extra-heavy models the front axle has been moved three inches to the rear with a corresponding decrease in wheelbase on these models."

Again in 1953 Ford offers a choice of five truck engines, both V-8 and 6-cylinder, in which many improvements have been incorporated. Engine mounts, both front and rear, have been relocated to provide easier servicing of clutch and flywheel without interference. Only a single mount is used at the front while the rear mounts have been moved from the transmission housing to the clutch and flywheel housing to facilitate clutch and transmission removal without disturbing the engine.

Other noteworthy features of the new Ford truck line include: All three-speed transmissions have remote control gear shift mechanism, including the three-speed heavy duty.

The gas tank now is located under the floor pan with the filler neck projecting from the left quarter panel of the cab. And the battery, too, has been shifted to a location under the floor pan for cooler operation and longer life.

Hypoid gear rear axles are standard on Series F-100 through Series F-750. Two-speed banjo type rear axles, available on Series F-750 through F-900 at extra cost are equipped with electric shift. Banjo-type single speed rear axles for easier servicing are being used on the F-100, F-500, F-600, F-800 and F-900 Series.

All rear brakes on the heavy duty and extra heavy duty models are the new hydraulic, double cylinder type. A 16x16 inch brake is standard equipment on the F-900 models. A diaphragm type vacuum booster is standard on Series F-600 through F-900. The F-700 model, which uses the Big-Six engine with an 11-inch heavy duty clutch, has fixed double-anchor front brakes, double-cylinder rear brakes with vacuum booster.
