PAUL ZIMMERMAN SAYS—

Hello, Neighbor

We have Fairs on the North of us and Fairs on the South of us . . . and our own Castro County Fair to think of! Monroe May is on the job hustling for a Bigger County Fair . . . and he says it is no more his Fair than anyone else's. Exhibits are being planned for the fair by young and old, man and woman. Although the time is short, there is yet much to be done. However, the 1941 Castro County Fair for many reasons stands the best chance to attract larger crowds than it has for several years.

A new feature of the Fair will be the poultry division. Poultry is the coming thing for this section, where feed is abundant. A steady income from produce is one of the best types of incomes there is. And the men working with the farm program from Washington down to the county agent and the farmer himself will tell you, Neighbor, the best way to make feed bring the best income is to feed it to the chickens and live stock. That method will pay more dividends per pound of feed than the market will offer.

That brings us to the subject of grinding ones' own feed for the purpose of feeding. We have a new industry in our midst—that of the grinding and mixing mill operated by Manager C. O. Byrnes at the Castro County Grain Co. Custom grinding and mixing and expert advice on proportions and vitamin content of feeds. We have promised ourselves to tell the public about this new industry in our midst, but as yet have not inspected the plant in detail so that the story can be told. While we are getting up the data, inspect the plant for yourself, Neighbor, and see what you think about it. We are expecting Mr. Byrnes to instruct his right-hand man, Leroy Waters, to have an exhibit on the pros and cons of feeding one's own feed at the County Fair.

Yes, those exhibits should be planned by every grain company and business house in town—large or small. The farmers will have their exhibits and they will enjoy looking at the Commercial exhibits.

We are not going to overlook the part the women will play in the Castro County Fair. They are busy at work and not saying much, and you may be sure the club women will be well represented at the fair. In Dimmitt the garden club women are planning a flower show—indeed an excellent idea, for flower exhibits may be made in many and varied arrangements. We saw a flower shop at one time displayed at a county affair, and it was the center of attraction.

The entertainment committee of the affair are at work, too, and no one need fear that there will not be entertainment of a nature worthy of coming to town to see. Next week by paper time the final arrangements for the County Fair will have been about complete, and everything will be in readiness for actual showing on Sept. 20. In the meantime, let's talk "Fair" as every place possible, and all

Nell Reynolds Wins National Honor with Her Essay on Americanism

Miss Nell Reynolds received a telegram Friday of last week announcing that she had won the Eliza London Shepard Memorial Scholarship in competition of high school graduates over the United States who are daughters of Legion Auxiliary members. Her essay on "What is 100% Americanism?" was published in The News last June when at that time it had just been announced the state winner in the contest.

The contest, sponsored by the Past Presidents' Parley of the Legion Auxiliary, carried a state award of $10, and the Eliza London Shepard Memorial Scholarship given as the nation-wide award carried a $250 cash award to be applied on advanced schooling.

After the essay won state, it was sent to Alabama, where it was selected to represent the Southern Division, and then was sent to Versailles, Kentucky, to the National Committee.

Eliza London Shepard was a sister of Jack London, and was a former president of the American Legion Auxiliary of California. She died about two years ago at the Valley of the Moon Ranch, which is Jack London's home.

Miss Reynolds, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Reynolds of Dimmitt, will leave Saturday for Abilene, where she will enter McMurry College.

Mrs. Cowser to Teach Typing

Mrs. Ray Cowser reported to The News that she will teach stenographic course this fall, beginning Monday, Sept. 15. The course will consist of typing, shorthand and general office training. A complete course of stenographic training will be offered, which can be finished in 4 to 6 months.

Mrs. Cowser has a certificate of proficiency that enables her to teach the course. She has taught it in the past to a number of Dimmitt girls.

"We feel it will be an opportunity for anyone interested in this type of study to take advantage of this offer," Mrs. Cowser stated, "since there is such a demand at the present time for this type of work."

"If you are interested," Mrs. Cowser advised, "contact me at my home before Sept. 15. Price will be reasonable and may be paid for monthly if desired."

STORES CLOSE AT 7:00 O'CLOCK

By mutual agreement, the Dimmitt stores have agreed to close business operations at 7:00 p. m. each evening through the week, excepting Saturday, effective since the first of this week.

The purpose as set out in the agreement reached by the local merchants was to give employees more time for recreation and leisure.

Does Honor to Dimmitt

We proudly publish for the second time the above picture of Miss Nell Reynolds, who has won nation-wide honor for herself, the Dimmitt Chapter of the Legion Auxiliary, the City of Dimmitt and in fact Castro County and the Panhandle. A telegram Friday announced her essay, "What is 100% Americanism?" won in Nation-wide competition of 1941 high school graduates. Miss Reynolds has received requests from newspapers and magazines of national coverage for her pictures and facts about herself and her home town—The City of Dimmitt. Her reward—$250.00!

RAIN AND HAIL PEPPER CITY

Rain and hail peppered down in Dimmitt Wednesday evening for the duration of about an hour. It is believed that the strip of territory affected by the hail was not extensive. Hail stone as large as a quarter were in evidence, and there was a high wind accompanying the rain and hail for the period of time.

Football Team To Be Backed By Dimmitt

As evidenced by the page ad in this issue of The News, Dimmitt business men are going to rally to the support of the Dimmitt Bobcats—even if it so happens that most of this year's games are away from home. "Many's the men" who need to take a little time out, anyway.

Although not all the local business concerns are listed on the football page—there is not one business house in town to the knowledge of The News that does not support the team.

A placard will be printed from the ad for hanging in stores—proceeds from same going to Dimmitt High School Athletic fund.

Deadline Monday For Defense Shop

Monday, September 8 is the deadline for the proposed Defense Work Shop program which will train county youths and men not regular school students. A committee of local citizens working together with the school board are endeavoring this week to put the program over.

Any person in the county wishing technical and mechanical training can take the course, and the equipment is available for use by high school students. A county-wide effort is being made to put the project over.

Rep. Gene Worley 'Staying In There'

Gene Worley, U. S. Congressman from this district, wrote some time back that he expected to arrive in this section soon to get first-hand information from the public on national and sectional questions.

But Representative Worley is diligently building up a unique record—that of appearing at all roll calls. For that reason he reports he may not be able to be back in this territory for some time.

First Poultry Show In History of County Fair To Be Held Sept. 20th

Cans Scattered, Drive Over?

Guess the aluminum drive is over . . . as old-timers here say that the wire cage placed in the street was the first thing ever placed in the center of the street that stayed any time without being knocked over by motorists.

Last night the aluminum cans were scattered to the four directions . . . the aluminum campaign is over but the spirit of patriotism is mounting.

FOUR ATTEND DAIRY SHOW

Four Castro County dairymen attended the annual dairy tour of the Swisher County dairy demonstrations. The four county men—Frank Huseman, Harry Klemm, B. J. Brannon, and Harold Brannon—are all members of the Swisher County testing association. They were accompanied by County Agent M. U. May on visits to seven of the best dairy herds in Swisher County, where excellent Jersey cattle were seen and their production records explained. The tour was concluded at the home of I. C. Sprague, where barbecue was served to all guests from the seven different counties.

Speakers for the night program stressed the need for increased dairy products and that the United States will be called on to supply dairy stock to Holland, Island of Jersey, Island of Guernsey, Norway and Denmark after the war is over, as many of their cattle have been slaughtered. County Agent M. U. May was the local speaker on the program.

FIRST POULTRY SHOW

Plans have been completed to hold the first Castro County Poultry Show as a part of the County Fair on September 20th. Cecil DeHart has been appointed superintendent of the poultry division and is anxious that everyone owning good poultry exhibit at the Fair. Judging will be on a basis of production in order that encouragement will be offered to the farmers of Castro County to produce better production poultry.

A complete classification for the show will be completed this week and will be limited to the standard breeds of poultry. The breeds that will probably be in the classification are: White Leghorns, Rhode Island Reds, Barred Plymouth Rocks, White Wyandotts, Buff Orpingtons, Jersey White Giants, White Plymouth Rocks, and other breeds of secondary nature.

The Classification will be for pens of 3 with one cockerel and single classes for the different breeds. Much more interest is being taken in poultry this year, due to better prices and the Fair should offer an opportunity for all the people of Castro County to see different breeds of poultry grown in the county.

SHORTHORN EXHIBITS

The milking shorthorn department of Castro County Fair bids to be one of the best county exhibits shown on the Plains this year. Castro County is one of the leading counties in the state in number of registered milking shorthorns, and a representative sample of these will be on display.

Breeders who have already signified their intention of show in the milking shorthorn department are Bill Hochstein, who will exhibit 5 head that he will later show at the Amarillo Fair, E. O. Dixon, who will exhibit 3 or 4 head of Shorthorns, and John Lilly of several head. Morgan Dennis has not been contacted by the Fair committee as yet, M. U. May, county agent, reports, but is expected to show a part of his fine herd. Mr. Dennis owns one of the best Shorthorn bulls in the state, with outstanding production in his pedigree.

The County Fair will offer a fine exhibit of milking shorthorns and will give the Castro County folks a chance to see a part of their cattle that will be carried on to larger shows.

HEREFORDS & JERSEYS

Hereford and Jersey cattle will not be forgotten at this year's County Fair from the indication of farmers who have shown interest about bringing in animals Sept. 20th. The Fair this year hopes to be able to be strong in these departments and will offer an opportunity for the folks to see what Castro County really has in the way of fine Herefords and Jerseys. An attempt is being made to have shown some of the better Hereford and Jersey sires at the Fair in order that better sires might be encouraged.

AVIATORS READY

Reports from Harvey Youta indicate that the aviators at the R. R. Millsap Airport, Dallas, are all anxious to fly to the Panhandle to do stunt flying for the County Fair September 20. "All the aviators in Dallas are anxious to see the Panhandle country with its many small lakes," Harvey reported this week.

In the air show will probably be 10 expert fliers and their planes—all with "a bag full of trick" to perform.

Hickman Laundry Announces Change

Glenn Hickman is announcing that beginning Monday, Sept. 8, the Hickman Helpy-Selfy Laundry will do strictly helpy-selfy work—and no wet wash, rough dry or finish work.

"For personal reasons," Mr. Hickman stated, "we will be unable to continue the wet wash, rough dry and finish service, but we will continue the helpy-selfy wash house with attention placed on this type of wash. And we do really want our customers to know that we have appreciated past patronage in these departments. You may be sure," he stated, "your helpy-selfy wash business will be solicited."

BAPTISTS TO HEREFORD

The annual session of the Baptist Terra Blanca Association will be held at Hereford Sept. 10-11, according to Rev. A. F. Russell, local pastor. Rev. Russell and Mrs. W. E. Kirkpatrick will appear on the program. All Baptists are urged to attend any or all of these sessions.

Another Baylor University student will be Dorothy Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Graham.

Mary Jane Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kirkpatrick, will attend Baylor University, Waco.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You No. 30 of a Series

A BAD ONE DOES TURN UP ONCE IN A WHILE!

Good weather and a bumper crop! Ever then one finds a poor stalk once in a while.

The retailing of beer is something like that. Most beer retailers operate respectable law-abiding establishments. Occasionally one finds an exception—a man who tries to beat the law or who permits anti-social conditions.

The beer industry wants this type of undesirable retailer stamped out. Your cooperation will help us in our clean-up efforts.

The beer industry brings important benefits to the community. Here in Texas, beer provides employment for 31,165 persons, supports an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and contributed $2,273,938.64 last year in state taxes.

Texas, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for materials, equipment, and services—from over 100 other industries.

You can help us protect these benefits in two ways. First—patronize only the reputable places where beer is sold. Second—report to the proper authorities any law violation you may observe.

BEER... a beverage of moderation
