Rangers, Cameron Tilt Due To Be Thriller

The Ranger College Bulldogs will be out to get their men Saturday night as the bad men from the Indian Territory invade the sacred grounds of the Rangers.

If home fields and local fans will make coaches Puryear and Habb's charges try any harder, fans are due to see some rugged football come Saturday night in Bulldog Stadium.

The Rangers threw up a rugged defense against the Paris Dragons last week, allowing them only 33 yards rushing in the entire game, and even fewer yards than that, passing. And at the same time the Ranger offense could move the ball fairly freely in both the air and on the ground, collecting 220 yards passing and 122 on the ground.

Kenneth Hart, the talented Rangers quarterback, was picked as the Dallas Morning News' back of the week in Junior Colleges, while end Jim Hamilton was on the honorable mention list.

The visiting Cameron Aggies had a close game with Dodge City College last week, winning by a score of 14 to 7, but the game was reported to be even closer than the score indicated. Both of Cameron's scores resulted from Dodge City fumbles near their own goal line.

Game time will be at 8 p.m. in Bulldog Stadium. Tickets are on sale at the College office, and Jordan's Steak House, El Rancho Cafe, Arterburn's Hardware, Swaney's Pharmacy, Lilley Retail Drug, Lions Club and Rotary Club. Prices will be $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Moss Control To Be Studied At County Meet

Edwin H. Cooper, specialist in wildlife conservation of the A&M College extension Service, will discuss moss control and management of tanks and ponds for better home fishing at two different meetings scheduled for Eastland County Sept. 28, according to Agent J. M. Cooper.

The afternoon meeting is for 2:30 at the clubhouse at Nimrod and is being sponsored by the Nimrod Neighbors Progressive Club with Herman Schaefer as program chairman. The meeting is open not only to the farmers and ranchers in that part of the county but to the general public interested in better fishing for their home tanks.

Incidentally the annual barbecue of the Nimrod Club will begin at 6 p.m. on that date according to those in charge of the affair.

The Upper Leon Game Preserve Association will sponsor the second meeting at 7:30 p.m. at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce according to Harold Courtney, Eastland, president of the group. Roy Brickman, also of Eastland, is program chairman for the night meeting open also not only to the members of the newly organized game preserve association but also to the general public.

The A & M specialists will discuss weed and moss control in detail at the meeting as well as stocking rates of fish, fertilization and other management practices.

Illegal Kills Keep W. Texas Wardens Busy

AUSTIN — Law enforcement duties in the West Texas area have picked up considerably since the first of September, according to the director of law enforcement of the Texas Game and Fish Commission. Within a week's time, 42 cases were made against hunters in the West Texas area, who killed curlew, plover, and quail out of season. The shooting of curlew and plover is a Federal offense as well as a State offense.

Although there seems to be a plentiful supply of doves throughout the State, shooting in some areas has been somewhat erratic. Weather changes started the bird movement and wardens of some counties report slow hunting. Water hole shooting has been slowed in many areas because of rains. On the other hand, a bountiful grain crop has provided so much food in other areas that doves are not inclined to leave.

The director warned against hunters killing more than their limit of 10 doves, and against violation of shooting hours.

College Ups 1959 Enrollment By 61 Students

Ranger College completed their 1959 registration Tuesday with 105 full time students enrolling.

There were 116 full time day students registered, and 59 full time night students enrolled.

This shows an increase of 61 full time students over the fall semester of 1958. There was an increase of 45 students in the day time school, and 16 in the night time school.

In 1958 there was a total of 1203 semester hours taken at the college, this year there is a total of 2325 semester hours being taken.

Registration for the Ranger College Breckenridge Branch has not been completed to date, but there is expected to be a good enrollment from that area.

Dr. Theodore Nickisick, president of Ranger College said "the college is well pleased with the enrollment."

By Nellie Sue Vinson

Hello!

All is calm around Ranger High School this week, but I am sure that things will become livelier before our game with the Diamond Hill Eagles Friday night. I would like to ask everyone to yell at the pep rally Friday morning. Very little spirit was shown last Friday. Come on now. Let's hear you yell.

Pictures for the annual were taken Tuesday. Although the girls enjoyed dressing up, the boys were reluctant. They acted as if they were quite miserable in their white shirts and ties, but they looked very nice. Take it from us girls.

Last week class officers were elected. The classes elect those students who they think will serve the classes best. Senior class officers are: Tommy Ford, president; Walter Blackwell, vice president; Nellie Sue Vinson, secretary; Linda Brennan, treasurer; G. A. Rapp, reporter; and Barbara Crabst student council representative.

Junior class officers are: Richard Robie, president; Dean Richey, vice president; and Tommy Robinson, student council representative. There will have to be a run off to determine the other officers.

I am sure that all the class officers will do a fine job.

Watch out Saturday evening if you see any strange creatures roaming around town. The Sub-Dubs will be having their initiation.

Good luck Bulldogs. Try your best, and I know we can win. Everyone who can, come to the game.

Next week I will tell you all about the Bulldogs, their positions and classifications. That's all for this week.

See you next time.

Eastland County Due 2 Projects

Eastland County has gained sites for two new projects.

Texzona Petroleum, Inc., of Ranger No. 2 M. L. Woods is a planned 3,500-foot rotary wildcat 4 1/2 miles northeast of Ranger.

Drillhole is 150 feet from the north and 940 feet from the west lines of W. F. Davis Survey.

Location is 450 feet northeast of No. 1 Woods, a Ranger Sand producer. No. 2 Woods is to test the Caddo.

B. W. Drilling Co., Inc., of Cisco No. 2 J. L. Lanter was asked in the regular field five miles southeast of Eastland.

Having a proposed depth of 1,800 feet with cubic tools, it spots 200 feet from the south and 520 feet from the east Post of Section 11, Block 2, H&C Survey.

Schedule For Teen Town Announced

Teen Town will be open Thursday night after the pep rally for both high school and junior high students.

Friday night it will be open for those high school students who are unable to go to the football game. Saturday night it will open at the regular hours for both high school and junior high students.

Bulldogs Show Improvement For Friday's Game

The Ranger Bulldogs will try Friday night to collect their first victory in the '59 campaign when they go to Fort Worth to tackle the undefeated Diamond Hill Eagles.

With the improvement shown in the Bulldogs in their last game against Mineral Wells, there is an indication of a possible win for the Bulldogs. They got a taste of scoring against the Mountaineers last Friday night, and turned in a respectable score against the big boys from Mineral Wells. If we can see as much improvement in the defense this week as there was in the offense last week, the Bulldogs will have begun to look like a football team.

The offensive figures for the Bulldogs for the two previous games looks like this: Bill Stuart, seven carries for 23 yards, 3.2 average per carry; Jerry Anderson, 20 carries for 8 yards, 4 yards per carry; Bert Young, two carries for 2 yards, 1.0 yards per carry; and Richard Robie, 27 carries for 106 yards, 3.9 yards per carry. For a total of 56 rushing plays for 189 yards gained.

In the passing department Jerry Anderson has completed 15 passes out of 43 attempts, with five interceptions. A total of 292 yards have been gained in the 43 attempts. Or 15 completions for an average of 19.5 yards per completion.

Defensively the records from the Mineral Wells game show Richard

Ranger Selected For Storm Warning Equipment Site

The United States Weather Bureau, with headquarters located at Amon Carter Field in Fort Worth, has installed a Pressure Indicator Control Unit in Ranger.

The purpose of this unit is to keep the U. S. Weather Bureau posted on foul weather conditions in this and all areas out of their radar scope radius. The units will be installed in areas throughout this part of the state, giving the Bureau complete coverage of all areas.

The unit works on the basis of recording a drastic change in barometric pressure. If there is a sudden drop in barometric pressure the unit gives off a signal, at which time the Ranger police department will call the Weather Bureau and notify them of the signal. With these signals coming in from all over the country, the Weather Bureau will be able to localize any tornado or storm area. A signal from the unit doesn't mean that there is a tornado or storm brewing, but that the weather conditions are of the type where tornadoes and severe storms breed.

The unit installed in Ranger will be the only one installed in Eastland County. There has been similar units installed in Mineral Wells and Breckenridge in this area. Others will be installed in other towns in order to complete the network of units for the complete coverage of this area.

Cut Feed Costs With Winter Pasture Practice

COLLEGE STATION — Abundant green grazing during the winter months can reduce feed costs, but small grains are not always the answer. Farmers should try to determine the returns from winter pastures before deciding how much acreage they will plant. Often pastures of oats or small grain mixtures may be leased to livestock producers. Whether or not profits are to be made can be determined by comparing the cost of establishing the grain pasture with the value of the product derived from it. C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist gives some tips on making the decision. First, determine the usual grazing period expected. If pastures can be leased for a monthly grazing charge per head, then a careful estimate of carrying capacity will indicate your possible returns.

Proper grazing management is essential for obtaining maximum growth. Plan to stock the pasture so that good vitality is maintained. In some Central Texas counties last year, farmers contracted to furnish grazing for about 15 cents per pound of grain made by the steers. Usual gains averaged about 1 1/2 pounds daily around Marlin. Where three acres would run one steer, and the oats were "grazed out" from December 1 to June 1, returns of $14 per acre were received. Bates says that if a farmer uses his own steers on his oats pasture, rather than lease out the grazing, the grain would return about $22 per acre if valued at 24 cents per pound. Another way to estimate the value of oats pasture is to figure the value of air dry forage produced. In the Central Blacklands, research indicates that about 1 1/2 tons per acre may be obtained from oats on upland. Bottomland yields are about one-third higher. The steers normally utilize about 65 per cent of the forage produced which means a loss of around one-half ton from trampling and waste. With one ton being effectively used, the value of hay saved by grazing can be determined. Succulent oats are high in protein so the forage compares well with alfalfa. The usual winter-time price of alfalfa runs about $35 per ton depending on locality. An example of figuring costs and returns is set up as follows. Expected costs for establishing each acre of a three acre oat pasture: tractor use (breaking land, fertilizing and drilling) 2 1/2 hours at $1.50 per hour—$3.75; fertilizer—160 pounds of 10-20-10—$2.20; seed—2 1/2 bushels at $4.90—$12.25; giving a total cost of $13.20 per acre. The three acres will produce an estimated 270 pounds of beef over the six months period from Dec. 1 to June 1. Figured at 24 cents per pound the 270 pounds of gain will have a total value of $64.80. On an acre basis, this gain will be worth $21.60. Subtracting the cost of $13.20 per acre leaves a balance of $8.40, which is the net labor return per acre for the pasture program. The same procedure can be used by dairymen to figure profit from grain pasture. Often, the operator can determine the value of the pasture either in additional milk produced or in tonnage of hay or silage saved. Usually most dairymen buy one of these items or know the local value of these feeds in terms of his cost at the barn.

Your county agent can give you further information on adapted varieties and seeding rates of small grains for your area and also help in figuring your potential returns from grain pasture.

Look Who's New

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Babb announce the arrival of a baby boy, Steven Kelly, who was born Monday, Sept. 14, at 1 p.m. in Odessa. He weighed nine pounds. Babb is a football coach at Ranger College.

Mornings start better with a tall glass of Florida orange juice. Its wonderful sunshine flavor is a good eye opener, tart and refreshing. Orange juice is the best and most reliable natural source of daily-needed vitamin C.

The flavor is frozen right in concentrated orange juice, as are the healthful nutrients. Simply add water to reconstitute. Shake well in a covered container, or pour juice from glass to glass to aerate, making it sparkling and bubbly.

If you store frozen orange juice concentrate in the ice cube compartment of your refrigerator in a temperature range of 10 to 25°F, it is best to use the juice within a week. In the freezer compartment, at temperatures of 0 to 15°F, the juice may be kept up to 3 months with no loss of quality. Longer storage periods are possible in a home freezer maintaining a temperature of 0°F, or below. Once thawed, orange juice should be used immediately. Here's a nutritious breakfast-in-a-glass suggestion:

Florida Nog 1 egg
1 cup Florida orange juice 1 tablespoon sugar

Combine all ingredients; beat with a rotary beater until blended. Pour into a 12-ounce glass. Serve immediately. Yield: 1 serving.

When You Buy Real Estate—
... you not only buy the land and all that's attached to it above and below, but some kind of a title, good or bad. The abstract is a written history of the title and is the evidence of your security or insecurity. Since security is the basis and measure of all values, the abstract becomes the most important factor in every real estate transaction. That may be the reason why most careful buyers require an abstract.

Never leave food in an aluminum pan any longer than necessary. Wash with mild soap and water or a mild detergent soon after using them. Leaving food in them causes the formation of pits or holes, thus making them harder to clean. Use steel wool to scour or a mild abrasive such as whiting. Rinse well with hot water and dry carefully. Never use soda, lye, strong soaps or other strong alkalis in aluminum pans. If an aluminum pan becomes slightly discolored, boil it in something that is acid, such as vinegar and water or cream of tartar.
ENAMEL WARE... Treat as you would for glass. Usually this can be cleaned simply by washing with mild soap and water. Soak in water before cleaning if something has been burned in it. Do not scrape it.
STAINLESS STEEL... is very easily cleaned. Take off food that sticks with a gritless cleaning powder such as whiting or extremely fine steel wool. Otherwise keep it clean with the usual washing with hot suds of mild soap, rinsing and careful drying.
IRON... is an old stand-by. Scour iron with steel wool and use a strong alkaline soap to remove grease. If food sticks on iron, soak the utensil in a hot water soda solution using 3 Tablespoons of soda to one quart of water. Bring this to a boil. Scrub with a stiff brush and scouring powder. Wash with hot water, rinse and dry. Always keep iron thoroughly dry. Just a little moisture will cause it to rust. If it does rust, remove the rust with scouring powder and steel wool.

COPPER... Both copper and brass are hard metals and can be treated much alike. Use polishes on them which are more abrasive than the polishes for softer metals.
SILVER... Remove any tarnish immediately. The best way to keep silver free from tarnish is to use it. Wash regularly in a mild soap suds, rinse well and dry thoroughly. You should avoid soaking hollow handled silver pieces in hot water. The cement holding the handles may loosen. There are a number of methods and preparations which may be used satisfactorily for polishing silver.
