Our Destiny Isn't Dream—It's Work

Probably the greatest danger facing the American people today is not so much the danger that they will fail to do something right.

In some ways we are a peculiar people. We have our emotional ups and downs, and they often carry us a long way; but underneath everything we still have that old-fashioned trust in our own star—the feeling that somehow, sometime, we shall come out all right because it is so written in the skies. And while that is a good feeling to have, it could lead to disaster.

Arthur T. Vanderbilt, president of the American Bar Association, touched on this point the other day in an address before Yale Law School alumni at New Haven.

"The most deadly problem facing America is not fascism nor collectivism," he said. "It is the widespread feeling that we have a destiny and that we shall reach it without individual thought, individual initiative or active public service."

Belief in one's destiny is a fine thing to have—but not if that belief gets set up as an idol, to be worshipped on holy days and fast days with fine talk and fancy phrases, but never to be served by actual deed.

And there is a real danger that we may begin giving our belief that kind of service. As a matter of fact, there are plenty of signs that we have already begun to do so.

We are, for instance, fond of saying that we are the richest country in the world and that therefore widespread poverty and unemployment should not long endure in our land. That is a perfectly sound and sensible statement; but when we simply let it rest there, and blissfully sit on our hands waiting for poverty and unemployment to end themselves, we are giving way to a foolish and dangerous trust in our own destiny.

What we need to understand is that no people's destiny is really written in the minds and hearts of men, instead, and is hammered out by toil, self-sacrifice, courage and the kind of practical, shirt-sleeves faith that moves mountains.

It was our destiny, perhaps, to win our freedom from England, to expand and conquer a continent, to establish a working democracy and to provide the common man with a practical vision of freedom. Yet those things were not done by a people who sat back and beamed fondly on the mysterious workings of fate; they were done by people who got down into the thick of things and worked their heads off.

So perhaps we would be better off if we stopped talking about our destiny. Our destiny is what we make it—no more and no less.

The Boys on the Other Side of the Tracks

Cooperative Home Project To Start In Ranger July 18

The National Youth Administration's part-time project on resident training for girls of Eastland county, will get underway in Ranger Monday, July 18, it was announced Saturday by Mayor Hall Walker of Ranger, after a conference with H. A. Ziegler, assistant district supervisor for the NYA. The project was approved Saturday by J. C. Kellam, state director.

Quarters for the resident training project will be in one of the old Mid-Kansas houses in Ranger, which has been secured by the sponsors, City of Ranger, assisted by Eastland county.

The setup is being made for 40 girls per month, with the possibility that accommodations for more girls may be provided later. White girls between the ages of 18 and 24 from WPA families, farm security families, old age assistance families or from families of low income will be eligible.

The girls will work a total of 47 hours per month on projects outside the cooperative home and will earn enough to pay their room and board and medical attention, and have about $8 per month left over for their personal use.

One group of 20 girls will be at the project for 15 calendar days, after which they will return to their homes and another group of 20 girls will replace them, the two groups rotating for a period of six months.

The girls will work in the City-County hospital, the nursery school and in public offices, with instruction being provided by the home supervisor, Mrs. Hattie H. Bragg, in homemaking. They will work four hours outside the project and two hours in the home. It is possible that a full-time teacher may be secured through the department of education to conduct regular classes at the home.

A recreational project is also to be worked out, with a girls' softball team being organized, which will go to Mineral Wells to play the NYA project girls in that city.

Already 35 applications have been approved and medical examinations given for girls who want to take up work under the project, and the Ranger cooperative home is expected to be the second largest in the state. It will also be the second in the district of 21 counties, Ziegler stated. The average home in the state cares for 20 girls.

Girls from all over Eastland county, both from rural, city and small town homes will be eligible for employment under the project, and a number have been approved from over the entire county.

Applications may be filed with Mrs. Long at the Ranger relief office.

A Visitor Here

John Wood, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, and now a member of the State Highway Commission, who was a visitor here Saturday.

John Wood Visits Here Saturday

John Wood, senior member of the Texas Highway Commission, and candidate for railroad commissioner, spent Saturday afternoon here, concluding a week of campaigning spent in the Panhandle and West Texas.

"Campaigning in West Texas has been a revelation and a delight," said Mr. Wood, "for these people out here talk straight from the shoulder just like they do in Shelby county, where I came from. I am glad to say that enough of them promised me active support to make me confident of being in the second primary and ultimate winner."

"I am running for railroad commissioner strictly on my record as a highway commissioner, and that record is well known over Texas. I have never let political considerations dictate a single vote of mine and when on the railroad commission I will fight to keep that body free of the blight of petty politics."

Mr. Wood left late Saturday afternoon for Mineral Wells, where he was invited to be guest of a group of citizens at a supper in his honor.

It's the little humble things that make a house a HOME

THOSE careless marks of his baby fingers . . . could any one buy them from you now? The knee-high smudges on the door! The pencil scratches on the wall that showed his growth from two to a little man of six! The nicked nursery bed where you two watched for hours one night until a sprawled, feverish form slipped into healing slumber!

Yes, a home is seasoned with smiles and tears, mellowed by memories and flavored with hopes. Each room has well-loved articles that have grown dearer with the years. And there are new things that you are working and planning for. It may be an occasional table for the living-room. New drapes for the breakfast nook. A summer rug. Porch and lawn furniture.

The advertisements in this newspaper bring you news of furnishings to freshen your home. Study them and save shopping steps and budget dollars. They will help you add to the gracious charm of your home . . . that little world which is your very own!

College Goal For Mother of 53 Draws Near Realization

By United Press

ANNA, Ill.—Mrs. Mable Keith Lesar, 53, a widow and the mother of three sons, who was graduated from the Anna high school in May, will be a freshman this September at the University of Illinois.

Just 32 years ago, Mrs. Lesar planned to graduate from high school in Anna, which is in Union county. Illness and hardships prevented. Now, after a struggle lasting three decades, during which she lost her husband in the 1915 influenza epidemic and found herself with three sons, a heavily mortgaged home and no means of support, she has realized her girlhood ambition.

Mrs. Lesar's three sons all have completed high school. Two of them are graduates of the University of Illinois and the third is a student there. One of the graduates is an assistant professor at the University of Kansas.

Charlie Chaplin and Wife--Really!

Don't these two look like man and wife? Well, they are—and apparently there's no foolin' this time about the fact that Charlie Chaplin, famous comedian, and Paulette Goddard, actress, are married. Strangely enough, it took rumors of divorce to confirm the oft-reported marriage. Paulette registered as "Mrs. Charlie Chaplin" at a Del Monte, Calif., golf tournament. Also she visited Charlie at his Pebble Beach home and it appears that maybe she will not go to Reno to "open a ski club" after all. The picture shows the two the last time they were photographed together.

City 'Blackout' Is Not New; It Was Tried Back In 1887

By United Press

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Shutting off a city's power supply to effect a "blackout," a practice now coming into vogue for army air-drill, was a nightly occurrence here long before airplanes flew, according to Robert M. Emblidge, veteran superintendent of operations for the Buffalo Niagara Corporation.

This was revealed by Emblidge when he retired at the age of 68 after 51 years of service with the Niagara and antecedent companies.

When he first took up the work in 1887, Emblidge said, "blackouts" were part of the daily routine because the tiny generator furnishing power for the city was shut down nightly between 11 p. m. and 7 a. m. What's more, he recalled, the current was cut off from Saturday until Monday to give the employees time off.

"For this reason," he said, "it was a source of regret to the maintenance men when St. Paul's Cathedral decided to install electricity. It meant the power plant would have to run on Sundays."

Reminiscing further, Emblidge said that the Buffalo Light & Power Co. was the first in the country to generate alternating current for commercial use.

In the early days, Emblidge recalled, electrical equipment manufacturers were bitterly opposed to electrification as a means of capital punishment.

"Around 1888 or 1889 several concerns banded together to try to prevent the electrification of a murderer," he said. "They thought that people would associate electricity with violent death and dim everything they could to stop it."

Catalog For State Fair Is Published

By United Press

DALLAS, Tex.—Lasting more than $100,000 in premiums for livestock, agriculture, poultry, culinary, textile, hobbies, and many other classifications, the premium list for the Golden Jubilee Celebration of the State Fair of Texas is now being distributed. It has been announced by Otto Herold, president of the state fair.

Premiums in Livestock and Poultry have been increased, and competition has been taken out of the county agricultural exhibits. Instead of having counties compete, each county exhibiting will be given $125.00. This will enable Texas counties to present the most complete picture of agricultural possibilities of the State ever seen.

The premium list contains premiums which will be awarded individual farm exhibits, as well as 4-H Club Boys and Girls exhibits and Future Farmer exhibits.

Many new classifications are included in the premium list, such as the Hobby Show, the first annual All-Southwestern Newspaper Contest, the Flower Show, the Colt and Mule Show, and others.

Decision On Cattle Imports from Mexico Is Due From Court

By United Press

ALAMOGORDO, N. M.—The Otero county district court is expected to render its decision within two weeks on whether cattle can be imported from Mexico and held for three years without taxation.

The question revolved about the old A. B. Fall Three Rivers ranch. The Tres Ritas Ranch corporation, present operators of the ranch, contended that the 700,000 acre ranch was a "government bonded warehouse" and the 7,000 head of Mexican cattle on it were exempt from taxation.

M. A. Threest, district attorney of Otero county, maintained that the federal government's wording "stable or part, thereof may be a government warehouse" was not liberal enough to include open range in Otero and Lincoln counties.

"Otero county is handicapped by the fact that the U. S. Treasury has already bonded the company, but the county has not given up $1,800 in taxes which the treasurer collected on imported cattle and their offspring, or the $700 collected by Lincoln county," Threest said.

Threest said that the federal law specified "if an original package has been broken and contents mixed with other property, it automatically ceases to be bonded." He contended that livestock on an open range, mixing freely with 200 native bulls, as the company petition showed, constituted "broken packages" and the increase at least was subject to taxation.

Cattlemen of the area showed interest in the case. The important phase, observers explained, was "if this company can import Mexican cattle and hold them three years without taxation, there should be nothing to prevent every cowman having his herd tax-free under the theory of bonded warehouse."

The question revolved about the old A. B. Fall Three Rivers ranch. The Tres Ritas Ranch corporation, present operators of the ranch, contended that the 700,000 acre ranch was a "government bonded warehouse" and the 7,000 head of Mexican cattle on it were exempt from taxation.

M. A. Threest, district attorney of Otero county, maintained that the federal government's wording "stable or part, thereof may be a government warehouse" was not liberal enough to include open range in Otero and Lincoln counties.

"Otero county is handicapped by the fact that the U. S. Treasury has already bonded the company, but the county has not given up $1,800 in taxes which the treasurer collected on imported cattle and their offspring, or the $700 collected by Lincoln county," Threest said.

Threest said that the federal law specified "if an original package has been broken and contents mixed with other property, it automatically ceases to be bonded." He contended that livestock on an open range, mixing freely with 200 native bulls, as the company petition showed, constituted "broken packages" and the increase at least was subject to taxation.

Cattlemen of the area showed interest in the case. The important phase, observers explained, was "if this company can import Mexican cattle and hold them three years without taxation, there should be nothing to prevent every cowman having his herd tax-free under the theory of bonded warehouse."

Now YOU CAN BUY A Firestone Gum-Dipped Tire 7-60 FOR AS LITTLE AS $7

FIRESTONE cuts the cost of Tire Safety just at the time when you need a new set of tires. At this time of the year you should replace tires that are worn and smooth for greatest safety during the summer driving season. Tires may look alike on the outside—but inside they are different. The name FIRESTONE on a tire is your assurance of extra safety and long mileage because only Firestone Tires are built with these patented and exclusive construction features.

Gum-Dipping, the Firestone patented process by which every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber, counteracts tire-destroying internal friction and heat which ordinarily cause blowouts. Nine extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord.

Two Extra Layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread, another patented Firestone construction feature, protect against punctures.

Scientifically - Designed Non-Skid Tread made of tough slow-wearing rubber, assures safer stops and longer non-skid mileage.

Now that Firestone gives you all of these safety and economy features at these low prices, you cannot afford to take chances with unsafe tires this summer. Come in today and join the Firestone Save-A-Life Campaign by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Convoy Tires—the safest tires that money can buy at these low prices.

SENTIMENT alone won't produce good food. But there's a sentimental virtue to a large iron pot that seems to produce unusually delicious stews. Of course, a heavy sheet aluminum pot may do as well. Yet the large family size iron pot has a claim on our best traditions of cooking.

Chicken in an Iron Pot
(Serves 8)
One plump chicken cut in pieces, 2 medium sized onions sliced, 1 cup olive oil, 1 dozen slices frankfurter or Spanish sausage, 2 dozen small clams in their shells, rice, chicken stock, salt, pepper, paprika, saffron, pimiento.

Heat a cup of olive oil in an iron pot or kettle. Add the sliced onions and let them brown. Then add the pieces of chicken which have been seasoned with salt, pepper and paprika and brown them thoroughly on all sides.

Next add 3 tablespoons of raw washed rice for each person to be served, and add, too, a full cup of boiling chicken broth for each person. Canned chicken broth may be used if fresh stock is not available.

Add to the pot the clams in their well washed shells, and the slices of sausage. Canned chicken stock of saffron to color and flavor the rice and a clove of garlic if desired.

Garnish with strips of pimiento, place under the broiler for three minutes and serve very hot. In Spain, the place from which this recipe came, the iron pot is brought right to the table. Incidentally, how would this recipe be for a beach supper or for dinner cooked in the pine woods?

Chop Suet Lamb Chops
(Serves 4 to 6)
Six leg lamb chops, 1-2 pound green beans, 1-2 pound firm cabbage, 1-2 pound carrots, 1-2 pound onions, 1 tablespoon soy sauce, 2 teaspoons salt.

Trim most of fat from chops. Brown in a little butter in iron pot. Shred the vegetables, add to pot with 3-4 cup water, soy sauce and salt. Cover and cook rapidly until steam rises, then reduce heat and barely simmer, tightly covered, for about 40 minutes. Serve with steamed brown rice.

While there she visited with relatives.

Mrs. S. W. Bobo accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Camilla Hunt and Miss Anita McHarg, returned Friday from Fort Worth where she visited with her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Cole.

Floyd Killingsworth is expected to return to Ranger Sunday from Chicago where he has been attending the Furniture Mart Show there. Mr. Killingsworth left Fort Worth last Sunday traveling by plane.

Charles T. Lux, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association of Texas, was a business visitor in Ranger Friday.

Low Water Rate Is Boon to Those Who Keep Yards Pretty

The Ranger City Commission called attention Saturday to the fact that the new summer water rate, which is lower than the regular rate, is now in effect and the people can take advantage of this saving by keeping their lawns and flowers well watered.

Water meters will be read about July 15, and there still remains plenty of time for everyone to give their lawns and flowers a good soaking, without cost.

Yards are in better condition this year than ever before, it was stated Saturday, and the people can keep them in good shape by using plenty of water. Many could keep their lawns thoroughly soaked until meter reading time, it was said, without making their water bills any higher.

The low summer rate was put in effect in order that people might be able to beautify their premises and householders were urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

Retail Merchants Elect Directors

Members of the board of directors of the Ranger Retail Merchants Association, announced after an election Saturday, now include A. J. Ratliff, Sig Faircloth, D. Joseph, W. F. Cressler, E. S. Erashier, T. J. Anderson, E. P. Erashier, Ken Umberson and S. P. Boon.

Saturday Vice President T. J. Anderson called a meeting for Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of electing new officers for the coming year. All members of the board have been urged to be present for the meeting.

Rev. Tally to Fill Pulpit at Church

Rev. Chas. T. Talley, who is conducting a revival in Leuders, will be in Ranger to occupy the pulpit Sunday morning at the First Baptist church.

He will return to Leuders for the Sunday night service and Rev. Wilson Akins of Caddo, will take his place at the First Baptist church Sunday night.

TOWNSEND MEETING
The Ranger Townsend club announce there will be a Townsend meeting in I. O. O. F. Hall Monday evening, July 11th. Pearl Hunt and wife will be in charge of the musical program. The public is invited to attend.

President Roosevelt has declined to act in the movies. The rumor is that he had misunderstood that Hollywood was full of "Yes, but" men.
