

RANGER DAILY TIMES

30th YEAR

RANGER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1948

PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 121

THE RANGER DAILY TIMES is the oldest daily newspaper in Eastland county, the first edition appearing on June 1, 1919. World news is furnished the readers through United Press daily wire service.

Ranger is the center of the agriculture and livestock industries of the area with relative industries bringing much business to the town. It is also the home of Ranger Junior College, one of the best public junior colleges in the state.

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

A slip in the press which came over our wire this morning... "A wholesaler here faced charges today of selling meat to six Dallas public schools which had been treated with sulphite."

Goodness, we never dreamed that our schools were in that state, but then an English teacher can fix that up pronto.

A late vacationer, Mrs. Margaret Osterhout, writes from Miami Beach that she didn't escape the weather by going there. It's hot, she says, and she's sizzling after nearly five weeks in St. Louis and Cincinnati.

In the mail today a very pleasing letter from a man in New York, who by mere chance reads this column, was kind enough to write us and tell us that he enjoys it.

Addressed to "Well, I dunno, Ranger, Texas," it reached us safely. But we'll have to disillusion the author. His salutation was "Dear Sir," and we're a woman, Alex.

Now that the shock of that is over, we'll let you in on part of the letter. Here 'tis. "The Ranger Daily Times has arrived regularly for the two years I've been here. Since your column was usually the only thing that I hadn't previously read, I became attracted by it. Now, it is a daily vignette reflecting the activities and perspective of people in a place it almost seems I know."

"This is all I just wanted to let you know I enjoy reading your column."

Thank you, Alex.

Hear that Dorothy Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henry, is really liking her work with "That Store" in Dallas, as Boyce House labeled it.

"That Store" being Nieman-Marcus where Dorothy has been working in the sports department since receiving her degree at Texas Christian University in the Spring.

Dorothy who knows what she wants and goes after it, will always be remembered by Ranger for her tap dance contributions to programs in the days gone by.

Here's a story about a pot of beans — beans not for eating purposes but for guessin' purposes.

If you're smart enough to guess the number of beans or near the number of beans in this pot, you'll be awarded.

The pot of beans is at the Crawford Rexall store, placed there by the Parents-Teachers Associations of Hodges and Young Schools as a money making scheme for the Halloween carnival the schools are staging jointly at the football field next Tuesday night.

So if you want to make a guess you can and they won't object if you want to leave a little contribution for gettin' a chance to guess.

Hall To Support Johnson Ticket

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 21, (UP) — Curtis Hall, former assistant state attorney general who actively supported former Gov. Coke Stevenson in the Democratic primary elections for U. S. Senator from Texas, threw his support today to Stevenson's opponent, U. S. Rep. Lyndon Johnson.

"I still entertain a high regard for Stevenson," Hill said, "but I can't join him in deserting the Democratic Party and its nominee for U. S. Senator."

Hill said that, in his opinion, Johnson won the democratic nomination honestly and was certified as the nominee by the state Democratic convention.

This action, he said, was upheld by the court of last resort.

Junior College Fetes UN Week At Rotary Club

In commemorating the celebration of United Nations Week, Ranger Junior College presented a program explaining the workings of the UN, at the Rotary Club meeting yesterday at the Gholson Hotel.

President of the student Council Calvin King as introductory speaker outlined the fundamental reasons for the creation of the UN. Its purpose is to (1) remove the causes of war, (2) adjust all differences between the nations and (3) build a collective security.

Following, Robert Williams spoke on the economic aspects of the UN. He explained the duties and accomplishments of the 13 newly created agencies. These special groups, not concerned with political matters have done much to prevent starvation and improve medical conditions, he added.

Gloria Rogers discussed the cultural and educational agencies of the UN. She cited the great strides taken by the International Labor Organization. The I.L.O. has been in operation for 30 years and has succeeded in raising the working conditions throughout the world.

In concluding speaker, Bill Bonney spoke on the troublesome political disputes now causing so much world concern. In discussing the power of veto he noted the Russians have used the veto 22 times while the U. S. and Great Britain have never exercised their right of veto. Up to the present the major problems confronting the UN have been the Korean situation, the Palestine problem and atomic energy control, he commented.

The Junior College group was introduced by Dean G. B. Rush who was in charge of the program. The Rotarians announced next week the District Governor, W. B. Todd of Fort Worth will visit the local chapter. Tuesday evening will be Club Assembly night at the Gholson Hotel.

FFA Contest Winners Listed

BY R. L. MILLER

The winners of the essay contest for the F.F.A. greynhands were: first place, Weldon Cunningham; second place, Dick Garrison; and third place, Billy Harper. The essays were written on "Care of sow and litter prospect."

The boys took the gilts with the understanding that they would give one of the best gilts back to the chapter next year to be given to another boy.

Some of the most important steps listed in the essays were as follows:

1. Disinfect farrowing house with lye water;
2. Wash sow with strong soap suds before letting pigs suck for first time;
3. Clip pigs' needle teeth;
4. Vaccinate for enteritis and cholera;
5. Wean pigs at 6-8 weeks of age;
6. Feed sow and pigs on well balanced ration including grain, animal protein, vegetable protein and minerals.

These gilts were purchased by the FFA chapter for this purpose.

Drys Organize And Start Work To Keep Beer Out Of Eastland County

By Frank A. Jones
Eastland County dries, meeting in a county-wide meeting last night (Wednesday) at the First Baptist church in Eastland, pieced their individual efforts, their influence and at least $1,500 to carry on a campaign to defeat the proposed legalizing of four per cent beer at the coming election in the County. No. 2 The large auditorium of the First Baptist church was filled to capacity with people from Eastland, Ranger, Cisco, Carbon, Rising Star, Olden and other points in the county. Some communities, not represented in person, sent communications pledging their support in the campaign.

Rev. Loyd M. Chapman, pastor of the Eastland First Baptist Church, acted as master of ceremonies until a permanent organization and officers were elected by the meeting to take the place of those in the temporary organization, took over.

Joe Poe of Cisco, ministerial student of Baylor University, was in charge of and led the song service.

The permanent organization to be known as the Eastland County United Drys, was set up by the meeting and officers were named as follows:

Chairman—J. L. Clem, of Ranger; vice chairman—R. L. Ellis of Ranger; Secretary—Alfa Elder of Eastland; Chairman of Transportation—Cecil Stowe of Cisco; Chairman of Prayers—W. E. Hallenbeck, of Eastland.

Dr. T. R. Havin of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, former member of the Texas State Prison Board and well known educator, was the principal speaker. He gave a very inspirational, and informative talk covering many of his personal experiences especially those connected with his service on the prison board.

Ranger Property Owner Favors Haydite Project

Hall Walker stated today that he had received a very fine letter from Albert Brin of Terrell, stating that he can be counted upon to take stock in the haydite plant proposed for Ranger.

Brin who is a property owner in Ranger stated that he has taken stock in similar projects in his home town and that he has always found that they paid dividends.

Program On Italy At Church Of Christ Sunday

Evangelist C. R. Paden is to speak Sunday, Oct. 24th at the Church of Christ, Ranger, Texas, concerning the work that the Church of Christ is planning to do in Italy.

Mr. Paden is being sponsored in this work by the Crescent Hill Church of Christ of Brownfield, Texas, sponsors of the Italian Mission work. He plans to spend his life in the preaching of the Gospel to the Italian people. Last fall he and Wm. C. Hatcher who is being sponsored by the Hayes Ave. Church of Christ in Detroit, Mich., went to Italy to obtain the needed information to start the work there.

They spent two months there collecting this information, and taking pictures of conditions there. This program will consist of the things that they observed while in Italy, and 1200 f. of moving pictures will be shown, taken while they were there.

Former Members Of US Air Force Urgently Needed

Former members of the US Air Force who are skilled in an Air Force specialty are urgently needed for duty in the European Command to assist in "Operation Vittles"—the Berlin Airlift, came an announcement today from S-Sgt. James Hendrick, NCO in charge of the Eastland Recruiting Station.

The following military occupational specialties are need at the present time to insure the success of the Air Force mission in Europe: 747, 684A, 750C, 760, 754, 2756, 2750, 060, 405, 343, 853, 955, 965, 114, and 535. Qualified men possessing one of the above specialties and who is interested in immediate assignment and duty to Europe are urged to go to the Recruiting Station at 311 West Main Street in Eastland as soon as possible for full information and enlistment procedure.

During the next five years $50,000,000 will be spent on new construction in the medical center district of Chicago. Hospitals and laboratories already in the 300-acre tract are valued at $100,000,000.

Eastland-Callahan Medical Assn. Held Eastland Meeting

Members of the Eastland-Callahan County Medical Association were hosted by Eastland doctors at the Connelley hotel roof garden Tuesday night, and the Medical Auxiliary was hosted by Mrs. E. R. Townsend who is president of the Auxiliary.

A dinner was served at the hotel, following the auxiliary assembled in the home of Mrs. E. R. Townsend, who presided over the business meeting. An election of officers were held when Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall was elected president of the Auxiliary for the ensuing year. Mrs. Addy of Cisco was secretary of the Auxiliary.

After the doctors had their scientific program and discussions they joined their wives at the Dr. Townsend home for a social hour, when games were played. Mrs. Townsend served refreshments during the evening.

Dr. A. K. Wier, Dr. P. M. Kuykendall and Dr. W. P. Watkins of Ranger attended the meeting.

Texas City Blast Takes 5th Victim

TEXAS CITY, Tex., Oct. 21 (UP)—The toll of victims in Texas City's newest explosion rose to five today, with the death last night of C. C. Gilliam, 48, of Houston.

Gilliam died some fifty hours after he was trapped in Monday night's explosion that, with only a few seconds' warning, seared 14 carloads of motorists on a highway west of town.

A huge orange flame suddenly burst out over the highway, where a switch engine had tied up traffic, and most of the victims were badly burned before they could leave their cars.

A butane gas leak was blamed for the tragedy, but ownership of the line today was still undetermined.

The flame streaked from property owned by the Stone Oil Refining Co., but officials of that firm yesterday denied any implication in the explosion, announcing formally that the faulty line belonged "to another company," whose lines traverse Stone properties.

Officials of the Republic Oil Refining Co., who also own lines in the explosion area, were likewise certain the leaky pipe was not theirs.

Rains Fall Over Part Of State

BY UNITED PRESS
Light rains fell over a wide section last night and today but the amounts were negligible in most cases, the weather bureau in Dallas reported.

Forecast reported to the bureau was 43 inch at San Angelo, 20 at Del Rio, 18 at Amarillo, 12 at Big Springs and 04 at Lubbock. Heavy showers fell in parts of Dallas but the weather bureau at Love Field reported only a trace.

Yesterday's high was 82 at Presidio and Brownsville and the low this morning 43 degrees at Lublin.

The Monongahela and Allegheny rivers at Pittsburgh carry a greater tonnage of freight in the course of a year than the Panama Canal.

Funeral Services Conducted Today For E. P. Mills

Funeral services for E. P. (Press) Mills of Ranger were conducted today at 2:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Cecil Ellis officiating.

Interment was in Evergreen cemetery with Killingsworth's in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Mills died about 7:30 Monday night as a result of injuries sustained in a fall. Born in Bowie County in 1889 he had been a resident of Ranger since 1905.

He married Mary Langford in Ranger, December 22, 1909 with the late Rev. J. S. Tunnell father of B. A. Tunnell of Ranger officiating.

Mr. Mills was a member of the Methodist Church and until his retirement a few years back had engaged in the grocery business. Since retiring he had devoted his time to farming and ranching.

Survivors are Mrs. Mills and two daughters, Norma Mills and Eva Mills, all of Ranger; two sons, Archie Mills of Maywood, Calif., and Elvis Mills of Camas Valley and a brother, E. H. Mills of Ranger and two sisters, Mrs. S. A. Landers and Mrs. John M. Ballard, both of Ranger. Three grandchildren also survive, Terry and Jimmy Mills of Maywood and Martha Mills of Camas Valley.

Funeral services were W. G. Pounds, F. P. Brasher, Sr., Ellis Cooper, V. V. Cooper, Jr., G. P. Rose, Elmer Hankston, L. L. Bruce and Johnnie Boyd.

Boys Report On Scramble Calves

The boys who caught scramble calves at last summer's Jaycees rodeo, report that all calves are in good health and gaining rapidly. The winners and their sponsors were as follows:

1. George Robinson—Ranger Daily Times.
2. Weldon Cunningham—Ranger Furniture Exchange.
3. Charles Wheat—L. R. Pearson.
4. Henry Jackson—Swaney's Pharmacy.
5. W. E. Huckaby—Ranger Peanut Co.
6. Floyd Woods—E. L. Martin & Sons.
7. Frank Robinson—A. J. Ratliff.
8. Joe Don Buckley—Anderson Pruet Chevrolet Co.
9. Jerry Mahaffey—Gorman National Bank and Golden Oak Milling Co.
10. Gerald Williamson—Eastland National Bank.
11. Billy Tucker—Commercial State Bank.
12. Hugh Mallory—Strawn National Bank.
13. Guy Warden—Cisco National Bank.
14. Jerry Buckley—Ranger Jaycees.

A summary of the reports from these boys shows that the calves averaged 130 pounds on Aug. 1, at the time of the scramble. The average weight of the calves on Oct. 15 was 310 pounds, showing a total gain of 180 pounds per head in 75 days or 2.5 pounds gained daily.

These calves are now eating about 9 pounds mixed grains, 1-2 pound protein supplement and 12 pound milk daily per head. They are walked an average of 2 miles each week and bathed once a week. Frank Robinson writes "My calf favors me a lot, he doesn't like to have his face washed and neither did I when I was his age."

The boys have to have their calves average 700 pounds by show time which will probably be in April.

TAFT URGES TEX. VOTERS TO ELECT GOP'S PORTER

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 21, (UP) — Texans had the word today of Republican Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio that they would exercise more influence in the next congress if they send GOP senatorial nominee Jack Porter to the senate.

The Ohio senator spoke last night in the bandshell at the State Fair of Texas.

Taft said the "traditional adherence" of Texans to the Democratic Party is not logical in this election year. He said everything Texans believe in is being attacked by President Truman and "his CIO-PAC allies."

"Mr. Lyndon Johnson," the Ohioan continued, "goes along with their views, in general."

BY ELIAV SIMON
United Press Staff Correspondent
TEL AVIV, Oct. 21, (UP) — Israel notified the United Nations today of its acceptance of a cease fire order in the Negev and at the same time announced the capture of historic Beersheba, biblical seat of Abraham and key base of South Palestine.

The formal notification of acceptance said the cease fire would be put into effect as soon as word was received through the UN that the Egyptians were honoring the truce.

The seizure of Beersheba, the southern limit of ancient Palestine and so-called capital of the Negev, was regarded here as the biggest prize won by Israeli forces on the battlefield in six months of fighting.

Reliable sources reported a mass flight of Egyptian forces from the area south of Jerusalem. The fall of Beersheba, after the Jewish victories north of Gaza, threatened them with complete isolation.

Acceptance of the UN Security Council's order to stop fighting was communicated to Warren Austin, council chairman, through the UN mission here.

The Israeli cabinet informed Dr. Paul Mohn, UN truce team member: "Israel is resolved to order an immediate and effective cease fire in the Negev, which will be implemented by Israeli troops upon receipt of notification that the Egyptians were honoring the truce."

"Allowing for the time necessary to insure that it reaches all units, it will come into effect not later than 12 hours after the mediators' notification that it is received."

An Israeli military spokesman, Lt. Col. Moshe Perlman, said Jewish commanders in the Negev had been ordered to cease firing and at the time he spoke "there is no fighting in the Negev or anywhere else."

But the conditions expressed in the official notification to the UN made it evident that his report was premature.

Reports both here and in Cairo also made it plain that the task of bringing the ponderous war machines to a halt would take some time.

Premier Mahmoud Nokrashy Pasha of Egypt said in Cairo that the Egyptians had shot down three Jewish planes. A defense ministry spokesman there said the fighting went on. He said Egyptian planes made heavy attacks on Jewish air fields during the night, causing severe damage.

UN observers reported that bombings and bombardments continued. Jewish planes were active on all fronts, and Gaza and Madjal had five air raids during the night, they said. The observers reported that the Egyptians were directing heavy artillery fire on Jewish positions.

Military sources reported that Beersheba fell to Israeli "desert rats" who met little opposition. The town 22 miles southeast of Gaza dominates the southern end of the Palestine plain, on the main road leading to Syria from Egypt.

The red and white barber pole dates back to the middle ages when a barber was also the town surgeon. The spiral red and white stripes represent a bandage which the barber-surgeon wrapped his patient after "blood letting."

In a recent year, New York University doctors were responsible for the medical care given to 45,000 bed patients and 250,000 outpatient visits at Bellevue Hospital.

THE WEATHER

BY UNITED PRESS
EAST TEXAS — Considerable cloudiness, scattered showers in the interior this afternoon, showers tonight, warmer extreme east portion, Friday, mostly cloudy, showers in east, cooler in north-west portion. Moderate east to southeast winds on the coast.

WEST TEXAS — Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Friday. Showers from the Pecos Valley eastward this afternoon. Cooler in Panhandle and South Plains tonight.

Porter said that if the federal government takes away the Texas tidelands the state's schools would suffer and higher personal taxes would be necessary. The Houston oil man said he favors better schools and opposes higher taxes.

Pacific Coast Needs Raw Meat To Keep Rose Bowl on Top

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

BOSTON.—(NEA)—Unless those Pacific coast teams are tossed some raw meat, or something, they're going to make a secondary attraction out of the Pasadena Rose Bowl. And the Pacific Coast Conference asked for it by hooking up with the Western, year in and year out the toughest circuit in the land.

Those horrendous New Year's Day pastings dealt UCLA and Southern California by Illinois and Michigan have early this fall been followed up by four more licks. Northwestern repeated over UCLA by considerably more of a margin. Minnesota jolted Washington. And the latest returns showed Michigan repelling Oregon, 14-0, and Ohio State, of all people, running over a sputtering Southern California outfit, 20-0.

And by smacking Wisconsin, 35-7, amazing Indiana left the Badgers in such a position and condition that California could not regain much of the far western slope's lost prestige even by duplicating last autumn's 48-7 conquest at Madison.

California is now the golden shore's only army with a chance of going through with a clean slate, and the Golden Bears have yet to hurdle Southern California, UCLA and Stanford, which rarely fail to stir up more trouble for Berkeley than they do for anybody else.

Purdue being shut out by Northwestern, 21-0, additionally illustrated why coaches insist on playing Notre Dame in their final game or pot at all. Otherwise they lose to the Irish and on the next Saturday afternoon, too.

And did you notice that Michigan's spinner attack, installed by Art Valby, works at Harvard, too? Especially now that the Crimson has something to go with, Chip Gannon.

The Johnny's had the high-rolling Columbia Lions beaten before they could get up their hands to further balance the football parade all the way along the line.

THE STORY: Hilary Shennone, British secret agent, has been wounded in the Indian desert beside a crashed plane, after completing a dangerous mission. He thinks of Nana Fathling, his lover in the English countryside, and feels a desperate need to get back there. He doesn't know that the house has been let and that Hilary returns to London to what seems a dream, decides to order himself to go and heads for his club. There he finds two old family friends, Calthorpe and Lady Fathling, father of Hilary's fiancee, Alice. They seem unaware of him. Denby, from the Home Office, enters and explodes a bombshell. He says that Hilary Shennone is dead of a gunshot wound in India.

HE stood there in the warm, familiar surroundings of his club in Pall Mall and knew that he was dead. He realized it with a terror he had never known on earth, a helpless, unreasoning panic which flung him and struggled and strained like the wings of a frantic bird. The commissioner in the hall—the men who went through the door just ahead of him—Denby crossing the marble floor towards the lounge—none of them had known he was there. They couldn't see him. They couldn't hear him. He was cut off from them forever—disembodied—invisible—exiled. Dead.

No, No, this could not really be. It was some form of delusion still—fever—nightmare—delirium. He would prove to himself now, at once, that this thing simply hadn't happened. He would speak to Denby—and then they would turn to him with incredulous looks, seize his hands, order drinks all around.

"What about Dalton?" he demanded, approaching the group, round the hearth. "Did they get Dalton back safe?"

"Dalton's report is coming by air mail," said Denby. "He's had a bad time. No water where they crashed. But he'll pull through."

"There, you see? It worked. Denby had heard him and answered his question. But no one was looking at him. Must try again. Must prove . . .

"Did Dalton write my family too?" he asked, and laid his hand on Denby's shoulder.

HE knew then. He had the answer. Denby was shaken by a long shiver, and put a hand to his head.

"Drat," said Denby apologetically. "I—I need a drink."

"Have my brandy, old boy," Calthorpe thrust a full glass into Denby's hand and rang the bell. "Steady, now—let's sit down. We all need a stiff one, I'm thinking."

That's funny, thought Hilary. No drink for me.

Looking from one to another of their grave, lined faces, he suddenly abandoned all hope for himself. Too many times he had made one in a stricken circle like this. Too many drinks had been ordered by himself in similar circumstances for him to ignore the signs.

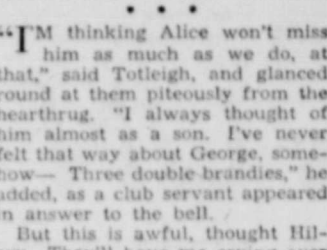

"I say, Tottleigh—" Denby raised his head from the glass. "Bit of a blow for your girl, too—Alice, I mean—I mean, weren't they—"

"Presumably they were," said Tottleigh moodily, his tall thin figure drooping against the mantelpiece.

"No, never knows these days what one's young people are really about, does one? She's been seeing quite a lot of his brother lately. It will be hard on her, of course, in any case, but—I don't know."

Hilary was staring at him. George and Alice? For a moment there was no reaction, and he wondered if he had conveniently left his emotions somewhere along the way. Of course Alice had always hated his job—even tried to make him promise to give it up and stay in England. It was because he had half expected this to be his last undertaking before handing in his resignation that he had been so prompt and willing on the day that the Home Office had rung through to Nana Fathling. So George was cutting in, was he. One must look into this.

Design Conscious

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (UP)—More people today are asking who is the designer of products they buy than at any time in the past, according to Stanley Marcus of Dallas, a leading pioneer in fashion and design.

Marcus, of Dallas' famed Neiman-Marcus store, spoke yesterday at the annual meeting of the Society of Industrial Designers. He said design has become an increasingly important factor in competitive selling and that designers have become a competitive necessity rather than an industrial luxury.

The Dallasite said a "good portion of the most successful manufacturers" now give top billing to their designers. Both of the good designer and the good store are exercising an important influence in improving the public taste, he said.

Marcus said it had been his conviction for a long time that public taste is a lot better than most manufacturers and retailers have deemed it to be.

One reason so many women dress badly is that they don't listen to their husband's advice, Hollywood fashion designer Edith Head states in the American Magazine. She thinks women would dress better if they took their husbands shopping with them.

More people today are asking who is the designer of products they buy than at any time in the past, according to Stanley Marcus of Dallas, a leading pioneer in fashion and design.

Marcus, of Dallas' famed Neiman-Marcus store, spoke yesterday at the annual meeting of the Society of Industrial Designers. He said design has become an increasingly important factor in competitive selling and that designers have become a competitive necessity rather than an industrial luxury.

The Dallasite said a "good portion of the most successful manufacturers" now give top billing to their designers. Both of the good designer and the good store are exercising an important influence in improving the public taste, he said.

Marcus said it had been his conviction for a long time that public taste is a lot better than most manufacturers and retailers have deemed it to be.

Arizona is crossed east and west by four transcontinental highways—United States highways 60, 66, 70 and 80—while the Canada to Mexico highway—United States highway 89—crosses the state north and south.

Pennsylvania, now one of the greatest game and fish states in the nation, was practically a "shot out" state in 1895.

Matty Warns Team Of Overconfidence

DALLAS, Tex. Oct. 21 (UP)—Coach Matty Bell reiterated his warning to Southern Methodist football players that the Texas game doesn't come up for another week as he sent the Mustangs through a final tough workout for Saturday night's Cotton Bowl meeting with rugged Santa Clara. Bell told them that the west coast Broncs can't be taken lightly as his scouts reported Santa Clara now the top club on the Pacific Coast.

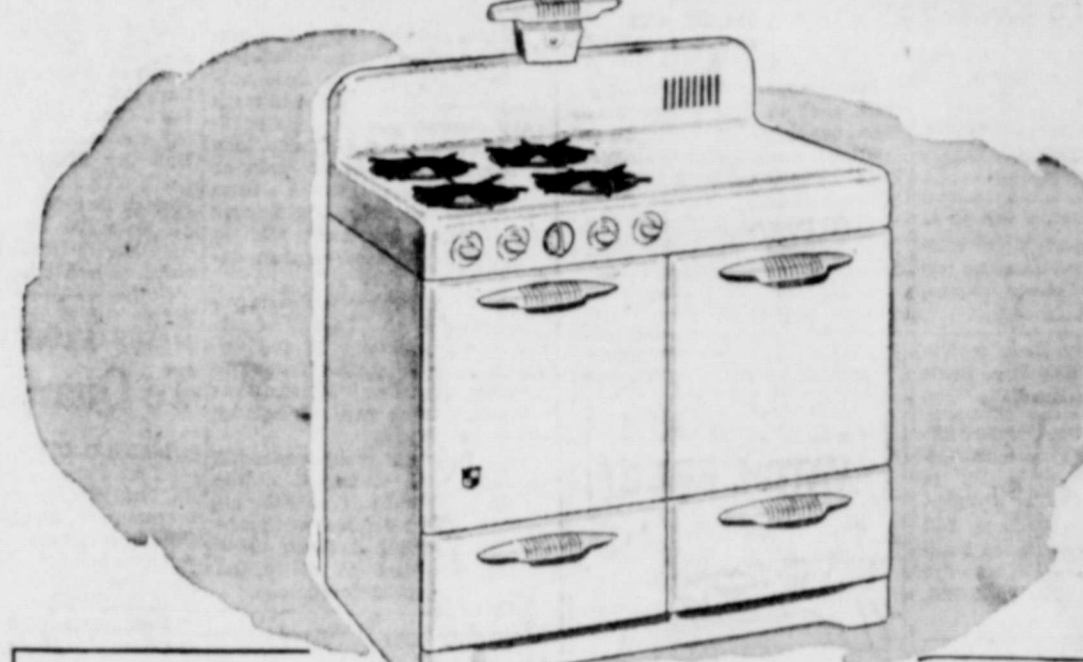

Guard Broonie Lewis continued to be the only Mustang likely to miss the big intersectional battle.

FOUL WEATHER MAY MAR BULLDOG HOPES FRIDAY

By MARVIN GROSS
 From the grumblin' up in the heavens the Bulldogs may be forced to buck up against some foul weather in addition to the Comanche Indians tomorrow evening.

While the the Bulldogs will rule the favorites Warden has just about ruled out Comanche's narrow squeak against Gorman.
 Scouting reports list Gorman as much improved and about 30 points better than what they flashed against the Bulldogs.

Indications are in order with the result that Warden's men will have to brush up on their mud-pie game. Thus far the Bulldogs have been blessed with clear skies in all of their encounters.

Friday's game marks the start of the latter half of the schedule.
 Against non-conference foes the Bulldogs have won two, lost one and split even in conference play.
 Most heartwarming victory thus far has been the 12-6 decision over the Cicco Lobos. The majority of the Bulldogs rate the Cicco eleven a better all around team than Dublin but final respective scores give other impressions.

And mud among football circles is known as the great leveler.
 Many a superior gridiron squad has seen a lengthy victory streak go by the boards not because of the opposition but due to the slushy slime that hinders offensive play.

Now three and two in the percentage column the Bulldogs need this one to keep their bobbing heads up over the 500 mark.
 They showed plenty of rebounding spirit after the Albany loss.
 A heartbreaking defeat such as the Albany loss can wreck a team for the season. But the Ranger High Club came back with a
 "ouch" to pulverize Gorman 51-0.

Bears Sharpen Aerial Attack

WACO, Tex. Oct. 21 (UP)—The Baylor passing game was being sharpened today for the Texas Aggies, who invade Waco Saturday for a conference encounter, but Coach Bob Woodruff, also was making preparation to play another game in the mud.

Indian Chief Cops Lightweight Title

GALVESTON, Tex., Oct. 21 (UP)—The advantage of youth, today had brought the Texas lightweight boxing title to Chief Gordon House of Houston.

The 23-year-old Indian had toughledding in the early round of a 15-round bout with Tony Mar, Hermosillo, Mexico, last night, but in the late rounds the 31-year-old Mexican tired and House outboxed him to gain a unanimous decision.

House probably will fight either Eddie Bertolino or Buddy Garcia, both of Galveston, in the near future, promoter Phil Flake said.

AGAINST CHANGES

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 21
 (UP)—University of Michigan officials said today they were "definitely" against any change in Big Nine rules to allow the Wolverines to make a trip to the Rose Bowl again on Jan. 1.

Herbert O. (Fritz) Crisler, Michigan's athletic director and Prof. Ralph W. Aigler, Michigan
 Big Nine representative, agreed that it would be a "breach of faith" to alter the rule which prohibits a Big Nine team from going to Pasadena more than once

SOONER OR LATE

dusk yesterday from Love Field with the intention of staying aloft 1,500 hours, or about two months.
 Civic and aviation officials were present for the takeoff.

The pilots, both World War II airmen, will fly four hours each and rest four hours their first refueling from a speeding car was scheduled for 6 A. M. today. Their plane's gasoline tanks will hold enough fuel for about 16 to 18 hours. They have it geared for an oil change every 24 hours.

Freshman Game Aids In Battle Against Disease

College football teams will do their part to halt the tragic march of polio on October 22, when the Rice Institute Freshmen Blue
 Bolts meet the University of Texas Freshmen Shorthorns in the first annual children's benefit game at Rice Stadium.

The game is being sponsored by the Houston Chamber of Com-been endorsed by the board of directors at the Houston chamber, the Texas Children's Foundation, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Harris County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The game will present to Houston and South Texas fans for the first time many of last year's all-state high school players who will be getting their collegiate baptism of fire.

The game is expected to attract many out-of-town people who will swarm into the city for the big game between the Rice Owls and Texas Longhorns on the following

BAREFOOT BOOTER
 KINGSVILLE, Tex., Oct. 21
 (UP)—The Texas A and I grid team now has a point-after-touchdown kicker who wears shoes.

Sheridan Jochetz, who has been booting a la natural, suffered a broken toe two weeks ago in the Southwest Texas game. However, it was only on Tuesday that x-rays verified that the toe was broken.
 Jochetz kicked the pigskin with the ball of his bare foot.
 He went through a high school career of shoeless kicking, but in his first collegiate game ran afraid of the broken toe. Halfback Bennie Lisks, who wears shoes, now is doing the booting.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

Orators don't coin phrases like their predecessors did in the good old days.

For example, the one who referred to a political party with its motley groups as "held together by the cohesive power of plunder." And Tom Corwin's phrase that if his native land were invaded, "We would welcome them with hospitable hands to bloody graves."

A man who had just listened to a speech said it reminded him of "the peace of God" because "It passes all human understanding."

All that a Texan wants is what is coming to him—not any less but not a bit more. But some are receiving more than they are entitled to because of the greater growth in population of some parts of the State in comparison to others.

Representation in the legislature is not based on today's population as it should be—but what the population was, 28 years ago.

The State Constitution calls for redistricting after each census but there has been no redistricting since 1921. A few members of the legislature have blocked redistricting because they might have to run against each other.

They put their own political interests above their oath to carry out the Constitution. They place their selfish individual ambitions above doing justice to 7,500,000 Texans.

The folks back home do not share any such selfish view. Texas believes in a square deal; they are fair-minded.

That's the reason why Constitutional Amendment No. 2 should pass in the general election; it provides a sure way of bringing about redistricting every 10 years.

Five each year kills 2,000 children under five—ten times as many children as die from infantile paralysis.

There's a lot of difference of opinion in our county on the best kind of pasture. Some say alfalfa mixed with brome grass—others say mixed with oats or barley. But all agree that a mixture's better than a single crop.

I sometimes think people are the same way—and the strength of America is its mixture of so many different strains—some from one country, some from another—right down to little differences: like folks who have a taste for beer and those who prefer cider.

NLRB Orders 2 Texas Elections

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21, (UP) — Two collective bargaining elections among certain employees of two Texas firms have been ordered by the National Labor Relations Board.

The Oil Workers International Union (CIO) petitioned for an election among certain employees of the Gulf Oil Corp. refinery at Port Arthur, Tex., and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America (AFL) filed a similar petition for certain employees at the Longhorn Sash and Door Co., Austin, Tex. The latter firm is owned by G. R. Ogletree. Perhaps the first individual to buy land from the Indians in the United States was George Durant, who bought a large tract in northeastern North Carolina from Chief Kileocanen of the Yopim tribe. The deed, dated 1661, is in the courthouse at Merton, N. C. William Henry Harrison was the first President to die in office.
