County Races Hold Heavy Interest For Primary Voters

County races hold a majority of the interest in the Democratic primaries in Eastland county tomorrow.

Decisions in seven county offices will be made by the voters, and several precinct offices are to be filled.

A possibility of three run-offs looms in county races. Four other races will definitely be decided in the primaries tomorrow, and three present county office holders are unopposed.

Run-offs are possible in the races for county judge, sheriff and florist representative, 107th place.

These races have been marked with increasing campaigning during the past weeks as the election approached.

There are only two candidates in the races for county treasurer, county tax assessor-collector, representative 106th district and district clerk.

H. C. Elliott, county school superintendent, Elzo Been, county attorney, and W. V. Love, county clerk are unopposed in the primary.

The race for county judge has been one of the most heated. John Hart and C. S. Eldridge are opposing incumbent P. L. Crossley in the race.

In his statement for candidacy, Eldridge stated, "I want to be your county judge because I want to see just how good a judge can be." Crossley said, "If I am re-elected, I promise continued low tax rates, low valuations, assisting in every way possible the needy aged, including hospitalization and every possible help to the indigent of our county, and strict courteous, qualified attention at all times."

Hart in his campaign declared, "I stand for lower tax valuations. Compare the tax valuation of Eastland county to that of other surrounding counties, and decide for yourself."

Observers believe that a runoff will be necessary to decide the victor in the race.

In the race for the sheriff's office, John Barber and J. F. Turner oppose the present sheriff, J. B. Williams.

Barber commented, "I have but one promise to make, and that is that I will always be on the job and will try to the very best of my ability to enforce the law and do what I believe is right." Turner said, "I invite anyone who is not acquainted with me to personally investigate my character and record." Williams in his statement observed, "I believe that I am well qualified for this office, and that my record will speak for itself, and I invite anyone to check it at anytime."

Another tight race is expected in the representative, 107th florist district campaign, where O. O. Odom, Jr., Charles H. Dawson and L. R. Pearson are seeking the office.

Odom stated, "I am seeking this office because I am a young man who firmly believes that the future of Texas depends on good management policies by the state government. Certainly, I am against new taxes."

Pearson commented, "I have yet to vote for a tax bill of any kind. I will strive to preserve this record." Dawson countered, "I am opposed to a state sales tax—a state income tax and other unnecessary levies."

Four "sudden death" decisions will be made in the election. Roy L. Lane, present district clerk, is opposed by Buena Van Winkle.

Lane stated, "I believe that my record while serving you as district clerk will speak for itself, and it will show that I am qualified to render you the service that you are entitled to have."

In Buena Van Winkle's statement, she said, "I am running for the office of district clerk solely on my qualifications and ability to handle the job if elected to this important office."

LET'S DON'T FORGET TO VOTE

Saturday is election day. It is the day on which you will reaffirm your belief in the American constitution, the Declaration of Independence and the purposes of deaths of World War I, World War II and of the current Korean war.

Or on this day you will disavow these beliefs by not voting.

It is not just your right to vote, it is your duty as a responsible citizen. We will be denying our inheritance—every one of us—if we do not find the time to vote.

Our failure to go to the polls is an open declaration that we do not wish or cherish the responsibility of ruling this country.

Going to the polls is a direct expression of our individual beliefs that a government of the people is the best type of government.

When we fail to go to the polls, we deny our belief in this principle.

Hickman Visits Home Town Today

Judge J. E. Hickman, chief justice of the Texas supreme court, and Mrs. Hickman are visiting in Eastland this weekend.

Judge Hickman is the former Chief Justice of the 11th court of Civil Appeals at Eastland. He is continuing his residence at Eastland.

BULLETIN

TOKYO, July 21 (UP)—The Communist forced a new American retreat today with a blazing offensive southeast of fallen Taejon.

Appeal Made To Students All eight grade and senior high school students who would like to play in the high school band are asked to meet at the band hall 7 p.m. Monday.

Stanley Webb, stated, "Since I have been your tax assessor-collector, expenses and costs of government have increased considerably, but your county tax rate of .60c per hundred value has been maintained."

Webb observed, "I invite a careful investigation of my record and character in your consideration of my candidacy."

In the race for representative, 106th district, T. M. Collie is opposed by E. M. Threatt. Collie stated, "I am opposed to new taxes and increased spending. Threatt countered, "I am against new taxes, except on sources escaping taxation. I am for everything reasonable that will be for the best interest of our school system, and for the welfare of the old people of the state."

The other two man race is for county treasurer where Joe Collins, incumbent, is opposed by H. A. McCanlies.

Returns will be posted on the board on the south side of the courthouse in Eastland as usual, but this year, portable bleachers will be set up so that those who wish may observe the results as they come in and are posted on the board.

5,000 TURN OUT FOR THURS. NIGHT RODEO; EXCITEMENT

A larger crowd than the 5,000 at the rodeo arena Thursday night is expected for the Jaycee rodeo tonight.

A greased pig scramble among 4-H and Future Farmer boys in the county for six registered Jersey heifers valued at $200 apiece furnished the extra excitement last night. Six losers in the event and six more county boys will chase after more greased pigs tonight to win registered gifts.

Last night's winners were Tom Moody, Ranger Junior, high 4-H club; Byron Galley, Ranger FFA club; Jerry Jones, Ranger 4-H club; J. L. Barnes, Ranger FFA club; Marvin Turner, Straw FFA and James Pruitt, Straw FFA.

The self-perpetuating event is sponsored by Ranger business men.

Calves, horses and bulls proved a little tougher for the cowboys last night with no one breaking the top times of Wednesday night, the opener.

Booger Red Dixon of Breckenridge and Harold Watson of Belton possibly made the best ride in the bareback bronc riding contest. Guy Weeks, Abilene, Bud Hull, Snyder; M. H. Woters, Fort Worth; Red Walker, Belton; all stuck to their ponies.

Even the ladies were a little slower than those of last night. But the hand was a little bigger as teenagers came out to try for the barrel race. One of the better times was set by very young, very small Janelle McGivray of Merit—14.3; Wynona Barnett, Gateville, another pretty miss, scored.

26 Precincts In County Prepare For Primaries

Officials of the county Democratic committee are busy sending out ballots to the 26 precincts where voters will decide election questions Saturday.

The ballots are placed in the boxes of the individual precincts and locked. They then are taken to the precinct chairmen. The boxes will remain locked until Saturday, voting day.

County Clerk Virgil Love predicted that balloting would exceed 6,000 in Saturday's primaries in Eastland County.

In previous years, citizens have voted in 22 precincts of the county. Precinct 21, the Mangum Community precinct, has been dropped from the list.

Four cities, Eastland, Ranger, Cisco and Rising Star, are the homes of two precincts. Precinct one and two are in Eastland. One is in the courthouse, with P. L. Parker as chairman, and two is in the city hall with J. C. Allison as chairman.

In Ranger, precinct three is located in the city hall and W. W. Paschall is the chairman. Precinct four, the other Ranger precinct, is located in the Young School with A. H. Powell chairman.

Cisco has precincts five and six. W. R. Houston is chairman of precinct five, the east Cisco precinct. Chairman of the West Cisco, precinct six, is Fred Grist.

Raymond Gray is chairman of the Rising Star West Precinct, seven, and Fred Robertson is chairman of the East precinct, eight, there.

ARMED FORCES RUSH CALLING OF RESERVES

WASHINGTON, July 21 (UP)—The armed forces indicated to a fastmoving congress today that they want at least 600,000 to 700,000 more men in a hurry.

Their spokesmen did not give figures, except to say that the present legal limit of 2,005,000 will be exceeded. It would take 550,000 to reach the limit.

The military men testified before the senate and house armed services committees. After hearing their brief explanations of the situation, the committees in rapid-fire order approved bills to remove the present 2,005,000-man limit on the size of the armed forces and to extend all expiring enlistments for one year.

The military spokesmen said their mobilization plans call for a hurry-up expansion of the armed forces from the present 1,458,000 officers and men to well above 2,005,000.

They said the Air Force may ask authority to draft some World War II combat veterans if it fails to get enough men from its reserves or through enlistments. Most veterans are exempt from the draft under existing law.

The two bills approved today were the manpower measures asked for by President Truman in his Korean crisis message to Congress Wednesday.

The house will vote on both next Tuesday. The senate schedule was not disclosed immediately, but early action and passage seemed certain.

Senate committee approval of the two bills was unanimous. In the house group, Rep. Harry L. Towe, R., N. J., cast a lone vote against them. He said he would oppose them "until they (defense officials) say what they are going to do."

Brig. Gen. C. V. R. Schuyler, chief of the Army's planning branch, told the house committee the call for more fighting men was decided upon by the joint chiefs of staff. He said the joint chiefs also agreed that possible developments in Korea or elsewhere could mean a further "up-

US Must Brace For Big Taxes

By Lyje C. Wilson

United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, July 21 (UP)—Americans must brace themselves now for the heaviest tax burdens ever imposed upon them.

The alternative of reducing other classifications of government expenditure as hot-cold war costs zoom has been firmly rejected by President Truman.

It appears now that he will ask Congress for authority to spend approximately $57,500,000,000 in the current fiscal year. That represents the $42,400,000,000 budget for spending before fighting began in Korea, plus a $10,000,000,000 emergency national defense appropriation and a $5,000,000,000 emergency fund further to arm our Allies.

That rate of expenditure would

Here is a comparison of some items of government spending in 1939 and the budget estimates for 1951:

	1939	1951
$1,077,000,000	$13,546,000,000 (x)
Veterans	559,000,000	6,080,000,000
Foreign Aid	19,000,000	4,711,000,000
Housing and Community Work	154,000,000	1,329,000,000
Agriculture	1,198,000,000	2,206,000,000
Other Natural Resources	228,000,000	2,218,000,000
Transportation	498,000,000	1,682,000,000
General Government	560,000,000	1,267,000,000
National Debt Interest	941,000,000	5,625,000,000
Social Welfare, Etc.	3,946,000,000	2,714,000,000

set up a prospective deficit of about $20,000,000,000 for fiscal 1951. Spending for fiscal 1952 and for some years thereafter probably will be as great or greater.

Taxpayers will have to pay into the treasury vaster sums than they put up in any World War II year to cut the prospective series of deficits down to safe size. The alternative would be to permit the national debt to continue the steep climb it began back in 1930 and continued with only two interruptions since—in 1947 and 1948.

Truman may startle Congress and the nation this autumn with a request that treasury revenue be increased by $10,000,000,000 or more a year by new tax levies.

That would hike treasury revenue somewhat beyond its best World War II year, 1945, when taxpayers poured nearly $44,800,000,000 into Washington. World War II taxation was high enough to put the nation about half way on a pay-as-you-go basis. We were about one third on a pay-as-you-go basis in World War I.

To avoid a dangerous inflationary increase in the national debt, Truman is expected to go far beyond halfway "pay-as-you-go" for the current hot-cold war.

After World War II, government spending never got back to anything comparable with pre-war levels. That was true after World War I, also.

Nichols Goes For Sweet Spud Brunch Lunch

By Harman W. Nichols
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, July 21 (UP)—the palate-tickling potentialities of a sweet potato "brunch" are fascinating.

I got the idea from the agriculture department. And as soon as I can fire the stove and get mama to gather the ingredients, I'm going to spread a fine table.

The research people say that sweet potato products are not as well as interesting. More about the research later.

Now for the proposed brunch menu:

For a starter you can serve a bulging bowl of yams, capped with peaches and cream. To that you can add a dish of plain sweet potatoes, southern brown bread, or biscuits if you like, and pie and ice cream for dessert. And for a drink, how about a yam-shake, a thing made out of sweet potatoes, among other things.

As a matter of fact, everything made above can trace its ancestry to the yam.

As you may have guessed, the whole idea was born in the South—Alabama, to be sure, where the sweet potato is sort of king.

The agricultural experiment station of the Alabama polytechnic institute has been conducting a nationwide poll on some new products, all yamwise, in cooperation with the agriculture department here.

A new product, which can serve many purposes, soon may be on the market. It's called "alayam." The "Ala" of course, stands for Alabama, from whence it came. The "yam" speaks for itself.

The Alabama people went around the country feeling the pulse, and testing the nation's palate.

Among the products was the "alayam" snack. It's made out of sweet potato, coconut and sugar. The reaction was divided. The folks in the South said they loved it dearly. A few Northerners turned up their noses. Flavor of the snack was a rich blend of coconut and caramel. Blindfolded, even the Northerners had to admit they couldn't detect the taste of sweet potatoes, as-if there is anything wrong with that.

Actually, I did taste some of the "alayam" candy made of sweet potatoes, coconut and a touch of sugar. Doggone good, too.

The candy is a golden yellow, with a slight brownish tinge. The man said that, when properly packed and kept cool, it would keep its brittleness for a long time, but that when exposed it acted like any other candy. It wits.

The agriculture department is right behind the fine folks from Alabama. In cooperation with M. J. Funchess, director of Alabama Tech, at Auburn, Ala., it has a flock of interesting recipes. Things like interesting recipes: devil's food, sweet rolls and coffee cakes, white bread and cookies, including butterscotch. All with a sweet potato base. Don't write me.

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY

The following written and paid for by a group of service men of World War One and Two.

We are supporting Clabe Eldridge for County Judge for several reasons: First, we have done our part keeping Judge Crossley in office for the past three terms and feel that to be fair that we should pass it on to another worthy buddy and friend. Second, we think Buddy Eldridge well qualified to handle the affairs of the office in a business like and dignified manner that will be above reproach. We think it a good policy to elect one who has been successful with his own affairs to care for the important office of County Judge. We know him to be just, fair and courteous in all his dealings with fellow men.

Third, he is a veteran of World War One and a true, tried and sympathetic friend to all, more especially comrades and buddies. We believe that he will at all times grant us our just dues and see to it that we have a voice in our local affairs.

And lastly we are supporting him because we have known him to be a clean man, fearless and tireless worker, at all times striving to do the right thing. We believe in and trust him. That's why we are supporting him, Will You Support Him Too?

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY

I believe a vote for me for County Judge means a vote for the best interest of every person in the county. I promise you that I will be fair and impartial, being at all times courteous and kindly to all alike. I will practice and mete out plain justice in preference to legal technicalities. I will fight for and obtain the maximum aids for our Farm to Market roads, the aged and needy, our various clubs and civic organizations. In short, I will sanction and support every worthy cause with every energy and means at my commands.

Again I assure you that I am well qualified to try any and all cases coming under the jurisdiction of the County Judge. I will finish a law course and obtain my license as quickly as possible.

I shall not forget my duty and imitations toward the Commissioners Court, co-operating with and aiding it in every way possible, remembering always that I am your humble servant and am your county judge because of you.

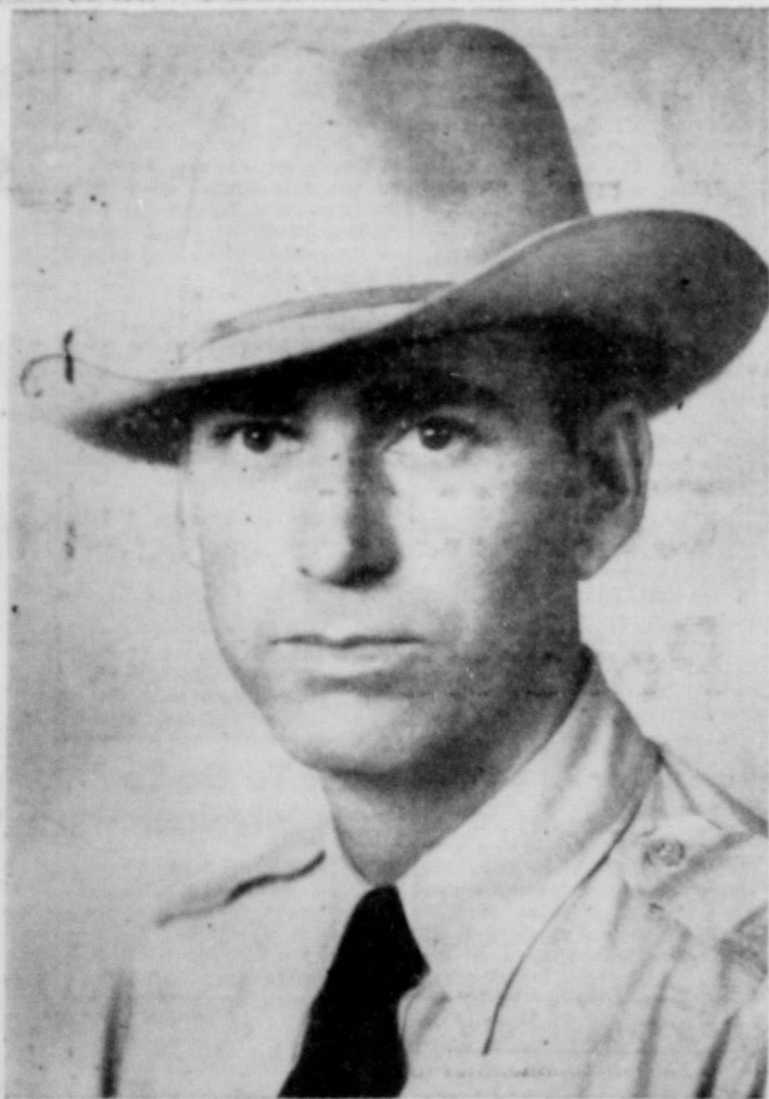

If you elect me I want you to come in to see me, be my true friend and help me in every way you can and by so doing we can make it what it should be. "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." Nothing can be made better until it is changed.

If you elect me I'll do my part to make you glad you supported me.

Your friend,
C. S. (Clabe) ELDRIDGE

Shivers—Case March Furnish Only Real Election Year Color; Voters To Tell Wishes Saturday

By O. B. Lloyd, Jr.
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN, July 21 (UP)—Democratic voters from West of the Pecos to East of the Sabine go to the polls tomorrow, taking their pick of 48 primary candidates vying for 12 state offices.

Momentarily, the Korean war will take a back seat. Politics, at least while the ballot is being pushed into the box, will come to the fore.

Even with the blessings of good weather, voter turnout was expected to be comparatively light. Rain in the rural areas would cut the potential even more.

Estimates of the total vote ranged from a low of about 700,000 to a high of perhaps 900,000. Virtually all observers believed the vote would be less than 1,000,000, far under the 1,205,257 votes cast in the first primary of 1948. However, that was a presidential election year, a politician's bank night in bolstering the ballots.

Political interest hit the lowest tide in more than a decade in the current campaign. The customary seasoning of at least one hot issue was missing from the start. What little voter interest remained was smothered with the opening of the Korean war.

Of the 48 candidates, seven are seeking the top spot of governor.

That field is paced by Gov. Allan Shivers, 42 and seeking his first elective term as chief executive of Texas.

Shivers has staged a relatively quiet campaign, sidestepping clear of controversial issues and relying on a series of radio talks sandwiched between a steady schedule of personal appearances.

His platform was summed up as "conservation of water, soil—and human resources."

His prime opponent is Case March, former law school professor now making a third bid for nomination as governor. March, traveling in a campaign cottage mounted on a flat-bed trailer, has promised increased pensions for the old folks, decreased taxes for the home owner and increased tax on natural gas. He claims wide labor backing.

Others in the gubernatorial race include Mrs. Benita Louise Marek Lawrence, 34-year-old Brenham school teacher and the only woman to file in this year's campaign; Wellington Abbey of Houston, business manager for the Cotton Digest; Gene S. Porter, a Houston insurance man; Charles B. Hutchison, a Dallas contractor; and J. M. Wren, Houston oil drilling contractor.

Mrs. Lawrence has been ill and has not actively campaigned for the office.

Shivers, former lieutenant governor, succeeded to the governorship with the death of Gov. Beauford Jester a year ago. He goes into the election holding the natural advantage of any incumbent.

The lieutenant governor's race was crowded with 12 contestant candidates.

Of that field, seven have had experience in the state legislature. One is a retire Houston banker, two are former gubernatorial candidates, one is president of the Texas safety council, and another is a Negro preacher.

Those with a legislative background included Kyle Vick of Waco, G. C. Morris of Greenville, Fred (Red) Harris of Dallas, all state senators; and W. O. Reed of Dallas, former secretary of state Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, Roger J. Evans of Denison, one-time gubernatorial candidate, and Preston Smith of Lubock, all present or former members of the house.

Others seeking the lieutenant governor's post included Virgil Arnold of Houston, making his third race; R. B. McAshan of Ingram, retired Houston banker; Arlon (Cyclone) Davis, Jr., of Dallas, former gubernatorial and U. S. senatorial candidate; P. E. Womack of Austin, Negro minister, and Pierce Brooks of Dallas, insurance man and president of the Texas Safety Council.

Attorney General Price Daniel, Railroad Commissioner William J. Murray, Jr., and State Treasurer Jesse James are unopposed.

James L. Alred, 31-year-old Mansfield publisher and no kin of former Governor James V. Alred, is opposing Bascom Giles for re-election as general land commissioner.

Chfford E. Butler of Houston, making his second race for the office, is opposing Robert S. Calvert, seeking his first elective term as state comptroller.

J. E. McDonald, at odds with the Democratic party leadership and victor in recent court action where the executive committee attempted to oust him from the primary ballot, has drawn three opponents as candidates for state agriculture commissioner.

They are John C. White, Wichita Falls, vocational agriculture teacher at Midwestern University; T. A. Fairley, manor farmer; and Charles S. McLennan, Eagle Lake, legislator.

McDonald, elected to 10 consecutive terms, has held office since 1931.

Candidates for court posts include: Criminal Appeals—W. A. Morrison, district judge and former legislator; G. H. Nelson, Lubbock, former legislator; Robert A. Latimore, Dallas, former assistant attorney general; James Hill Letts, Houston attorney; Joel W. Cook, Fort Worth, former assistant district attorney; David Wuntch, Tyler, former assistant attorney general; Cecil Storey, Longview, state representative.

Supreme Court, place 1—Fagan Dickson, Austin, former assistant attorney general; Will Wilson, Dallas, district attorney and former assistant attorney general; Walter L. Wray, Dallas, attorney.

Supreme Court, place 2—Robert W. Calvert, Hillsboro, former speaker of the house and former chairman of the state Democratic executive committee; Alfred M. Scott, Austin attorney; R. H. Harvey, Atlanta, appointed by the late Gov. Beauford Jester and seeking return to the court.

Supreme Court, place 3—George Harwood, Dallas, former county judge; Matt Davis, Gilmer, former legislator; Meade F. Griffin, Plainview, incumbent associate justice seeking election who was named to the court by the late Governor Jester, and Robert B. Keenan, Gladewater attorney.

Mrs. Lawrence has been ill and has not actively campaigned for the office.

Shivers, former lieutenant governor, succeeded to the governorship with the death of Gov. Beauford Jester a year ago. He goes into the election holding the natural advantage of any incumbent.

The lieutenant governor's race was crowded with 12 contestant candidates.

Of that field, seven have had experience in the state legislature. One is a retire Houston banker, two are former gubernatorial candidates, one is president of the Texas safety council, and another is a Negro preacher.

Those with a legislative background included Kyle Vick of Waco, G. C. Morris of Greenville, Fred (Red) Harris of Dallas, all state senators; and W. O. Reed of Dallas, former secretary of state Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, Roger J. Evans of Denison, one-time gubernatorial candidate, and Preston Smith of Lubock, all present or former members of the house.

Others seeking the lieutenant governor's post included Virgil Arnold of Houston, making his third race; R. B. VOTE FOR P. L. Crossley FOR COUNTY JUDGE

You have been told that a lower county valuation and a HIGHER tax rate will save the County money in that the taxes that now go to the State would go to the County. In 1948, THE PEOPLE voted a Constitutional Amendment ABOLISHING all State Tax for General revenue purposes, beginning January 1, 1951. There CANNOT BE any State Tax beginning next year. There are other reasons, Constitutional and Statutory why this cannot be.

Your property HAS NOT been raised. Lands are on the roll for $54.50 and $9.00, as for many years. Remember a great amount of property heretofore not on the roll and UNTAXED, has been put on the roll. Remember there has been much new construction, repairs and improvements since the WAR. Except for adjustments there has been no property raises on your homes or lands.

DO NOT BE MISLED BY LAST MINUTE STATEMENTS NOT BASED ON FACTS

VOTE FOR P. L. Crossley FOR COUNTY JUDGE

I will greatly appreciate your support in my race for re-election as County Judge, next Saturday at the polls.

I hope you will consider QUALIFICATIONS and the matter of QUALIFICATIONS is important and is reflected in every act of a county judge. In trials of CIVIL and CRIMINAL cases, it is only natural that if you, your relative, or neighbor were being tried or if you were suing some one or being sued, that you would want some one who was to some extent QUALIFIED to sit as judge in the case.

I promise to continue to handle the affairs of the office as I think the people want it handled, bearing in mind that we are handling the people's money, and will endeavor as I have in the past, to be as economical with the peoples money as we should be in our own personal affairs.

I trust you will not be swayed by last minute statements which cannot be substantiated by facts, and that you will weigh all the facts. Do not let anyone tell you that a 60c tax rate is not better than $1.16 tax rate. One does not have to think to figure this out. Check the taxes you are paying and see for yourself.

If I am re-elected, I promise continued low tax rates, low valuations, assistance in every way possible to the needy aged, including hospitalization and very possible help to the indigent of our county and strict, courteous, QUALIFIED attention at all times to all county business coming before me.

SINCERELY,

VOTE FOR T. E. (Ed) Castleberry For COMMISSIONER Precinct No. 1

We want to bring to the attention of Ranger voters a few of the many services and benefits to Ranger citizens that have been accomplished under the administration of Mr. T. E. (Ed) Castleberry, in addition to the remarkable record he has made in changing the financial status of his precinct from the strained condition it was in at the time he took office to the present healthy condition.

During the administration of Mr. Castleberry the Caddo highway was finally widened and resurfaced. Of course that project had been in process for a number of years, but due to his perseverance and co-operation with the State Highway Department it was successfully concluded in 1949. He is currently co-operating with the State Highway Department in the widening and resurfacing of Farm to Market road 101, which is the road to Breckenridge from Ranger. It was also under the administration of Mr. Castleberry that the Farm to Market road to Cheaney from Ranger was concluded, giving the merchants of Ranger access to the trade territory from the communities to the Southeast of Ranger.

The recent chatting of many City streets in Ranger was largely made possible by Mr. Castleberry moving in a tractor and loader, and loading city trucks as well as County trucks, without charge to the city. He has on numerous occasions moved earth moving equipment to the Ranger Country Club and sent his men to operate them in improving the grounds and fairways of the Country Club.

Mr. Castleberry has always been impartial in his purchases of materials and equipment, and a very conservative estimate of the amount he has spent in Ranger for those items has been placed at $10,000.00, which amount included three trucks purchased from local dealers.

Mr. Castleberry is making his campaign for re-election solely on his merits and has not, nor will he, cast any reflection on the record or qualifications of his opponents. We sincerely believe that a vote for T. E. Castleberry is a vote for continued progress and financial betterment of Eastland County, and we earnestly request that you investigate the record and qualifications of T. E. Castleberry before casting your vote for County Commissioner Precinct No. 1.

American Diplomats Try To Win Peace While GI's Win The Wars

By Harry Ferguson
 United Press Foreign News Editor
 Strange things happen in this strangest of all wars in which the United States has been involved. At a time when Americans are locked in battle in Korea and calling for more and deadlier weapons, an American representative in the United Nations rises and pleads for disarmament. He does not mean that we should take away the guns, tanks and planes that are being used in Korea, or that we should not send any more weapons to the battle fields.

But Frank C. Nash, American delegate to the U. N. conventional armaments commission, did state that it was the long-range policy of this government to disarm and to try to persuade all other nations to do likewise.

The explanation of this paradox is that America is really fighting two wars. Lieut.-Gen. Walton Walker and his troops in Korea are fighting one war. Nash and Secretary of State Dean Acheson are fighting another one—at the council tables—and before the bar of world opinion.

Too many times the United States has won the war and lost the peace. This time we are going to try to win both of them.

It is the job of Acheson and Nash to maintain America's moral position in the eyes of the world. They must keep hammering home the idea that the United States does not want war, does not covet any nation's territory, does not want to bear the burden of perpetual armaments and still cherishes the hope that some day nations can live in peace.

That is the reason we kept the record straight through every step that led to the fighting in Korea. We had the United Nations endorse our "police action." We formally asked Russia to intervene to halt the fighting. And yesterday we took two more steps: Nash urged that the U. N. continue to discuss disarmament and Acheson issued a white paper that

United Nations Recruiting Big Force To Help

By Bruce W. Munn
 United Press Staff Correspondent
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., July 21 (UP)—The United Nations is secretly recruiting a large expeditionary force from 15 to 25 nations to fight beside American G.I.s in Korea, informed sources indicated today.

This Allied force was in the making despite an almost total lack of public response by member nations to Secretary-General Trygve Lie's appeal for ground forces to join U.S. units at the front.

Eight or nine countries actively interested in sending troops to the UN's AEF already are consulting with Lie. A number of other states are consulting with Gen. Douglas MacArthur's UN command through Washington, the U. S. mission to the UN, or American embassies abroad.

It was believed that movements of the UN force will be kept secret until the Allied troops have landed on the Korean peninsula. Neither U.S. nor UN sources could confirm officially that a UN AEF was forming. But it was known that exhaustive consultations were going on in connection with problems of transportation, supply and standardization of arms.

U.S. sources said only that the American government was "encouraged by the initial response" to Lie's appeal for more aid and that it was expected that more states would be heard from.

So far, however, only two countries—Nicaragua and Thailand—have made any definite offer of foot soldiers since Lie sent his appeal for aid to 60 non-Communist nations.

Under the projected plan, the U.S. presumably would be called on to equip troops from other countries so that standard ammunition could be used. A program of standardizing the arms of the Western democracies to conform to weapons used by U.S. forces was started soon after the end of World War II. Even if other nations pledged forces now, it was pointed out, a considerable period would be required to train those troops in the use of U. S. arms.

Asked about this, U. S. sources said it would take "some weeks" before all arrangements could be made concerning material, supplies, transport, standardization of arms and other problems connected with fielding a unified AEF in Korea.

YANKS OF COURAGE WRITE TAEJON, KOREA INTO AMERICAN HISTORY BY FIGHT FOR TIME AGAINST FOE HAVING FIVE TIMES MORE MEN

EDITORS NOTE: Here is the battle of Taejon, as written in the pages of the history of the Korean campaign by the embattled 19th and 34th infantry regiments of the 24th division. A United Press War Correspondent reports that the valiant American stand at Taejon won valuable time for the building of the Allied counter-offensive to throw the Communists back across the 38th parallel border into North Korea.

By Rutherford Poats
United Press Staff Correspondent
SOMEWHERE IN KOREA,
July 21 (UP)—A game bunch of Yanks wrote "Taejon, Korea" in to American history this week. On the approaches to Taejon, and in the muddy streets of this city of clapboard shacks and jerry-built houses, the U. S. 24th Infantry Division fought its heart out against overwhelming odds and claimed a deadly price in blood for each yard it yielded. When they finally lost burning Taejon to the Red invaders of South Korea, the thinned ranks of the 24th had won the chief ingredient of eventual Allied victory. Three weeks ago these young Americans left carefree occupation life in Japan. Then for two weeks they took a bloody pounding. They gained time for two fresh American divisions and strong American air and naval forces to get in action. They fell back to the Kum river line before Taejon and there, for six days, they fought off well armed Communist forces at least five times stronger numerically. By all the books of military science they'd have been justified in pulling out without a fight for Taejon. They were in desperate need of rest, regrouping, and reinforcements.

The Red radio boasted that the invaders would march into Taejon—for a time the temporary South Korean capital—with hands playing and with "loyal Koreans" welcoming them in. They were welcomed, all right—by a hail of bullets and mortars. Yank generals and colonels took up rifles, machine guns and bazookas and fought beside their tired doughboys. Maj. Gen. William Dean, division commander, held his key headquarters staff in Taejon and personally led reconnaissance sorties. He even bagged a Red tank. If courage were the only factor, Taejon would still be ours. But there were other factors—ammunition, communications, and thousands upon thousands of North Korean infantrymen who kept filling the holes the red-eyed Yanks knocked in their ranks. The battle of Taejon opened one week ago today, when North Korean troops wearing peasant dress and captured American uniforms infiltrated across the Western Kum river line into and behind the U. S. 34th Infantry Regiment.

By dawn Sunday the regiment was forced to fall back from the river line to within 15 miles of Taejon. Under cover of darkness the Communists streamed through a 20-mile river front North of Taejon which the thinly spread 19th Regiment had held against a three-day assault by the Red divisions. The 19th was engulfed and fell back but it had done its work well. It took the Reds four days to patch up those two divisions. The Taejon attack was held up until a completely new division—believed to be the last the Reds have in reserve—was brought up. At 5:45 a. m. yesterday Communist artillery, tanks, and infantry opened an all-out attack. North Korean troops disguised in American uniforms infiltrated the city and tried to cut off any American withdrawal. The outnumbered Yanks fought from house to house in the burning city, twice broke through encirclements, knocked out more than a dozen enemy tanks, and withdrew to the Southeast around midnight without heavy losses.

Everyone is talking about the great new HADACOL. And why shouldn't they? HADACOL is one of the greatest blessings of the times. The relief it's bringing to thousands upon thousands of men, women and even children who suffer from such stomach distress caused by these deficiencies is simply wonderful! A very charming woman, Mrs. R.W.S., who lives at 910 North 20th Street, Fort Smith, Arkansas, sent the following letter to us and gave us permission to publish it. She writes:

"I've just finished taking my first bottle of HADACOL, and just that one bottle did something for me that other things failed to do. "I've had a weak stomach and my food did not digest properly. My tongue was covered with a thick coat which kept me sick to my stomach most of the time. "After taking about half the bottle, I could see that the coat on my tongue was leaving. Now it's almost gone, and I'm getting over the sick stomach feeling which bothered me. "My nerves are getting better gradually and I'm not nearly so tense. I'm beginning to enjoy my food for the first time in a long time."

Many Doctors Recommend HADACOL. Why keep on "doubting" that HADACOL will help you? Before giving up hope of obtaining relief, at least try HADACOL—at least give it a chance if your system is deficient in Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin. Remember, it's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. HADACOL MUST HELP YOU or your money will be refunded. HADACOL gives such fine results because it is not a quick-acting antacid which gives symptomatic relief—HADACOL actually relieves the REAL CAUSE of your stomach distress due to such deficiencies. And continued use of HADACOL helps keep such painful stomach distress from coming back to torment you. Know the joy of eating the foods you like without belching and suffering gas pains, heartburn and torturing indigestion afterwards when they are caused by such deficiencies. Big Improvement Often Noticed in Few Days. HADACOL not only supplies weak, run-down, deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin but also beneficial amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—so vital to help maintain good health. And these vitamins and minerals come in special liquid form so that they can be more easily and quickly absorbed and assimilated in the blood—ready to go right to work at once. HADACOL even reinforces your red blood cells (when iron is needed) to carry these healthful elements to every organ in your body—to the kidneys, lungs, liver and heart. Start taking HADACOL at once. HADACOL costs only a small amount a day. Trial-size bottle, $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. Photo by professional model. © 1950, The Lefflore Corporation.

ELECT L. R. PEARSON Representative 107th Dist.

To the Voters of the 107th Representative District:

We are addressing you this brief note about a very important matter—the 107th Representative District, comprising Eastland and Callahan Counties.

The office of Representative, as you doubtless know, is one of the lowest paid, but one of the most important in our State. The kind of state government we will have for the next two years will be determined, in a large measure, by the kind and character of men we elect to the Legislature on July 22nd.

The Legislature runs Texas. It not only makes our laws, but levies our taxes and spends the money. The Texas Legislature has grown until it is now a billion dollar institution.

We are convinced that Mr. L. R. Pearson is the best qualified man for this important job. He served us ably in the 49th and 50th sessions. He is sound and experienced. He knows state government. He does not favor spending the State into hopeless debt or high taxes. Whatever Pearson does, he does well. We will need his ability and good judgment in the 52nd Legislature which convenes next January.

We believe his election is in the interest of good government. Sincerely,

- |                               |                     |                           |

It Takes A Lot To Knock Down F-80 Jet Planes, KoReds Learn

By Charles Corbrey
United Press Aviation Writer

AN AIR BASE IN JAPAN, July 21, (UP)—When Lt. Donald B. Russell brought his F-80 jet plane in today from his 13th mission of the Korean war, one of the ground crew exclaimed:

"Them blankety blank Commies know what they have to do to stop one of these things!"

The left wing was all but gone, a gas tank had caved in, and there were bullet and flak holes in other places.

Russell, 29, is a mild little guy with smiling blue eyes and a generous portion of the staff jet pilots are made of. He is married and has a 2-year-old daughter, Ann, and a 7-month-old son. He calls Los Angeles his home although his family lives in Japan.

Russell was in a flight of three F-80 "Shooting Stars" of the 49th fighter-bomber group on a special mission to aid ground troops bottled up by the Communists North of Taejon.

"We saw trenches on the road and some trenches along a dike," he said. "On the first pass my rockets hit a tank, and just about that time I felt a heavy jar. One of the tank's guns or a gun along the dike had hit me."

Then he noticed a big hole in the wing, and momentarily reflected on all the ground he'd have to cover to get back to this base, with precious little landing space in between.

"But the aircraft seemed to fly all right, and I made three or four more passes and got a truck," Russell said. "The other two F-80s got a truck and a tank."

Why didn't he head for home when the plane was damaged?

"Well," he said, "I was kind of mad, and figured as long as the plane would fly I'd go ahead."

Also, he reasoned that if the North Koreans realized they hit him they would know they were aiming their guns correctly and "they might hit a lot more."

Russell, and other pilots on that mission, were commended for the Distinguished Flying Cross.

George Wilcox, Sr. Dies At Home In Cisco Thursday

CISCO (Sp.)—Funeral services for George T. Wilcox were held today at 3 p. m. in the Wesley Methodist Church at Cisco.

Wilcox sr., 60, died at his home in Cisco at 4:30 a. m. Thursday morning.

Wilcox suffered a heart attack two weeks ago while attending a livestock sale in Ranger.

Born in Dublin, July 1, 1890, Wilcox had lived in Cisco the past 12 years and in Eastland county since 1918. He was in the wholesale cattle business and had a cattle barn and trucks.

Wilcox was a member of the Methodist church. He married Miss Elizabeth Wood at Tolar, Texas, Oct. 3, 1909.

He is survived by his wife, four

Mrs. Alma Kincaid, 2125 East Adelaide, St. Louis, Missouri, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin, has turned into a regular clock-watcher since she has been taking HADACOL. Yes, she keeps her eye on the clock all day long, just waiting for breakfast, dinner and supper time. Imagine how unbearable life can be without enjoying good, wholesome food.

Here is Mrs. Kincaid's statement: "I have been taking HADACOL for over a year. Before taking HADACOL, I had stomach distress for quite sometime. Imagine how awfully hard it is to live a normal life when you can't eat such delicious things as tomatoes, oranges, grapefruit, etc., or drink milk without getting horrible cramps and upsetting your stomach. One day I took my husband's advice and got some HADACOL. A good friend of his told him of the fine results he had gotten from HADACOL. And now, since I have been taking HADACOL, I can eat anything I want and really enjoy it. I have a wonderful appetite, too—thanks to HADACOL. Naturally I recommend HADACOL to all my friends."

Yes, HADACOL is Truly Wonderful in the way it has helped countless thousands of folks whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL can help you, too, if you will just give HADACOL a chance.

If you suffer from stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and run-down condition, caused by such deficiencies, let HADACOL help you as it has helped others all over the country. Even hundreds of doctors are now recommending HADACOL to their patients suffering from such deficiencies.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance to benefit you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel great after the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50.

ward revision" on short notice. He said it is "fully apparent" that the Air Force and Navy will need more than their present legal limits of 502,000 and 666,882 men, respectively. They now have 408,000 and 454,000. The Army, he said, plans to expand from its present strength of 596,000 to just short of the legal limit of 837,000.

"Can you tell us if the plans are such as to at least reach the authorized strength (2,005,882 for all three services)?" asked committee chairman Carl Vinson, D. Ga.

"That is an absolute certainty," Schuyler replied.

"Then the plans visualize at least 2,005,882?"

"More," Schuyler said.

He added that there are tentative plans for reopening some World War II Army camps, but he did not say which ones.

Maj. Gen. Clovis Byers, testifying for the defense department, told the house committee that except for the Air Force there is no plan now to ask authority to draft World War II veterans.

Under the present draft law, only men 19 through 25 are subject to induction and veterans of the past war are exempt except in cases of men who served less than three months.

Vinson told the Army, Navy and Air Force to be ready to say Monday—probably in closed session—exactly what they now have in the way of men, ships, planes and tanks, and what they plan to get in the current military crisis.

Schuyler said the Army can equip all the men it needs for training purposes, but will have to buy "in some categories" to make them ready for battle.

Sons, G. W. Wilcox, W. B. Wilcox, G. T. Wilcox, Jr., all of Cisco; and M. M. Wilcox of Tucumcain, N. M.; two daughters, Mrs. D. H. Honea of Cisco, and Mrs. B. B. Murrell of Goldsmith; ten grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. S. T. Morris of Ft. Worth.

Rev. C. A. Warden officiated at the services. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Cisco.
