Plane Lifts Records For Several Months

WASHINGTON, May 14 (UP)—A neglected sister ship of the B-36 bomber has been setting weight lifting records for months without any fanfare, it was learned today.

The ship is the largest land plane in the world, the U. S. Air Force's almost forgotten C-99 transport. Only one of the six engine transports has ever been built and it is now assigned to the San Antonio, Tex., depot of the Air Material Command.

For several months, the C-99 has been carrying cargo loads three times those of commercial air flight planes. Its heaviest long range load so far has been a 2,600 mile, non stop flight from Sacramento, Calif., to Savannah, Ga., with 42 1-2 tons of cargo.

That's more than any other airplane has ever carried. But the C-99 has carried even more on short hops. According to Maj. Gen. Roger Ramey, Air Force Director of Operations, the plane may have carried as much as 100,000 pounds on some of its trips between Sacramento and San Antonio.

With the addition of four jet engines to the six piston types Air Force experts think they may be able to make the C-99 carry even more. The plane was designed to carry 50 tons of cargo for 2,000 miles. With jets, the experts feel they may be able to stretch the range to 2,400 miles.

Austin Doctor Named For Term

FORT WORTH, May 14 (UP)—Dr. H. L. Klotz of Austin was named to a two-year term as president of the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners at a Biennial meeting yesterday.

Dr. Howard Smith of Marlin was named vice president and Dr. M. H. Crabbs of Ft. Worth was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The board set its next meeting for June 14-16 in Austin.

Ranger Citizens Make News Times Is Everyone's Paper

Citizens of Ranger, perhaps you hadn't given it much thought or maybe you hadn't considered that you are the Ranger Times. What you do, what you like, and what you hope or dream for, is our watchword.

In editing the Times, I am trying to give you a newspaper of which you can be proud. A newspaper that is in reality a part of you and your family.

However, no man can be in enough places at one time to cover every item of interest in a town. Therefore the Times is appealing to you to pick up your telephone and call 224 when ever you have a news item which would aid in making your paper more enjoyable and would make the news coverage more efficient.

What is news? News is anything that happens that people want to know about. News is a timely event which happens in this area. Political meetings, resignation, elections, deaths, accidents, fires, funny stories, and crimes all constitute news. If the civic club to which you belong meets, elect officers, has a guest dignitary, a charter project, or a special meeting, it is news and the people want to know about it.

Church affairs, such as news of ministers, special services, elections, new buildings etc., are news. We want to know it and to print it when the town or country government or some council meets or has a gathering. Campaigns, drives, and good-will enterprise make the front page. School events such as elections, faculty changes, programs, breaks in schedules etc. make reader interest.

OHIO HEARS ABOUT ATOMS—Atomic Energy Commissioner Dr. T. Keith Glennan, left, chats with Ohio newsmen Joe Morton, center, of the Dayton Journal Herald and Murray Powers, of the Akron Beacon Journal, during two-day press conference at Case Institute of Technology, Cleveland. Glennan and other officials predicted new and better medicines and a higher standard of living as a result of present-day atom research. (NEA Photo).

Telephone Official Says Company May Provide Phone Centralization

William H. McAnally, manager of the local office of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company contacted the office of the Ranger Times after having read an editorial asking for Police Radios.

Mr. McAnally called in reference to the idea of the Editor of the Times whereby that a centralized telephone system could handle all of the calls for Cisco, Eastland, Ranger, and others, when the radios were installed. This would save the towns all a good deal of money aside from making law enforcement twice as efficient.

After the personal interview, Mr. McAnally wrote the following letter:

Mr. Darrell Holmes, Editor, Ranger Times, Ranger, Texas. Dear Mr. Holmes:

With reference to your inquiry regarding the Telephone Company's part in a centralized telephone system for your proposed County wide two way radio system for the Police Departments, I believe that my Company could provide the necessary wire connections to make this arrangement possible.

I am not able to quote the rate for this service now. Before the charges could be quoted, I would have to know all the actual requirements.

If I can be of any further assistance in this connection, please feel free to call on me.

Yours very truly, William H. McAnally, Manager

Former Commie To Make Movie

HOLLYWOOD, May 14 (UP)—Movie Director Edward Dmytryk, one of the original "Hollywood 10," signs contracts today to direct his first Hollywood picture since he was sentenced to jail in 1947 for defying a congressional committee investigating Communism.

The handsome, 42-year-old Dmytryk will direct "Mutiny," a story of the War of 1812, for King Brothers, an Independent Producing organization.

The director, who received a six month jail sentence four years ago for refusing to answer questions about Communist in Hollywood, went before the House UN-American Committee again three weeks ago and admitted he once was a Red.

Dmytryk said he refused to answer the committee's questions in 1947 because he believed Russia was sincere in wanting peace. Since then, he decided the Communist Party in America is guilty of treason, he explained.

Germany now has 275,000 hotel beds to accommodate the rising tide of tourist travel, according to Dr. Hans Bauman, head of the German Tourist Association.

Relations With Soviet Are Low

VIENNA, Austria, May 14 (UP)—American officials said today Soviet-American relations in Vienna have been plunged to their lowest point in 2 1/2 years by a shooting in the International Sector 10 days ago.

Cpl. Paul S. Greens, 28, of Rochester, N. Y., was shot and killed by an unidentified Soviet soldier while Greens was on duty as a military policeman.

U. S. High Commissioner Ambassador Walter Donnelly declared in a note to Soviet High Commissioner Vladimir P. Sviridov last week that the shooting was without provocation and irresponsible.

Donnelly said Greens and Cpl. Jack Morgan, of Keokuk, Ia., merely were trying to find out if two Soviet soldiers they saw walking through the International Sector shortly before 1 a.m. were on duty.

When the Americans said "halt" the two Soviet soldiers wheeled around. One opened fire with a machine pistol. Seven bullets struck Greens in the stomach. He died on the way to a hospital.

Morgan returned the fire and may have wounded one of the Russians. Both escaped, however, and Soviet authorities have made no attempt to produce them or a statement from them.

Late last week the Soviets broke off a joint Russo-American investigation of the shooting on grounds the Russians were on duty. The Americans had no right to accost them, and that the Americans fired first.

Donnelly rejected all the Russian charges. He offered 11 witnesses of the shooting for joint questioning. The Russians refused the offer.

Sul Ross Wins For Third Year

FORT WORTH, May 14 (UP)—Sul Ross College held permanent possession today of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Assn. Team Trophy which it won for the third straight year.

Harley May, 23-year-old Sul Ross cowboy, captured honors for his third year in a row as National All-Around Cowboy.

May also placed third in bull-dogging, bull riding and bareback bronc riding as the national Intercollegiate Rodeo Assn. ended competition last night in Will Rogers Coliseum.

The Sul Ross team finished comfortably ahead of New Mexico A & M in the race for the national team title.

American Planes Fight Chinks Around The Clock For Defense

TOKYO, Tuesday, May 15 (UP)—Thousands of fresh Chinese Communist Troops pushed the enemy's assault spearhead five miles into South Korea today in a bold daylight movement in defiance of near-record Allied machinegun and fire bomb attacks from the air.

More than 450 United Nations planes carried out an around-the clock offensive against the enemy massing for a three-pronged assault, and Allied infantrymen braced behind a bristling defense line for the next big battle.

UN ground forces waited behind booming artillery and 80 miles of barbed wire and minefields in their first static defense line since they stood with their backs to the sea in the tiny Pusan Beachhead last summer.

The Chinese streamed down trails South of the Great Hwachon Hydro-electric Reservoir and took up positions down Korea's central mountain spine from which they could strike at any moment to either East or West.

American artillery blasted the Chinese bridgehead, but UN infantrymen did not challenge the growing Red salient. Only on the extreme Eastern front, where North and South Korean troops fought a series of small, fierce battles, was the UN army on the offensive. The South Koreans were battling there for control of the Inje-Kansong highway.

There were three major threats to the Allied lines as the Reds reached what front reports described as the 11th hour of their buildup. They were:

1. A full Chinese Army Corps was reported massed on the East side of the Imjin River 20 to 25 miles North-Northwest of Seoul for an attack down the classic invasion routes to the devastated former capital.

2. A smaller concentration was growing West and Northwest of Kaeryong, about 80 miles North-northwest of Seoul, for a drive down the Pukhan River Valley against the Allies Han River bridgehead line.

3. Allied air spotters and fox patrols probing the 10-mile-deep no-man's land on the West Central Front reported Monday that the Chinese were massing near Kaeryong by night marches and daylight moves in small groups that offered poor targets to American air power.

Arnold told homicide detectives that he and Mrs. Noblitt had been on a "continuous drinking spree" since last Monday night. He said he threw the beer can at her when she refused to give him his billfold which she had hidden.

The empty can struck Mrs. Noblitt over her right eye and Arnold said she started bleeding badly. When Dr. Fred R. Gullford, who was called to the apartment a few hours later, arrived, the woman was dead.

Arnold said he came here from St. Paul and had worked at various jobs here. He said he was fired from his last job last Monday.

Funeral Held For C. A. Howell

Funeral services were held today for Columbus A. Howell, 64, Olden, who died Saturday at noon. Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church of Olden with interment in the Eastland cemetery. The Fatter White Funeral Home of Abilene was in charge of the arrangements.

Howell is survived by a number of children whose names were not available at press time.

Hawkins Well Hits Gas Vain

The A. J. Hawkins well, which is being drilled by the Deep Rock Oil Company with a sub-contract to the Oney Drilling Company, Albany, has been drilled down to 3370 feet. They have reached a small vein of gas which was barely enough to come out of the hole.

The contract calls for Ellenberger and they expect to hit the Mississippi at 3460.

TCU's fine closout boosted the frogs to third place with an 8-7 conference record. SMU and Baylor tied for fourth with 6-9 marks and Rice brought up the rear with only three wins in 15 starts.

Crimson Holiday

SHERIFF LANE cleared his throat. Lisa Farwell saw Court Grenable's face flush with anger, but he did not interrupt the sheriff, even though the sheriff had intimidated Court was guilty of Lavinia Grenable's murder. The sheriff continued:
'We learned that Court Grenable had run up a gambling debt in Chicago to the amount of $3000.'
Lisa looked at Court. So that was why he had tried to borrow the money from her.

The sound of a muffled cry filled the room. It was neither a scream nor an exclamation, but more like the whimper of a wounded animal trapped and in pain.
Gerl Palmer stood up from her chair. Her face was without a trace of color, other than that of her vivid hair. Her lifeblood seemed to have run out of her veins and her eyes were great dark chasms in her white face.
'Oh, stop it!' Gerl screamed at them. 'Of course I did it. I killed Lavinia Grenable. I killed Andrew Grenable. I killed them both. I cut the brake while Lavinia slept and hid the saw in the coach house, because I knew Elizabeth often went there and it would look like she killed her sister.'
'Why?' The question came from the sheriff.
'I had to get rid of her... she wouldn't let Court marry me, even when I told her I was carrying his child!'

New Wonder Weapons May Be Used By GIs In Korean War By Summer

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, May 14 (UP)—Some of the new "wonder weapons" developed by the U.S. Army to help the overburdened infantryman may go into action on the Korean battlefield within a few months, informed sources said today.
Among them may be an electrically controlled .50 caliber machinegun, a 25-ton airborne tank that can destroy the Russian-made T-34 tank, a new automatic rifle weighing only 6 1/2 pounds, and a recently-developed helicopter capable of delivering three tons of supplies.
Some of these weapons were mentioned by Maj. Gen. A. C. McAuliffe, Chief of the Army Chemical Corps, in a speech at Atlantic City, N. J., last Friday.
McAuliffe said the U. S. was developing "wonder weapons" which are the "basis for our hope of avoiding World War Three." He indicated the weapons would help overcome the overwhelming numerical advantage of America's "potential enemies."

notification, much less given us an explanation," Humphrey said.
Reporters for the Press said they got only "no comment" from base authorities in response to inquiries of any kind.
Anderson said the ban did not extend to other newspapers or the wire services.
Humphrey said, in the absence of any formal notification, "I guess it must be a question of who knows best how to run the newspaper—the editor or the general?"
Anderson acknowledged that the Press coverage of a B-36 crash which killed 25 men at Albuquerqu, N. M., May 6 precipitated his order. Widows or near relatives of 14 of the victims live in Fort Worth, and the Press layout on the crash the following day included photos of several and interviews with many of them.
Humphrey said the families consented to interviews and the Press received no complaints from any source as a result of its reporting. "We did an outstanding job," Humphrey said.

Beef Goes Under Fixed Price

WASHINGTON, May 14 (UP)—All beef sold in all retail stores across the nation went under fixed dollars - and - cents price ceilings today.
On the average the prices ought to be about what the housewife paid in January, the Office of Price Controls said.
Starting today beef must be displayed in different trays according to quality - choice, good, commercial and utility. The ceiling prices go into effect immediately but retailers have until June 2 to post them where all customers can see.
This is the first time dollars-and-cents ceilings have been placed on any major consumer item since World War II controls ended.

Reporters Are Barred From Air Force Base

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 14 (UP)—Reporters of the Fort Worth Press were barred from Carswell Air Force Base today, and Maj. Gen. Samuel C. Anderson said the lockout stemmed from "sensational" coverage of a B-36 Superbomber crash.
Anderson, commander of the 8th U. S. Air Force and ranking officer at Carswell, home base of the B-36 fleet, said representatives of the Press would be kept out "until we can work out some sort of policy for them to leave our people alone and print factual reports."
Walter Humphrey, editor of the Scripps-Howard newspaper, said the matter would be taken up with Anderson's superiors in Washington. He said the General's order had not been explained to the newspaper. "Carswell hasn't even done us the courtesy of an official

Baylor Denied Use of Star

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., May 12 (UP) — The Southwest Conference today passed until a later date any action on making freshmen eligible for varsity competition and denied Baylor University use of a star schoolboy athlete for two years for a recruiting violation.

Conference Secretary Howard Grubbs said that after lengthy discussion the conference faculty committee voted 4-2 to delay action until the need for use of freshmen became more acute. A mail vote then would be in order, he said.

It was the second time this year the conference had kept freshmen off varsity teams. An earlier mail vote on the matter failed prior to the spring sports season.
The committee voted to make Bob Easley, highly-sought back from Houston Reagan High School ineligible for two years if he enrolls at Baylor because a Baylor alumnus had taken Easley to a pro exhibition game in Dallas last fall.

Grubbs said it was the committee's feelings that if he had been taken to a game on the Baylor campus, no violation would have occurred.

Investigators Ask For Plans

WASHINGTON, May 14 (UP) —The Senate Committee investigating Gen. Douglas MacArthur's dismissal has formally asked the administration to supply its plans for trying to negotiate a Korean War settlement, it was learned today.

Sen. William F. Knowland, R., Calif., said the committee has forwarded his request but that he did not know what the answer would be.

The prospects of negotiating an acceptable settlement of the Korean war without enlarging it and without "appeasement" is one of the questions which has been in the forefront of the dispute between MacArthur and the Administration.

To hear more of the Administration viewpoints, the Senate Armed Services - Foreign Relations Committee scheduled another session today (at 10 a.m. EDT) with defense secretary George C. Marshall, who spent six days before the committee last week.

Knowland has asked for the text of a proposed presidential declaration, which was never issued, on the Korean war and for a State Department document setting forth the basis of proposed negotiations — if Communist China agreed to negotiate.

There has been no indication yet whether the Administration may be wary of letting these become public and tipping its hand on what it would consider acceptable terms. Knowland said the documents should be supplied to the committee and that the committee should decide whether to make them public.

Marshall has testified that negotiations with 13 other Nations about the proposed Presidential declaration had collapsed after MacArthur offered on March 24 to convene with the Chinese field commander in Korea about a truce.

The Defense Secretary has not disclosed proposed settlement terms except to say that the Administration would oppose giving Formosa to Red China or allowing China to "shoot her way" into the United Nations.

Truck Driver Rapes Child

MIAMI, FLA., May 14 (UP) —Police said a rape charge would be filed today against 38-year-old truck driver accused of assaulting a four-year-old child while out on a drive, with her 24-year-old baby sitter.

The baby's mother called police when she returned home and found the little girl bleeding. Doctors said she had been criminally assaulted and described her condition as "only fair."

The baby-sitter told police she took the child along on a drive with Noah B. Widden. She said he stopped the car, knocked her down and attacked the girl in her presence.

Police said Widden, a bachelor, had no previous criminal record. The baby-sitter was held as a possible accessory because she did not report the attack.

'Kick-Off' Dinner Monday Night

This evening at 7:30 in the basement of the Methodist church the first of a series of three cover-dish dinners will be served to the various committees and members of the church, in keeping with the educational program of stewardship adopted unanimously by the Board of Stewards some 5 weeks ago. For the past 4 weeks, information has gone into the homes of the people via letters from various members of the church concerning the needs, the plans, the responsibilities, and our pledges to the church and its program. In addition to these personal letters, people in the church have made brief talks at all services, assemblies, Church school classes, youth meetings, and public gatherings in the church. So thorough has been this educational program that the people are familiar with it, and seem ready to carry it through to completion.

Johnny Bates, general Chairman of the Steering Committee will be in charge of this evening's program. Individual tables will be set up for the 8 committees which are directly responsible to the Steering Committee. One large table will be made ready for members of the church who are present, but are not on one of the above mentioned committees.

One of the main attractions of the evening's activities is the principal address to be delivered by Dr. S. B. Thompson, head of the Social Science Department of McMurry College. He will speak on the subject: "The Historic Church—Why support it?" Dr. Thompson will seek to emphasize the value of the church and its place of importance in this community. He will also seek to prepare those who call themselves Methodists to increase their pledges so as to adequately meet the increased budget of the church for next year.

The Methodist people extend a cordial welcome to their friends to be present for this meeting and cover-dish dinner this evening at the church, 7:30 o'clock.

Sub-Deb Club Entertains Mothers In Pruet Home Sunday Afternoon

The members of the Sub-Deb Club honored their mothers with their annual tea on Sunday afternoon, May 13, at the home of Carolyn Pruet.

The spring theme was carried out in the flower decorations. The tea table was laid with a lace cloth over pink. The centerpiece was an old-fashioned bouquet of pink and white daisies and carnations in a white bowl on a mirror reflector which had a pink nosegay on each corner. Table appointments were milk glasses and silver.

Senior and junior members alternated in the receiving line, and freshman and sophomores had charge of the guest book. Senior girls presided at the tea table and all members assisted in entertaining guests in the living room and dining room. Music was provided throughout the afternoon by club members.

The girls were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. B. Pruet, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. M. Ruth Hamrick, club sponsor. One hundred guests enjoyed the hospitality of the girls.

Annual Dinner Tues. Night

The Child Study Association will have their annual dinner at the Regal Restaurant Tuesday at 7:00 p.m.

Installation of officers will follow at the home of Mrs. Allan Smith, 454 Pine Street. All members are urged to come.

Mary Martha Class Will Meet Tonight

The monthly business and social meeting of the Mary-Martha Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church will be this afternoon May 13 at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Homer Sumralls.

All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Charles Ashcraft, together with her sister, Mrs. Ida Witt of Glen Rose, Texas, and Miss Marjorie Witt of Fort Worth, Texas were in Colorado City, Texas Sunday for the Golden Wedding Anniversary of their sister and aunt, Mrs. Frank Brown and husband.
