"Storybook" Finish For Horned Derby

In what might be called a "storybook" finish, the toad by that name, entered by Frank Day and Bob Steele, won Eastland's third and largest annual Old Rip Horned Toad Derby, Saturday night over a field of 454 toads, to take first place money of $300.

The total of 454 entries eclipsed by 19 last year's entry mark of 435.

"Phillebaum," entered by Howell and Dalton of Stephenville ran second behind "Storybook" to take the $200 second money and "Carpoco" II, entered by Graham Ford Salvage, won their money of $100.

Approximately 1,000 spectators watched the toads race through 23 heats and the finals.

Heat winners were as follows: First heat, "Star of All Stars," entered by W. E. Tyler, Rising Star; "Citation" II, entered by J. B. Thomas, Ft. Worth, won the second heat; third heat, "Dizzy" entered by W. E. "Dizzy" Dean of Cisco; fourth heat, "Key Ring," entered by Scott W. Key, Houston.

McGraw; heat 19, "Skipper," entered by Price Crawley, Ranger; heat 20, "Old Transport," entered by Lovelace Transfer and Storage, Eastland; heat 21, "Storybook," entered by Steel and Day; heat 22, "Mildred," entered by the O. T. Live Ins. Co., Ft. Worth; and heat 23, "Phillebaum," entered by Howell and Dalton, Stephenville.

Professor Gets Last Laugh On Soviet Blasts

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (UP)—A Columbia University philologist had the last smykeh or radere today on the Iron Curtain. (The strange words mean "laugh" in Russian and Romanian.)

A Russian philologist journal loosed a hot attack on Dr. Mario A. Pei, noted writer on language and associate professor of romance philology. They tied him up with Winston Churchill as a "bourgeois scientist" and "Hitlerite" who wants all the world enslaved to speak English.

The attack came to Dr. Pei's attention in a Romanian publication, "Cum Verbm," which noted it was "translated from the Russian."

"In his opinion, the Indo-European languages, and the people who speak these languages are the best in the world, and English is a fair representative of them all," said the article indignantly. "Here we have an openly racialistic point of view which unites the Anglo-American racialists with their German confederates."

Indo-European languages, he reminded Russians, are spoken by most of the world's peoples—including Russians, Romanians and nearly every other nationality behind the Iron Curtain.

As for an international language, Dr. Pei is in favor of one—Esperanto.

He wrapped up that opinion and the list of white, black, red and brown peoples who speak Indo-European tongues and sent it off to the Romanian journal with a request for publication and a footnote:

"In all my works I have consistently advocated world peace, true democracy, racial equality, and the brotherhood of man. I see no reason to change this attitude merely because Soviet linguists now claim to have a monopoly on it."

Names Of Eight Texans On Army Casualty List

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (UP)—The Department of Defense has released the names of eight more Texas casualties in the Korean area, including one killed in action, six wounded and another injured.

Don Gene Hanes, 1323 Exeter, Dallas; Cpl. Francis Leon Fieri, Jr., 7135 Kusk, Houston, and Sgt. Darwin Eugene Herm of Texas City.

Bricklayers Get Raise

HOUSTON, Aug. 13 (UP)—Houston bricklayers, on strike in a wage dispute for three weeks, went back to work today after accepting a government-approved raise formula that boosted their hourly pay to $3.025 per hour.

KOREAN RED DELEGATES ARE ONLY FRONTS FOR REAL BOSS

One of the big mysteries of the Korean cease-fire conference is the identity of the real boss of the Communist delegation.

Who is the man who makes the day-to-day decisions on which the Reds shall stand firm and when they shall yield? Who will decide when to give the final word that may mean peace or war?

United Nations negotiators don't know. But they are convinced that he is not Gen. Nam Il, the senior Communist delegate and the only one who addresses the UN team during the conference sessions.

"Nam Il is very definitely coming into focus as a spokesman rather than a policy maker," an official UN spokesman in Korea said the other day.

In other words, the North Korean General is just a front man who parrots what is told him, who reads what is written for him, who follows the time schedule laid down for him.

Mrs. Evelyn Graham and the twin's nurse, Mrs. Dorothy Jordan, 42, who lives at the Graham home, refused to leave the flaming structure until they were forcibly rescued by a roomer.

Roger Gilleland, a 27-year-old truck driver, twice entered the house to carry the hysterical women to safety.

Both the children and Gilleland were unhurt. Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Jordan were burned seriously around the head, shoulders and upper body.

Whether the Chinese giving the orders is one of the two Chinese delegates to the talks or some shadowy figure who remains behind the scenes is not known.

The two Chinese delegates are Maj. Gen. Teng Hua, a former corps commander regarded as a rising politico-military figure, and Gen. Hsieh Fang, otherwise unknown.

Fang's position is particularly intriguing. Nam Il has been seen on numerous occasions to glance at him as if for a nod of approval. Fang sends him frequent notes, and even gives the final word before Nam Il agrees to recesses for lunch.

Nam Il moreover seldom speaks extemporaneously. Or if he does, he merely repeats what he has said before—the strict line laid down for him in advance. All his long speeches are prepared for him in advance.

He often has been seen to glance at his watch before reading a statement, as though to check his time schedule. He undoubtedly was following instructions when he sat in complete silence for two hours and 11 minutes last Friday.

Mother-Nurse Are Seriously Burned Hunting Twins

HOUSTON, Aug. 13 (UP)—A 31-year-old mother and her children's nurse were seriously burned early today trying to rescue 10-year-old twin girls they believed were trapped in a back room of their flaming home.

Cease-Fire Talks Still Deadlocked

Coast Guard Rescues Stuck Passengers

BOSTON, Aug. 13 (UP)—A sea-going shuttle service rescued 827 persons when the excursion steamer Nantasket ran aground on Peddock's Island in Boston Harbor during thick fog.

Coast Guardsmen, police and civilian sailors crowded around the 150-foot steamer and made more than 100 trips to shore with the passengers who were stranded on the vessel yesterday.

The steamer, carrying a Sunday crowd for an outing at Nantasket Beach, grounded on its second attempt to make the trip through Boston Harbor. The ship had been sent back because of the fog, but word was received later that the harbor had cleared.

The fog closed in again however, and the Nantasket grounded in mud less than 100 yards from the spot where she became mired two years ago with 693 passengers on board.

Ridgway Blasts Reds Insincerity

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (UP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said today that the Communists so far have "produced no concrete evidence of honest, peaceful intentions."

Ridgway, commander of the United Nations forces in Korea, said he "will now judge communist intentions not by words, but by performance."

He made the statement in a copyrighted radio-telegraph interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report.

"The ceaseless flow of falsehoods, perversion and slanted statements which continue to emanate from Communist-controlled public information media, together with the long record of Communist duplicity, deceit and faithlessness in contractual obligations," Ridgway said, "have dissolved all doubts in the minds of members of this command as to Communist objectives."

Ridgway said he faced a "unique" problem in asking troops to fight during cease-fire talks, but "our forces know why they fight and their spirits were never high." He said the UN has "an unbeatable battle team" in Korea.

Soviet Comments On West Point Cadet Expulsion

MOSCOW, Aug. 13 (UP)—The cheating scandal at West Point was due to "lack of interest in learning the profession of armed aggression" on the part of the cadets, Trud the official organ of the central council of the trade unions said.

The newspaper, in the first mention in the Soviet Press of the West Point affair, carried a satirical article ridiculing the U. S. Army's Chief of General Staff for attributing the cribbing to football.

"Clearly it wasn't due to cribbing that the cadets were expelled," the newspaper said, "but, due to lack of interest in learning the profession of armed aggression. Attacking an opponent's goal posts on a football field interested them more than attacking peaceful cities."

Eleventh Victim Dies Of Injuries

NEW ROADS, La., Aug. 13 (UP)—An inquest will be held today in the death of railroad engineer L. L. Rainey, 11th victim of Friday's disastrous steam-train-train crash near here.

Rainey's body was recovered yesterday when workmen excavated a place they had been working over for two days. Coroner J. C. Roberts said the body of the "Southern Belle" engineer was almost consumed by the heat of burning diesel fuel which sprayed over the wreck.

He was identified by personal effects found nearby.

Band Rehearsal Tuesday Night

Plane And Crew Of 12 Reported Lost In Alaska

KODIAK, Alaska, Aug. 13 (UP)—A Navy Privateer with 12 men aboard was reported missing today on a flight from Kodiak to Adak Island, bringing to four the number of planes lost in the northwest in the past three weeks.

Lt. Frank Brink, public information officer at the Naval operations base here, said the four-engine plane was last heard from yesterday at 9:34 a.m. Alaska time (9:34 p.m. EDT).

The plane reported its position at that time as 285 miles due west of Kodiak and said it had enough fuel to last until 4 a.m. (EDT) today.

Search planes covered the over-water flight route of the missing plane yesterday, but they were hampered by poor weather. Planes of the 10th Air Rescue Squadron at Elmendorf Air Force Base, Anchorage, stood by to take off as soon as possible.

The plane was a PB4Y-2. It carried nine enlisted men and three officers, Brink said. Their names were withheld.

Since July 21, three other planes have vanished in the northwest and today's report brought to 60 the number of persons aboard the four missing craft.

Mayor Crawley Invited To Dublin Rodeo

Mayor Price Crawley, Ranger, has been invited by Everett Colborn and Gene Autry, producers and owners of the Dublin Rodeo, to attend the Pre-Madison Square Garden Rodeo at Dublin, Texas, as their guest. This year the rodeo at Dublin will be on August 29, 30, 31, and September 1. Top cowboy performers from all over the United States attend the Dublin Rodeo and then board a special train for New York for the Madison Square Garden Rodeo, produced by Mr. Colborn.

COMMUNISTS INTENSIFY PROBE ATTACKS ON UN DEFENSE LINES

8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS Korea, Aug. 13 (UP)—Communist probing attacks spread like brush fires through the Korean hills today. Reports from the front indicated Red losses were heavy.

At least 12 enemy attacks, in strength from 50 to 500 men, were reported.

Eleven of the attacks were repulsed by nightfall without gain to the Communists.

In the sharpest fight, two Red companies slammed into Allied hill positions north of Inje on the eastern front. The battle was reported still in progress Monday night. There was no indication whether the Reds had made gains.

In the same sector, the Allied forces beat off an attack by a full battalion of Communists.

"At least" seven attacks by the Communists were repulsed west and northwest of Kumhwa in the old "Iron Triangle" area of the central front, reports said.

UN forces skirmished with Red troops south of the cease-fire conference city of Kaesong Monday. It was the sixth straight day on which UN and enemy patrols

NORTH KOREAN RADIO SAID NO PROGRESS IS EXPECTED

By Earnest Hoherecht United Press Staff Correspondent UN ADVANCE BASE BELOW KAESONG, Korea, Aug. 13 (UP)

—Cease-fire negotiations headed for another deadlock tonight when the North Korean radio said no progress could be expected unless the United Nations delegates changed their attitude.

Allied and Communist negotiators met for 78 minutes at Kaesong. A UN communique called the meeting "unproductive." The Reds clung to their insistence on a cease-fire line based on the 38th Parallel between South and North Korea.

The North Korean Pyongyang Radio said tonight that Gen. Nam Il, the tough REC Chief Negotiator, told the Allied negotiators that unless they changed their own stand—for a cease-fire line based on the present battle front—no progress could be expected.

Nam Il told Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, Chief UN Negotiator, that the conference would lose both its significance and its purpose unless they changed their position, Pyongyang said in a broadcast.

Nam bitterly criticized the Allied position.

Wolters AFB "Permanent"

DALLAS, Aug. 13 (UP)—Wolters Air Force Base at Mineral Wells is now officially a "permanent" installation.

Col. Edgar E. Glenn, Wolters commander, spoke in an interview over radio station WFAA yesterday that the "temporary" label had been removed. He said the permanent designation applies to the base only and not necessarily the headquarters of Air Force Engineers, currently established there.

Weak Roadbed Causes Wreck

SMITHFIELD, N. C., Aug. 13 (UP)—Atlantic Coast Line officials today blamed a rain-weakened roadbed for the derailment of its fast "Champion No. 29" in which 28 persons were injured.

Nine cars of the Miami-to-New York streamliner were spilled along the right-of-way early yesterday when the roadbed, which had been raised about six weeks ago, crumbled after the locomotive and first four cars had passed the weak spot.

Only 28 of the 800 persons aboard required medical attention and none was seriously hurt. Thirteen were admitted to hospital.

Lattimore Will Have Chance To Refute McCarthy Charges

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—A show-down on the alleged Communist connections of Prof. Owen Lattimore is now in the making. Prof. Lattimore will get a chance to testify in his own defense in open hearings before Nevada Senator Pat McCarran's Judiciary subcommittee. He has already testified in closed session.

In March, 1950, Wisconsin Senator Joseph R. McCarthy called Lattimore "the top Soviet espionage agent in America." At that time Prof. Lattimore was in Afghanistan for the United Nations. He cabled back his denials of the charge. His Washington attorneys threatened to sue McCarthy for libel.

When Lattimore returned in April, he testified before the Tydings Foreign Relations subcommittee that McCarthy was "a base and contemptible liar" and dared McCarthy to testify off the Senate floor that he was a Communist or a Soviet spy.

Senator McCarthy is a daily attendant at the new hearings, however, so he and Prof. Lattimore may again come face to face for further fireworks. Senator McCarthy is not a member of the McCarran committee, but a most interested observer. Some of the testimony that McCarthy wanted brought out before last year's Tydings committee investigation is now being presented before the McCarran group.

REAL purpose of the McCarran subcommittee is to investigate the Institute of Pacific Relations, following seizure of the IPR files. The business at hand is an attempt to show that the Institute of Pacific Relations was in a position to exercise an undue amount of influence in shaping U. S. State Department policy on the Far East. That IPR actually exercised this influence has yet to be proved.

But the direction which the hearing has taken is towards building up a case that IPR was not just a Communist front organization, but a full-fledged Communist apparatus, designed for the specific job of directing American foreign policy along desired Russian lines. While a number of the backers of IPR were admittedly perfectly loyal American citizens, it is inferred that they were the innocent dupes of Communist conspirators.

This is where Owen Lattimore comes into the case. Toward the end of 1933, Lattimore became editor of IPR's magazine, "Pacific Affairs," and held that job till 1944.

In 1941-42 he was President Roosevelt's adviser to Chiang Kai-shek. For two years he was director of overseas operations for Office of War Information. He returned to China with Henry Wallace in 1944, and after the war was on the U. S. Reparations Mission to Manchuria.

HE addressed State Department employes once in 1946 and hasn't been on the State Department payroll since. He has been director of the Walter Hines Page school of international relations at Johns Hopkins University since 1938, and this is his present job. Incidentally, he has written a dozen books on the Far East.

The still unanswered question is how this made him "the architect of American foreign policy," as Senator McCarthy charged. Evidence before the McCarran committee has thus far been pretty thin.

Alexander Barmine—ex-Russian general now head of the U. S. State Department's Russian desk for Voice of America—says another Russian general, Walter Krivitsky (later found dead in a Washington hotel) told him in Paris in 1933 that Lattimore was "one of our men." But Barmine did not know Lattimore personally.

Mrs. Hede Massing, former wife of Gerhard Eisler, recruited State Department employes Lawrence Duggan (now dead) and Noel Field (now missing, presumably behind the Iron Curtain) into her Communist apparatus. She says she met Lattimore only once.

Final judgment on all such matters, however, has to be held up till Prof. Lattimore himself has testified, and all the evidence has been presented to the committee.

MOTHER FREED FROM JAIL—Mrs. Mary Ellen Kopo, 27, above, returned home to Shamokin, Pa., after serving one day of a five-day jail sentence for speeding in Youngstown, O. Mrs. Kopo is seen with her three children, William, 4; David, 17 months, and Timothy, 6, shortly before leaving the jail. Mrs. Kopo was freed for the sake of her children through the efforts of Juvenile Court Judge Henry Bechinbach, after a municipal court judge, who was "cracking down on speeders," ordered her to serve the sentence. Mother-Daughter Striptease Act Broken Up

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13 (UP)—The 13-year-old half of a mother-daughter striptease act went back to live with grandmother today to await disposition on her case in juvenile court.

Authorities released the girl yesterday to the custody of Mrs. Carlotta Tassin after she spent the week end inside the walls of the Convent of the Good Shepherd.

Mrs. Tassin was indignant when officers broke in on the program at the Sugar Bowl Night Club Friday and hauled off her daughter, Dorothy Faye Frampton, 36, and granddaughter.

"She wasn't doing a striptease," the grandmother protested. "She was doing a semi-strip. She wears a Bikini bathing suit and she dances. She doesn't walk."

Juvenile officer Fred Nicolay disagreed. He said the girl, who is married but not living with her husband, "was taking off all her clothes except a G-string and a small gauze thing around her breasts."

Nicolay booked the mother, a stripper in the same club, and the

THE STORY: I (Jim Marshall) am trying to establish the innocence of Rose Bidault on a murder charge. Rose was murdered after her acquittal, but my boss was accused of tampering with the evidence. In investigating the case I was forced to shoot a man in self-defense and now I face arrest by Police Inspector Merica.

INSPECTOR MERICA'S eyes flashed as he said: "Marshall, if you've got anything on the Frankie Martin case, you'd better give it to me!"

"Here, here," said Star. "This isn't behind the Iron Curtain." "He can't withhold criminal evidence!" Merica snapped.

"Who said anything about evidence?" I asked Merica. "I may have a lead. That only means special knowledge. If I had a chance to use it I might run down some evidence."

From Merica's expression, I knew I had been right. He figured Al Nanabarro for the job and he wanted to nail Nanabarro. "How much time do you figure you'll need?"

"Oh, say two weeks." "I'll say 24 hours, and if you don't turn up hot stuff by then, I'll throw you so far back into the pokey you'll have to mail a letter to the turkey."

I said: "That doesn't give me much time, but it's a deal." From the wall came the sputter of an almost forgotten man: "Do—do you mean you're going to turn him loose?"

Merica turned. "Do you want police protection, Mr. Prater?" Mr. Prater decided that he didn't and looked sorry he had spoken at all.

Later in Star's office, I related everything that had happened since I had last seen him. At last he said: "You were a fool to buy 24 hours of freedom for a promise you can't fulfill. All you've got on the Frankie Martin

There was a handbag on the chair beside her. I went over to it, keeping the 380 aimed at her nose. I dumped the contents of the handbag. There was the little automatic she had carried when I had first seen her. I dropped it into my pocket.

"All right, what's the pitch? I thought you had another show to do at the club."

"I sent Larry Stone my excuses. I didn't bother to excuse myself to Nanabarro. After my shot missed you he was furious. I told him you had ducked too quickly but he didn't believe it. He knew I had double-crossed him. So I left via the kitchen entrance."

"I admit nothing of the sort. My shot missed you because I meant it to." She smiled calmly and smugly. "If I had really wanted to kill you, I shouldn't have missed."

"That's a good one!" Sonya shrugged. "I was in a trick-shooting act before I worked up the magic act. I used to shoot cigarettes out of my partner's mouth."

"But you didn't kill me, so now you're here to con me. Nanabarro never gives up. Louise failed; now he's sent you."

She sighed. "You'll be very foolish if you don't believe me." "Right. You're pretty good. You took Star; you're the first woman who ever managed that."

She laughed softly. "You flatter me!" "That yarn of Star's about just happening in to La Jolla Club and getting his brainstorm watching you is strictly for the juvenile trade."

She seemed amused. "All right. I phoned Star and told him I had a gag that would free the Bidault woman. Guess why I did it?" "I've already told you. Nanabarro."

She laughed almost as if she pitied me for being so dumb. "There's no point in telling you. You wouldn't believe it."

"That's one truthful statement. Star Williams has a thousand times the brains I have, but you're one baby that never had me fooled. Just hold still a minute." (To Be Continued)

Shaw's Condition Deemed Critical

AKRON, O., Aug. 13 (UP)—Wilbur Shaw, three time winner of the Indianapolis Memorial Day Speedway Classic, was in "serious" condition today with a heart ailment.

Shaw, 48, collapsed yesterday while preparing to serve as "official starter" for the 14th annual All-American Soap Box Derby, won by 15-year-old Darwin Cooper of Danville, Pa.

Cooper won a $5,000 scholarship by steering his sleek, homemade, low-slung black racer down a 975.4-foot "race track" to finish half a length ahead of Ray Marconi, 15, of Hobart, Ind.

About 80,000 spectators saw Cooper drive his motorless racer across the finish line at the bottom of the steep incline in 29.47 seconds. The record for the course is 27.12 seconds.

YANKEES SUFFER "BAD LUCK", START LOSING NEEDED GAMES

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (UP)—Could the Yankees, victims at last of some miserable bad luck, fold up as the White Sox did before them because of losing a game they almost certainly had won?

That was what was worrying Casey Stengel, the boss man today, even more than the fact that the sudden combination of circumstances put the roaring Cleveland Indians a game-and-a-half in front when they were in a first place deadlock with the Yankees before yesterday.

The Yankees looked like anything but champions in the 9 to 5 and 7 to 4 defeats they suffered against seventh place Philadelphia, even though they put over five runs — enough to win — which were wiped off the books in the second game because of the Pennsylvania state curfew law.

Cleveland, meanwhile, looked as if manager Al Lopez might be about ready to announce his world series pitching plans, as it swept to its 10th straight victory, 7 to 1, over those deflated White Sox.

SABOTAGE OF ALLIED BASES ADVOCATED AT YOUTH RALLY

BERLIN, Aug. 13 (UP)—Allied military authorities were expected to order tough anti-sabotage measures throughout Western Germany today following the most open threat the German Communists have made since the start of the "cold war."

West Berlin police were alerted for possible violence following last night's speech by deputy-president Walter Ulbricht, Moscow's mouthpiece in East Germany, who called for sabotage to prevent the re-arming of Western Germany.

U. S. military authorities were expected to tighten security measures at all U. S. bases and installations after Ulbricht whipped the passion of thousands of young Communist delegates at an East German "peace" rally.

In Bonn a spokesman said the West German government is studying the advisability of banning the Communist party in the western zones.

Chunky, Lenin-bearded, Ulbricht speaking in the huge Marx-Engels Square—formerly the Lustgarten where Adolf Hitler addressed his hordes said:

"The entire population of Western Germany, especially the youth, must fight the transformation of Western Germany into a war base of the United States.

"You must make ineffective military preparations on important strategic points in Western Germany such as bridges, buildings and so forth," the deputy-president told many of the youths who had just staged an eight hour "peace" parade through East Berlin. Communist officials claimed 1,000,000 youths paraded, but U. S. military observers said the figure was nearer 350,000.

The 15-day world youth festival has six more days to go and in West Berlin technicians prepared tonight for a big color television display to lure more of the Communist youth to the West to see the contrast of life.

More than 50 percent of the 500,000 delegates from what Communist claim to be 101 foreign nations have defied the Red ban to visit the West.

Bicycle Rider Reaches Goal

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 13 (UP)—A 34-year-old guitar and harmonica player who wanted to "see the sights and try my luck in Hollywood" was more interested in a bed today after bicycling here from New York.

Wearing a cowboy hat and swimming trunks, Steve Gibson of Fitchburg, Mass., pedaled into town last night with a pair of weary legs and a bad sunburn.

He said he left the city hall in Manhattan June 7 with only $7 in his pocket because "I got a sudden urge" to visit the film capital and take in some scenery on the way.

Gibson said he decided to make the trip by bicycle because "it's more relaxing, and, besides I did not have enough money to take the train."

He pedaled his way through Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Oklahoma City, Amarillo, and Phoenix, Ariz., but he doesn't have any idea how far he traveled.

"I followed a zig-zag course," Gibson said. "Just went where I felt like going."

Church Supper Followed By Food Poisoning

AUSTIN, Aug. 13 (UP)—Food poisoning which followed a church supper resulted in the hospitalization of 31 persons yesterday and today.

All were admitted to Brackenridge General Hospital where a spokesman said the condition of none was believed critical.

Supper was served Saturday night at the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints to 73 persons. The dinner, church officials said, highlighted a two-day missionary conference of the North Central and South Texas Districts.

The Saturday night menu included meat loaf, tossed salad, potato salad and string beans.
