3RD YEAR

RANGER, TEXAS, TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 1952

PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 245

SEEN OR HEARD

Now that the telephone company has charged the good people of Ranger with denying them the right to earn a fair return upon their investment in the Ranger telephone exchange and the equipment necessary to operate that equipment in such a manner as to give good service, there comes a question of what the fair return should be, and how it should be calculated.

As has been stated previously, the telephone company has placed a value in their petition to the 91st District Court of $220,000 on their installations and equipment in Ranger; but they render it on the city tax roll, for $85,510, thereby creating an argument as to whether their fair return should be calculated on the basis of their rendition for taxable purposes, or on the value they have placed on it in their petition for their raise?

From what Mayor Price Crawley has stated in his answer to reasons for requiring a raise by the telephone company, the users of the telephone in Ranger are not receiving a one-hundred percent benefit of that which they are charged as due the telephone company in their petition before the court for services in Ranger. If the company is using facilities of the Ranger exchange in furnishing service to rural subscribers on their service, then this should also be calculated in the fair and reasonable return upon which their rates should be based.

And, if a profit is shown by the long distance service of this exchange, if there be one, and only as much as the charge for that service is credited to the Ranger exchange as the actual cost of such a call, then they, of the telephone company, are denying themselves by their own accounting methods, the right to show a fair and reasonable return on their installations in Ranger. But, if they do not show a profit through both local and long distance service in Ranger, there is cause for an adjustment in the rates they may charge their telephone subscribers.

Or, if they figure their long distance service as a separate function, it should be brought to light whether the unit of which the long distance service here is a part, has shown a profit or a loss, and then figure that proportionate part of either the loss or the profit into the returns of the Ranger exchange.

Furthermore, the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. has placed a value of approximately $125,170 on the whole of their property in the Ranger School District, which embraces much more than the actual city limits of Ranger, and does not yet equal the amount they have placed upon their facilities in Ranger alone for basis of a fair profit for determining what their rate of service should be here.

You, as a citizen and user of this telephone service in Ranger, should acquaint yourself with the facts concerning this difference and come to a fair and reasonable conclusion as to what should be done about it, and then let your mayor and commissioners, which you have elected to represent you as your agents in bargaining with these companies, know how you feel.

Misfortune marked the opening day of spring training for the Ranger Bulldogs. Pete Stallings, one of the returning squadmen from last year, suffered a broken leg before practice had been underway any length of time.

It was said that Stallings leg was broken in a pile-up when he fell in an unnatural position.

There were a number of new faces mixed among the ones returning from the district championship team of last year. The ever smiling face of Jimmy Comecha was among those out with the team in a number of years, along with Don Varner, Jimmy Cole, and Billy Bourland, lost through graduation.

The team seemed to be in good shape and tiring not from the workouts they had yesterday.

Other than the four mentioned above the Bulldogs have all their lettermen back with them.

The two cripples from last year, Don Braxda and Charles Masseege, are out for the workouts, but are in training clothes, not suited out. They'll have to be content with watching from the sidelines during most of spring training.

RURAL WOMEN COMMENDED FOR EXCEEDING QUOTA EARLY IN MONTH BY MRS. JOHN LOVE, COUNTY CHAIRMAN OF RED CROSS

Eastland County is proud of the efforts of the rural women, who have given of their time to help make the County Rural Red Cross drive for 1952, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Love, county chairman said.

To date the amount contributed totals $488.19 and the returns are not complete. The quota for the rural districts was set for $301.00 and has to date been exceeded by $187.00, which is to be commended Mrs. Love said.

The Home Demonstration Clubs for the third consecutive year have done a fine piece of work in canvassing the rural areas which otherwise might not have been reached she continued. Numbers of the HD women reported for blood donations while the unit was in Ranger and Cisco recently. It is the willingness of such local leaders that makes for the success of any venture. When the Red Cross called they answered, they worked and certainly they merit the profound gratitude for a work well done.

He was formerly employed by the Texas and Pacific Railway Co.

County Youths Take Honors In Tri-County Livestock Show

Ranger boys shared honors with other Eastland County lads in Ranger's fifth annual Tri-County Livestock Show in Ranger Friday and Saturday.

They showed a large number of fine dairy animals to first places in their division. Many of the animals entered by the Eastland County youths were third generation Jersey calves, whose mothers had been donated through Ranger Jaycee and Eastland County dairy youth programs.

Under the program, a youth must return the first heifer calf from the gift animal.

Outstanding performances were also given by Joe Buckley of the Desdemona 4-H Club, who showed animals which took two first places in three classes in the sheep division and by Jonal and Dayle Penny of the Ranger 4-H Club, who showed some fine Rambouillet sheep.

About 140 animals were entered in this year's show, to make it the largest in its five year history.

Members of the ACC agriculture department acted as judges. They were: F. M. Churchill, head of the ACC agriculture department, who judged sheep; Keith Justice who judged dairy cattle; and T. W. Colby who judged swine and beef cattle.

Beverly Dudley, Jr., Ranger vocational agriculture teacher, was general superintendent of the show.

Over $200 in prize money was distributed among winners. Most of the Eastland County animals will be entered again next week-end in Eastland County Livestock Show.

Red Cross Calls For $500 More In County

New Disaster Cause County Quota To Be Raised $500.00 According To J. E. Matthews, Disaster Chairman

Editors Note: Following is a letter sent to Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, Chairman of the American National Red Cross for Eastland County and Jimmy Matthews of Ranger, disaster chairman for the County chapter.

The overwhelming disaster which has crushed dozens of communities in Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Missouri on March 21, 1952, has left in its wake 178 known dead with a constantly increasing death list. 877 have been injured with thousands of people homeless. Losses will run into the millions.

To meet this great emergency, thousands of chapter volunteers have been on duty since the tornado struck. The national organization is dispatching trained workers including doctors and nurses to the stricken areas. Food, clothing, and shelter are being provided.

Ranger Student At NTSC Is Falcon Pledge

Jack Waddington of Ranger, a junior student at North Texas State College, Denton, is pledging the Falcon Fraternity, a social organization of the campus. Mr. Waddington, an English major, will go through six weeks of pledge and then will be a member of the Falcon Fraternity.

Mr. Waddington is a graduate of Ranger high school and of Ranger Junior College where he was active in many activities of the schools there. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Waddington of Ranger.

Mr. Waddington is also a member of the Tau Delta Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, national professional English fraternity which is organized to promote the mastery of written expression, to encourage worthwhile reading, and to foster a spirit of fellowship among men and women specialists in English. Members must be of junior standing with at least a "B" average.

The Falcon Fraternity was organized in 1938 to teach men how to live and work together, striving by precept and example for the personal development of the individual in the training of mind and body.

Fine Arts Department RJC To Present "Patience" Friday

The Gilbert and Sullivan work, "Patience," will be presented in the Ranger Recreation Building, Friday evening, March 28th at 8 p.m.

With two good performances and audiences totaling more than 400 people, the young people of the Department of Fine Arts at Ranger Junior College feel that they are adequately prepared for (4) Ranger performance. Both the audience in Gorman and the one in Santo were lavish in their praise of the production, the ability of the individual students, and the entertainment value of the show.

Using the piano for the first two performances, with Mrs. Fred Baumgardner as the accompanist, the principals and choruses have been working for smoothness and familiarity of their cues. For the Ranger, Breckenridge, Graham, and Mineral Wells shows, Mr. Charles Kiker will join the company as organist.

A town or college the size of Ranger's can hardly afford an orchestra to play the accompaniments such as would be possible at the larger schools and communities. The organ, with its possibilities, plus the piano, can provide an adequate accompaniment for this type of presentation, without the heavy maintenance cost of an orchestra.

Mr. Kiker, an outstanding pianist and organist of the entire Southwest, has concentrated widely in all sections of the country. His experience and ability are expected to add considerably to the worthwhileness of the Gilbert and Sullivan work. The addition of the organ should make the production even more enjoyable than the previous shows.

Given as a benefit to the Drago Scholarship Fund, this is the sole opportunity for the Department of Fine Arts to realize any remuneration. Throughout the year the students are more than liberal with their time and talents

Firemen Called To Gulf Camp; N. Rusk Street

The local fire department answered two calls Sunday. The first was to the Gulf Camp northeast of Ranger where a bathroom in one of the houses had caught fire from a small bathroom stove. The bathroom was badly damaged, but the people in the camp had the fire out on the arrival of the fire department. Chief Charlie Isbell said they just checked the fire when they got there to make sure it was under control and all out. The call to the camp came at 11:55 a.m.

The second call was at 4:36 p.m. to a grass fire on North Rusk St. The Chief reported that only grass burned with little or no damage done.

J. H. Tidwell of Desdemona, plans to raise 3,500 turkeys this year, and there are several breeders who will raise from 1,000 to 3,000 birds. Mr. Tidwell operates a hatchery at Desdemona, and during the season will hatch 60,000 pullets.

He says people in Minnesota find turkey production a very remunerative business, and that because of climatic conditions in this section, birds can be produced more economically, thereby giving the producer a larger profit.

POLL SHOWS SOME PUBLIC REACTION TO PHONE RAISE

A poll was taken to determine in a small way what the reaction of the general public would be to the telephone company's request for a raise in Ranger. They were asked:

Do you think that Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is entitled to a raise in their rates in the city of Ranger?

It seems that with some of them we hit a very tender spot, their reaction could be termed explosive in some instances, some of them used caution and others just expressed their opinion.

Here is what they said: Mrs. C. W. Alworth: "I don't think so."

Mrs. George Beighley: "No I don't."

George Beighley: "I don't know, I don't think they are entitled to a raise until they improve this service."

Mrs. Mildred Bonney: "I just don't hardly know. 'I don't know all the facts in the case.'"

Mrs. J. E. Bryan: "I don't think so."

W. T. Casey: "I don't think so."

H. C. Henderson: "I definitely do not."

Gaston Dixon: "I'm not in favor of a raise."

Artie Carver: "I think they are entitled to a raise, but not double their present rates."

Don Ervin: "It is my opinion their net earnings don't indicate a justified increase at this time." (Continued On Page 2)

HELP FOR VICTIMS SOUTHERN TORNADOES ASKED IN RANGER

The tornado disaster that hit six southern states over the week end has hit Eastland county.

National Headquarters of the Red Cross asked the county to raise an additional $500.00 for 1952. The emergency telegram asking the county to join in helping the area in which 220 were killed, and 1,300 injured was from E. Roland Harrison, president of the National Red Cross to Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, Eastland County Chapter Chairman, who in turn notified J. E. Matthews, our Ranger chairman.

In Ranger the Red Cross and other charitable funds has been handled by the Community Chest, and our quota was raised for 1952 and turned over to the county chairman.

We have been notified that Ranger is asked to raise an additional $150.00 to meet this emergency created by tornadoes covering these six states.

Community Chest chairman Charlie J. Owen, and Red Cross chairman J. E. Matthews were at end as to how the collection of this sum could be arranged for Ranger, it was decided to ask that all contributions be sent to the Commercial State Bank or given to Wilson Guest at that institution.

We are confronted with the death and destruction that only forces of nature are able to inflict upon us in these states hit by tornadoes, you are asked to place yourself in the predicament these people find themselves, and open your heart and your pocket book in raising this $150.00 for these homeless and injured people that have survived.

Make your contributions now to the Disaster Fund. Think of the destruction death at Desdemona not so long ago and the help the Red Cross gave our neighbors and help these people in distress with your money. The favor may be returned someday.

The following persons have already given money to help Ranger raise their share of the disaster fund that has been requested: James Rathoff, J. E. Matthews, J. F. Killingsworth, J. B. Houghton, E. L. Bruce, W. F. Croager, Joe Dennis, Morris Newsham, Deane Crawley, R. J. Raites, C. J. Owen, Fred Bonner and C. E. May, Jr.

These men gave a total of $50.50 to start off the drive for the additional $150 in Ranger.

"BUILDERS OF RANGER" COMPLETING SUCCESSFUL MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

The Ranger Chamber of Commerce is just finishing one of the most successful membership drives that has been conducted in the past 15 or 20 years, fifty new members having signed cards pledging their moral and financial support to the Chamber's program.

Pledges from these 50 new members amount to $904.00 annually, and 85 old members have increased their dues in an amount of $435.00, making a total of $1,339.00 in new pledges for this year. There are a few non-members among Ranger firms who have not yet been contacted, also several old members who have not been given an opportunity to increase their dues, but these will be contacted in the next few days, according to President Calvin W. Harris.

"This almost unanimous response on the part of Ranger firms and individuals is certainly a challenge to me as president of the organization and to each individual director to put forth greater efforts than ever before in Ranger's behalf," stated Dr. Harris.

The most important project at the present time that means more to Ranger than any other thing, is the efforts of the board of directors of the Eastland County Water Supply District to build a dam and reservoir which will furnish an adequate supply of good water for the towns of Eastland and Ranger. The city of Eastland attached themselves to the water district by an almost unanimous vote on Jan. 31, and Eastland now has three representatives on the board of directors of the district. The fact that these two towns are working together so harmoniously just about assures them of bringing the project to a successful conclusion, is the general opinion.

The Ranger Chamber of Commerce has placed the facilities of its organization at the disposal of the directors of the water board and if every firm and citizen in Ranger and Eastland do this there will be no doubt as to the outcome.

Within the next few days committees will complete their task of contacting those who have not been called on for memberships, and Dr. Harris asks that careful consideration be given their requests, as they are men who are working for a living or in business like yourself who are

Tribute to a neighbor

We'd like you to meet a neighbor on whom both of us depend. He's the man who operates the service station in your neighborhood. You depend on him to take care of your car, to supply you with products of high quality at reasonable prices. You expect, and get, from him more free service than from any other merchant with whom you do business: whatever you spend, he cheerfully cleans your windshield, checks your oil and tires, furnishes you with free battery water, and renders special services as you need them.

The oil companies depend on him as the independent merchant who distributes their products. He demands, and receives, continuously improved products with which to compete with his business rivals. He insists on reasonable prices that will move his merchandise in volume. His progressive attitude is one of the chief reasons why the oil industry has supplied you with better products at about the same prices over a long period of years.

It's a pleasure to pay this tribute to a neighbor, to thank him publicly for being such a friendly, dependable contact between the oil industry and its millions of customers. He is not on our payroll, but we couldn't do business without him.

next few weeks and months and R. E. Callender, specialist in Wild-life conservation for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, believes every farmer and rancher who owns a good pond or tank can solve the problem without leaving home.

He suggests first giving the pond a good spring cleaning. That is, clean up around the pond. Remove the trash that has accumulated and make the pond and surrounding area an attractive spot that can be enjoyed by the family and their friends. If the pond isn't now stocked with fish, he suggests contacting your local county agent for information on this very important item.

If the pond or tank is already stocked, he recommends a fertilization program. Farm ponds can be fertilized just the same as can farm crops and the results are equally as good. He likes to use a mixture of 400 pounds of cottonseed meal and 200 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate. The first application of 300 pounds per surface acre of water should be made about this time of the year. Broadcast it on the surface of the pond and follow with a second, third and fourth application of 100 pounds each at three to four week intervals. The fertilizer program should be completed before hot weather arrives and before July 1, says Callender.

High grade commercially mixed fertilizers can be substituted for the above mixture, says the specialist and should be applied at the rate of 500 to 600 pounds per acre per year. The first application should be from 200 to 300 pounds per acre and 100 pound applications should follow at three to four intervals until the total amount recommended is used.

Properly fertilized ponds, he points out, will have a greenish-brown color. When this color begins to disappear after each application, it's time to apply more fertilizer. Callender says a good test is to plunge the arm into the water up to the elbow, if he make the next application.

Here's why the fertilizer is so important. A given pond can produce only a certain poundage of fish each year and will consist of many small, stunted fish or a smaller number of large edible fish—available food determines the ponds. The fertilizer increases the microscopic plant and or "bloom." Plankton is the first animal life known as plankton link in the food production chain for the fish. Increases the food supply and the number of pounds of fish produced is raised in the same proportion, says Callender.

Now for the bait. He says produce it at home. A well-tended earth worm bed will furnish plenty of strong, frisky worms; the kind fish like to bite. Minnows can also be produced in a smaller pond or in tanks built for the purpose, says the specialist. Surplus bait, he adds, usually finds a ready market in most communities.

And finally, Callender adds, a well-managed pond is a well-fished pond. Keep the number of fish in balance with food supplies and should undesirable species become too numerous in the pond, remove all fish; restock and start over. Such a program will make good fishing possible right at home and will provide recreation nothing of the addition to family for family and friends to say menu.

Throughout the nineteenth century the British bought more goods from foreigners than they sold. Income from investments abroad was the main credit item that offset Britain's deficit of exports, for Britain was investment banker to the world.

CO-OPS TO BE ALLOWED TO PURCHASE FARMERS PEANUTS

WASHINGTON, March 25 — Congressman Omar Burleson said in Washington today that he was a little more encouraged for the welfare of the 1952 peanut program, since the Production and Marketing Administration through the Department of Agriculture, has announced the main points to be followed for this crop year.

"It is, however, still not fair to the peanut farmers of Texas," said Burleson. "The PMA has not yet determined what charges will be made to the farmer for storing and handling of peanuts he wishes to place in the loan."

The encouraging part in the announcement is that evidently the Grower's Association and the co-ops will be able to purchase peanuts from the farmer and thereby afford him a ready market, instead of forcing him into the loan as was first recommended.

"I have insisted on this feature to the fullest extent," said Burleson, "and am glad we have at least gotten this much concession from them."

According to Burleson, the support price on peanuts will amount to 90 per cent of the February 15, 1952 parity price of $266 per ton, and it makes provision for proportionate increase if the parity price at the start of the marketing season is higher than the minimum level announced today.

The support price for peanuts includes purchase agreements, which will be available for the first time. Under this provision producers may sign contracts between now and the end of January next year, and at the end of the marketing year, which is set at May 31, 1953, they have not been able to market their crop at a price above the support price, which is estimated at $239.40 per ton as the average for all types, they can then sell to the Commodity

Credit Corporation. The Southwestern Peanut Grower's Association and other co-operatives will be offered loans, and they in turn can provide a ready market for peanuts at support price.

Where it is practicable, interest loans will be made on the farm storage, and this phase of the program will be handled by the State and County PMA.

Congressman Burleson said that he will continue every effort with the PMA, insisting on the best possible administrative program,
