Coach Jack Duvall's Ranger High Bulldogs suffered their second cage loss of the season here Tuesday night when they were defeated, 62-43, by the Eastland High Mavericks.

The Eastlanders were out front all the way except for a brief time late in the first period when the Bulldogs held a 9-8 lead. With only 2:25 left in the initial stanza, Terry Treadwell of the visitors' quintet hit the me-h on three consecutive jump shots for six points and a 14-9 lead at the end of the opening period.

At halftime Eastland was out front 24-17 and the Mavericks continued in command through the last half with the score 43-24 at the end of the third period. Both cage crews scored 19 points in the final quarter to tally the game total — Eastland 62, Ranger 43.

Leading scorer of the night was Eastland's Treadwell with 23 points. Mike Treadwell was close behind with 19.

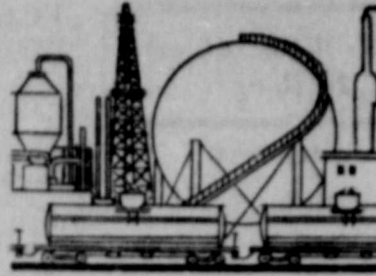

Melton Kennedy paced the Bulldogs with 17 points. Larry Leroy Pearson scored 8 and Larry Monroe accounted for 7 points.

Deposits of Commercial State Bank at the end of 1964 had soared to a high of $2,712,215, according to a report issued as of the close of business of Dec. 31 in compliance with the customary quarterly call of the comptroller of the currency.

On that date a total of $2,721,215, an appreciable gain over the $2,642,109 total for the same period one year ago.

An increase also was noted in the Ranger bank's loans and discounts. As of Dec. 31, the bank's loans totaled 1,314,810 — also a gain over the $1,174,000 figure of a year ago.

The bank's year-end statement showed undivided profits of $42,923 and reserves of $70,367.

Commercial State Bank has a capital stock of $100,000 and a surplus of $100,000.

Officers of the Ranger financial institution include H. T. Wilson, chairman of the board; Glyn Gilliam, president; John O. Adair, vice president; Don Yarbrough, cashier, and Helen Dawley and Iris Hummel, assistant cashiers.

Two Fined For Drinking Over New Year Span

Two tipplers paid fines here over the New Year's weekend.

Constable Ralph Veal arrested H. G. Hill of Lubbock out at Ranger Hill on the first day of new-born 1965 and jailed him for drunkenness. He later was released after payment of a $30.50 fine.

Saturday Patrolman Bill Bollinger of Ranger Police Department and Constable Veal arrested an Eastland man staggering along Highway 80 west within the city limits. The Eastlander was given a ride to City Hall where he was interned, sobered up and released following payment of a fine for drunkenness.

Jerry Trice Is New Officer Of Ranger Jaycees

Jerry Trice, member of the faculty of Ranger Public Schools and assistant coach, was elected first vice president of the Ranger chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce during a directors meeting held Monday night.

Trice's election followed the resignation of Charles Arnett. Arnett said the press of business necessitated his resigning from the officer post.

Trice will fill out Arnett's unexpired term which runs through 1964.

Due to inclement weather last Saturday the Jaycees were unable to stage their Christmas tree pickup and to hold a burning of the yule trees that evening.

Householders having trees to be picked up are asked to make other arrangements.

The Jaycees are hoping, however, to conduct a similar campaign next year — again barring interference of the weather.

One Of Three Highway Projects In County Is Nearing Completion

The State Highway Department has over $4 million worth of highway work going in three projects in Eastland County as the calendar ticks into the New Year, 1965.

One of the projects is nearing completion and the other two are "in full swing," reports Resident Engineer R. P. (Buddy) Hain this week.

The six miles of Interstate 20 west of Cisco to the Callahan County line is expected to be completed by the first of February.

Grading and structures are nearing completion on State 206 from Highway 80 to Cross Plains, and engineers expect to begin hauling base material for that 14-mile stretch some time in the next three weeks, he said.

Structures are complete and grading is nearly done on the six mile Interstate 20 job east of Ranger, he said, with base hauling to begin shortly.

INSTANT LANDSCAPING

A relatively new system of landscaping and erosion control is being utilized on the Int. 20 project west of Cisco. Contractor Cecil Ruby is plowing the slopes and shoulders as soon as they are formed, then fertilizing and grass seeding. Then the lot is sprayed with a light coat of asphalt which tends to hold the moisture in and helps the grass mature. (The highway department had observed that grass grew best in and

Ranger Civic, Business Leaders See 'Good' Year Ahead

Newly-begun 1965 should be a good year for Ranger and surrounding area. There'll be no sensational upswing in the economy or in income, but conditions in general are likely to parallel those of the past year.

Most businesses report satisfactory volume and sales during 1964. These reports varied. Some said the year was better than previous 1963, others declared "it was about the same," and a few noted that their sales were "off" from the prior 12-month period.

The possibility of some new industrial employment, additional dollars resulting from continued highway construction in the area, and the possibility of improvement for the livestock and agricultural industries point toward economic stability during the months ahead.

That's the consensus of most Ranger business and civic leaders.

"Looking over the record," Mayor Morris Newham said, "I think we can all be comfort in the fact that 1964 has been a year of progress — a year which saw sound and constructive moves which will certainly affect Ranger's future.

"Our city is in sound financial condition, and our master development plan, when completed, should be a great aid in helping our community leadership to chart a course for future growth.

"Ranger also is one of the key communities involved in the recently launched EC-65 Eastland County industrialization program," Mayor Newham added. "This project certainly has possibilities and is a constructive step in the right direction for our city and all of Eastland County."

"Business-wise," he said, "this new year should be as good — or better — than 1964."

Sharing a similar spirit of optimism is W. T. Eaton, president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce.

"This new year," he declared, "can be one of the most important and decisive in the history of Ranger. What we plan and accomplish in 1965 will have a definite bearing on our community's future destiny."

Eaton is chairman of the oil museum project which was launched early in 1964.

He also is a member of the board of directors of the Texas Oil Museum, officially chartered as an independent, non-profit corporation last fall by the Secretary of State, Austin.

"Our oil museum — and a recreated boom town — can greatly aid our economy in the years to come," Eaton said. "Tourism is big business in Texas and will be even more so in the future. Tourist dollars can help meet the challenges which will arise in the next few years when Interstate 20 by-passes Ranger."

"I hope our business men and all citizens will take greater interest in our Chamber of Commerce and actively participate in its important activities in the best interest of Ranger.

"Thinking together, planning together and working together in unity and harmony with a common purpose and goal," Eaton said, "I know we can make 1965 a fine year for our community and its people."

"Just-ended 1964 was a pretty good year for Ranger and surrounding area," commented Glyn Gilliam, president of Ranger's Commercial State Bank. "And new 1965 should be just as good, if not better."

Most business firms, Gilliam said, apparently enjoyed relatively good business during the past year and present economic conditions should prevail through 1965. He did point out, however, that it is increasingly difficult for business in general to maintain most desirable profit levels due to increasing overhead and rising wholesale prices.

Livestock and mohair prices dipped to low levels during 1964. Despite this adverse development, however, the Ranger banker added, the past year was good.

Looking ahead, the banker said that livestock prices probably will remain fairly stable with little likelihood that they'll weaken further. On the other hand, it is possible that prices may strengthen in the spring. An upward swing in mohair prices also could help, resulting in liquidation of large quantities of mohair held off the market in storage, and would further bolster the economy of Ranger and area, Gilliam declared.

IN A REPORT released recently, the pharmaceutical industry was cited for its contributions to the national welfare. The report said in part: "25 years ago, New York City reported over 12,000 cases of whooping cough with 105 deaths. Last year there were 212 cases—deaths, none. In 1953, 70,000 Americans died of tuberculosis; in 1963, 9,311. Furthermore, in the 25 years between 1935 and 1960, prescription drugs saved the lives of two million working-age victims of only four 'killer' diseases—pneumonia, influenza, tuberculosis and syphilis." Ranger can be proud of its two fine drug firms which play such a vital role in a county where the population tends toward older people.

role in the industrialization and wealth of any area.
 "In Eastland County," Dr. Fisher said, "value of mineral raw materials produced annually (chiefly oil, gas and ceramic clays) amounts to about $5 1/2 million. After processing into manufactured products (such as natural gas liquids, structural clay products, lightweight aggregate) value, of course, is increased.
 "In Eastland County," he added, "value of mineral raw materials produced is about equal to the value of agricultural products, twice the value of manufactured products, and about one-fourth the total value of retail trade."
 Looking to the future, Dr. Fisher said that oil and gas production and processing will continue to play a major role in industrial development of the county. Mining and processing of ceramic clay and aggregate materials also can be further developed. Eastland County ranks 9th in Texas as a clay-producing county.

In addition, Dr. Fisher said that large deposits of bituminous coal, industrial sands, and large deposits of limestone are major resources which can be transformed into wealth for Eastland County in the years ahead.
 TESCO's Castillon, in his message to the EC-65ers, stressed four major requirements for a successful industrialization program:
 (1) Markets, (2) labor, (3) natural resources and raw materials, and (4) transportation. He asserted that Eastland County meets those requirements and suggested that the area could be an ideal site for plants producing fertilizer, petrochemicals and anhydrous ammonia. He also declared that a cement plant or limestone processing facility could be an ideal industry for the area.

Castillon considers the county's water resources as a major lure for industry and also complimented the area for having two colleges, Cisco Junior College and Ranger Junior College, Lone Cedar Country Club and outstanding recreational facilities making Eastland County a highly desirable place for industrial workers and their families to live.

Browder, a TESCO agricultural research specialist, reviewed the area's resources and said "There is real opportunity for agribusiness development in Eastland County."
 He pointed out that the county's peanut output, second highest in Texas, made it highly eligible for at least one peanut processing plant. Other possibilities, he said, include a fertilizer blending plant, meat packing, and development of commercial vegetable production.

Browder said that of the area's 600,000 acres, 80,000 are devoted to farming and the remainder to ranching. He said the county has 1,350 farms with an average value of $45,000. Proper treatment of range lands, he declared, could increase net income per acre from 50¢ up to $3.00. This, he said, would increase the county's agricultural income about $1 million annually.
 Texas A&M's Shepherd, using slides with his presentation, explained in detail sources for information which industry considers in detail in considering plant locations:
 (1) General description, (2) living conditions and business climate, (3) Business and industry in area, (4) utilities and communication, (5) transportation, (6) taxes and indebtedness, (7) Laws and regulations, (8) Markets, local and area, (9) raw materials, (10) labor, (11) sites and buildings, and (12) local available financing.

Harry W. Clark, executive director of Texas Industrial Commission, Austin, was featured speaker during the midday "Dutch Lunch" with the Eastland Rotary and Lions Clubs Wednesday at noon. His topic was "Putting Facts and Figures to Work."

The next seminar will be held on Thursday, Feb. 4, at Cisco.

Sig Faircloth New Head Of West Texas Cutting Horse Group

Sig Faircloth of Carbon, well known Eastland County ranchman and pioneer livestock auction market operator, was elected president of the West Texas Cutting Horse Assn. at the 33rd annual meeting held at Sweetwater Saturday.

The membership meeting of the organization, first established back in 1937, was held in connection with the cuttinginals of the year, during which the grand and reserve champion cutting horses of the association for the year were named.

Faircloth, who established the first high bid livestock market in this area back in the 1930s, is co-owner of the tanger Livestock Auction, U. S. Highway 80 east.

Other officers of the WCTHA are Robert Herring of files, first vice president, and Joley Cotten of Woodson, secretary.

L. W. Bevan of Gordon was one of the eight new directors elected during the Saturday meeting.

A total of 153 horses worked in the four classes Saturday, including 17 in the novice-novice, 54 in the open, 44 in the AA novice, and 38 in the novice.

An estimated 90 per cent of the horses in the open class will compete in the cutting event at Odessa this week. The horses and riders competed for $2,330 in cash here Saturday.

Third place winner in the novice-novice class was Big Wimpy, owned by L. W. Bevan and ridden by Buddy Blue, of Gordon. Royal Lad, owned by L. R. Pearson of Ranger placed sixth in that division.

The body of Mr. Platters was discovered Friday in Leon Creek north of the T&P Railway tracks. Judge Dalton withheld a verdict in the death pending the conclusion of the investigation.

County Sheriff L. E. Sublett and Police Chief Ray Laney are conducting the investigation.

Mr. Platters, a carpenter, was buried Saturday afternoon.

Several persons are being questioned in connection with the drowning and will possibly be called to testify at the hearing, Dalton said.

Such a hearing is similar to a coroner's inquest, he said.

W. B. Wilson, Drowning Victim, Buried Saturday

Funeral services for W. B. Wilson, Jr., 17, were held Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Arlington Hamner Funeral Chapel, with Rev. Earl Williams, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, officiating.

He was the victim of an accidental drowning Jan. 1, 1965, in Power Plant Lake.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson, Sr.; a grandfather, J. C. Berry; three brothers, Joe Dobe, William Dale and Jimmy Frank, all of the home; and two sisters, Evelyn Jo of the home and Mrs. Lonnie Biggs of Lubbock.

Palbearers were Rodger Woodall, Cery Berry, Joe Taylor, Tommy Taylor, Robert Tackner and Billy Culpeper, a cousin of the deceased.

Collins Briefs Governor Tues.

Mike Collins, co-ordinator for Gov. John Connally in Eastland County Democratic affairs, visited the Governor's office Tuesday morning to discuss the vacancy on the 91st District Court bench.

Larry Temple, the Governor's executive assistant, emphasized that Collins himself made no recommendations. He said that "Collins urged the Governor to make an appointment as soon as possible."

Temple related that Collins furnished information on three men "who seemed interested in the job and gave recommendations made by other people." The three men are former Dist. Atty. Earl Connor, Jr. of Eastland, District Attorney Perry Brown of Rising Star, and veteran Attorney Frank Sparks of Eastland.

Questioned Tuesday evening after his return to Eastland, Collins said he had "nothing to report," and had no idea when an appointment would be made.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Edwin Aaron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Aaron of Eastland, was in a critical condition in a Wichita Falls hospital today as the result of a one-car accident near there Tuesday night. He was reported as having been unconscious since the mishap. He and family live in Wichita Falls.

R*H*S REPORT

By SARAH COOPER

Now that classes have resumed after the holidays, students are settling down to the business of school once more. Or if they're not they'd better since the midterm exams are less than a week away. Beginning next Tuesday each class will have two full hours for tests with the following schedule: Tuesday, Thursday, 1, 3, 5; Wednesday, Friday, 2, 4, 6.

That's too bad about losing to Cisco by only one point in the overtime play at the Tournament last week, Bulldogs. However, you played a wonderful game as you did at Eastland here last Tuesday. The students are very proud of you and are backing you to keep up the good work.

In the Tournament at RJC last week we had two able cage stars from the Bulldog team to make All-Tournament: Johnny McGee on the 1st team and Melton Kennedy on the 2nd. Congratulations, boys!

Before the holidays as you know the school carried on a White Christmas project sponsored by the Student Council. After school turned out Tuesday, 17 Christmas baskets full of groceries were delivered to some needy families in our community. A hen was given in each basket furnished by the FFA from their popcorn sales and by Mayor Morris Newham.

Student Council members who helped deliver and assort the baskets were Robby Robinson, Lee Roy Pearson, Don Hartsfield, Dowell Hartsfield, Don Bunton, Theo Hale, Brad White, Larry Blackwell, and Richard Lebrodo.

The Future Homemakers have been working hard on their annual banquet to be held at 7 p. m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church. Each committee, including the program, food, decoration and placecard, deserve acknowledgment for the fine job they have been doing. The theme of the Banquet is French which is being carried out by each of these committees.

Mrs. Edwina Deffebach, the Homemaking teacher at RHS for the past 9 years, will leave our hallowed halls January 15 to live in Dallas where her husband has just been promoted to the Lone Star office there.

She has applied for a teaching position in the Dallas schools but as yet has not heard.

Best wishes and luck go with her from her Homemaking students and all students as well, for her work here has been such as to merit praise.

Replacing Mrs. Deffebach is Mrs. Ruby Halbert who received her degree in Home Economics from the University of Texas. She has taught for the last ten years, teaching last in the Austin school system. We know Mrs. Deffebach will be hard to replace but from her record Mrs. Halbert sounds very capable.

With the beginning of the New Year many people invariably make resolutions, only to have a large per cent of them broken within a short time. Here are a few which some RHS students have dreamed up:

Jan Watkins has resolved that it is about time to study for the upcoming college entrance exam, while Robby Robinson has decided to help Mr. Rush understand Chemistry better in the remaining school year.

Celeste Scott has resolved to give up finger-nail chewing at the end of a losing basketball game, and Don Hartsfield vows he won't bug the teachers unless they bug him first.

In his own words Jesse Renteria says, "I resolve in the next year to do anything I have not done in the past four years." That covers a lot of ground, Jesse!

Lee Ausburne has discovered the way to happiness, but I doubt if he has a very long-lasting resolution - to give up girls.

Catherine Stroud has resolved to dance in such a way as not to fall down in front of the dance band, but Mary Sue Teyman plans only to keep all the resolutions she made last year.

New Credit Service Aid For Low-Income Rurals

A new credit service to help low-income families in rural areas raise their incomes is now available in Eastland County, according to State Director L. J. Cappelman of the Farmers Home Administration.

Mr. Cappelman said the new service opens up Farmers Home Administration credit aid for the first time to many low-income rural families who previously were unable to obtain either public or private loans to improve their earnings.

The County FHA office in Eastland, Cappelman said, is accepting applications for loans up to $2,500 to finance farming enterprises, small family businesses, trades and services. Rural cooperatives serving low-income families and providing services and facilities not otherwise available may also be eligible for credit under the program.

Borrowers will be provided continuing management aid to help them make a success of their farming enterprises or new businesses. Farmers Home Administration, a U. S. Department of Agriculture agency, will administer the new loan service.

Teresa Myers hopes to get married in the following year so she won't have to go to college.

Mrs. Margaret MacDonald, that famous RHS algebra teacher, believes the best resolution she can make is to get organized.

Billy Matthews has decided to tell more jokes at the proper time while Bob McCleskey hopes to be even more perfect next year.

Denise Huling has resolved not to get any more crushes on college boys, which probably won't last either, and Gilbert Nail has resolved to quit bothering yours truly in English class.

Mrs. Helen Hagaman, the professor of Government and Spanish who just returned to civilization after a week in the wilds of Mexico, resolves to make another trip to Mexico.

"Miss Mac," another venerable teacher at RHS, hopes to be more considerate in the coming year, a resolution which all the world could profit by.

To all this resolution business Verganna Goswick, Carol Drennan, and Dixie Hodges say "hogwash" and resolve not to make any more New Year's Resolutions!

You may have noticed that most viewpoints are from seniors, but let's face it, they need to make resolutions more than anyone else!

SINGING SUNDAY
The Eastland County singing convention will begin at 11 a. m. Sunday, Jan. 10, at the American Legion Hall in Rising Star. Basket lunch will be spread at noon in the dining hall and Eastland Countians are urged to bring food for the visitors.

HOLIDAY GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Maddux and daughters, Debra and Cindy of Fort Worth visited his mother, Mrs. Lula Maddux last Wednesday. Weekend guests of Mrs. Maddux were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Maddux and family of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Davis and family of Denison.

$168 Million New Telephone Construction for Texas in 1965

Continuing improvements in telephone system will make your service even more dependable and valuable

Telephone service in Texas ranks with the world's best. It always has. Even so, in 1965 Southwestern Bell will spend another $168 million to make it better still. This construction program is the biggest in history. It is necessary to provide for the growing telephone needs of Texas. But it's more than that. It also is an intensified effort to make even better the service you already have, whether you live in a big city, a small town, or on a farm or ranch. Our objective is to make your telephone service more useful, dependable, convenient and valuable than ever before.

Texas will also benefit economically from this telephone construction program. Because hundreds of individual projects reach into virtually every community served by Southwestern Bell, the economic impact will be significant and widespread. New jobs will be created. We expect to add 500 new telephone jobs in Texas in 1965 — bringing to 25,000 the number of people on our payroll in Texas. But more important will be the economic boost for the hundreds of Texas firms which sell supplies, services and materials to the telephone company.

Here are some of the things we'll do in 1965 to make your telephone service better

- NEW STORMPROOFING
In 1965, we'll put more than 500 additional miles of telephone cable underground, because that's the safest place for it. Safe from wind, rain, hot weather, cold weather, stormy weather. This will add to the dependability of your long distance service.
- DDD IMPROVEMENTS
For those customers who have Direct Distance Dialing, service will be faster and easier than ever before. Complex new testing and trouble-reporting equipment is being built into the system to help maintain the quality of transmission and quickly trace and remedy problems that might affect your service.
- NEW BUILDINGS, WORK CENTERS
Southwestern Bell will erect 15 new buildings in Texas in 1965. The largest will be the new $13 million South Texas headquarters building in Houston. Other new telephone buildings will be erected in Amarillo, Midland, Dallas (two buildings), San Antonio, Beaumont, Rosenberg, Cleveland, Waco, Pasadena, and a three-building complex in northwest Houston. Additions are planned for telephone buildings at Fort Worth, Dallas, Amarillo, Forney, Monahans and Houston. Also, 16 new installation, repair and construction centers will be built across the state.
- NEW MICROWAVE MAGIC
The magic of microwave will provide thousands of new voice ways for long distance calling in Texas this year. For example, new systems will link Sweetwater and San Angelo, Fort Worth and Waco, Houston and Beaumont. Via a network of such microwave antenna towers and transmitting stations, your phone calls are relayed from point to point with the speed of light.

Thurber Natives Remember Duchess Of Another Monicker -- 'Wildcat' Warfield

The presence of the Duchess of Windsor in Houston, where her husband, the Duke of Windsor, has recently undergone major surgery, has stirred the memories of former residents of Thurber.

The history of the rise and fall of Thurber, located in the northwest corner of Erath County, U. S. Highway 80 east of Ranger, rivals that of the international romance of the former Wally Warfield, now the Duchess of Windsor.

The link connecting the two is the visits the Duchess made to Thurber when her grandfather, Col. Edward Dickey Hunter, was one of the owners of the fabulous coal mining and brick-making operation.

Mrs. Hazel Miller of Stephenville, whose husband, Mose Miller, was an executive with the Texas and Pacific Coal Company, recalls vividly the days Wally Warfield spent in Thurber as a 'teen-ager.'

"She would come and stay several weeks in the Colonel's mansion on New York Hill or at his cottage on Thurber Lake," Mrs. Miller said.

"Many of the young people thought she was an 'oddy' because of her Baltimore background, but I always enjoyed being with her. I invited her to our home for dinner, and she seemed very grateful for being invited."

Mrs. Miller recalled that Thurber was in its heyday at the time the future Duchess made her visits. More than 2,000 homes lined the streets of the bustling community, which boasted a population of approximately 10,000. Starting with the discovery of a rich bituminous coal vein in 1887, Thurber mushroomed into a brick making business that soon became the largest in Texas. Vitified brick, used primarily for paving purposes, soon found its way into virtually every city in the state. When oil displaced coal, the mines were closed. The clay, a by-product of the coal mining, ceased to feed the brick plants, and the two primary industries of Thurber had died.

Thurber itself did not die, it just faded into the surrounding areas. The rows of homes, formerly occupied by the miners, did not rot and fall as a monument to a ghost town, but they were sold one by one and moved to the many small communities surrounding Thurber. As went the houses, so went the people. Many of them moved to other towns in the area and entered occupations completely foreign to the mining operation they had previously known. The executive office of the Texas Pacific company moved to Fort Worth, and Thurber soon became a memory. Today, some people call it a ghost town, but most of the oldtimers do not. It was never a town — it was a mining camp first and last. All of the property and improvements were owned and operated by the Texas Pacific company. Its purpose was to mine coal. When the coal mining ceased, so did the camp.

Mrs. Miller, who came to Thurber when she was five years of age, smiled as she told about a midnight frolic with the Duchess in some big, empty sugar barrels. "I was spending the night with Wally. She woke me up after midnight and we went outside and got the barrels. We'd get in them and roll down a steep hill toward the lake. Once I heard her say 'here goes nothing,' and she jumped into the lake," Mrs. Miller said. This type of antic probably led to the nickname "Wildcat" which Colonel Hunter bestowed on the Duchess.

Little did Mrs. Miller, or any other person in Thurber, realize that their playmate would someday be involved in an international romance with the King of England. A romance that, in 1936, resolved into the now historical decision "My Kingdom for a Woman."

In a move that shook the royal roots of Great Britain, the King denounced his throne and married the beautiful "Wildcat" Warfield.

They later became the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

"I wish I could see her while she is in Texas," said Mrs. Miller, "and talk about the many wonderful visits we had in Thurber."

AUSTIN — Texas Legislators will be back in Austin on January 12 to grapple with an array of problems which could keep them here throughout the summer.

Congressional and legislative redistricting, taxes and appropriations top the agenda of controversial subjects for the 59th session.

Many lawmakers feel they will come to grips with the redistricting issue before expiration of the regular session in May. Special sessions very likely will be necessary to settle this explosive matter in line with the one-man-one-vote theory laid down by court decisions.

Proposed expenditures for higher education and teacher pay raises look like top topics for debate in the spending area.

Other legislation sure to stir strong interest and hot tempers includes horse race betting, oil and gas lease pooling, water planning and development, mixed drink sales and judicial pay raises.

No significant change in the power structure of either house of the Legislature is likely. House Speaker Byron Tunnell is assured of another term and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith will begin his second term as presiding officer of the Senate.

There are only two new members in the Senate and 42 in the House.

Texas' crime rate jumped nearly 12 per cent in 1964, says the Department of Public Safety.

Rate increased from 2,261 offenses per 100,000 population in 1962 to 2,675 this year. This fact led a committee of Texas mayors to call on Gov. John Connally for advice as to action needed. Connally promised to cooperate and urged the 10 mayors to have their city attorneys review proposed revisions in the state code of criminal procedure.

There is guarded talk in the halls of the State Capitol, by lawmakers who would rather remain anonymous for now, that the two-per-cent sales tax will be extended to cover grocery purchases when the 1965 Legislature meets.

State sales tax law passed three years ago brought in $204,736,161 during the fiscal year which ended August 31. This tax accounted for 12 cents of every State revenue dollar.

But expected demands on State resources — to meet teachers' pay raises, improvement of higher education facilities, and upgrading of other State services — is expected to be the trigger for making the sales tax applicable to groceries, heretofore exempt.

First U. S. Postal Card was issued on May 1, 1872.

SALES TAX TABLE PREPARED FOR USE OF TEXAS CITIZENS

Texas taxpayers may use a state sales tax table as a guideline when filing their 1964 federal income tax returns. Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue said the table is now available.

The table shows the average amount of state sales tax paid by Texas residents and may be used by taxpayers who itemize their federal income tax deductions. Similar tables have been prepared for 36 other states and the District of Columbia.

For the first time since 1960 when the tables were originally issued there has been a general revision of the amounts, Mr. Campbell said. The latest tables are based on summary data showing the patterns of consumer expenditures developed by the Bureau of Labor Statistics from a 1960-61 study. Previously, tables were revised only to reflect changes in sales tax rates or the commodities covered by the particular state's laws.

The recent study shows that household operations, property taxes, medical care, personal care services, education, and insurance have, for the most part, comprised a larger part of the total consumer expenditures in 1960-61 than they did in 1950. These items are not usually subjected to state sales taxes.

The new tables omit the state sales tax on automobiles purchased, thus providing a uniform treatment of this item for all states. Now taxpayers who purchase an automobile may add the sales taxes paid on the purchase to the amount shown in the table.

The result of the revisions, particularly the elimination of the allowance for autos, has reduced the amount shown on the sales tax tables. The new tables, however, are a more accurate measure of the average sales tax paid in the various states.

Internal Revenue reminds taxpayers that these tables are not required to be used. They are furnished as a guide for the convenience of taxpayers who itemize deductions on their federal income tax returns but who wish to use a "standard" amount for state sales tax which will not require detailed substantiation. Taxpayers have the choice, of course, of deducting the actual amount of state sales taxes paid.

Cigarette taxes are no longer deductible in Texas, due to the tax law change in 1964. The average state sales tax table for Texas tells taxpayers they can deduct 5 cents per gallon.

TEXAS AVERAGE STATE SALES TAX TABLE

This table is based on the Texas general sales tax rate of 2 percent. It may be used when deducting sales tax on Form 1041. If the table is not used, state tax deductions should be itemized and substantiated. Deductible sales tax is the purchase of automobiles and gasoline tax of 6 cents a gallon are not included in the table and must be itemized separately.

CHRISTIAN CHURCHES WORLD OUTREACH CONFERENCE HELD

The Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) of the State of Texas are in the midst of a number of meetings trying to get before the people of the local churches the needs for outreach giving beyond their own local churches.

The meeting, which is to be called "Operation Far Horizons", will be held for this area in the First Christian Church in Brownwood, Sunday afternoon, January 10.

Dr. Roland Huff of the National Office of the Christian Churches will be the speaker and will point up the theological and biblical backgrounds for outreach giving. Following this presentation there will be a discussion period.

Luci Baines Johnson Will Head March of Dimes Teen Program

Luci Baines Johnson, America's most famous teenager, will be honorary chairman of the 1965 March of Dimes Teen Age Program against birth defects. Luci, who has some very strong opinions about young people and their place in society, is leading a task force of thousands of young people in the fight against birth defects.

"There are a lot of good and useful things we can do right now—without waiting to turn 21," she says.

Her opinion is confirmed by March of Dimes spokesmen. "Teen-age volunteers are among our most dedicated workers. Their interest, their contribution of time, talent and energy has been impressive. There can be no doubt that they have played a significant role in the conquest of polio."

Cites New Hope
"The victory over polio gives us heart and hope that answers can be found in an infinitely more complex disease area—birth defects. It is a problem in which young people have a special stake—not only because of the large percentage of babies born to mothers under 20 but because of the relationship of the health of teenagers to that of their future children," Luci points out.

More than a quarter of a million seriously defective infants are born in this country each year—one every other minute—700 a day. The problem of birth defects is far greater than polio ever was.

Young people who have joined the Teen Age Program of the 1965 March of Dimes fight against birth defects will shoulder many responsibilities. Many are helping to carry out the public education program against birth defects. Others are assigned to help in various ways with the Mothers' March for the March of Dimes. Some help out at one of the more than 3,000 local chapters of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

The purpose of the Teen Age Program (TAP) of the March of Dimes is to acquaint teenagers with the problem of birth defects—a major health problem which affects them, their families and their communities in which they live.

Dances, Games Help
Teenagers have raised money for the March of Dimes by putting on dances, basketball games, contests of all sorts and sales of everything from balloons to garden seeds. Much of this money has gone into the establishment of 50 March of Dimes birth defects centers throughout the country. These birth defects centers make diagnosis, evaluation
