Tentative Date For Senior Play Is February 18

Rehearsals are being conducted for the forthcoming Ranger High School Senior play, February 18 is the date tentatively set for its presentation.

"Curtain Going Up" by Gregory Johnston is a comedy in three acts. It is the story of the presentation of a high school play. Among the myriad of obstacles with which poor young Miss Burgess is faced (it is her first play) are the following: A grouchy janitor with a sharp tongue, the disappearance of the playbooks the first day of rehearsal, a set of comically crossed up high school romances with a capital R, a charming young heroine who becomes stage-struck, her bewildered boyfriend, and a disgruntled athlete feeling out of place as an actor. The solution to the mounting complications sets forth a worthwhile theme that will satisfy any audience.

91st Jury Finds Allen Not Guilty

"Not guilty!" So said the jury of Ivan J. Allen, 73, who has been on trial for his life this week in Eastland County.

The three-woman, nine-man 91st District Court jury was landed the Allen murder case at 11 a. m. Thursday and returned with the verdict at 1:45 p. m. Jerry Carter of Eastland was foreman and read the jury's verdict.

The jury came back to the courtroom about ten minutes of 12 noon and asked for some specific information of the court, and went to lunch.

The courtroom was packed with spectators, most of whom remained in their seats, not even leaving for lunch, waiting for the jury's return. They had a relatively short two hour and 45-minute wait. Testimony in the case was completed Wednesday about 2:30 p. m. when the defense finished its presentation. Presiding Judge J. Frank Sparks called a recess until 9 a. m. Thursday, providing time for the drafting of the charge to the jury.

Final arguments got underway Thursday after the charges were read to the jury. District Attorney Brown recalled the testimony of witnesses in attempting to show "careful aiming" by Mr. Allen of the deer rifle in the shooting of his nephew, Dr. Albert Riedel in November of 1965.

WANTED
J. W. SITTON, publisher of Eastland County Newspapers and editor of the Cisco Press returned Saturday afternoon from two weeks reserve duty with the U. S. Navy in the Pacific.

Sitton, a 25-year veteran pilot holds the rank of Commander. The other day these paragraphs — written aboard his ship — appeared in his Cisco Press:

USS MIDWAY (Jan. 19 at sea) — In a good many ways, our trip seems pretty incredible. We left Dallas last Sunday morning and came aboard the USS Midway, one of the Navy's largest aircraft carriers, before midafternoon.

In reaching the carrier at Alameda, Calif., we boarded an airliner in Dallas at 9 a.m. And at 9:55 (Pacific Time) we landed in Los Angeles — two hours and 55 minutes later. It was a flight of one hour and 16 minutes on to Oakland.

WAS MET AT the Oakland airport by Mrs. Bill Jones (the former Karen Taylor of Cisco and Eastland and CJC) and her little son Randy. Bill was on duty at his Air Force base near by.

Aboard the ship, we soon learned to climb ladders. Everywhere you go is either up or down two or three ladders.

IN SOME WAYS, the carrier Midway is similar to Cisco. It has 4,500 citizens (of-supper proceeds from which will go to the 1966 March of Dimes. The event will be held at Hodges Oak Park cafeteria on Saturday, Feb. 12, beginning at 5:30 p.m. Student tickets are 50 cents, and adult ducats are 75 cents. You also may purchase your tickets at the Ranger Times office, 211 Elm.

ON DISPLAY in Charles Arnett's Texaco Service Station is a letter titled "Letter to Teen-Agers." Here is the text of the letter —

"Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teenager. What can we do? — Where can we go? The answer is GO HOME!"

"Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves, mow the lawn, shovel the walk. Wash the car, learn to cook, scrub some floors. Repair the sink, build a boat, get a job, try singing with your friends. Learn to play musical instruments, to paint pictures. Do something."

"Help the minister, priest or rabbi, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick, assist the poor, study lessons, and then when you are through — and not too tired — read a book."

"Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your city or village does not owe you recreational facilities. The world does not owe you a living — You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents so that no one will be at war or in poverty or sick or lonely again."

"In plain, simple words GROW UP." Quit being a cry-baby. Get out of your dream world and develop a backbone, not a wishbone, and start acting like a man or a lady.

"You're supposed to be mature enough to accept some of the responsibility your parents have carried for years. They have nursed, protected, helped, appealed, begged, excused, tolerated and denied themselves needed comforts so that you could have every benefit! This they have done gladly, for you are their dearest treasure. But now you have no right to expect them to bow to every whim and fancy just because selfish ego instead of common sense dominates your personality, thinking and requests. In Heavens name GROW UP AND GO HOME!"

(Author of this letter of Judge Phillips B. Gilliams, Judge of Juvenile Court, Denver, Colo.)

THE AVERAGE American ate 47.6 meals in his car during 1965, reveals a year-end survey by local drive-in restaurants. He ate hamburgers 68 percent of the time, and other sandwiches accounted for most of the other meals. Most Americans stuck to "finger food" when eating in their cars, although some ate elaborate knife-and-fork meals. Most popular combination was a hamburger, French fries and a drink. Second most popular combination was two hamburgers, French fries and a drink. Eating in cars is on the increase. The survey discovered. Five years ago the national average was only 33.1 meals. And the in-car eaters aren't all teen-agers either, as you'll find when you go out for a burger and a Coke.

THE MIDWAY was one of the first of the Forrester type carriers that were built after World War II. It carries over 100 airplanes, has steam catapult launchers, and can run at the rate of about 40 miles per hour.

The big ship shot its first bullets in war in Viet Nam last spring and summer. It reported on the firing line last April and during 146 days of combat operating days, the Midways aircraft flew 11,938 combat sorties and expended over 16,000,000 pounds of ordnance. The ship steamed more than 90,000 miles and recovered 13,336 aircraft. It's helicopter detachment rescued a good many Air Force personnel shot down in the Viet Nam operations.

SINCE IT GOT back to its home port last Dec. 1, the Midway has been operating as a carrier, qualification unit for Naval aviators in schools along the west coast. This week she has been receiving and launching planes all days and all nights.

The big ship is due to go into a dry dock near its home port on Feb. 15 for a complete modernization program. It's now 20 years old and its equipment is behind present standards. Members of the crew will be reassigned to other ships or shore stations.

OUR TWO WEEKS are being spent mostly at sea and we are working with the regular ship's crew — keeping up to date on what's new in the Navy.

Our room is just below the flight deck in the area where the steam catapults send the airplanes back aloft. The noise takes some getting used to. The flying goes on until midnight, frequently.

Members of the crew work four hours and have eight hours off all the time the carrier is at sea. This gives them eight working hours out of every 24 hours. Many of the officers work up to 20 hours a day.

IT'S REAL interesting for a country editor who seldom gets more than 100 miles from home to be on a ship like the Midway. When we think about it, we still find it all pretty incredible.

Will report again before we conclude our tour toward the end of the month.

RJC's prospects for another basketball victory over the Cisco Junior College Wranglers at Cisco on Feb. 17 brightened considerably Friday morning with the disclosure CJC's two leading scorers are ineligible to play during the spring semester.

The two Wrangler stars are Preston Sheard, nation's No. two scorer, and teammate Frank Biggers, ranked sixth nationally in the scoring column.

Both failed to pass the required number of hours and grade points—12 hours with nine grade points — and immediately withdrew from school.

Their combined efforts equaled 64 points per game.

Bill Marvin, former Abilene High cager, who became eligible this semester, will be moved into the starting lineup, according to Coach Leland Willis. The other vacancy should be filled by either Johnny Creamer or Howard Scott.

ment, both Attorney Bill B. Hart and Virgil T. Seaberry Jr. stressed the accidental shooting aspects, repeating that three insurance companies had paid off on policies "following investigations in which they found the death to be accidental." This line was objected to strongly by Brown but Judge Sparks allowed it to stand because it had been brought out in testimony. (The defense had brought the insurance matter in by showing beneficiaries of the late physician.)

Defense included the testimony of close friends as well as the families of Dr. Riedel, in showing the affection between Mr. Allen and the young physician.

Quoting the Old Testament, Mr. Brown asked for the death penalty during the state's final rebuttal.

The third-floor courtroom was packed both Wednesday and Thursday, with many standees and some spectators seated in folding lawn chairs which they had brought for themselves.

Mrs. J. E. Ferris has received word that her grandson, Major Ralph C. Dresser, who is serving with the Air Force in Viet Nam, is now stationed in Saigon, where he flies missions daily.

Over 500 Learn About Medicare In Talk Series

Over 535 Eastland Countians heard about "Medicare" in December and January. Fifteen talks were made by H. L. Weatherly, Field Representative, Social Security Administration, in all cities and communities in the county, plus all the Home Demonstration Clubs in the county.

These group meetings and talks were sponsored by the Eastland County Committee on Aging, H. V. O'Brien, Chairman; and by the Eastland County Home Demonstration Club Council, Beverly Nicholson, Home Demonstration Agent, J. M. Cooper, County Agent and member of the Committee, said the object of the meetings was to tell everyone in the county about Medicare.

Attending these meetings were the following number from towns in the county: Ranger, 63; Cisco, 93; Eastland, 61; Carbon, 20; Rising Star, 21; Olden, 53; Nimrod, 43; Gorman, 31; and Desdemona, 10.

Forty applications were taken at the meeting and 145 cards were completed electing to take the medical portion of Medicare. One of the most profitable results of the talks was that all of the forty applications taken were from people who would have otherwise been missed. Many questions were answered on Medicare and other parts of Social Security.

At each of the meetings in the county, Weatherly explained the main points of Medicare: the one qualification to be eligible for this program is to be age 65 or older. It is divided into two parts. Hospital Insurance and Medical Insurance.

Hospital benefits are to help pay the bill when a person is hospitalized. When an individual enters the hospital he is responsible for the first $40.00, and the balance (except for personal comfort items and private duty nurses) is paid by this program. All those who have qualified for Social Security or Railroad retirement benefits are automatically enrolled for this portion of the program. Everyone else needs to make an application. All those receiving Old Age Assistance are now being enrolled by the Department of Public Welfare; the rest need to contact the Social Security Office in Abilene or the representative when he is in their town. Hospital benefits do not cost the individual anything, but are to be paid from a special trust fund to which a part of current social security taxes are allocated.

Medical insurance helps to pay for the doctor's services and for some other medical items not under hospital benefits. This program pays 80 percent of the doctor bills after they amount to $50.00 in a calendar year. The individual is responsible for the first $50.00 of medical expense each year. This program is optional, so everyone who wishes to be under this part, must enroll for it. Those on Social Security or Railroad Retirement Benefits received a card from Baltimore in October or November, an enrollment card. When this was answered either "yes" or "no," no other action was necessary. If answered wrong, a new one can be obtained from the Social Security Office, Abilene, Texas. Application for medical benefits is made as part of the application for hospital benefits. The deadline for making application for medical benefits for everyone born in 1900 and before is March 31, 1966. This protection costs $3.00 per month, starting July 1, 1966.

Medicare becomes effective July 1, 1966.

The entire program was a series of successes because of the efforts of those on the Committee, who encouraged all interested Eastland County residents to attend the meeting most convenient for them.

Irish peasants depended almost entirely on the potato for food in the first half of the 19th century.

EASTLAND COUNTY TRAPPERS TO MEET TUESDAY NIGHT AT 7:30

There will be a meeting of the Eastland County Trapper's Association Tuesday, February 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the Meeting Room of the Texas Electric Service Company in Eastland. All members and friends are urged to attend this meeting as some important business will be attended to.

Refreshments will be served.

The Eastland County Trapper's Association has found that in many ways the problems of reducing animal damage are far more complex than the relatively straightforward issue of managing wildlife in national parks. A large number of governmental and private organizations are involved in the control program in one way or another, and the area encompassed is enormous.

Here in Eastland County the association has focused their attention to the Predator control of animals, which mainly consist of wolves or coyotes and bobcats.

By predators, it is meant animals that prey or live off of other animals. The coyote or bobcat is an enemy of the goat and sheep and their problem here is to control the enemy. This control is not a easy one, it is a continuous job, for the coyote is constantly raising in the cattle counties directly to the north and west, and is continuously drifting in our direction in order to find his prey, the goat and sheep. Since livestock is one of our best money crops it is a constant job protecting the goat and sheep.

This job calls for co-operation from several organizations in order that a Government trapper can be employed for this work. The Federal and State Government through the Department of Fish and Wildlife and the county with individual contribution all working together employ a full time Government trapper, who in turn works under the direction of the Fish and Wildlife Department.

His job is to fight the Predator, the coyote and bobcat.

Winter Makes Another Icy Pass Through Area

This area was hit by another blast from old man winter as the week drew to an end. Breezing in Friday about noon, the Arctic cold front iced up the landscape with about a half inch of snow and sleet, accompanied by temperatures that dipped as low as five degrees Friday night and early Saturday morning.

Friday morning the 8 a.m. temperature stood at 32, but began falling fast and by noon was at 21 and the moisture that fell, was sleet as it hit. Sleet and snow continued through the afternoon as the mercury continued to drop. However the sun peeped out a little before 5 p.m. and it appeared to be clearing. No appreciable moisture fell during the night, but that already down, formed a slick glaze Saturday morning, causing hazardous driving and treacherous walking for all.

Some 21 accidents were reported by Highway Patrolmen on the area highways Friday afternoon and their undoubtedly were scores of unreported "fender benders" here.

Saturday the sun began early to clear and melt the ice on terrain, but the temperatures remained low. More clearing and some warmer is the prediction for Sunday.

Cisco Corporation Seeks Tourist $s Off Int. 20

Tourism was cited as the second largest industry in the state of Texas during 1965 at the first public meeting of citizens interested in forming the Lake Cisco Recreation Corporation, a non-profit corporation which will direct a $350,000 improvement program at Lake Cisco in an effort to draw tourists off Interstate Highway 20 when it bypasses the town.

Some 60 people, including several from Eastland and Moran, gathered at the Cisco High School Auditorium last Thursday night to hear reports from a steering committee appointed by Mayor Roy M. Benton for the purpose of laying the groundwork for the improvement program. Gene Abbott, chairman of the committee, introduced Jim Smothers, Cof C manager and secretary of the committee; Darrell Cooper, representative for the Farm Home Administration in Eastland; and Gene Schrickel, landscape architect from Arlington; as speakers for the evening. Other members of the steering committee introduced were W. W. Sawyers, Winston Heidenheimer, and J. L. Stafford.

In the opening address of the evening, Mr. Abbott expressed his belief that "A community that plays together, stays together," and included Scanton, Nimrod, Cottonwood, Morton Valley, Sabino, Carbon, Okra, Pleasant Hill, Dan Horn, Punkin Center, Pueblo, Putnam, Moran, Gungait, Eastland, Ranger, Gorman, Owens Gin, Long Branch, Romney and others as neighboring communities to be included.

"This recreation improvement project can be the salvation for our community," Mr. Smothers pointed out, "because outdoor living has become the modern way of life in America today."

Naming tourism as the second largest industry during 1965, Mr. Smothers added that in three years it will be the number one industry in the state. In view of this, he said, better recreation facilities are in constant demand.

The proposed $350,000 loan for improvement at Lake Cisco was explained in detail by Mr. Cooper. Improvements included in the plan are: Landscaping and establishing excellent picnicking and camping facilities; an 18 hole golf course with watered fairways; reconstruction of club house to furnish dining, games, meeting rooms, banquet, conventions, and reunion facilities; modernizing city cabins and church camp and constructing new cabins to provide adequate facilities for guests, vacationers, tourists, and family reunions; development of swimming pool area by construction of a new bath house, concession stand, and new skating rink; establishment of complete dock facilities; construction of new playgrounds with new equipment for all ages.

Contrasting Lake Cisco and Six Flags, architect Gene Schrickel pointed out that all facilities at Six Flags were man-made, while Cisco has a great abundance of natural facilities that merely need developing.

During the discussions and the question and answer period which followed, the following points were established: It is necessary to form a non-profit corporation with a membership fee of $60 for the first year in order to insure payment on the loan at the end of the year. When the project begins operating and earning revenue, membership fees may be reduced accordingly or possibly done away with altogether.

A membership includes the husband, wife, and minor children living at home, and during the first year the family may use the golf course, swimming pool, and club house free of charge, and other facilities at reduced rates.

Persons from other communities may join the corporation so long as not more than one-third of the members live in towns with populations of more than 5,500.

The goal is for 600 members, although the corporation could be formed with as many as 350. Payment on the loan at the end of the first year will be less than $20,000.

The City of Cisco and Chamber of Commerce will not in any way own or administer the facilities, and no taxpayer will assume any liability for the debt.

Members of the corporation will not be responsible for paying the debt should the project be unprofitable. The Farm Home Association suffers the loss.

Membership will be closed when the project gets underway, and members will elect a board of directors for administration.

No money will be retained by the corporation at any time except for necessary repairs and emergencies.

Mr. Abbott expressed gratitude for the good response and interest shown by those present, and said in closing that any citizen who has faith in his community and has its welfare at heart should be willing to invest $60 in its future.

Mimeographed sheets explaining the basic details of the program and applications for membership were taken by most of those present. There will be other public meetings in the future, Mr. Abbott announced.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Dortha Harris on Wednesday evening were her nephew, John T. Taylor of San Francisco, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Gust of Sweetwater.

Veniremen Get $5 Now --$4 Later

Special veniremen are getting a raise under the new criminal code — but ones to follow won't get as much as those who served in the trial this past week in 91st District Court.

The new code specifies that such potential jurors for murder trials will be paid "no less than $4 per day and no more than $10 per day," exact amount to be set by the County Commissioners Court.

The amount hadn't been established when the trial got underway Monday morning, so to be safe, the district clerk's office started paying the veniremen $5 each when they appeared and were excused.

The commissioners court met later Monday however, and passed to following resolution which will put the special venire on a $4 per day base.

"After due consideration it was determined by the court that the pay for special veniremen would be set at the sum of $4 per day; the pay for grand jurors at the sum of $5 per day; and the pay for petit jurors at the sum of $5 per day. All commissioners voting "Aye" motion declared passed. It is further ordered that the amount for special veniremen would take effect after the termination of the cause now being heard in the 91st District Court."

Mrs. J. W. White entered Wichita Falls Gen. Hospital last Wednesday. She will be a patient for several days while undergoing a check-up and possible treatment.

Mouth breathing can affect your child's dental and physical health.

Parents generally realize that some oral habits, such as thumbsucking, when carried on too far in the child's age, affect the teeth in such a way as to push them into abnormal positions. Thumbsucking is only one of the so-called "bad" oral habits. Mouth breathing can also be detrimental to the child's health. It is often overlooked and undetected.

The importance of proper attention for mouth breathers is stressed this winter during the 18th National Children's Dental Health Week, sponsored Feb. 6-12 by the American Dental Association.

Mouth breathing means that the individual has a habit of breathing through the mouth. When this occurs continuously, the gum tissues are irritated through the drying effects of the air. The tissues become inflamed, sometimes swollen and even painful.

Mouth breathing can contribute to a different kind of tooth decay pattern than usually seen. The typical mouth breather shows large whitish soft spots around the gum line of the front teeth, the result of drying of the foreign material that collects about the necks of the teeth. A continual mouth breather often develops a change in the position of the teeth, or in other terms, may also develop a malocclusion.

When the child continually holds his mouth open, the muscular support of the tongue and lower lip are lost to the upper teeth. The teeth collapse toward the inside of the mouth, thereby narrowing the dental arch. Often the front teeth will begin to protrude.

When a child continually breathes through his mouth, the air does not pass through the nose, missing the important function that the nose plays in preparing the air for the lungs. As dry, dirty, cold air from the outside passes through the nose, the air is filtered by the hairs in the nose; it is warmed by the large mass of blood vessels that are inside the nose, and is humidified by the moisture that the nose contains. Mouth breathing usually will result in an increase in upper respiratory infections. The child will have more colds or even suffer a more serious lung problem.

Not every child who breathes through his mouth should be considered a mouth breather for many children have short upper lips and will keep their mouths open while breathing through their nose. Who then, becomes a mouth breather?

Children with narrow faces have a tendency to have narrow airways or noses, easily closed off because of a minor cold. Some children will have enlarged adenoid or tonsil tissue, which normally grows in excess up to about 10 years of age and then diminishes in size. During this period, the airway may be obstructed by the tonsils. The child is forced to breathe through his mouth until he outgrows his enlarged tonsils. He develops a breathing habit not easily corrected.

Mouth breathing is very common between the ages of 4-12 and is easily diagnosed by your physician or dentist. It should be corrected to prevent harmful dental and physical effects.

Junk Yard and Billboard Survey Begins In State

AUSTIN—The second phase of Texas' initial plan of compliance with the recently-enacted Federal Highway Beautification Act got under way this month when field parties from the Texas Highway Department began the actual count for inventories of billboards and junkyards along Texas highways.

The act, as approved by Congress and signed into law by the President, envisions the control of billboards and junkyards and scenic enhancement along the nation's federal-aid highway systems.

In Texas this will cover more than 3,000 miles of Interstate highway system and more than 14,500 miles of the primary system.

The Texas inventories were ordered last month by State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer.

At that time Greer said information obtained in the inventories will be used in studies that will be made relative to possible state legislation to implement the provision of the act, including the zoning of industrial and commercial areas along the State Highway system.

A Highway Department spokesman said May 15, 1966, has been set as a target date for completion of the inventories.

The Highway Department field parties will travel over every mile of federal-aid highways in Texas gathering information for the inventories.

The number of junkyards in the state is considerably smaller than that of billboards.

On billboards, Highway Department personnel will record such information as size, ownership, subject displayed and location.

The signs will be classified as in rural, industrial or commercial areas.

Signs directly related to the property on which they are located, such as "for sale" signs, will not be surveyed.

The first project in Texas' plan of action under the Federal act was launched earlier this month when the Texas Highway Commission approved plans for the first landscape planting project to be financed in Texas under the act.

This project is to be on a section of Interstate Highway 45 adjacent to the downtown business district of Houston.

The Federal act calls for an expanded program of landscaping and scenic enhancement.

law as his major. He intends to attend Midwestern University after graduating from Ranger. He is also a big reason for a winning basketball season.

Jimmy Medley, 19, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Medley of Ringgold, Texas, is on the Ranger Junior College varsity basketball team. He is also going to be active in baseball. Jimmy, a freshman, graduated from Goldburg High School May 25, 1965. He is 6-foot-2 inches tall, weighs 163, and has brown eyes, and blond hair.

In high school Jimmy was active in basketball, track and baseball. He also had the honor of being FFA favorite his senior year.

Jimmy is majoring in physical education at Ranger Junior College. After finishing here, he plans to attend a senior college.

Charles Haggard, 15, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haggard of Stephenville, Texas, is on the Ranger Junior College Junior varsity basketball team. A freshman here, he graduated from Stephenville Senior High School May 28, 1965. He is 6 feet, 3 inches tall, weighs 165 pounds, and has green eyes and brown hair.

In high school, Charles was active in football and basketball and was a member of the science and FFA clubs. He also had the honor of being sophomore class sergeant-at-arms.

At Ranger Junior College, he is majoring in Physical Education and minoring in History. Charles plans to attend Texas A&M or Tarleton State College after he finishes at Ranger.

SS Enrollment Cards Should Be Returned

About one fourth of the Eastland county social security beneficiaries 65 or older who received enrollment cards for the medical insurance part of Medicare through the mail have not yet returned them, R. R. Tuley, Jr., social security district manager in Abilene, reported today.

This enrollment card is important. Social security beneficiaries can use it to sign up for medical insurance, which will help pay doctors' bills when Medicare becomes effective next July, he continued.

This card should be filled out and returned to social security as soon as possible. Anyone who has lost the enrollment card can get another by checking with the field representative who visits here regularly, or by writing the Abilene social security office, but he should do it soon.

Men and women 65 and over who receive monthly social security or railroad retirement benefits will automatically have hospital insurance, the other part of Medicare. Hospital insurance will help pay hospital bills and related expenses.

Nearly everyone 65 and over can receive Medicare, even if they don't receive social security benefits, or even if they never have worked under social security, he added. But, a person will have this protection only if he applies for it.

The company's request for microwave service has been on file with the F. C. C. for quite some time, and an earlier application drew protests from Abilene television stations.

Mr. Scallorn appeared before the Eastland commission at the November meeting and explained the procedures for applications, and stated at that time, that the company expected final approval soon because there had not been protests lodged.
