"The original 12 counties, of which Eastland is one, have really been 'home', and longtime friends and supporters are highly valued," Burleson said. Further commenting he added, "The people whom I have represented all the years I have been in Congress were most understanding two years ago when it was necessary for me to concentrate in campaigning in 12 new counties. Since seven more have now been added, I shall have to make an effort to become better acquainted and make friends in that new area. I will, however, be calling on my constituents in the older area at the earliest opportunity. I upon a Congressman to know people and that they know him, to have the best representation. This is fundamental to our system."

In his statement, Burleson says, "During my tenure of office I have followed two guiding principles: First, to know the views of my constituents and reflect their sentiments to the greatest degree possible in my actions in the Halls of Congress. Second, to inform and advise as closely as I can on those issues which affect our District, our State and our Nation.'

Burleson termed his approach to Government as one of "common sense," gained through the years of public service. "I have tried to see believe that it is incumbent that the people's tax money is spent as wisely and as judic-iously as you would have spent it had you been in my place," he said.

"The record will show that a greater part of the time I have found myself in the minority in opposing the vast spending programs which have been put into effect in recent years. In every Session if the Congress the record will show my votes for expenditures below that recomnended by the Executive De-partment and far less than actually appropriated by the Congress, except in the field of National Defense," Burleson said. He continued, "Withconsistently over the years for fiscal responsibility, our financial affairs would not be in the shape they are today."

Burleson stated that activities of State and local governments, in accordance with the Constitution should not be infringed and encroached upon 670x15, 815x15, 775x14, by the Federal Government. "The Federal Governmen t does have specific missions."

he said. He gave as examples the conservation of our natural resources, the defense of the Country and its general

"At the same time," he said, "the Federal Govern ment can not and should not try to take care of everything from Washington, either for-eign or domestic. The Federal Government has grown to colos al proportions and centralized power in Washington has increased," Burleson point ed out. "To this, I am opposed and may record is clear in this respect."

Burleson is among the senior members of the U. S House of Representatives in point of service. His seniority has carried him to the Chairmanship of the potent House Administration Committee, and to the second position to the Chairman on the powerful Foreign Affairs Committee. In addition, Burleson serves on two important Joint Committees formed from senior members of the Alma - No. 300 House and Senate, as Chairman of one and Vice Chairman of the other.

Burleston is a former County Attorney and County Judge of Jones County. He was appointed an FBI Agent, and served in a number of assignments over the U.S. He resigned from the FBI to join the Navy in World War II and saw duty in both the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Burleson ended his formal announcement by saying, "Although not having opposition in this year's election, it is my Bonus - Tall Cans hope to visit my constituency as opportunity affords.
