Tom Stewart will serve the meal and all men of the Methodist Church are invited to attend this occasion.

OH, IT may shower a little Music Dept. - after all, it's stock show weekend - and it may be a little cool, but we've got it on good authority that THIS IS THE LAST WEEK OF WINTER. Time now to be thinking about that new Easter hat and suit, you know. Acording to our Rexall Drug almanac calendar, Spring Lewis covered a lot of terriofficially arrives a week from today - March 20 - but according to us Ground Hog watchers this is the sixth week since that rodent got a good look at his shadow. M o s agree here that we've had no real bad weather - just intermident cold and warm days that all together make it prety miserable since you don't know what to get used to. Easter is April 6 so we car look forward to a lot of early lawn mowing and all the things that go to make our part of the country the best there MARK YOUR CALENDAR MRS. CHAPMAN of Lak Leon Boatel reports that the Arlington Bass Club headqu artered at her resort lodge the weekend of March 8 & 9 for their annual Tournament Marene Johnson has just bee re-elected to the National U-SO Council and will leave or Monday for a meeting of tha group in Detroit.

Knolles' most recent honor the entire region, will stand a good chance in the national balloting. He played some superlative games for RJC this eason, and will be a fitting representative for both the college and the region. For Gene Knolles, there's just one super team left to make.
