Winds edge past Tulia Hornets

Although Floydada's varsity boys basketball team led by seven points at one time during the game Tuesday night, turnovers almost spelled the end as the team lost the ball 34 times on the way to a 59-57 overtime win over Tulia.

With 12 seconds left in the game, Tulia was ahead for the first time and by one point. Then Bruce Williams was fouled and he hit one of his free shots to put the game into overtime with a score of 57-57.

The only score of the overtime period was made by Floydada's Grant Turner with 1:14 left in the period. Although Floydada players fouled two times after Turner's basket, Tulia was unable to come up with any points.

After the game, head coach Mike Cocanougher said, "We beat them (Tulia) by about 30 points the last time we played them. It's hard for the kids to get up the second time after beating them like that. We made a lot of mistakes and the kids know it. But this is what I told them in the dressing room. 'A mark of a good team is to be down and come back and win.' We're good and we're gonna go for it."

Tulia's head coach Donnie Prater felt that it was a good ballgame for both sides. Prater said, "We had our chances to win and we didn't take advantage of them. Also his kids (Cocanougher's) have played together for a couple of years. They are just more mature than my team."

Donell Weeks led in scoring with 18, followed by James King with 12 and Turner with 11. Turner led in rebounds with 19, while King had 14 and Bruce Williams had eight.

Good defense by Tulia and mistakes by Floydada caused the varsity girls to lose, 42-52.

The 10 point spread between the two teams was the closest Floydada came the entire game. Floydada had a 34 percent shooting accuracy for both fieldgoals and freeshots.

In fact, Coach Tommy Baxter felt that this was one of their worst games. Baxter said, "We played bad. This was the worst we've played in a while. But we have a tournament this weekend, so maybe we can get it together."

Sherese Cannon and Renee Ledbetter were tied for high point scorer with 12 apiece, followed by Pam Cathey with six.

JAMES KING dunks in another two points in the 59-57 defeat of Tulia Tuesday night. For more sports scores see page three.

County continues to thaw

First snow of '83 hampers residents

THE FOG AND ICY ROADS still plagued motorists with hazardous driving on Monday after the snowstorm Saturday.

THIS DELUXE SNOWMAN at 328 W. Crockett was one of the many snowmen and snowwomen that seemed to move in with the snow that fell Saturday morning.

Floyd County residents woke up New Year's morning to a veritable winter wonderland after up to 11 inches of snow covered the ground.

Most of the county was immobilized Saturday. Citizens armed with shovels, heavy road equipment, tractors and a little muscle began the dig-out process Sunday.

The snow inspired the young and the young at heart as snowmen, snowwomen and various snow creatures sprang up around town. However, the nighttime temperatures that hovered near the zero mark made driving hazardous over the weekend.

The heavy snows headed our direction Friday when the storm center changed directions and didn't start heading northeast soon enough to miss the South Plains. It continued to follow Interstate 20 and hit the Big Spring area. At the last reports Saturday, it was heading toward the Wichita Falls area.

No serious accidents due to icy conditions were reported.

Warmer temperatures are forecasted for the region for the remainder of the week.

THE ALTERNATING FREEZING and thawing temperatures created this monster of an icicle that Stacey Westbrook shows at her residence at 503 W. Virginia.

Rep. Whaley installs toll-free line

State Representative Foster Whaley, Pampa, announced that a toll-free incoming WATT Line telephone has been installed in his Pampa office. The WATT line will permit any citizen in the 84th Legislative District to call him at no expense to the caller. The TOLL-FREE NUMBER: 1-800-692-1389.

Permission was granted to Whaley to make this installation because of the large eleven and one-half county district which included part of the Panhandle, Rolling Plains, and South Plains. The District covers North rural Lubbock County and includes Reece A.F.B., Shallowater, New Deal, Idalou, and the southern part of Abernathy. Other counties include Crosby, Dickens, Floyd, Motley, Briscoe, Hall, Armstrong, Donley, Childress, Collingsworth, and Gray.

Whaley said the new incoming WATT line will mean he can be as accessible to a resident at Reece Air Force base, 200 miles away, as to anyone in Pampa, his home town.

From January 11, 1983, until early June, Representative Whaley will be in Austin for the 68th Legislative session.

Therefore, it is essential that callers let his Pampa secretary know who is calling, their area code, phone number, and the town from which they are calling. Also, advise Whaley's secretary about the nature of the call.

Jean Hogsett, the Pampa secretary, will relay this information to the Austin office if she is unable to get an answer for you.

Representative Whaley will answer your calls as soon as possible.

A renewed commitment to our partners

As the hopeful anticipation of 1983 begins, it is time to count blessings and to think about how the accomplishments of the past year will make the new year better.

Only a few weeks ago, an important energy decision made years ago became a reality and commitment to the future of the Southwest.

The decision was made by the customers and the employees of Southwestern Public Service Company, working together as partners to make a difference in the cost of electricity. The reality and commitment was symbolically begun in November, as literally thousands of Southwesterners toured Talk Station, the new power plant near Muleshoe, Texas. The first of two electrical generating units at this new facility is now producing electricity—from coal.

Because this and other SPS power plants are designed and built by SPS's own engineering and construction department, the cost to our customers is less than one-half the national average cost for coal-fired plants and less than one-fourth the national average cost for nuclear power plants.

SPS is one of only two electric utilities in the United States which can design and build its own power plants.

That's money saved for everyone, especially our customers.

The employees of Southwestern Public Service Company thank you for your understanding, your encouragement, and your support.

As you and SPS enter 1983 together, as partners managing electricity, you can be assured that Talk Station will make a difference in helping provide you with dependable electric service at the lowest possible cost.

You and SPS, partners managing electricity, make the difference.

Make up your mind to be happy. Learn to find pleasure in simple things. Make the best of your circumstances. No one has everything, and everyone has something of sorrow intermingled with the gladness of life.

The trick is to make laughter outweigh the tears. Don't take yourself too seriously. Don't think that somehow you should be protected from misfortunes that befall others.

You can't please everybody. Don't let criticism worry you. Don't let your neighbor set your standards. Be yourself. Do things you enjoy doing, but stay out of debt. Don't borrow trouble.

Imaginary things are harder to bear than the actual ones. Since hate poisons the soul, do no cherish enmities, grudges. Avoid people who make you unhappy. Have many interests. If you can't travel, read about new places.

Don't hold postmortems. Don't spend your life brooding over sorrows and mistakes. Don't be one who never gets over things. Do what you can for those less fortunate than yourself.

Keep busy at something. A very busy person never has time to be unhappy. The secret to enjoying life is to live it...the good and the bad. The good we can increase by appreciating it, being grateful; the bad we can decrease by not inviting it to stay longer than necessary, and by finding the good hidden within it. The choice is ours.

More from Murphy:
1) Any wire cut to length will be too short.

2) Firmness of delivery date is inversely proportional to the tightness of the schedule.

3) Grogan's law of supervision: The primary responsibility of a supervisor is to discover what his employees are doing — and stop them.

Hotline for small business: A new toll-free telephone service, "SBA Answer Desk"...800-368-5855. Small Business Administration runs it...will answer queries about government aid.

Group insurance at very good rates is still available to Chamber members, regardless of the size of your business, and is even for individuals. Call the Chamber office for details.

At the Chamber, we are talking about the future and how we can help shape it. That's why we need you and you need us. Together we can blend our talents to insure a better community for all of us.

FLOYD DATA

FLOYD DATA

Others present for the holiday were Mr. and Mrs. Joey Luna and family, Ben Luna and his three children from San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Sosa, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Luna and Mr. and Mrs. Julio Salazar and family from Grand Prairie.

JV teams beat Tulia

Floydada's junior varsity girls' and boys' basketball teams beat Tulia Tuesday, Jan. 4. The girls' score was 25-17, while the boys' was 64-12.

Tulia pulled within five points during the girls game in the fourth quarter, and was the closest score of the game, although both teams made many mistakes.

Bad plays by Tulia and good defensive plays by Jill Willson caused Tulia to score only one point in the second quarter. The most points scored by Floydada in a single quarter was nine, while Tulia's best was eight.

Amelia Medrano, Melissa Bigham and Willson were tied for high point scorer with four apiece, while Toni Lamb had three.

Willson also led in rebounds with five, followed by Margie Cisneros, Lamb and Bigham with four for each girl.

The Tulia J.V. boys ran into big problems against Floydada. Tulia seemed to be their own worst enemy because of poor passing and shooting.

Starting with the second quarter, Tulia scored two points in each quarter afterwards. The most points scored by Tulia was four in the first. Floydada's best came in the second, when the boys scored 21 points.

John Foley led in scoring with 18 points, while Joey Kemp was second highest with 12. Tony Cabellero had nine and David Morren had eight.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian
South Plains, January 3, 1983:

It has been a few weeks since there has been news from South Plains. Your correspondent was gone to Ruidoso, New Mexico during Christmas, and the weather has been a factor since then.

Happy New Year to all, and what a New Years Day we had here in the Panhandle of Texas! Snow began falling early in the day, and fell steadily without a bit of wind until night. They say there are 7 inches everywhere, and no drifting. One of our good neighbors brought his tractor and blade, and cleaned the road to the school house, bladed the church yard, the roads into our homes and we are very grateful to be able to get out of our garages and driveways. We have really had a big taste of winter since Christmas.

Mrs. Bruce Julian, Clay and Wade from Perryton came down to visit her folks, the Edell Moores and they returned this Sunday afternoon. They had come Thursday, around through Amarillo, and the snow had not fallen at Perryton on New Years Day.

At the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil and Joyce Osborne here in South Plains for Friday and Saturday of last week, they had their Christmas with children, the Rev. and Mrs. Ron Somers, Jennifer and Jaime, Mrs. Karen Mauney, both families from near Dallas, and Mrs. Corda Taylor from Muleshoe, mother of Mrs. Osborne were present.

Tuesday, December 21, Mr. and Mrs. Don and Sara Probasco held Open House at their home from 5-8:00 p.m. in the evening. Their home is north of South Plains, and they all enjoyed a happy time of visiting with neighbors and relatives.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Lyvonne Smith of Fort Worth whose father, Walter L. Hurt of Plainview, 86, passed away at his home on Saturday December 18th and the services were held Tuesday in College Heights Baptist Church at 10:30 in the morning. Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham from our area attended the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan and Bobbie Kinnibrugh went to her sisters, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Simmons in Truscott Christmas where a family Christmas gathering was held. They were at their daughter, Beths, the Robert Swains, in Plainview Tuesday night for a family gift exchange and supper. They had their New Years get together at Truscott with all the relatives. Sylvan's father, J.A. Kinnibrugh is getting along fine, and John Kinnibrugh is getting along well.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Sanders and Connie had all their family with them for the Christmas festivities, then gift exchanging. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sanders and three children from Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Sanders and daughter from Lubbock who went on later to Dumas to see her parents, and Hansel's father, A.P. Sanders of Lockney.

Wednesday night of 2 weeks ago Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham went to Cedar Hill to attend a reception which was held Wednesday, Dec. 15th at the Assembly of God Church Fellowship Hall, in connection with the Annual Community Christmas Party, for Mr. and Mrs. Robin and Ruth Fortenberry of the Cedar Hill community, a farewell party, for the couple have moved to their new home in Hereford. A Mexican supper was held, and relatives, neighbors and friends shared the occasion together. We wish the Fortenberrys had not moved from here, but there comes a time in everyone's life when you must choose which is the best for you. We wish them happiness there.

The shortest day in the year was Tuesday, December 21. Today is Monday, January 3rd, with a snow of about 7-9 inches on the ground, and a world sheathed in ice and fairly scenes, as each and every twig and sprig of grass resemble a beautiful scene in ice crystals. It is cold, and although the thermometer hovers around ten degrees, the wind is not blowing, and roads are really hard to travel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher and Hazle Powell went back to Howell and Van Alstyne to spend the Christmas holidays with their relatives, and they came home Friday. They were saddened while there by the death of 16 year old niece, who was killed in a traffic accident in Dallas on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mulder, Cindy, Penny, Jimmy and Cory went from here to Clovis, New Mexico on Wednesday to share Christmas with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Blalock, and on Thursday they went to Amarillo where they had that day and Friday with Nathan's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Taylor and children and Mrs. Letha Mulder, who spent the holiday in Amarillo with the Taylors. Candy Taylor came home with the Mulders to visit here during the past week while school was out.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smitherman went to Lubbock to have Christmas eve with Mark and Barbara Smitherman.

Mr. and Mrs. R.O. Botkin in Floydada were hosts at a Christmas eve dinner for all her side of the family, and from here Mr. and Mrs. Nathan and Connie, Troy and Tracy attended. Christmas Day they were all at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Jones.

South Plains school has opened his Monday, January 3rd, with all the teachers present, but many of the pupils have been unable to get to school. Parents took their children to schools this morning.

Terry Julian took the oath of office for County Judge of Nolan County, at Sweetwater, January 1, at 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning, and will be there the next four years. He is the son of Mrs. M.M. Julian and the brother of Kendis Julian at South Plains. They were unable to be there for the installation of officers Saturday due to inclement weather and bad roads.

Christmas 1982

Wednesday morning, December 22nd, the Julian family took off for Christmas in the mountains at Ruidoso, New Mexico. Kendis and Janis Julian, Mitzi, Kristi and Tim and Mrs. M.M. Julian from South Plains met Terry and Leona and son Dickie at Brownfield at 1:00 p.m. from Roscoe, and up to this time the wind had been pushing, and was dusty and cold, but leaving Brownfield, there was a long stretch of interesting highways, and lots of visiting was accomplished along the way. They arrived at 8:00 p.m. in Ruidoso, and enjoyed a nice supper at K-Bobs, then went to their apartment where they would be staying the next week. Bruce, Janet and boys, Clay and Wade got in at around 3:00 a.m. from Perryton, and from the next day on, most of the family spent the entire day on the ski slopes with the mountains nearly all to themselves. The families ate together, and Christmas eve supper was enjoyed at a Mexican restaurant, which all enjoyed. Christmas dinner was served in the evening with everyone present. A big, heavy, Christmas snow fell for several days, making skiing excellent. Bruce and family came home Sunday but the rest of the family stayed until Tuesday, and enjoyed a New Years Dinner at Furr's in Roswell on the way home. It was a wonderful vacation and Christmas gathering, the first time every spending Christmas in the mountains.

LOCKNEY LOCAL

Freddie Ivy, of Mansfield, son-in-law of Johns and Vera Cox and brother-in-law of Marjorie Holcomb, is in Arlington Community Hospital, after being injured in a fall from atop a loaded truck last Thursday morning. He fell about 8 feet. He received a cut on his head, a blood clot in his head, concussion, a fractured shoulder and a back injury. He is reported to be resting better.

Charlotte Blazier of Amarillo, granddaughter of the Coxes and daughter of Marjorie, was bruised and sore from an accident in which her pickup skidded into a parked car Thursday night.

Barker awarded degree from NTSU

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Cumbie and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Barker, all of the Providence community, attended the December graduation ceremony at North Texas State University in Denton. Ruby Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cumbie, was awarded her Doctor of Philosophy degree in Vocational Business Education.

Odam enjoys guests

Recent guests in the home of Mrs. J.C. Odam were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Poore of Springfield, Missouri, who spent Thursday, December 16, and Sunday, December 19, Mr. and Mrs. D.G. Odam of Devine, Texas stopped by the Odam home on their way to Dickens to visit his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Roberts for the Christmas holidays.

Look at the Bright Side

By Roy Reiman, Editor/Publisher
Farm & Ranch Living

Winter's on its way. Harvest is finished, and the pace is winding down. It's time to put your feet up and sit a spell while you think back over the past year.

Not a lot to smile about, really. Even though your crops may have been good, market prices surely weren't. So what do you have to feel good about as the holidays approach? Well, I think you should consider this: You're working.

A lot of people aren't. The experts say that one out of every five American workers has experienced a period of unemployment in 1982. More than 11 million Americans are presently out of work.

The first thing people think of when they hear someone is out of work is that he or she is no longer making money. Well, I have city friends who are out of work, and I can tell you that the lack of income is only half of the problem.

Said one of them, who now sits at home from 8 to 5 when he isn't looking for another job, "I've never been more miserable in my life. Man was created to work. I'm 53 years old, and I've never been out of a job before. It affects my dignity. I'm just puttering around here all day, getting in my wife's way and everyone else's. I'm irritable, and I'm losing my self-respect. I'm at the point where I'd work for nothing just to have something to do!"

There's one thing to say for a farm or ranch—there's always plenty to do. Even when what you do isn't profitable, you can find fulfillment—you can feed a calf and watch it relish the feed...you can fix a fence or paint a barn, and see the results of what you've done...you can produce crops that are needed to feed a hungry world.

So, until things turn around, take solace in the fact that, unlike a lot of folks, at least you have work to do. And in work, there's dignity.

Burnett elected to board of directors

Neal Burnett, 49, of Plainview has been elected to the board of directors of Texas Farm Bureau, the largest state farm organization in the nation.

Burnett was nominated by delegates of his district, TFB District 2, and elected by the voting delegates to Texas Farm Bureau's 49th annual convention in Dallas recently.

The TFB board member produces cotton, milo, corn, soybeans and wheat on his 2,700-acre farm in Hale County.

Burnett joined Farm Bureau in 1955. He has served as president, vice president and secretary of the Hale County Farm Bureau. He served on the TFB State Policy Development Committee in 1977.

The farm leader graduated from Cotton Center High School and served in Korea with the Fifth Air Force as part of the Air Force Legal Services. He started farming in 1956.

Burnett has served as director of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the Chamber's Agriculture Committee. He is serving on the Plainview Public Schools board of trustees and served as president, vice president and secretary. He is also serving as chairman of the Hale County Appraisal District. He was chosen Star Young Farmer in Hale County in 1967 and was state soybean yield winner in 1977.

Burnett is married to the former Donna Ramsey and they have five children. Jane Burnett Morphis, Vondal, Cindy, John David and Billie Jean.

The sixteen counties comprising District 2 include: Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dickens, Floyd, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Farmer, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum.

Census data show Texas agriculture ranks first

Texas agricultural statistics outline an industry of 194,253 farms and ranches mostly individual or family operated, producing $8.3 billion in sales, second highest in the United States. The State's agriculture ranks first nationally in at least 10 major commodities, according to the U.S. Department of Commerce's Census Bureau.

The most recent Census of Agriculture for Texas indicates:

*Eighty-nine of the agricultural establishments are operated as individual or family ranches or farms. This slightly exceeds the U.S. average of 88 percent.

*Nine percent of the ranches and farms are partnerships and 1 percent are operated as corporations.

*Fifty-seven percent or 109,808 operators own all the land they work.

*Twenty-nine percent are part owners—operators who both own and rent land—and 14 percent are tenants.

Turning to ranking commodities, 1978 census data show first places for Texas in inventories of cattle and calves, 13 million; beef cows, 5.4 million; sheep and lambs, 2.4 million; Angora goats, 806,100 (88 percent of the U.S. inventories); and horses and ponies, 214,500.

In crops, the state leads in cotton, 6.5 million acres; sorghums, 4.7 million acres; pecans (both improved and wild), 144,100 acres; and watermelons, 49,800 acres.

Other crops included hay, 3.1 million acres; wheat, 2.7 million; corn, 1.4 million; rice, 597,700; peanuts, 261,700; orchard land, 250,200 (including 87,700 acres of citrus, with 52,900 acres of grapefruit, second largest in the U.S.); and vegetables, 220,300 acres.

The Texas farm operator's status is reflected in a review of data from the Census of Agriculture for 1978. The review offers a perspective in farmer characteristics, products, and sales.

The statistics will be updated by the 22nd Census of Agriculture, with forms to all farm and ranch operators in late December to collect data for 1982.

Farmers in Texas and around the Nation are requested to aid the census by returning their report forms at the earliest possible date, with the deadline set for February 15, 1983. The census provides the only uniform set of agricultural data at the county, state and national level, publishing information ranging from acreage, crops and livestock, to interest payments and costs of fertilizer.

For statistical purposes, a farm is defined as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were sold or normally would have been sold during the census year.

A comparison of data for the censuses of 1969 and 1978 indicates the farm and ranch count for Texas declined about 9 percent during the period. However, the figures are not directly comparable due to improved data collection methods in the latter census, and to a change in the definition of a farm.

Census data show that on an average basis Texas had:

*A total of 137.5 million acres of ranch and farm land, of which 20.8 million were harvested cropland.

*An average of $386 per acre value of land and buildings, below the U.S. average of $628.

*Seven million acres under irrigation, 5.1 percent of the total farm land.

*Twelve percent of the places with 1,000 acres or more; and 21 percent below 50 acres. Thirty-eight percent ranged from 50 to 219 acres and 29 percent, 220 to 999 acres.

Turning to farm product sales, the average per farm or ranch was $42,829, close to the U.S. average of $43,618.

The state total divides between $5.6 billion for livestock and poultry products and $2.7 billion for crops, including greenhouse and nursery products.

Some 7 percent of the state's farms and ranches had sales exceeding $100,000; but at the other end of the scale, 64 percent sold less than $10,000 and $40,000 and an additional 9 percent, $40,000 to $100,000.

Along with land and production values, expenses also were high: livestock and poultry purchases, $2.3 billion; feed for livestock and poultry, $1.5 billion; hired labor, $434.1 million; gasoline and other petroleum fuels, $409.5 million; and commercial fertilizer, $334.7 million.

Census data users will look forward to the 1982 results, which will give some understanding of how farmers have weathered the economic situation over the past several years.

Other facets of Texas agriculture as noted in the census:

*The average age of all farmers and ranchers was 52.3 years, a little older than the U.S. average of 50.1 years.

*Six percent of the farms and ranches were operated by women; slightly more than the 5 percent nationally.

*Forty-one percent gave farming and ranching as their principal occupation, compared with 54 percent nationally.

*Fifty-five percent resided on their places, compared with 72 percent nationally.

The statistics are from the publication, Texas State and County Data, Volume 1, 1978 Census of Agriculture, available from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, or from Commerce district offices in major U.S. cities.

Land Bank reduces interest rates

Interest rates on Land Bank variable rate loans will be reduced to 11.25 percent on farm loans and to 11.75 percent on farm-related business and rural residence loans, said Tommy R. Ogden, president of the Federal Land Bank Association of Floydada.

These rates become effective January 1, 1983.

"The Land Bank's objective is to provide credit to Texas agriculture at the lowest possible cost, consistent with sound business practices," said Thomas H. Benson, president of the Federal Land Bank of Texas in Austin.

"For over two years the Bank's average cost of funds consistently has been higher than the loan rate," Benson continued. "However, for the past four months, we have begun to see a decline in bond costs.

As a result of this decline, we are able to reduce the Bank's loan interest rate," he said. "We hope that the decline in bond interest rates will continue, allowing us to make further reductions in the loan rate."

The Federal Land Bank Association of Floydada makes long-term real estate loans on farm and rural residence property in the counties of Briscoe, Floyd, Motley and a portion of Hall.

Harvey Davis named executive director of TSSWCB

In action taken by the five-member board of directors of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board on December 20, Harvey Davis, 55, of Temple was named executive director of the agency. "Davis' appointment is effective January 1, 1983," said Joe Antille, chairman of the board.

"Not only does Harvey have a wealth of experience in guiding our agency in the administration of Texas soil and water conservation laws, he will be bringing back to us even greater experience gained as a result of his heading the Texas Department of Water Resources," said Antille.

The Williamson County native served as the first executive director of the TCWR from November 1, 1977 to December 1, 1982. The TDWR was created by the 65th Legislature when the Texas Water Development Board, the Texas Water Rights Commission and the Texas Water Development Board was combined.

Davis previously worked for the TSSWCB 23 years, 16 of which he served as executive director prior to his employment as agency head of the TCWR. In total, Davis has worked 33 years for state government.

As executive head of the TSSWCB, Davis will assume agency responsibility for coordinating the programs of Texas' 201 soil and water conservation districts.

Following service with the Air Force, Davis received an Associate in Arts Degree from Blinn College in 1949, a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree in 1951 and a Master of Business Administration Degree in 1953 from the University of Houston.

Davis is a member of the First Methodist Church of Temple. He is the father of four children: Rex Davis of Waco, Mrs. Jim (Pam) Hacker, Ray Davis and Charles Davis, all of Temple.

Farm program participation deserves consideration

Farmers should give serious consideration to participating in the 1983 government farm program, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"During tough times such as we have now, farm programs have to be a worthy option," says Dr. Carl Anderson. "Farmers must really take a hard look at their situations and must look at how farm programs might supplement their income."

While the current farm program offers "too little, too late" to reduce surplus production and raise farm prices, participation might be a wise move on the part of farmers because of the bleak market outlook for agricultural commodities, Anderson says.

He notes that grain, soybean and cotton stocks are high and that prospects for improved market prices are dim.

"The '83 farm program is mainly an income supplement program and will do little to relieve the farm surplus problem," Anderson points out. "It will probably reduce grain production only 2 to 4 percent and cotton production 6 to 8 percent."

Anderson advises farmers to carefully consider the present farm program but cautions them to stay abreast of possible changes that could be forthcoming. "Since the Reagan administration is interested in reducing government subsidies, there will likely be some changes," he says. "One change currently being considered is a concept called 'payment-in-kind' which involves using CCC commodities to pay producers for diverting land over and above the basic acreage reduction."

According to Anderson, there is a lot of uncertainty about the farm program right now due to the degree of farmer participation in the program next year, large carryover stocks of most commodities, a troubled world economy, a strong U.S. dollar abroad which is hurting foreign purchases of U.S. products, crop prospects for the year ahead, a buildup of livestock number and politics.

Basic concepts of the '83 farm program currently include a target price and loan program, a farmer-owned grain reserve and acreage reduction (20 percent for cotton, wheat, corn and grain sorghum plus an additional 5 percent option for cotton). As in the past, only farmers who participate in the voluntary program will qualify for the benefits.

"Non-participation keeps farmers from enjoying such benefits as the loan program and deficiency payments that go into effect when market prices drop below a certain level," says Anderson.

Cost-Share sign up nears deadline

The 1983 ACP program has been announced by the ASCS office. Sign up has been scheduled for January 3 through January 7, Thursday, January 6 and Friday, January 7, will be the last days to sign up.

A number of conservation practices can be cost-shared such as diversion terraces, parallel terraces, waterways, tailwater pits, irrigation pipeline and other practices.

Pioneer Hi-Bred pledges funds to help expand grain, soybean export

Pioneer Hi-Bred International, the nation's leading seed company, today pledged more than $600,000 in grants to three organizations working to expand grain and soybean exports.

In each of the next three years, Pioneer will provide $160,000 to the U.S. Feed Grains Council and $25,000 each to U.S. Wheat Associates and the American Soybean Development Foundation for export market expansion, according to Thomas N. Urban, president of Pioneer. All three are non-governmental groups established to develop overseas markets for U.S. grain and soybeans.

"The record of these organizations in boosting exports during the 1970's is outstanding," says Urban. "We need them even more now to help raise farm income and that's why we're increasing our support." Pioneer and many other agri-business companies have been regular contributors to foreign market expansion work.

While admitting that exports won't solve the immediate low-price problem, Urban believes additional foreign sales are the only long term answer for utilizing American farm productivity and raising prices received by farmers. The company is pledging its stepped-up support over a three-year period because of the long range nature of building export markets.

All three market expansion groups receiving Pioneer support also benefit from farmer checkoffs in many states. Each dollar contributed by farmers and firms like Pioneer is "matched" by about $2 from the Foreign Agriculture Service and another $2 from countries where market development work is being done.

The organizations expand markets by showing potential overseas customers how to use U.S. grains and oilseeds to improve diets. To do this, they employ people in the targeted countries to set up demonstration projects, usually in cooperation with local businesses involved in food production and marketing.

The U.S. Feed Grains Council recently estimated that for each dollar it spends overseas, additional grain sales worth $170 to $440 result. With the 4-for-1 matching effect of farmer-agri-business dollars, each additional dollar the Council receives from its supporters should produce from $850 to $2,200 in extra grain sales.

Farmers must pay estimated tax soon

Individuals who earned at least two-thirds of their 1982 gross income from farming have until Monday, January 17, 1983, to make a 1982 declaration of estimated tax and to pay any taxes due.

However, according to the IRS, farmers who plan to file their 1982 income tax return and to pay the total tax balance by March 1, 1983, are not required to make an estimated tax declaration.

Additional information is available in the free IRS Publication 225, "Farmer's Tax Guide," and Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax." These publications can be obtained by calling the IRS number listed in the local telephone directory.

DWI - Everyone's Problem

The following article is a public service by the Floyd County Hesperian and the Lockney Beacon through the cooperation of John R. "Randy" Hollums, District Attorney and The Prosecutor Council. Its purpose is to make you aware of a prosecutor's role, of your responsibility as a resident of this county and how we can work together to alleviate some of society's problems.

This coming January you Legislature will consider several bills to stiffen the penalties for drunk driving. A recent survey showed that 85% of all Americans believe drunk driving to be a very serious problem but many of us probably don't realize how serious.

*Drunk drivers kill 26,000 Americans every year - one every 23 minutes.

*More Americans have died at the hands of drunk drivers during the past two years than have died at the hands of drunk drivers during the past two years than have died in the ten years in Viet Nam.

*Alcohol-related crashes are the number 1 cause of death in Americans 16-24 years of age.

*One of every two Americans will be involved in a DWI collision in his/her lifetime.

*On an average weekend night, one out of every ten drivers on the road is drunk.

*Drunk driving is the most common form of violent death in the nation.

Drunk driving is a crime that kills more people than homicides and injures more people than assaults with a deadly weapon. The property damage in dollar amount is more than that done by forger, burglars and robbers all added together.

Last year was the fifth consecutive record year in Texas for motor vehicle deaths. 4,071 Texans died last year on the highways and over 200,000 were injured. DPS statisticians attribute 23% of the deaths to drunk driving, but believe that figure would be as high as 50% if Texas law required blood alcohol measurements from all drivers involved in fatal accidents. State Board of Insurance figures show property damage from collisions last year to be over $22 million.

Twenty-seven states, during the past year, have enacted stiffer laws governing DWI. We are all beginning to realize it is a problem we can no longer ignore. States which have enacted stiffer laws have shown as high as a 47% decline in alcohol-related fatalities.

Many societies have substantially reduced their highway death tolls, and there's no reason Texans cannot do the same. It requires a concentrated effort at all levels, but most of all, it must begin with the individual citizen. The first step, of course, is to make sure our own drinking and driving behavior falls within the limits of safety and common sense. But there is much more to curbing drunk driving than merely watching our own behavior. What can you do to help?

As an individual

Besides being responsible for our own behavior, be responsible for others. Every drunk driver is a potential killer. Friends don't let friends drive drunk. It sometimes take courage to be a good friend. Have the friend stay the night with you, take the keys away, call a taxi and pay for it. It's cheaper than a funeral. The friend may become angry, but when sober he will know you cared enough to draw the line.

As a parent

Drunk driving is the number one killer of men and women in their teens. And regardless of all the other drugs, alcohol is still the number one choice of drugs of young Americans. Chances are very good that your teenager will one day have to decide whether to get into a car about to be driven by a drunk. He/She must be prepared to say no. Talk with your teenager about the problem and what he/she thinks about it. Make sure your child know that his or her safety is more important than going to pick him or her up at 2:00 in the morning, or in getting the car home.

As a concerned citizen

Speak up whenever alcohol abuse is portrayed as an amusing or socially accepted form of behavior. Write letters of protest to television stations and other media who glamorize drinking.

Support local authorities who are making a determined effort to deal with the drinking driver. Support community groups who are working to alleviate the problem. Promote alcohol safety education. Education is by far the most potent weapon available in the struggle against drunk driving. You can't change the way people act until you change the way they think.

Write a letter. Save a life. This slogan has been adopted by MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Drivers) and it couldn't be truer, especially now when Texas will attempt to pass legislation this next January to stiffen DWI laws. The people are the most powerful lobbyists in this State. If Texans demand passage of new laws, they will be passed.

The next article on DWI will give a summary of some of the proposed new laws which will be considered this January by your legislature.

SUMMARY OF SOME OF THE PROPOSED LAW CHANGES

Described below are some of the new DWI laws which will be considered by your legislature this January. Examine them and decide for yourself which ones you feel adequately deal with the problem.

Raise the drinking age to 21

A 9-state survey of eastern states showed a 28% reduction in fatalities in the 18-20 year old age group when the drinking age was raised to 21. In Texas when we raised the drinking age last session from 18 to 19, during the first six months we saw a 16.7% decrease in night fatalities in the 18 year old age group, a 36.8% decrease in the 17 year old age group, and at the same time saw a 7.9% increase in the 19 year old age group.

Open container law

This statute would prohibit open containers of an alcoholic beverage in motor vehicles upon public highways. It will prohibit citizens from drinking while driving.

Per se law

This law would make prosecution of DWIs easier by establishing that a person would be considered legally intoxicated if his breath test showed an alcohol content of .10 or more.

Refusal to submit to alcohol test would be admissible as evidence in court.

Under present law when an individual refuses to submit to the alcohol test, that refusal cannot be admitted as evidence in court. The result can be misleading to juries. Jurors sometimes assume the individual was not offered the chance to prove he was not intoxicated, or that the arresting officer thought the test was not necessary.

Automatic [Administrative] license suspension for 90-days for refusal to submit to the alcohol test.

A person's drivers license would be taken away at the scene by the arresting officer for failure to submit to an alcohol test. The individual would have the right to appeal by requesting a hearing within 20 days.

Establishment of penalty range for DWI offenses resulting in bodily injury.

Under present law, a DWI offense that results in bodily injury to another person is the same criminal charge as one that does not cause injury. This law would establish separate, more serious penalties for bodily injury to other persons.

A DWI conviction that results in probation shall be used, for enhancement purposes, as a "final conviction".

Under present law, a probation is not considered as a final conviction. This means that when the individual is arrested again and possibly again, it is treated by the courts as another "first offense". Under this recommendation, the probation would be a final conviction.

Exclude the driving while intoxicated offenses from the court's discretion of utilizing Deferred Adjudication.

Under Deferred Adjudication, the individual pleads guilty before a Judge; then the Judge defers an entry of pending a probationary period. If the defendant completes this period (usually a year), then the offense is removed from his record.

Revise conditions for authorizing "hardship" license to minors.

"Hardship" licenses would only be granted if refusal to issue a license would create an unusual economic hardship on the person's family. License could be granted because of illness of a member of the family. The license would be restricted to a 25 mile radius of the person's address, valid only from 6:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and valid for a 6 month period.

Remove all juvenile driving offenses including DWI and DUID from the Family Code and place in appropriate statutes.

Under this proposal the penalties for committing DWI or DUID offenses would be the same for juveniles, as adults.

Although no action will be taken until the Legislature convenes in January, DWI bills have already been filed by some legislators. Those bills already filed differ; some do not seek to raise the drinking age to 21 or ban open containers. Some seek stiffer penalties than others.

Citizens who want their opinions on proposed DWI legislation heard can write their legislators:

Constitutional Rights of a Defendant

The following article is a public service by the Floyd County Hesperian and the Lockney Beacon through the cooperation of John R. "Randy" Hollums, District Attorney and The Prosecutor Council. Its purpose is to make you aware of a prosecutor's role, of your responsibility as a resident of this county and how we can work together to alleviate some of society's problems.

Members of the public often want to know why a defendant has certain rights when he is accused of a crime. Many of these rights are granted by the United States Constitution. Everyone may not agree with all of the rights, but it is likely that everyone would want all of the rights afforded them if they were on trial for a criminal offense.

First, an accused has the right to make bail for his release from jail, except in limited instances. Excessive bail cannot be required. One exception is the instance where the accused is charged with a capital offense and the State shows there is a strong likelihood that he accused committed the offense alleged. The amount of bail bond must be reasonable in relationship to the offense charged and the likelihood of the accused to appear in court when required. Under the Texas Constitution prisoners for capital offenses, when the proof is evident, are not bailable. Also, under the Texas Constitution certain habitual offenders and persons who are charged with commission of a felony, when they are on bail for a prior felony, may be denied bail.

The accused has the right to have a competent attorney represent him. If the accused is too poor to hire an attorney to represent him in a criminal case, then an attorney must be appointed, at not cost to the accused, to represent him. Under the Texas Constitution the accused is entitled to an indictment by a grand jury in felony cases.

A defendant in a criminal trial is presumed to be innocent until proven guilty. This is contrary to the law in many other nations. In the United States the defendant does not have to prove he is innocent. The State must prove his guilt in each and every element charged. The defendant does not have to present any evidence on his behalf whatsoever. He has the right to testify on his own behalf, but he does not have to testify if he does not want to. The State does not have the right to call the defendant as a witness.

The State has the burden of proving the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The State does not have the burden of proving the defendant's guilt beyond any doubt, all doubt, or trial and never shifts. The accused has the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State where the crime was committed. He has the right to a unanimous verdict of all twelve jurors as to his guilt.

The accused also has the right to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusations against him and to be confronted with witnesses against him. He has the right to compulsory process or subpoenas for obtaining witnesses in his favor. Under the Texas Constitution if a witness resides out of state, both the accused and the State have the right to have the evidence admitted by deposition. Also, the accused cannot twice be put in jeopardy for the same offense.

This summary by no means covers all the rights to an accused in a criminal trial, but some of the most important rights are covered.

These articles are provided in accordance with the principle that not only is it the District Attorney's duty to prosecute criminal cases, but also to insure and promote justice.

This article is provided by The Prosecutor Council in cooperation with your local prosecutor. For Further information contact: John R. "Randy" Hollums, 101 North Main Street, Floydada, Texas, 79235, 806-983-2197.
