

CANYON MERCHANTS TO GIVE $500 LIBERTY BOND TRADES DAY

Randall County Is Behind On Liberty Loan Quota

Practically every county in the Panhandle has gone over the top with their Liberty Loan quota, while Randall county is dropping further behind with her comparatively light quota. Subscriptions are coming in very slowly.

C. R. Fleisher, Chairman of the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign, today issued the following statement:

Two weeks of the time to subscribe for a Liberty bond of the Fourth Liberty Loan is almost gone. Only a little over one week is left to get that bond and Randall county has not subscribed for half of her quota. Every man in Randall county that has not subscribed for his part of the Fourth Liberty Loan is requested to come in at once and tell us how many bonds it will require to fill his individual quota. It takes time and costs money to send a committee to each individual in the county to get his subscription. DO NOT wait longer as the time is drawing near to a close and unless you go to your bank and subscribe for a bond the committee will wait on you and see why you have not subscribed.

The Federal Reserve Bank has asked for a financial statement of every person that does not subscribe for a Liberty Bond of the Fourth Issue, also of those that the committee thinks have not subscribed for the amount they should.

R. L. Van Zandt, Chairman Liberty Loan Central Executive Committee, Eleventh Federal Reserve District, has issued the following statement, regarding the present German peace offensive:

If the latest peace offensive were allowed to affect the volume of subscriptions to the Liberty Loan, it might well be regarded as a German victory. Staggering and blind with blood the German Monster is commencing to whine. Surely now is the time to stand solidly behind our Government, ready for any eventuality. With victory assured I know of no greater incentive to the purchase of Liberty Bonds than the fact that the money invested will be used so directly and effectively for that object to the attainment of which we have given our own flesh and blood. I consider that the Central powers have provided us with a valuable contribution towards the success of the Liberty Loan.

J. W. Hoopes Executive Manager of the Liberty Loan Campaign smiled when he heard the German Peace offensive and said "So the Central powers are calling Kamerad." I was reading the other day of an incident in which the Germans played this favorite trick and then killed a number of Americans with concealed hand grenades. I spoke of the matter to a recently returned officer who said "Such incidents are quite common, so in fact that our reply to this sort of thing now is, Kamerad—HELL!" The German Government is trying this old trick on the people of this District and would like to see the people refrain from buying Liberty Bonds. Reports show that confusion amounting almost to panic exists behind the German lines, and time is needed for re-organization. Of course the Germans are calling Kamerad. When the United States Government tells us that Germany is beaten and has called Kamerad for the last time we will release our efforts but not until then.

War Work Campaign Appointments Made

The following important appointments have been made in this district in connection with the United States War Work Campaign to be conducted November 11-18: H. W. Galbraith, Amarillo, District Chairman; Mrs. Howard Trigg, Amarillo, District Chairman Women's Division; H. C. Pipkin, Amarillo, District Executive Boys' Division.

All these workers are directly under the District Chairman. The District Chairman are now organizing their county committees. County workers, to be announced soon, will be under the direction of the County Chairman.

This district contains the counties of Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Randall, Deaf Smith, Potter, Carson, Hemphill and Roberts.

These workers have been appointed because of their peculiar fitness or their several tasks, but will have the close co-operation of the regular Community Councils of Defense of the various districts.

The United War Work Campaign will raise a minimum of $170,500,000 to be apportioned officially recognized War Activities: Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association, Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association and Salvation Army.

Hegira Does Well on Plains

C. A. Price, who lives on a dry farm four and a half miles southwest of town, was in our office yesterday, and left with us a stalk of the new sorghum crop, hegira, which we now have on display. It carries a long heavy head of well developed grain. He stated that the head was picked at random and that there are many even finer heads in his field and estimated that it would thresh out around 65 bushels to the acre. He stated that he obtained his seed from a field at Chillicothe which threshed out 125 bushels to the acre last year. Hegira is a new feed crop for the Plains and the seed was originally imported from Sudan, Africa. To make such a record as this in spite of the drouth, proves that it is a feed crop suited to this section.

DEMONSTRATOR DERR IS VICTIM OF INFLUENZA

Farmers and others who had the pleasure of meeting Howard L. Derr, the special agent of the Agricultural Department of the Government who has been visiting the rural communities in company with County Agent Hillam and conducting demonstrations in smut prevention, will learn with sincere regret of his sudden death on Friday of last week.

He was taken suddenly ill at the hotel in this city and not realizing the serious illness, refused to be taken to a sanitarium. He grew worse so rapidly, however, that he was removed to the hospital on Friday and died that same evening. It is now believed that he was a victim of the dreaded Spanish influenza and his taking off was so sudden that not even the acquaintances he had made here were aware of his illness until Southwest Plainsman.

Government Needs Platinum and Tin

The War Industries Board requests the Red Cross to collect platinum and tin because in both these articles which are essential to the industries of the country there is a shortage. It is important, therefore, that forms of these metals be collected and made available for use in the industries of our country.

It may be fairly stated that tin is one of the most useful metals at present. Not only would it be impossible to operate a steamer on the ocean, or to build a railroad car, if we did not have tin, but it may be said that the entire industries are dependent on tin in some form or other. The War Industries Board has made a careful estimate of the requirements for tin in the immediate future, and after having made a close examination in tons the amount required to meet our needs.

The forms in which tin worth collecting may be found are the three following:

First: Foil of every kind is worth collecting. Tobacco, Foil, Chewing Gum Foil, and Candy Foils are some of its varieties.

Second: Collapsible tubes such as contain Tooth Paste, Shaving Cream, Salve, Paints, etc. all contain a supply of tin.

Third: All pewter articles contain a certain amount of tin.

Do not collect tin cans because they do not contain tin in sufficient purity to be worth collecting.

Receptacles for the above articles may be found at any of the three drug stores in Canyon.

The supply of platinum in this country is very short and although not alarmingly so at present, may cause grave danger in the near future. The Local Chapter has appointed Mr. E. Burroughs and Mrs. R. E. Stewart as a committee for collecting platinum. Any one having forms of platinum are urged to see this committee and turn over their articles to them.

As these articles are collected the Red Cross will sell them to Smelters. The money received goes into the Local Chapter Funds. Not only are you helping to win the war by furnishing these much needed articles, but you are financially assisting our Local Red Cross Chapter.

Section 19. South of Evelyn from Shotwell wagon yard East. D. A.

At a meeting of the Business Men's Association Monday night, it was decided that, in view of the difficulty in obtaining a Ford car and the progress of the Liberty Loan campaign, they would give a $500 Liberty Bond in place of the Ford car. This move seems to be popular with all those participating in the contest.

The Association made plans for a great day. A Trade Excursion will be made today toward Wayside advertising two events of public interest. The first is the War Relics Train, which will be in Canyon tomorrow morning in the interest of the Liberty Loan campaign, and the second Trades Day for Monday.

There will be a Red Cross sale as usual for Trades Day and Bob Campbell was appointed auctioneer for this sale.

The Normal Band will render music for the day, and many other events are being arranged for the entertainment of the Boys' and Girls' Agricultural Club Fair, which is also to be held on this day.

Merchants will give tickets for the Bond contest up to 4 o'clock in the afternoon, after which the ticket stubs will be placed in the barrel and the barrel will probably be opened and the bond drawn about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Clark is chairman of the committee to appoint men to take charge of the tickets.

MANY GIRLS AND BOYS COMING TO ATTEND FAIR

L. W. Hillam, county agent and Miss Leah Harris was in Canyon this week making final preparations for the Boys' and Girls' Agricultural Club Fair to be held here Monday.

Mr. Hillam states, after making a rip over the county, that he expects a very large exhibit here for the fair, and that there will be some fine stock exhibits.

The judging will take place at 2 p. m. The livestock will be judged first. The Girl's Canning Club and Sewing Exhibits and the Agricultural Club grain exhibits will be downstairs in the main hall of the court house. The pigs and calves will be shown at the old livery stable, on the southeast corner of the square.

Miss Dora R. Barnes, district home demonstration agent accompanied Mr. Hillam and Miss Harris on a tour of inspection of the Randall county rural schools, in preparation for the fair.

H. H. Williamson, state agricultural club leader, is expected here for the day.

Herbert Miller, formerly a member of the News force, visited at home Sunday. He is now stationed at Camp Devens, Mass.

Shirley will have charge of the work, and get all weeds cut and burned and all trash to be hauled off stacked in the alley and Tuesday the 15th has been set for the day to put the finishing touches on the work.

Let each Captain call a meeting of all the worker in his section at once and plan the work so as to get it done at the very earliest moment. Arrange for a team to do the hauling in your section on Tuesday if possible. Lets all pull together, clean up the town and perhaps save the lives of some of our own people.—The Executive Committee Local Red Cross Chapter.

It is planned to go to work at once

Clean Up

Cut and burn your weeds, trash and papers clean up windows, back rooms, remove boxes and rubbish from back alleys, use sweeping compound on floors, sprinkle lime in out-door closets. Clean up hog pens and other nuisances and do it now and abate an impending epidemic.

Two Brothers Meet in France

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Thompson, of this city, have two sons in the service. When the European war broke out, the elder—Ernest—was studying law in Germany and he was several months getting out of that country. When the United States entered the war Ernest volunteered in an officer's training camp and was commissioned captain, afterwards being advanced to major and was among the first to go overseas.

The younger son—Otho—was commissioned in the National Guard as Second Lieutenant in Co. A., 142nd Infantry and at a later date was sent to France.

Not long ago Mr. Thompson received letters from his sons telling of a singular incident that had happened to them. A meeting of officers had been called behind the lines before the launching of the July offensive, and Major Thompson had been detained so that he arrived a trifle late. There were more than 2,000 officers there before him and he started down the aisle as quietly as possible, listening to what the speaker was saying at the same time, keeping a watchful eye out for a seat. Finding one, he slipped into it, still with both ear and eye intent upon the man on the platform, and was considerably disconcerted at receiving a dig in the ribs from the man next him and a familiar voice whispered "Hello, Bud!" His surprise may be better imagined than expressed, when he found that his next neighbor was his brother, Lieutenant Otho Thompson.

It was certainly a most unusual and unexpected circumstance that two brothers, going over at different times, should accidentally run across each other among the million and a half American boys in France.—Southwest Plainsman.

Germans Lose Many Guns

In the recent fighting in France and Flanders the German losses in men killed or wounded and in guns captured have been enormous. To the Belgians the Germans lost virtually all their forward defensive artillery and some heavy naval guns. Many men were made prisoners. During September, the British took 66,300 prisoners, 700 guns of all calibres and thousands of machine guns in addition to inflicting heavy casualties on the enemy, and in August and September took 123,688 prisoners and 1,400 guns.

What Does Canyon Say?

Sergeant Haley, one of the wounded American soldiers traveling with the War Relics Train in the Eleventh District, said that when his Company first joined up with the French there was some little doubt expressed as to whether the doughboys, being new, could hold certain positions. A poilu said to Haley, "Can you hold them? H—I yes" was Haley's reply. The Germans are wondering whether the Americans are behind his war with their dollars. Let's send them Haley's reply.

With the Relics Train

Private Jolly, Company G, 166th Ohio Infantry—Jolly in name and disposition—is the unanimous opinion of the five wounded comrades who with Private Jolly are touring the Eleventh Federal Reserve District under the direction of the United States Government during the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Private Jolly saw active service with the American unit on the Chateau Thierry front.

"We went over the top on August 3". These are Private Jolly's own words in telling his story. "We advanced until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when along came a Dutchman in an aeroplane and got our range. I ducked into a ditch just as dud fell about two feet ahead of my hiding place, and didn't explode. I got up and beat it and had gone about 200 yards when a piece of shrapnel got me in the hand. I thought it had just shot my gun away, but when I reached for my gun found that my hand was all shot up.

I made it back to the bushes where with my teeth and left hand I got my first aid kit open and fixed up the wound as best I could. I started back and a machine gun bullet got me in the leg. I had to wait awhile until the firing was over, then walked back to the dressing station."

No Rushee! No Pullie!

Charlie Lung, better known as Wun Lung Charlie in the mess Hall at Ellington Field where he serves three squares each day to the ravenous student officers, had an ambition to had an ambition to become an aviator. He dreamed of the day when he would return to the Land of Flowers and sport a pair of silver wings on his manly chest to dazzle the almond eyes of some celestial beauty.

In his fragmental English he casually inquired of a patron how he could go about learning the art of dodging clouds. He was told he must first master the intricacies of bicycle riding, that he must then take a through ground school course in sifting ashes and rolling cigarettes, after which he would be given an airplane and taught to fly.

Wun Lung, being of a trusting nature, immediately made arrangements to borrow a bike from one of the barbers in a nearby barracks and set out to learn how to manipulate it. He selected for his trial flight a stretch of the main road which runs from one end of the field to the other.

With the assistance of several cadets and enlisted men he managed to get up on the saddle and grasped the handle bars desperately. Somebody yelled, "Give 'er the gun" and all gave him a push and let go.

He wobbled from one side of the road to the other.

Yells from the road side encouraged flying Heathen Chinese and although his feet had slipped from the peddles he managed to propell the vehicle by striking them on the ground as he spun along.

Willing hands gave him a shove whenever he came near stopping.

Suddenly there was a flash and a thud. The air was filled with bicycle parts and chinamen. A motorcycle with a side car attached had collided with the amateur wheelman.

Wun Lung was gathered up by several, who witnessed the accident and hustled to the hospital where the doctors patched up his injuries so he could report for supper.

He lost his fond ambition to become a Chinese Ace and will stick to slinging hash.

Get's Seven Germans

Sergeant Frank Haley was born in America. The Sergeant has a brogue that came from "Ould Ireland," and he is proud of it; as proud as he as he is of his six wounds. The Germans ripped up his back leaving a scar nine inches long, they shot away his spleen, they broke his arm and his leg, and they forced him to undergo four operations in order to get straightened out, but the last thing he said to the writer was, "I will be back here next Spring and I will get get a dozen more of these—Germans!"

For eight months in 1917, Haley fought on the Flanders Front and then at the Somme. His regiment, the Eleventh Engineers was quartered with British, Canadian, Kilties and Irish Guards. He loves them all, and says that these nationalities together with the Americans, can lick the whole world, let alone the Germans, and said he, "they can do it in spite of the presence of the Irish." The Sergeant tells two good stories. One of how he was shot at when he was going back in an ambulance, and a German flyer swooped down and riddled it with his machine gun. Another of a boy who fought with him, young Edwards, of Brooklyn, New York, who surrounded by Germans lost his gun, but found a spade—with this he killed three Germans, took the gun of one of the dead men and shot three more Germans. Haley found the seven bodies the next morning, bearing tribute to the magnificent bravery of this yankee boy.

CLIP THIS AND PIN ON WIFE'S DRESSER

Cincinnati man tells how to shrivel up corns or calluses so they lift off with fingers.

Ouch ! ! ! ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hardened callus stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callus dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you."

FOR STRONG, BRAVE MEN ONLY

If you are a mother or a wife, please do not read this. There is no crisis stern enough to justify the harrowing of women's souls. This article is addressed to American men, in the confident belief that it will accomplish the end for which it has been prepared.

HAVE you ever seen an old, sad-faced woman sitting by the roadside, holding out palsied hands for pennies with which to buy scraps of food?

Have you ever thought that she is somebody's mother? That she once held a sweet baby to her breast, and the world looked like heaven to her?

Have you ever thought of the years she spent taking care of that baby, and of her other babies, guarding them, denying herself, giving of her strength and comfort that they might grow into strong, capable men and women?

This is the History of Millions of Mothers.

Not all of whom sit by the roadside with palsied hands, but millions of whom sit with palsied hearts and unspeakably sad eyes, by firesides, on vine-veiled verandas, or in darkened rooms, waiting for God to take them home to the realm where the pangs of memory will no longer torture them. These women think of the babies they bore, babies that grew to maturity, and who are now no more on this earth.

In the years to come after this war there will be millions of such mothers—mothers whose sons have gone down to death in the full promise of youthful manhood. It is terrible to picture the desolation of these mothers—a desolation that will be theirs long after many of us have forgotten the horrors of this war.

But though millions of such mothers have already begun the long wait by the side of the unteething road, other millions can be saved from like fate.

The United States of America—YOUR COUNTRY—has gone into the war. It has gone in to stop the horrible slaughter of mothers' sons, and to bring an end to the tragic multiplication of human woe.

The manner in which the United States has taken hold means but one thing—the termination of the war as quickly as possible. For every day the war is shortened thousands of Mothers Will be Spared Years of Agony.

In order that victory and peace may be realized in the shortest possible time it is the eternal duty of every one of us to help to the fullest extent of our capabilities.

The Fourth Liberty Loan presents an opportunity for such help. It gives each one of us a chance to do something definite to bring quick victory and save millions of women from sitting by the side of the road with palsied hands and pitiful eyes.

What is your life worth to you if you remain indifferent to such an opportunity for preventing human misery? Doubtless, if called, you would gladly go over the top and willingly die with a bullet through your heart. Yes, you would do that—and yet, so strange is human nature that millions of men who would willingly give their lives, hold back and hem and haw with their conscience when it comes to giving, or lending, their dollars.

What are dollars? The only use that dollars can be put to is to make this world a better place in which we all can live. Dollars can never weigh in the same scale with human hearts and souls.

One Mother Sitting by the Side of the Road with palsied hands cannot buy back her dead children with all the dollars on earth. But a few of your dollars loaned to your Government now, can, by shortening the war, buy thousands of children's lives, and preserve them to comfort the old age of thousands of women who are now young and hopeful.

Powder and bullets to slay the Hun are in your purse. The merciful end for the Hun is a quick end. The merciful salvation of humanity demands the death of the thing that slays. It is within your power to hasten that slaying and thus save millions of human lives.

Will you do it?

Germany's Terms

By Count Roon

Germany is entitled to the following terms because of its strength, and until they are realized there should be no armistice:

Annexation of Belgium. Annexation of the entire Flanders coast, including Calais. Annexation of the Briey and Longwy basins and the Toul, Belfort and Verdun regions eastward.

Restitution to Germany of all her Colonies, including Kiaochow.

Great Britain must cede to Germany such naval bases and coaling stations as Germany designates.

Great Britain must give Gibraltar to Spain, cede its war fleet to Germany, give Egypt and the Suez Canal to Turkey.

Greece must be re-established under former King Constantine, with frontiers as before the war.

Austria and Bulgaria will divide Serbia and Montenegro.

Great Britain, France, and the United States must pay all of Germany's war costs, the indemnity being a minimum of $45,000,000,000.

They must also agree to deliver raw materials immediately.

France and Belgium must remain occupied at their expense until these conditions are carried out.

How Are You Going To Answer Germany's Peace Terms?

THE greatest advertisement for the Fourth Liberty Loan of the United States of America has been written by a Prussian.

His name is Count Roon and he wrote it as a member of the Prussian House of Lords. It is printed above. Read it carefully.

Forty-five billion dollars or more indemnity!

This, then, is the price the world must pay for a victorious German peace. This, then, is the footnote to the Kaiser's prayer, expressed in the coldest terms of plainest business.

This is the meaning of war to the Prussian, as he proclaims his battles righteous, prosecuted in self-defense.

Oh, you men and women of America, is there a dollar in all this land to-day so tightly held that it will not now come forth to answer the swaggering arrogance of the Hun?

These days will tell, for as you place your name upon that subscription blank for Liberty Bonds you state the price your land, your liberty and democracy are worth to you today.

Now how are you going to answer the "peace terms" of the kaiser and his band of murdering buccaneers?

Bonds Speak Louder Than Words

Grouping his darkened way into Liberty Loan headquarters at Dallas, blind Harris, the newsboy, stretched forth a hand holding dimes, nickles and pennies, his savings for the first payment of a $50. Liberty Bond. When the salesman filling out the pledge murmured something about patriotism, tears started in Harris' sightless eyes as he feverishly fingered the button on his chest, to make sure it was there. He cannot offer himself to his country; he is blind. He cannot even read the flaring headlines on the papers he sells, but emblazoned across the heart that beats beneath his faded shirt are the flaming words, "Liberty, Equality, Justice," the principles for which his grandsires fought. Come on you fellows who "can't afford it." Blind Harris will show you how.

The Liberty Loan

The present Liberty Loan drives lacks nothing when measured by the yardstick of preparedness. Secretary McAdoo started the ball rolling at Carnegie Hall, in New York; and now the Secretary is giving direct personal attention to the management of the campaign throughout the country. Mr. McAdoo is being compared with Alexander Hamilton as a "great Secretary of the Treasury." Hamilton furnished the formula for making money, but McAdoo knows "how to get the money" better than any other man who has been at the head of the Treasury.

Every one should feel that every dollar they can spare should go into helping finance their country's needs. And while buying bonds those who come into possession of these securities should learn the necessity of caring for them. Thousands of Liberty Bonds have been reported as having been "either lost or stolen"—and the whole difficulty is due to the fact that many holders do not realize the necessity of safeguarding their possessions. Many patriotic banks have volunteered to act as custodians of these bonds, without charge to the owners. It is a practice that might very well be generally adopted especially in sections where the possession of a safety deposit box is not common. The Government is giving the people a chance to share in Liberty Bonds on the largest scale yet brought forward. The Loan will go over the top, just as have the ones that have preceded it.

BUY LIBERTY BONDS.

Liberty Day

Saturday, October-12, is the four hundred and twenty-sixth anniversary of the discovery of America. President Wilson has proclaimed it Liberty Day and requests the citizens of every community in the United States—city, town, and countryside—to celebrate the day.

The President, in his proclamation, says:

"Every day the great principles for which we are fighting take fresh hold upon our thought and purposes and make it clearer what the end must be and what we must do to achieve it."

"We now know more certainly than we ever knew before why free men brought the great Nation and Government we love into existence, because it grows clearer and clearer what supreme service it is to be America's privilege to render to the world."

Shall Germany Oversubscribe Us

Who is going to win the next great battle—The Battle of the Loan? The Ninth German War Loan and the Fourth American Liberty Loan are now being raised. In this contest of patriotism one country is going to beat the other in the amount subscribed and the length of the time taken to put over the Loan.

We must, we simply must, subscribe our Loan before the Germans subscribe theirs. Remember, we are putting ourselves against a nation of savers. For years the slaves of the Kaiser have been educated to save. Not in order that they might improve their lot, but in order that they might have plenty of money saved up to erect a monument on the grave of civilization to that unnatural degenerate, the Kaiser.

Do not let us forget, Germany has been saving for forty years to win the war and is not yet exhausted. Who is going to win the next Loan?

Those Drouth Funds

There has been much in the papers for the past year about raising funds for relief of the drouth stricken people of West Texas. Over $100,000 has been freely given by the people of East and Central Texas for this relief. The Texas bankers created a fund of $5,000,000 for this purpose. The legislature at its last session appropriated a large sum for the benefit of those who could not buy seed or feed. The trouble about all of these funds is that they have a string to them. The money is to be loaned to the sufferers at a rate of interest (to be sure a low rate) but the borrowers must give security. Now it is well known to the people who are living in this section, and should be known to the governor, state officials and bankers of Texas, that when a man has stayed with the stuff for three years, and is in fact a drouth sufferer, he has absolutely no collateral to put up on which to borrow money. The people of this community or of the West do not ask charity, but neither can they put up security on which to borrow money. The only solution that the Record can see for the help of these people is for the county boards of national defense to loan this money to deserving and needy people taking their personal note. WITHOUT SECURITY. If in one or two or three years, the borrower can repay this money, well and good, and if he can not or does not repay it, it nevertheless accomplished the purpose for which it was so freely given by the people.

The ladies branch of the county council of national defense, last week found several instances where people were in actual need, and understanding that some of this relief money was in the hands of the county, were going to apply for some small sums for these people, but learned that it could not be obtained without notes, mortgages, securities, and much red tape. Consequently the needy have not yet had relief, and it looks like they would not get it, while more than $100,000 have been contributed by the good people of Texas for this identical purpose; with no hope or expectation of having it paid back or refunded to them.

It is not so much the able bodied men who need the help, but as winter comes on there will be many women and children who will suffer if not assisted. Many of the husbands, fathers and sons have gone off to seek work with the government or otherwise, leaving their families, to whom they send their wages as support. In many instances this is not sufficient, as the worker has to pay his own expenses, and the remainder of his wage is not sufficient to support the family, should it be a large one. Other instances where the family move to other parts, and get work or rent land, but have not the money to move on. If such an one could be furnished money enough to put them down at their place of destination with a month's supplies, they could work out their own future and nine out of ten would pay back the money loaned them.

Of course this banker's fund could not be handled this way, but the fund that has been donated, was given freely and with the purpose of helping the ones that have no collateral, and consequently need it most, could and should be used in this manner; otherwise it will absolutely fail to accomplish the very purpose for which it was contributed.

Let us loan this money to the needy without interest and without security, leaving it up to their honest conscience about paying it back. And that part of it that is paid back can be turned back to the state committee as a state charity fund, to be again loaned or given to some other section when in need.—Colorado Record.

Stay by the Stuff

W. D. Baker sold his crop this past week to Joe Deering for $1,600 and Mr. Deering says the feed will be worth more than the purchase price, besides the cotton. Moral: Stay by the stuff.

W. C. Bush got scared of the drouth and sold his crop in July when it looked like it would not make anything. The crop has come out and will net the purchaser about $2,000. This is more than Mr. Bush can possibly make this season. Moral: Stay with the stuff.—Colorado Record.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, Etc. Can't Help But Admire Babies

Every Woman Casts Loving Glances at the Nestling Cuddled in its Bonnet.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much talked of pains and other distresses that are said to proceed child-bearing may be avoided. No woman need fear discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well known and time-honored remedy, Mother's Friend.

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. By regular use the muscles expand without the usual strain when baby is born and pain and danger at the crisis is consequently less.

Women everywhere who have used this famous remedy tell how they entirely avoided nervousness, twitching spells, bearing down and stretching pains, and relate how they enjoyed entire freedom from the many debilitating and distressing experiences usually incident to approaching motherhood.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommended it. It is for external use only, is absolutely and entirely safe and wonderfully effective.

Write the Bradford Regulator Co., Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their "Motherhood Book," so valuable to expectant mothers, and in the meantime obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist today and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF RED CROSS CORRECTS REPORT

To the members of the Red Cross Chapter of Randall County:

Whereas, it has repeatedly come to the attention of the Executive Committee of the Red Cross Chapter, hat an erroneous and damaging report has circulated whether with malicious intent or not, to the effect that Mrs. Anna Jones, Instructor of the class in Elementary Hygiene and Home Care of the Sick, was paid t the close of her summer class, the um of $1,000 out of the local chapter funds. The Executive Committee desires the facts known.

This course is being given under the auspices of Red Cross at the earnest and urgent request of the War Council to prepare women to go as Nurse's Aids to France and to enable our women to meet the crisis in the homes caused by so many trained nurses being called into military service both at home and abroad.

Miss Rambo patriotically tendered the equipment of her department at the Normal; this equipment being necessary to give the course. Each of the 25 students who took the course, paid into the chapter treasury the sum of $4.05.

The Chapter secretary sent 55 cents of this to Division headquarters for a text book and 50 cents for certificate fee. The remaining $3.00 was paid Mrs. Jones for her services, making $75 paid her. Not one cent of local chapter funds were paid for this.

WHAT CATARRH IS

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors only irritate and do little if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from any harmful drugs. It is helping thousands. Try it.

"SPANISH INFLUENZA—THREE DAY FEVER"

(United States Public Health Service Report on Epidemic which is now prevalent throughout country).

COMPILED BY RUPERT BLUE, SURGEON GENERAL.

What Is Spanish Influenza? Is it
Something New? Does it
Come from Spain?

The disease now occurring in this country and called "Spanish Influenza" resembles a very contagious kind of "cold" accompanied by fever, pains in the head, eyes, ears, back or other parts of the body, and feeling of severe sickness. In most of the cases the symptoms disappear after three or four days, the patient then rapidly recovering; some of the patients, however, develop pneumonia, or inflammation of the ear, or meningitis, and many of these complicated cases die. Whether this so-called "Spanish influenza" is identical with the epidemics of influenza have visited of earlier years is not yet known.

Epidemics of influenza have visited this country since 1647. It is interesting to know that first epidemic was brought here from Valencia, Spain. Since that time there have been numerous epidemics of the disease. In 1889 and 1890 an epidemic of influenza, starting somewhere in the Orient, spread first to Russia, and thence over practically the entire civilized world. Three years later there was another flare-up of the disease. Both times the epidemic spread widely over the United States. Although the present epidemic is called "Spanish influenza," there is no reason to believe that it originated in Spain. Some writers who have studied the question believe that it came from the Orient and they call attention to the fact that the Germans mention the disease as occurring along the eastern front in the summer and fall of 1917.

How can "Spanish Influenza" Be Recognized?

There is as yet no certain way in which a single case of "Spanish influenza" can be recognized; on the other hand, recognition is easy where there is a group of cases. In contrast to the outbreaks of ordinary coughs and colds, which usually occur in the cold months, epidemics of influenza may occur at any season of the year, thus the present epidemic raged most intensely in Europe in May, June, and July. Moreover, in the case of ordinary colds, the general symptoms (fever, pain, depression) are by no means as severe or as sudden in their onset as they are in influenza. Finally, ordinary colds do not spread through the community so rapidly or so extensively as does influenza.

In most cases a person taken sick with influenza feels sick rather suddenly. He feels weak, has pains in the eyes, ears, head and back, and may be sore all over. Many patients feel dizzy, some vomit. Most of the patients complain of feeling chilly, and with this comes a fever in which the temperature rises to 100 to 104. In most cases the pulse remains relatively slow.

In appearance one is struck by the fact that the patient looks sick. His eyes and the inner side of his eyelids may be slightly "blood-shot," or "congested," as the doctors say. There may be running from the nose, or there may be some cough. These signs of a cold may not be marked; nevertheless the patient looks and feels very sick.

In addition to the appearance and the symptoms as already described, examination of the patient's blood may aid the physician in recognizing "Spanish influenza," for it has been found that in this disease the number of white corpuscles shows little or no increase above the normal. It is possible that the laboratory investigations now being made through the National Research Council and the United States Hygienic Laboratory will furnish a more certain way in which individual cases of this disease can be recognized.

What Is the Course of the Disease?

Do People Die of It?
Ordinarily, the fever lasts from three to four days and the patient recovers. But while the proportion of deaths in the present epidemic has generally been low, in some places the outbreak has been severe and deaths have been numerous. When death occurs it is usually the result of a complication.

What Causes the Disease and How Is It Spread?

What Causes the Disease and How Is It Spread?
Bacteriologists who have studied influenza epidemics in the past have found in many of the cases a very small rod-shaped germ called, after its discoverer, Pfeiffer's bacillus. In other cases of apparently the same kind of disease there were found pneumococci, the germs of lobar pneumonia. Still others have been caused by streptococci, and by other germs with long names.

No matter what particular kind of germ causes the epidemic, it is now believed that influenza is "always spread from person to person, the germs being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus, expelled by coughing or sneezing, forceful talking, and the like by one who already has the germs of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing, or from careless people who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk. As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others.

What Should Be Done by Those Who Catch the Disease?

It is very important that every person who becomes sick with influenza should go home at once and go to bed. This will help keep away dangerous complications and will, at the same time, keep the patient from scattering the disease far and wide. It is highly desirable that no one be allowed to sleep in the same room with the patient. In fact, no one but the nurse should be allowed in the room.

If there is cough and sputum or running of the eyes and nose, care should be taken that all such discharges are collected on bits of gauze or rag or paper napkins and burned. If the patient complains of fever and headache, he should be given water to drink, a cold compress to the forehead and a light sponge. Only such medicine should be given as is prescribed by the doctor. It is foolish to ask the druggist to prescribe and may be dangerous to take the so called "safe, sure, and harmless" remedies advertised by patent-medicine manufacturers.

If the patient is so situated that he can be attended only by some one who must also look after others in the family, it is advisable that such attendant wear a wrapper, apron, or gown over the ordinary house clothes while in the sick room, slip this off when leaving to look after the others. Nurses and attendants will do well to guard against breathing in dangerous disease germs by wearing a simple fold of gauze or mask while near the patient.

Will a Person Who Has Had the Influenza Catch the Disease Again?

It is well known that an attack of measles or scarlet fever or smallpox usually protects a person against another attack of the same disease. This appears to be true of "Spanish influenza." According to newspaper reports the King of Spain suffered an attack of influenza during the recent outbreak in Spain.

How Can One Guard Against Influenza?

In guarding against disease of all kinds, it is important that the body be kept strong and able to fight off disease germs. This can be done by having a proper proportion of work, play, and rest, by keeping the body well clothed, and by eating sufficient, wholesome, and properly selected food. In connection with diet, it is well to remember that milk is one of the best all-round foods obtainable for adults, as well as children. So far as a di- health authorities everywhere recognize the very close relation between its spread and overcrowded homes. While it is not always possible, especially in times like the present, to avoid such overcrowding, people should consider the health danger and make every effort to reduce the home overcrowding to a minimum. The value of fresh air through open windows can not be over emphasized.

Where crowding is unavoidable, as in street cars, care should be taken to keep the face so turned as not to inhale directly the air breathed out by another person.

It is especially important to be aware of the person who coughs or sneezes without covering his mouth and nose. It also follows that one should keep out of crowds and stuffy places as much as possible, keep homes offices, and workshops well aired, spend some time out of doors each day, walk to work if at all practicable—in short make every possible effort to breathe as much pure air as possible.

"Cover up each cough and sneeze, if you don't you'll spread disease."

are lightened when she turns to the right medicine. If her existence is made gloomy by the chronic weaknesses, delicate derangements, and painful disorders that afflict her sex, she will find relief and emancipation from her troubles in Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she's overworked, nervous, or "run-down," she finds new life and strength. It's a powerful, invigorating tonic and nerve which was discovered and used by an eminent physician for many years, in cases of "female complaints" and weaknesses. For young girls just entering womanhood; for women at the critical time of life; in bearing-down sensations, periodical pains, ulcerations, inflammation, and kindred ailments, the "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine put up without alcohol—ingredients on wrapper. All druggists. Liquid or tablets. Tablets, 60 cents. Send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

MOODY, TEXAS.—I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and the Lotion Tablets. I believe I would be in my grave if I had not used these medicines. I was so nervous I was a wreck; was not able to do my housework. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended to me. I had taken it but a day until my nerves were quieted down and I could sleep at night. I had not taken more than half a bottle before I noticed a marked improvement, so I continued. I then got stout and did as much work as five other women. I had a hurting in my side and a bearing-down, but the medicine put a stop to that. I am glad to recommend Doctor Pierce's medicines.—MRS. GEORGIA BERRY.

Forward!

With no thought of bursting shrapnel and poisonous gases into which they plunge—with every muscle tense, with every faculty of mind alert, with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

That is the way our men are going into battle. When the shrill whistle sounds the advance, out they go—their whole heart in the task before them. No power on earth can hold them back.

Forward!

The same sharp challenge to battle is sounding for us. We must answer in the same proud way—the way of our fighting men—the American way. We must lend the way they fight.

We must show the war-maddened Hun a united American people moving forward shoulder to shoulder, irresistibly, to Victory.

Our task is to supply the money, the ships, the guns, the shells that we must have to win. It is a tremendous task. We must do it as our fighting men do theirs—with the indomitable spirit of Victory.

We must work, and save, and lend with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

Get into the fight—with your whole heart. Buy Bonds—to the utmost!

Goodnight Home Opened

The Buckner Orphanage at Goodnight has been formally opened and fourteen orphan children and a matron have been transferred from Dallas to the new home.

An informal reception was held at which many of the citizens of Goodnight and Claude were present to welcome the children and they brought with them substantial arguments in the shape of well-filled baskets. In return, the children entertained their guests with songs and music.

On Saturday, Dr. Buckner, Dr. Morgan, the matron and all of the children were guests at dinner of Colonel and Mrs. Goodnight, and one can readily imagine their pleasure in this event. Aside from the delightful "eats" provided, there are many attractions at Goodnight Ranch and it is a "safe bet" that the children put in such a joyous day as they had seldom seen.

Dalhart Fair a Success

Notwithstanding everybody is busy with other things, the Trans-Canadian fair has proven a success, and is very gratifying to the management. The exhibits are probably not as large as usual, but make up in quality for any shortage in quantity.

The agricultural exhibit caps anything seen here in recent years. No better specimens of farm products have ever been shown at Dalhart fair, and the management appreciates the interest that has been taken by farmers, the more because of the time taken from the harvesting of their crops to make this showing.

The ladies' department, the poultry show and the livestock exhibits have all been greatly admired, as have also the races each day.—Dalhart Texan.

Don't Sell Wheat Below Price Set

Reports reach the Food Administration that some farmers are selling their wheat at less than the guaranteed price because of the railway embargoes placed in parts of the country against wheat shipment. While the elevators are temporarily overstocked because seaboard movement has not kept pace with internal movement, this condition should be improved during the next thirty or sixty days. No farmer who will have patience until the situation improves need sell below the guaranteed price, for the Government will buy all wheat as fast as it can be moved.—Southwest they learned that he was dead.

The German Note

Mr. Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States:

The German government requests the president of the United States of America to take steps for the restoration of peace, to notify all belligerents of this request and to invite them to delegate plenipotentiaries for the purpose of taking up negotiations. The German government accepts as a basis for the peace negotiations the program laid down by the president of the United States in his message to congress on January 8, 1918, and in his subsequent pronouncements, particularly in his address of September 27, 1918. In order to avoid further bloodshed, the German government requests to bring about immediate conclusion of a general armistice on land, on water and in the air.

MAX, PRINCE OF BADEN, Imperial Chancellor.

From the secretary of state to the charge d'affairs of Switzerland:

The President's Answer

I have the honor to acknowledge, on behalf of the president, your note of October sixth, enclosing the communication from the German government to the president; and I am instructed by the president to request you to make the following communication to the German chancellor:

Before making reply to the request of the imperial German government and in order that the reply shall be candid and straightforward as the momentous interests involved require, the president of the United States deems it necessary to assure himself of the exact meaning of the note of the imperial chancellor. Does the imperial chancellor mean that the imperial government accepts the terms laid down by the president in his address to the congress of the United States on the 8th of January last, and in subsequent addresses and that its object in entering into discussion would be only to agree upon the practical details of their application?

The president feels bound to say with regard to the suggestion of an armistice that he would not feel at liberty to propose a cessation of arms to the governments with which the government of the United States is associated against the central powers, so long as the armies of those powers are upon their soil; the good faith of any discussion would manifestly depend upon the consent of the central powers immediately to withdraw their forces everywhere from invaded territory.

The president also feels that he is justified in asking whether the imperial chancellor is speaking merely for the constituted authorities of the empire who have so far conducted the war. He deems the answer to these questions vital from every point of view.

Accept, sir, the renewed assurance of my high consideration.

ROBERT LANSING.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face, neck, arms and hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate. Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.
