Mock Assault Staged In Wake Of Big A-Blast

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev., Aug. 31 (AP)—Nuclear age infantrymen today staged a mock assault on an enemy supposedly blasted by an atomic bomb twice as powerful as the one that devastated Hiroshima in 1945. The specially trained troops hopped into action an hour and a half after a nuclear test device went off with a shattering explosion that lit up the western sky for hundreds of miles with a brilliant blue light. The 700-foot tower on which the bomb had rested was vaporized. Fires flickered up on the shrub-covered hills two miles from the blast site. Observers 14 miles away said they felt a sharp blow from the shock wave. The dazzling blue light was seen clearly in Los Angeles, 300 miles to the southwest, and in San Francisco, more than 400 miles to the northwest.

Test officials said the device yielded power equivalent to 40,000 tons of TNT. The bomb dropped on Hiroshima at the end of World War II was equal to 20,000 tons of TNT. The intense blue light accompanying the blast was said to be caused largely by atmospheric conditions. Huddled in trenches 8,500 yards from ground zero—just over five miles—were some 700 men, including a crack infantry platoon from Canada. The Canadians, members of the Queen's Own Rifles, were the first troops other than those from the United States to participate directly in such maneuvers at the Nevada testing grounds. The military exercises began after radiation detection crews pronounced the forward area free from contamination. Forty helicopters which had been waiting behind a row of hills several miles behind the troops, roared in to begin an airlift to the area immediately surrounding the blast site. The maneuver was described as an operation to repel an invader who has landed in the United States. The mushroom cloud erupting from the explosion soared to 25,000 feet before it broke up. The top layer continued on up to 40,000 feet. Winds were reported blowing at varying speeds and directions in the upper altitudes, leading test officials to predict that fallout would be widely dispersed.

Austria Chancellor Suffers A Stroke

VIENNA, Aug. 31 (AP)—Chancellor Julius Raab today suffered a slight stroke, requiring immediate hospital treatment. The 65-year-old head of the Austrian government was taken ill while attending an agricultural fair at Reid in Upper Austria. He was immediately transferred to a hospital at Linz, capital of Upper Austria.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

If things are a bit quiet around town Monday, just wait until Tuesday. That's the day of the grand rush back to school, and enrollment undoubtedly will be at a record. Biggest jam is due to occur at Junior High School, and the theme there is patience. Trustees this past week set October 9 as the date to receive bids on a new junior high-building.

Fiscal matters were being disposed of last week. The county approved its budget for next year (one citizen at the public hearing), and proposes to spend some $855,000, up $32,000 from last year. The junior college adopted a revised budget calling for expenditures of $358,500.

Meanwhile the county got a sound OK from its auditors, and the city set its tax rate at $2.05 same as currently in effect. The tax equalization board worked for a couple of days in adjusting some values for school and city taxes, but handled only a few cases. The big decision on tax values comes Sept. 5, when officials of city, county and school district meet to determine on a uniform re-valuation program. Good economics should go a long way for affirmative action on this.

Ike, Mamie To Newport Wednesday For Vacation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—President Eisenhower's New England vacation plans finally jelled today after weeks of uncertainty.

With Congress now in adjournment, the White House announced the Chief Executive, accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, would fly to the Newport, R. I., Naval Base next Wednesday for several weeks of rest and relaxation. The exact length of their stay was left for the future.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Mrs. Eisenhower, who returned to the White House yesterday after undergoing surgery Aug. 6 at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, would continue her convalescence at Newport, but would have to pass up a civic reception there Wednesday on advice of her doctors.

Hagerty said the doctors thought she would over-exert herself and Mrs. Eisenhower reluctantly agreed to obey their orders.

With his wife now back at the White House, the President decided to spend the weekend here instead of going to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm for Labor Day. He had tentatively planned to fly to the farm early Monday morning to spend the day.

Hagerty said the White House staff is studying what he called "the so-called accomplishments" of the Democratic-controlled Congress session which adjourned yesterday, and the President would have something to say about it next week, presumably at his meeting with newsmen Tuesday.

Eisenhower last week told his press conference he was "tremendously" disappointed with the work of the session.

One American Youth Booted Out Of China

HONG KONG, Aug. 31 (AP)—An American student who refused to surrender his passport was bounced out of Red China tonight. He was quoted as saying the Peiping government was within its rights in ordering him to leave. As Shelby Tucker headed north by train, 31 American companions continued their forbidden tour in the face of strong U.S. warnings. Peiping radio said it could "only express deep regret that Shelby Tucker all along refused to respect the regulations of the Chinese authorities on foreigners in China."

Tucker was quoted in a Peiping dispatch by the British news agency, Reuters, as agreeing that "the Chinese are, from their point of view, legally correct in deporting me." The 22-year-old law student from Pass Christian, Miss., arrived in Peiping Aug. 23 from Moscow with the other World Youth Festival delegates who had been invited on a Red China tour.

The State Department warned the Americans they would be violating the regulations on their passports—stamped "not valid for travel in Red China"—and might be subject to criminal prosecution under the trading with the enemy act.

Tucker canceled out the trip after the State Department statement, then decided to go alone.

When the Americans arrived in Peiping and the Chinese government asked to see their passports only Tucker refused.

Tucker would have a lot to lose if the State Department goes through with its warning to validate the delegates' passports on only for a return trip to the United States. He is studying at Oxford University in England on a fellowship.

Goodies In Her Own Yard

Sherry Buford, 6, finds plenty of almonds right at home—on a tree that voluntarily grew up in the backyard at 212 Wright. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Buford, didn't know what kind of tree it was until this year when it produced its first crop. Mrs. Buford said the tree has bloomed every January for four or five years, but never produced any nuts before. The plant, native to Asia, stands about 20 feet high and spreads over an area about 25 feet across.

Mid-East Pressure Stronger On U.S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Syria's swing toward communism has generated new pressures on the United States to join the anti-Communist alliance in the Middle East known as the Baghdad Pact. These latest pressures come from Syria's neighbors, Turkey and Iraq, both pact members. Secretary of State Dulles is expected to come to grips next week with the problem of new U.S. moves to offset the political hold that Russia has won in the Middle East through the rise to power in Syria of pro-Soviet army officers.

State Department trouble shooter Loy Henderson is due back from a Middle East survey mission early in the week to report to Dulles on possible counter measures. Henderson turned up the new pressures for U.S. membership in the Baghdad Pact when he conferred with Turkish and Iraqi leaders this week in Turkey, according to diplomatic reports to Washington.

He also has encountered requests on the part of Lebanon and Jordan, other Syrian neighbors linked to the West, for some reassertion of U.S. support. Both countries are understood to have indicated a fear of possible Communist-directed strokes, probably in the form of political subversion.

The Middle East situation is part of a broadening pattern of new tensions either directly or indirectly involving Washington and Moscow, which has become apparent in the last few weeks. For example, the atmosphere of hostility has enveloped the London disarmament negotiations. Henderson is coming back from the Middle East to report on the results of what the State Department has insisted was a fact finding mission.

The only line Henderson is understood to have urged positively on the leaders of friendly Middle Eastern countries was that the Syrian crisis is primarily one for them to deal with, though they could be assured of U.S. cooperation and support for whatever steps they might take. Essentially, the State Department has hoped that Arab pressures outside Syria might prevent the pro-Communist leaders of that country from committing their country totally to a virtual alliance with Russia. Such an alliance would mean that Syria would become a base for Soviet political influence and eventually for limited Soviet military power in the Middle East.

One instrument readily available to the United States and anti-Communist countries in the area, Henderson is understood to have been told, is the Baghdad Pact. The United States has resisted pressures in the past to join it but Turkey and Iraq want a new look at that situation now.

The pact embraces Britain, Pakistan, Turkey, Iraq and Iran. It was formed in November 1955. It is not only an alliance of widely scattered nations having a common interest in creating strength against possible Soviet aggression but also a device for formally introducing Western power into a vulnerable area.

Jury To View Theatre Site Of That Cuddling Episode

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31 (AP)—A jury will go to Hollywood Tuesday to inspect the theater where Confidential magazine said Maureen O'Hara and a Latin man cuddled. And there was speculation today that the red-haired star will take the witness stand in court to deny the story.

The prosecution said yesterday, before the Labor Day weekend recess that it will put zip into the magazine's libel trial next week with "witnesses who will keep photographers busy."

Dept. Dist. Atty. William L. Ritzel declined to identify them, but speculation centered on Miss O'Hara as one.

She has denied that such an episode ever occurred. It was related in a Confidential article entitled "It Was the Hottest Show in Town When Maureen O'Hara Cuddled in Row 35." The actress has declared she was in Europe at the time and has sued the magazine for five million dollars' damage.

The article said Row 35 is at the rear of Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood. The theater manager, Ralph Hathaway, testified yesterday that the last row is No. 40.

Hathaway said he was never told of the alleged incident by James Craig, who claimed to have witnessed it. Hathaway identified Craig as a doorman and, under

Big Transport Crashes; Five Airmen Killed

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 31 (AP)—A huge Air Force Globemaster transport plane attempting an instrument landing during a driving rainstorm, crashed and burned today, killing five airmen and injuring 10 others.

The four-engine C124, attached to the 1st Strategic Squadron at Biggs Air Force Base here, crashed about two miles northwest of El Paso International Airport at 1:45 a.m.

Control tower operators said the Globemaster was using the airport's instrument landing facilities but there was no indication it was in big difficulty until the operators saw a huge ball of flame flash in the darkness some distance from the field.

Cause of the crash was not immediately determined. The Air Force ordered a board of inquiry.

The injured men were taken to William Beaumont Army Hospital and Biggs AFB Hospital. An official said none was injured seriously.

A Biggs AFB official said the plane was returning from a flight to Hunter AFB at Savannah, Ga.

Goodyear To Build Testing Ground At San Angelo

AKRON, Ohio, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. said today it will build a multi-million dollar tire test proving ground on a 7,300-acre tract northeast of San Angelo.

The testing ground, largest of its kind in the rubber industry, will include a banked five-mile high-speed circle which will accommodate auto speeds of 160 miles an hour.

The facility will also include a meandering 20-mile paved figure-eight turnpike road, a 2 1/2-mile tractor tire straightaway, a 5-mile wandering gravel road and a headquarters building.

The site is on the former Crown Ranch, 14 miles northeast of San Angelo.

JOHN DIBRELL

Dibrell Proposed For Probation Officer

John Dibrell, Big Spring civic leader and business man, has agreed to accept appointment as Howard County Adult Probation Officer.

Judge Charlie Sullivan, 118th District Court, asked Dibrell, who is a member of the Big Spring Board of Education and a director of the Big Spring YMCA, to accept the position. Dibrell said he told the judge he would do so.

Next step will be up to the Howard County Commissioners Court. None of the commissioners could be reached Saturday but it was believed that Judge Sullivan's nomination would be placed before the commissioners on Tuesday.

It will be the responsibility of the Commissioners to determine what salary the position should receive. Under a new state adult probation law, enacted by the last Legislature, the district judge is empowered to appoint a probation officer, but he must be paid by the county.

Heretofore, adult probation administration has been the responsibility of Bobby West, investigator for the office of Guilford Jones, district attorney. The Legislature's action eliminated West from continuing in this duty effective today.

West has been receiving $25 a month additional compensation for the extra work involved in serving in the post of adult probation officer.

Dibrell said Saturday that he had told Judge Sullivan that he would serve but that he had no word that the appointment has made official.

Judge Sullivan was not in town. "Judge Sullivan called me to come to his office late Friday afternoon," said Dibrell. "He explained the problem which he faced and said that he would appreciate it if I would consider accepting the post. I agreed to do so—provided, of course, that my selection was satisfactory to all concerned."

Dibrell served as Howard County

Highway Slaughter Is Over Estimates

By The Associated Press

Violent deaths on the nation's roadway moved past the 160 mark Saturday in the first full day of the Labor Day weekend—a rate higher than anticipated by safety officials.

Motorists were turning to the highways by the millions to enjoy the last holiday weekend of the summer. They were cautioned by one safety expert to "slam on the brakes."

The National Safety Council estimated last week that traffic accidents would cost 420 lives during the 78-hour holiday period from 6 p.m. Friday, to midnight Monday.

Ned H. Dearborn, Council president, said: "We are concerned over the pace of the early toll, which will exceed our estimate unless the drivers slam on the brakes."

The council's estimate of 420 was well under the all-time Labor Day weekend traffic record of 461 deaths in 1951, as well as last year's Labor Day traffic death count of 435 for the three-day period.

Last Labor Day the over-all toll from accidental deaths was 596. Besides the 435 traffic victims, there were 39 persons drowned and 72 killed in all other types of accidents.

A non-holiday test survey covering a 78-hour weekend period from 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 16, to midnight Monday, Aug. 19, this year, counted 567 accident deaths—398 in traffic, 82 from drowning, and 87 in miscellaneous accidents. The deadliest Labor Day weekend in history, in terms of all sorts of accidents, was that in 1951 when the toll was 658.

One of the worst traffic crashes reported during the first day of the current weekend was an auto-truck collision at a highway intersection near Lima, Ohio, which killed four youths in the car and sent the truck driver to a hospital with injuries.

Witnesses said the automobile, traveling at high speed, passed a red traffic signal. The driver's last moments were occupied with a frantic attempt to avoid impact. The car went into a long, screeching skid before the crash.

There are 23 persons serving probated sentences at this time in Howard County. The list was augmented this past week when Judge Sullivan granted W. A. Hutchens a probated sentence when he pleaded guilty to a charge of DWI second offense.

At its last session the Howard County Commissioners Court approved a request by Jones that the travel expenses of his investigator, West, be increased $25 per month. This was asked to offset the loss in compensation that West would have suffered because of the abolition of his duties at probation officer.

Dibrell's duties, if he is named to the post, would be limited strictly to adult offenders on probation. Juveniles who get into difficulty and are given probation will either be assigned to their parents or to A. E. Long, county juvenile officer, for supervision.

8 Traffic Deaths Recorded In State

By The Associated Press

Fifteen violent deaths were recorded Saturday as Texans started a long Labor Day weekend.

Eight deaths since 6 p.m. Friday were due to traffic, five to the crash of an Air Force transport at El Paso, one to a drowning, and one to a shooting.

The Department of Public Safety has predicted 33 persons will die in traffic by midnight Monday. Over the Labor Day weekend last year, 29 were killed.

Appeals for safe driving have been issued by the department and by Gov. Price Daniel. Army Engineers urged safety precautions for swimming, boating and fishing to reduce water accidents.

Cashier Missing, So Is $32,000

MOUNT HOPE, W. Va., Aug. 21 (AP)—Missing from the bank of Mount Hope is its cashier and $32,000.99 in cash from the vault. Loss of the cash was officially confirmed today by the bank's president, Ronald Snyder.

Cashier W. G. Potter, 57, a respected employe of the bank since 1922, has been missing since Tuesday night.

The FBI in Pittsburgh said a complaint was filed before U.S. Commissioner Winton A. Riffe of Beckley, W. Va., charging Potter with embezzling the bank's funds. A federal warrant has been issued for his arrest.

After Potter's disappearance, which was reported to police Wednesday morning by his wife, it was discovered that the bank vault had been time-locked.

The mechanism had been set for the maximum period of 72 hours, and the vault doors did not swing open again until a few minutes past 8 o'clock last night.

By that time, a dramatic note of expectancy had been injected into the case and a crowd of several hundred curious citizens mirrored about the streets when the zero hour approached.

After a hasty check, Police Chief Tom Twaddle announced apparently nothing was missing. Bank examiners kept at the task of searching the vault, however, and shortly after 1 a.m. Snyder issued a formal statement announcing that a shortage of $32,000.99 had been uncovered.

Florida Test Reported As Unsuccessful

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Authoritative officials said today a Thor ballistic missile was successfully launched from Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., yesterday but the test was marred by a failure that cut the flight far short of its planned goal.

Although military officers are forbidden by the Defense Department to comment on the performance of new missiles or even to identify officials those that are launched, it was learned that the missile fired yesterday was the Thor. This is the Air Force candidate for selection as America's Intermediate-Range Ballistic Missile.

The missile was seen by civilian observers when it ascended from the launching platform at Cape Canaveral. Observers reported that the missile could be seen for about four minutes and that before disappearing from sight, it appeared to be veering seaward in arcs.

It was learned in Washington that the Thor left its launching platform according to plan but that shortly after getting into the air, it started turning and seemed to be describing a wide sweep that might have brought it back toward the mainland. The missile never returned, because it was destroyed at sea.

Bond Sales Hit $413,000

U.S. Savings Bond sales in Howard County during July totaled $52,675, the Treasury Department has reported.

July sales boosted the total for the year to $413,135 which is 46.1 per cent of the goal for 1957. The local sales are slightly under the state-wide rate. Across Texas, bond sales for the year total $99,745,395 or 51.6 per cent of the state quota.

The report showed these July and cumulative sales for other counties in this area: Glasscock, none; Midland, $37,124 and $424,071; Sterling, $467 and $5,160; Borden, none; Dawson, $4,924 and $66,093; Martin, $590 and $24,320; Mitchell, $11,735 and $179,672; and Scurry, $0,276 and $234,333.

Midland has sold 41.8 per cent of its goal, Sterling 10.6 per cent; Dawson 28 per cent; Martin 24.8 per cent; Mitchell 59.5 per cent; and Scurry 39.6 per cent.

$3,075 Budget Is Fixed For Yule Program

A budget of $3,075 has been set up by the Chamber of Commerce Christmas Committee for staging this year's Yule observance. The three-week Christmas program will start with the traditional parade on Dec. 3, and will include the big "Treasure Hunt" on Dec. 16. Santa Claus will pay his first 1957 visit to the city to participate in the parade.

Merchants participating in the Treasure Hunt will give away scores of valuable prizes on Dec. 16, which also will be observed throughout the city as "Family Night." Stores will remain open until 8 p.m. for the distribution of gift certificates to winners of the Treasure Hunt. Many stores also are planning to serve refreshments during the period from 6 to 8 p.m.

Merchants participating in the Treasure Hunt will be those who contribute to the fund for financing the city-wide Christmas program. They will distribute tickets for the hunt to their customers. The budget provides $600 for additional Yule decorations around the courthouse; $400 for expenses of installing and maintaining decorations and for dismantling them at the close of the season; $450 for lights, wiring and other accessory items; $300 for 5,000 Christmas stockings to be distributed to the children during the parade; $850 for parade expenses, including $50 for construction of 17 church floats; and $200 for the home decoration contest prizes.

There will be no commercial entries in the parade, and the Christmas Committee plans to help defray the costs of floats to be prepared by the churches.

Clara Zack, chairman of the project, said funds for the program are being solicited by mail this year. Merchants who plan to participate are being asked to contribute at least as much as they gave to the program last year.

Statements and detailed information on the Christmas plans were being mailed this weekend.

No DWI Probation Planned Here Yet

County judges over Texas are pondering whether a new twist injected into the state criminal code by the recent Legislature may make it possible for them to probate DWI jail terms.

Here in Howard County, Judge R. H. Weaver and County Attorney John Richard Coffee are still studying the law and have not reached any opinion.

It seems highly probable that no decision will be reached until some county court has applied probation in a DWI case and the higher courts have interpreted the validity of its action.

Under a special law, dealing with DWI first offense, enacted in 1953, a three-day minimum jail sentence is a mandatory part of every judgment in a case where the defendant is convicted. The jail sentence can be longer than three days but it is the inflexible rule that each DWI offender must serve at least that many days in the hoosegow.

Now, county officials are puzzling over just what the implications of a new law enacted by the recent Legislature may be.

This law says, in effect, that misdemeanor cases—the type of cases dealt with in the county courts—can be handled in the same manner employed in felony cases. Actually, it is said, the new law asserts that jail sentences can be given in misdemeanor cases and that probation is permitted.

It was explained that prior to adoption of this law, sentences were not handed down by judges hearing misdemeanor matters. It was ruled that actions of those judges constituted "judgments," and not sentences.

The original 1953 DWI law stated that jail sentences on DWI convictions could be commuted. This was appealed and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ruled that the governor of the state alone has authority to commute a sentence. Hence that phrase in the law has been held unconstitutional and as a result defendants arrested and tried for DWI have been doing their minimum three-day jail sentences.

It is held in some quarters that the new law and the ruling of the appellate court places drunk driving cases back in the category of plain misdemeanors. These matters are covered by a general law. If this position is sound, it is contended by some judges and some attorneys that probation of jail sentences might be within the prerogative of the judges. Meantime, however, persons who are picked up locally for driving their cars while drunk had better not count on this new dispute over a legal technicality to keep them out of jail.

Until some higher court untangles what effect the new law has on the matter, it is generally conceded that the old established "I fine you $75 and sentence you to serve three days in the Howard County jail" will continue to be the standard phrase in the Howard County court.

Close Of A Wonderful Summer

Water therapy patients took a longing, last look at the Westward-Ho Motel swimming pool Thursday after the last of the twice-weekly treatment sessions conducted throughout the summer. Bo Bowen, city-county nurse pictured above with two of the patients, Charlie Robinson and Larry McSwain, said the therapy program was "real successful." Many of the youngsters showed enormous improvement and all are looking forward to resumption of the program next summer, she said. Physical therapy will be continued here and in Midland throughout the year. Miss Bowen expressed appreciation to Westward-Ho for use of the pool, to Tarbox-Gossett Ford for providing transportation for the youngsters, and to all volunteer workers who assisted with the program.

Texas Not Affected By New Vote Right Bill, Says Lyndon

AUSTIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson said today he believed the new civil rights bill passed by Congress would have "very little application" in Texas.

"We have never been afraid for people to vote in Texas regardless of who they are or where they live," Johnson asserted.

The senator, en route home from Washington, said he planned to rest and go dove hunting for several days before opening his office here about Sept. 9.

"It was really a voting rights bill, not a civil rights bill," the majority leader said. "Actually it was one of the poorest drawn pieces of legislation I have ever seen come from the Executive Department."

One of the most controversial provisions would require jury trials for criminal contempt actions involving voting violations, provided a federal judge levied a sentence of more than 45 days or a fine of more than $300.

"I doubt if there will be more than a handful of criminal contempt cases anyway," he said. Johnson said passage of the civil rights bill broke a legislative "log jam."

"Now that it is behind us we can go on to the very important water problem and the agricultural problem and other problems," he said.

Johnson referred to a recent agreement between the Bureau of Reclamation and the Army Engineers to have an overall water plan for Texas ready by next spring.

"It is very important that the state exercise leadership in this field," Johnson said.

Johnson said his health is good but that he is several pounds overweight. He said he hoped to correct that in the next week. He suffered a severe heart attack in 1955.

The senator said he and Mrs. Johnson probably would spend considerable time traveling to speaking dates already arranged for the senator.

"Last week was the roughest week I have been through in about 25 years," Johnson said.

10th, Rannels Signal Ordered

A traffic light will be installed at 10th and Rannels next week.

The City Commission Tuesday night authorized a traffic light at the corner in an attempt to dislodge the bottleneck on traffic at Junior High School. However, the city does not keep more traffic lights than necessary and therefore one had to be ordered.

Wednesday, the city called the producing company's agent in Abilene and he said one might be available at the Dallas office. If one was available there, it is probably in transit now.

But should one not be available there, one will have to come from the factory, and this will take from 30 to 60 days, the city manager, H. W. Whitney, said. Whether it arrives next week or in two months, the city plans to install it as soon as it comes in.

Magsaysay, Lafayette Are Honored In Stamp Issues

Parade of special commemorative stamps being issued by the United States Post Office Department continues unbroken—three such stamps being scheduled to make their debut this month.

One issue of the new commemoratives has already been received by the Big Spring post office. However, regulations will preclude the post office placing this stamp on sale before Sept. 7.

The stamp now on hand is the new 3-cent commemorative honoring the 200th anniversary of the birth of Marquis De Lafayette.

Postal officials here have ordered 2,400 copies of a special 3-cent stamp which is to be placed on sale on Sept. 3.

This colorful stamp honors the late president of the Philippine Islands—Ramon Magsaysay—who died in an airplane crash a few months ago. It is another of the "fancy" issues and will be printed in three colors.

Elmer Boatler, postmaster, said he had received inquiries for the stamp from local collectors and had placed the order for the 2,400 copies several days ago. He was puzzled that the shipment had not been received and was equally puzzled that the 20,000 special Lafayette 3-cent stamps had arrived ahead of the Magsaysay order.

He had hopes that the colorful 3-centers would be on hand over the weekend.

Third in the new stamps to appear will be the 30-cent special delivery issue. This is not a commemorative but is to be a regular issue hereafter. It was made necessary by the change in fees which increased the charge for a special delivery letter from 20 cents to 30 cents. It is identical in design with the standard 20 cent special delivery which it replaces except that it shows 30 cents denomination instead of 20. The old 20's were printed in grayish blue—the new stamps will be maroon. They are to be put in use on Sept. 4. However, Boatler said his supply of these had not arrived.

For sometime now, post offices have been charging 30 cents for a special delivery letter—attaching a regular 20-cent stamp and a 10-cent stamp to make up the fee. The Lafayette issue depicts a reproduction of a portrait of the famous American Revolutionary War hero which now hangs in the Versailles. To the left of the portrait is a flintlock musket of the type used in the Revolution and on the right is a replica of the sword which the United States Government presented to Lafayette.

Above in the scroll are the letters RP (Republique Francaise) topped by a torch of liberty and the famous liberty cap worn by French revolutionaries. The stamp is maroon in color and vertical in design.

The Magsaysay 8-cent special commemorative is printed in red, blue and golden ochre. A medallion makes up the center feature which shows the head of Magsaysay and the caption reads "Champion of Liberty." Only 40,000,000 will be printed.

Red Skelton's Wife Enters Hospital

HONOLULU, Aug. 31 (AP)—Mrs. Georgia Skelton, wife of comedian Red Skelton, entered Queens Hospital today for observation of possible appendicitis.

A hospital spokesman said she was resting comfortably and an operation may not be necessary. Mrs. Skelton has been vacationing here with the Skelton's two children, Valentina, 10, and Richard, 9. Young Richard is ill with leukemia.

Discussions Set On Rehabilitation Center

Several members of the Big Spring chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha and possibly representatives of the local police chapter will hear a discussion of the rehabilitation center proposed for Houston.

Mrs. R. O. Pearson of Abilene will tell of plans for the center at a meeting of Epsilon Sigma Alpha representatives and others in Midland Tuesday, Bo Bowen, city-county health nurse, and George Zachariah, chairman of the Howard-Glasscock polio chapter, said several Big Springers will attend.

225 Couples Get Marriage Licenses

Despite a record number of applications for marriage licenses during August, the total number of marriage permits issued so far in 1957 is lagging three behind the same period last year.

August this year piled up 41 applications for marriage licenses—exceeded only in the past two years by 42 issued in June 1956. August was 10 ahead of the same period last year.

However, for the full period ending yesterday, there had been only 225 licenses sold by the Howard County clerk's office in 1957. In the same interval, in 1956, the total was 228.

This is a far cry from the old days, a check of the records reveals.

The old books show that Howard County issued its first marriage license on Aug. 14, 1882. The applicants were George Davis and Gertrude Flowers.

of 1882 before a second marriage license was issued—this one to Charles Higgins and Bura Hodges. During the first full 12 months period from Aug. 14, 1882, through Aug. 14, 1883, only 15 marriage licenses were issued by the Howard County clerk's office.

In 1956, for the full year, there were 336 marriage licenses sold. If the present rate holds, about the same number will be sold this year.

Indeed, August is "top" month for 1957 in the number of marriage licenses—sold—outdistancing both February and June, normally the most active months in this department.

If August had not rallied as it did, 1957 would be lagging badly behind the same months for 1956.

A box score for the months so far with 1957 totals followed by 1956 totals in parentheses: January 23 (17); February 25 (31); March 24 (17); April 18 (18); May 27 (33); June 33 (42); July 24 (39) and August 41 (31).

Borden County Registers Dual Completion

Activity in Borden County this week included completion of a new well and potential from the second zone at another.

The dual completion is the Superior and Intex No. 1-580 C. D. Jones in the Fluvanna field. First reported was completion from the Ellenburger for a potential of 155 barrels of oil through an 8-64-inch choke.

Later, it finished from the Strawn section. On 24-hour potential in the Strawn, it flowed 132 barrels of 41-3-degree oil through an 11-64-inch choke—free of water. The well is four miles northwest of Fluvanna, 660 feet from north and west lines, 580-97, H&TC Survey.

Total depth is 8,227 feet, and seven-inch string is set on the bottom. Strawn perforations extend from 7,781-84 feet, and top of the pay section is 7,603 feet. Gas-oil ratio on the Strawn test was 443-1.

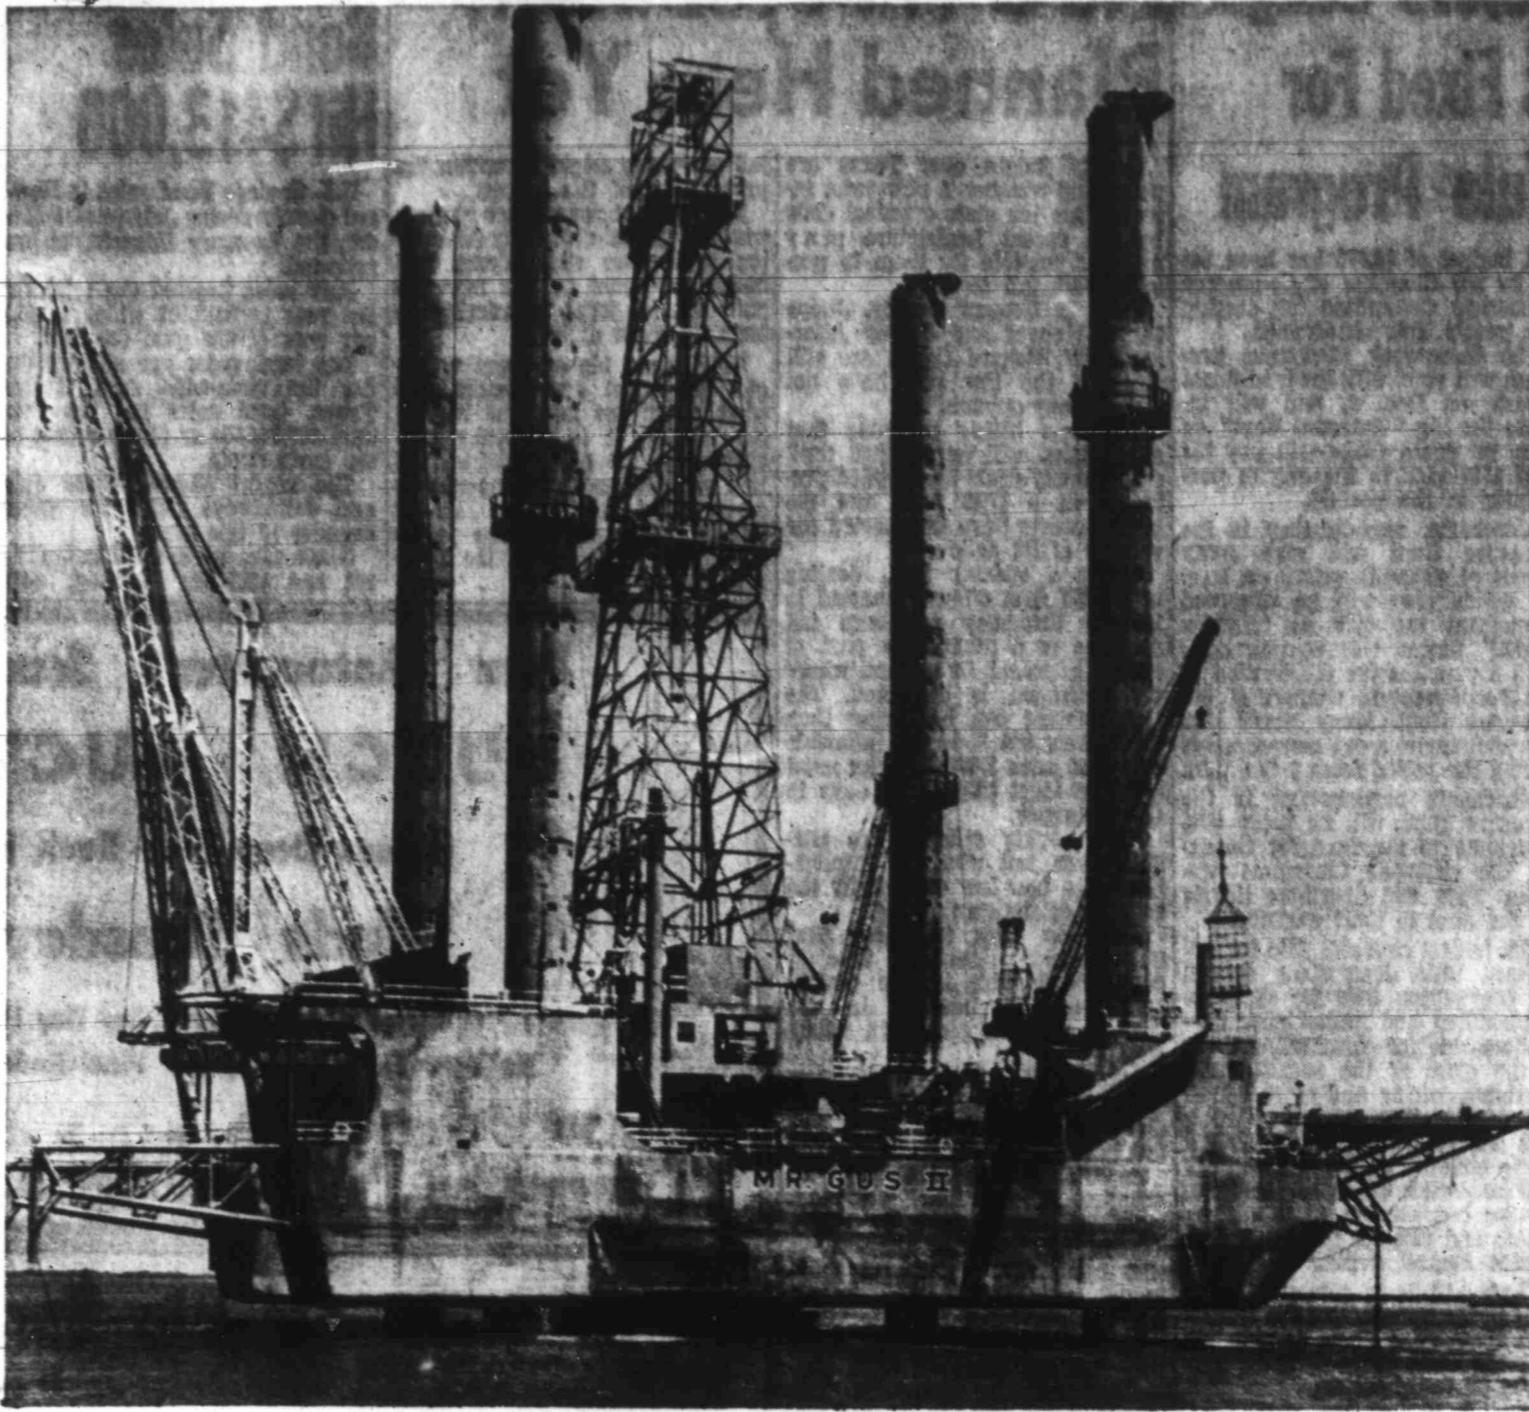

In the Arthur (Spraberry) field in the opposite corner of the county, Seaboard No. 6-33 T. J. Good flowed 301.21 barrels of oil and 22 per cent water in 24 hours. Flow was through a half-inch choke. Gravity is 39.4 degrees, and gas-oil ratio measured 538-1.

The well is seven and a half miles north of Vealmoor, 560 feet from north and 1,980 from west lines, 33-33-4n, T&P Survey.

The hole extends to 7,573 feet, and Spraberry production is reached at 7,485. Perforations stand from 7,485-535 feet.

About 10 miles southwest of Gall, Tidewater No. 1 Clayton-Johnson, a wildcat, continued to pump at the rate of five barrels of oil and 90 per cent water per day. The venture is testing the Canyon from 8,212-22 feet.

The location is 660 feet from south and 2,019 from east lines, 9-32-4n, T&P Survey.

Mr. Gus II For Deep-Water Drilling

The monstrous mobile platform unit is now punching a hole 25 miles from shore off the coast of Louisiana. The main body, resting just above the water, will be raised up on the four caissons to a height which will clear it of storm waves. Mr. Gus has been contracted for by the CATC group, a combine made up of Continental, Cities Service, Tidewater, and Atlantic. It was built in Beaumont by Bethlehem Shipyard and is owned by Glascock Drilling Company. It is the only mobile unit operating in the world which is designed to drill in water 150 feet deep.

Little Decline In Oil Imports

HOUSTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Crude oil imports have registered only minor declines since President Eisenhower ordered immediate cutbacks July 29.

American Petroleum Institute (API) figures on last week's imports indicate sharp fluctuations from the previous week but averages over a four-week period still reflect little change.

Eisenhower approved a recommendation from his special committee to investigate crude oil imports that imports be limited to 1,081,000 barrels daily the last half of 1957 and the first half of 1958.

Crude imports last week averaged 1,255,400 barrels a day, compared to 1,297,100 the week ending July 26.

This indicates a decline of 41,700 barrels a day since the presidential order. The weekly averages can be misleading. Most importers prefer to judge imports on averages for four consecutive weeks. They contend early or delayed shipping arrivals can cause weekly averages to fluctuate sharply.

Contrary to the weekly averages, API's reports on a four-week basis indicate imports have increased since July 29.

The average for the four weeks ending Aug. 16 was 1,269,100 barrels a day for imported crude, compared to 1,246,700 the four weeks ending July 26.

Many details of the government's voluntary curtailment program remain to be worked out but API's reports of the next few weeks should reflect more sharply action being taken by the importing companies.

Domestic crude output last week dropped to its lowest point of the year. A daily average of 6,738,500 barrels represents a drop of over a million barrels a day since the end of the emergency campaign to relieve the oil shortage in Western Europe during the Suez Canal crisis. Little change is expected under September state proration allowances.

Two Completions Recorded In Howard-Glasscock Field

Continental Oil and Shawnee Robertson have each completed one well in the Howard-Glasscock field of Howard County.

The Continental well is the No. 2-A H. R. Clay, about three miles southwest of Otis Chalk. On 24-hour potential, it pumped 90 barrels of 32-degree oil and 35 per cent water after operator acidized with 9,000 gallons.

Total depth is 3,213 feet, and it is plugged back to 2,510 feet. Top of the pay section is 2,419. Location of the well is 250 feet from north and east lines, 139-29, W&NW Survey.

Sawnee Robertson No. 17 Humble-Douthitt pumped 29.03 barrels of oil and 25 per cent water in 24 hours. It is 330 feet from south and 2,100 from east lines of the northeast quarter, 123-29, W&NW Survey.

The hole extends to 2,497 feet, and oil string is set on the bottom. Top of the pay section is 2,230 feet, and perforation interval is 2,293-404 feet.

Eight miles southeast of Big Spring, WWH Drilling Company No. 1 Reed swabbed load water and some oil from San Andres perforations. The venture is a wildcat 330 feet from south and east lines, 21-31-1s, T&P Survey. It is about four miles west of the Snyder pool.

Operator plugged back to the San Andres from 3,450 feet and set perforations from 2,732-815 feet.

In the Snyder field, Cosden Petroleum No. 2-B O'Daniel drilled through redbeds and shale at 1,232 feet. The location is 2,310 feet from south and 1,650 feet from west lines, 29-30-1s, T&P Survey, and seven miles southeast of Coahoma.

Also in the Snyder field, Turner No. 2 Edwards was fracturing Saturday. It is 330 feet from north and 990 feet from east lines, 32-30-1s, T&P Survey, and seven miles southeast of Coahoma.

Moore No. 1-5-TXL in the Snyder field, was at 2,320 feet in lime Saturday. The venture, seven miles southeast of Coahoma, is being drilled by Turner Drilling Company.

The location is 330 feet from north and west lines, 35-30-1s, T&P Survey.

Pecore Heads Pipeline Co.

HOUSTON, Aug. 31, (SC)—A. E. Pecore, vice president of Humble Pipe Line Company, has been named president of the company.

He was elected in anticipation of the September retirement of O. Q. Lomax, who has been president of the company since 1950.

William Spangler, who has been general superintendent, replaces Pecore as vice president, and P. D. Phillips Jr., has been promoted to the general superintendent's job and named a director of the company.

Pecore is a native of Houston. After four years with Southern Pacific Railway, he joined the engineering department of Producer's Oil Company, now the Texas Company.

Five years later he was made chief draftsman and in 1934 he became assistant civil engineer.

In 1944, he was appointed chief engineer. He became general superintendent in 1949 and the following year became vice president.

Companies To Get Hearing On Curtailing Oil Imports

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Four hearings on objections to the voluntary program for curtailing crude oil imports will start here Sept. 10.

Navy Capt. M. V. Carson Jr. of Hearne, Tex., administrator of the program, has set hearings for four companies which contend the program would cause inequities. He said he has not heard from other importing companies which had indicated they wanted to be heard.

After Carson was named to direct the program to curb crude oil imports east of the Rocky Mountains by about 10 per cent, he asked 22 companies to accept voluntary import quotas. That was early in August. Several companies filed objections. On Sept. 19 he wrote the companies asking when they wanted to be heard. Replies were received from four, and he has scheduled hearings for them. The schedule:

Standard Oil Co., Indiana, Sept. 10; Tidewater Oil Co. and Standard Oil Co., Ohio, Sept. 11, and International Refineries, Sept. 12.

Sun Oil Co. advised Carson it feared the program would involve

Companies To Get Hearing On Curtailing Oil Imports

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Four hearings on objections to the voluntary program for curtailing crude oil imports will start here Sept. 10.

Navy Capt. M. V. Carson Jr. of Hearne, Tex., administrator of the program, has set hearings for four companies which contend the program would cause inequities. He said he has not heard from other importing companies which had indicated they wanted to be heard.

After Carson was named to direct the program to curb crude oil imports east of the Rocky Mountains by about 10 per cent, he asked 22 companies to accept voluntary import quotas. Sun Oil Co. advised Carson it feared the program would involve ## anti-trust violations. It did not ask a hearing.

The program, recommended by a Cabinet committee and ordered by President Eisenhower, would hold crude imports to a level of about 1,081,000 barrels a day for 12 months ending next June 30.

For the week ending Aug. 26, imports were averaging 1,258,700 barrels daily compared with 1,012,700 for four weeks ending Aug. 24, 1956.

Carson said he was "much encouraged" by the statistics, saying it takes time for cutbacks to become effective. He said he thought most importing companies are ready and willing to make reductions.

Secretary of Interior Seaton will have the final say on any adjustments in the import quotas.

Tonto Field Adds Another Producer

A wildcat, completed this week has been added to the one-well Tonto (Canyon sand) field of Scurry County.

It is Blanco Oil No. 1 Odum.

On 24-hour potential, the well flowed 160.15 barrels of oil naturally through a 1 1/4-inch choke. No water appeared on the test.

The location is six miles northeast of Snyder, 1,980 feet from south and west lines, 388-97, H&TC Survey. The well is a mile and a quarter southeast extender to the field.

Operator plugged back to 6,770 feet from 7,075, and operator perforated from 6,714-70 feet in the Canyon.

Edwards Adds Pay In Mitchell Area

A new well was added to the Turner-Gregory (Clear Fork) field of Mitchell County this week.

The new producer is Edwards Petroleum No. 1 L. H. Murphy. It pumped 16 barrels of oil and 42 per cent water on 24-hour final test. Gravity tested 26 degrees.

Location is six miles northwest of Westbrook, 1,650 feet from south and 1,980 from west lines, 24-29-1n, T&P Survey.

The hole bottoms at 2,734 feet, and top of the Clear Fork section is 2,650. Perforations extend from 2,650-65 feet.

Carter Wolfcamp Test Deepened

Operators deepened a project in the one-well Carter (Wolfcamp) field.

The venture is Fair and Williamson No. 1 S. C. Currie. Saturday, it drilled at 4,825 feet in lime. It is slated for a 9,000-foot bottom. Location is about five miles north of Garden City and a mile southwest of the Shell No. 1 Currie, discovery in the Carter (Wolfcamp) field.

Drill site is 660 feet from north and east lines, 35-34-3s, T&P Survey.

Martin Wildcat Nearing 10,000

A Martin County wildcat neared 10,000 feet this weekend. It is Texas No. 1 Lou Ida Hatchett.

Saturday operator reported drilling at 9,884 feet in lime. It is a Devonian exploration with a project depth of 11,800 feet.

It is 1,650 feet from north and 2,310 from west lines, 23-36-3n, T&P Survey, and eight miles northwest of Lamesa.

Jones No. 1 Holt New Test For Dawson Pennsylvanian

A new Pennsylvanian exploration has been announced in Dawson County.

The new try is J. E. Jones Drilling No. 1 Holt. It is about two and a half miles north of Mungerville and will drill to 8,800 feet with rotary equipment to test the Pennsylvanian.

Drill site is 1,980 feet from south and 765 feet from west lines, 59-M, EL&RR Survey. It is about a mile and a half northwest of the Cosden-Caraway No. 1 Worthan which is now testing in the Spraberry.

Saturday, the Cosden-Caraway No. 1 Worthan was still swabbing load oil after tracing. Perforations in the Spraberry extend from 7,385-420 feet.

Location of the venture is about nine miles northwest of Lamesa, 660 feet from south and 4,112 from east lines, 2-3, D. L. Cunningham Survey.

Cosden's No. 2 M. E. Dyer, in the Ackerly (Pennsylvanian) field, drilled through shale at 6,763 feet Saturday. It is staked 1,980 feet from south and 660 from west lines, 43-33-4n, T&P Survey. It is about two and a half miles east of Ackerly on a 160-acre tract.

About four miles northwest of Ackerly, Cox No. 1 Graves set surface casing at 253 feet and waited on cement Saturday. It is a wildcat slated for a 9,300-foot bottom in the Pennsylvanian. Drill-site is 650 feet from north and east lines, 49-34-4n, T&P Survey.

The Texas Company deepened its No. 1 B. E. Miller to 3,255 feet in anhydrite and salt this weekend. This prospect is about four miles southwest of Lamesa, 1,979 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines, 17-36-5n, T&P Survey. It is also a Pennsylvanian exploration.

Three miles northeast of Lamesa, Texas Crude Oil Company No. 1-5 Annie Miller waited on cement to set 9 1/4-inch casing at 4,060 feet.

The wildcat venture is located 660 feet from south and west lines, 5-35-6n, T&P Survey. It is two miles west of the Arvanna (San Andres) field and a mile south of an abandoned Ellenburger wildcat.

Texas Leads In Plastics Items

AUSTIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—Human skeletons to oil well drilling rigs—all are made in Texas with modern man-made plastic materials.

The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research said today Texas is the leading source of many basic plastic materials. It entered the varied industry after the war.

Products made by Texas fabricators range from fiber glass dog-skiing crates to plastic human skeletons for anatomical demonstration; from irrigation pipe to laminated table tops; from tableware to oil well drilling parts.

With more than 100 plastic fabricators active in Texas, the Dallas-Fort Worth and Houston areas pace the state with more than two-thirds of the plants.

Texas has only six plants with more than 30 employees and only 2 with more than 100.

Reinforced plastics are on a big boom in Texas now, the report said. They are used primarily in the manufacture of fiberglass boats.

Price advantages together with quality production will enable extra regional sales to increase.

Regional Geologist Appointed By Sun

DALLAS, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Sun Oil Co. has named Joseph Lea regional geologist in four eastern districts and Dr. Edward Hard for its western districts, Sam Gladney, manager of the South-west Production Division, said today.

Lea, of Dallas, will supervise work in districts headquarters at Tyler, Shreveport, Jackson, Miss., and Tallahassee.

Hard, who has supervised the Eastern regional since 1949, will direct districts with headquarters at Midland, Abilene, Amarillo, and Roswell, N. M. He succeeds Wallace Ralston, who recently was named assistant division chief geologist-operational.

Reduction In Spending Is A Question

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Congress made the biggest cuts in appropriations bills in five years this session but whether this will mean significant reductions in spending in the year ahead is not at all clear.

Despite the cuts voted in the session ending yesterday, a tabulation showed today that the total of money bills passed was the highest for any year of the Eisenhower administration — $67,160,000,000.

The amount of the cut in appropriations was in disagreement because of different ways of figuring the slash made in foreign aid. The appropriations committees listed the total cut at $4,914,000,000; other sources made it about $5,400,000,000.

The key question, however, was what effect the cuts might have on the spending total of $71,800,000,000 forecast by President Eisenhower last January for fiscal 1958, which began July 1.

This budget was a record high for any peace-time year and it touched off a roar of economy protest, some of it within the administration.

There was general agreement among congressional fiscal experts that any cuts in spending would be far less than the reductions in appropriations made at this session.

The spending and appropriations budgets are not comparable. Only a part of the spending in any fiscal year is out of appropriations voted in the calendar year in which the fiscal year begins. Much of it, often as much as one-third, comes from holdover appropriations from previous congresses.

One highly placed member of Congress said privately that the appropriations cuts this year would not reduce the $71,800,000,000 spending figure by more than one billion dollars.

He pointed out many of the cuts would be restored in supplemental, or deficiency appropriations early next year, and others were of bookkeeping nature which do not affect spending.

But some members of Congress feel this economy drive will be stopped by Russia's announcement of last Monday that it had developed a successful intercontinental ballistic missile.

If the President decides to take the renege of the military services, there are 35 billion dollars of unspent funds from fiscal 1957 and prior years available. This is in addition to the $34,760,000,000 of new defense money voted this year for fiscal 1958.

Counterspy Says Khrushy Soon To Fall

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Counterspy Boris Morros foresees the fall of Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev within the next eight months.

He predicts that the successor will be a military dictatorhead headed by Marshal Georgi Zhukov.

Morros' forecasts, in closed testimony to the House Committee on Un-American Activities, were made public by Chairman Walter (D-Pa.) today as the committee issued brief biographical sketches of Zhukov and Ivan Konev.

Zhukov is the present Soviet minister of defense and a World War II associate of Gen. Eisenhower. Marshall Konev is deputy minister of defense and holds other top military jobs.

The committee depicted the Red army as a growing power in Soviet affairs. It said army dissatisfaction with former Premier Malenkov's policy of backing production for consumers vs. heavy industry led to Malenkov's ouster and his replacement by Khrushchev.

Zhukov and Konev in turn were described by the committee as potential rivals in the continuing Kremlin power struggle.

Morros cited Zhukov's rise to top defense and party posts as evidence that Russia is rapidly becoming a military dictatorship.

Morros, the composer and movie director recently revealed as a veteran U.S. counterspy, also was quoted as testifying that individual Soviet-spy organizations formerly operated by a variety of Red government agencies have now been consolidated into one super-agency under the Red army directly responsible to Zhukov.

15 Complete 'Y' Leaders' Course

Fifteen YMCA leaders were handed certificates for completion of an Adult Leaders Course Friday night.

The certificate marked completion of 10 hours of study. Bobo Hardy, Y director, and Everett Taylor, Hardy's assistant, were instructors in the school.

Receiving the certificates were Mrs. Steve Baker, Mrs. J. D. Caudle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hodges, Mrs. Paul Holden, Mrs. James L. Johnson, Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. Jimmy Jones, Mrs. T. M. Lawson, Mrs. Toots Mansfield, Mrs. Arnold Marshall, Mrs. Bill Neal, Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., Mrs. G. H. Wood, and Joan Young.

A total of 38 registered for the course, but only 15 finished. Group discussion leaders for the course were Mrs. Lee Rogers, George Oldham and Mrs. Clyde Thomas.

To Observe Holiday

Bobo Hardy, director of the YMCA, announced that the Y building would be closed Monday for Labor Day. The other week's schedule will not be altered, however.

Labor Day Review Finds U.S. Unions Strong, Prosperous

By TOM HENSHAW
The Associated Press

Traditionally, Labor Day is a time when America's 17 million labor union members pause to take a measure of the state of their unions.

Labor Day 1957 finds some of them knee-deep in scandal after years of corruption, membership neglect and exploitation by their own union officials.

But most find their unions in excellent health, treasuries bulging like those of big business and their negotiators wielding the club of prosperity at the bargaining table.

Labor Day also is a time for the unions to assess their plans for the future: What are their aims for the next round of bargaining? What are their plans for organizing the unorganized?

Here is an accounting, gathered by The Associated Press, of the state of several major American unions and their plans for the future:

Detroit—The 1½ million member United Auto Workers (AFL-CIO) insists that it has no problem of labor racketeering. Says its president Walter Reuther: "The UAW is not perfect, but I can say without fear of challenge that we are clean and we are democratic."

Nevertheless, the UAW has set up a public review board, composed of prominent private citizens, to act as a watchdog over the union's affairs.

The long-term goal of the UAW is improvement of jobless pay benefits to provide a guaranteed annual wage but if going after hard cash at the 1958 bargaining table.

The plan is to give top negotiating priority to a shorter work week and higher take-home pay. The union does not want another three-year contract such as it has now but may settle for a two-year pact.

UAW organizers, out to sign up more engineers and skilled and white collar workers, are meeting some competition from a small rebel union of skilled tradesmen trying to lure away skilled workers in the Midwest.

The UAW prides itself on publishing complete financial reports. The latest places its net worth at nearly 35 million dollars.

Washington—The United Mine Workers (independent) claims about 480,000 working members, an additional 120,000 unemployed or pensioned members, a treasury of about 30 million dollars and a welfare fund of more than 125 million.

As far as is known, it has no racketeering problem.

President John L. Lewis is likely to seek a boost in both wages and welfare royalties this fall. They're now pegged respectively at $22.25 a day and 40 cents per ton of coal.

Pittsburgh—The Senate Rackets Committee has indicated it may investigate the Feb. 12 United Steelworkers election in which the losing candidate for president, Donald C. Rarick, charged irregularities.

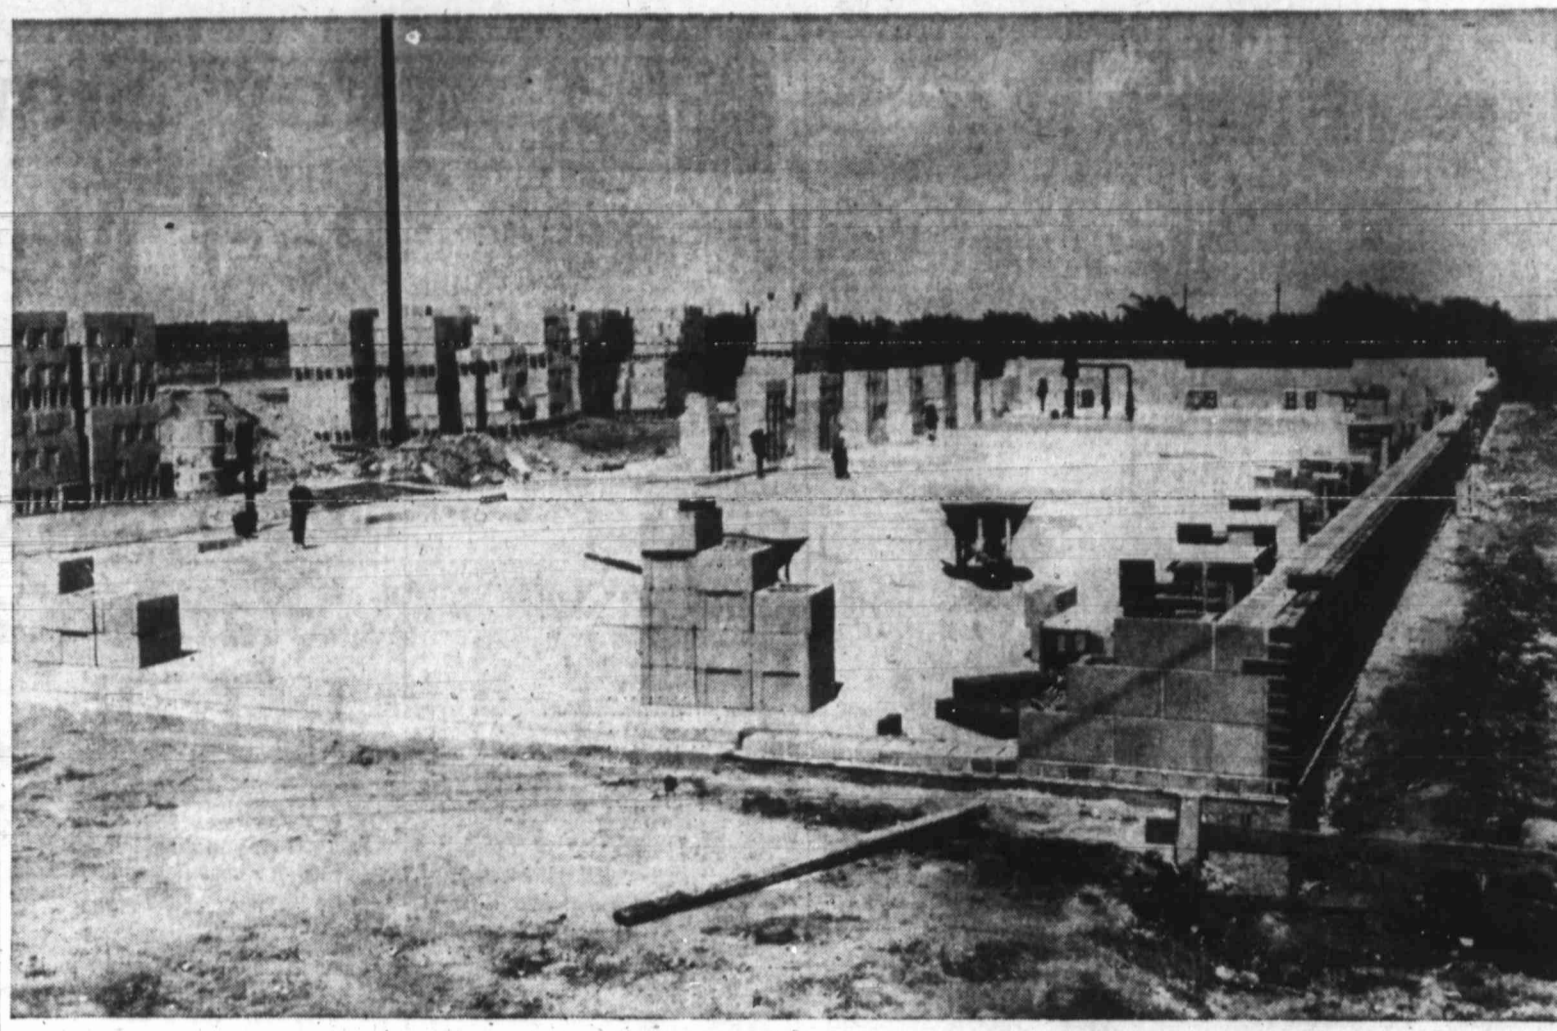

Rarick, a McKeesport, Pa., steelworker fighting a dues increase from $3 to $5 was beaten by President David J. McDonald, 404,172 to 223,516. Rarick's showing was considered surprisingly good.

Contract negotiations currently are under way between the 1,200,000-member USW and 1,200 steel fabricating firms which employ somewhat less than half the membership.

The USW hopes to match the three-year contracts it won last August in the basic steel industry. Contract gains are estimated at 45 cents an hour in wages and fringe benefits.

The USW's Dec. 31, 1956, report said the union's net worth is $22,364,856, up 1½ million over the previous six months.

San Francisco—The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (Independent) has between 65,000 and 70,000 strag-

U.S. Experiment Station's New 'Home' Taking Form

Workers are making rapid progress on the new combination office and laboratory building at the U.S. Experiment Station north of town. The building, of concrete block and brick, will replace the old frame structure which has housed the station's administrative activities for many years. Two other buildings, to be constructed of steel, are also to be built at the station. Part of this building was brought about by a disastrous fire which followed when a structure at the station was struck by lightning nearly two years ago.

Mussolini In Family Crypt

PREDAPPIO, Italy, Aug. 31 (AP)—Benito Mussolini was buried in his family crypt today to the stiff salutes of a few Fascist black-shirts. Il Duce's widow stood by weeping.

Thus the bull-necked blacksmith's son who shucked off the poverty of this tiny mountain village birthplace to rule Italy like a Caesar was laid to rest 11 years after his violent death.

Fearing that even the mutilated body of Mussolini might serve as a rallying point for diehard Fascists, the government kept it hidden in a zinc-lined crate behind the altar of a rural Capuchin monastery at Cerro Maggiore, 15 miles northwest of Milan.

This game of hide-and-seek with the Fascists ended yesterday when the body was brought to this village 40 miles from Florence in a light-colored, plain wooden casket. Mussolini's brain was in a separate jar.

About 500 persons came to hear the three masses said for Mussolini. Several hundred wore the black shirts dating from the days when Mussolini marched on Rome in 1922.

The 70-year-old widow, Donna Rachele, forsaken by Mussolini in his last years for his mistress, Clara Petacci, had spent years pleading with the government to return the dictator's body.

She stood by the casket, supported by her son, Romano, a jazz pianist. Then she hurried out through a side door.

This village where Mussolini was born took the funeral calmly. When the first funeral mass began there were more people shopping in the town market than were in the cemetery.

Constant Patrol Of Highways Ordered

Operation Motorcade—an activity which involves every Highway Patrol officer in the state and scores of peace officers in all towns and counties—was officially launched at midnight Friday and terminates at midnight Monday.

It is the Texas Department of Public Safety's challenge to lessen traffic deaths and mishaps on state highway over the long Labor Day holiday weekend.

Here in Howard County, all three of the Highway Patrol officers have been ordered on full time duty. All days off and all vacations have been summarily canceled.

Two of the three cars in the county were patrolling the roads on Friday and Saturday nights and the patrol continues in that force until Monday midnight.

The patrol pointed out that Howard County had no fatalities in 1956 and 1957 on the Labor Day holiday—regarded by the National Safety Council as the second most deadly interval of the year. Christmas leads the list.

They asked that every motorist exercise special care in operating his automobile in order that this holiday may also be kept bloodless. It has been predicted 33 will die in traffic accidents in Texas during the holiday.

Traffic, the patrol said, was materially heavier on the roads and highways on Friday night and was steadily climbing Saturday night.

M. L. Clifford Wins Eagles' Talent Show

M. L. Clifford of Big Spring, guitarist and vocalist, won first place in the Fraternal Order of Eagles' annual talent contest in City Auditorium Friday night.

Second place went to a vocal trio made up of Bill, Bob and Bessie Smith, also of Big Spring. Margie Newman, Big Spring, won third place.

Clifford's prize was a $40 deep fryer, while the Smith trio won an electric iron and Miss Newman received a watch.

Youth Is Arrested After Bike Stolen

An 11-year-old boy was picked up and turned over to the constable Saturday after a bicycle was stolen downtown.

Mike Copeland reported his bike stolen from in front of the Ritz Theatre Saturday morning. Later police arrested a boy in connection with the incident.

DR. HORBALY IN CHARGE

Dr. Harrison Leaves For School On Administration

Dr. Preston Harrison, acting superintendent of the Big Spring State Hospital, left Saturday for Topeka, Kan., where he will attend the Menninger Foundation School for Mental Hospital Administration.

The course he will take will require nine months. Dr. Harrison is due to return here next June 2 and become regular superintendent of the hospital.

Dr. William V. Horbaly is to be in charge of the hospital during Dr. Harrison's absence. He has been staff physician since July 1, 1946, when he came here following retirement from the Army.

Classes Dr. Harrison will attend at the Menninger Foundation School will start next Tuesday morning.

Dr. Harrison has been acting superintendent here since the resignation of Dr. Roy Sloan last spring. He served as clinical director for the hospital from 1953 until Dr. Sloan's resignation. His selection to attend the Menninger School was announced July 31 by Dr. Rowley Chambers, director of psychiatry for the Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools.

Shooting Victim Out Of Hospital

Sheriff's officers said Saturday that they knew nothing more now than they did Tuesday night about the mysterious shooting of Travis Anderson, 17-year-old Big Spring youth.

The victim, who has been released from Big Spring Hospital and his three companions have been unable to provide officers with any further clues in identifying the two youths alleged to have shot Anderson in the shoulder.

The sheriff's office has the slug which was removed from the wound in Anderson's shoulder. It is a .25 calibre bullet and in good condition. If the gun from which it is fired is ever located, ballistics may be some help in proving its ownership, they feel.

Anderson and his companions were riding around town on Tuesday night. They said they parked at the bowling alley where they became engaged in an argument with two other boys in a second car and scuffled with the pair. Two shots were fired, the car started and sped away with Anderson a passenger. His companions gave chase. At Fifth and Gregg, they said, the car halted and Anderson was unceremoniously told to get out.

He was taken to the hospital.

Search For Mental Patient Under Way

A search is under way in West Texas for a 25-year-old mental patient missing since last Sunday.

Mrs. Jeannette Carroll, 25, disappeared from her home in Midland last Sunday while on a 30-day leave from the Big Spring State Hospital. Husband of the woman resides at 203 N. I. in Midland.

Carroll said that his wife was last seen in Odessa about 11 p.m. Sunday. He described her as being five feet five inches tall and weighing about 150. She has long brown hair and dark blue eyes.

Anyone having information concerning Mrs. Carroll's whereabouts is asked to call her husband in Midland at MU 2-8357 or notify the police department at Midland.

Changing Filibuster Rule Next Target

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Civil rights advocates today set their sights on a change in the Senate's filibuster rule as their next major objective. But they conceded they may have to wait until January 1959 to get it.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.), who headed five Democratic senators pledging maximum efforts to alter the present rule, said he doubts they will have much success in 1958.

"Frankly," he said, "I think the passage of the civil rights bill in the session that just ended is going to make it more difficult to change the rules. But Sen. Thurmond (D-SC) certainly helped our cause by talking 24 hours just as a delaying action."

Douglas said he expects that when the 86th Congress convenes in January 1959 Vice President Nixon will hold that the Senate can adopt new rules by a majority vote.

Nixon already has expressed the informal opinion this can be accomplished at the start of each new Congress.

(The 1958 session will merely be a continuation of the present 85th Congress.)

Nixon also has said he regards Rule 22 as unconstitutional because it purports to bind the Senate—in future Congresses as well as in the present—to the requirement for 64 affirmative votes to end debate. That is two-thirds of the entire membership.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), captain of the Southern opponents to the civil rights bill that Congress has sent to President Eisenhower's desk, said he would expect such a ruling from Nixon and will be prepared to fight it.

As Rule 22 now stands, it provides for unlimited debate on any proposal to change the rules. Thus any alteration would face a Southern filibuster that would have the silent support of some members outside the South who do not want debate limited by a majority vote.

'Who's 'Away' In This Foursome?

It appears all the linksters in the above picture are on the verge of putting at the same time. All are entries in the 26th annual Big Spring Invitational Golf Tournament, which is now under way

Rains And Mooring Remain In Contention In Meet

Half of the quarter-finalists in the 26th annual Big Spring Invitational Golf Tournament is native talent and two of those are links unknowns who do most of their playing at the municipally-owned course here.

Taking their places in the third round of play, which will be unrolled this morning, are Bernard Rains, better known here perhaps as a grade school athletic coach, and Ben Mooring.

Rains slipped past R. S. McCullah, Big Spring, in his first match, 4 and 3, and then surprised Tommy Hutto in the afternoon, 1 up.

Mooring handed the veteran Barney Barnard of Odessa a package in the morning round, 2 up; then fashioned a victory over Big Spring's Jerry Scott by the identical score.

Luke Thompson and Bobby Wright are the other Big Springers still in contention.

Thompson, the defending champion, had to go all out to bounce Bobby Blumh, a fellow townsman, in his afternoon match, 1 up in 20 holes, after vanquishing Sheldon Bryant, also of Big Spring, in the morning, 5 and 4.

Wright manhandled Bill White, Lamesa, in his first assignment, 4 and 3, and then huddled Bob Hankins, another Lamesan, 2 and 1.

Two former champions, Bill Craig of Colorado City and Odessa's Bill (Red) Roden, are still in contention, as are respected Binky Mitchell of Fort Worth and Jerry Mobley, Odessa.

This morning's pairings: Thompson vs Rains, Craig vs Mooring, Mitchell vs Roden, Mobley vs Wright.

Semi-final rounds will be played this afternoon and 36-hole finals Monday.

Thompson appears the class of the field in the upper bracket but Mitchell, Roden and Wright are all rugged campaigners in the lower bracket.

Craig ousted Vernon Runnes-trand, Midland, 5 and 4, Saturday afternoon after ending Buster Tuttle's hopes in the morning, 2 and 1.

Thompson was two down through seven in his match with Blumh but rallied to square the match at nine and it was tit-for-tat thereafter.

In morning play, the lone upset occurred when Tommy Hutto of Big Spring fanned out Lamesa's Ben Alexander, a rugged campaigner on the summer links circuit.

Alexander didn't give up without a tussle, however. He carried the muscular Hutto to the 21st hole.

Thompson and Blumh won their morning matches by identical scores, 5 and 4. Luke kayeed Weldon Bryant, Big Spring, while John Pipes was Blumh's victim.

In a battle of titans, Mitchell sidelined Jack Cameron of Dallas by a 4 and 3 margin.

Mitchella, a personable lad who has become a fixture in the local tournament, surprised tournament officials when he showed up. He wasn't expected.

Mitchella and Thompson shared medalist honors, each with a 33-and-a-half round score. Mitchell, however, had a 4 and 3 margin.

Lloyd French's visiting team easily prevailed in the Hall and Bennett Trophy matches, 8-2. The local team was captained by Dick Johnson.

The entry list totaled 156, one of the biggest in West Texas this year but 36 under last year's figure.

Championship play (Player vs. Player) will be held Tuesday night.

Round Table Making Bid

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP)—Round Table, ridden by Willie Shoemaker, hunched a strong claim for national 3-year-old honors today with a four-length victory over out-classed Kentucky Derby winner Iron Liege in the $145,900 American Derby on the grass at Washington Park.

Round Table won his seventh straight victory and his sixth stakes triumph in as many tries. He took charge of the mile and 3-16 race halfway down the back stretch and was in complete command the rest of the way.

B. Crowley Leads $22,000 Insurance City Tournament

By LOU BLACK WETHERSFIELD, Conn., Aug. 31 (AP)—Blond Bob Crowley, a former New England college champion, today gained the early lead at the halfway mark in the 72-hole $22,000 Insurance City Golf Tournament. His 133 was 9 under par.

The 30-year-old pro at the Pine Brook Club in Weston, Mass., shot a 67 today, taking one more stroke than he registered yesterday over an exacting 18-hole Country Club's 5,285-yard course.

Right behind Crowley were Gardner Dickinson of Panama City, Fla., and Ed Whalley Jr., of Salem, Mass., who had shared the opening-day lead with Crowley, and Bob Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa., each with 134.

Two strokes off the pace were Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., last year's winner, and Bill Nary of Tucson, Ariz.

Two 65s, lowest rounds so far, were posted by Tom Nieporte of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Mike Fitchick of Yonkers, N. Y. They each have 137.

Ed Furgol, former National Open champion, dropped out after today's round with a 143 when the elbow on his right arm became troublesome.

Palmer shot 66 today for a 135, the same half way total he scored last year. In 1956, 135 put him into a tie with Porky Oliver for the lead.

The regular season was to have ended Tuesday. Instead it will end with Labor Day games Monday. The league has been beset by poor attendance and financial difficulties all season. Only four teams — Hobbs and Carlsbad, N.M., and Lamesa and Ballinger, Tex. — are now in the loop.

GIFFORD GETS CLINCHER Giants Kayo Bears In Dallas, 24-17

DALLAS, Aug. 30 (SC)—New York had too many hopes and the Chicago Bears not enough Hills in a battle of pro football gladiators here Friday night.

The defending champions in the NFL, with 30,000 looking on in the Cotton Bowl, toppled Paddy Driscol's Bruins, 24-17. The Giants, ably coached by Jim Lee Howell, defeated the same Bears in last year's world championship tilt by the overwhelming score of 47-7.

Harlon Hill, Chicago's sensational end, led taking a crazy hop, the ball falling to earth well inside the boundary marker.

Kyle Rote, one-time SMU star, did little to distinguish himself, outside of discuss penalty options with the officials. He bobbed one pass he should have had.

Alex Webster was wheelhorse for the Giants and Mel Triplett showed flashes of greatness.

The Giants back may have troubles at quarterback, unless they find someone to spell Chuck Corney occasionally. Heinrich was guilty of a number of mistakes and Bobby Clatterback, the champs' third quarterback, may be too slow.

The Giants booted a seasoned, battle-wise line—one that could lead them to the championship again.

Rick Casares, the Bears' celebrated bone-crusher, was all but stopped cold by the hard-charging Giant primary. However, rookie Willie Galtimore of Florida A&M, apparently going all out in an effort to nail down a job, was little short of sensational as a ball carrier.

The Bears were penalized down to the seven for intentionally grounding the ball shortly after Brown had moved the pidge out

Panthers Play Here Monday

Today's baseball game between Abilene and the Big Spring Panthers, which was to have been played in Steer Park, has been called off.

Elias Gamboa's club will next see action against Midland in a Labor Day attraction at 3 p. m. here Monday in Steer Park.

In that game, Gamboa will dispatch the cagy Tito Arenzibia to the mound. Arenzibia, a former pro, has been playing the outfield this summer with the Tigers.

He has worked out as a pitcher, however, and has pronounced himself fit.

At one time, Arenzibia led the old Longhorn League in earned-run averages.

Charley Fiero will be available for relief mound work, if needed. Gamboa will have his regular lineup tomorrow, with the exception of a new leftfielder. He is Julian Nunoz, who has been playing with the Big Spring Hawks.

Triandos Clouts Home Run To Spur Orioles Past Sox

BALTIMORE, Aug. 31 (AP)—Gus Triandos' crazy bouncing grounder in the eighth inning went for an inside-the-park home run, breaking a scoreless deadlock, and starting the Orioles toward a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox tonight.

The Orioles added the deciding three in the eighth before the Red Sox could score on Harold "Skinny" Brown in the last inning. Boston got five hits off Brown.

The Red Sox defense and the pitching of Willard Nixon fell to pieces in the eighth.

The Red Sox scored their run without a hit off Brown who claimed his sixth victory against seven setbacks. Billy Klaus walked, took second on a passed

Milwaukee Slams Redlegs, 14-4

CINCINNATI, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves blasted Cincinnati pitchers with five home runs tonight for a 14-victory over the Redlegs. Twelve of the Braves 14 runs were driven across the plate on the homers.

It was Milwaukee's 16th victory in 18 contests with Cincinnati this year and kept the Braves seven games in front in the National League.

Williams got one hit in three official trips to the plate. Mantle, appearing as a pinchhitter, singled against Washington to New York to boost his average to .378 to top Williams' .375.

Williams got one hit in three official trips to the plate. Mantle, appearing as a pinchhitter, singled against Washington to New York to boost his average to .378 to top Williams' .375.

Tigers Win In Ten

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31 (AP)—A sacrifice fly by Harvey Kuenn scored the winning run in the 10th inning tonight as the Detroit Tigers defeated the Cleveland Indians 8-7. Al Kaline and Charley Maxwell hit home runs for Detroit and Gene Woodling homered for the Tribe.

Milwaukee Signs Oklahoma Junior

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves announced today that they have signed a 19-year-old Oklahoma University junior to a 1958 farm club contract with Lawton in the Class D Sooner State League.

Keith Lewallen of Torrington, Wyo., a 5-10, 178-pound right-handed outfielder, will report to the National League club's minor league camp at Waycross, Ga., next spring.

Lufkin New Pony League Champion

WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 31 (AP)—Lufkin, Tex., is the new Pony League World Series champion.

The Texans won the title last night by defeating Maywood, Ill., 5-2 for their fourth consecutive series victory without a defeat. Maywood finished with a 3-2 mark.

IN WALKER CUP TESTS

Patton Leads U.S. Team To Victory

By HUGH FULLERTON JR. MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 31 (AP)—Billy Joe Patton accomplished the impossible again today, coming from five down at noon to beat Reid Jack one up, and lead the United States amateur golfers to their 15th victory over Great Britain in the 18th international match for the Walker Cup.

As Billy Joe started to move, the whole American group turned killers. By the time Patton reached the 36th green, the one point he gained by beating the current British amateur champion was all the United States needed to keep the international trophy.

Then the amazing Billy Joe, still missing the fairways with his wild tee shots but recovering to make birdies and pars, took just nine holes to regain all he had lost in the morning.

He went out in 32, three under standard figures for the 6,550-yard par 35-36-71 Minnikahda Course, and squared the match on the 27th green.

The final score was United States 8, Britain 3. It was the best showing the Britons have made since 1951, when the United States won, 6-3.

Before Patton wound up the day's star performance, former U. S. Walker Cup Captain Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., and Rex Baxter, Jr., of Amarillo, Tex., youngest American player, had pulled away with fine afternoon performances to win their matches, and lanky Bill Hyndman of Philadelphia, ahead all the way, had won easily.

Campbell, even with Ireland's Joe Carr in the morning, won four straight holes on the back nine this afternoon and closed out his opponent 3 and 2. Baxter, also square after 18 holes in his match with Alan Thirlwell, fired a 31 on the front nine in the afternoon and won 4 and 3.

Hyndman, one of the oldest of the American players, just greeted to a 7 and 6 victory over Dr. Frank Deighton of Scotland.

Britain gained its first singles point when Alan Bussell, 20, turned back tow-headed Joe Campbell of Knoxville 2 and 1.

Patton's two setbacks both were technical knockouts, both in 1955. Since his last defeat, Folley has won 14 straight, including eight by knockouts. Among his last 14 victims were Nino Voloes, the king-size Cuban once ranked the No. 1 contender, and Wayne Bretton of New York City, who dropped two close, but unanimous decisions to Folley.

Folley's backers advance several arguments in his behalf. He has a 35-2-1 record (although that has been compiled mainly against second-rate opposition in Arizona and California) and 22 knockouts. Folley had an amateur record of 71-2, including a split in two fights with Olympic champion Pete Rademacher about five years ago.

He is a dedicated, clean-living professional, who doesn't smoke or drink, does roadwork religiously and is as tough as an Arizona cactus.

And most important, he has a disconcerting, rapier-like left jab and his right moves with speed and precision, if not devastating power.

And this sports-minded state of one million population, which boasts of climate, copper, cattle, cotton and cowboys, would like nothing better than to add the world champion, to its other assets.

Folley's backers advance several arguments in his behalf. He has a 35-2-1 record (although

BE ALERT! YOUR CHILDREN ARE GOING...

DRIVE CAREFULLY!

School Time Is Safe Driving Time — The Child You Save May Be Your Own!

STOP and WAIT when school buses are taking on or discharging passengers.

More and more children are on the streets again — some of them going to school for the first time. Children will be crossing the streets, walking along country roads, waiting for school buses. Children are sometimes unpredictable, and it is up to drivers to stay alert and in full command of their vehicles in case an emergency arises. PLEASE drive extra carefully. Watch for children at crossings and on the streets. Give the right of way to school buses. Be alert. The children may not see you—be sure you see them!

KEEP ALERT for children walking to school in the city or on country roads.

FOLLOW THESE RULES FOR SAFE DRIVING

- Be doubly careful near schools or where children play. Children don't realize the danger and may take chances. That's why you, the driver, must take extra care.
- Slow down. Speed is dangerous at any time —Doubly dangerous when visibility is cut by rain, fog or darkness.
- Keep lights and windshield wipers in good condition during rainy or snowy weather. You have to see danger to avoid it.
- Keep your car in top mechanical condition. Use chains when roads are slippery.
- Obey traffic laws. Know the traffic laws wherever you travel and don't break them.
- If you drive, don't drink—if you drink, don't drive. Remember, death takes no holiday.
- Be a courteous driver. Yield right-of-way, even when it should be yours. It's better to stay alive than to be dead right.

HCJC Freshman Orientation Slated

Pre-school activities get under way at Howard County Junior College this week.

First on the program are the general faculty conferences which start at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Student Union Building. These will continue throughout the day and will be resumed on Friday, following orientation of freshmen on Wednesday and Thursday.

All new freshmen should plan to attend the orientation sessions which begin at 9 a.m. Wednesday, said Dean Ben Johnson. Orientation will be conducted in the college auditorium.

The Wednesday morning meeting will be followed by a session starting at 1 p.m. Wednesday and the final gathering at 8:30 a.m. Thursday.

On Thursday afternoon, special mathematics tests will be given to all freshmen planning to major in some field of engineering. Also required to take the tests are other students who will enroll in algebra.

Student registration for the fall semester starts on Monday, Sept. 9, and will continue through Sept. 10. Hours for registration are from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. each day.

Classes will start on regular schedule the morning of Sept. 11. Three new teachers will begin their work at HCJC this fall. They are Ira Schantz, who succeeds Orland Johnson in the music department as choir director, voice and theory instructor; Gene Powell, instructor in biology and education, replacing Bill Holbert; and John J. Gentill, history teacher who replaces Ray Broussard.

Ackerly School Calendar Fixed

ACKERLY, Aug. 31 (SC)—The complete calendar for the school year has been announced by Johnny Clark, superintendent of Ackerly schools.

Schools will open Monday with an assembly at 9 a.m. The first six-week term ends Oct. 11, the second term on Nov. 22, and the first semester will be completed Jan. 17, 1958.

First holiday will be Thanksgiving, Nov. 28-Dec. 1. Christmas will be observed from Dec. 21 to Jan. 1. The first six-week term of the second semester will be concluded Feb. 28, 1958, the second period on April 11, and the spring semester will be completed May 23, 1958.

Two spring holidays have been scheduled. Schools will be closed March 7, 1958, while teachers attend a district teacher conference. Easter will be observed from April 4-7.

Baccalaureate exercise are scheduled for May 18, 1958, elementary school graduation will be held May 22, and high school graduation ceremonies are slated for May 23.

Airmen Convicted Of Lewd Behavior, Rape Charges Out

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—A U.S. Air Force court-martial convicted four airmen of lewd and indecent behavior today but dropped rape charges made by a German secretary.

Sentenced to 12 months in jail and bad conduct discharges were David Hearle of Newark, N. J.; Donald Harrington of Farmington, Mo.; and Lee Burns, all 20, of Bedford, Tex.

Richard Kemple, 19, of St. George, Utah, was sentenced to six months and a bad conduct discharge.

All were accused of raping the woman, 34, during a nude swimming party June 30. Hearle, Harrington and Burns were also accused of sodomy. They were convicted on this charge.

The court-martial dropped the rape charges after one of the secretary's German companions told the court she deliberately tried to get the airmen "excited" by swimming over to their beach naked.

Pete Anderson and Jeff Jenkins, left to right, work in a garden at the Northside fire station but they aren't preparing any soil conservation project; they are growing vegetables. The garden has furnished vegetables for the firemen most of the summer and they also have a patch for fall. Work is done in the garden after maintaining the station and answering fires.

Garden Work Pays Off For City Firemen

Work is hot for firemen at the Northside sub station.

But not always from fires. This summer all firemen at the Northside sub station have been getting hot working outside in their vegetable garden. It has paid off, however, in an abundance of vegetables for themselves as well as the firemen at the main station.

Three men work on each 24-hour shift, and since the garden was started early in the spring, all of them have worked in it while not answering fire calls or keeping the station and equipment maintained.

Working at the station are R. T. Hale, J. J. Willingham, Donald Barber, Jeff Jenkins, T. J. Castle, and Pete Anderson.

The garden has been planned for a long time. Jenkins, lieutenant on one of the shifts, said they were promised a chance to grow a garden before the sub station was opened last fall.

So when spring came, the men began work on their garden which measures 120 by 22 feet. It stretches completely across the back of the lot. In addition, firemen planted squash vines between shrubs along the side of the lot.

Among the vegetables grown in the garden are onions, tomatoes, several types of peas, beans, cantaloupe, okra, Japanese muskmelons, and radishes, in addition to sweet and hot peppers. For fall, the firemen have planted an additional patch of peas and beans and some turnips.

Asked how a Japanese muskmelon tasted, Anderson said he didn't know, none of them had ripened yet.

Land Office Mails Historical Map

AUSTIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—The State Land Office began mailing today 20,000 prints of a new Texas state map showing the old cattle trails, state and national parks, historical points and elevations of the bigger Texas cities.

Land Commissioner Earl Rudder said the office would mail a copy of the map to anyone desiring one. He said they are being sent now to teachers, governmental officials and historical organizations.

The colored map also shows Texas' tidelands line, the official three Marine league line and the state's mountain ranges. It has no highway markings.

Barbecued Buffalo Sold In Oklahoma

AUSTIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—Have a hankering for barbecued buffalo? The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service says 225 surplus buffalo could be bought at the Wichita Mountain Refuge at Cache, Okla. for about $150 each.

No Soil Conservation Project

Pete Anderson and Jeff Jenkins, left to right, work in a garden at the Northside fire station but they aren't preparing any soil conservation project; they are growing vegetables. The garden has furnished vegetables for the firemen most of the summer and they also have a patch for fall. Work is done in the garden after maintaining the station and answering fires.

Graham's Crusade Hits Climax Tonight

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—A great human spectacle, deeply moving and tinged with ecstasy, is approaching its climax in New York today.

On Sunday night, evangelist Billy Graham will ascend a rostrum under the glowing sky on Broadway, just off Times Square.

This is a pleasure place. It is wedge-shaped, garish, noisy. At night, it blazes with the million-candlepower lights of all the girlie shows and shooting galleries, theaters, night clubs, pinball emporiums, hotels and honky-tonks. Rivers of people flow along the sidewalks, many seeking pleasure, many selling it.

Here, at 7:30 p.m., Graham is closing his New York crusade. He will return in October, he says, but this phase of the massive campaign is ending.

It has exploded into an evangelistic phenomenon. No other personality has ever hit New York with such sustained impact.

He set records for duration and attendance at Madison Square Garden and for a single appearance at Yankee Stadium.

As of Aug. 26, Graham had preached to 1,800,000 in the Garden, over 100,000 in Yankee Stadium, uncounted thousands in Wall Street and Harlem, the United Nations, universities, businessmen's clubs, religious societies, and in the private homes of the wealthy and prominent.

Night after night, through the summer doldrums, he filled or nearly filled the Garden. New York's mulattioned face was reflected everywhere. . . . Negroes, Jews, many Chinese and Japanese, an Indian woman in a sari with a child in her arms, Indonesians, Puerto Ricans.

Over 50,000 people walked down the galleries of the Garden after the service to declare a "decision for Christ."

As a result of television, another 30,000-plus letters came in, reporting "decisions."

To the Garden came actors and actresses, gangsters, baseball players and prizefighters, the socially prominent taking 16-seat loges for their parties, a New Jersey high school student who had a few hours earlier, been accused

Mrs. Rhodes Is Gray Ladies Chairman

Mrs. Robert N. Rhodes has been named as new unit chairman of the Webb Air Force Base Hospital Red Cross Gray Ladies Corps, it was announced by W. C. Blankenship, Red Cross Chapter chairman.

She will replace Mrs. Richard A. Bigelow who has been serving as president of the unit.

Mrs. Bigelow is leaving Big Spring to enroll in the Ohio Wesleyan College at Delaware, Ohio.

Mrs. Rhodes is to assume her new duties at once, Blankenship announced.

of murdering a girl. From all corners of the country, letters averaged 8,000 a day. During a peak week, 75,000 came in. What explains it?

"God," Graham says. "God is moving mightily."

The crusade has been a grueling physical trial for Graham. His weight dropped from 184 to 168, and he says he is near exhaustion. He comes into his office beneath the auditorium in the Garden after the service, strips off his coat, shirt and undershirt. They are drenched with sweat.

Once the crusade began, it swelled to staggering dimensions—5,000 trained counselors to "follow up" on persons who made the "decision for Christ," 2,000 ushers at the Garden, 4,000 voices in the choir, hordes of secretaries and officers to connect the crusade with the Protestant churches, channelling people to them.

The budget tripled from the original estimate. It is now expected to reach 2½ million dollars. "I think we will finish in the black," a leader of the organization said.

All the money came from contributions, he said.

Graham's salary, $15,000 a year, is not taken out of the offerings.

STATISTICS ON N.Y. CRUSADE

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—The following figures and estimates, supplied by the Billy Graham organization in New York, cover the crusade from the opening May 15 through Aug. 27:

MEN IN SERVICE

Capt. Curtis D. Fish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Fish, 1204 Wood, Big Spring, is scheduled to graduate Monday from the Army's Arctic Indoctrination School at Ft. Greely, Alaska.

The school familiarizes military personnel with summer conditions in the Arctic and stresses training in mountain climbing and inland waterway small boat operation.

Capt. Fish entered the Army in 1951 and is assigned to the Provost Marshal Section of the U. S. Army's Alaska Headquarters. The captain is a 1950 graduate of Oklahoma A&M University. His wife, Barbara, is with him in Alaska.

Sgt. I.C. Arnold A. Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Fields, 506 Young, Big Spring, recently was graduated from the integrated accounting course at the Army's Finance School, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind. St. Fields received specialized training in organization, records procedures, operations and reporting practices required by the Army Command Management System. Regularly assigned as an accounting clerk with the U. S. Army Garrison at Ft. Polk, La., Fields is a veteran of 12 years of Army service. He has served in the Far East and the European theatre.

STUNNING IS THE WORD which describes both Mrs. Kyle Riddle and the beautiful pink crepe evening dress which she models. Fashioned with a pencil-slim skirt the dress is accented all over with white iridescent sequins. To complement her evening gown, Mrs. Riddle wears a single strand pearl choker and drop pearl earrings. The elegant gown is designed by Frank Starr. Mrs. Riddle is the wife of Col. Kyle Riddle, commander of Webb Air Force Base.

MIX AND MATCH SPORT separates are always high on the list of best dressed women everywhere. For her choice Mrs. Dennis Turner of Coahoma models a pencil slim skirt of camel colored Forstmann wool. To complement the skirt she wears a knitted sweater of camel, white and grey. The double ribbed collar ties demurely at the throat. The shortie gloves are of camel colored cashmere. To assure smartness, Mrs. Turner adds plenty of heavy costume jewelry of both gold and silver. The leather and rope bag she carries is an Italian import.

Smart Modes For Fall From Big Spring Stores

SUE BARNES HAS ALREADY LEARNED that a touch of fur, no matter how small or how large, sets the fashion pace this fall. The lovely cherry red suit she is wearing is topped with a dyed mink collar. The attractive suit is of a fur and wool blend and is ever so soft to the touch. The loose fitted jacket is complemented with tiny pockets and push-up sleeves. To complete her costume, Miss Barnes wears a black velvet bowler hat, black velvet gloves trimmed with rhinestones and a black fabric bag. Way out front in the fashion world, too, are the black suede shoes with a very pointed toe and high instep.

AN ALL BLACK ENSEMBLE is always a striking note and especially on attractive Mrs. W. B. Langley. Although red is supposedly taking the place of the little black dress this fall, Mrs. Langley proves that she will still be the eye-catcher in this black crepe dress accented with black taffeta trim. The large taffeta bow falls to a drape v-yoke line in the back. With her ensemble Mrs. Langley wears a breath-taking black beaver hat called a fisherman. She has chosen a black velvet bag and black gloves touched with just a glitter of rhinestones.

FOR FALL WEAR

Easy Fitting Jacket Doubles For Blouse

With a Monte Sano suit on the sewing machine, your fall season is off to a smart start. This one with its easy relaxed jacket just skipping the hipbone has the look of a shirtwaist top. A buttoned belt passes through the back panel and seems to hold in the tiny stitched box pleats on the front sides. Note the new way the shoulder seams are set off; the line and the manner in which the neckline falls softly away. Wonderful for corduroy or velveteen; important in worsted and thin tweeds; dressy in heavy suiting silks, it will be the pivot of your fall wardrobe. From this chart select the one size best for you.

At the Colonial Hill Baptist Church of Snyder Friday evening at 8 o'clock Marie Ernst of Vincent became the bride of Borden Duane Reeder of Gail. Wesley Fillman, minister of the Fluvanna Church of Christ, officiated for the double ring ceremony. The bridal party stood before a background of candelabra bearing white tapers and flanked by baskets of white gladioli. The aisle was marked with candelabra with white tapers on the pews. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ernst, Vincent, and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Reeder of Gail. Ralph Wesson, organist, accompanied Mrs. L. A. Dodd as she sang "I'll Walk Beside You," "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" and "O, Perfect Love." The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a floor-length gown of white bridal satin and French Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice ended in deep points at front and back. The Sabrina neckline was outlined with scallops of lace. Long sleeves ended in points over her hands and fastened with tiny satin buttons. The bouffant skirt of satin was overlaid with side panels of scalloped lace. The dress was designed and made by the bride's mother. Attached to a headpiece of tiny seed pearls and Chantilly lace was a double fingertip veil of French illusion. The bridal bouquet was of frenched white carnations surrounding a white orchid. The bouquet was carried atop a white Bible given to the bride by her grandmother, Mrs. J. L. McNeil of Vincent. In wedding tradition the bride wore a gold ring which belonged to the late Mrs. Belle Grabner, her great-grandmother; her wedding dress was new; the bridal headpiece was borrowed from Mrs. Bobby Gray, Gail, cousin of the bride; her blue garter was a gift from the maid of honor, and she wore a penny in her shoe which carried the date of her birth and which also had the wedding date engraved on it. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ernst wore a light blue silk lined dress with a blue hat and black accessories. Mrs. Reeder wore a wood rose silk crepe dress with rose hat and black accessories. Sidney Reeder, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Judy Doyle and Mary Lynn Staggs. They were all attired in dresses of sunset rose crystallette. The sheath dresses were accented at the waistline with a cummerbund. Full net skirts covered the sheath. They carried bouquets of white gladioli on a white net fan. Their headpieces were of rose net covered with rhinestones. Candles were lighted by Larry Reeder, brother of the bridegroom, and Pat Dunn. Jerri Beth Hodnett was the flower girl. Her dress was of white Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin. She carried a pink net basket filled with rose petals. Carrying the rings was Hank Johnson. Attending as best man was Lonnie Doyle. Ushers were Ned Culp, Donald Lee Reddell, and Church Lewis. The bride and groom, their parents, the feminine attendants and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McNeil, grandparents of the bride, greeted guests at the reception held in Fellowship Hall of the church. Covering the bride's table was a linen cutwork cloth over pink satin. The feminine attendants' bouquets were used in the center around a bride doll dressed in replica of the bride. Silver candelabra holding pink tapers were used. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal pair. Members of the house party included Xan Dunn, Judy Harding, Mrs. Elmo Dunn, Mrs. Jack Dunn, Mrs. Claude Hodnett, all of Vincent, Mrs. W. G. Thomas, Kay Thomas of Amarillo and Pat Hairston of Austin. For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride wore a rose silk shantung suit with a matching bolero trimmed in rhinestones. Her accessories were black. The couple will make a home in Lubbock where Reeder will attend Texas Tech. Out of town wedding guests attended from Ft. Sumner, N. M., Plains, Seminole, Lubbock, Graham, Abilene, Big Spring, Fluvanna, San Angelo, Miles, Rowena, Houston, Austin, Luling, Ozona, Hico, Colorado City, Amarillo, Cameron, Navasota and Olney. Gandy-Hansel Vows Exchanged LAMESA—Norma Jean Gandy, a former Lamesa resident, exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening with A-1C James Fredrick Hansel of Dyess AFB, Abilene. The couple was married in the Albany First Baptist Church with the Rev. Bob Gandy, brother of the bride, officiating. Parents of the couple are W. H. Gandy, Del Rio, and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hansel, Linden, Mich. The couple will make a home in Abilene. Mrs. Hansel was formerly employed at Price-Black Hospital in Lamesa. ## Laverne Cooper - Max McCulloch Pledge Wedding Vows Saturday

The East Fourth Baptist Church was the setting Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the marriage of Laverne Cooper and Max McCulloch of Coleman.

The wedding party stood before an altar centered with a white wrought iron archway entwined with greenery and tied in the center with white wedding bells. In the center of the arch was also a large sunburst arrangement of white gladioli and asters with similar arrangements on each side of the arch. Six white wrought iron candleholders, containing cathedral candles, and fern trees were used in the background.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cooper, 1600 Wood and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. McCulloch of Coleman.

The Rev. Billy Martin, Brownwood, a former resident of Big Spring, read the double ring ceremony.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Sue White. She wore a gown of mauve lace designed with a low neckline and cap sleeves joined by a band and bow to the empire waistline. The bouffant waltz-length skirt was of mauve cotton satin. She wore a sequined half-hat with a tiny face veil of mauve pink. Her bouquet was of harmonizing flowers.

Mrs. Wayne Medlin of Lubbock and Mrs. Lee Chisholm of Big Spring were the bridesmaids. They were dressed as the honor attendant.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Cooper was dressed in a mauve lace over taffeta. Her accessories were black and her corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. McCulloch wore a navy silk dress with navy accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Flower girl, Melody Jane Craig, was dressed in a floor-length dress of white nylon tulle over taffeta. The dress was accented with net ruffles and pink rosebuds. She carried a white nylon tulle basket filled with rose petals.

WEDDING GOWN

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk bombazine and handclipped Chantilly lace. The gown was fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and lace yoke. The long bodice continued into a redingote effect. The center front parted to disclose a cascading lace panel, and scalloped lace encircled the chapel train. Attached to a half shell cap of tiny seed pearls and Chantilly lace was a fingertip double veil of French illusion.

A white Bible was topped with gardenias and frenched white mums.

For something old the bride wore her mother's wedding band; her dress was borrowed from Mrs. Louis Stipp of Bryan; she wore a blue garter, a gift from Mrs. Stipp and the late Mrs. E. M. Newton; her Bible was new, a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a

Lamesa Rites Read For Couple Saturday

A home ceremony read in Lamesa Saturday at 8 p.m. united in marriage Fern Weaver of Lamesa and A-C Eugene Kowalczyk of Roswell, N. M.

The wedding was held in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ella Weaver of Lamesa. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kowalczyk of Oconto Falls, Wis.

Justice of Peace, Jim Edwards, read the double ring ceremony.

The couple stood before an improvised archway decorated with greenery and white carnations. Two baskets of white gladioli flanked the arch.

For her wedding the bride chose a white street-length dress of antique taffeta. The moulded bodice featured a low V-neckline and short sleeves. She wore a pearl shell hat which held a shoulder-length veil of tulle. Her corsage was of blue carnations.

Mrs. Roy Weaver, Big Spring, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was of blue antique taffeta.

Roy Weaver attended as best man.

At the reception guests were received by the bride couple, the bride's mother and the matron of honor.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over blue. A two-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple, was flanked by blue candles in crystal holders.

Serving was done by Mrs. Noel Deleman, Lamesa, and Gayle Payne of Aspermont. Mrs. Tommy Jackson, Andrews, was at the register.

Out of town wedding guests attended from Andrews, Big Spring, Aspermont, Granbury, Goldsmith, Jayton and Vealmore.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride wore a black and white checked cotton and silk sheath dress. Her accessories were black.

The couple will make a home in Roswell, N. M., where Kowalczyk is stationed at Walker AFB. Mrs. Kowalczyk is a graduate of Lamesa High School and attended nursing school at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Kowalczyk is a graduate of Oconto Falls High School and has served three years in the U. S. Air Force.

A Bible Thought For Today

Men ought always to pray and not to faint. (Luke 18:1)

Record Of The Recent Congress

Appraisals of the work of the session of Congress just closed already are in order. They seem to vary according to political complexion, so that the average voter can either take his own side, or perhaps remain confused over what really was accomplished.

President Eisenhower, for one, has announced his disappointment over the results of the session. The Democratic leadership has called it "one of the greatest congresses this country has ever had."

The session probably will be remembered longer for its final enactment of a civil-rights bill, an issue which brought about most of the parliamentary strategy and finally ended up as a measure principally concerned with voting rights. This is the first time any similar law has come out of the Congress since Reconstruction Days following the Civil War. And there is basis for hope that the bill as finally passed will be of ultimate good. It is reasonable to suppose, however, that amendments for the civil rights bill of 1957 will be going into the hopper in many a subsequent session of the Congress.

The recent term also will be remembered as one which touched off a great outcry about expense in government. The budget caught it from all sides in talk and in print, that is—but in the final analysis, very little can be reported on the side of honest-to-goodness government economy.

The President's program for sufficient foreign aid to enable this country to resist the Communist tide got a good kicking around, too. Compromise was effected here, and the optimists will conclude that this program can be properly handled. These pessimists about the world situation would never be satisfied with a foreign aid appropriation.

A bitter issue during the session was that concerning federal aid to schools. This proposition was defeated by only three votes in the House, and many advocates of the federal aid program blamed President Eisenhower for not turning on the heat to press for votes for a program he recommended. Many of the opposing votes came from the President's own party. Many of the nation's conscientious people still believe, although the plight of many school districts is grave indeed, that there is a better solution than federal aid.

The news dispatches will reveal a multitude of laws passed, and another long list of proposals that did not pass. Citizens at large ought to scan these, and determine for themselves where mistakes of omission and commission were made.

It may be that members of the House and Senate are not as sensitive to the will of the people as they were in the days when life was less complex, but the legislators running for office next year should be in a mood to hear the laudations and the criticisms. After all, 1958 is an election year for all members of the House and many in the Senate. In the final analysis, what the American people think of the last session of Congress will be expressed in the elections.

David Lawrence

Economic Pressures Vs. Party In Power

WASHINGTON.—Economic disaffection is a very hard thing for the party in power to combat in any election, but it's even harder in an off-year and off-season contest of a local nature.

The Wisconsin victory of a Democrat for the United States Senate for the first time since 1932 did not come as a surprise to this correspondent or to anyone else here who had been realistically appraising the trends in national politics in the last few months. Will the election of a Democratic Congress in 1958 and a Democratic President in 1960 come as a surprise. For the Republicans today have a divided party and they don't enjoy the benefit of such unwavering support for the party on election day as the Democrats do when, as in the South, they divide into radical and conservative factions on major issues.

This correspondent wrote on May 16 last that "the chances of electing a Republican Congress in 1958 are each day growing dimmer," and wrote also on May 21:

"There are some observers here who fear that the Republican party has already committed political suicide and that the Republican presidential nomination in 1960 will not be worth anything to any candidate."

"The political 'mess' in the Republican party has been brought on by mistaken tactics of both the 'modern Republicans' and the so-called 'conservatives.'"

Wisconsin's election of a Democrat was really more of an anti-Republican demonstration than a vote of confidence in the senator-elect, William Proxmire. For Wisconsin is a normally Republican state and when the Republicans in the farm areas fail to come out to vote, it must be because of indifference to a Republican administration in Washington.

Politically speaking, these are not "good times" for the incumbent administration. The economic discontent of large groups is substantial. It stems from low farm prices, and yet high costs of the things the farmers must buy. Inflation is squeezing the city dweller, too, as the cost of living keeps going up. Also, "tight money" is slowing down lots of businesses.

The average voter has grown accustomed to placing the blame for his troubles on the party in power. He understands very little about the complexities of the federal budget but knows his taxes are high and reads a lot about governmental spending. Wisconsin isn't one of those states that ever was enthusiastic about funds for "foreign aid" and, indeed, is a part of what has often been called the "isolationist" Midwest.

But to say that a majority of the citizens might not vote for measures of international cooperation if this were a single issue would be wrong. It's the sum total of all the disaffections for a variety of reasons that add up to a protest vote against the party in power.

Then there's the so-called "resentment" vote. Friends and supporters of the late Senator McCarthy were alienated by the Eisenhower administration's direct slaps at the Wisconsin senator when he fought vigorously, even though at times clumsily, against Communism. The fact that in McCarthy's home town more Democratic votes than ever before were cast and that the Republican margin was narrower than in previous elections may or may not have been significant. But it seems certain that if McCarthy had been running he would have made a better showing than Kohler did. That's because he would have drawn heavily from the Democratic party, too.

The Republicans cannot win Congress in 1958 or the presidency in 1960 with their present dissension. Having listened to Eastern Republicans who keep saying that "modern Republicanism" is the way to win elections—when, in fact, it is a very effective way to promote disunity and encourage conservative Republicans to stay at home on election day—giving the impression that it is some kind of sin to oppose radicalism, as well as so-called "liberalism" and the other isms of which the Democrats are more practiced exponents than are the "modern Republicans."

Senator Knowland of California is quite right in pulling away from the Washington scene. He can't get the 1960 nomination because he isn't regarded as an "Eisenhower Republican." There probably will be a pull-back, however, in 1964 from the policies of state socialism which the Democrats will re-introduce when they come into power. The next Republican chance for victory will probably be in 1964 with a party composed largely of conservatives and non-radicals and disillusioned Democrats.

What Others Say

The apathy of Milwaukee members of the Allied Industrial Workers' union (AFL-CIO) toward indications of gross irregularity in the conduct of their union is appalling. Indeed, their almost total indifference is as disturbing as the testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington.

What other reaction can one have to the statements which representative members made to John Pomfret of The Journal staff as they left the factories in which the AIW has its largest Milwaukee locals? Few members expressed indignation. Most of them indicated neither knowledge of the developments nor interest in them. Some were frankly cynical.

Well, we trust that the general public will not be so apathetic. Labor unions are too much a part of the American industrial and social fabric to be deemed the preserve of union members alone. The morality of labor and its leaders is part of the broader morality. The public cannot cynically ignore improper conduct in a union any more than in a business or public office.

Moreover, the public has an economic stake in the handling of union money. Contributions made by an employer to union welfare funds are a direct cost of production and union dues an indirect cost. When union money is squandered, the general public as well as the union membership is cheated.

If the attitude of the Milwaukee workers interviewed is typical, here is damning evidence that union members are either interested in nor desirous of putting labor's house in order. How, then, can they complain if public insistence leads to curtailment of labor union privileges? Many wise labor leaders and labor editors are trying to clean up the abuses. So far, they get little rank and file support.

Report On Congress

Most Of Ike's Program Dead Or Dormant

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Associated Press Staff Writer

The 85th Congress, which adjourned its first session today, left most of President Eisenhower's legislative program dead or dormant.

If it's remembered long in history, it may be because it was the first Congress since the post-Civil War Reconstruction era to enact a civil rights bill.

Whether it is called a good, bad or mediocre Congress depends on who is doing the appraising. "One of the greatest congresses this country has ever had," was the appraisal by House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts.

President Eisenhower said he was "tremendously disappointed" with the record of the Congress controlled by Democrats both in the Senate and in the House.

From his own point of view, the President had grounds for disappointment. He made more than a score of major legislative recommendations. Congress went along with only a few of them.

It passed a toned-down civil rights bill limited largely to voting rights. It gave the President authority to use military might to prevent Communist aggression in the Middle East. It ratified and implemented participation in the International Atomic Energy Agency.

In the face of a threatened veto, it voted to raise the pay of postal employees and civil service workers. Its members left the capital to return next Jan. 7 with the expectation the President would let the pay hike measures die by failing to act on them within the 10 allotted days, which expire Sept. 9.

The House killed a school-aid bill which was part of the President's program. Both branches killed a corn price stabilization bill he requested.

The Senate shelved until at least next year a postal rate increase measure passed by the House at the President's request. Between them, the two branches slashed the scope of the mutual assistance program, one of the President's pet projects. They hacked $4,900,000 from his request for 72 billion dollars in new appropriations for all government activities.

Here is Congress' own official summation of what it did during the session, as compiled by the House coordinator of information:

PASSED

Continuation of the temporary suspension of a legal limit on the size of the armed forces.

Authorization of a 1½-billion-dollar program of military construction here and abroad.

Provision for the induction of doctors, dentists and allied specialists in the armed forces.

Permission for the President to provide economic and military aid for the Middle East.

Continuation of the mutual assistance program, but with sharply reduced financing.

Deferment of payments due on Great Britain's loans from the United States.

Approval of U. S. participation in the International Atomic Energy Agency.

Minor modification of the immigration laws.

Permission to sell or lend small warships from the reserve fleet to friendly nations.

Declaring the hope of Congress that Spain should be admitted to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Extension of the operating authority of the Export-Import Bank.

Reduction of import taxes and duties on scrap metal.

Creation of a Civil Rights Commission and protection of the voting rights of all citizens.

Extension of the President's authority to reorganize executive agencies subject to congressional veto.

Pay raises averaging $546 annually for postal employees.

Pay raises of 11 per cent for Civil Service employees.

Establishment of an airways modernization board to study air navigation problems.

Authorization for the Atomic Energy Commission to continue its construction programs and to build experimental reactors.

Extension of wartime corporate income tax rates and selected excise tax rates.

Limitation of the issuance of tax amortization allowances on new defense plants.

Extension of the Small Business Administration.

Increase in borrowing power of the Federal National Mortgage Administration.

Authority for the Treasury to increase interest payments on savings bonds.

Increase in compensation payments to veterans for service-connected disabilities.

Extension of veterans' home loan and loan guaranty programs.

Extension of the agricultural trade development and assistance law permitting disposal of surplus commodities abroad.

Compulsory federal inspection of poultry and poultry products entering interstate commerce.

Permission for the State of New York to use the Niagara River for power development purposes.

Increase in borrowing authority of the St. Lawrence Seaway Corp.

Continuation of the federal housing program, with lower downpayments.

Extension of the program of federal aid to school districts affected by government activities.

Provision for federal indemnity against atomic reactor hazards.

Protection of FBI files used as evidence in courts.

BILLS KILLED

Federal aid for construction of schools; defeated in House.

Proposed federal investigation of national monetary and credit structure; defeated in House.

Financing of flood insurance program authorized last year; defeated in House.

Authority for the President to appoint a national monetary and finance commission; defeated by Senate Banking Committee.

Blackboards Clean, Chalk Long, Books New

Who, boy, here it is the first day of school again.

The opening day of another session probably is nothing like it was 7 or 7 years ago, but if it were—

The classrooms and the corridors will be having the strongest smell of disinfectant that they'll have all year. The blackboards, fresh from a summer painting, will be the cleanest they'll be for another nine months. The pieces of chalk, fresh from those little square boxes, will be the longest of the year; and the erasers will be in the best shape they'll be until next June.

There would be some excitement—here again being nostalgic—about the seating assignment. If Bill and John, bosom pals and both a little on the boisterous side, figure they can get together back in a rear corner, they will be mistaken, because one of them will be moved to the front row spang in front of the teacher's desk, and the other will be surrounded by nice and meek little girls.

If they thought they could coast a week or so before really getting into the lessons, they're disillusioned again, because the teacher is going assign probably a full chapter, a long composition, and a whole bunch of arithmetic problems the very first day. This, probably done for psychological reasons, lets the worry warts know that vacation really is over, and let's get down to learning something, children.

And, on the first day of school back in the years I'm thinking of, came the business of announcing the textbooks required.

I don't know how old you have to be to remember it, but there was a time, you know, when there was so such thing as free textbooks. Papa shelled out his hard-earned cash to buy 'em.

There would be the list of reader, arithmetic, geography, speller and what-not. And the first chore at hand after school was dismissed on opening day was to hike down to the corner drugstore where the proprietor during the summer had laid in shelf after shelf of designated texts. He, his wife and all the other spare help he could scare together would be on hand, waiting for the swarm of kids who clamored for supplies.

Of course, if you were in the third grade this year, and the neighbors had a kid who was moving up to the fourth, the family budget might demand that you'd have to bargain with the kid for his cast-off books. They would supply the same information, all right, but they certainly didn't have much glamour. They were pretty well dog-eared, some pages would be torn, and the difficult passages would be marked up. Fellow who had to buy used books went at it with a sort of resigned state, and would patch 'em up best he could, hoping secretly that he could lose some of them, maybe, so as to get new books after all.

Under the free book plan, the volumes, I suppose, pass from class to class over several years. They have to be protected because they're the property of the state. In those old days, books were a personal possession, and if they got torn up, it was your own loss.

Best I can remember, though, if kids could get new books, they were an item of pride, and great care would be taken with them, at least for the first months. After all, there are few things more attractive than a fresh cloth-back volume, which has a clean smell of white paper and black ink; which has a crackling stiffness when it's first opened, and whose illustrations are fresh and attractive.

Could be that it was the new books which developed a sense of wanting to know, in kids. A new book can be a treasure, even if it is a schoolbook, and it could be that some of the fascinating facts between its covers will sink into the brain of the owner. It is the appeal of a brand new book that surely has something to do with the educational process.

A Sure-Fire Formula For Happiness

This Labor Day weekend reminds us that Labor Day was designed as the occasion for celebrating the tremendous gains in the status of working men and women in our country. Today, we take these gains for granted, and Labor Day serves as a holiday marking the last weekend of the summer vacation season.

The relation of employer and employee can be a valuable one to each. Employees have gained much from their employers, it is true, but I know one case where an employer gained even more from one of his employes—he gained a formula for happiness.

This employer had become tired, weary, nervous, upset and angry with everyone he saw. His temper made him so impossible to get along with that his valuable secretary—who had been with him for many years and knew his business thoroughly—finally walked out on him.

Eventually, he found a new secretary. She was middle-aged and certainly not very glamorous; but she was a nice person, skillful and thorough, and combined a strange quality of quietness with enormous efficiency.

He was impressed by this woman's effect on everyone, and he too was conscious of a strange influence upon himself. One day, while dictating to her, he said suddenly: "Put down your book, Miss Jones. I want to talk with you, not as your employer, but as a friend. I need help. I'm nervous and tense—you know how difficult I get."

She smiled at him. "You're better than you think, Mr. Smith," she said gently.

"But I would like to have your spirit and attitude," he answered. "You handle things so easily. You're always confident and make everything go so smoothly, and you're never upset. Tell me how you do it."

"The reason is not complicated," she told him, though not without embarrassment, for she was a reticent person and he an outstanding businessman. Besides, he was her boss. "In the deepest sense I think you are just missing the real secret of living. What you need is God as a companion and friend. If I'm capable of doing all that you say I do, it's only because God is definitely in my life as my partner."

Finally, after some persuasion, for she was spiritually modest, she gave him her own three-point formula. This is it, and I think it most helpful. If proved so to this tense and nervous employer. This writer has also used this formula most effectively.

"1. I pray three times a day to keep myself in harmony with God. (A short prayer upon awakening, a second in the busiest part of a busy day, and a third at bedtime will work wonders.)

"2. I give 10 per cent of my income to God's work.

"3. I stop, relax myself and repeat the following affirmation whenever pressure arises: 'God is my peace. God is my wisdom. God is my power. God is my assured victory. He is bringing it to pass. I am trusting in Him.'"

The businessman, who judged theories by results, had such esteem for the spiritual power of his secretary that he tried this formula. After he had lived by this method for some time, he said to me: "That simple formula has completely changed my life. I've found the answer to my personal problem."

Some Advantages In The Missile Race

WASHINGTON.—As has been established beyond doubt by a top committee of technical intelligence experts, Soviet Russia fired an intercontinental ballistic missile at least six weeks ago and not immediately prior to the announcement that came with dramatic suddenness earlier this week.

A small group in the Pentagon, the State Department and the intelligence services have known for a month or more of the success of the Soviet ICBM. The distance the missile traveled was between 4,000 and 4,500 miles.

No advance announcement was made by Washington, as is done when the Atomic Energy Commission learns of a Soviet nuclear explosion, because in intelligence officials wanted to wait and see what the Soviet Union would make of this achievement. They were interested in seeing in what political context Moscow would put the news.

There is little doubt that it was carefully timed to coincide with Soviet delegate Valerian A. Zorin's blast in the United Nations Disarmament subcommittee in London rejecting the American package deal aimed at preventing a surprise attack.

The whole tone of the announcement, as reviewed by the highest intelligence authorities, was intended to convey the impression to the world that the Soviet Union was so powerful and so advanced in weapons development that the American proposal could be spurned.

The intelligence data on the ICBM firing in Siberia shows that it was a multi-stage missile. This is one reason why concern over the Soviet achievement was not too great.

A multi-stage missile has only a limited potential accuracy. It is, in effect, a quick-weapon which American missile-makers felt they could also have perfected in a relatively short time if they had wanted to sidetrack their efforts to get a single-stage missile.

But at least two other reasons, which get into the troubled area of inter-service rivalry, help to explain why there has been no undue dismay in Washington at the Moscow announcement.

One is the fact that progress on the anti-missile missile has been much greater than anyone has yet suggested publicly. According to an authoritative source, the United States is, by conservative estimate, three years and perhaps four years ahead of the Soviet Union in development of the fantastically complicated defensive weapon.

The Army is developing the anti-missile missile, just as the Army also had, until a recent stop order from Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, pushed further than any other service the intermediate 1,200-mile surface-to-surface missile. This is the Army's Jupiter, developed at the Redstone Arsenal in Alabama and the object of intense service rivalry.

With the bases available to the United States in Europe and the Middle East, the Jupiter, its proponents say, is more than the equivalent of the 5,000-mile missile. It has these pronounced advantages:

It can carry a much larger warhead—in the megaton (the equivalent of millions of tons of TNT) rather than the kiloton (thousands of tons) range.

It can be fired from a small and readily concealed launching site whereas the ICBM takes a huge launching apparatus and, in its present phase of development, the equivalent of a small city of technicians. To conceal it from enemy intelligence is, therefore, almost impossible.

It is much more accurate.

And the proponents add what they believe is the clincher: The Jupiter has been successfully test-fired. In contrast, the Air Force's longer range Thor has repeatedly gone pfft in tests at base at Cocoa Beach, Fla.

Here, of course, one comes up against powerful forces, since facilities costing several millions of dollars have been installed by a private aircraft company to make the Thor while the Jupiter has been the product of a technical staff assembled by the Army.

For the moment, at least, America can count real advantages in the missile race. It would be a tragedy if they were lost in the fierce competitive scramble of the services under the economy ceiling.

Bible Words for Today

ACTS 4:13 — "Now when (the Jewish rulers) saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they wondered; and they recognized that they had been with Jesus." (RSV)

What makes a person stand out from others as a Christian? Is it education, eloquence or exceptional gifts? Is it moulting a correct doctrinal formula, observing certain sectarian standards of dress or faithfully moving through an accepted ritual? Not so, if we may judge from these bold leaders of the early Church.

We will be recognized as Christians, providing we spend time with Jesus, Peter and John had been with Jesus during his days of preaching, teaching and healing; and during nights of conversation and instruction. But more important, they had been with the Risen Christ, whose Spirit continued to direct and mold their lives daily and hourly. From being with Jesus, they were becoming like Jesus.

As we saturate ourselves with the Gospels and expose our lives in prayer to the Living Lord, we will become more Christlike; and people will recognize that we have been with Jesus.

Jon Hornaday Weds In Austin Saturday Night

At a formal candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at the University Christian Church in Austin, Rhoda Ann Barrier became the bride of Jon Russell Hornaday. Dr. John Barclay officiated for the double ring ceremony. Merle Flag, soloist, was accompanied by Sara Widmer.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barrier of Austin, is a graduate of the Hockaday School, Dallas. She attended the University of Colorado, Boulder, and majored in interior decoration at the University of Texas, where she is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hornaday of Washington, D. C., was graduated from Washington and Lee High School in Virginia. He is an advertising major at the University of Texas where he is affiliated with Alpha Phi Fraternity and Alpha Delta Sigma, honorary fraternity. He is the grandson of Mrs. Della Kay Agnell, 311 West 6th.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta. The wide decollete neckline was accented by a crushed taffeta fold, and short white kid gloves complemented the elbow length sleeves. The long torso bodice was emphasized by a wide taffeta fold with hip panners over the bouffant lace skirt, which swept to a wide court train.

Her veil of French imported silk illusion fell to waist length from a calot of Chantilly lace. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses centered with phalaenopsis orchids and showered with Stephanotis.

Catherine Barrier, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Raymond Barrier Jr. of San Saba; Helen Tutt of Dallas and Margot Markie of Houston. Olivia Daigh, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Her attendants were identically attired in gowns of mist yellow silk. The draped decollete neckline was complemented by brief sleeves and short white kid gloves. The tightly moulded bodice flared to a bouffant full length skirt accented in back by a bustle effect. They wore flat Dior bows of matching silk organza and carried cascading bouquets of yellow Fugi chrysanthemums.

Bill Hornaday served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Ted Allmond, Houston; Raymond Barrier Jr. of San Saba and Jim Piles, Tyler. Ushers were Dave Price of Paris and Rowe Byres of Kingsville. John David Daigh, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Maximilian Room of the Driskill Hotel where Janice Grumbles, harpist, provided the background music. Assisting in the house party were Suzanne Hofmann of Austin; Karolyn Kucera of Dallas and Jana Svacek of Seminole.

Mr. and Mrs. Hornaday flew to Mexico City and Acapulco for their two-week honeymoon. They will reside at 1210 Norwalk Lane when they return to Austin.

Church Wedding Unites Miss Kee, Carl Anthony

LAMESA — An arch covered with white satin ribbon and flanked with baskets of white gladioli formed the background for the wedding ceremony of Helen Ruth Kee and Carl O'Dell Anthony Friday evening in Lamesa.

The couple was married by the Rev. E. L. Jones in the Bryan Street Baptist Church, where branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers combined with palm trees to complete the bridal setting.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Kee are parents of the bride; the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anthony.

Preceding the exchange of vows, Marcella Hill, accompanied by Linda Peterson, organist, sang, "I Love You Truly."

The father of the bride gave her in marriage. She was attired in a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta, fashioned with long torso with a flowing skirt of alternate rows of lace and tulle. A short jacket featured long sleeves which ended in points over the hands.

The fingertip length veil of French illusion was surmounted by a headpiece of lace with points of tulle, studded with iridescent sequins and pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses carried on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Don McCandless of Brownfield attended as matron of honor. Her strapless dress of pink cotton satin was completed with a jacket of lace. Sequins and net fashioned her hat and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Wayne Vandivere of O'Donnell was best man. Guests were seated by Larry Anthony, brother of the bridegroom, and Jimmy Taylor, both of Lamesa.

During the reception, held in the church parlor, the bridal couple received guests along with their parents and the attendants.

The bride's table was laid with a pink and white net cloth over white satin, with a tiered cake flanked by pink tapers forming the centerpiece. Bouquets of the attendants decorated the table.

Serving was done by Mrs. Maurice Roys, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Leon Greenlee, sister of the bridegroom. The bride's cousin, Shirley Kee, registered guests.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a wool suit of brown with lizard accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses.

The couple will make a home in Lamesa, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming. He is a graduate of Lamesa High School and attended Texas Tech.

The bride, also a Lamesa graduate, attended Draughon's Business College and has been employed by Pan American Petroleum Corporation in Midland.

They were all attired in taffeta dresses of pastel colors.

They wore small halo hats to match their gowns and their bouquets were of carnations.

Ruben Marquez was the best man. Taper lighters were Demetrio Corrales Jr., Lolo Molina, Gabriel and Albert Fierro.

A reception at Gomez Hall followed the ceremony.

The bride's table was decorated with a small arch at one end of the table. A three-tiered cake was decorated with pink and silver. Mrs. Puga and Mrs. Flores were in charge of the register.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Ysabel Leiba, Carlsbad, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Max Palomino, Barstow; A. C. Benjamin Deanda, South Carolina, cousin of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Hernandez, Carlsbad, N. M.

For a wedding trip to Carlsbad, N. M., Mrs. Puga wore a beige dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The couple will make a home in Big Spring where Puga is employed by Higginbotham-Bartlett Company.

Mrs. Puga is a graduate of Big Spring High School and was a member of the Sodality, Las Higas De Maria.

Forsan Party Is Honor For Suttles

FORSAN—Mr. and Mrs. James Suttles, Midland, were honored Friday evening at a bridal shower in the Forsan school.

The honoree was presented with a corsage made of daisies and miniature kitchen utensils.

The serving table carried out the yellow and white theme with a lace cloth over yellow. The centerpiece was placed on a reflector. It consisted of the double wedding ring on a base of styrofoam encircled with ruffled net; and a miniature bridal couple stood on the reflector.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. T. R. Camp, Mrs. C. V. Wash, Mrs. Henry Park, Mrs. A. P. Oglesby, Mrs. C. L. Gooch, Mrs. W. J. White, Mrs. C. D. Fowler, Mrs. J. D. Gilmore, Mrs. Jesse Overton, Mrs. D. L. Knight, Mrs. W. O. Averett and Mrs. J. P. Kubecka.

At the register, the table was covered with a lace cloth and held an arrangement of roses and greenery.

The couple was assisted in greeting guests by their mothers, Mrs. A. C. Perry, Midland, and Mrs. C. C. Suttles, Big Spring.

A special guest was the bride's sister, Julia Lane Perry, Midland.

In Mineral Wells

Mrs. A. C. Bass has written from Mineral Wells that she was to be joined by her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Bass during the week. Another Big Spring, Mrs. T. C. Thomas, also visiting in Mineral Wells, joined Mrs. Bass for lunch recently.

of silk illusion attached to a Queen's crown of rose point lace and pearl and sequin trim.

The bridal bouquet was formed of white pearls and Easter lilies.

Mrs. Ruben Marquez, matron of honor, was attired in a gown of white. Maid of honor Beatrice Leiba wore a blue taffeta gown. Bridesmaids were Mrs. David Leyva, Mrs. Nasario Nunez, Doris Marquez, Margie Mendez, Victoria Palomino, Anita Alvarado and Mary Lou Lopez.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The moulded bodice was fashioned of lace and featured a Sabrina neckline outlined with scallops of lace, re-embroidered with pearls and iridescent pastel sequins.

A lace over-skirt cascaded over tiny tulle ruffles which formed the full skirt and ended in a chapel train. The long lace sleeves ended in points over her hands.

The bride wore a finger-tip veil

Nuptial Mass Unites Miss Flores - L. Puga

Nuptial mass was said Saturday at 8 a.m. in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church uniting in marriage Aurora Flores and Louie Puga.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Flores, 710 NW 10th and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Puga, 507 N. Main.

The Rev. Father Adolph Metzger, OMI, performed the double ring ceremony.

The altar of the church was decorated with candelabra bearing white tapers and baskets of white flowers on either side of the altar.

The church choir sang "Ave Maria" accompanied at the organ by Mary Lou Garcia.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The moulded bodice was fashioned of lace and featured a Sabrina neckline outlined with scallops of lace, re-embroidered with pearls and iridescent pastel sequins.

LITTLE WOMAN

Little girls seem to be "natural-born" little women, right from the start.

Laura washes for her dollies just as seriously as if she were tending a "real-life" family. She likes to bake tiny cakes and cookies too, and she has her own way of enforcing discipline when her dollies are "naughty."

Sometimes I'm amazed by her, even if I am her mother. And I am awed at the way God fashioned little girls, so that from the beginning they seem to sense that one day they will be mothers themselves.

When I take Laura to Church with me, she's such a little lady, demure and yet amazingly intent for one her age. I look at her. I see one of God's miracles, and I marvel anew. Watching a child grow is a perpetual lesson in Faith.

Sometimes after Church Laura lines her dolls up on a bench. She tells me that "the dollies are in church,"—and I don't feel in the least like chuckling at her childish antics. Rather, I am grateful.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Debra King Honored At Birthday Party

The fourth birthday anniversary of Debra Gayle King was the occasion for a celebration Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John King, 407 Pennsylvania.

Favors were paper hats, suckers and bottles of bubbles, and gifts were presented to the honoree.

bridal couple and the feminine attendants.

BRIDE'S TABLE
A white lace cloth over orchid covered the bride's table, which was centered with a large mirror topped with four branched candle-labra. A large brandy snifter was filled with white flowers. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Miss Mabry registered the guests. Others assisting with hospitality were Venita Blasingame, Mrs. T. G. West, Mrs. Rob Mabry, Frances Brown, Neva Springfield, Louise Coleman, Mrs. George Rhea, Mozelle Herron and Faye Harry.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith, Becky Rankin, Abilene; Mrs. Onie Ingram, California, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ferrell, Mrs. Dub Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vaughn, all of Big Spring, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Griffin of Lamesa.

For a wedding trip to San Antonio and Corpus Christi, Mrs. Dickey wore a black sheath dress accented with a large taffeta bow at the empire waistline. Her accessories were black, and she wore an orchid corsage from the bridal bouquet.

The couple will make a home at 1106 1/2 North Ninth in Abilene. Mrs. Dickey was a graduate of McMurry College where she majored in business administration. She was a member and officer of Gamma Sigma, social club, Wah Wah, and the yearbook staff.

Dickey was graduated from McMurry with a major in biology. He was a member of Kiva social club, Pre-Professional Club and the German Club.

REHEARSAL DINNER
The rehearsal dinner was held Saturday at noon at the Wagon Wheel. Places were marked with miniature umbrellas of orchid net. A large net umbrella showered with flowers centered the dinner table.

HI-TALK

By CAROL ROGERS

It doesn't seem possible that only one more week remains before the beginning of classes again. The summer has flown by and here we are anticipating the new classes, football games, and the other activities of the school year.

The members of the Feta Tri Hi Y Club were guests at the home of Mrs. Lee Rogers Thursday night at a slumber party. The girls drank Cokes and talked until the wee hours of the morning. Some of those attending were Barbara Shields, Jacqueline Smith, Sue Barnes, Cecilia McDonald, Janet Hogan, Danna Green, Helen Gray, Londa Coker, Anita Gardner, Kay Wilcox, Sheila Homes and Lou Ann White.

Several Big Spring teen-agers attended the Invitational Golf Tournament barbecue Friday night at the Big Spring Country Club. These were Brenda Gordon, Donald Lovelady, Sherry Lurting, Jerry McMahan, Lynn McMahan, Whitney Reynolds, Barbara Shields, Charlie Johnson, Richard Pachall, Bobby Bluhm, and J. W. Thompson.

The local Rainbow chapter held a friendship meeting Tuesday in which nine chapters participated. It followed an initiation.

Mrs. Cecil McDonald, Mrs. Zolzie Boykin, Mrs. J. E. Hogan, and Mrs. George White, were hostesses at a "back-to-school" luncheon Friday. Some of those attending were Janet, Hogan, Sue Barnes, Sue Boykin, Kay Wilcox, Lou Ann White, Helen Gray, Carol Rogers, Londa Coker, Jacqueline Smith, Danna Green, Julie Rainwater, Anita Gardner, and Glenna Coffee.

Mad About Plaid

Plaids of all sizes, colors and descriptions are prominent in the fall lineup of youthful fashions. Some are horse-blanket plaids in bold colors, some are small and muted. They are seen in skirts, coats, suits, dresses, shorts and slacks, with many new variations added to the classic and always popular tartans.

Congratulations to Jimmy Whitefield for placing third in the bronzing event at the Junior Rodeo in Coleman last week.

Wanda Posey, who is visiting in the Blum home, was honored with a Coke party Wednesday morning. The girls enjoyed seeing Wanda again, as she visited here last year.

Barbara Coffee, Wesley Grigsby, Luan Lawson, Frank Powell, Carol Phillips, and James Drake.

"An Affair to Remember" certainly made a hit with Big Spring teen-agers. Some of the kids laughing and crying intermittently were Nancy King, Joe Liberty, Sue Boykin, Jerry Graves, Carol Rogers, Frosty Forrester, Juanel Sparks, Donnie Bryant, Lane Edwards, Lefty Reynolds, Lou White.

Gerald Lackey, Anita Gardner, Calvin Daniels, Opal Hancock, and Billy Johnson.

Ackerly Rites Are Read For Shirley West - Charles Dickey

The Ackerly Methodist Church was the setting Saturday evening at 7 o'clock for the marriage of Shirley Dee Lois West of Ackerly and Donald Charles Dickey of Haskell.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. West, Ackerly, are the parents of the bride; the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Iseon Rosenzweig of New Orleans, La.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Dewain Blair, a college friend of the bridegroom.

Pre-nuptial music was presented at the piano by Dolores Mabry, cousin of the bride. Selections included "Ave Maria," "Because of You" and "The Lord's Prayer," sung by David Arnold.

The altar of the church was decked with baskets of white gladioli and mums surrounded by palm trees. This was used against a background of greenery and candleabra bearing white tapers. The altar rail was entwined with greenery and pews were marked with white satin bows.

WEDDING GOWN
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin. The lace bodice of the gown was designed with a Sabrina neckline outlined with lace scallops. The bouffant skirt was accented at either side with alternate rows of lace and tulle ruffles. The long sleeves of lace pointed over her hands.

A waist length veil of silk illusion fell from an upstanding band of pearls and glitters. The bride's bouquet was of a white orchid showered with Italian lace and stephanotis. This was carried on a white Bible, belonging to her college social club.

For something old the bride carried the white Bible; something new was her dress; she wore a penny in her shoe and for something borrowed and blue was the garter worn by girls of her social club. Another garter was a gift to the bride from Dean Blankenship.

Serving as maid of honor was Margaret Sealy, Houston. Bridesmaids were Barbara Wilson, Corpus Christi, Miss Blankenship, Snyder, and Karen West, cousin of the bride, junior bridesmaids.

They were all attired in sheath dresses of orchid embossed cotton satin. The dresses featured empire waistlines accented with criss-cross cummerbunds of orchid chiffon. The cummerbunds extended in the back to floating panels.

For bouquets they carried white net umbrellas showered with orchid feathered mums.

Attending as best man was Bob by Jack Price, Abilene, uncle of the bridegroom. Ushers were Weldon Crowley, Kerenis; Jimmy Arnold, Odessa, and Nick Nabors, Muleshoe.

At the reception, held at the church, guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. West, Mrs. Rosenzweig, Mrs. W. L. Price, grandmother of the bridegroom, the

Colorado City Girl Is Wed To Gilbert L. Simmons Of Lufkin

In a double ring ceremony, read in the First Baptist Church in Colorado City Saturday evening, Mary Sue Dillard and Gilbert Larry Simmons exchanged wedding vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dillard of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Simmons of Lufkin.

The bridal party stood before a bank of huckleberry leaves covering three arches which held cathedral candles. Palm trees accented with white asters stood between each of the arches. Through the center arch extended a white aisle cloth, and family pews were marked with asters tied with satin bows.

The Rev. R. Y. Bradford, of Santa Fe, N. M., former pastor of the Colorado City church, read the vows.

NUPTIAL MUSIC
Mrs. Curtis Baker, organist, played the traditional nuptial music and accompanied Sandra Bobo of Midland as she sang "If God Left Only You." Mrs. Baker also accompanied her husband as he sang "With These Hands" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of tulle and Chantilly lace over taffeta. The lace bodice featured a portrait neckline, which was outlined in a narrow band of tulle. A wide taffeta cummerbund tied in a large bow at the back waistline. Her skirt was fashioned of alternating tiers of tulle and lace.

She wore gauntlets of matching lace. Her headpiece of lace was embedded with pearls with a pearl teardrop at center front. It held an elbow-length circular veil of illusion.

For the traditional something old, she wore a wedding band belonging to the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Roy Cousins, of Lufkin; something new, a gift from the bridegroom; borrowed, a white wedding Bible from Mrs. Brooks Teague; a blue garter and a penny in her shoe for good luck. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with the Bible. White ribbons, tied in love knots, fell from the arrangement.

Attending as bridesmaids were Billie Lieb of Sweetwater, a cousin of the bride; Darlene Bobo of Midland; Jan Schubert of Shreveport, La.; and Pat Allen of Beaumont. The matron of honor was Mrs. Bud Courtney of Imperial, a cousin of the bride; bridesmatron was Mrs. Don Cutler of Dallas.

All attendants were gowned identically in ice-blue chiffon frocks over taffeta. The shirred bodices were accented around the necklines with chiffon which formed tiny sleeves. Lengths of the chiffon floated in the back to the hemlines. Hats of ice-blue tulle were crusted with seed pearls and decked with velvet bows.

Asters of blue and white covered the fans carried by the group.

MRS. GILBERT LARRY SIMMONS

Jerith and David Rhodes, cousins of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively, while two other cousins Susan Hanks and Sam Rhodes were the candlelighters.

Glen Simmons of Lufkin was his brother's best man.

Groomsman were Coy Dillard, brother of the bride; Fred Cervelli of Orange; John Bateman of Lufkin; Jon White of Kilgore and Robert Nisbet of Lufkin.

The bridal pair was assisted in receiving guests by the mother of the bride, the bridegroom's parents and the attendants. Members of the houseparty were Carolyn Pugh, Kay McCullough, both of Fort Worth; Ann Chastain of Dallas, Ronda Hays of Rotan, Mrs. Jim Mathis of Abilene, Carolyn Bilberry, Ronell Smith, Gay Ainsworth, Grace Valdez and Sue Moore of Colorado City. They wore light blue tea dresses.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a three branched crystal candelabrum, accented by a sunburst arrangement of wheat carnations. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue pastry wedding bells and roses and topped with a nosegay of white roses, and wedding bells. Napkins were white, inscribed with the couple's names in silver.

The registry was marked by a large oil painting of the bride's portrait. A nosegay lay at the base of the painting in front. A candelabra backed the painting. For a wedding trip to points in South Texas, the bride was attired in a slate blue sheath of coconut cloth fashioned with a fitted jacket. She used navy accessories and wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride's mother chose a dress of wisteria blue lace with matching accessories and glamelia corsage. Mother of the bridegroom wore a sky blue lace with blue and white accessories and glamelia corsage.

When the couple returns from the trip, both will be in school in Baylor University.

The bride was a freshman twirler; freshman representative to student congress; freshman Baptist Student Union director; freshman class nominee for Heart O' Texas queen; BSU enrollment chairman for summer of 1956; sophomore class Baylor Beauty finalist and BSU secretary for summer, 1957. She is a junior student.

The bridegroom, is a member of Alpha Phi Omega, for which he served as vice president in the spring of 1957; sophomore class representative to student congress, vice president of freshman class during spring quarter, chairman of freshman projects committee and a member of the Pre-Med Club in 1955-56. He is also a junior student.

REHEARSAL DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Simmons, hosted a dinner Friday evening honoring the wedding couple and party in Civic House.

Head table was centered with a three-branched crystal candelabrum holding blue tapers and accented by a sunburst arrangement of white carnations.

Other tables were centered with wide blue satin ribbon. Single tapers banked with greenery were placed on the ribbon. Place cards were covered with white nylon tulle. Miniature blue rosettes accented one corner of the card. The wedding couple's place cards were marked by a tiny bride and groom.

Ackerly People Have Guests During Week

ACKERLY—Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Mahoney and Mary Reed of Lamesa have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Niblett this week. Sandra Wells visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Moore, in Lamesa recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rhea and Marcia visited Mrs. Rhea's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bell in Anson this week. Recent guests of the O. F. Rheas were Mr. and Mrs. Will Woods and their four grandchildren of Brownwood.

In Tahoka during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Etherege as guests of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Etherege. Mr. and Mrs. Doph Rasberry's visitors recently were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rasberry and son of Lamesa, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Preston and two daughters of Burkburnett.

She's Grown A Few Inches

The two young daughters of the Ed Allens give the weekly measuring test to their little dachshund, Hilda. And sure enough each week she adds a few inches to her length. Little Marsha, left, seems a bit surprised to see how the doggie has grown, but Deborah, right, thinks it's all a lot of fun. The Allens have recently moved to Big Spring from Lamesa. Allen is the new chef at Cokers Restaurant.

Chef, Family Recent Newcomers To City

Say, how would you housewives like to have a husband who by profession is a chef? Sounds like a good idea, except, like most of us, this particular chef likes to do something a little different after working hours.

As for Ed Allen that's just what he likes to do. The Allen family moved here recently from Lamesa. Allen is the new chef for Cokers Restaurant and before that was chef for the Green Hut in Lamesa for ten and a half years.

His job as chief chef includes planning the menus for each day, buying the food, general manager of the kitchen and the actual preparation of some of the food. Since the opening of the restaurant, good business has demanded a little extra time, but as Allen says "it's lots of fun and I thoroughly enjoy my work."

Entering business as chef might have been influenced by the fact that Allen's father was also a chef. Allen began working in a restaurant as a young boy and worked his way to the top.

The Allens have two daughters,

Deborah, 3, and Marsha, 6. Mrs. Allen says that any spare time she finds from house duties she devotes to doing things which her daughters enjoy.

"Although most people want to get away from their children during the leisure time, that's when I can really enjoy playing with them and helping them do things they like," Mrs. Allen says.

When time permits, Allen enjoys hunting and fishing.

At the present, the entire family is enjoying the company of a fairly new addition to their group, a three-month old dachshund, Hilda.

The Allens are presently making a home at 1506 Stadium, but plan to build a home in the near future.

College Girls Are Honored

A back-to-college luncheon Friday at Cokers Restaurant honored several local girls who will attend college at various places this fall.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Cecil McDonald, Mrs. J. E. Hogan, Mrs. Zollie Boykin and Mrs. George White.

Individual tables were decorated with pennants from the various colleges.

About 31 local girls attend with the following out of town guests: Jimmie Lou Angier of Venezuela; Sue Conley, Madrid, Spain, and Wanda Jo Posey, who will attend East Texas State College.

During the luncheon, Kay Wilcox told the group of her trip to Europe and the girls discussed their plans for the college year.

Family Trade

NEW YORK (U-P)—The summer straw hat theatrical circuit has turned up a bumper crop of second generation performers. Among those getting acting work-ups in stock troupes are Alan Alda, son of Robert Alda; Liz Clark, comic Bobby Clark's daughter; Carol Ann Berry, daughter of the late Wallace Berry.

Lucky Star

NEW YORK (U-P)—Film Star Pat O'Brien found the luck of the Irish pays off when trying to get a ticket to Broadway's sellout hit "My Fair Lady."

On a recent matinee afternoon, O'Brien (who had already seen the musical twice) got in the ticket line. Just as he reached the window, the boxoffice telephone rang. Pat waited patiently, then asked if he could buy a ticket for that performance.

Miss America Pageant Is More Cultured Each Year

By CYNTHIA LOWRY ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Aug. 31 (U-P)—Like a dowager busily burying her past as a chorus-line cutie, the Miss America Pageant becomes more refined and cultured each year. The 1957 version, unfolding this week, will as usual hit new highs of gentility, dignity and elegance. From a sometimes rigged and often shoddy boardwalk leg show of the 1920s, the annual contest to pick Miss America has been nudged shrewdly into an ultrarespectable merchandising and publicity gimmick in which big business and conservative local services are happy—even eager—to invest hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Nazi Invasion Of Poland Re-Enacted On Channel 4

Today, history-making events of September 1, 1939, are reviewed on Channel 4 as "You Are There" presents a re-enactment of Hitler's invasion of Poland. Field Marshal Smigly-Rydz rallies the Polish people as street fighting rages in Danzig, as the Nazis stage a point-blank naval bombardment of the Polish fortification at Gdynia. Two days later, Great Britain and France declare war on the Third Reich; but Poland has already been lost... within 18 days a nation of 34-million people has been struck down.

Pat Boone Says Some Will Fall By The Wayside

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD (U-P)—"No doubt about it, some of us are going to fall by the wayside. I just hope it won't be me." This was Pat Boone as he faced his first big leap into television with his own show. He starts a half-hour program this fall, and he knows what he's up against. The 1957-58 season is the age of the vocalist. Harkening to the success of Perry Como and Dinah Shore, the networks have enlisted such stars as Frank Sinatra, Eddie Fisher, Dean Martin, Pally Bergen, Gisele McKenzie, Guy Mitchell and others for their own variety shows.

Mouseketeers Not Dead Yet, Disney Avers

By GENE HANDSAKER HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 31 (U-P)—A ghoulish mystery has Walt Disney stumped.

Who keeps spreading rumors from coast to coast that his Mouseketeers have been killed or injured in some accident? And why?

It has been going on for more than a year.

The Mouseketeers are 14 talented kids, aged 10 through 16, who sing, dance, act, mug and clown through a 15-minute portion of the hour-long Mickey Mouse Club show. It's seen daily, Monday through Friday, on about 100 ABC television stations across the country.

Generally speaking, the Mouseketeers were chosen from among hundreds of applicants, at auditions. The person selected changes somewhat from year to year as some of the kids outgrow their roles.

All are described by an adult associate who has helped shepherd them from the beginning two years ago as "really wonderful."

He adds: "They're just normal kids, aware who they are but not spoiled. Obviously their home environment is good."

On their show—filmed months in advance of showing—Monday is "Fun With Music Day," featuring production numbers, costumes and special music. Tuesdays there is a guest star, like Leo Carillo or Judy Canova. Wednesday, "Anything-Can-Happen Day," the Mouseketeers may cavort through recruit training at Los Angeles County Fire Department headquarters or visit the San Diego Zoo or Disneyland.

Thursdays bring in circus jugglers and trampoline performers; the Mouseketeers are worked into their acts. Friday is "Talent Roundup Day," when one or more guest performers appear and are initiated as honorary Mouseketeers.

State law requires that kid performers go to school three hours a day. The Mouseketeers do this in a big house trailer, fitted out like a schoolroom and parked outside a sound stage.

The Mouseketeers get about 20,000 fan letters a month. Annette Funicello received about 10 times as many letters as any other Mouseketeer.

The rumors of disaster to the Mouseketeers started in the Boston area, spokesmen here say. Despite prompt denials, the rumors spread. Fans deluged the studio with letters asking whether the reports were true. TV stations got up to 200 telephone calls daily.

Will Leaves Fund For National Debt

LAMAR, Colo. (U-P)—Uncle Sam's huge national debt worried Arthur E. Lamper, who died recently at 72.

His will, filed for probate yesterday, gives the government all his U.S. investment bonds.

The retired American Sugar Co. executive said in his will: "I feel a moral obligation for my share of the debt of the United States and this bequest of bonds will in some measure take care of my share of the debt as well as my mother's."

The bequest was estimated at between $5,000 and $10,000.

Then came Running-Around-In-Circles, the Shawnee-Seminole name for Pfc. Chester L. Ponkilla, who re-enlisted for six years.

Antelope Harvest In Trans-Pecos Due

AUSTIN, Aug. 31 (U-P)—Some 900 antelope will be harvested this year in the Trans-Pecos area, the Game Commission said today.

There still was time for hunters to get their names in the drawing before the Sept. 1 deadline. The season begins Oct. 1 and permits may be had for either buck or doe.

Two antelope hunts will be held in the Panhandle area beginning Oct. 14.

Local Musicians Asked To Join Midland Symphony Concerts

On Sept. 9, the Midland Symphony Orchestra will begin its sixth season, its second in presenting world famous "name" artists as soloists. On that date, the orchestra, which is conducted by Walter Montani, will begin rehearsals for the first of five concerts in the 1957-58 series. The artists who will perform with the orchestra this season are: Alec Templeton, pianist; Yehudi Menuhin, violinist; Walter Hendl, pianist; Jan Peerce, tenor; and Leonard Rose, cellist.

As usual, the bulk of the personnel of the Midland Symphony will be made up of local musicians who will be rehearsed once each week in preparation for their concerts. In some cases, professional musicians are engaged for the concerts to fill in missing instruments.

LIFE WITH MUSIC

Film Library Would Bring Great Artists To All U.S.

By RICHARD D. SAUNDERS For hundreds of thousands of music lovers, the chance of seeing Jascha Heifetz in a concert performance is infinitely remote. Heifetz gives only a few concerts each year, and those in a few music conservatory major concert series where most of the tickets are subscribed in advance and the few remaining ones are quickly snapped up. So it is also with other leading virtuosos of this era.

An interesting effort to present these men widely is being made by the Music Culture Society of America, headed by Irving H. Mills, through its Concerts on Film Library. The idea is to picture vignettes of the lives of the current great artists, showing them in their homes, at practice or in an informal manner. Their concert work can be heard on ordinary records, but their personalities can be captured only by such a medium as the talking screen.

The library at present consists of 24 films which would take nine hours to view, if run consecutively. It can be bought by any organization or institution, or presented (as a tax deductible gift) to a community or group, with the sole restriction that the films can be used only for education or entertainment and not for profit-making purposes.

However, these players who are contemplating joining the orchestra this season, are urged to do so right away in order to start on September 9. The first concert, with Alec Templeton, is scheduled for October 12, making every rehearsal vital.

Scheduled on the program will be the Russian and Ludmilla Overture by Glinka; Mozart's Symphony No. 41 in C Major (Jupiter); Schumann's Piano Concerto in A minor; and a work by Templeton for piano and orchestra.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra concerts at the Berkshire Festival attracted 162,936 patrons this season, an increase of 21,751 over last year, and brought $366,122 to the box office, up $68,166 from the preceding summer.

Local Musicians Asked To Join Midland Symphony Concerts

With the exception of flutes and clarinets, all other instrumentalists will be considered. Particularly needed are string players in all sections. Extensive experience is not expected of local players, the larger number of which having had only high school or college orchestral background.

PLATTER PALAVER

By Mary Sue Hale

Quite a different sound is "Change for a Penny" as compared to some of the other new releases predicted to go places with pop fans. Recorded by the Mills Brothers, this number is designed for slow and easy listening.

Ray Ellis, Dinah Shore, and David Carroll recorded the tune from the motion picture "Love in the Afternoon," titled "Fascination." The return of the movie to a local theatre has picked up interest in the musical release.

Some quarters would reckon that recording artists Pat Boone would do better to leave the Calypso beat for Harry Belafonte. Boone, who has recently recorded a free styled Calypso number, "Technique," does a commendable job, but might have more appeal in his own established style of singing.

"You're Cheating Yourself" is latest word from Frank Sinatra available on single release. Buddy Knox's recording of "Hula Love" backed with "Devil Woman" is one of the up and coming local prospects.

Vocal version of "Swinging Sweethearts" is by Dick Haymes, while Hugo Winterhalter is responsible for the instrumental waxing of the same tune. The vocal might have the edge, from a local standpoint.

The Voices of Walter Schuman do a very good version of "Soft Sands," another slow and easy tune. The group also recorded "Band of Angels," another single that could go places.

A combination of organ and steel guitar adds interest to the Elroy Detsel recording of "Precious Desire." There is dual appeal to many country and western fans as well as pop.

Johnny Mathis is perhaps one of the most promising of the new artists. Big predictions are being made concerning his latest, "Chances Are." His appeal isn't on the Elvis Presley or the Pat Boone levels. Elvis is pure rebellion, while Pat is the boy-next-door. The one appeal that Mathis might be said to rely on is his air of graspable mystery. He is the nearest to a Frank Sinatra type to emerge in a long while.

Jimmy Saka on Dot sings "Cabin of Dreams," accompanied by Billy Vaughn's orchestra. This release isn't to be confused with Pat Boone's "Cabin in the Sky," which is a revival of an oldie.

A high appeal to rock and roll fans is the latest recording by Elroy Detsel, "Teen Age Ball." A steady beat set by steel guitar sets the fast pace.

Best by far by Guy Mitchell is his latest Columbia recording "Cure For the Blues." Patterned to suit the tastes of all younger fans, the disc features chorus in background, definite beat, and lyric pattern that is THE thing, at present.

CINEMA COMMENT

By BOB SMITH

Big news for some teen-agers. Elvis Presley comes this week in his second motion picture, "Loving You." He does a fairly good job of acting, showing promise of something even better if he can ever outlive his reputation of twisting torso and froggy voice. And he shows in his latest film that he can actually sing, too—when he wants to.

There's a slew of grade B horror films on tap this week. "Curse of Frankenstein" is a completely re-written version of the original yarn, but I doubt if it can be much improved thereby. The original was something of a classic. Another that, you may be sure, will have good acting from at least one of the principals is "X the Unknown," starring Dean Jagger.

Other viewing:

Bowery Boys triple header. Added laughs from a 3 Stooges comedy.

"Abandon Ship." True story of a sea captain who had to dump excess human cargo from a lifeboat to save the other survivors of a shipwreck.

"Gentlemen Marry Brunettes." The hilarious answer to the famous "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

"The Rainmaker." Lancaster and Hepburn in a light-hearted fairy tale.

"The Brave One" is the sleeper of the year. If you want a real surprise, go see it.

'Abandon Ship' Returns At Sahara

"Abandon Ship," a film based on a true event, returns Tuesday and Wednesday to the screen of the Sahara Drive-In Theatre.

Tyrone Power is starred as the captain of a luxury liner which hits a derelict mine. The lifeboat was designed to carry no more than 12 people, but there are 26 survivors who try to crowd aboard.

Lloyd Nolan is co-starred as the first mate who reminds his captain that there is only one decision he can make, and then casts himself overboard. Power then is faced with the decision of which of the survivors he must choose to cast adrift. He finds he must carry out his decisions at the point of a gun.

Jagger Stars In Science Movie

Veteran character actor Dean Jagger tries his hand at science fiction in "X the Unknown," showing Thursday through Saturday at the Ritz Theatre.

The story centers about an unknown evil arising from the center of the earth, a creature that is seen only at the end of the film. Jagger, as a leading scientist, is called upon to investigate a fissure that opens in a lonely Scottish moor. The fog-shrouded chasm seems to go to the far depths of the earth, and he soon discovers that an indescribably evil force has been loosed from the earth's center.

A wave of fear sweeps through the countryside as the unknown force, born of a hidden radioactivity, wreaks its destruction.

Oh, Horrors!

The newly-created Frankenstein monster (Christopher Lee) awaits his day of glory in this scene from a re-written version of the original Frankenstein story, "The Curse of Frankenstein," showing Thursday through Saturday at the Ritz Theatre. Peter Cushing (center) is seen as the mad genius, Dr. Frankenstein, and Robert Urquhart as his assistant.

Presley Musical To Appear At Ritz

"Loving You," Elvis Presley's first big color musical, plays Sunday through Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre.

The story concerns the fortunes of a once-famous band led by Wendell Corey. Its ambitious press agent, played by Elizabeth Scott, discovers Presley in a small town and figures him to be a top attraction. Complications set in as the inexperienced youngster falls in love with Miss Scott, and then cannot handle his quick rise to fame. He finally rebels when a publicity stunt backfires.

Jana Lund and Dolores Hart also furnish romantic interest. Presley is backed in his singing by the Jordanaires Quartet.

The songs Presley sings include: "Loving You," "Hot Dog," "Lonesome Cowboy," "Let Me Be Your Teddy Bear," "Got a Lot of Livin' to Do," "Mean Woman Blues" and "Let's Have a Party."

At least one scene is said by studio press agents to have been realistic. This is a tavern scene in which Presley is forced into a fight by a young tough. Presley broke a finger and the other youth sustained a bloody-mouth.

Belafonte Raking In A Fortune

HOLLYWOOD (#)—Harry Belafonte may sound like a troubled man on some of his records. But if he has any troubles, they aren't financial. He's going to make about a million dollars in 1957.

The young singer-actor says he's already got $780,000 coming for public appearances and from sales of his records this year. His summer tour alone, which opened June 5 and ends Sept. 1, will bring in more than $400,000.

Angelo Books Top Programs This Season

SAN ANGELO — Costliest series of attractions in its 27-year history is boasted by the San Angelo College Entertainment Association for its 1957-58 program. The growing demand for top-rated programs in West Texas influenced the Association to book six notable attractions.

The San Angelo series is unique in that all attractions are presented two nights in Municipal Auditorium, so that sufficient number of seats can be sold to justify the expense of the series.

The local association's series last year was self-sustaining, and indications are that the capacity of the auditorium will be sold this year. Season tickets are now available, and will be until September 21. Tickets are priced at $14.75 for adults and $6.50 for students, for the six attractions, and may be obtained by writing the San Angelo College Entertainment Association at Box 1335, San Angelo.

Attractions this season are: October 11-12—"The Rivalry"; the famed Lincoln-Douglas debates (in costume) with Raymond Massey, Agnes Moorehead and Brian Donlevy.

October 28-29—NBC Opera Company; "La Traviata," the first night and "Marriage Of Figaro," second night. Entirely in English. November 7-8—Paanini Quartet.

January 23-24—Robert Merrill, Metropolitan Opera baritone.

March 17-18—National Ballet of Canada; company of 70, with orchestra.

March 24-25—"No Time For Sergeants," the Broadway comedy hit.

Meandering Minnesotans

NEW YORK (#)—Student-actors from the University of Minnesota are being sent abroad as the first college drama group representing American art under the international culture exchange program.

The theater company is to tour Brazil in two plays, Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" and Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

The exchange program is administered here by the American National Theater and Academy.

'Sierra Stranger'

Howard Duff is starred in "Sierra Stranger" showing Tuesday and Wednesday at the Sahara Drive-In Theatre. He is seen as a stranger who enters a gold-mad town to stake out his claim and is accused of being a claim-jumper. Barton MacLane takes on the villainous chores.

Belafonte Raking In A Fortune
HOLLYWOOD (#)—Harry Belafonte may sound like a troubled man on some of his records. But if he has any troubles, they aren't financial. He's going to make about a million dollars in 1957. The young singer-actor says he's already got $780,000 coming for public appearances and from sales of his records this year. His summer tour alone, which opened June 5 and ends Sept. 1, will bring in more than $400,000.

Diplomas, caps, stripes and pins were presented to members of the class of Licensed Vocational Nurses at the Medical Arts Clinic Saturday evening. Shown, from left to right, are Mrs. Charles Wesley Hilliard, Mrs. Willie Lee Butler, Mrs. William O. Barnard, Mrs. Carl McKee Jr. and Mrs. Faye Nix. Presentation was made by Dr. Neil Sanders, while Mrs. Haley Haynes presented caps to another group in training.

Graduation Held For LVN Class

Graduation exercises were held Saturday evening for a class of Licensed Vocational Nurses at the Medical Arts Clinic.

Caps, pins, stripes and diplomas were presented by Dr. Neil Sanders to Mrs. Willard O. Barnard, Mrs. Willie Lee Butler, Mrs. Charles Wesley Hilliard, Mrs. Carl McKee Jr., and Mrs. Faye Nix.

Presentation of caps was made by Mrs. Haley Haynes to Mrs. Grady Mason, Mrs. Ross Smith, Mrs. Harold Turner, Mrs. Sherman Whitaker, Mrs. Jack Bennett, Mrs. Joe Mata, Mrs. Joanne Wiley and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave the invocation, and the benediction was pronounced by Doyle Maynard, minister of the Northside Church of Christ.

Speaker of the evening was Maj. Henry Wolk of Webb Air Force Base.

Summer Soup

Buy thrifty chicken back and necks—if there is a shop that sells chicken parts near you—and use to make good strong stock for chilled summer soups. Clarify the stock before combining.

Child Study Club Plans Anniversary

Members of the Child Study Club will observe the 20th anniversary of the founding of the club on Sept. 19, with a tea in the home of Mrs. Akin Simpson, 1600 Indian Hills.

At that time, all past presidents of the club will be honored, along with all former members.

An attempt is being made to get in touch with every woman who has been a member of the club; those who have not been called are asked to call Mrs. Wayland Yates, AM 4-6238, or Mrs. Charles Sweeney, AM 4-6673.

Aqua Tissues To Be Placed On Market

Aqua, a new color in tissues, will be introduced nationally in September, it has been announced. The new shade was developed as a dual-purpose color that would harmonize with modern decorating trends. The soft blue-green tones of aqua blend in any room predominating in either of these colors.

Tissues will now be available in four colors, pink, white, yellow and the new aqua in both 200 and 400 packs.

Labor Day Vacations Make News At Cosden

Couples who plan to spend the holiday with friends and relatives are: Mr. and Mrs. Dean Simpson, in San Antonio visiting Dean's mother and father; Mr. and Mrs. Ted McClung, Texarkana; and the John Hill family, Grandbury.

Doug Orme is also vacationing. He is spending a few days at Ruidoso, N. M.

The steno section hated to see Kay Bonifield leave this week, but we are glad she is happy in her new job at the refinery. She will be taking Loreine Walker's place since Loreine has decided to become a "lady of leisure."

We are glad to welcome Albert Mason back to work after a long illness.

Out of town on business this week are J. T. Johnson and Bob Kaiser. They are in Abilene.

Visitors over the long weekend include Mary Archer's sister, Carol, from Seminole and Mrs. Harry D. Logan from California. Coming from Houston will be N. Emile Zachariah, brother of George Zachariah, and his wife, Helen.

Welcome a newcomer, Mrs. William Wietkamp, into the Cosden "family." She will be in Harmon Smith's office.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quigley have had some visitors this week. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle McClain, Michael and Richard, Averil's brother and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frederick are going to New Orleans for their vacation. Have on!

Also going on vacation will be Marguerite Cooper. She plans to go with her sister and brother-in-law, the L. A. Plowmans, to Colorado and New Mexico.

Claudia Reed, who had planned to stay at home on her vacation, has had a change in plans—she is now in California.

Among the group going to Possum Kingdom for play and leisure over the Labor Day weekend will be: Mr. and Mrs. Dee Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Lawrence Jr., John Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Caldwell, Sam Hefner, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Weaver.

A lot of people will be fishing this weekend but Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hood have challenged them all as to who will catch the biggest one. They will be in Brownwood.

We will hate to lose Mrs. Robert Green this week, but congratulations are in store for her husband, who is in the latest graduating class at Webb AFB.

Knit News

Knits are popular for fall in all variations—wool, cotton or silk, in one-and-two-piece dresses, coats and sweaters. College girls love them, being especially fond of the new cotton knits which are so easy to launder, don't sag and keep their shape after washing.
