Hightower to headline TCGA meet

Texas Dept. of Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower will headline the thirteenth annual Texas Corn Growers Association meeting Monday at the Expo Building in Dimmitt.

Other featured speakers will include Frank Ford of Arrowhead Mills in Hereford and State Sen. Bill Sarpalius of Canyon.

Also scheduled to appear are Fred Lundgren and Bart Kaderly of TDA, American Agriculture director Marion Garland, Leisa Boley and Dr. Pat Morrison.

The meeting will begin at 9:30 Monday morning with a report by Weldon Davis, chairman of the Texas Corn Producers Board, on TCPB's 1985 activities, and a welcome and president's report by Carl King, head of TCGA.

Ag Commissioner Jim Hightower

"There probably won't be a whole lot of good news, but there's not much good news around," King said. "We know it's going to be a good meeting, though."

Lundgren, a lobbyist for TDA, will give a report on farm legislation, followed by Garland, an active force in AAM and an outspoken opponent of current farm programs.

Boley will give a report on "Agriculture in the Classroom," while Kaderly, a former Dimmitt-area farmer, will focus on TDA's marketing efforts in the US and abroad, including special efforts with TCGA.

Ford, who owns and operates Arrowhead Mills of Hereford, has, like Garland, been an outspoken opponent of recent policy and has also been a leader in the fight against a possible nuclear waste dump in this region.

"Frank's also worried about how big grain companies have been ripping us off," King said, "and he'll probably talk about that."

State Senator Bill Sarpalius

Sarpalius will outline programs recently implemented by the constitutional amendments approved by Texas voters last November and look at other steps the state government has taken to help farmers as well as future programs.

Hightower is making his second appearance in three years, at the TCGA meeting. Last time, in 1984, Hightower criticized policy makers despite the presence of Deputy Assistant Secretary of Agriculture John Ford, who had been one of the authors of the 1983 payment-in-kind (PIK) program.

Hightower accused policy makers, economists and bureaucrats of ignoring the problems of farmers, while Ford, in turn, said Hightower had not gotten to the specifics about how to achieve a recovery.

The commissioner later endorsed a plan similar to King's supply management program, but neither program received much consideration in the final 1985 Farm Bill passed by Congress last month.

A free lunch, catered by Savage's Hickory Pit Barbecue of Hereford, will be served at 12:30 p.m. following Hightower's speech. During the course of reports in the afternoon session, $500 will be given away to TCGA members.

In a sense, all of us were riding with the seven astronauts aboard the Challenger space shuttle when it exploded 10 miles above the earth Tuesday morning.

It was probably the most-watched space mission in months because it included a person we could all relate to—our first school teacher in space, Christa McAuliffe, who was making the "ultimate field trip."

We can total up the loss in hardware, technology and time. But there's no way to place a tangible value on those seven exceptional people who perished in the tragedy.

We can at least be consoled by the fact that the five men and two women aboard the Challenger DID know the danger, and accepted the risk. They had what is popularly known as "the right stuff," and were akin to Teddy Roosevelt's "man who is actually in the arena, who, if he succeeds, realizes the thrill of high accomplishment, and who, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who knew neither victory nor defeat."

School discipline meeting is tonight

A public meeting to discuss the new discipline management for the Dimmitt schools will be held tonight at 7 p.m. at the Dimmitt High School auditorium.

Representatives from all segments of the local education community were involved in the development and review of the plan, and selected teachers, administrators, students and parents from each campus formed a committee which reviewed and approved the plan.

The public meeting is the next step in the implementation of the newly-formed plan, and is being held so all interested parents, students, administrators and teachers will have an opportunity to review the plan before expected approval by the Dimmitt School Board at its Feb. 10 meeting.

The plan contains very few changes in present school discipline policy. It spells out the rights and responsibilities of students, parents, teachers and administrators. The plan also schedules parent training workshops in assertive discipline, study skills, language arts and mathematics during the early part of the 1986-87 school year.

Many of the items covered by the plan are entailed in the student handbook provided to all Dimmitt school students at the beginning of the school year, but also includes discipline plans for handicapped students and other areas not included in the student handbook, including steps that will be taken by teachers and administrators.

Copies of the plan are available for public review at the School Administration Building at 608 W. Halsell.

AFS plans special weekend

Four AFS exchange students spending this school year in the Panhandle will be visiting Dimmitt today through Sunday during the annual AFS weekend, sponsored by the local chapter.

Paula Hurrell, who is attending Dimmitt High School this year, will be staying with the Arlie Petty's. The native of South Australia has been staying with the Richard Bennett family.

Sonya Adamovic of Yugoslavia, who is attending Caprock High School, will be staying with Robert and Marty Benton.

Holland's Sandra Wymen, attending Friona High School, will spend the weekend with Harold and Martha Jo Hyman.

Lynette Visagie of South Africa, attending Pampa High School this year, will stay with the Chuck Braafladt's.

The four will attend classes in Dimmitt Friday, and will be special guests at the Dimmitt-Hartley basketball games Friday and attend the dance after the game Friday.

Saturday, they will have lunch at the home of Doug and Cheryl Pybus, and will be feted at a hamburger supper at First United Methodist Church Saturday night before returning to their host families Sunday.

Tree ceremony planned Friday

Castro County's first official Sesquicentennial event will take place Friday as two commemorative oak trees will be planted on the Castro County Courthouse lawn.

The ceremony will begin at 9:30 a.m. on the lawn's north-west corner, near the Ozark Trail marker. Master of ceremonies will be county Sesquicentennial chairman Linda Maxwell. County Commissioners and County Judge Polly Simpson will be special guests. The trees are a Shumard oak, a red oak, donated by the Texas Forest Service, and a Heritage Live Oak, donated by Storm Nursery of Tremont. Both trees were donated free to the county committee.

TFS has been growing the trees for two years as a special project for the state's birthday. Similar trees are being planted in 247 Texas counties.

All persons are urged to attend the ceremony.

Monday is filing deadline

Feb. 3 is the last day to file for places on the May 3 Democrat and Republican primaries, according to county chairman Oscar Wylie and Deanne Clark.

So far, only one person has filed for a county office with Clark, the Republican chairman. Sam Burke has announced his intention to seek office as constable. He has no Democrat counterpart to date.

County offices up for election this year include county judge, commissioners for Precincts 2 and 4, county-district clerk, county treasurer, justice of the peace and county surveyor, as well as party precinct chairmen and county chairmen for the political parties.

"All candidates wishing to file must have their applications in the hands of the county chairmen by 6 p.m. Feb. 3," Wylie, Democrat county chairman, said. "That doesn't mean postmarked, that means in the chairman's possession."

Clark reminded voters to "sign only those petitions for candidates running in the party in which you plan to vote in the May 3 primary. For example, do not sign a Republican petition if you plan to vote in the Democrat primary, and vice versa."

It is a punishable offense to sign a petition for a candidate in one party and then vote in another party's primary.

Stanley Schaeffer, B. M. Nelson and Sue Broderson were named the city's premiere citizens at last Thursday's annual Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce banquet at the Expo Building.

A crowd of over 350 were on hand for the annual affair and heard speaker Bill Coplin, as R. J. Saxet, deliver a humorous address, relating many of Saxet's monetary wheeling and dealing.

Chamber President Gene King, who was recently elected to a second-straight term, introduced all present and incoming directors while honoring outgoing directors Joe Josselet, Calvin Marsh and Martha Hyman.

Also honored at the banquet was Interwest Savings, which has undergone a recent facelift project, by the Mayor's Council for City Beautification. MCCB head Dorothy Hopson presented a plaque to Interwest manager Joe King.

Schaeffer, Citizen of the Year, was presented by Jodie Minnick, who recounted the criteria for the honor including service to the community, performance beyond expectations and business and personal success.

Schaeffer moved to Dimmitt in late 1958 and started his accounting firm, now known as Schaeffer, Sutton and Schaeffer.

"He's well-respected wherever he goes," Minnick said, "and he knows a lot of people, and a lot of people know him. He's been active in the Chamber, with the city and with his church (First Baptist Church), serving on boards and acting in advisory capacities."

"He's also an advisor and mentor to friends and young people. They come and ask for his advice, and they use it."

Schaeffer has also been a "great supporter of our schools and our teams," Minnick said, and recounted how he "didn't know about purple and white mania when I first moved here, but Stanley took me to a game in Tulia through a blinding blizzard. I told Stanley I didn't think anyone would be there, but, of course the gym was full. You can count on your fingers how many games he's missed since he's been here."

Minnick said Schaeffer "has been a great success in business with a high code of ethics," and recounted how he has quietly gone around to support young people any way he could, "but many times he asked for no recognition."

Schaeffer, in accepting the award, said "it is a great honor, but this belongs to my family, especially to my beautiful wife, Geneva."

Nelson, Citizen Through the Years, was presented by longtime friend and associate Joe Cowen.

Nelson has been a Dimmitt resident for 42 years and was the longtime publisher and editor of the News.

"You can't point to a single improvement in the last 42 years without him being at the forefront," Cowen said. "He has served the people with a devotion and unrelenting enthusiasm that is nothing short of amazing."

Nelson was one of the founders of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce, which is now the Dimmitt chamber, Jean Christian was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club that met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch and a fun day of bridge. Johnnie Vannoy won high score and Loranel Hamilton won second high. Others playing were: Oleda Schumacher, Elizabeth Huckabay, Bernice Hill, Alice Collyer, Louise Mears, Faun Welker, Edith Graef, Ferne Dickey, Jo Gregory, Opha Burks, Susie Reeves, Cleo Forson and Sal DiCuffa.

"Reflections of Dimmitt" was the theme for the Chamber of Commerce banquet on Thursday night with Gerald Hanners as the emcee. The tables were pretty as they were decorated in purple and white, purple candles surrounded by white angel hair and shredded purple paper, and a huge backdrop behind the speakers' tables that showed the skyline of Dimmitt.

Nolan Froehner and the "Sims' Kids" furnished the dinner music. Kristi and Tim played several selections on the piano and Matt sang the pledge of allegiance to the flag. They are so talented!

Joe Cowen's introduction for the "Citizen Through the Years" (B. M. Nelson) was as entertaining as the guest speaker's address. All those who received awards were very deserving — B. M. Nelson, Sue Broderson for Teacher of the Year, Stanley Schaeffer for Citizen of the Year and Delores Heller for the good work she does as manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Bill Coplin (R. J. Saxet—Texas) from St. Louis gave the banquet address, and he, like all other after-dinner speakers, told many humorous stories and jokes but ended with some good thoughts — one I liked was how can we expect the youth to live right when some of the parents set a bad example before them.

What a difference a toupee makes! Mr. Coplin looked like a different man when he removed his toupee and he really surprised the audience.

Members of the Girl Scout Troop #96 were out hiking on Tuesday afternoon so they stopped by the Castro County Museum for a short tour. Members and their sponsors were: Jan Waggoner, Kristie Kinser, Christina Velasquez, Michelle Flores, Asha Patel, Mary Helen Flores and Gracie Abrego.

All Castro County Museum Board members are urged to be present at the next meeting on Thursday, Jan. 30, at 7 p.m. at the Museum.

Eric and Cathryn Ekern have a baby girl named Michele Lee.

Rick and Darena Bentley have a new baby.

The U.M.W. had charge of the services at the United Methodist Church on Sunday. Susan Hanners had charge of the children's sermon.

The Coles and Youngs had a great time last week at the Texas Evangelism conference. In route they stopped for an overnight stay at Jerry and Joan Blackwell's home in Vernon. The Blackwells were patiently waiting for their guests when the clock struck midnight and the weary travelers arrived. Up early the next morning and with a good breakfast, the Coles and Youngs were on their way to three days of great preaching and singing in Fort Worth. Speakers for the three-day meeting included Gov. Mark White, Landrum Leavell, president of New Orleans Seminary and many others.

A good word was heard from Jerry Clower, that great country funny man. Jerry stressed that all Christians should share their faith in Jesus Christ and not be ashamed of the gospel. Some of the outstanding soloists were Mary Ann Kirtley of Houston and Kim Wickes of Korea.

Larry and Tammy Allison have been visiting their families, Judge and Dolores Baldrige and Lee and Doris Ward while on leave. Larry is now in the Air Force and has completed his technical schooling in aircraft electronics at Chantute Air Force Base in Illinois. Larry's next assignment is in Frankfurt, Germany, at Rhein — Main Air Base and he will be on tour for three years. Larry and Tammy have enjoyed visiting friends and relatives and are looking forward to their new home in Germany.

The dedication service for the new organ at the FBC was cancelled due to the fact that the organ refused to play on Sunday morning. A later date will be announced.

Since some of us had invited our out-of-town relatives to come for the organ concert and for Sunday dinner, we didn't cancel our meal. Bill, Mary Lynn and Lauren Lankford were my guests.

Mauzee Youts had invited her relatives from Amarillo and Dimmitt, so they came for dinner anyway — Gerald and Janice Davis and children Brad and Lindsay from Amarillo, (Janice was scheduled to play some selections on the piano with David Lowe on the organ), Susie Bell and children Kacie and Caleb, Bob and Phyllis Mooney, and Clara Gladden.

Connie Ivey honored Oleta Walser on her birthday with a luncheon at K-Bob's on Jan. 20. Other members present were: Ruth Hays, Geneva Dennis, Hazel Bagwell and Thelma Bryson.

Betty Huckabay entertained the Saturday night bridge club in her home. Members and guests were: Fred and Ramona Annen, Garnett and Polly Holland, Kenneth Jackson, Cecil Crum, Faun Welker, Carolyn Jones, Brenda Andrews and Jim Truitt from Dallas and V. C. and Dorothy Hopson.

Curtis and Marie Tate spent a few days with her mother, Maude Kay, who has been quite ill, but was much improved when they left. The Tates came by Perryton on their way home to visit Curtis' sister Lorene and Rolla Truax.

Guy and Oleta Walser went to Lubbock on Friday to enjoy a fun day with Bennie Gollehon while he was there rehearsing and directing one of the all-district bands. Bennie is administrator of Fine Arts in Baytown. While they were in Lubbock they had lunch with Kyle and Flo Touchstone and boys, Tanner, Tye and Trey, and Houston and Doris Lust.

Nell Kenmore, a former Dimmitt resident, attended prayer meeting at FBC on Wednesday night and spent the night with V. C. and Dorothy Hopson. Nell went by Muleshoe to visit her son Ronnie Kenmore and family, Connie, Kyle and Kendra, before returning to her home in Lubbock.

Local boy makes good! Tobin Touchstone was on "The Price is Right" panel show last week so we are looking forward to seeing the program when it is on the air, probably sometime in March.

A reception for the new choir officers at FBC was held on Saturday night in fellowship hall. About 50 choir members and their families enjoyed finger food, sandwiches, dips and chips, and desserts, and board games. Richard Young is the choir director, Jim Murphree, president, Roy Dudgeon, vice president, Carol Lantz, secretary-treasurer, Roberta Cole, benevolence chairman, and Faye Tilley, recreation chairman.

Dorothy Hopson and Stan Byrnes, chairmen for this area, were invited to a training session in Amarillo to organize their campaign. This session was held at the City Bank in Amarillo with Ann Whittenburg, who is the area chairman for Kent Hance Campaign, presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Love from Amarillo brought dinner to their daughter, Jane (Continued on Page 3)

Precious SIGHT

No price is too high to pay to protect the eyesight of ourselves and our children. Good eyesight is an absolute necessity in the earning of our livelihood, in the school work of our children, and in the enjoyment of all of life.

But there is another type of sight which in these times is often neglected — spiritual sight. We and our children need to be established and grounded in the love of God and His commandments, and to rely on Him. We need to meet His requirement of loving our neighbors as ourselves, thus making a better home life, community life and a better world. Psalms 34:8 reads, "O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in Him." Attend the church of your choice

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

We Salute

Stanley Schaeffer
B. M. Nelson
Sue Broderson

The Chamber of Commerce paid tribute to some very valuable people in our community at its annual banquet last Thursday night.

Stanley Schaeffer, Citizen of the Year, has become a pillar of our community through his positive support of its projects and activities. In addition to being an avid fan of Dimmitt High School's teams, he has worked tirelessly on such projects as airport improvement, the baseball parks, the junior baseball and basketball programs, the Junior Livestock Show, school improvements and many other activities that have enhanced the quality of life in our community.

B. M. Nelson, Citizen Through the Years, has been one of Dimmitt's main boosters and workers for more than four decades. He helped establish our first public hospital, and later gave it its present name, Plains Memorial. He helped establish the vegetable industry here. He led successful campaigns for better highways and roads, better schools, more diversified agriculture and industry. Our community will always bear the indelible, and progressive, marks of his work.

Sue Broderson, Teacher of the Year, has contributed to the beauty of our community in many ways, taking her art students throughout town to add colorful, unique touches. She has been a community builder, too, with imagination and inspiration as her main building blocks. Her students will lead fuller, richer lives because of her, and our community will be the better for it, for years to come.

We salute each of you. May we all carry on your commitment, enthusiasm, dedication and positive attitudes.

Behrends, to help her celebrate her birthday last week. Others enjoying the delicious meal of turkey and dressing and all the other good food were: David Behrends, Donna Behrends, and Mrs. Andy Behrends.

Bob and Lavelle Mapes from Walsenburg, Colo. visited her parents, Elzie and Sarena Teague, last week, then on to San Angelo to visit friends, then from there they went to San Antonio for the Stock Show. They travel in a beautiful motor home!

Deanne Clark had a wonderful trip to Albuquerque, N.M. where a longtime friend, Bobby Baldock, was sworn in as Judge of the 10th Circuit Appeals in New Mexico. It was a very impressive ceremony. Deanne was a guest in the home of the Baldocks since they were childhood friends in Roswell, N.M. Many parties were held in honor of Judge Baldock, including a party honoring him on his 50th birthday.

Deanne was privileged to attend services on Sunday at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church where David Hunt spoke. Mr. Hunt wrote the book "The Seduction of Christianity."

A surprise birthday luncheon was held for Deanne Clark at K-Bob's with about 25 well wishers attending. A cake was served and many cards were presented to Deanne. SHE IS NOT 50!

Elbert and Frances Smith took Debbie Tilley and Shawn Stanton to Littlefield for the fantastic program, a musical play, entitled "Grandpa." There were several characters, the mother and dad, son and daughter, postman, neighbor couple, and the administrator from the nursing home, concerning everyday family living. Frances reported the play was so good she would like to see it again! Maybe it will be in Dimmitt sometime! If so, we will want to see it.

Bobby and Wanda Murdock took J. O. and Mattie Seale and Yours Truly to the basketball game at Friona on Friday night. Both girls and boys games were exciting. The girls lost by two points and the boys scored 98.

I visited with Jean DuLaney from Austin at the ballgame. She was visiting her son, Stanley Byrnes, and her daughter, Poppy Head, from Hereford. Jean would like for her friends to give me their news for "On The Go" — she said for people living out of town, they really appreciate all the news in the hometown paper!

Several friends from out of town went to Friona Sunday to attend a double birthday dinner in the home of Decimae Beene. Ann Marie Ramey of Amarillo was celebrating her 16th birthday and Jon Parker of Friona was 11 years old. Each had a birthday cake, beautifully decorated. There were two tables of their friends. Present from Friona was Wana Brewer, Lillian Williams, Ralph and Jeanette Thurman, June Floyd, Edith Johnson, Brent Beene, Ada Ruth Crager of Canyon, Emily Ramey of Amarillo, Beral Hance and Rose Acker. One of Ann Marie's friends was there from Amarillo.

Community Concerts Association

There will be an important meeting of the full Castro County Community Concerts Association board on Tuesday, February 4, at 7 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce office. Mrs. Mary Lloyd, our Community Concerts representative, will be present to prepare us for the upcoming Membership Drive. Vacant positions on the board will be filled at this meeting.

KENT FULFER, a sophomore at San Antonio's Madison High School, had the champion Berkshire at the Bexar County Junior Livestock Show recently. At Kent's right is Chuck Real, president of the show and breeder of the barrow. Kent is the son of Peggy and Kenneth Fulfer of San Antonio, and grandson of Faye and Dub Cline of Dimmitt and Brad and Juanita Fulfer of Hale Center, former Dimmitt residents.

On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, its directors and members, thanks to ALL who helped make the Chamber banquet possible. Many volunteers worked planning the event and serving when asked. Our printed banquet programs made mention of some of the ones to whom we are so appreciative, but there are others. Patricia Braafladt, Karen (Mrs. Don) Sheffy, Karen (Mrs. Graham) Sheffy, Ysleta Ball, Cindy Adams, Pam Josselet, Carlee Warren and Mary Nell King came on a moment's notice to help finish the decorations. Joe Shultz built our back-drop frames. Danny Newton of Newton Electric and Bob Murdock of SPS made our lighting possible. American Fructose was very helpful by allowing Charles Richard, Mel Hernandez, Duane Maurer, Reyes Sandoval Sr., Ben Luera, Harvey Lumbra and Jimmy Vaughn to set up chairs and tables and also to take down the banquet arrangements afterwards.

Special thanks to George and Carolyn Sides for hosting our banquet speaker by graciously opening their home and providing transportation for him. This note does not mention everyone by name, but please know that the banquet event is another example of how our community works together.

Our most sincere thanks,

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids and to waive any informality in bids received.

All bidders and proposers assure they will make sufficient reasonable efforts to meet the Minority Business Enterprise goals as established for the prime contract. The MBE goal for minorities is 5 percent and the goal for women is 2 percent of the dollar value of the contract.

After opening of bids, the apparent successful bidder will be required to submit the names and addresses of MBE firms that will participate in the contract along with a description of the work and dollar amount for each firm. If the responses do not clearly show MBE participation will meet the goals above, the apparent successful bidder must clearly demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the airport sponsor, that a good faith effort has in fact been made and that meeting said goals is not reasonably possible. If any apparent low bidder cannot do so, the contract may, at the option of the airport sponsor, be awarded to the next low bidder able to meet these requirements.

County to purchase voter privacy booths

County commissioners voted Monday to purchase 10 voting booths for the eight voting precincts in the county at their regular semi-monthly meeting.

New state laws that went into effect Jan. 1 to require counties to provide at least one booth at each polling place. Commissioners will place at least one booth in each of the voting locations. Voters do not have to use the booths, which will provide privacy, but the law says they must be made available if voters want to use them.

The booths will cost $280, and will be available for the May primary elections.

Commissioners discussed the purchase of a computer system for County Auditor Reeford Burrous which might also be used by the county tax assessor's office for voter registration and jury wheel selections.

The computer would free up some of Burrous' time, and would also eliminate the expense in the voter registration and jury services currently provided by KMK Enterprises in Plainview for $200 a month.

The recommendation was made by accountant Doug Ware of Brown, Graham and Co., who also made suggestions concerning the use of vehicles by county employees and use of county-owned vehicles by County Agents Seth Ralston and Curtis Preston.

Ralston also gave an update on extension office activities, including the recent Hereford stock show and upcoming shows in Dimmitt, El Paso and Houston.

Ralston said the office is also working on the results handbook for 1985 demonstration crops around the county and is planning two pesticide workshops in February.

Commissioners also approved the planting of two oak trees on the courthouse lawn (see separate story), appointed Fred Kuntz and Weldon Davis to the County Grievance Committee to replace Judith Ackner and Linda Koch, and passed a resolution supporting Hansford County in its opposition to a proposed PCB dump in the northeast Panhandle county.

Financial aid workshop set tonight

A workshop on financial aid to attend college for any interested parents and students will be held today at 7 p.m. in the Dimmitt High School cafeteria.

Linda Tinsley, assistant director of financial aid at West Texas State University in Canyon will conduct the program.

The workshop will show how to estimate the full costs of attending the colleges or vocational schools; explain the various types and sources of financial aid; explain what is needed to apply for types of financial aid and the forms that are required; explains how the financial aid process works and what to expect after filing the proper forms; and discuss the relationship of the admissions process to application for financial aid.

"Some type of financial aid is available for almost every student that goes to a college or vocational school if the student and his parents know how to pursue it," said DHS Counselor John Thomas.

'Toccatas & Flourishes' will be here Saturday night

"Toccatas & Flourishes," featuring organist Richard Morris and trumpeter Scott Thornburg, will appear in concert Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Dimmitt High School auditorium.

The concert is sponsored by the Castro County Community Concerts Association, and admittance is by membership in the Community Concerts Association. Memberships will be available at the door.

Memberships are $15 for adults, $6 for students and $35 for a family membership. Memberships in the local association will be valid for the April 15 concert featuring the Harvey Pittel Saxophone Quartet and for other concerts throughout the country sponsored by Community Concert Associations.

Toccatas & Flourishes, the nationally acclaimed organ and trumpet duo, is entering its twelfth season of extensive concerting throughout North America. Organist Richard Morris and trumpeter Scott Thornburg continue the Toccatas & Flourishes tradition of pairing first-rank performances of classical music with their own humorous musical insights, the combination that has made this one of the most popular classical attractions performing today.

Organ and trumpet concerts are frequently esoteric and limited in repertory, but a Toccatas & Flourishes concert spans more than four centuries of literature and explores the almost limitless resources of the "King of Instruments" and the regal sounds of the trumpet.

A native of Atlanta, Ga., Richard Morris began his performing career at the age of 12 as piano soloist with the Atlanta Pops Orchestra and appeared as soloist twice with the Atlanta Symphony Youth Concerts during his high school years. He received his Bachelor's degree in piano from Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla., where he studied piano with Thomas Brockman and organ with Catherine Crozier.

A scholarship enabled him to study in France with Nadia Boulanger and Robert and Jean Casadesu, and a Fulbright grant took him to the Academy for Music in Vienna for further study. After he returned to the US in 1965, he earned the degree of Master of Divinity and spent several years as a parish priest.

He resumed his musical career as an organist in 1973, largely through the influence and encouragement of the late Virgil Fox, who coached him in repertory for several years. Morris is one of a very small number of organists to have appeared in recital at Carnegie Hall in New York City, as well as Town Hall and Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall.

He has also appeared three times on NBC's Today Show with Toccatas & Flourishes,

TOCCATAS & FLOURISHES
... Organist Richard Morris and trumpeter Scott Thornburg will perform at DHS auditorium Saturday night.

and on four occasions at Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C., including the special Concert Series celebrating the Inauguration of former President Carter. He has recorded for Klavier Records, New World Records, Crystal Records (direct-to-disc with the Atlanta Symphony Brass and Percussion Ensemble) and T & F

Records. In autumn 1983, he released a new album of Christmas music for organ, In Dulci Jubilo, and Volume III of Toccatas & Flourishes under his own R & R label.

Trumpeter Scott Thornburg is an active and sought-after musician throughout New York City and the surrounding area. He has often performed as solosit with orchestra, including engagements with American Symphony Orchestra, American Chamber Orchestra, New Haven Symphony, Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic, Philharmonia Virtuosi and Musica Aeterna.

Social Security ...in Castro County

People who failed to sign up for the medical insurance part of Medicare when they were first eligible, or who dropped out, may enroll now through March 31 at any Social Security office. Coverage begins July 1.

Medicare hospital and medical insurance is available to almost everyone at age 65, to disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to Social Security disability benefits for at least 24 months, and to most people with permanent kidney failure. Nine out of ten eligible people are enrolled.

Medicare's medical insurance supplements medicare hospital insurance which is funded by part of the social security taxes paid by employers, employees, and self-employed people. Medical insurance helps pay doctor's bills and other medical expenses not covered by hospital insurance. It is funded by individual monthly premiums paid by those who enroll and by federal general revenues. The basic premium is $15.50 a month for 1986. In general, the basic monthly premium is increased by 10% for each year a person could have had medical insurance but did not.

People 65 and over who are not eligible for social security or railroad retirement benefits can get medicare hospital insurance by enrolling and paying a monthly premium. The monthly premium for these people is $214 for 1986. People who buy hospital insurance must also sign up for the medical insurance part of medicare and pay the monthly premium.

It should be noted that people do not have to retire to get medicare coverage. On approaching 65, people who want the coverage but wish to continue working may sign up at any social security office and have their coverage begin with the month they reach 65.

Teachers urged to prepare for TECAT test

All certified teachers who are not currently employed but who may wish to teach in the future are urged to prepare for the TECAT tests that will be administered beginning April 12.

Teachers must pass the TECAT in order to be employed in public education after June 30, 1986. The test will also be given June 28, July 12 and Oct. 4 of this year, and the first Saturday in February, June and October of 1987.

Registration materials may be obtained from Nancy West at the Dimmitt School Administration Building at 608 W. Halsell in Dimmitt.

Squaws bounce back, beat Bobbies Friday

When the Dimmitt Bobbies led 14-4 after the first quarter of their game against the Squaws at Friona Friday, it looked as though the game was in the bag.

"We lost our intensity," explained Dimmitt coach Richard Wood after the Bobbies had fallen 43-42. "If we played the whole game with the intensity we showed in the first nine minutes and the last two minutes of the game, we could have won going away. But we didn't keep our intensity up where we should have, and let them take it away from us."

The Bobbies mounted their lead with a super-tough defense that forced eight turnovers and featured two Becky Schroeder shot blocks, while the Bobbies had just one turnover while shooting 6-of-14 from the field.

Molly Waggoner hit an early second quarter basket to give the Dimmitt girls a 16-4 lead before Friona came back to tie the game at 19-all with 4:09 left in the second period. Friona never led during the quarter, but the Bobbies could never get more than two points ahead, and the teams were tied at halftime at 23.

Friona dominated the boards in the middle part of the game. Dimmitt got just one rebound in the second quarter, while the Squaws limited the Bobbies to just four caroms in the third quarter. The teams traded baskets for most of the period before Friona mounted a four-point edge by the end of the quarter, 33-29.

Friona scored the game's next four points as both teams were sluggish on offense. It took Friona almost four minutes to score those four points as each team tried to fight off foul problems. Ronda Ratcliff, who seemed as if she had started the game with four fouls, scored all four points in the first part of the fourth quarter before she committed her fifth foul with two minutes left.

"We could have given up right then," Wood said of his team's eight point deficit, 37-29, "but we came back and tied it, but we couldn't hit a basket when we got back in, and we sure couldn't hit a free throw."

The Bobbies had plenty of chances, including an eight point run in less than a minute that knotted the score at 37. The teams traded points, and Dimmitt never was able to get an advantage over the Squaws. The score was tied at 39 and 41, then Friona scored with 10 seconds left to go up 43-41.

Becky Schroeder was fouled with four seconds left and hit her first free throw to pull the Bobbies to within one at 43-42. Friona called time out, then Schroeder missed the second shot of the one-and-one. The squaws took the rebound and were fouled with one second left.

The free throw was missed, but the Bobbies couldn't get another shot at the basket.

The Bobbies were 10-of-17 from the line, but six of the seven misses came in the fourth quarter when the Dimmitt girls made just five of 11 free throw chances, including four on the front end of one-and-one opportunities.

"We're still in the thick of it," Wood told the Bobbies after the game. "We've already beaten Tulia once, and I think we can do it again. Friona's got some tough games left, but I really think our chances are good in the second half without a whole lot of help from anyone."

County teams up rankings

Nazareth's Swiftettes maintained their top ranking in Class A while two other county teams moved up in this week's Texas Association of Basketball Coaches-Lubbock Avalanche-Journal high school basketball poll.

The Swiftettes, 18-4, have been ranked atop the Class A poll all season.

The Nazareth boys, 16-6, moved from eighth to sixth in this week's boys Class A poll.

Dimmitt, 22-5 after last night's win over Muleshoe, jumped one spot from seventh to sixth.

One former Dimmitt Bobcat also has a top 10 team in the TABC-LAJ poll—Rocky Rawls, who has guided Bronte to an 18-0 record so far, was ranked tenth in Class A last week, and moved to ninth in this week's poll.

Hanners wins scholarship

Gerald Hanners, director of development for Castro County Economic Development Commission, has been awarded a scholarship from Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS) to an economic development course at Texas A&M University at College Station March 9-14.

Gerald Hanners

Hanners, who has been involved in Castro County's economic development efforts for the past 1 1/2 years, will receive intensive training in "the nuts and bolts of preparing an area for an economic development program, prospecting, and stimulating client interest in the area," said Jon Krebs, SPS manager of economic development.

SPS awarded three tuition-and-travel scholarships to economic development courses this year, Krebs said. Scholarships also were awarded to Toni Eagle, Chamber of Commerce manager at Muleshoe, and to Claude Peterson, a City of Tucumcari, N.M. program specialist. The three were chosen from a field of 13 applicants, Krebs said. Judging in the scholarship contest was by economic development specialists at Shreveport, La., and Midland and Austin, Tex.

Hanners, in his scholarship application, pointed out that his job is to help create jobs industry in the county.

Hanners said, "The Basic Economic Development Course will contribute to my growth as a professional in the field and will be valuable in meeting the objectives that have been established for our Economic Development Commission. My community has been impacted by depressed agricultural conditions, and we are seeking solutions for our economic problems. I want to learn!"

The travel-and-tuition scholarships are representative of SPS' commitment to economic development of its service area, Krebs said.

SPS primarily provides electric service to a population of about one million in a 52,000-square-mile area in eastern and southeastern New Mexico, the south plains and the Panhandle of Texas, the Panhandle of Oklahoma, and southwestern Kansas.

Babbling Brooks

By JOHN BROOKS

In times of trouble, people have to adjust. And, like a Phoenix rising from the ashes of the fire, Bessie Elder is determined to make the best of a seemingly bad situation.

Bessie's gone back to school — to college, even though she never graduated high school, and is planning to become a pharmacist.

It was kind of a "have-to" thing. The way of life for Bessie and her husband, George, on their farm north of Dimmitt had become, like for many farm families, a little worse year by year. "Our way of life is just about gone," Bessie told Chris Kinyon of The Daily Oklahoman recently. "This is our hedge against what's happening to us."

George is still farming, and recently was refinanced for another year to grow corn, cotton and wheat. He's expanded his acreage, renting enough land to farm 1,500 acres this year. Last year, three hailstorms that ravaged portions of the county cut their crops in half. "Our situation is not good . . . this is too critical for us," Bessie said.

Four years ago, Bessie received her general equivalency degree, then enrolled at West Texas State University. At registration, she was asked what her major was, but didn't have an answer. She settled on a pharmacy degree because she had once worked at Carver Pharmacy in Dimmitt and liked it.

Last year, it was time to move on to the pharmacy program at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

While attending WT, Bessie commuted every day, but moved into a dorm at Weatherford, where most of her neighbors were about 30 years younger. "I was afraid they would feel like mother had moved down the hall." Instead the girls invited her out with them.

But there was a problem — George came to visit about once every three weeks. The girls offered to sneak him into the dorm, but he wouldn't go along with it. "George did not feel comfortable," Bessie said, and the communal bathrooms in the all-girl dorm didn't make matters any easier.

Bessie has now rented a small house off campus after spending a summer and fall in the dorm, but still eats in the school cafeteria so she won't have to take time to cook.

Bessie's been told she was overstudying, but the hours spent with her nose in her books earned her a 3.4 grade average last semester. This semester, her courses include pharmaceuticals, human physiology, pharmaceutical administration and organic chemistry.

She has three more years to go, but Bessie says "the fun is just beginning."

Police Calls

A seven woman, five man jury sentenced Rosemary Gutierrez, 31, of Amarillo, to three years in the Texas Dept. of Corrections plus a $1,000 fine Wednesday in 242nd District Court in Dimmitt last Wednesday.

Probation was denied by the jury although testimony showed Gutierrez was eligible for consideration.

According to testimony in the trial, Gutierrez, a former Hart resident, passed a $250 forged check last June 7 at Taylor and Sons Food Store in Dimmitt. Witnesses testified the check was taken during an Oct., 1984 car burglary near Dimmitt High School.

The defendant gave notice of her intention to file a motion for a new trial before Judge Marvin Marshall at the conclusion of the proceedings. Marshall set a bond of $5,000 for the woman's release.

Clarence Walter George, III, 40, of Dimmitt, entered a guilty plea in 242nd District Court Friday on a felony offense of theft by check.

George had been indicted for issuing a worthless check for apartment rent. Judge Marshall ordered a pre-sentence investigation. Sentencing is expected within 30 days.

Abelardo Espinoza of Dimmitt was taken into custody by Dimmitt police Sunday in connection with outstanding warrants served from Deaf Smith County.

The warrants were for delivery of marijuana over 4 oz. and possession of marijuana.

A 1972 Chevrolet Caprice driven by Andres Lopez of Dimmitt was backing out of a driveway in the 400 block of NW 6th Friday night when it struck a 1979 Olds Cutlass, owned by William Alvarez, also of Dimmitt. The Cutlass had been legally parked along the curb facing north when it was struck.

Charles Whitman told police someone had damaged a baiting trap he had set out.

Whitman stated he observed tire tracks and footprints at the scene.

Stan Byrnes told police someone had vandalized his wife's 1985 Plymouth Voyager LE parked at Dimmitt Middle School Friday.

According to reports, a sharp object had been run across the left side of the car, causing cuts and scratches 40 inches long.

Harp wins honor

Grain Sorghum Producers Association head Elbert Harp has been named Man of the Year in Service to Agriculture by Progressive Farmer magazine.

Harp was recognized "for the energy you have expended and the leadership you have given to the agricultural industry," the magazine said. Harp is portrayed in the February issue of the magazine.

The GSPA leader was cited for his "prominent role in the past 30 years as founder and executive producer of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association—as well as a leader in the US Feed Grains Council—and your effort through these two organizations to develop new sales opportunities for US produced grain sorghum in domestic and overseas markets."

Harp has led or organized over 20 overseas market development tours and conducted dozens of seminars, marketing conferences and feeding demonstrations to help persuade foreign buyers to purchase more US sorghum.

Harp was instrumental in securing the support of the legislature and producers for increased research, promotion and market development efforts through a voluntary checkoff program.

He has also been active in GSPA, the National Farm Coalition and Texas Agricultural Forum as a spokesman for agriculture.

What does our Lazer Beam Aligner align?

Everything.

Our new Lazer Beam Aligner is great for rebuilding wrecked vehicles. But it's also great for vehicles that AREN'T wrecked—cars that aren't tracking right, that are wearing out properly-inflated tires, that don't "feel" right on curves.

For instance, sometimes it's the REAR wheels that are out of alignment. This makes your car "sidetrack" down the road and causes excessive wear on the rear tires. But with the Lazer Beam Aligner, we can align your front and rear wheels independently and EXACTLY to the frame and center line of your vehicle.

If your car doesn't "feel" right, bring it in. We'll put it to the Lazer and find out why.

Johnny Stanford is certified on the use of the Lazer Beam Aligner and the Kansas Jack Magna-Rack, having completed the technical school at the Kansas Jack Training Center, McPherson, Kan.

and served two years as fulltime manager and two years as part-time manager of the organization.

He was also one of the founders of the area's vegetable industry, which came into being after he wrote every farmer in the county about the prospects of raising vegetables. He founded Dimmitt Produce Co., and was president of the firm until it was sold to LaMantia, Cullum and Collier.

"He was instrumental in bringing the first swimming pool in the area to Dimmitt (still the Municipal Swimming Pool), and through the Lions Club took the leadership. When the pool was opened, four enterprising men seized him hand and foot and dumped him in the pool, then some enterprising soul saw fit to throw in a couple of bars of soap."

He was also an inspiring force behind the co-op hospital and served on its board. It is now Plains Memorial Hospital, which he gave its name and patronage.

He was the leader of the county Democrat Party for six terms, and has often been a delegate at the party's state convention. Cowen said Nelson is still recognized "as a stalwart, undeviating Democrat."

"He allegedly retired in 1984 and turned the paper over to Don, but he is still 'The Editor,' a very well deserved recognition and title. For 42 years, in his column, 'About Dimmitt and Castro County,' and in his personal life, did all he could to lead to the improvement of our schools, churches, roads and streets. 'Trade in Dimmitt' was his slogan, song and sermon, and he has practiced what he preached."

Nelson has also been a steward of the First United Methodist Church and a member of the Friendship class.

"I've heard many speakers, but this one (Cowen) was one of the most excellent," Nelson said. "He exceeded anything tonight I've ever heard him do. This is for the Citizen Through the Years, and I've been through a lot of years."

"This award is not for an individual, though. I wouldn't believe I could merit the honor on my own, it's the effort of the entire community."

Broderson, Teacher of the Year, is the art teacher at Dimmitt High School, and has been teaching since 1951. She moved to Dimmitt with her husband, Emmett, former principal at Dimmitt Middle School, and three children, Kyle, Kerry and Joylyn, in 1966.

Nancy Greer, last year's Teacher of the Year, told the audience Broderson is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma professional sorority, and is a life member of the Texas State Teachers Association. She has also taught adult education and summer school classes, and is responsible for much of the artwork at Dimmitt High School and through the community, including the Ozark Trail marker, welcome signs on highways entering the city and fire hydrants around town.

"I've seen many changes in education, but young people have not changed. I try to teach two things, self-respect and self-discipline. I also try to make my students know their school work will serve them through the rest of their lives."

WIFE will meet Monday

Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE) will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the courthouse basement in Dimmitt.

Anyone interested is urged to attend.

Horse club picks officers

New officers and adult leaders were chosen last week for the year for the Dimmitt 4-H Horse Club.

Officers include Joel Nelson, president, Tod Bradley, vice president, Kay Gleghorn, secretary, and Justin Nelson, reporter.

Adult leaders include Jim and Becky Killingsworth, Charles and Sue Spring, Jimmy and Sue Howell and Scott Bagley.

The club is preparing for the Llano Estacado Horse Association county show on June 7, and is planning practice sessions for the upcoming season. Anyone interested in joining the club should call the County Extension Office at 647-4115.

LHS Seniors set tourney

The Senior Class of Lazbuddie High School will sponsor a men's and women's outsiders basketball tournament March 17 through March 21 at the Lazbuddie High School gym.

Eight men's and eight women's teams will be included in the double-elimination tournament. Entry fee is $75 per team, and entry blanks may be obtained by calling Belinda Steinbock at 965-2474 or Rick Copp at 965-2152 or 965-2806. Entry deadline is March 4.

Gains key to cattle profits

While pasture costs are a major factor in a profitable stocker cattle operation, perhaps even more important in influencing profit or loss are the animal's average daily gain and total gain.

For instance, doubling average daily gain from .95 pounds to 1.94 pounds can reduce the breakeven price by $17 to $19 per hundredweight, assuming 400-pound steers at $280 per head, $80 per acre variable pasture cost, and average $82.50 for other inputs such as hay, concentrate, salt, mineral, labor, interest, depreciation, insurance and land return.

Average daily gain is critically important because the more an animal gains, the fewer inputs go into maintenance, points out Seth Ralston, county agent.

Average daily gain can be boosted with the following practices:

1. Provide protein supplements where there is dormant pasture or low quality hay.

2. Provide energy supplementation when high quality winter forage is limited.

3. Use gain supplement products which typically boost gain .2 to .3 pounds per day.

4. Use implants which generally increase average daily gain .2 to .3 pounds a day.

At the stocking rate of one animal per acre, boosting average daily gain by just .25 pounds—from 1.44 to 1.69 pounds—increases profit by $31.18, says Ralston. Pushing the gain up to 1.94 pounds a day can result in an overall profit of $72.01 per head. With a stocking rate of .75 acres per head, profits will be even greater, about $25 per head greater in the case of the 1.94 pound average daily gain.

So, in stocker cattle operations as well as in other types of cattle enterprises, the name of the game is increasing the pounds of beef going to market through efficient management.

Water conference is Feb. 13

Conservation tillage and water management are innovations in farm management that may be practiced separately, or combined in a farm management system that can increase farm profits.

Producers with hands-on experience in these techniques will discuss their ideas, insights and practical experience at the High Plains Conservation Tillage and Water Management Conference, Feb. 13, at the Hale County Agricultural Center in Plainview. The conference will provide participants information on adapting conservation tillage techniques into farming operations to cut overhead expenses and increase net returns. Water management techniques which hold irrigation costs down and help improve the profit potential of farm operations will also be discussed. Additionally, conference speakers will explain the problems they have encountered in implementing these new techniques.

The conference begins at 9 a.m. and will end about 2:30 p.m. Equipment, chemical and informational displays will also be available for inspection by conference attendees.

Hance headquarters will open Saturday in Lubbock

The Lubbock County Committee for Kent Hance for Governor will have a headquarters opening at 2 p.m. Saturday at Hance's new headquarters in the Petro Lewis Building on West Loop 289, just north of the 4th Street exit in Lubbock.

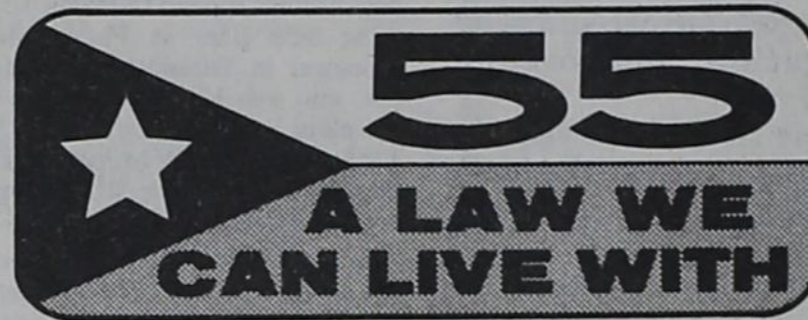

Hance, who has been running strongly statewide in the Republican Primary for Governor, said he wants to invite the public to his headquarters meeting which will officially kick off his campaign in Lubbock and West Texas.

"I have been very pleased with the support that the people of Lubbock have given me as we move to replace Mark White with a West Texan in the Governor's mansion," said Hance.

Hance recently announced a Steering Committee of 1,000 in Dallas County and has captured a large percentage of the Republican leadership in Houston. Hance has signed up coordinators in more than 150 Texas counties, and more than 90% of his leadership in his 1984 race have signed up also in his push for the Governor's mansion.

In this issue of the newspaper you will read a lot about the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet.

As always, the banquet was well attended. Almost 400 people gathered to pay tribute to their community. All segments of the community were represented, both young and old, including teachers, students, business people, farmers, homemakers, working people and retirees. They all have a place in Dimmitt and all were represented as "reflections" of Dimmitt.

Think for a moment about the energy and resources present in that crowd. What a variety of talents, skills and ideas we possess. It is possible that someone in that crowd has an idea that will make a difference to our future. There is someone who has an idea that will make an untried project a reality. Someone whose talents are waiting to be tested.

If you are one of those, someone we have not turned to for a suggestion, let us know at the Chamber. All good things begin with an individual idea. We're just waiting for yours. And, we are still looking for FRAN.
