THE YEAR 1980 is a census year, and our nation will make its every ten years count of noses.

According to an article we read this week, the state of Texas is one of the three fastest growing states according to population, behind California and Florida.

If the projections are correct, the state's population will approach 13,500,000 people by the time the census is taken. This will be up by around three million from the 1970 census count of 11.2 million.

Texas' population has shown a fairly steady growth, from the first census after statehood in 1850, when the count was only 212,592. The state topped the million mark for the first time at the 1880 census, with 1,591,749.

We in Texas gained by about a million souls per ten-year period from 1890 through 1950, when the state's tally had reached 7,711,194. Texas' population was 9,579,677 in 1960, as the decennial increase began to be more pronounced.

But if you think we're in danger of running out of room here in the "wide open spaces," consider that California's population has zoomed up from 1,485,053 in 1900 to an estimated 22,294,000 at the present.

Yet, our growth problems are minor in the United States to those in other countries. The population of India, for example, is projected to grow 65 per cent from 1975 until the year 2,000, putting India over the 1 billion mark. China is slated to grow by 42 per cent during the period, to 1.3 billion.

Researchers tell us it took 18 centuries from the time of Christ for the world's population to reach one billion. But, by the end of this century, the earth's population is projected to be 6.3 billion. The estimate was 4.1 billion in 1975.

Perhaps we do, indeed, need to be searching for that "compatible" planet out there, for the time when we run out of room on planet earth.

WASN'T MONDAY'S eclipse of the sun a pretty sight! We followed our own advice, and watched the coverage on television, which gave some spectacular shots.

We also made a pin-hole cardboard system, and projected the sun's image on a white sheet of paper. From where we viewed the eclipse, in Red River, N.M., it seemed that there was a lot more than 75 per cent of the sun's surface covered, which our area was supposed to have viewed.

But the surprising thing was that, even with 75 to 80 per cent of the sun covered, the "brightness" outside had not diminished as much as you would have thought. It resembled a thin cloud cover (very thin) over the sun's surface.

After watching the coverage of the areas which were lucky enough to see a total eclipse, we decided that the last 20 per cent of the sun's rays are the "critical" ones, since it really got dark at those places for a minute or two.

We enjoy such astronomical spectacles as the one Monday morning, and regret that it will be 38 years before another sight such as this will be possible in our area.

WE HAVE BEEN ASKED by tax assessor-collector Pat Butler to remind local taxpayers that if they want to sign up for the $5,000 homestead exemption on school taxes, they do not have to be 65 years of age to qualify.

Letters were sent out in this week's mail notifying taxpayers of the exemption, but there has been some confusion, Butler says.

If you own your own home, even if you're paying it out, and did not receive a notice, call or come by the tax office on Seventh Street, and sign an affidavit, the tax official says.

ONSKI TRIP

Mike Smith Has Serious Injury

Friona's annual ski break was held last weekend, with scores of people availing themselves of the opportunity to take to the slopes in New Mexico and Colorado.

The event was not without its casualties, with the worst example being Mike Smith, who suffered two broken legs while skiing at Breckenridge, Colorado with a group from the First United Methodist Church, as one of the adult sponsors.

According to reports, Smith hit an icy stretch, lost control, hit an emergency telephone stake, shearing it off and breaking both legs.

Smith underwent surgery on his left leg, which sustained a "butterfly" break above the thigh bone. A pin was inserted, and a spokesman at the Methodist Church said the surgery was successful. Smith's right leg was broken below the knee.

He is expected to remain in Mercy Hospital, 1619 Milwaukee Street, Room 926-B, Denver, Colorado, 80206 for a while yet.

Mayor Buske Hears Civil Defense Plan

Mayor B.K. Buske was among the State and Local Officials attending the Texas Civil Defense Preparedness meeting in Austin last week.

The Conference was aimed at providing the latest information on State and Federal preparedness responsibilities. Representatives from several major agencies were on the agenda to discuss situations from nuclear attack evacuation procedures to natural disaster recovery methods.

The keynote address was delivered by Adjutant General W.L. Scott. Presentations were made by the Severe Storm Laboratory, NORAD, U.S. Department of Energy, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, Texas Air Control Board, and the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Governor Clements was represented by his Liaison Officer and gave a brief speech supporting the operations of the Disaster Emergency Services.

"Often we have the mistaken idea that disasters occur only in other communities. This Conference was a real eye-opener to the fact that we could be victims of an emergency situation (such as our neighboring city of Canyon experienced last year)," Buske said.

"Also, the threat of nuclear attack has been around so long we seldom give it more than passing thought; the conference was enlightening in this respect in that we were made aware of Crisis Relocation Planning that would save perhaps 210 million people," he added.

"While Friona is not considered a "target area," we are designated as a host area. In other words, some people from a target area might be relocated in the Friona area in the event of nuclear attack. This topic was one of many discussed at the Conference but all subjects were equally important," the mayor concluded.

United Way Tops Goal

The United Way of Friona received its last check this week which enabled it to reach 101 per cent of its 1978 goal.

The total amount raised was $11,311.47. Co-chairmen Ron Smiley and Bill Wilshire, said they wished to thank all the volunteers who worked the different areas of the drive.

"We would like to say thanks to everyone in the community, those who volunteered their time and those who gave so generously to the United Way of Friona. Without everyone's help we would not have made our goal," the chairman said.

Also a special thanks was given to JeDon Gallman, who served as rural chairman and the many people who drove many miles to cover the rural area.

Bank Announces Two Promotions

Two staff members were promoted recently at Friona State Bank, according to Robert Neelley, president.

Patrick Pace was elevated from the position of assistant vice president to vice president, and Ted Procter was named assistant vice president.

Pace has been associated with Friona State Bank since June of 1972, when he became an agricultural loan officer. He was elevated to the position of assistant vice president in January of 1974, and was named the bank's security officer in January of 1977.

Pace and his wife Brenda attend the Sixth Street Church of Christ, where he teaches a junior Sunday School class. He is a member of the Friona City Council, is on the board of directors of the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, and is a member of the Friona Noon Lions. He is a graduate of Abilene Christian University.

The Paces have two sons, Joseph, who is five, and Matt, one.

Procter has been with the local bank since November of 1976, when he became an installment loan officer.

Procter and his wife Glenda are parents of a daughter, Charlotte, who is two. They attend the Sixth Street Church of Christ. He is a graduate of Friona High School and Lubbock Christian College.

GOLD FANGER....This is Lord Waldorf Esquire, better known as "Wally," a year-old English Bulldog belonging to the Bobby Fulks family. "Wally" was given two gold capped teeth by Dr. Jon M. Roden, local dentist. The local resident not only has visited the dentist—he also had an appointment with a "doggie dermatologist," for a skin infection.

O.W. (BILL) HAYES

Sales Seminar On Tap Monday Night

Friona State Bank is sponsoring a sales seminar for business people from the community, on Monday evening, March 5, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the Bank's Community Room.

O. William (Bill) Hayes, a noted author, lecturer and sales trainee, will conduct the seminar. Robert Neelley, president of Friona State Bank, urges everyone to attend.

The program is free to business people and their personnel, but the bank asks that those planning to attend please call Sherry Atwell at 247-2706 for reservations.

"We are pleased to present Hayes in this program, which is designed to teach and motivate employees in the art of salesmanship," Neelley says.

Title of the program is "Salesmanship, Speedway to Success."

Hayes' book, "Your Money—Speedway to Success in Earning, Learning and Living," had eight printings including a paperback edition. He taught in stewardess training schools for two major airlines. Hayes is a member of the International Platform Speakers Assn., and has the distinction of being knighted by a king.

Post Deadline March 7

Three candidates had filed for three positions on both the school and city's governing boards at the Star's deadline this week.

Each board has three spots expiring. Filing deadline is less than a week away, March 7.

The three incumbents have filed for re-election on the school board, Floyd Reeve, Teddy Fangman and George Frye.

In the city race, incumbents Beth Thompson and Jerry Brown has filed, along with Donny Carrasco, filing for Patrick Pace's spot. Pace has served two terms and does not plan to run again.

Candidates may file at Superintendent Tom Jarboe's office for the school board, or at City Hall for a council spot.

Brian Hall Set For Sports Fete

The All-Sports Banquet honoring the Friona High School athletes will be held on March 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center. The speaker for the banquet will be Brian Hall, a former Friona resident.

Brian lost his foot in a farming accident when he was 14 years old, but he overcame his handicap to become an outstanding kicker for the Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Tickets will be $6.00 per person and may be purchased until March 20. Tickets will be available at several businesses in town, or may be purchased from members of the Chieftain Parents.

The food for the banquet will be catered by Zebbie Land Catering of Canyon. "This banquet will be open to the public, so mark your calendar for March 23 and help us honor our Friona High School athletes," says a representative of the Chieftain Parents.

50 YEARS AGO—MARCH 1, 1929
Charley Gonce of Bovina took first place; J.W. Ford of Friona, second and Bud Queen of Rhea, third in the old fiddlers' contest held at the school auditorium Wednesday night. The large room was filled with spectators. The winner will enter the Tri-State contest at Amarillo March 7.

W.H. Warren, Friona's leading mule buyer, shipped 50 head of good mules to parties in Fort Worth on Monday.

45 YEARS AGO—MARCH 2, 1934
Coach Bill Stevens, who was serving his fourth term as coach at Friona High School, resigned his position this week for a similar position at Levelland.

The basketball game scheduled here last Friday between the Friona Squaws and Farwell girls, was called off due to disagreeable weather. The two teams, winners in the county tournament, were playing a best two of three game series. The Squaws had won the first game, played at Farwell.

40 YEARS AGO—MARCH 3, 1939
Business concerns will give prizes away during the annual livestock show this weekend, valued at around $100. Persons visiting the show will need to register at some place of business, prior to 2 p.m. on Saturday. At that time, a drawing will be held to see who the winner of merchandise will be.

35 YEARS AGO—FEB. 25, 1944
Joyce Ann Miller, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, was a guest singer on the Army Air Base broadcast over Station KGNC last Thursday. Joyce was a hit at the recent bond rally, at which she also sang "Marezy Doats" and Army Air Corps song.

Uncle John White's "Sons in Service" letter column included letters from Gilbert Schueler, Robert Collier, George F. (Frank) Baker, Harley Bulls and Duke M. Baker.

25 YEARS AGO—FEB. 25, 1954
Well-drilling and irrigation has become big business in the area. Since April of last year, some 323 permits have been issued for drilling of wells.

Lt. Bill Sheehan, who has been serving as legal council for the Wm. Beaumont Army Hospital in El Paso, has announced his candidacy for the position of County Attorney. He will be released from active duty in late May.

20 YEARS AGO—FEB. 26, 1959
Dr. Paul Spring and Mrs. Eva Miller were named "Man and Woman of the Year" at the annual Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Banquet Tuesday night. Bill

Nichols was installed as president of the chamber for 1959.

The USDA's announcement Wednesday that the 1959 price support on feed grains will be drastically reduced has been met with repercussions in the Parmer County area. Grain sorghum was supported at $1.83 per hundredweight in 1958 and the support price for 1959 has been announced at $1.52. This drop could cost farmers in this county alone from $2.5 to $3 million.

10 YEARS AGO—FEB. 27, 1964
Baker Duggins and Mrs. B.J. Zeman were honored as "Man and Woman of the Year" by the Friona Chamber of Commerce at its annual banquet on Monday.

The Texas State Library's Bookmobile program was unanimously approved for Parmer County by the county commissioners on Monday.

5 YEARS AGO—MARCH 3, 1974
Garland Freeman was honored at a retirement party last Saturday at the Friona Police Department. Parmer County Commissioners gave approval at their regular meeting last Monday to a new law enforcement center and jail, which will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000.

Profiles and Things

by don watkins

I have a friend who is admittedly apathetic toward certain events concerning national affairs. He tells me he could care less about women's lib, ERA, or Virginia Slims. He's always making derisive quips and jokes using his wife as the embodiment of the female gender. Ever on the defensive, he denies accusations labeling him chauvinistic, but the themes of his stories seem to belie his negations.

For instance, he told me once that he had bought his wife a birthday gift and hid it. She didn't find it for three months.

"Where on earth did you hide it?" I asked.

"In the oven," he replied.

"Oh, I see. Then you're telling me your wife shuns the kitchen."

"One could say that. She came in the other day and asked to go someplace to eat we hadn't been for awhile."

"And did you take her?"

"No, I just said how about our dining room."

"Then you really can't deny, and be honest about it, that you're not put out about all these feminist movements we read and hear about these days."

"Well," he says slowly, "they really don't bother me all that much."

"Then why do you complain about taking your wife golfing, among other things?"

MONDAY

Services Held For E.D. Matlock

Funeral services for Earnest D. Matlock were conducted on Monday, February 26 at the First United Methodist Church of Friona. Matlock passed away on Friday, February 23 at 7:30 p.m. after a long illness. He was 95 years of age. Officiating at the services was Rev. Bobby McMillan of Canyon, Rev. Jim Boswell of Friona and Rev. Cecil Tune of Lubbock. Burial was in the Friona Cemetery, under the direction of Parsons-Ellis Funeral Home.

Matlock was born April 17, 1883 in Ellis County, Texas. He was the son of Lou Ann and Jim B. Matlock. He moved to Hale County at an early age, and was a pioneer resident of the Plainview area. He moved to Friona 15 years ago.

Matlock married Elva Dee Akers on March 19, 1905 in Hale County. He operated a wagon freight line from Amarillo to Plainview before the railroad was built. Matlock used four wagons, 12 horses and a chuck wagon in his freight business.

He freighted lumber and groceries from Amarillo to Plainview. The replica of his freight horses and wagons was built by a son, Thomas Matlock for Mr. and Mrs. Matlock's 50th wedding anniversary, and will be donated by the family to the Llano Estacado Museum in the Regional Heritage Center on the Wayland College campus at Plainview, in memory of Earnest Matlock.

A retired carpenter, Matlock had also farmed during his long and varied career. He helped organize Methodist Churches at Valley View and St. John's in Plainview, and was an active church member until confined to his home by ill health.

Survivors include his wife, Elva, two sons, Frank of Plainview, Thomas of Lubbock; five daughters, Mrs. Opal Bostick of Kilgore, Mrs. Virgie Ratliff of Hico, Mrs. Ernesteen Skipworth of Friona, Mrs. Tootsie White and Mrs. Dottie Osborn of Friona.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Dottie Young of Spivey, Kansas, and Mrs. Leora Winn of Plainview. He is survived by 15 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and 13 great-great-grandchildren.

One daughter, Elva Lou Lewellen, preceded him in death.

Pallbearers were Johnny Brand, Raymond Euler, Tommy Taylor, Kenyth Cass, Ralph Shelton and Lee Gibson.

Lions Tale

Cub Scouting is alive and well in Friona. Thanks to lots of hard work from volunteer adult leaders and monetary contributions of both of the Friona Lions Clubs, pack 56 has in excess of 50 boys, ages 8-11, who enjoy this scouting program.

Recently this group had a "Blue and Gold" Awards Banquet, during which, the boys and leaders were recognized for their achievements. District Judge Pat Boone was the featured speaker.

The Lions of Friona are proud to have a part in this most important activity of our community. Opportunities to make charitable contributions seem to exist everywhere today but unless you are a Lion, you have probably never heard of the Lions International Foundation. Each year Lions around the world contribute a certain amount based on membership into this Foundation. With these funds, emergency aid is provided to disaster stricken areas.

Every dollar collected is spent for this specific purpose; no administrative costs are paid from this fund. Last year, Albany, Texas flood victims were aided by this fund. The Friona Noon Lions have been regular contributors to this fund for years.

Your support helps Friona and around the globe.

Around The Firehouse

By RICHARD WILSON

The Friona Fire department is sponsoring an emergency care attendant class two days a week at the fire station. A number of people are enrolled in the class besides firemen.

Another group of firemen and interested residents are attending the emergency medical technician course being given in Bovina.

We think Friona is fortunate to have the type of citizens who are willing to sacrifice their time for specialized training, so they will be more qualified to help someone in need.

Residents of Friona can be thankful that we have three doctors and the quality of personnel which makes up Parmer County Community Hospital. This is a great facility for a town the size of Friona.

Since our last Fire Department report, we have had only a minor grass fire to report, with no monetary damage.

The "Jaws of Life" fund continues to grow. A contribution can be made through a deposit to the fire department's special account at Friona State Bank.

Revival To Begin March 7

Friona's First Assembly Church will conduct a revival meeting next Wednesday through Sunday, March 7-11, with services beginning at 7:30 each evening.

Evangelist for the special series of services will be Rev. Paul "Bill" Slater, a noted speaker and culinary specialist who has made numerous television appearances.

Slater is scheduled to appear on station KAMR-TV (Channel 4) on the Midday show at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 7. He also will give cooking demonstrations to Mrs. Osborn's cooking classes during the week.

The public is invited to attend the revival series, according to the pastor, Rev. Jim Bond.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF INTENT TO INTRODUCE A BILL IN THE 66th LEGISLATURE, STATE OF TEXAS
NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned intends to request introduction of a bill in the Sixty-sixth Legislature of the State of Texas, the general purpose, nature, and substance of which is as follows:
Such bill will provide for the creation of the Ogallala Water Import Authority of Texas, said Authority to comprise the whole of all Texas counties any part of which overlies the Ogallala Aquifer; and, further, said Authority to have the power and purpose to import, store and otherwise coordinate the use of water; and further, said bill will provide the purposes, powers, duties, operation, expansion, and financing of said Authority. The Bill will empower the Authority to levy, assess and collect ad valorem taxes and issue bonds as necessary to carry out the purposes of the Act. The foregoing enumeration of provisions to be contained in such bill is not intended to be exclusive, but only to express the general purpose, nature, and substance thereof. Such bill will make other provisions and confer other powers in connection with the general purpose, nature and substance as stated above.
This Notice is given in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (d), Section 59 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution.

GOLDEN GOODNESS - Any way you slice it, this delicious herb flavored loaf will add the perfect touch to a holiday table, notes Texas Department of Agriculture Home Economist Fran Gerling. And besides, there's nothing like the aroma of baking bread to whet those cold weather appetites!
TEXAS HERB BREAD
3 C. sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 C. sugar
1 T. salt
1 pkg. active dry yeast
2 1/2 C. warm water
1 1/2 tsp. oregano
3 T. finely minced onions
1/2 C. shortening
1 egg, beaten
1 C. sifted flour
3/4 C. sifted flour
1 1/2 tsp. basil
3/4 tsp. thyme
With an electric mixer, in a large mixing bowl, mix flour, sugar, salt and yeast. Combine in another bowl, water and shortening. Gradually add this mixture to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg and flour. Beat 1/2 minute at low speed, then at high speed 3 minutes. Stir in 3/4 cup flour. Turn out on a lightly floured board. Add herbs and onions and knead dough until elastic, about 10 minutes. The top of each loaf can be garnished with herbs and/or onions. Allow the bread to rise once in the mixing bowl, and once in the baking pan.
When ready to bake, place loaves in a cold oven. Turn the heat to 400 degrees. After 15 minutes reduce heat to 375 degrees and bake 25 minutes longer. Test for doneness. Remove the loaves and cool on a rack before storing.

Two Chieftains On All-District Team

Two members of the Friona Chieftain basketball team were named this week to the All-District 3-AA basketball team, as announced by district coaches.

Kevin Kothmann, 6-2 senior, and Kevin Pope, 5-10 senior, both were named to the team at "outside" positions.

District champ Dimmitt paced the all-district selections with three spots. Mark Summers, 6-5, and Randy Roberts, 6-2, were inside players, and Dennis Veals, 6-2 senior, landed an outside spot.

Others on the team were James Johnson, 6-2 Morton senior; Joe Bob Wynn, 6-3 Morton junior; Charles Briscoe, 6-2 Muleshoe senior; Mike Northcutt, 6-0 Muleshoe junior; Kelly Cox, 6-3 Olton senior; and Keith McCain, 6-2 Littlefield senior.

District 3-AA lost its eight-year domination of Region I basketball last Saturday when Dimmitt dropped a 42-41 decision to Seminole in the regional finals. The Bobcats had edged another former class AAA team, Perryton, 32-29 in a low-scoring regional semi-final game.

It marked the first time since 1970 that either Dimmitt, Morton or Friona had not made it to the state tournament in basketball from District 3-AA.

KEVIN KOTHMANN

KEVIN POPE

PERFECT SERVICE.....Stephen Miller is shown here delivering what might be called the perfect serve. If you study Stephen's style in the picture above, you will find that he is completing the perfect serve. Stephen is also a member of Friona's varsity boys' tennis team.

Winners Listed In Little Dribblers

In the third and fourth grade division of Little Dribblers, the Rockets defeated the Colonels in the first game of the second week's action. Shane Pope led the Rockets with 11 points, Lupe Delarosa scored eight, Ken Murphy had three and Ricky Hutcheson added two to help with the 24-22 victory.

Patches Fleming was high point for the Colonels with 11 points followed by Damon George with six and Greg Koelzer with five.

The Kings took a 29-22 victory over the Nuggets in the next game. High point for the Kings was Brian Blackburn with 13, followed by Matt Brogden with eight, Shane Hand with four, Jeff Chaney and Anthony Drager each with two.

Brad Lane led the Nuggets with seven points followed by Lance Gatlin with six, Danny Perez, five, Lonnie Phillips three and Mike Villanueva with one.

The Nets defeated the Pacers 20-13 in the third game. High point for the Nets was Kevin Frye with ten points. Jeff Dickson scored eight and George Richardson scored two.

Scoring for the Pacers were Peter Malouf with six, Albert Trevino with four, Wayne Schott two and Joel Jass one.

In the fourth and fifth grade division, the Bucks defeated the Bullets by a score of 21-19. Frankie Perez led the Bucks with nine, Jeff Sharrock scored eight and Cody Scott and Brent Gatlin each scored two.

Toby Smith was high point for the Bullets with 11 points, followed by Guy Wilkins and Wendell Woodruff each with three and Johnny Spencer had two.

The Lakers defeated the Hawks 36-24 in the next game. Brad Powell was high point for the Lakers with 14 points, followed by Ross Roden with 13, Johnny Trevino with six, Bart Blackburn with two, and Rusty Stover with one.

Scoring for the Hawks were Jeff Brown with eight, Charles Walker and Leroy Mercado with six each, and Trent Shelton and Robert Davila each with two.

The Knicks took a 27-15 victory over the Suns. High point for the Knicks was Rodney Allen with 14 points, Brent Hinkle scored seven and Ben Neelley, Brad Moyer and Daniel Gowens each scored two.

John Aguirre led the Suns with nine points and Bill Cauell added the other six.

Modern Study Club Sees Demonstration

Modern Study Club members met in regular session on February 20 at the Women's Club House.

Irene McFarland opened the program with prayer. Faye Reeve, president, called for committee reports. Eufaula Ethridge reported that repairs on the water lines had finally been completed. Irene McFarland, chairman of Lions Club, reported that a change in the price of meals prepared for the Lions Club had been changed.

Lora Mae McFarland showed a book that had been donated to the public library. The club voted to put a book, "A House of Another Color" by Carolyn Osborne in the State Club House Library.

Beth Thompson reported that all yearly reports had been completed and sent to the state office. She also reminded the club of the convention to be held on March 8 and 9 at the Coco Palace in Lubbock. Four delegates, Beth Thompson, Jerry Taylor, Rhea Foster and Allo Reeve, were elected as delegates to the convention.

Billie Vaughn then gave a demonstration with the palette knife drawing a yucca plant. Each member was given small pictures to be painted under the direction of Beth and Billie.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Donna Mears and Winifred Hurst, to twenty-four members.

Annual Meeting Set

Capital Credit checks totaling about $400,000 will be paid back to those members of Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative who purchased electricity during 1966 and 1967 when members meet for the 41st Annual Membership Meeting.

The Annual Meeting, scheduled for Saturday, March 3, will be jam packed with eatin', fun, and business and will begin at 5 p.m. at the Hereford Bull Barn.

There will be a barbecue dinner, served by the Catholic Daughter Society of Nazareth.

The Nominating Committee met January 9, and will submit the following names for election: Castro County, Noel Gollehon and Donald Wright; Deaf Smith County, Clark Andrews and Jerry Sublett.

Company Named XL Dealer

International Harvester announces the appointment of Parmer County Implement Company, Inc., Friona as an "XL Dealer."

Parmer County Implement has been an International Harvester farm equipment dealer for over 30 years, offering complete sales, service and financing on all farm equipment. The "XL" appointment is the highest form of recognition an International Dealer can earn. According to Regional Manager

Wilbur Stringer, "The 'XL Dealership' is a symbol of excellence...in customer service, product knowledge and employee management. Only International Harvester dealers committed to the highest standards of operation and a total pursuit of excellence for U.S. agriculture and service to their communities become 'XL Dealers'."

Stringer adds: "Customers of 'XL Dealers' will profit from thorough product knowledge and sound advice...a full line of equipment...automated business processes to speed service...outstanding parts and repair service...and a wide variety of financing plans."

City Man's Longhorn Wins Event

A Friona resident, Floyd Dutton, had a steer that was a prize-winner in the fifth annual Texas Longhorn Championship Steer Show in Denver last month.

Dutton's steer "Woody" took second place in the "Most Spectacularly Colored Steer" division.

The show is a highlight of the National Western Stock Show. Nineteen huge registered Longhorn steers were entered in the contests from as far away as San Antonio, competing for $4,000 in prize money.

Judge Travis Marks of Fannin, Texas, judged the class on horseback, just prior to the rodeo performance. Steers were judged for three classes of color, horns and conformation.

National Western's general manager, Chuck Sylvester, commented "This part of the show adds a lot of color and nostalgia to the National Western. It's rare for people to have the opportunity to view such excellent Texas Longhorn steers at one place at one time."

Fortenberry Appointed Veteran Service Officer

Parmer County Commissioners decided Monday during their regular meeting that Judge Paul Fortenberry would serve as the county's veteran service officer "as the need arises."

They also decided to purchase a typewriter and stand for the probation officer's office at a cost of $412.50.

Commissioners granted a request by Five Area Telephone cooperative to install 2870 feet of underground cable in the northern half of section 37 beginning at the northeast corner of Block H.

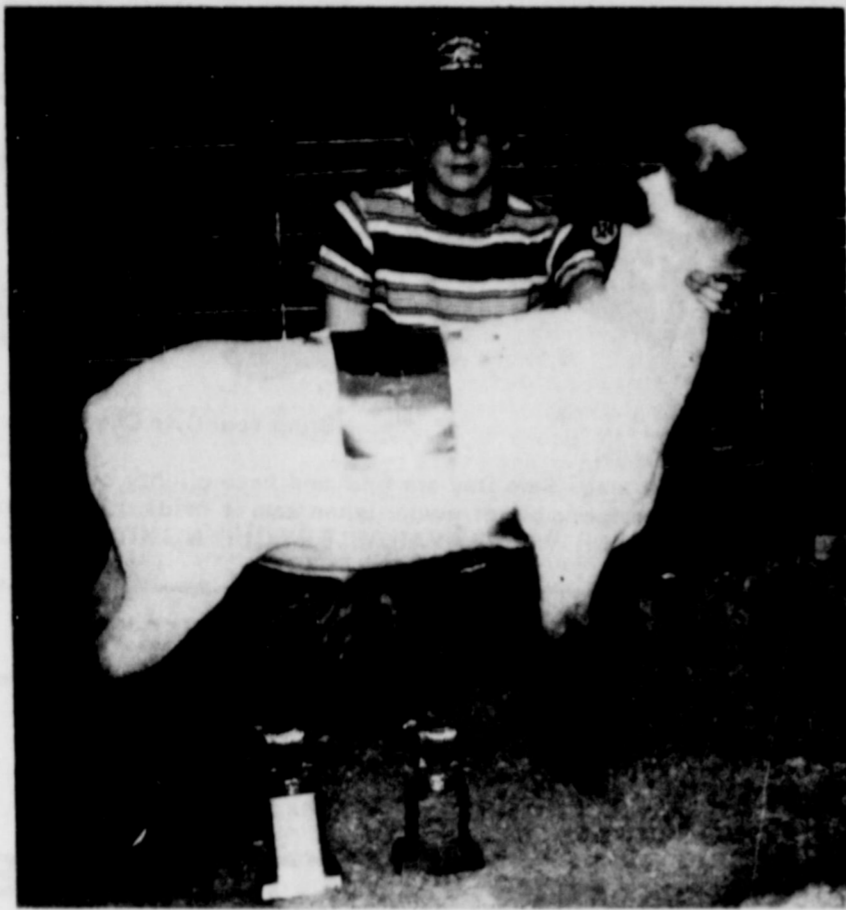

Laura Jacobs, assistant extension agent, gave a report on her activities. Seth Ralston, county agent, was in Houston this week for the livestock show.

The assessment ratio value for the 1979 tax roll was approved as submitted by Hugh Moseley, tax assessor-collector.

Commissioners discussed salaries of county employees, in particular those of justices of the peace, but decided to implement no changes for the current year.

They also approved the pledge contract of securities as presented by the Friona State Bank, the county's depository for the next two years.

Teresa's Society Meets

St. Teresa's Ladies Society met on Monday, February 20 for their regular monthly meeting.

Eight members were present. Matilda Baca gave the opening prayer and welcomed C.Y.O. members, their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Ramiro Caballero and Mrs. Robert Garza and one guest, Lina Padilla.

During the business session, it was unanimously voted by the members present that there will not be an annual Mexican Dinner. There will be two brunches to take its place.

The club members gave points on how to conduct a meeting to the C.Y.O. members. Church cleaners for March will be Hortencia Bermea and Rebecca Constancio.

The meeting adjourned with a closing prayer by Matilda Baca.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By SETH RALSTON

Major pruning on shade trees should be done during the winter months while the trees are dormant. However, before you start whacking away at your favorite tree or shrub, make sure you have a justifiable reason for pruning.

There are a number of reasons for pruning. First and foremost is to maintain a strong framework for the future development of the tree. Other reasons are to reduce the size or to keep the tree within specific bounds and to remove dead, diseased or weak growth as well as broken limbs and rubbing branches. Another reason for pruning is to improve the size and quality of flowers and fruit. A final reason is to balance the top growth with the root system at transplanting time.

Unless pruning can be justified for one of these reasons, it is better to place the shears and saw in the shed and obtain the desired exercise by spading the flowerbed.

Some of the general principles that will apply when pruning shade trees include the removal of all dead or diseased wood, broken limbs and weak growth. Also, long, unsightly branches should be shortened or removed as they offer too much resistance to the wind and are frequently subject to storm damage. Never stub back limbs or branches. Rather, cut back to a main branch or trunk so that there will be no stubs remaining. The so-called stubbing back or topping large branches will result in a proliferation of sucker growth and will leave a wound that is impossible to heal.

Recent research indicates that the use of tree wound paint on wounds is not essential. Woody plants have the ability to wall off the wounded area and will heal over just as effectively without the dressing. However, there is no harm in using a wound paint. Use a saw or chisel to smooth broken stubs and torn bark to promote healing.

While the homeowner can handle most pruning operations, it may be best to hire a professional arborist or tree surgeon if trees are large or need extensive work.

If the tree or shrub being pruned is diseased, it is important to dip pruning equipment in a disinfectant after each cut to kill disease organisms so as to prevent their spread to other portions of the tree or even to other trees. A ten per cent household bleach solution makes a satisfactory disinfectant. This can be prepared by mixing one part of bleach to nine parts of water.

Woman's Club Has Public Affairs Fete

Friona Women's Sr. Club met February 28 at the Federated Club House with eleven members present.

Carrie Tatum, president, was absent due to illness and Katie Osborn, vice president, presided over the meeting. The lesson topic was "Public Affairs" and roll call was answered with our duties as a citizen.

Martha Russell had charge of the program in keeping with "Public Affairs" theme. She brought out many topics in regard to the "Hands Up" program for crime prevention, pointing out growth in crimes, child abuse, shop lifting, property and personal losses and how every citizen needs to be alert and watchful for themselves and neighbors at all times for a safer, happier life and to reduce crime. Mrs. Russell distributed materials for each one to take home on this safety program.

Nikki Osborn and her mother, Mrs. M.C. Osborn, were guests and Nikki provided several instrumental numbers.

Mrs. Bengler was elected as the club's delegate to the District Convention to be held March 9-10.

Mrs. Fern White, hostess, served refreshments of sandwiches, salad, cake, coffee and tea to those present.

Skills in home sewing and fashion will earn rewards for the top contestants in the second annual Natural Fibers Fashion Revue at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center next April.

The fashion revue is one of the major events which will open the 1979 South Plains Farm Show at the Civic Center April 5-7.

Adults and youths from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma will compete for hundreds of dollars in prizes and will model the apparel they have created from fabrics which are predominantly cotton, wool or mohair.

The revue is designed to emphasize elements of good clothing construction, home sewing and fashion, as well as the use of natural fibers. The competition will have three divisions: young teen (grades 6-8), teen (grades 9-12) and adult.

Eligible garments must be made from a fabric that is all cotton or wool or mohair, or from a fabric that is a blend containing at least 50 per cent cotton or wool or mohair.

For example, a fabric of 70 per cent wool and 30 per cent nylon is eligible. Mohair may count with wool toward the 50 per cent minimum wool percentage. Thus a fabric containing 30 per cent wool, 20 per cent mohair and 50 per cent acrylic would be eligible, as an example.

Accessories such as blouses, trim and inner construction fabrics are excluded from this requirement.

Contestants are eligible to enter one ensemble. Single items such as pants only, a skirt or shorts only are not considered a complete ensemble.

The entries will be judged on construction as it affects the overall appearance, compatibility of fabric and design, quality of work, creativity, overall appearance, accessories, becomingness, fit, poise, and representation of current fashion trends.

A panel of judges will determine first, second and third place winners in each of the three divisions.

Entry forms may be obtained from West Texas homemaking teachers, county Extension agents or implement dealers, or by writing to Natural Fibers Fashion Revue, Route 3, Box 213AA, Lubbock, Texas 79401.

Completed entry forms must be returned to the above mailing address to be received by March 16. Serving on the planning committee for the fashion revue are Becky Culp, Area Clothing Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Amarillo; Patricia Horridge of the Department of Clothing and Textiles, Texas Tech University; Kay Caddell, Textile Research Center, Texas Tech University; Brenda Becknell, Robert Spence School of Modeling, Lubbock; and Catherine Crawford, Mildred Patterson, Janis Choate, Linda Pittman and Debra Salley, all of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

4-H members will explore current sources of energy and management methods as well as look at energy possibilities for the future at the 1979 Texas 4-H Congress.

Book Talk

By NELSON LEWIS
"A good book is the best of friends, the same today and forever."
Martin Farguher Tupper

Friona is fortunate to have the only organized public library in the county. Each school district has its library, geared to all ages of students and their contribution to education is beyond measure.

This series of columns is not intended to dictate to anyone what they should or should not read; the intent is to inform the reading public as to what is available at the Friona Public Library.

It must be clearly understood that the opinions expressed are simply one man's choice between good, not so good and trash. And believe me, trash does slip in despite the best efforts of all concerned. The final choice is yours. It's your library--use it!

Deep South, by Erskine Caldwell
Most of us will think of Tobacco Road or God's Little Acre when Caldwell's name is mentioned. What a pity we did not have Deep South to help us understand the seriousness of his writing.

Erskine's father was a trouble shooter for his denomination's scattered, mostly rural, churches. Traveling with his preacher daddy from Virginia to Florida by way of Georgia, the Carolinas, Kentucky and Tennessee gave the young Caldwell an insight into the conduct of organizations devoted to Christianity.

This is a book to be approached with an open mind. There is humor, pathos and agony to be found within its skillfully written pages.

This year's state congress for senior 4-H members (those between the ages of 15 and 19) will be at the Shamrock Hilton Hotel in Houston, July 19-22, announces Laura Jacobs, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Theme of the congress will be "4-H and Energy: Partners for Progress."

4-H'ers attending the congress will look at such familiar energy areas as oil, gas and coal production and use of wind and water power. They will also study some of the new areas of energy development, including nuclear power, solar energy and bio-mass conversion, the changing of animal and plant waste into energy.

The youth will participate in a number of tours to get firsthand knowledge of energy developments, including solar plants, some of the world's largest petroleum refineries, the Houston Light and Power Co.'s multi-million dollar control center, and the NASA Johnson Space Center. The port of Houston will be featured on a special tour.

According to Laura, there will also be a multitude of exhibits and displays on energy production, conversion and use. Delegates will have an opportunity to develop workshop settings to be used in future 4-H energy programs in their own clubs and communities.

While keying in on the energy picture, the Texas 4-H Congress will also provide delegates an opportunity to view Texas history by touring the San Jacinto Monument and the Battleship Texas. Of course, there will also be time for relaxation and fun at Astroworld and the nearby Gulf Coast, featuring Sea-a-rama at Galveston.

4-H'ers interested in attending the 1979 Texas 4-H Congress may obtain an application at the county Extension office in the Courthouse in Farwell.

School Would Get Money Under Bill

The Friona Independent School District would receive $96,800 in new state aid under the Foundation School Program if a bill sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association is enacted in the current legislature.

In addition, the TSTA bill would allow the Friona ISD to reduce its local fund assignment—the district's share of Foundation School Program costs—by $48,100.

Sen. W.E. Snelson of Midland, author of the TSTA-sponsored bill (S.B. 525) has been granted a hearing on the measure at 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 7, before the Senate Education Committee. The public hearing will be held on the Senate floor.

Cost of the Snelson bill in new state spending would average an estimated $722.5 million per year for each year of the next biennium, or some $1.455 billion for the two-year period.

TSTA Exec. Secy. Callie W. Smith said the bill would provide a 25 per cent increase for school maintenance and operation, 25 per cent increase for school bus transportation, and a 40 per cent increase for equalization aid.

Also included is a revised pay schedule which would raise the salaries of all Foundation Program personnel. The beginning pay for a bachelor's degree teacher would be increased from the present $8,540 per year to $10,000, and for a master's degree teacher from $9,110 per year to $10,630.

Smith cited the fact that Texas now ranks 33rd among the 50 states in estimated average teacher pay and said: "We feel that the salaries of all Texas school personnel should be increased to meet the rising cost of living and to encourage good teachers to enter and remain in the profession."

Producers To Get $7.4 Million Here

Checks totaling $7,403,546.57 have been mailed to Parmer County producers of wheat, cotton and feed grains who participated in the 1978 wheat, feed grains and cotton programs.

These checks represent the big end of some eight and one-half million dollars which it is estimated will be the total 1978 program payments for Parmer county. Payments made to date (by program) are as follows: Payments under the disaster program (wheat, feed grains and cotton) have been $1,337,919.59. Payments under the voluntary diversion program (feed grains) amounted to $5,097,386.53. Under the haying and grazing program (wheat) payments were $36,301.68. Wheat and barley deficiency payments amounted to $931,938.77.

In addition to the payments made to date under the 1978 set-aside programs, it is anticipated that a corn and grain sorghum deficiency payment to participating producers will be made this coming May or June. The per bushel deficiency rate is not known at this time; however, it is estimated that the per bushel rate for corn will be between 3 cents and 5 cents per bushel. For grain sorghum - 30 cents per bushel.

These payments are made to producers who participated in the voluntary 1978 set-aside programs in order to raise their incomes and reduce the supplies of commodities for which there is an excess on hand.

There will be no deficiency payments made for 1978-crop upland cotton. Deficiency payments are made to producers when the average market price received by farmers during the calendar year is less than the established "target" price. The national weighted average price received by farmers for upland cotton during the 1978 calendar year was 55.1 cents a pound. Since this price is above the 1978 upland cotton "target price" of 52.0 cents a pound, no deficiency payments will be made.

voluntary diversion. There has been no set-aside or diversion announced for cotton. Voluntary diversion payments will be available for corn and grain sorghum participants who make the voluntary diversion.

An item of importance to local producers participating in the program is the non-grazing period for set-aside acreages. The non-grazing period for these set-aside acres in Parmer County begins on May 1, and ends on October 31. This continuous six month period enables farmers to obtain maximum grazing benefits during the remaining six months of the year.

"Of course, it is realized that the sign-up period has been kicked-off a little early for farmers in this area and that not many will be signing up right away—but, the people at the local office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) invites each and every producer to drop by and discuss the program and its application to each farm," says Prentice Mills, executive director of the ASCS.

Signup Begins For AS CS Farm Program

Intentions to participate in the 1979 farm programs may be filed at any time between now and the end of April. The signup period opened on February 15.

Although program participation is voluntary, producers must file their intentions to participate during the signup period to obtain program benefits. All farmers planting wheat, feed grain or upland cotton are eligible to participate. A producer who will plant only cotton on his farm is not required to signup during the signup period—but, he is urged to do so.

Under the wheat and feed grain programs participants are required to set-aside acres from production to be eligible for program benefits. Benefits include loans as well as deficiency and disaster program payments.

A 20 per cent set-aside requirement is contained in the wheat and barley program. The corn and grain sorghum calls for a 10 per cent set-aside and offers a ten per cent

SHERIFF'S REPORT

The Farmer County Sheriff's Department has investigated several thefts during the past week.

Approximately $1000 in tires, tools, and batteries were taken from Mitchell Walls' residence in Farwell, reports Sheriff Charles Lovelace. A 24-inch white 10-speed K-Mart bicycle was stolen from the M.D. Lovvorn home in Farwell.

Two John Deere A.M. radios and tools were taken from two tractors on the Joe Bob Johnson place three miles north of Friona, Lovelace said. Welding equipment valued at $350 was stolen from the Ronnie Stevick home in Friona.

Sheriff Lovelace also reported that Beatrice Perkins' purse was taken from the Farwell Manufacturer's clothing factory. The purse was later found in the restroom; however, approximately $10 in cash was missing.

Signup Begins For Grain Programs

Intentions to participate in the 1979 wheat and feed grain program may be filed at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office at anytime between now and the close of business on April 30, 1979.

Although program participation is voluntary, producers must file their intentions to participate during the signup period to obtain program benefits. All farmers planting wheat and/or feed grain for harvest in 1979 are eligible to participate.

The program requires that participants set aside acres from production to be eligible for program benefits. These being loans, disaster, and deficiency payments and the reserve program. There is no set aside requirement under the cotton program.

20 PERCENT
A 20 percent set-aside requirement is contained in the wheat and barley program.

The corn and sorghum program contains a 10 percent set-aside and a 10 percent diversion. Participating farmers will receive voluntary diversion payment on corn and sorghum.

WHEAT-ACREAGE REPORTS
Producers will be expected to report their wheat, barley, rye and oats acreages at the time they signup in the program. Producers who are not sure of the exact acreage they have planted, should consider having the people at the ASCS office do their measuring for them.

Details of the 1979 program may be obtained from the local ASCS office.

Baptists Schedule Spring Revival

Revival services are scheduled at Friona's First Baptist Church March 4-11, according to Rev. C.H. Murphy, pastor.

Wayne Copelin will be the evangelist, and Joe Atkinson will be the music evangelist.

Services will be held nightly at 7 p.m. Sunday services are at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. A "children's fun time" is scheduled daily for children kindergarten age through sixth grade, with Karen and Casey.

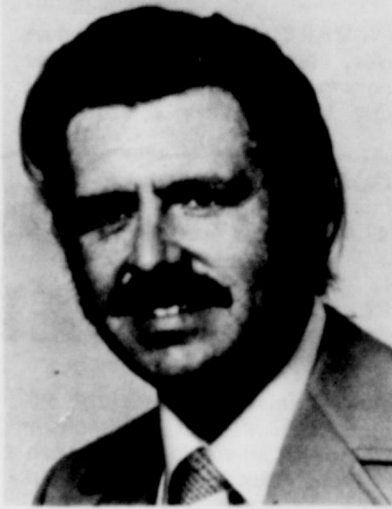

Wayne Copelin is a native of Louisiana, receiving his BA degree at Houston Baptist University, and his MD and DM from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He has served churches in Huffman and Liberty, Texas, has toured the Holy Land, and has been in full-time evangelism since 1970.

Atkinson, a Texas product, won first place in an appearance on the "Original Amateur Hour" program with a singing group he started 20 years ago. He is a graduate of Baylor University and SW Baptist Seminary.

He spent 12 years working with some of the top name evangelists in the country. He has been doing sacred concerts since 1973. In addition to his ministry as a gospel singer, Atkinson is a recording artist with six albums to his credit. He also is producer-director of a radio program, "The Challenge," heard in the Southern U.S.

CODY GENE STEVENSON

Stevenson Honored On 2nd Birthday

Cody Gene Stevenson, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Stevenson, was honored with a birthday party on February 14 at his home.

Those attending the party were Stacey Hodges, Marsha and Tom Jarecki, John Paul and Diamond Garza, Darla McClellan, Allison Castillo, Helen McClellan, Linda Garza and Evelyn Calder.

A Mickey Mouse cake, ice cream and soft drinks were served after the children played "Pin the Tail on the Donkey."

Austin Guest Gives Program

Parmer County Teachers Association met in Bovina February 12 for the third meeting of the year. Following the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance, President Anne Corn called the association to order.

Minutes were read by Frances Boing, secretary, and a treasurer's report was presented by Virginia Cleveland. Reports were heard from Janie Sudderth as she discussed Constitutional changes. Mr. Don Dorsett of Austin presented the program. He discussed "Professional Rights and Responsibilities" which are now pending in the Legislature.

The meeting was adjourned after the program. The next meeting will be in Farwell, April 2.

HONORARY MEMBER...Virginia Moyer, left, was awarded as Honorary Membership at the Friona Young Homemakers awards luncheon held Thursday, March 1.

Presenting the award is Sharon White.

Prarie Acres Party Line

The administration recently announced that the facility will sponsor a seminar for all volunteers on April 5 at the Friona United Methodist Church.

A very informative program is being planned to include a guest speaker from the Texas Department of Health. Many questions will be answered for volunteers as to what they can and cannot do with informative talks regarding the physical and emotional problems faced by the elderly and coordinating the efforts of the volunteers with the staff.

A nursery will be provided for mothers with small children and a salad lunch is being planned. Watch the Party Line for more details.

Nettie Rhinehart's Sunday School Class from the First Baptist Church of Bovina, gave her a surprise party on her eighty-fifth birthday. They baked her favorite pound cake plus a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Fourteen class members were present.

Birthdays coming up are Gladys Lee and Olive Lawrence, March 1; John Hall, March 4; and G.L. Haney and Della Osborn, March 5. Della Osborn will be ninety-nine this birthday.

We went to the movies Friday to see "Aunt Arie," a personal saga of an eighty-six year old woman tending for her farm near Corweeta Creek, high in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina.

It was an inspiring account of the simple life style of an earlier American. I think everyone including our guests enjoyed the popcorn and lemonade as much as the movies.

Merv Noah, our administrator, has just completed fifteen hours continuing education on implementing educational regulations in nursing homes in order to meet the new state regulations for the nursing home training program.

We greatly appreciate your response to our needs. This has increased the effectiveness of our activities program.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ethridge, Percy Parsons, Mrs. Hays' Gleamers Sunday School Class and the Rebekah Lodge No. 308 have provided our needs in cards, dominoes, checkers and puzzles.

Mrs. Hays' Class is also providing trading stamps to purchase a card table. Amy Mason has contributed some personal items for one of our residents.

Do you have any cleaning rags to spare? We are very low and in need of good soft cleaning rags.

The First Baptist Church gave our monthly birthday party for February. They served birthday cake and punch to all the residents and presented gifts to J.C. Morrison, Maggie Miller, Lillian Hubbard and Nettie Rhinehart.

Mrs. Drucilla Paul has pieced every resident a lap cover. She is as busy as a bee every day at her sewing machine. She always needs quilt scraps or lining.

Kay Kendrick is home from the hospital. Her brand new great-grandson Andy came for a visit. He is the son of Teresa and Danny Kendrick. We're glad to have Kay back. We've missed her.

The Young Homemakers just brought in a huge basket of fresh fruit for the residents and staff. Thank you from one and all.

Party Fetes Alvin Carter

Sunday, February 25, Alvin Carter celebrated her 80th birthday.

Cake, ice cream and punch were served to Martha Euler, Hattie Anderson, Camille Lacewell, Edith Johnson, Pat Martin, Opal Strickland, Thelma Jones, Reta Agee, Judy Cummings, Opal Lloyd, Juanita Reed, Corine Jones.

Also, Irene Gee, Calvin and Ann Martin, Clarence, Wynona and Kathy Martin, Carol Dean Huggins, Larry and Judy Martin, Mike and Reta Martin and girls, Keith, Sheri and Christi Martin, Greg and Ava Martin.

Phone calls were received from two daughters, Glenda Deatherage and Zada Heady and the Clive Huggins and Freddie Turney

Town Talk

By June Floyd

Phone 247-3681 With Your News Item

We talked by telephone with Frieda Floyd Dickson on Thursday, and she told us her father, Glenn, is making good progress. Glenn broke his hip in a fall on February 19 at Garland.

He was released from the hospital on Thursday and is now convalescing at the home of daughter Geneva and John Osborn. Frieda said Glenn is walking with a walker, and can put a little weight on his leg.

"We appreciate all of the long distance calls, letters, cards and flowers. We counted 68 cards the other day," Frieda said.

Frieda added that Glenn had had a visit from Sue Procter of Friona, and from former Friona residents Matt and Betty Brown, now of Wichita Falls.

The Floyds plan to have dinner on Friday with Travis and Gay Harrell, another former Friona couple now living in the Dallas area.

By the way, Glenn celebrated his "non-birthday" on Thursday, his coming-home day. Glenn is one of those folks who was born on February 29, so doesn't get a real birthday except on leap years. Glenn would have been 71 if he had had birthdays every year, but if you want to get technical, he's really just 17 and three-fourths years old. He'll be old enough to vote by the time another solar year passes.

The Star staff extends its sympathies to Mike Smith on his serious skiing accident in Colorado, in which both of Mike's legs were broken. Best wishes to Mike as he begins the recovery phase.

We hope to see you back in Friona in the near future, Mike. We understand he underwent surgery on Thursday in Denver.

We also send our sympathy to the family of E.D. Matlock, one of the area's real old-timers, who passed away late last Friday, just past the Star's weekly press time.

Matlock could be considered one of the true pioneers of the area, having operated a freight line with a team of horses between Plainview and Amarillo, in the days the railroad was built.

Matlock's death ended one of our area's oldest marriages in terms of years. He and his wife Elva would have celebrated 74 years together on March 19.

His daughter, Elva Lou Lewellen, was a longtime employee of the Star and one of our favorite people. She preceded him in death, almost exactly two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Graham and Ky, and Mrs. Jim Baxter were weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Dement of Hobbs, New Mexico.

Mrs. Dement is the former Gail Graham and daughter of Sterling and Joy, and granddaughter of Mrs. Baxter.

The Friona group returned home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Young and children visited with the Troy Youngs in Hobbs, New Mexico on Sunday.

A reminder to call the Star office with your personal news items during the absence of June. Call 247-2211.

Performance proves...

The top 8 corn hybrids on the Irrigated Plains are all from Pioneer.

That's a pretty bold claim, we admit. But in farmer's fields, county agent test plots, wherever they're grown, these Pioneer, brand corn hybrids consistently out-perform competitive hybrids year after year. Each hybrid has its own particular strong points that make it especially well suited for certain environmental and management conditions. When thoughtfully selected and properly managed to meet the conditions, each of these hybrids delivers top performance... winning performance that's head and shoulders above the competition.

Don't take our word for it. Ask your Pioneer dealer about yield data in your area for the last several years and see for yourself. The consistent performers... the top 8 performers are all from Pioneer!

- 3195
- 3183
- 3305
- 3184
- 3780
- 3311
- 3541
- 3360

High-yielding, full-season powerhouse! 3195 gets off to a good start with high seedling vigor, then makes the most of High Plains growing conditions. High test weight grain is hard textured and dries down fast. Ideal for grain or silage.

Contest winning yield potential with excellent disease tolerance makes 3183 an ideal companion for 3184. It also has excellent seedling vigor plus good standability and stay-green qualities.

A silage grower's dream come true (even if your plans change mid-season)! Tall with good standability and a high grain-to-stover ratio. Adapts well to the high plant populations required for top silage yields. And if your plans change, excellent grain yields make it a profitable grain crop, too.

Steady corn maker, popular for excellent yields and consistent performance. Strong stalks, good roots provide outstanding standability.

The corn you can manage almost like sorghum. Total fertilizer, water and insecticide requirements similar to sorghum. Maximum water use period makes it an ideal companion crop to cotton. Yield average of more than 7,800 lbs./A in four years of High Plains production at 96 locations.

A new hybrid you can trust like an old friend! It delivers top yields and is an outstanding companion for 3195. It silks earlier than 3195 and performs better under stress.

Very early silking, a long kernel fill period, and fast drydown help 3541 produce extremely high yields for its maturity. Give 3541 the management it needs, and it could easily be your top income producer. Excellent standability, ear retention and head smut tolerance.

Plant this one for your banker! It has the consistency to be the high-yielding workhorse hybrid you can rely on. Outstanding early season vigor. Excellent for silage on the Irrigated Plains.

Ask your Pioneer dealer about them NOW.

Dr. Slater To Lead Revival

By BOBBY HALL
Plainview Herald

The Rev. Paul Slater, known by many as the "Country Chef," has a definite recipe for life but also has some great concoctions for the kitchen, especially canning and cooking.

Rev. Slater, who will be in Friona for two weeks leading a revival at the First Assembly Church, has written a book entitled "Canning is Fun!" and is known throughout the nation for his culinary expertise.

Being one who was brought up in the garden, Rev. Slater says that America's young people need to learn about the preparation of food. "America is losing its heritage of cooking," he says. "Canning and cooking looks like old home stuff but it is really 'today' because young people need to learn to cook and take responsibility for home life.

"America isn't strong economically, spiritually, morally or with food. There was a 10 per cent increase in food prices this year. At this rate we won't be able to afford food in the near future. We can forget about oil because we won't even be able to buy food.

"Unless we get back to the concept of growing and getting our own food and getting back to the earth, we will never have moral fiber, other than Christ. Christ is not the answer to everything; he is the beginning to the answer to everything."

After growing up in the Appalachians with both sets of grandparents, all of whom were excellent cooks, Rev. Slater decided to use his talent by competing in county fairs and exhibitions.

"The first time I entered in a fair, I put the entry in my wife's name so no one would know it was mine. As it turned out, she won and I never entered anything in her name again." Rev. Slater's trade has won him more than 9,000 awards and has led him to appear on several national television talk shows, where the subjects range from old-fashioned country cooking and health foods to evangelism.

Rev. Slater, who with wife Helen and two daughters, travels 48 weeks of the year in their mobile home, has also come into contact with many public figures, among them former heavyweight boxing champions George Foreman and "Hustler" magazine publisher Larry Flynt, both of whom are now professed Christians.

"Of all the people I've talked to that had a real Christian experience, George is one that has really done something about it. He packs 'em in everywhere he goes and then tells it like it is. He's so sincere. He's so humble that I had to talk him into taking money for being on the PTL Club (Praise The Lord, a Christian Broadcasting Network television program).

"As for Larry, when we see 'Hustler' magazine hustling for Jesus Christ then we'll know that something has happened inside Larry Flynt. I won't say that he hasn't had an experience, but faith brings fruit and Larry has no fruit."

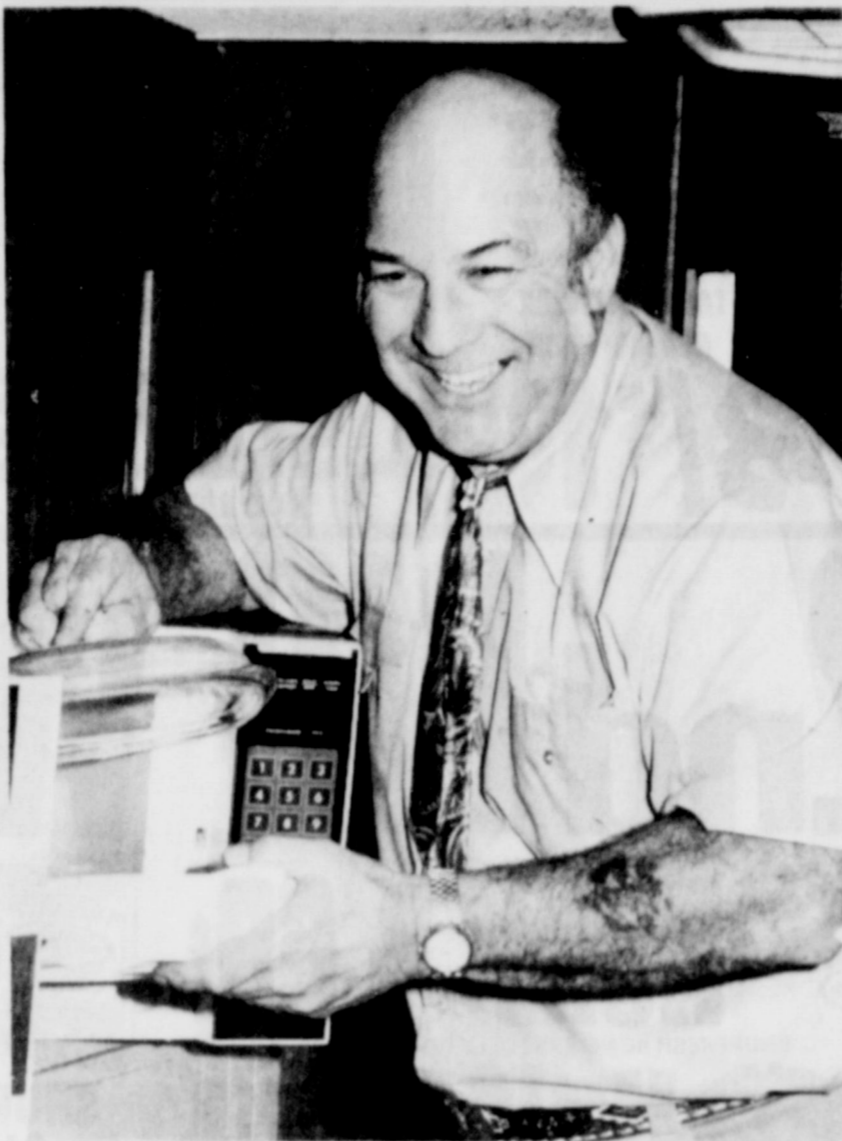

A Mt. Pleasant, Pa., resident, Rev. Slater led a varied career before becoming a lecturer-minister. "I've been everything I ever wanted to be in life, but I never wanted to be a preacher. God called me to that." Before entering his present occupation, Rev. Slater served as a pharmacist's mate in the Marine Corps, a policeman, a salesman and a game warden, but the ministry is the most important.

"I would most like to see people make a commitment to Jesus Christ. Instead, people are committed to everything else, but when a commitment is made to Christ, things happen. Using my talent for cooking is a way to get a foot in the door.

"I never run out of a garden. I can work it in from morning to night and it will always produce by making soul winners out of people."

Rev. Slater will be preaching at the First Assembly Church in Friona next Wednesday through Sunday, at 7:30 p.m. each day.

Also on Wednesday, he will be a guest on KAMR-TV (Channel 4), for the Midday Show, and will also give cooking demonstrations to Valoris Osborn's Cooking Classes at Friona High School.

Club Has Valentine Program

A Valentine party was held by the Black Study Club Thursday, February 15, with husbands as guests of the club members. The party was held at K-Bob's Restaurant in Hereford.

Following dinner, the group went to the Bill Carthel home for games. Next meeting of the club was March 1 at Friona State Bank.

Those attending the Valentine party were Mrs. Ethel Benger, Helen Fangman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carthel, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. T.A. Kelley and daughter Tami.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lookingbill, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Welch, Doug Carthel, Mrs. Lois Weatherly, Ellis Tatum, Mrs. Roscoe Ivie and Mrs. T.B. Weatherly, a guest.

Three Members To Attend Convention

Three Parmer County educators are planning to attend the 100th annual state convention of the Texas State Teachers Association March 22-24 at the Astrohall in Houston.

Some of the Parmer County teachers will be voting representatives to the 1979 TSTA house of delegates. This official governing body will meet during the convention to act on proposed amendments to the TSTA constitution and to consider committee reports, resolutions, and other business. First delegate session begins at 4 p.m. March 23.

These official delegates—a potential 1,650—are elected from the 500 TSTA local associations throughout the state. They are certified by districts on the basis of one delegate per 75 members or major fraction of 75, to represent the 125,000 members of TSTA. Every local association is entitled to at least one official delegate.

Friendship House Sets Luncheon

The Senior Citizens Friendship House will hold their luncheon on Tuesday, March 6. The luncheons are held the first Tuesday of each month.

There will be a special program and everyone is invited to come by for lunch and the program. The meeting time is 10 a.m. and lunch is served at 12 noon.

The Senior Citizens Friendship House have activities Monday through Thursday afternoons. They quilt, macrame and try crafts of many types. Each Thursday night at 6 p.m. is game night. Refreshments are served.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson of Chicago, president of Operation PUSH (People United to Save Humanity) has accepted an invitation to speak at the second general session of the convention, at 9:30 a.m. March 23.

A critical issues conference scheduled for the first general session at 7 p.m. March 21 will include discussions of teacher certification, federal legislation, Project Push for Excellence in Education, the TSTA budget, and other Association concerns.

The Parmer County delegation will include Mrs. Anne Corn, Richard Montgomery of Farwell and Mary Pryor of Friona.

GOING, GOING, GONE.....City employee Howard Love is shown in this sequence of pictures as he opens up a fire hydrant in the east part of town, during the city's program of "flushing" the water mains, to get rid of sand and sediment. In addition to flushing the mains, city employees also emptied storage tanks of some 51 cubic yards of sand.

AAM "Optimistic" After Tractorcade

THE GAS AND OIL situation is beginning to look just like 1974 all over again.

This time, it's the loss of oil from Iran. In 1974, it was the Arab oil embargo, which caused prices of gasoline to practically double, and for a number of independent companies to be forced out of business.

This time around, the government (they have to get into the act, you know), is talking in terms of Sunday closings for all gas stations, and once again, the possibility of gas rationing stamps.

They printed up the rationing stamps before, but somehow we managed to make it through the crisis without using them. But it would appear that the government is bent on putting out the stamps. For one thing, it would create one more government regulatory agency.

The rationing stamp program, according to government officials themselves, would cost $350 million to start up, and another 1.5 billion dollars a year to run it. That's pretty high-priced medicine.

Not that the rationing stamps would accomplish anything, except to create a little more paperwork, plus this additional agency, and ostensibly in the long run, cause the prices of gas and oil to go up once again, (at least through taxes), to pay for the "added protection" of rationing stamps.

The stamp idea is not new. It was used extensively during World War II for items made scarce due to the war. There probably was not a more abused program until the advent of the food stamps in recent years.

But, if we were a betting person, we'd put our money on the rationing stamps. In addition to making us feel like the government was doing something about the gas shortage (which it hasn't), it would create a number of new government jobs, plus a lot of havoc.

THIS LATEST CRISIS makes us wonder just what has been done on the oil front since the last embargo.

The television commercials would have you believe that the major oil companies have really been working on the oil problem (after they forced out many independents, who helped for years to keep the price of gasoline competitive).

Personally, we'd rather see the oil industry solve the shortage situation than take our chances with the government. Washington has tried to solve other "ills" such as with price ceilings and the like. But nothing ever works like supply and demand.

The oil companies are talking in terms of $1 per gallon gasoline. You hear it more and more, so it must be the sales pitch to win us over. Sounds like we'd better get ready to dig a little deeper for our gas bills, or else quit "demanding" quite as much.

IF YOU THINK advertising doesn't pay, bear in mind that there are 25 mountain peaks in Colorado higher than Pike's Peak, of which few people are aware.

Farmers and farm wives who made the trip to Washington, D.C. during the recent Tractorcade sponsored by the American Agriculture Movement have returned home with a new sense of optimism.

And they have also achieved a dedication to their task.

Ron Awtry, one of the farmers from the Friona area who made the trip, says that when he first got into the AAM movement, it probably was for "selfish" reasons—wanting to better the situation in his farming operation.

"Now, we feel we have a much deeper cause—we feel we're fighting for our nation, as well as for our family farm," Awtry says.

The young Friona farmer says that he thinks Americans by and large have become apathetic to the way their individual freedoms are being snatched a little bit at a time, and that they need to wake up and realize what is happening.

Ron's wife Sandy testified at the House of Representative's Agricultural Committee hearings on February 23. She said she attempted to give the congressmen a consumer's viewpoint, since farmers also are consumers.

"I told the committee that farmers no longer are in control of their industry, due to such things as hostile mergers, monopolistic trends, price fixing and the like," she said.

The Friona housewife said she concluded her testimony by telling the committee that there were basically three choices for agriculture: (1) give the farmer control of his markets; (2) subsidize the farmer (which the farmer doesn't want, any more than the general public), or (3) eliminate the family farmer and let the multi-national corporations take over.

Mrs. Awtry said she urged the congressmen to do everything within their power to see that the latter choice did not befall either the farmer or any small independent businessmen.

Awtry said that by and large, the general public was in full support of the farmers and their goals. He said the residents of Washington, D.C. were surprisingly sympathetic with their problems.

Jim Roy Daniel, who farms in the Lazbuddie Community, joined the Awtrys in saying he felt that something good would come out of the Washington effort.

"The tractorcade wasn't something we wanted to do. It sure wasn't fun driving a tractor all the way from Parmer County to Washington. But it was something we felt needed to be done in order to call attention to our plight," Daniel said.

Daniel lamented the fact that it was hard to find many sympathetic ears among the congressmen, but he praised the support and help given by brand-new Congressman Kent Hance.

"Congressman Hance was extremely accommodating to us. He took part in the Agriculture hearings, and asked a number of probing, knowledgeable questions. He knows what he's talking about when you discuss agriculture," Daniel said, adding that on the other side of the coin, some of the questions asked by other non-agriculture oriented representatives showed up the ignorance of those congressmen.

"I feel that the effort put forth by the American Agriculture Movement has helped to show that there are still people left in America who are willing to do something to change their predicament," Daniel added.

Members of the AAM are still in the nation's capital, and will continue to be there as long as Congress is debating their fate, the representatives of the AAM said.

The local members of the AAM are urging all farmers to write to members of the House of Representative's Agriculture Committee, urging that they pass HJR 144 and HJR 148, providing full implementation of the 1977 farm bill, raising price support loans to 90 per cent of parity.

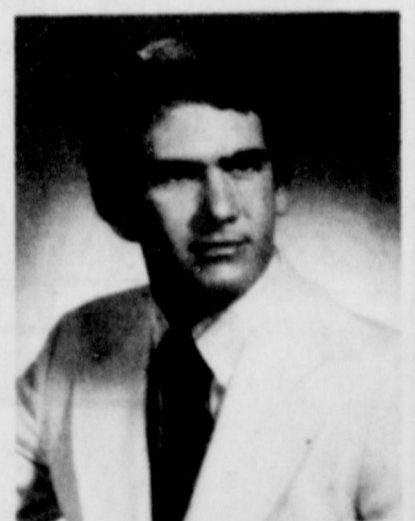

The names and addresses of the members of the House Ag committee are presented by the Friona AAM in an advertisement on Page 9 of this issue. The AAM members ask that farmers check the list, and write some letters.

City Flushes Lines; Tanks Yield Sand

The City of Friona has been making its periodic flushing of the water lines, to rid them of sand and sediment, according to City Manager Jake Outland.

Along with the flushing, city employees emptied the sand which had collected in the overhead storage tower and the ground-storage tank at Sixth and Grand.

Outland said that the small hill of sand at the ground tank, which can be seen on its north side, was was in the sixth grade. Brian played football for Dalhart in high school, and even though he had lost a foot as the result of a farming accident, he held the district record for extra points kicked. He followed this with an outstanding record as a kicker with the Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Brian has received two awards from the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame, one of which is the Dee Henry Award. He also received the Kern Tipps Award while he was at Tech.

This past year Brian appeared on the nationally televised program "To Tell The Truth." Brian now is Field Director for the Red Raider Club and lives in Dallas.

Tickets will be $6.00 per person and may be purchased until March 20. Tickets will be available at several businesses in town, or may be purchased from members of the Chieftain Parents.

The food for the banquet will be catered by Zebbie Land Catering of Canyon. "This banquet will be open to the public, so mark your calendar for March 23 and help us honor our Friona High School athletes," says a representative of the Chieftain Parents.

estimated at 35 cubic yards of sand, while that taken from the overhead tank was estimated at 16 cubic yards.

It had been almost three years since the tanks were emptied of sand, Outland said.

"People sometimes get concerned when they see the water gushing down the streets, and we wanted them to know that it's just part of our maintenance program," the city manager said.

PUSHES EFFORTS....Jim Roy Daniel, one of the area farmers who was a part of the National Tractorcade to Washington, D.C., displays a bumper sticker which the American Agriculture Movement is handing out, promoting the farmers. Daniel says he feels that the Tractorcade was necessary, and that some good will result on behalf of the farmers.

City Buys Patrol Car; Pact Okay'd

Purchase of a new patrol car for the police department, and discussion of prices for a new posting-billing machine highlighted the monthly meeting of the Friona City Council Monday night.

The bid for the new police patrol car went to Reeve Chevrolet-Olds over Friona Ford Sales on a hair-splitting bid difference of $6, favoring Reeve. The accepted bid was $4,193, with the bid winner agreeing to accept exchange of new tires on the old patrol car.

In other business, the council discussed at length the city's contract with the engineering firm of Parkhill, Smith & Cooper, and the company's contract was extended.

The city had requested bids for purchase of a new posting-billing machine, and had bids from companies from Amarillo, Lubbock and Clovis. After some discussion, a motion was passed recommending that the city manager inspect the machine.

After discussing the expenses of the city's ambulance service in relation to the charges, it was voted to increase the charge to $30.00 per call, from $25.00. It was noted that Friona's ambulance charge had been below that of most other cities in the Panhandle area.

Also discussed was the delinquent ambulance charge accounts, and a proposed ordinance to discontinue other municipal services, specifically water, sewer and trash service, for those defaulting in payments of their ambulance charges.

After recommendation from City Manager Jake Outland, the council voted to purchase a new pump-strainer for the filter system at the municipal swimming pool, at a cost of $1,025.

Other discussion included the notation that Prairie Acres had an average of 50 residents for the past month, and that their financial situation was the best yet.

Four Enter City Race

Four candidates had filed for a spot on the Friona City Council as of the filing deadline on Wednesday, according to City Manager Jake Outland.

Those filing were incumbents Beth Thompson and Jerry Brown, and Donny Carrasco and Delton Lewellen.

Terms of Mrs. Thompson, Brown and Patrick Pace are expiring on the council.

Absentee voting will begin on March 19 for the election, which will be held on April 7 at the Friona Fire Station.

In the school board race, where three spots are expiring, the deadline passed with only the incumbents filing. They are Floyd Reeve, Teddy Fangman and George Frye.

The Friona Chieftains, state finalists in basketball, placed three players on the All-District 3-AA team. Making the squad for the Chieftains were juniors Dale Cleveland and Gene Strickland and senior Dale Parsons. Cleveland was the top vote-getter on the team.

Winners Announced In Club's Essay Contest

Winners of an essay contest on the subject of "Crime Prevention" were announced this week by the Modern Study Club and Mrs. Faye Reeve, eighth grade English teacher.

Janet Buske was chairman of the club's essay contest. All members of the Friona eighth grade class submitted essays.

The winners were: Bill Head, first; Terry Petchinsky, second, and Shain Rhodes, third.

Here are the winning essays:

FIRST PLACE
BILL HEAD
"Drug Education Should Begin In Junior High"

Drug education should be taught as soon as the children are old enough to understand what drugs are and what they can do to their life. Drug education should teach the kids about good drugs and bad drugs. Drug education should teach the way to use helpful drugs and some of the symptoms that occurs when harmful drugs are taken. The program should also teach how to avoid drug abuse and how to recognize drugs.

Drug abuse is the harmful way to use drugs and can lead to the harm for the person taking drugs and their loved ones. The way people get "hooked" on drugs is they take drugs such as cocaine and heroin and each time they use these drugs their body builds up an immunity to the drug and the person has to take more of the drug to get the same result and therefore are addicted to the drug. Alcohol can become addicted to also alcohol effects a person's judgment and reactions and causes thousands of automobile accidents each year.

Some of the most abused drugs are alcohol, L.S.D., marijuana, nicotine, sedatives and pep pills.

The reason a person abuses drugs is to get "high" or feeling good. Amphetamines and cocaine can get you the "highest" while alcohol and marijuana are less powerful and do not get you as "high." A lot of people experiment with drugs out of curiosity or because a friend takes drugs. Others do it because they are desperate and or lonely or because of a personal problem. A lot of drug abusers use drugs because they do not get their way.

Some signs of drug abuse are that the person tries to keep his life a secret. Being absent a lot at school and their grades drop sharply. A change in a person's personality or they are irritated or they are more nervous than before.

Preventing drug abuse before it gets started is easier than to stop it after it gets started. Most drug abusers start in their teens or early twenties. Most young people will not get involved in drugs if their parents understand them and are able to communicate with them but if a drug problem occurs seek professional help or take them to your nearest community programs that offer professional help.

"Ways To Discourage Vandalism"

Vandalism is when one destroys the property of another. It is a crime and one can be punished severely for it, depending on the severity of the crime and extent of damage.

Arson is a form of vandalism. It is when one starts a fire or causes an explosion without the consent of the owner. Arson can be the burning down of buildings or the slightest amount of burning. Arson is a second-degree felony. If anyone is killed during the fire it would be a first-degree felony.

The seriousness of the crime depends on the amount of loss the vandalism created. If the loss is over two hundred dollars it is a third-degree felony otherwise it is a misdemeanor. If you are a first offender you can get two to ten years and an optional fine that can't exceed five thousand dollars.

Another form of vandalism is graffiti which is writing on walls or any other thing that isn't yours or you don't have permission to write on it. If it costs a lot to take it off and they catch the one that did it they can go to jail.

Don't be caught doing something like that, it goes on your record and can keep you from getting into the college you want and getting the job you want.

Vandalism is very upsetting, one year my brothers and I had show burrows and it was getting close to show time. We went out one morning and found our hogs had been cut up and one stabbed. One had a thirteen or fourteen inch cut up his side. We found a mixture of vomit and beer in the troughs. They all four lived and made it to the show even though we didn't place very high.

You might discourage vandalism by having a bright light and going out and checking the place frequently.

"How To Discourage Burglars"

There are many ways to discourage burglars. Many burglaries are committed everyday. When a burglary occurs it usually is the victim's own fault. Then the victim wonders what to do. There are several ways to discourage a burglary.

One way to discourage burglars is to keep windows and doors locked. Make sure the screens are on and locked. If screens are not on it is alot easier for a burglar to enter. Make sure your locks on doors, windows and screens are good. If the lock is not very good he could break it very easy.

When a person goes out of town have a next door neighbor or a friend watch their house. Have them pick up the papers, milk, mail, or other deliveries. Another measure would be to have the paper boy discontinue

W. Schueler Services Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilma Schueler, 51, of Alamosa, Colorado, former resident of the Rhea Community, were held Tuesday in Rhea Emanuel Lutheran Church. The Rev. Ervin Buenger officiated. Burial was in Rhea Cemetery by Parsons-Ellis Funeral Home of Friona.

Mrs. Schueler died Thursday. She was born at Happy and moved to Alamosa 10 years ago from the Rhea Community. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church of Alamosa.

Surviving are her husband, Gilbert J.; four sons, Daniel L., David C. and Douglas R., all of Alamosa, and Darrel G., a first lieutenant with the U.S. Marine Corps in Hawaii; four daughters, Mrs. Deanne Elliott of Monte Vista, Colo., Mrs. Doris Sanchez of Boulder, Colo., Darlene Schueler and Denise Schueler, both of Alamosa; her mother, Mrs. Alice Fehr of Emporia, Kan.; a sister, Mrs. Alice Conrae of Emporia; three brothers, Marvin Fehr of Pleasant Hill, Calif., Gilbert Fehr and Melvin Fehr, both of Emporia; and a granddaughter.

Rites Held For Father Of Frionan

Longtime Bailey County resident, Walter Resse (Watt) Underdown, 80, died at 5:15 a.m. Friday in West Plains Medical Center following a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in Singleton-Ellis Chapel of the Chimes, with Elder Bernard Gowens, Primitive Baptist minister from Friona, officiating. Interment was in Bailey County Memorial Park under direction of Singleton-Ellis Funeral Home.

He was born March 9, 1898, in Boone County, Arkansas, and moved to Bailey County in 1927 from Weleetka, Oklahoma. He was a retired farmer. Watt Underdown was married to Minnie May Hickman on October 17, 1925 in Weleetka, Okla.

Survivors include his wife, Minnie; five daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Davis, Pensacola, Fla.; Mrs. Margaret Phipps and Mrs. Dorothy Martin, both of Odessa; Mrs. Doris Jackson of Adrian and Mrs. Rita Frye of Friona; a sister, Mrs. Edith Dickson, Buhl, Idaho; one brother, Arnold Underdown, Harrison, Arkansas; 12 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Book Talk

By NELSON LEWIS

Give a man a pipe he can smoke, Give a man a book he can read: And his home is bright with a calm delight.

Though the room be poor indeed, James Thomson

From the High Plains

by John Fischer

This one is a must for old-timers and newcomers. It covers the Panhandle of Texas with detailed expertness without being just another history. Believe it or not, it contains Texas Tall Tales I had not heard in 14 years of attentive residence. If you are an old-timer, Mr. Fischer probably visited with your parents or grandparents—at least he will make you think he did.

A refreshing feature of this book is the care taken with spelling and punctuation—two areas overlooked or ignored by some hot-shot would-be writers.

This little volume ranks along with J. Frank Dobie's best in authenticity and appreciation of the real West as opposed to the so-called "Hollywood" version.

A real accomplishment is Fischer's blending in his family history without distorting his main theme; small wonder that for years he was one of the industry's leading editors. Try it—you'll like it!

YUK! OPEN WIDE — All is not glitter at Six Flags Over Texas as the theme park readies for its 1979 opening. At left, a worker finds out what happened to a stool that vanished last season. It's stuck in the goo of what is normally a serene canoe ride lake which is drained during the off-season for removal of debris... like stools. The big-mouthed character at right is actually the entryway to the Lost Temple of the Chisos where visitors seem to defy gravity as they make their slanted way through a simulated archeological dig.

Friona Girl Enters "Miss Irish Rose"

Shamrock, Texas (Special) —The legend grows with the passing years, and "Irish Memories," theme of Shamrock's 1979 St. Patrick's Celebration, is calculated to stir the pot!

Far into the future residents hereabouts will recall when city officials donned green underwears, the local newspaper editor took pills to turn his beard green, and the "greening-up" pace quickened as each year's Irish Party approached.

Currently, Irishmen by the score, most sporting Donegal beards, with colleens on their arms, are bound for Shamrock to join in the shenanigans honoring the great St. Patrick Wednesday through Sunday, March 14-18, for the 33rd staging of the greatest community celebration in the Southwest.

The biggest St. Patrick's party held anywhere outside Ireland is headed up this year by Noel Walton, general chairman, assisted by committees doing the legwork for the celebration.

Every citizen is thinking "green" as the celebration nears, and kissing the blarney stone in Elmore Park to assure the "Luck o' the Irish" on the great day is a must for every true Irishman. Even the special edition of The Shamrock Texan, the local newspaper, will be printed on green newsprint.

Shamrock, a 3,200-resident dot on the red-and-sandy portion of the Eastern Panhandle, will turn Irish for sure the week-end of March 16-17 as an expected 30,000 visitors join with the home-folk to insure an enthusiastic and successful celebration.

gin with a World's Championship Domino Tournament at Grand Slam Motor Company showroom on East Highway 66 at 6:00 p. m. Wednesday, March 14, with finals set Thursday, March 15, at 6:00 o'clock in the evening.

A pre-St. Patrick's banquet featuring the appearance of "Doc" Blakely, the only humorist in Texas with a PH.D., has been scheduled at National Guard Armory Friday night, March 16.

The real celebrating starts Saturday, March 17, with the hour-long St. Patrick's Celebration Parade led by the green-clad Shamrock High School Irish Band, followed by Donegal judging, the Miss Irish Rose Contest, the popular Old Fiddlers' competition, a street carnival, free lunches and rodeo events.

Friona's reigning Maize Queen, Laura Ellis, will be an entry in the annual "Miss Irish Rose" contest on Saturday.

Friona's reigning Maize Queen, Laura Ellis, will be an entry in the annual "Miss Irish Rose" contest on Saturday.

The annual St. Patrick's Celebration dance at National Guard Armory will feature the popular country-western personality Bill Mack of Radio Station WBAP, Ft. Worth, and his Midnight Cowboys. A dance for teens has been planned at Jaycee Gymnasium with Andychron supplying the music.

Shamrock's Ministerial Alliance will host a program at High School Auditorium Saturday night featuring The Followers "Spreading The Gospel Of Jesus Christ Through Song."

Nearly everyone can find a bit of Irish in his background when St. Patrick's Day rolls around, so even if your name is Kupinski, Schmidt, Goldberg or Smith you are invited to Shamrock for the 1979 festival.

The celebration originated in 1938, when the late Glenn Truax talked the town into the event after the senior play for that year had been canceled.

Dana Miller On 3-AA Star Team

District champion Dimmitt paced the District 3-AA all-district girls team announced this week by district coaches.

Dana Miller was Friona's lone selection on the ten-member all-district squad.

Gaining "honorable mention" status from Friona were Varla Welch, Alesia Tucker, Renae Monroe and Vickie Smiley.

DANA MILLER, the scoring leader for the Squaws' basketball team, was named to the All-District team announced this week.

I read in the paper a few days back where this fellow filed a two million dollar law suit against a major brewing company and some tavern owner. Seems he was a writer but due to the intake of that "particular" beer, he lost whatever mental ability or talent he used to possess, or so he claims.

Just think of the possibilities that now lay open to us all.

My sons can now claim their poor grades are due to the intake of soda pops, tea, milk, or whatever commercial product they avail themselves of.

My wife can now rationalize her always being late on her intake of java and may even have to cease coffee breaks at the office because of mental errors she may make.

Our diplomats can excuse our weaknesses in foreign affairs due to the social cocktails they consume, and the president, if he so partakes, can reason the inability to cure inflation.

I attempted to discuss this with my wife the other day and told her I had in mind to do a column on the matter. Taciturn as she is, and always noncommittal, she merely nodded.

Words were not forthcoming, however. I sat in front of the typewriter for what seemed to be hours. I would type, X out, retype, X out again, and would finally tear the paper from the machine and throw it angrily into the wastebasket.

I finally realized I was getting nowhere, and began pacing the floor, making guttural sounds that finally got on my wife's nerves.

"What on earth is the matter with you?" she finally asks.

"I'm not making any headway on my column, that's what."

"Just give it a little while. You know how you are when you're doing those things. It'll come to you as it always does."

"Not this time, I'm afraid. Something I can't put my finger on is really bothering me."

"Well, get in your car and drive around or something, anything, but stop making me a nervous wreck."

I follow her advice somewhat, and finally hit upon the problem as well as the solution.

When I finished the column my wife asked how I solved it.

"Simple," I told her. "I merely abstained from drinking water."

deliveries. Don't leave bicycles, toys, lawn mowers or anything of value out in the open. Everything should be put away and preferably locked up.

A good investment a person might purchase is one or more electric timers. They can hook these up to lamps throughout the house. These will come on in the evening and go off automatically.

If a person or family is planning to be gone a few weeks, they should ask a neighbor or hire somebody to take care of the yard. They should water, mow and clip the yard. An unkept yard is a good indication a person is gone.

You might get a dog. Keep him in the house or in the back yard. When a dog barks he scares the burglar or calls attention to him and he doesn't want to be noticed.

Outside lights are very helpful. There are several to choose, such as yard lights, flood lights or porch lights. They discourage burglars because they like dark places. This way he can't be seen.

A radio left playing just loud enough for a burglar to hear might discourage him. This leads them to believe someone is home.

These are a few precautions on discouraging a burglar. There are many more. Most of all you should use a little common sense and keep things locked up so things won't be so inviting or easy for a burglar.

week and smiled on outdoor activity. Friona track teams see action at Farwell's Twin-City Relays on Saturday.

American Agriculture...

Daniel said that in retrospect, it felt gratifying to have been a part of the historic tractorcade. He pointed out that the National Archives has set up a display on the tractorcade, complete with the AAM cap, pictures showing the snarled traffic.

"We're right in there, between the rioters and the Ku Klux Klan," he said laughingly.

The Awtreys said they felt the farmers were not fighting the consumers of America, but that their biggest enemy was the Trilateral commission, with its goal of gaining complete control over agriculture and the vital food industry.

"They want to gain control of agriculture, just like they have the oil industry," Awtreys charged.

Awtreys and Daniel both spoke of the tremendous support the tractorcade received as they were going through cities and towns enroute to Washington. The more publicity we received, and the people knew in advance when we would be through their towns. There would be literally hundreds of people lining the streets and overpasses as we passed through. It was a touching experience," Daniel said.

Contrary to the bleak picture painted by the national press, especially the television networks, the AAM representatives pointed out that their efforts received tremendous coverage each day in the local Washington press, including the Post and Star.

And after the capital was buried underneath two feet of snow, and the farmers came to the city's aid by clearing parking lots and giving rides to and from hospitals and other facilities for doctors and other professional people, the Washington police "came around."

It was pointed out that the week following the blizzard experience, the Washington police threw a free

"Naturally, the farther we went, barbecue for the farmers, and that 27 members of the AAM were given "Prince George Merit Awards" for their help during the snowstorm, and that they understood the awards were not thrown around indiscriminately.

A number of the farmers have invested considerable time and money into the effort. Awtreys said he had been gone for six months.

"Some people say we had a big vacation, but that wasn't my idea of a vacation...getting up at 3 or 4 a.m. and plodding through the snow and cold until the late hours. I was glad to get back home, where I could go to work and cut down on my hours," he said.

"We feel like we made some inroads, but it may be too soon to know for sure. We can't stop here, though," said Mrs. Awtreys, probably summarizing the feelings of most of the participants in the historic Tractorcade.

Lazbuddie Young Homemakers Plan Senior Citizens Social

The Lazbuddie Young Homemakers met in the High School Homemaking Department for their regular monthly meeting on Monday, March 5.

Mrs. Clay Mimms, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Roy Don Rector read the minutes of the previous meeting and gave an up-to-date financial report. Mrs. Mimms stated that Mrs. Effie Jennings had given the club a money donation.

Mr. Beam, Elementary Principal, had reported to Mrs. Mimms that one elementary student had been in need of eye glasses and unable to purchase them. It was decided to purchase these for the student.

A check for $150.00 was sent to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation by the Lazbuddie club. Literature leaflets about this lung-damaging disease are to be handed out to the school children. Mrs. Bill Morris, advisor, will distribute this literature to the necessary teachers.

Sunday, March 25, at 2:30 p.m. has been selected as the date for the Senior Citizens Social. This social will pay special tribute to ten "Special Senior Citizens." These Lazbuddie Senior Citizens are Mrs. Dixie Barnes, Mrs. Betty Bewley, Mrs. Vivian Ham, Mrs. Effie Jennings, Mrs. Clara Weaver, Ed Clark, Ben Foster, Sam Layman, Alfred Scott and Willie Steinbock. An invitation is extended to the Lazbuddie and surrounding areas. There will be a short period of live entertainment, games, and refreshments will be served by the Young Homemakers in the Lazbuddie School Cafeteria.

Ladies mark your calendar on April 10 at 3:30 p.m. for the annual Young Homemakers Spring Style Show. The latest in spring fashions will be modeled by the Young Homemakers and others. This will be free to the public with door prizes and refreshments. Watch for further publicity.

Mrs. Mimms reminded members of Secret Pal Birthday and Anniversaries during the month of March. Mrs. Jim Collum was the lucky winner of the monthly door prize. It was a "Gold Leaf" painting by Mrs. Johnny Mitchell.

Mrs. Jake Black of the Honeycomb in Muleshoe was the guest speaker. She gave a demonstration on hair care. Using Mrs. Jim Collum as a model, Mrs. Black showed how to cut hair, the correct use of a blow dryer and several other helpful hair care hints. Mrs. Harrol Redwine presented Mrs. Black with a baked gift as a show of appreciation for her time.

Refreshments of brownies, chocolate chip cookies, three layer cookies, Cokes and Dr. Pepper were served to Mrs. Mike Blackburn, Mrs. Lloyd Bradshaw, Mrs. Kirby Burch, Mrs. Jim Collum, Mrs. Skip Magby, Mrs. Clay Mimms, Mrs. Johnny Mitchell, Mrs. Roy Don Rector, Mrs. Harrol Redwine, Mrs. Tim Smith, Mrs. Dale Vise, advisor, Mrs. Bill Morris and guest, Mrs. Wade Cummin of Wyoming. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Dale Vise and Mrs. Darrell Mason.

The next scheduled meeting will be Thursday, April 5 at 2 p.m. This will be a meeting to finalize plans for the spring style show.

SPEAKER....Lecturer Bill Hayes of Amarillo is shown as he addressed a crowd of business people here Monday night in a sales seminar conducted by Friona State Bank.

Program To Benefit Drive

The Friendship House Assn. announced this week that the organization would sponsor a program of music on Saturday, March 17 at the Community Center, as a fund-raising project for the association's proposed new center.

A number of various local musicians are expected to take part in the program, including quartets, soloists, and other combinations.

It is expected that a free-will offering will be taken at the door, to be applied to the fund drive for the new center. This fund drive was kicked off this week by the Friendship House group.

It was reported that 29 members of the organization attended their regular "first Tuesday" meeting this week. Representatives of the organization also appeared before the board of the PRPC, and received their grant of $3,750, for operating expenses during 1979.

Part of the money will go to purchase equipment for the clubhouse, including a dishwasher, vacuum cleaner, etc.

Residents are asked to circle the March 17 date on their calendar. More details on the program will be given next week.

Cotton Expert To Speak Here

A Cotton Producers' Meeting will be held at the Friona Community Center, Monday, March 12, at 7 p.m. (CST). Speakers for the program will be Dr. Jim Leser, entomologist, discussing cotton insects and their control, and Dr. James Supak, cotton agronomist, discussing cotton varieties, fertility levels and harvesting techniques.

This meeting is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and is for everyone without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin.

PROCLAMATION.... Mayor B.K. Buske affixes his signature to a document proclaiming the week of March 11-17 as Girl Scout Week in Friona, as members of Brownie Troop 162 look on. From the left are Maria DeLaRosa, Shelly Cunningham, Mayor Buske, Tracy Rust, April Bush and Sherry Cunningham.

Girl Scout Week Proclaimed Here

Girl Scout Week will be observed in Friona the week of March 11-17, with special activities during the week.

On Sunday, March 11, a program will be presented at the Community Center. A film will be shown depicting the Scouts' Camp Rio Blanco near Crosbyton. A slide story on the new Girl Scout emblem also will be shown.

Monday, Troop 383 will host a birthday party for all girl scouts from 4-5 p.m. at the Scout House.

On Tuesday, girls are asked to invite a friend to join Girl Scouts.

Wednesday has been designated as "Clean up Friona" day.

On Thursday, the Scouts will visit a shut-in.

Friday, Girl Scouts will fly the American Flag.

There are currently 115 girls enrolled in scouting in Friona. There are 28 girls in Troop 161. Judy Potts, Barbara Brown, Patty Hall, Margie Ramirez and Letha Cunningham are leaders.

There are 30 girls in Troop 383. Leaders are Carolyn Carson, Cherry Wells and Connie Neelley.

Troop 358 has 12 girls enrolled. Leaders are Geneva Riethmayer and Janice Richards. Troop 95 has

GIRL SCOUTS

25 girls, with Kitty Gallman and Adabeth Smith as leaders.

Troop 84 has 20 girls, and are led by Marca Lynn Herring and Maxine Loafman.

Three other adults are also registered with the Girl Scouts, Louisa Wilson, Linda Cheshier and Nora O'Brian.

"We would like to thank the residents of Friona for supporting the Girl Scouts and enabling us to function," said a spokesman for the Scout organization.

"We cannot be just if we are not kindhearted."

JIM PATTON

Jim Patton Is Recognized

Jim Patton, a former Friona resident, was presented the Distinguished Teacher Award by the Texas Industrial Arts Association. The award was given during ceremonies in San Antonio, February 28, at the concurrent meetings of the Texas Industrial Arts Association and the American Industrial Arts Association.
Mr. Patton graduated from Friona High School in 1957 and received his

M.S. degree from West Texas State University. He is now a teacher at Sweeny High School, but prior to that position, he taught in Lake Jackson, Danbury, and in the Tehran American School in Tehran, Iran.

Mr. Patton was instrumental in starting a student industrial arts club in Sweeny High School and also responsible for enlarging the Industrial Arts curriculum. His students have won individual awards in both regional and state competition.

Attending the ceremony were his mother, Mrs. Janice Patton, also a former Friona resident, and his wife, Pat Cranfill Patton. Mr. Patton and his family reside in Lake Jackson, Texas, located south of Houston.

Mrs. Joe Talley Gives Book Review

The Black Study Club met Thursday, March 1 at the Community Room of Friona State Bank. Mrs. Helen Fangman served as hostess.

Mrs. Glyn Hamilton led the opening exercise with a word game.

Prairie Acres Party Line

Diane Tatum took charge of the crafts class this week at Prairie Acres in Kitty Gailman's absence. The class made bright print flowers out of material scraps.
Maybe it's the thoughts of flowers and the warm weather that's giving everyone spring fever.
Aunt Della Osborn was ninety-nine years old the fifth of March. Mrs. Dottie Ward, Mrs. Bonnie Derricks, Mrs. Sid Lloyd, Mrs. Marilyn Rockwell and Mrs. Carolyn Pruitt gave her a birthday party with punch, a beautifully decorated birthday cake and all the trimmings.
Aunt Della had a delightful time. She insisted they sing some of her favorite hymns, "Just Like they used to sing-um before they started changing the melodies and words." She joined in the singing and later said she didn't know when she had heard those good old songs or enjoyed them more. She said she used to sing all the time when she was churning butter, hoeing the garden, gathering eggs, or milking the cows.
Aunt Della shared some of the interesting, funny and embarrassing things that had happened to her during her life. She recalled being able to pick 303 pounds of cotton in a day. She said, "It was clean, no trash in it either." She told of the first time she had running water in the house and the time it flooded the rooms because Frank Truitt forgot to turn it off at the cut off.
Aunt Della received many lovely birthday remembrances. The Methodist Church sent her a beautiful long stemmed red rose in honor of the day.
Many friends dropped by during the day and of course Aunt Della wanted each one listed: Mrs. J.T. Gee, Anna Jo Blackburn, Nora O'Brian, Ora Mae Anthony, Jewell Wells, Mae Magness, Ginger Hight, Freda Lloyd, Thelma Jones, Sharon White, Bill and Elaine and Ben Osborn. She received many beautiful cards and letters that are a real treasure to her.

A Bible film will be shown each Tuesday by Alice Whaley. Arvella Elmore and Atha Lee Neel assisted her this week. The craft room was packed this Tuesday and everyone really enjoyed the film.
We have a new resident, C.F. Finley from Hereford.
The ladies from the Sixth Street Church of Christ will be bringing special music the first Wednesday of each month. We really do appreciate them for sharing their time and talents with us.
The First Baptist Church brought part of their revival team, Karen and Casey, to entertain the residents Wednesday afternoon. Karen is a ventriloquist.
Vera Beal and Lavern Burrow served cake.

Town Talk

By June Floyd

Phone 247-3681 With Your News Item

When the Glenn Floyds left Friona February 13, we had every intention of being home before March first. However, as most of you already know, our plans were suddenly changed by-of all things--an ice storm in the Dallas area.

About 9:30 a.m. Sunday, February 18, as Glenn and I were walking to church with two of our grandchildren, Joel and Heather Osborn, Glenn fell in the middle of Old Orchard Street at the Kingsley Road intersection. We were about two blocks from our destination and about that distance from the Osborn home.

Almost immediately a young couple we had never seen before stopped and offered assistance, which we did not accept. Then before we walked another half block Glenn announced that he had gone as far as he could go.

A resident of the first door we knocked on was very helpful and allowed me to use his phone. I called Frieda and Richard Dickson, who were just a few blocks away, but before they had time to get to us some friends of theirs came along and took us back to the Osborn residence.

From that time everyone we came in contact with was most cooperative and assisted us in every way possible. The ambulance team couldn't have been more helpful if we had been their parents or grandparents. The ambulance service is an extension of the City of Garland Fire Department.

Then, at Memorial Hospital of Garland, where Glenn had surgery and was hospitalized twelve days, the doctors, nurses and other staff members were so considerate and thoughtful.

Within a few hours after the accident, flowers, cards and letters began to arrive. These were preceded by phone calls from Friona and other West Texas cities.

A large number of Garland residents visited us often. A few of them were Frionans or had been at one time. Darrell Graham, who is the brother of Sterling Graham, who owns farms west of town was one of our visitors.

Sue Procter and Joan Baize were the only current Friona residents who visited us. However, John L. and Nellie Ray were in the area and called.

The Rays were in Garland visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Evelyn and Glen McDowell and their family. Incidentally, Rhonda McDowell was recently accorded an honor at North Garland High School. She is a sophomore and attended Bussey Middle School before entering high school.

Miss McDowell was one of four sophomores chosen by the faculty for the All North Garland Award and also a nominee for Sophomore favorite.

Then, a real special treat was a delicious freshly baked pound cake. Warren Toler, who lived in the Rhea Community prior to World War II, came over to visit us and brought the cake, which he had baked.

He says, "Probably the only people in the Friona area who would remember me are Ralph and Louisa Wilson and their daughter, Mamie Lou."

His wife, ElRita, said: "Ever since we have been married, I've heard a lot about these three people and am looking forward to visiting them some time as Warren still has such a visit on his list of most wanted things to do 'someday'."

They are a delightful couple and we're hoping they do make a trip to Friona soon.

As I started down the hall of the hospital one morning, I caught a glimpse of two very familiar faces. Matt and Betty Brown of Wichita Falls came down and spent several hours with us.

The Browns are former Friona residents and we especially enjoyed their visit.

Another treat was a fish fry with Travis and Gaye Harrell and children. Travis cooked the fish, which he had caught earlier and we had a fine visit. He is currently employed by Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas and they live near the Richardson-Garland city limits.

Another former Friona Star editor we have visited with is J. Vernon Stewart. He lives out at Wylie, which is a nearby town and travels for Dunkin' Donuts over a 32-state area.

We've also enjoyed having the Ross Goodwins from Muleshoe visit us. They have a new granddaughter out at Plano, so have been getting acquainted with her and visiting her parents, Bill and Sullia. Bill is the youngest son of Cap and Ross, who are also grandparents of our Kansas grandchildren, Jason and Sarah Floyd.

Then, we've made some very special friends, including Cletus and Almada Hoyle, who lived at Dimmitt a number of years and know a lot of people we know.

By the time you are reading this, we should be home, so you can call us there with your news tips for next week's paper.

We want to take this opportunity to express our most sincere appreciation for your prayers, calls, letters and cards. Every one of them has made our extended stay in this area more enjoyable.

It's A Boy For Schuelers

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Schueler of the Rhea Community announce the birth of their first child, a son, at 9:30 a.m. Texas time Tuesday at the Clovis Hi Plains Hospital.
