MY TURN

By Carol Ellis

FRIONA HAS ALWAYS been a close knit community of gentle people who care about one another, much like a large extended family.

If you have car trouble, someone will stop to help you out. If you are walking to work, chances are someone will offer you a ride. If someone in the hospital needs blood, word will get out into the community and pretty soon donors will show up. If someone in your family dies, people will bring over food for your family. If someone has a bad accident or a long-term illness, a fund will be started at the bank so folks can donate money for the victim, or one of the civic clubs will put on a money-raising event of some sort.

It doesn't matter in any of these instances what the color of your skin is, or if your name is Barnett or Bermea, Ellis or Estrada, Goddard or Gonzales, Roberts or Rodriguez. All races in Friona have lived, worked and worshipped side by side in harmony with one another for many years.

Now we have the LULAC group coming in with lawsuits against the local school district and city officials, claiming that the "at large" system of electing school board members and city councilmen fails to give minorities an equal voice in governing the school and city. They advocate dividing the town into districts as a more equitable method for voting on these officials.

The suit also indicates that 51 per cent of the population of Friona is made up of persons of Hispanic origin. If this is true, then the Hispanic faction already has the majority of voters in the city and should be able to vote whomever they please into office over the 49 per cent of the community's Anglo population.

In the 65 years since the city of Friona was incorporated, only two Hispanics have ever run for office; one for city council a few years ago, and then later one for school board. The white vote was divided between several other white candidates in those particular races. If the Hispanic people had voted, those candidates would have won hands down. The fact is, a large portion of our Hispanic population simply choose not to be a part of the voting process.

Last year, I was asked to be on the re-districting committee to help draw up new voting precincts for Parmer County. Persons of all races served on this committee. Great effort went into establishing special precincts in the county, whereby the minority people could vote as a bloc if they chose to do so. I thought this looked very much like segregation, but lawyers assured us that this was what the Federal Voting Rights Act had mandated (for county voting, not for city or school.)

Precinct 402, made up of mostly Hispanic voters, consistently has the lowest voting record of all the precincts in the Friona area. For proof of this, check the news article in this issue which gives voting figures for last Saturday's Senate run-off election. The fact remains, Hispanics just choose not to vote.

Members of LULAC held their annual state convention in Ft. Worth last month and vowed to push for election by districts on a state-wide basis. They seek to pursue the case both through legal channels and with stepped-up community pressure. The group currently has a five-year old lawsuit seeking state judicial elections by districts. As a compromise, State Attorney General Dan Morales has proposed that state district judges in the nine most populous counties of Texas should be elected by district instead of at large. This proposal won approval by the Texas House and Senate early in May.

We believe that a similar compromise should be made for small cities such as Friona because the city and school district have a hard enough time getting people to run for these offices as it is. Times are

KBH Runs Away With Senate Vote

To say that Republican candidate Kay Bailey Hutchison won the Parmer County vote in a runaway would almost be putting it mildly.

The winner of the special senate runoff race took Parmer County with 87.5 per cent of those voting, to 12.5 per cent for appointee Bob Krueger.

So much did Ms. Hutchison dominate the county race that she won five of the nine boxes by a 9-1 or better margin.

Ms. Hutchison won the biggest voting box, Friona 101 (Calvary Baptist), with an even 90 per cent of the vote, 241-28.

In two boxes, Friona 402 (Fire Station) and at Rhea, Krueger received only one vote. Ms. Hutchison won voting box 402 by 41-1, or 97.7 per cent, and the Rhea box, 31-1, or 93.1 per cent.

The state's newest senator also won voting box 202 (Friona Community Center), by 93.1 per cent, 81-6, and won at Oklahoma Lane, 65-7, or 90.3 per cent.

Krueger got his highest percentage, if you can call it high, at Bovina, where he managed 18.5 per cent of the vote. He still trailed there, losing at the Bovina E.M.S. Center, 115-26, and at Bovina Ridgelea School, 13-3. Krueger received 18 per cent of the vote at Lazbuddie, but lost, 77-16, and 15.6 per cent at Farwell, where he also lost by better than 5-1, 172-32.

Ms. Hutchison even held an almost 9-1 edge in the early voting box, which she won in Parmer County, 963-138.

The county's turnout of 1101 voters compared to 1422 that voted in the election May 1 when voters also decided upon the fate of the constitutional school amendments. Saturday's turnout amounted to about 29 per cent of the registered voters, according to Bonnie Warren, County Clerk.

Deadline Nears For Earth Shuttle Trip

Students who will be in grades five through nine in Friona next school year are eligible to attend the "Earth Shuttle" in Orlando, Florida, a four-day, three-night "ultimate field trip" to Epcot Center next March 25-28.

Deadline for getting their applications along with $90 deposit is Tuesday, June 15, states Pamela Pauling, one of the adult sponsors.

Students attending the camp will be able to visit the Kennedy Space Center, and Space Camp, plus many other attractions.

The total cost for the science field trip is approximately $699 per student, which includes airfare and most of the meals.

"We need to have at least 15 kids sign up in order to qualify as a unit," Mrs. Pauling said.

Pamela and Bruce Pauling, who will be in charge of the fifth-sixth grade students, and Lori and Greg Stockstill, who will sponsor the seventh through the ninth graders, will attend a five-day, four-night "Educator's Institute" prior to the trip, to aid them in preparing the students for the trip.

Those students who attending will be taught several things by the educators prior to leaving on the trip, and then will have some follow-up sessions as well.

Anyone needing an application may get one from Kevin Wiseman (247-2788), Greg Stockstill (247-2088) or Pamela Pauling (247-8090).

The students and faculty sponsors will fly to Florida from Midland, and the school will transport them to Midland, and back upon their return.

The youngsters will be studying earth science, life science, physical science and environmental studies.

The Friona VFW has scheduled a fish fry for Sunday, June 13, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Proceeds from the lunch will go to finance projects that the VFW sponsors during the year.

The meal will consist of fish, cole slaw, beans, cobbler and a drink.

Ice Cream Event Scheduled July 5th

The Friona Chamber of Commerce has announced that it will be sponsoring an "Ice Cream Freeze Off" as one of the activities for the July 4th celebration on July 5th in Friona.

There will be no entry fee for this event. For more information phone the Chamber office at 247-3491.

Excel Friona Makes Donation To Library

Excel Corporation here will donate $1,500 to the Friona Public Library to further encourage literacy in the area.

The beef plant received the funds from the Cargill Meat Sector in recognition of its volunteer efforts in the Cargill/American Library Association (ALA) Partnership for Family Literacy.

The Cargill/ALA partnership was established last year to develop and implement family literacy projects around the world. The goal of the program is to encourage literacy through the development of partnerships among Cargill locations, public libraries, literacy providers and other community organizations.

"We are honored to receive this recognition and be able to continue our support for the community's literacy programs," said Bill Rupp, general manager.

Headquartered in Wichita, Kansas, Excel is a subsidiary of Cargill, a Minneapolis-based merchandiser, processor, transporter and warehouse of agricultural and other bulk commodities.

City Braces For Its LULAC Encounter

The City of Friona was bracing this week for its reported lawsuit from the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), although when the monthly meeting of the City Council was held on Monday, the papers for the lawsuit had not been received by the city.

The lawsuit was reported in last Saturday's edition of the Amarillo Daily News, but as of early this week, the City had not received official word of the suit.

Mayor Clarence Monroe said that the impending lawsuit was frustrating, in light of the fact that the city has done everything in its power to employ Hispanics.

At the present time, the city has two Hispanic dispatchers, a Hispanic patrolman, and office workers. The city has had Spanish employees in its maintenance department for a number of years. "They have all been good employees," Monroe attested.

The mayor said that due to the fact that the Hispanic population is scattered "all over town," he didn't know how creating single-member districts would help their cause.

"We'll just turn this over to our legal counsel when it becomes a reality, and go from there," Monroe said.

The Friona mayor pointed out that in the recent city and school elections, he understood that only six Hispanics voted in the school board race, and four in the city race. "So, they (Hispanics) don't appear to be all that interested in local politics," Monroe said.

He added that he did not believe that the lawsuit and its intents met with the approval of most longtime Hispanic residents. "We don't know at this point if a local resident has

Commodity Distribution Is Slated

Commodities will be distributed June 17 at the County Barn. If you have not registered for the free commodities, you may do so on that date.

Recipients are asked to bring your own sacks, proof of income, proof of residency and proof of identification, usually a driver's license.

Ceremony To Retire U.S. Flags

A ceremony has been scheduled for Monday, June 14 (Flag Day), by the Friona American Legion Post 206, to retire old, soiled, dirty and tattered flags.

The ceremony will be held at 7 p.m. at the Boy Scout Hut.

Any citizen having a flag in the condition that it needs to be retired is urged to bring it for the ceremony.

even signed the lawsuit," Monroe stated.

The Amarillo newspaper article said that it was filed by the LULAC "statewide."

It was also pointed out that two grants received through the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission have been (or will be) used to pave streets on which mainly Hispanic people live.

"We have Hispanics in business in Friona--and they work and manage local stores. I would hope that this (lawsuit) doesn't drive a wedge between the Anglos and the Hispanic people," Monroe stated.

The longtime local mayor said he also hoped that the lawsuit did not make it hard for the city and school to continue to get qualified people to run for office.

"We have an excellent council at the present time," he said.

The lawsuit claims that the city's present method of electing aldermen in an "at-large" method "does not afford minorities an equal opportunity to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of their choice."

The lawsuit also points out that Friona's population in 1990 was 51 per cent Mexican-American, and that "there are presently no minorities on the six-member city council of the City of Friona."

(Editor's note: We may not be very smart, but it appears to us that all six members of the council are members of the present 49 per cent minority.)

POURING HELIOPAD...Members of the Friona Emergency Service are shown pouring the cement for the new helicopter landing pad adjacent to Parmer County Community Hospital. The cement for the new facility was donated by Panhandle Concrete.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Concerning the articles you ran on LULAC suing Friona ISD and the City of Friona, I would like to voice my opinion.

When did 51% of the population become the minority of 100% of a populace? The last math I took, college algebra, it was still considered a majority to have 51% out of 100.

Have the hispanics been a minority so long they don't know how to act like a majority? According to the percentages they gave, the population is represented by the minorities in Friona, the white caucasian--we are the minorities now.

I personally would like for a hispanic and a black to run for these positions. It is about time they served in our community. But, please do it the democratic way, run for office and get it by being voted in.

If the hispanics want to be on the city council and on the school board, more power to them. Let them run like all the other candidates and get voted in, in a democratic way.

The hispanics should have no trouble getting voted in with 51% of the populace, that is, of course, if they are a voting community.

I also feel that they have the right to sue anyone they choose to, but please pay your own way. To ask the City of Friona and us, the taxpayers, to pay for your inability to seek a seat on the council or school board is a little much. We already pay for your groceries, rent and give you a monthly check, don't ask us to pay for your whimsical-like tantrums.

Also, why are the names of the people that file the lawsuit never named but the council members and board members are named. Are they so uncertain of their own abilities that they have to hide behind the organization LULAC?

Maybe that is why they haven't run for a seat on either council. Show some backbone--run for office on your own merit. By suing you are running to mamma (the courts) and getting in through a non-democratic way.

Peaches Enhance Menu Any Time Of The Day

By CARLA McKEOWN

For breakfast almost every morning of the summer when we were growing up, my brother and I would have a big bowl of cereal topped with sliced fresh peaches. Sometimes we even had the "meal" for a mid-afternoon snack.

If the peaches were small, we'd just slice two. We never seemed to have the problem of running out of fruit as the raisin cereals predicted we would.

Of course, we also enjoyed eating peaches whole, preferring the biggest juiciest fruit we could find. As much of our family is from Weatherford, Texas, we prized the Parker County peaches that we bought from road-side vendors when we visited relatives.

One of our mother's best dishes is for peach cobbler (see recipe below). I prefer it very hot, with a lot of crust and vanilla ice cream.

As the supermarkets' strawberry supply begins to dwindle and peaches fill the bins, peach shortcake can likewise replace strawberry shortcake. Simply peel and slice peaches, sprinkle with a little sugar and pour on top of shortcake. Then, top with whipped cream. It's a delicious fresh peach dessert.

Also, try the following recipes this summer:

PEACHES 'N' CREAM PIE
Pastry for one 9-inch or 10-inch pie

crust
6 to 8 ripe peaches
3/4 cup sugar
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
Dash of salt
Dash of cinnamon
1 cup whipping cream
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Line a 9-inch or 10-inch pie plate with pastry. Slice peaches into the crust until level with top of plate. Stir together sugar, flour, salt and cinnamon. Gradually stir in whipping cream and vanilla until well mixed. Pour sauce over peaches. (If you are using a 9-inch pie plate, you may have a little sauce left over.) Bake the pie for 10 minutes at 425 degrees; reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake for 30 minutes. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

PEACH COBBLER

Crust:
2 cups all-purpose flour
1 cup shortening
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup water
Filling:
1 quart fresh or canned peaches, sliced
1/2 cup margarine
2 cups sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups water or juice from canned peaches

For crust, mix ingredients, divide dough into three equal pieces and roll out each like a pie crust. Line the bottom of a deep dish with 1 layer of the dough. Layer peaches on top of the bottom crust; sprinkle with 1 cup of sugar and 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon. Cut the margarine into pats and spread half of the pats on top of the peaches. Pour 1 cup of the water over the peaches. Repeat with another layer of dough, peaches, sugar, cinnamon, margarine and water. Top with the third layer of dough. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour to 1 hour and 15 minutes or until the top is golden brown. Serve plain, with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream.

PEACHES WITH TART CREAM

2 pounds ripe peaches, blanched, peeled, cut in half lengthwise, and stoned
1/4 cup packed light brown sugar
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
Dash of ground cloves
1/2 cup sour cream
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
1/2 cup whipping cream, chilled

Butter a 9-inch pie plate. Start at the outer edge of the pie plate and make a circle of peach halves, seed side facing the center of the pie plate. Continue to make circles with the fruit, pushing the fruit in one circle against the fruit in the preceding circle so that the circles are compact and the peaches are almost standing upright. Fill the small center space with one or two peach halves. Mix the 1/4 cup brown sugar and 1/4 cup granulated sugar with the cinnamon and cloves; sprinkle evenly over the peaches. Place the pie plate on a baking sheet and bake on the center oven rack at 350 degrees for 40 to 50 minutes or until the peaches can be easily pierced with a knife and the juices are bubbling. Remove the plate from the oven. In a medium bowl, whisk the sour cream and the tablespoon of sugar together. Whip the cream with a mixer just until it holds soft peaks. Stir a spoonful of whipped cream gently with a spatula. About 15 minutes after you take the fruit from the oven, spoon the peaches into serving bowls and top with the cream. This dessert also can be served at room temperature or chilled. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

PICKLED PEACHES

12 pounds peaches
7 pounds sugar
2 quarts vinegar
4 cinnamon sticks
Whole cloves

Tie the cinnamon sticks and 2 tablespoons of whole cloves in a cheesecloth bag. Combine the sugar, vinegar and spice bag in a large kettle and bring to a boil. Scald the peaches in boiling water just long enough to loosen the skins; then, dip in cold water and peel. Put 4 whole cloves into each peach. Drop the peaches, a few at a time, into the boiling syrup. Cook until tender and translucent; put the peaches into sterilized canning jars. When the jars are full, add enough boiling syrup to cover the peaches, leaving 1/2-inch headroom. Wipe the rims carefully, put seals and rings in place. Process in a boiling water bath for 5 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 quarts.

If you want to enter the horseshoe pitching contest, call Nicky Nickels at 965-2175.

Other events include dunking board, water balloon games, dart throwing games, stick horse roping, bicycle and tricycle races, a mini water park (with parental supervision) and much, much more.

A concession stand will be provided, selling grilled burgers, corn on the cob, corn dogs and watermelon. Homemade ice cream will also be available.

"If you don't want to participate in the games, just bring your lawn chairs, come relax and watch others having fun," said a spokesman for the activities.

Glass containers or alcoholic beverages will not be allowed.

For more information on the activities, call Carolyn Scott at 965-2188 or 965-2137.

If you would like to bring fireworks, the Lazbuddie Fire Department will set them off that night.

Facts About The

THE DEMON OF JEALOUSY

IN THE BIBLE, AS IN MODERN TIMES, JEALOUSY HAS BEEN A MOST DESTRUCTIVE FORCE. TAKE THE CASE OF SAUL, FIRST KING OF ISRAEL. SAUL HAD NO REASON TO BE JEALOUS OR WORRIED ABOUT HIS KINGDOM UNTIL HE DISOBEYED THE PROPHET SAMUEL. THE DISOBEDIENCE STEMMED FROM A VICTORY SAUL HAD SECURED OVER A PHILISTINE KING. SAMUEL HAD ORDERED HIM TO WAGE A WAR OF EXTERMINATION AGAINST THESE ENEMIES OF ISRAEL, INCLUDING THEIR KING. BUT SAUL SPARED THE KING. SAMUEL THEN TOLD SAUL (I SAM. 15:11) THAT HE WAS REJECTED OF GOD---AND THEN THE TROUBLE STARTED! SAUL WENT INTO GREAT FITS OF MELANCHOLY AND DAVID WAS CALLED ON TO PLAY MUSIC UPON THE HARP TO SOOTHE HIM. BUT LO AND BEHOLD, WHEN DAVID SLEW GOLIATH, AND BECAME A NATIONAL HERO, VICIOUS JEALOUSY TOOK POSSESSION OF HIM AND FROM THAT TIME ON HE WAS SUBJECT TO EVEN WORSE FITS OF DEPRESSION AND INSANE BEHAVIOR...UNTIL HIS DYING DAY!

Bovina's First Baptist Church To Celebrate 90th Anniversary

Plans for a 90th Anniversary Celebration are going well at First Baptist Church of Bovina. Dates for the celebration will be the weekend of June 26-27.

This will be a time of homecoming and reunion, and all members, former members, and friends of First Baptist Church are invited to participate.

Theme for the two days of activities will be "Building Foundations for the Future" based on 1 Corinthians 3:11, "For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ." (NIV)

First Baptist Church of Bovina was organized with four charter members in 1903. The first services were held in the school building. The first church building was built in 1905.

Since its founding, First Baptist Church has continually ministered to the spiritual needs of the community and surrounding area, with present pastor, Richard Grisham, being the thirty-second pastor of the congregation.

The celebration will begin on Saturday evening, June 26, with the church being open from 4-6 p.m. for those who arrive early or wish to visit friends.

This will be followed by a hamburger and homemade ice cream supper on the grounds, sponsored by the Baptist Men of the church.

An evening worship service begins at 7:30 p.m., which will include singing, special music, a children's choir, testimonies by present and former members, and a message by former pastor, Derral Lewis, 1975-78. Dr. Lewis is presently pastor of the First Baptist Church in Stratford.

The Sunday morning schedule, June 27, will begin fifteen minutes earlier than normal, with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. and morning worship at 10:45 a.m.

Highlights of the morning worship will include gospel singing and testimonies, recognition of present and former members, a theme interpretation and baby dedication, and a message by John Ferguson of Houston, pastor 1959-1963.

The Sunday morning worship celebration will be followed with a noon meal for all members and guests in the church's Fellowship Hall.

Sunday afternoon the 90th anniversary celebration will conclude with a 2 p.m. time of worship. This final service will include a history of the church presentation by Don and Juanda Murphy, a mini-concert by Grady and Dorothy Sorley, more singing and testimonies, and a concluding message by Larry Heard, pastor 1970-75. Dr. Heard serves as director of missions out of Pampa for the Top O'Texas Baptist area.

Other former pastors expected to be present and to share include Bruce Giles (1946-47), Jack Jeter (1958-59), Ralph Aday (1964-66), Ken Moore (1967-70), J.L. Bass (1981-84), and Gene Hawkins who began his ministry in Bovina and is now director of missions for the Lubbock Baptist Association.

Joe Luscombe, former youth director (1970-71), Betty Hawkins who directed music (1958-73), and Kirk Scott, pianist (1986-92), will also be on the program.

Present resident members who have been members of First Baptist Church continuously and the longest will be recognized and honored during the 90th celebration. They are as follows: Joe Looney (1921), Lawrence Gray (1927), Amos Steelman (1929), Flossie Rhinehart (1931), Lucy Sisk Thomas (1933), Floyd Englant (1933), Laura Tritch (1934), Pete Davies (1936), Joyce Hammonds (1936) and Lula White (1939).

The First Baptist Church 90th anniversary planning committee would like to hear from anyone who knows of names and addresses of former members, or who have pictures or other interesting items about First Baptist Church for a historical display. Please call the church office at (806) 238-1632 if you have information.

Joe Fortenberry Is Buried In Amarillo

Amarillo's Joe Fortenberry, a captain on the United States' first Olympic basketball team in 1936 and the first inductee to the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame in 1959, died Thursday, June 3, 1993. He was 82.

Services were held at 10 a.m. Saturday in First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Murray Gossett, associate pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the cemetery at Happy, with the Rev. Jerry Stewart, pastor of First Baptist Church of Happy, officiating. Arrangements are by Boxwell Brothers Funeral Directors.

Mr. Fortenberry, born in the Leo Community in Cooke County, moved to Swisher County with his family in 1925, settling on a farm near Happy. He had lived in Amarillo since 1946, employed as a land man for Phillips Petroleum Co. retiring in 1974. He then worked for OKC, representing the Dallas oil company in Amarillo until 1980.

He was known for his role on the 1936 gold-medal Olympic basketball team, which beat Canada, 19-8, in the championship game.

Mr. Fortenberry, a 6-foot-7 center, scored eight points to lead all scorers in the game played outdoors in a driving rainstorm in Berlin.

"(Adolph) Hitler said it was an outside game and that's where we were going to play it," Mr. Fortenberry said in an interview with the Globe-News last summer.

The Associated Press' report on the game included the following:

"Joe Fortenberry, the tall American center from Happy, Texas... contributed some good work on the defense, twice leaping up and catching balls headed for the net."

Mr. Fortenberry played high school basketball at Union Hill School in Swisher County for one year. He then played for Happy High School for three years.

He led Happy High School to the Swisher County championship four times and to the regional finals once before entering West Texas State Teachers College in the fall of 1930. He gained All-America honors at WT, playing under the late Sam Burton.

Mr. Fortenberry led WT to consecutive 20-win seasons in 1932 and 1933. He also played for the 1930-31 WT squad that posted an 18-3 record.

The WT team at that time was referred to as "The World's Tallest Team."

He lettered three years in basketball, two years in football and was college heavyweight boxing champion.

After college, he got a job working for a refinery at Ogden, Utah, and playing semi-pro basketball for the company team, the Ogden Boosters. He then went to work in the laboratory at the Globe Refineries plant in McPherson, Kan., and played on the Globe Refiners basketball team that won the Amateur Athletic Union competition national championship in 1936, a victory that led to spots for Mr. Fortenberry and other Refiners players on the first Olympic team.

Back in New York after the Olympics, Mr. Fortenberry and his teammates were broke but were able to earn travel money in a game set up in Madison Square Garden by famed sports promoter Tex Rickard.

After going to work for Phillips Petroleum Co. in Bartlesville, Okla., Mr. Fortenberry played basketball for the Phillips 66ers, gaining All-America honors four times. He led Phillips to three Missouri Valley AAU championships during that span and the 1940 AAU national championship.

He continued to play basketball on various Army Air Corps teams during World War II but retired from basketball after the war.

He was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Amarillo.

He married Barbara Brotherton in 1947 in Amarillo.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Oliver Joe Fortenberry of Amarillo; two daughters, Sally Hill of Denver and Trisha Hill of Amarillo; a brother, Paul Fortenberry of Friona; three sisters, Gladys Daugherty of Arcadia, Calif. and Lonas Wright and Fern Spear, both of Happy; and three grandchildren.

The family requests that memorials be to a favorite charity.

DEENA JO WILLARD of Friona was among 218 students receiving their diplomas at Ouachita Baptist University's commencement recently. Miss Willard, the daughter of Connie and Dee Willard, graduated magna cum laude, maintaining at least a 3.75 grade-point average. She received a bachelor of science in education, with elementary education her specialty. While at OBU, Miss Willard was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, national Education Honor Society, Alpha Chi, national Honor Society; Tri-Chi Women's Social Club; Ouachita Student Educators Assn.; and Baptist Student Union. She made the Dean's List and President's List at OBU.

hard, money is scarce, people are often working two jobs if they can find them. There isn't a lot of time or energy left over for the commitment which is required to be a school board member or a city councilman. There have been times in recent years when we would have voted for a green man from Mars if he had shown an interest in being involved in helping to run the city or the school.

A good compromise would be for cities of 12,000 or more population to go on the district system of voting for city and school officials. Cities under 12,000 population would remain on the "at large" system because towns under that size are too small to be divided into districts.

The sort of separatism and divisiveness advocated by LULAC does nothing to promote good race relations but only serves to cause racial hatred in areas where there has previously been little or no tension between people of different cultures. We Anglos have an old proverb which goes like this "You can attract more flies with honey than you can with vinegar." In other words, the members of LULAC would accomplish a lot more if they would concentrate less on agitation and more on public relations.

This lawsuit action has driven a wedge right into the heart of our community and we will not be whole again.

BS Troop 56 Has Weekend Of Activities

Boy Scouts of Friona Troop 56 participated in Adventure Saturday on May 8. The activities included archery, rifle shooting, rowboats, zip line, pole building and an Indian village. There were food drawings and all kind of fun events during the weekend.

Charlie Waters, defensive coach for the Denver Broncos and former Dallas Cowboy defensive back, was there to shake hands, sign autographs and conducted the NFL souvenir drawing. He was also the guest speaker at the closing at which Friona was recognized for having the highest percentage of members for the weekend.

"Charlie Waters was an excellent sports figure to have. He had time for each and every boy not to mention the fact that he is an ex-Scout," said a spokesman for the Scout activities.

Scouts attending were (Scorpions) Charlie Saiz, Jimmy Ortiz, Garland Buske, Clinton McCoy and Justin Boyd; (Flaming Arrow) Jesse Allen, Dale Williams, Tyson Neill, Nathan Nunley, Tony Williams, Nick Shrode and Jason Berra.

Adults attending were Gary and Mercedes Williams and B.K. Buske.

Boy Scout Camporee Held At Buffalo Lake

The Longhorn District Camporee was held May 18 at Buffalo Lake.

Homes Tour To Be Held Sunday

The Plemons-Eagle neighborhood in Amarillo is a subdivision built by the pioneer families of that area and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

The Neighborhood Association (PENA) founded in 1981 will sponsor a tour of seven of these historic homes on Sunday afternoon, June 13, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. with proceeds going to benefit the preservation and improvement projects of PENA.

The Ben Konis home at 712 W. 17th is one of the stops on the tour, as well as the Shuford-Killough House at 1608 S. Polk, build 1913, which is registered as a Texas Historic Landmark.

Cost of the tour is $10.00 and tickets may be purchased at any of the homes on the tour. Other homes are located at 1710 S. Polk, 1611 S. Madison, 1500 S. Buchanan, 1926 S. Tyler, and 2003 S. Tyler.

Members of Boy Scout Troop 56 used this as another chance to use their camping skills with the outing serving as three-fourths of Scouting.

Boy Scouts attending the Camporee were Jimmy Ortiz, Tyson Neill, Tony Williams, Jason Berra, Nathan Nunley, Clinton McCoy, Nick Shrode, Jesse Allen, Dale Williams, Charlie Saiz, Garland Buske and Justin Boyd.

Adults attending were Gary and Mercedes Williams, B.K. Buske and Byron Boyd.

The survival skills used at this camp included fire making, where the Friona team placed first; compass use, Friona team, first place; knot tying, Friona second; nature identification, Friona third; and first aid, Friona third place.

The team accumulated the highest total of points, winning the overall award.

"Friona should be proud of its boys placing well in all competitions," said a leader for the Scouts.

A group of Cub Scouts also attended the Camporee and, to the surprise of all attending, this younger group took first place in first aid and seventh place overall in competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Weatherley of Van Alstyne, Texas, and Mrs. T.B. Weatherley of Celeste, Texas, departed for their homes Friday morning after a five day visit in the home of Randy Weatherley.

Memorial Day holiday visitors in the home of Doyle and Judy Cummings were Mrs. Bob Bumpas and children, Sara and Jake, who live in Rockwall, Texas.

Mrs. Bumpas is the former Terri Sue Cummings.

Cynthia Caffey Cotton and daughter, Blythe, arrived in Friona, Wednesday, for a visit in the homes of Estelle and Kim Caffey.

On Saturday, these four attended the wedding of Dr. David Caffey and Mary Whitcomb in Clovis.

Dr. Caffey, the dean of instruction at Clovis Community College, is a nephew of the late Dalton Caffey.

One of Dalton's brothers, Glen Caffey, and his wife, Ruth, who live in Abilene, Texas, were also guests at the wedding.

Then, on Sunday, Glen and Ruth were dinner guests of Estelle, Kim, Cynthia and Blythe.

Read in a recent Amarillo paper that Joe Riley of Hart was one of five farmers recommended by Senator Bob Krueger and named by President Clinton and Agriculture Secretary Mike Espy to serve on the state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service committee.

Riley is the son of Ray Joe and Eddie Jo Scott Riley, who also live at Hart. Mrs. Riley is a former Friona High School teacher and employee of Parmer County Community Hospital.

Instead of being the proverbial "absent minded professor," Allo Reeve deserves the title of "absent minded great-grandmother."

After she and her late husband, Glenn Evan Reeve, Sr., had had four sons, Glen Evan, Jr., Don, Joe and Max, Allo still fervently desired to have a girl.

At one time, there were two small girls in the community who needed a home. With Glenn's permission, Allo made inquiries about adopting both of them and was very hopeful that at last, there would be girls in her family.

When she learned that her dreams were not to be fulfilled at that time, she resigned herself to waiting for granddaughters.

She was elated that the first grandchild, Glenda Reeve, was indeed a girl. The final count of her grandchildren added up to five girls and four boys.

However, when the great-grandchildren started to appear on the family scene, the femmes really chalked up a majority. The first seven were girls, so, when the eighth one was being expected, Great-grandmother Allo was heard to say, "Maybe this one will be a boy."

The bottom line is that a baby boy was born to Mitch and Jan Reeve of Hereford in Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo, on April 29.

He weighed six pounds, four and three-quarters ounces and was named Cory Evan.

Allo said, "Evan is a hand-me-down name in the Reeve family."

She went on to say, "I've been so excited about having a great-grandson that I simply forgot to report his birth."

The great-granddaughters are Valerie, Allison and Melissa Hardgrove, who are Glen Evan's granddaughters; Brittany, Ashley and Macy Reeve, who are Don's granddaughters; and Kinsey, who is Cory's sister.

Kinsey and Cory are Joe's grandchildren.

Tom Lewis Williams, a former Friona resident who now lives in Greenville, Texas, was an overnight guest in the home of Edith Johnson, Tuesday.

She spent some time visiting former neighbors and friends and in the evening, accompanied Edith, Rhea Foster and Kathryn Smith to Clovis for Mexican food at the El Monterey.

Mrs. Williams had been visiting in the home of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ivan Rhodes of Abernathy, before coming to Friona.

The Parmer County Panhandle Community Services organization has new hours in Friona. Effective May 1, the office was scheduled to be open Mondays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Thursdays from 1-4 p.m.

Also, the staff travels to Farwell every Thursday and is in Parmer County Courthouse from 9 a.m. until noon.

Kay Renner returned to her home in Winnsboro, Louisiana, Monday after an extended visit with her kith and kin here and a brief stay in Colorado.

Her youngest son, Darcy, and his wife and family live at Saguache.

She is the sister of Anita Harris and Iona Renner and the sister-in-law of LaVohn Kirk, John and R.J. Renner, Jr., Lillie Mae Baxter and Mary Joyce Barnett.

The activity level at the home of Nelda Bengé dropped considerably Thursday. Kendall and Dana Miller Burton and daughters, Ellen, Jenna and Haley, who have been visiting here, left for Boise City for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Burton before returning to their home in Edinburg, Texas.

The Burton family came to Friona in late May and accompanied Nelda to Taos, New Mexico, for a visit in the home of Kent and Amanda Miller and family.

One of the highlights of their trip to Taos was attendance of the high school graduation on Saturday and a reception honoring the graduating seniors on Sunday afternoon.

Other Frionans making the trip were Mildred May and Curt and Kathi Miller and sons, Jacob and Caleb.

Linette, the oldest daughter of Kent and Amanda, was one of the graduates.

Lester Stanley returned home Wednesday afternoon after spending a long weekend visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stanley, who live at Ballinger, Texas.

During his absence, his wife, Genevieve, hosted a "hen party" in her home. One of her lifelong friends, Berta Vogler of Lamesa, arrived about noon Friday.

Later in the day, these two were joined by Nona Mullett and Kathy Tipton of Rowlett, Texas and Faye Flatt of Dallas.

Then, on Saturday, Dane Carr and Dorothy Scott of Lubbock came up and joined the group, which was also joined by Kathleen Carr of the Hub community.

Earlier in the week, Debbie Klien and children, Vicki and Tony, of Durango, Colorado, were visitors in the Stanley home.

Sterling and Joy Graham and Mildred May left Friday afternoon for a weekend with kith and kin in Central Oklahoma.

The Grahams accompanied Sterling's mother, Ann Graham, who lives at Rush Springs, to Burk Burnett, Texas, for a family reunion.

Mildred was a guest in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Arlen May and son, Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Williams and daughter, Whitney, who live in Duncan.

The Frionans returned home Sunday afternoon.

Out-of-town guests in the Graham home this week are their three New Mexico granddaughters, Ashley, Chelsey and Carley Dement, of Portales.

They are the daughters of Stan and Gail Graham Dement.

A very interesting piece of junk mail crossed my desk early this week. It was an appeal for funds to teach Christianity in China.

The information was mailed in a plain white window business envelope with no return address in the upper left corner. The postmark was illegible, but there were some Chinese characters just above the window and the words "Do not return to China," about mid-point both directions on the envelope.

If any of our readers received such an envelope, I would appreciate hearing from you. My curiosity is aroused.

It seems as if Lady Luck hasn't been riding with the Hub Grain staff recently. One day last week, O.L. McMurtrey was taken to the Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo, where he had an emergency appendectomy.

Howard Fleming, who was involved in an accident several weeks ago, is still using crutches.

A recent report indicated that Mac was making satisfactory progress and expected to be home by the end of the week.

The all new B.M.W.'s will be arriving in Friona, Texas in July! 3tc

JODI ALLISON MACK and SAMUEL RANDO... James T. and Barbara A. Mack of Wasilla, Alaska, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jodi Allison, to Samuel Rando, son of Santos and Lola Rando of Friona. The bride-elect is a graduate of Wasilla High School and is a student at Wayland Baptist University, Plainview. She is a nanny employed by J. Pink Dickens. Rando is a graduate of Friona High School and attended WBU. He is a photographer at Family Photo of Lubbock. The couple will be married Saturday, June 19 at Colonial Baptist Church.

Club. Students will visit foreign embassies and receive policy briefings from senior government officials. In addition, Jon will meet with Senator Phil Gramm, Senator Bob Krueger and Representative Larry Combest or designated members of their staffs to discuss important issues facing Friona and the nation.

He will also participate in learning activities designed to enhance students' leadership skills. In one activity, a simulation entitled "If I Were President," students role-play the president and members of his cabinet who must respond to an international crisis. Culminating the National Young Leaders Conference is "The Mock Congress On National Service," a half-day activity in which scholars assume the roles of United States Representatives by debating, building coalitions and voting on proposed youth service legislation.

The National Young Leaders Conference is sponsored by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, a non-profit, non-partisan educational organization. Founded in 1985, the council is committed to "fostering and inspiring young people to achieve their full leadership potential." Over 300 members of the United States Congress join this commitment to youth leadership development as members of the council's honorary congressional board of advisors.

"I firmly believe that by touching one life, the National Young Leaders Conference enriches thousands more," said John Hines, council executive director. "Scholars return to their schools and communities better equipped to meet the challenges they face as young leaders now and in the 21st century."

YOUR EYES

"In Harness"

The classic example, in books and paintings, of working in harmony is often two oxen yoked together to the same harness. There's really a better example closer to hand: your eyes.

Working together, your eyes are able to focus on the same object at the same time. For most people, this is easy and automatic. Sometimes, though, the eyes don't work well together. Then the result may be double vision, a concept the brain rejects. Either the individual overworks his eye muscles trying to get the two eyes to aim at the same object at the same time or, in time, the brain will block out the image seen by one of the eyes. In that cast, depth perception is lost.

This problem can be corrected. After careful examination, your optometrist may recommend corrective lenses and/or vision training. Sometimes a prism is added to corrective lenses to alter the image that the eye sees. If vision training is advised, the exercises are usually started in the optometrist's office and continued at home.
