FOR THE FIRST time in its history, Friona is situated on a four-lane highway!

Prior to the last week in June, the only way residents in our area could drive on a four-lane, divided highway, was to find one somewhere else.

You could drive to Clovis--or Amarillo--or Lubbock, and drive on such a road, but not in your own "back yard."

And the highway officials tell us that the Bovina to Friona portion of the road could be opened this next week--so Bovina drivers didn't have to wait long to enjoy the benefits of the new road.

It sure is neat to get on the road and not have to wonder if you're going to get behind that "slow vehicle" and perhaps miss your appointment.

Once during the past year, Ye Editor started out to Hereford, and (very unusually) had given ourselves right at 30 minutes to make it to a store there that closed at 6 p.m.

With the "slow vehicle," and the flagman stopping traffic between Friona and Black due to the construction, and then hitting the stoplight at Hereford, we drove up to the store in time to see the owner locking up and getting into his car. Only a honk on our part prevented us from a wasted trip.

Now, with everything completed--surely the D.P.S. guys will give us 60 m.p.h. for awhile. Somehow or other, we can just hear our friend Trey Ellis echoing "Surely not!"

But it's great to be seeing the fruits of our labors. Several of us have worked for years pushing this project, and there were times that we thought it was a hopeless cause. But it's about to come to pass!

A BRIEF COMMENT regarding the flooding in the Midwest: Several years ago, leaders from this area pushed an idea to divert floodwater from the Mississippi River and its drainage area to the High Plains, when it appeared that our underground water supply might become exhausted soon after the year 2000.

A.L. Black recalls that in 1976 a six-state study was launched, which would have moved six million acre feet of water per year to the High Plains.

However, congressmen and leaders from the Mississippi River area "threw a hissy fit" over the idea--saying in effect that they didn't have any water to spare, and that they weren't about to give up any of their water for such a preposterous idea.

So--these of us in this area were left with just a "pipe dream."

Now, the folks in the Midwest have got their water--all of it; perhaps a bit more than they thought they could have. Our area, and even the Southeastern part of the U.S., could use some of this runoff--but residents of the Midwest area 20 years ago didn't want to share.

Some cities in the flooded area have spent millions of dollars for flood control, and we've heard news reports about others which spurned new control measured because they "didn't want to ruin their view of the river."

The state of Arkansas was also approached, to use runoff water from the Arkansas River. Black recalls that then-governor Bill Clinton said "You're welcome to all the water you can carry in a gallon jug."

I'm sure that many of our residents will still want to help with the relief efforts for the Midwest, as we would hope that their residents (and leaders) would do for us if the time ever came. But somehow we're doubtful that the longtime water leaders will feel that inclined to donate.

Perhaps it would be a great time to hit them up with the "Mississippi pipeline" idea once again. After all--now the people of the Midwest realize that once in a great while they CAN have more water than they know what to do with.

Residents Die In One-Car Rollover

Two Friona residents died following a one-vehicle rollover late Saturday, July 24 one and one-half miles north of Friona on the Cemetery Road.

Manuel Garcia, 30, was killed immediately, and Martin Barrientos died at 12:10 a.m. at Parmer County Community Hospital. Garcia was pronounced dead by Frances Euler, Justice of the Peace.

Investigating officers said the accident occurred at around 11:15 p.m.

Paul Stout, DPS spokesman, said that the Ford Bronco was traveling northbound on the county dirt road with its headlights turned off, when it crossed over into the left drainage ditch and turned over one and one-half times.

Neither man was wearing a seat belt, and Garcia was ejected from the vehicle, it was reported.

Both of the victims were employed by the Excel Corporation.

Manuel Garcia, 30, moved to Friona in 1989 from El Paso. He was born in Durango, Mexico, August 6, 1962, and married Maria Castro, October 14, 1987, in El Paso.

Survivors include his wife Maria of the home; four daughters, Chris Rodriguez, April Cruz, Julie Garcia and Yvette Garcia, all of the home; three brothers, Viviano Garcia of Anthony, N.M., Thomas Garcia of Mexico and Antonio Arrendondo of Mexico.

Seven sisters also survive: Maria Hernandez, Celia Garcia, Nativalia Miranda, Rita Garcia, Sylvia Garcia, Delores Arrendondo and Veronica Arrendondo, all of Mexico.

His mother, Antonia Miranda, of Mexico, also survives.

Services were to be held in Juarez, Mexico, with burial in the Memorial Cemetery there.

St. Teresa's Is Hosting A Jamaica

A Jamaica Funfest has been scheduled for Sunday, August 8 at St. Teresa's Catholic Church, starting at 11 a.m. until 7 p.m.

The church will have lots of food, including fajitas, tamales, hamburgers, menudo, chicharrones, barbecue brisket, carna quisada, Frito pie, nachos, funnel cakes, candy apples, pickles, cucumbers and lots more goodies.

There will also be bingo, volleyball tournaments, and other games, along with face-painting and balloons for the children.

There will be live music, and a group will be broadcasting the Jamaica on KMUL radio station of Muleshoe, from 1-5 p.m.

A TV set will be raffled off during the day.

The public is invited to attend the festivities, says Joe Bermea, chairman.

Martin Barrientos, 23, was born November 11, 1969, in Mexico. He moved to Friona in 1991 from Alabama.

Survivors include four brothers: Valente Casas of Friona; Jesus Barrientos, Ascencion Barrientos and Fernando Barrientos, all of Mexico; three sisters, Margarita Barrientos, MaDa Jesus Barrientos and Guadalupe Barrientos, all of Mexico.

Also surviving is his father, Doroteo Barrientos of Mexico, and a special friend, Mireya Reyes of Friona.

Funeral services were to be held in Jose Isabel Robles, Mexico, with burial there.

Local arrangements for both Garcia and Barrientos were by Ellis-Blackwell Funeral Home of Friona.

Area Gets Third Rain In 3 Weeks!

For the third time in as many weeks, the area received some beneficial moisture, which has farmers in some parts smiling from ear to ear.

This week's moisture was the most varied of those received in July, ranging all the way from .2 inch to 3.5 inches.

Friona's official gauge caught .52 inches Wednesday evening, and it took four and one-half hours to fall--just a gentle mountain-type shower. That brought Friona's total for July to 3.83 inches, all good moisture, and the total for the year to 9.19 inches.

Friona's total for July almost

Bovina-Friona Section Of Highway 60 Project Is Nearing Completion

The Bovina to Friona section of U.S. Highway 60 is nearing completion as a four-lane facility, and TDHPT official Rhea Bradley said that the department hopes to open the road to four-lane traffic during the coming week.

Despite some interruptions by the weather, work on this section of the road has moved along at a steady pace, and the contractor, Amarillo Road Company, looks to be finishing the 13-mile segment a full two months ahead of their first estimate.

"They're still lacking the guard rail at the bridge across Catfish Draw, and there is some work to do around the golf course bridge (Frio Draw) at Friona, but the basic work on the road is about complete," Bradley said this week.

There is still some concrete work to be completed on the bridges, and work was proceeding at midweek on paving the crossovers.

The Friona to Bovina segment was started by Amarillo Roads on January 10, 1992. At that time Charles Schmidt, vice president of Amarillo Road Co., said his company expected to have the project completed by October or November of 1993.

Schmidt allowed himself a year to build the new (southwest-bound) lane (which was completed in less than a year), and another year to rebuild the old Highway 60 roadbed, which will be the northeast-bound lane on the new four-lane highway.

In the meantime, the contractor on the Friona to the Deaf Smith County line portion of the road has basically finished with that part of the highway, and expected to be completely through by late this week. As of Tuesday, all that was lacking was some patching, clean-up, mowing, and a few incidentals.

Gilvin-Terrill, contractor on this segment of the project, kicked it off on July 11, 1990, so has recently passed the three-year anniversary of the start date. That portion of the project contains 15 miles, and the contractor has experienced a number of problems.

"In spite of the problems incurred, Gilvin-Terrill is doing excellent work. We are real proud of their effort in getting this project finished," Bradley said.

The highway project's third stage (Bovina to Farwell) likewise is moving ahead. Amarillo Road Co. is also the contractor on this phase. "We hope to see the third section completed by this time next year," Bradley said.

What might develop as a bottleneck in the 44-mile multi-million dollar road project might be the last 800 feet of the highway, which is located across the state line in New Mexico.

The folks in New Mexico turned their part of the project over to a consulting engineer for research and design of the couple of blocks within the Texico city limits.

"The last time I was in contact with the New Mexico officials, they were hopeful that they could go to contract on this before the end of the year. Unfortunately, it takes about as much paperwork for an 800-foot project as it does for an eight-mile project," Bradley said.

Meyer Is Appointed To Board

Robert Meyer, 33, of Hereford has been appointed by the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District board of directors to serve as Precinct Four district director until 1996. Precinct Four consists of the portions of Armstrong, Deaf Smith, Potter and Randall counties within the Water District.

Meyer fills the unexpired term of James C. Conkwright, who resigned from the High Plains Water District board of directors last month after moving from Hereford to Lubbock.

According to Section 52.110 of the Texas Water Code, a vacancy in the office of director of an Underground Water Conservation District shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by appointment of the board. Meyer's appointment as Precinct Four district director was made July 22 during a special meeting of the Water District board of directors.

A graduate of Hereford High School, Meyer attended West Texas State University where, he majored in agricultural economics. He has been farming for the past 13 years. He is married and has two sons.

"Being a landowner and renter of about 2,000 acres of irrigated land, I know the importance of water first hand. I understand how agriculture is the main life line for my hometown, my county and the area. With water being one of the main foundations of our area economy, it is of great importance that it be available and used wisely in the future. With this in mind, I look forward to representing the water conservation needs of the residents of District Directors' Precinct Four," Meyer said.

Penny Postcards Cost U.S. Public Millions

Dallas/Fort Worth--The U.S. Postal Inspection Service announced today that it was taking the fight against fraudulent postcards to the streets with an unusual twist to an old scam.

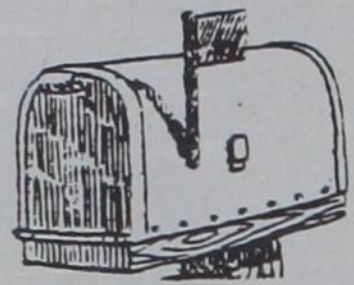

In an extraordinary effort to educate potential victims about this perennial scourge, inspectors mailed more than two hundred thousand postcards to individuals all over the country, offering recipients a "GUARANTEED PRIZE."

This familiar use promises that you have definitely won one of several seemingly big-ticket prizes, such as a luxury automobile, vacation cruise, diamond necklace or cash. To claim your free prize, you simply call an 800 or 900 number furnished on the postcard. At this point, you're connected to a high-pressure "yak" (sales agent) who spells out the real deal.

Guess what? Before any prize is awarded, you'll have to pay the promoter a fee of some kind, be it a registration fee or shipping charge. This is the tip-off to the rip-off. The scheme is aimed at separating the prize winner from enough money to cover the worthless vacation certificate or cheap costume jewelry which may or may not be sent in return, plus a nice profit for the operator.

Those who respond to the inspectors' postcard and call 1-800-448-5656 will get some helpful advice instead:

*Don't pay anything for a "free prize" if you don't know what you're getting. (Remember, calling a 900 telephone number costs

Letter To The Editor

Dear Carol,

I had such a wonderful surprise today--a business place I was in had a copy of the Friona Star, dated 7/24/93, and it was like running into an old friend! I just had to sit right down and read your column. I think of all my good friends there in Friona and miss them so much since I retired from the photography business.

I loved your column. You mentioned the Great Depression, and I well remember those days. It just makes these times seem so good!

You also mentioned the lottery. Retired people do all kinds of unusual things with their time--not that I have to hunt for things to do--but I have kept a chart of lottery numbers drawn, just to see if certain numbers really are drawn more than others. I don't think it is that CERTAIN numbers are drawn so OFTEN, as much as it is that SOME numbers are very SELDOM ever drawn.

I know the numbers I would use if I bought a ticket, but I would have lost every time, because they have drawn only one of my chosen numbers in any drawing. I always knew I had an unlucky birthdate!! Good luck to you!!

Give my best to Bill and your children, and to anyone who might still remember me.

Love,
Carmen Angel

Black-Eyed Peas Are An All-Time Favorite

BY CARLA McKEOWN

One of my fondest summer memories is of spending lazy afternoons shelling black-eyed peas into a big red-trimmed white enameled bowl.

I've always liked shelling black-eyed peas almost as much as I like eating them. Give me a big bowl of hot, fresh-cooked black-eyed peas topped with a spoonful of homemade hot sauce, and I'm in heaven.

I remember refusing to believe that some people (mostly those in the northern portion of the United States) think of black-eyed peas as cattle feed. But, it's true. In fact, many people refer to them as cow peas and do not consider them suitable food for humans.

What we know as black-eyed peas actually are beans that are native to Africa. Explorers took the bean to the West Indies 400 years ago, and it eventually spread to the Americas. In Africa, the young pea pods are served as a vegetable, and the leafy shoots are eaten like spinach. Today, black-eyed peas are grown and served throughout the southern United States.

Black-eyed peas can be canned or frozen for year-round enjoyment. I prefer to freeze them since the process is easier than canning the peas with a pressure canner.

To freeze, shell, sort and wash the black-eyed peas, blanch them in boiling water for two minutes. Chill rapidly by plunging the peas into iced water. Drain and pack into freezer containers. Seal and freeze.

Fresh black-eyed peas are available all across West Texas this summer. Some supermarkets carry locally grown peas, or you can find them at farmer's markets. In many areas, farms feature pick-your-own black-eyed peas and other vegetables.

Try the following recipes with this year's black-eyed pea crop:

PROVERBS: THE MOTTOES THE ISRAELITES LIVED BY!

THE WESTMINSTER DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE DESCRIBES THE BOOK OF PROVERBS AS A POETICAL WORK ON PRACTICAL PIETY! IT ALSO INCLUDES THE FABLE, THE RIDDLE, THE SATIRE, AND THE PARABLE. TRADITIONALLY, THE PROVERBS ARE ASCRIBED TO KING SOLOMON--ALTHOUGH MANY EXPERTS HAVE RECOGNIZED THAT SOME OF THE CHAPTERS, PARTICULARLY TWENTY TWO AND TWENTY THREE, ARE BASED UPON THE WISDOM OF THE EGYPTIAN PHAROAH AMEN-EM-OPE! NOT WITHSTANDING, THE PROVERBS HAD A CONTINUING INFLUENCE UPON THE LIVES OF DEVOUT ISRAELITES.

"PROUD AND HAUGHTY SCORNER IS HIS NAME, WHO DEALETH IN PROUD WRATH." (PROV. 21:24)

BUT... "CAST OUT THE SCORNER, AND CONTENTION SHALL GO OUT; YEA, STRIFE AND REPROACH SHALL CEASE." (PROV. 22:10)

...IN SUCH A WAY AS THIS, DID THE ANCIENT ISRAELITES PUT INTO PRACTICE, IN THEIR DAILY LIVES, THE SAGE ADVICE GARNERED FROM THE BOOK OF PROVERBS!

Prairie Acres Party Line

By CAROL McINTOSH

Our activity department has really been busy lately. Robert and Jessie Gore had a 75th wedding anniversary party last week. This was made possible by their children, who were thoughtful and kind enough to invite staff and residents. Everyone enjoyed the beautiful cake, homemade ice cream and punch.

Tuesday of this week we had Hawaiian Day. All the staff dressed for the occasion, residents watched a Hawaiian documentary and all had refreshments. If you were in the area, I would imagine that we looked a bit strange, but it probably didn't take long to figure out it was a planned activity and not just a day for everyone to dress funny. There are a couple of thank-you's I would like to mention on behalf of this event: American Canvas for the tarp and Panhandle Concrete for loaning us the sand (which was our beach).

Speaking of the activity department, I would like to welcome Phil Alexander, who played a big part in this event and many other activities lately.

Other thank-you's I want to mention are: the Methodist ladies and the First Baptist ladies for having hair care; St. Teresa's Catholic Church and Bovina Methodist Church for having Sunday worship services; and Becky Riethmayer for the donuts she brought to the staff.

I also want to thank the Dairy Queen again for letting our residents come for ice cream during the past six months. We now have additional invitations at Sonic and Tasty Cream to do the same. The residents very much appreciate these very generous offers and love to have a place to go.

We have a special group of ladies who will be greatly missed around Prairie Acres. The Bovina Methodist ladies have decided that for several different reasons they would no longer be able to do hair care. I just want to say that since these ladies have been coming on a regular and faithful basis since 1976, I guess we will graciously accept their retirement. Like I said these ladies are very special and will be missed.

The following donations have been made to the Love Fund:

In memory of Otis Elder: Rene and Jinx Snead.

In memory of Flossie Knight: Alice Moore, Don, Sheryl and Nicole Meason, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ivey and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Meason and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Furton Jacks and Family and Rene and Jinx Snead.

Lazbuddie Schools Win $30,000 Award

Commissioner of Education Lionel "Skip" Meno honored Lazbuddie I.S.D. at the Texas Successful Schools Awards Ceremony in Austin, Saturday, July 17.

The Texas Successful Schools Awards System (TSSAS) identified 1,289 schools out of 6,184 schools statewide for academic performance gain (fall 1990 to fall 1992) and outstanding performance effort.

During Saturday's ceremony, principals of the 124 high performing schools were individually congratulated onstage by commissioner Meno and certificates for their high performance efforts. In addition, 507 schools received plaques honoring their schools.

Another 826 schools received plaques honoring their schools. Another 826 schools received certificates for their high performance efforts. In addition, 507 schools received monetary awards for their high degree of performance gain.

Of these, 376 schools received awards ranging from $30,000 to $150,000, and the other 131 schools met less stringent improvement criteria for awards ranging from $10,000 to $25,000.

The Texas Legislature created TSSAS to identify and reward schools that demonstrate progress or success in achieving the educational goals of the state.

During this second year of TSSAS, the awards given out at the ceremony totaled $20 million--twice the overall amount awarded last year. The funds, given to schools that demonstrated a high degree of academic performance gain, are intended for academic enhancement use at the winning schools, and may not be used for any purpose related to athletics.

The award ceremony was supported, in part, by a grant from Southwestern Bell.

Lazbuddie received an award of outstanding effort and Performance Gain Award in the amount of $30,000.

Ronald McDonald House Has Served Over 3,000 Families

Since opening its doors in August of 1983, the Ronald McDonald House of Amarillo has served more than 3,000 families from the United States and five foreign countries. Families of all sizes, ages, economic, social and ethnic background have called the House their "home away from home."

The mission of the House is to provide temporary lodging for families who must travel more than 50 miles to Amarillo to receive medical treatment for a family member. The ten-bedroom house provides each family with a private room and bath, large family rooms, kitchen, and playroom where they can find rest and respite from the stresses involved with a critical illness. Priority is given to families of critically ill children; families of adult patients are admitted on a space-available basis. To defray operating costs each family is asked to donate $13 per night. However, no family of a critically ill child will be turned away because of inability to pay.

A dedicated staff and corps of caring, committed volunteers serve the families during their stay. More than 75 volunteers contribute approximately 30,000 hours a year doing it. The answer, of course, is through the generosity of the people who support us. The opportunities for giving to the Ronald House are endless. And the gratitude of the guest is more than adequate thanks."

"Amarillo's Ronald McDonald House is fortunate to be debt free," said Helen Benton, treasurer of the House board of directors. "This allows our funds and resources to be used for program and family support."

"We can all be proud of the House," said Johnny Moore, board president, "and Amarillo can be especially proud because although only non-residents can use the House, 75% of our support comes from Amarillo folks who give so generously of their time, talents and funds to provide this wonderful place for their neighbors."

Family visits from Texas cities in its first ten years include: Booker 21; Borger 104; Bovina 7; Canadian 31; Childress 68; Clarendon 17; Dalhart 86; Dimmitt 30; Dumas 58; Farwell 4; Floydada 19; Friona 24; Gruver 30; Hereford 45; Memphis 27; Paducah 23; Pampa 134; Perryton 126; Plainview 24; Shamrock 31; Spearman 65; Stratford 20; Tulia 29; Wellington 50 and Wheeler 22.

Statistics also show numerous visits from New Mexico cities (Clayton leads with 79 and Clovis, 74); Oklahoma (led by Guyton's 128) and Kansas (Liberal leads with 58).

Thirteen other states have also been represented.

"The Ronald McDonald House needs everything your house needs," said Jan Reid, executive director, when asked about the cost of running the Ronald House. "We just need ten times more. It amazes me sometimes how we are able to do it. The answer, of course, is through the generosity of the people who support us. The opportunities for giving to the Ronald House are endless. And the gratitude of the guest is more than adequate thanks."

"Amarillo's Ronald McDonald House is fortunate to be debt free," said Helen Benton, treasurer of the House board of directors. "This allows our funds and resources to be used for program and family support."

The Problem with "People Food"...

Many people feed table food to their dog as a form of affection. Unfortunately, "people food" is usually loaded with more calories and fat than a dog needs. This may cause your dog to become overweight. Research has shown that overweight dogs are more susceptible to certain health problems.

So, if you really want to treat your dog well, here's what you should do.

Ten Weight-Loss Tips For Your Dog:

1. One person should feed your dog and be responsible for the weight-control program.
2. Establish a weekly weigh-in schedule for your dog.
3. Provide your dog with fresh water at all times.
4. When cooking, make sure your dog is not in the kitchen.
5. Do not give table scraps or high-fat treats to your dog.
6. Do not give in to begging. Express your love by giving your dog a hug or a walk.
7. Establish a moderate exercise program, such as walking.
8. Choose an appropriate reduced calorie food such as Purina® Fit & Trim® brand adult dog food.
9. After the weight-loss period, continue to weigh your dog.
10. Work closely with your veterinarian for advice and encouragement.

Annette Schmucker, Brent Loflin Are United In Church Ceremony

Annette Marie Schmucker of Nazareth and Jerry Brent Loflin of Friona exchanged wedding vows Saturday, July 24 at 3 p.m. in the Holy Family Church in Nazareth, Texas by Father Neal Dee.

The bride is the daughter of Dan and Ethel Schmucker of Nazareth.

The bridegroom is the son of Jerry Loflin and Celia Loflin, both of Friona.

The church altar was decorated with bouquets of pastel silk flowers. Candleabras in the sanctuary were decorated with ivy and pink bows. Candles in hurricane lamps and white bows, accented with floral ribbon, marked the pews.

Marcia Hoelting, organist, accompanied Greg and Glenda Birkenfeld as they sang "Everything I Do," "Parents Prayer," "Somewhere Out There," "Arms of Love," "All Of Me" and "He Has Chosen You For Me."

Danelle Barber of Lubbock served her sister as the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Teresa Nichols of Lubbock, sister of the groom, Kathy Brown of Lubbock, Mona Schulte of Nazareth and Kelly Gerber of Ulysses, Kansas.

The feminine attendants wore tea length dresses in a floral print of pink, burgundy and blue on a white background. The dresses featured shirred pouf sleeves and a "v" sash in the back detailed with butterfly bows. They carried single pink roses.

Ross Roden of Portales, New Mexico served as the best man. Groomsmen were Brian Schmucker of Lubbock, brother of the bride, Rocky Nichols of Lubbock, brother-in-law of the groom, Tim Kirk of Las Cruces, New Mexico and Monty Cooper of Lubbock.

Serving as ushers were Ben Weatherly of Hereford, cousin of the groom, Clifford McLellan of Lubbock, Marvin Schmucker of Amarillo, brother of the bride, and Jeff Schmucker of Richardson, brother of the bride.

Candles were lit by Debbie Russell, cousin of the bride, and Dana Schulte.

As the bride was presented in marriage by her father, she was attired in a formal length gown designed and made by her mother. The ivory colored satin gown was trimmed in alencon lace and was embellished with pearls and bugle beads. An angled neckline and fitted bodice was applied with beaded alencon lace which dropped to an antebellum waistline in front. The shirred pouf sleeves came to points at the wrists. The back of the gown featured a "v" cut detailed with a large butterfly bow where the bodice met the chapel length detachable train.

Her fingertip length illusion veil was made of tulle. The headpiece was adorned with silk flowers and pearl beads.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, pink rosebuds, stephanotis, baby's breath and fern. A gold rosary that was carried by the bride's mother at her own wedding was part of the bouquet.

For something old, the bride carried a handkerchief also carried by her mother and grandmother at their weddings. Her wedding dress was new. She borrowed her mother's pearl necklace and earrings and wore the traditional blue garter.

The reception was held in the Nazareth Community Hall.

Susan Gage of Lubbock registered the wedding guests.

The bride's three tiered wedding cake was decorated with silk flowers and was topped with a Precious Moments bride and groom figurine. The groom's cake was decorated with the Texas Tech "Double T" emblem. Gail Hooks and Gayle Harris served the cakes and punch.

Following a wedding trip to California, the couple will be at home in Friona after August 1.

The bride is a graduate of Nazareth High School, attended Texas Tech University and is currently employed by Ethridge-Spring Agency, Inc. in Friona.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Friona High School and Texas Tech University and is employed as manager of Friona Motors Body Shop.

Mrs. Brent Loflin

Out-of-town visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Miller, Sr. this week are Dr. Dan Miller and his wife, Rhonda, and their children, Jared, Sam, Rachel and Elizabeth, who live at Wheelock, Texas. Dan is the son of Roy V., Jr. and Glenda Miller.

The Millers' local son-in-law, Sam Mears, called the family's Saturday evening get-together "an un-birthday party." (When this family gets together, there's nearly always a birthday person in the crowd, but this time there wasn't.)

Those present for the Mexican pile-on supper in the Millers' country home, besides the out-of-towners, were Nelda Benge; Curt, Kathi, Jacob and Caleb Miller; Sam, Donna and Clint Mears; Sarah, Amanda, Andrea and Ryan Gerles; and Hayes Jones, all of Friona.

Sixteen members of this group attended the Monday night performance of "Texas" in Palo Duro Canyon.

Mary Lou Miller Glass of McLean, Texas and two of her granddaughters, Rachel and Sandi Cramer, who live in Skellytown, Texas, arrived on Thursday.

Activity picked up in the home of Joe and Marlene Mueller, Friday, when their daughter, Staci, who is going to school in Dallas, arrived for a weekend visit prompted by the wedding of Nicole Potts and Troy Talley.

The 1992-93 Optimist editor was Michael O'Connor of Trent, a graduate student working on the M.A. in religious journalism.

Other key staff members, all new-editorial majors, were: managing news editor, Deana Hamby, from Beaumont; opinion page editor, Jennifer Reynolds from Arlington; columnist, Keith Alewine from Clyde; copy editors, Sharla Stephens from Renton, Washington and Holly Sneed from Friona; features editor, Bernadette Lee from Singapore; world page editor, Xiadong Fei from Shanghai, China; sports editors, Rick Stevens from Fairfield and Mark Houston from Kerrville; and chief photographer, John Carroll of Hawley.

Saturday evening dinner guests in the Mueller home were Kim Waters of Seminole, Texas and Andre Duran, who lives here.

Recent guests in the home of James and Vernell Cunningham have been Dick and Shirley Conley of Cairo, Egypt. Shirley, a 1956 graduate of Friona High School and former employee of Friona State Bank, is Vernell's sister.

The Conleys are beginning their fifth year in Cairo, where he is employed by an oil company. They plan to fly from Lubbock to Houston later this week, then begin their homeward journey about the end of the month.

June Rhodes had out-of-town company twice recently. A friend and fellow teacher in Bovina, Lorene Brocharo of Clovis, spent Sunday with her.

Then, Monday evening, Thomas and Virginia Rhodes of Bovina came over for a visit.

D.L. Carmichael and granddaughter, Nicole, who lives in Bushland, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Knox and children, Erin and Peter, who live in Los Alamos, New Mexico.

Mrs. Knox is the former Susie Carmichael.

Mrs. Smoky Tucker and daughter, Kelsey, of Edmond, Oklahoma, returned to their home Wednesday afternoon after spending a few days visiting Billie Carmichael, a resident of Prairie Acres.

Mrs. Tucker, the former Fran Dadd, is Billie's daughter.

Ronnie, Lisa and Michael McLellan returned home Saturday evening after a fun filled vacation in California.

This trio had earlier accepted an invitation by cousins of Lisa's, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carter of Morgan Hill, to "come on out and spend your vacation with us and we will show you the sights."

They flew from Amarillo to San Francisco via Phoenix, where they had a one hour layover. Lisa's sister, Linda, and husband, Lyn, who live in nearby Maricopa, came to the airport and spent this time with them.

True to their word, the Carter's had plenty of sightseeing planned. Beginning with a trip to Monterey and Carmel on Sunday. Monday, they headed for the Los Angeles area where they visited Disneyland. This three day excursion included stops in Santa Barbara and Malibu before returning to Morgan Hill.

Thursday's itinerary included a visit to Captola and Santa Cruz

Beach and Boardwalk. The sights of San Francisco were taken in on Friday. Packed into the final day were Pier 39, Fisherman's Wharf, and a bay cruise affording a closer look at the Golden Gate Bridge and Alcatraz. A drive across the Golden Gate Bridge satisfied Michael's curiosity and the tour was wrapped up with a drive down Russian Hill, downtown San Francisco, and a quick peek at China Town.

Lisa reported, "We went so many places and saw so many things that we were almost exhausted when we got home."

"However," she added, "it surely was a lot of fun and was a vacation none of us will ever forget."

Bill Lookingbill, who had major surgery at Clovis High Plains Hospital early Monday morning, is making satisfactory progress and expects to be home soon.

The three following paragraphs were borrowed from "Panhandle People" in the Tuesday morning Amarillo Daily News.

"Stephanie Johnston has been selected to participate in the 1993 Vienna Studies Program sponsored this fall by Oklahoma Christian University of Science and Arts. She is the daughter of Dennis Johnston of Amarillo.

"One of four foreign study programs available to Oklahoma Christian students, the Vienna Studies Program, offers participants an opportunity to visit some of Europe's most famous tourist attractions such as Buckingham Palace, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Eiffel Tower and the Louvre."

Friona students listed on the McMurry University Abilene Dean's List include Henry Leon Outland III, senior mathematics major; Trista Ann Shelton, senior multidisciplinary III major and Elaine Diane White, junior mathematics major.

Stephanie is the granddaughter of Elvin and Wilma Johnston, former residents of Friona and the Bovina area, who are currently living in Amarillo.

Most Frionans know Henry Leon Outland III, who grew up here, as Lon, the son of Terri Outland of Friona and Henry Leon Outland, Jr., whom we know as "Hank" of Amarillo.

Trista's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shelton. Her maternal grandmother, Ione Deaton, also lives here.

Elaine's parents are Ted and Sharon White and her grandparents are Fay Reeve and Mr. and Mrs. L.R. White.

Congratulations are in order for all these students. Your home town community is proud of you.

Out-of-town visitors in the home of Jim and Sherry Atwell last weekend were Louis, Kenda, Alex and Keeley Dunnam, who live near Springlake, Texas.

Edward and Doris White returned home early last week after a trip across several states before spending a few days visiting in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Pat and Sami Dean. Doris reported, "We had a very enjoyable time and saw lots of country and even though Pat and Sami live in the Kansas City area, they were not in the flood."

Brenda and Gene Moreno and daughter, Connie, who have been visiting in the home of Brenda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dean Harrelson, left Monday of last week for the West Coast.

From there, the trio will go to Okinawa, where Gene, who is serving in the United States Armed Forces, is stationed.

Out-of-town visitors in the home of Doris and Edward White, Sunday, were Marshall and Theresa Bradley, who live near Melrose, New Mexico.

The Marshalls were enroute home after taking a son, Kent, to Amarillo, where he began a flight to Kentucky for a basketball camp.

Lemuel Miller, a nephew of Martha Russell, who lives in Vienna, Virginia, spent last weekend in Friona.

Overnight visitors in the home of Lloyd and Betty Louise Rector, Monday, were Bea and Jay Butler of Ute Park, New Mexico.

Dave and Joel Van Valkenburg of Littleton, Colorado, arrived in Friona early Saturday morning. Dave returned home Sunday but Joel stayed for an extended visit in the home of his grandmother, Edith Johnson, and uncle and aunt, Bob and Connie Johnson, and their family.

Edith says, "Even though Joel has lived in the city all his life, he's a farm kid at heart."

Fran Rodgers, a former long time resident of Ralls, Texas and sister-in-law of Lilah Gaye Gee, was a visitor in the Gee home recently.

After she and Lilah Gaye had returned from Prairie Acres, where J.T. spends a lot of time, Fran said, "I am very favorably impressed with Prairie Acres. From playing the piano for churches and taking part in programs for many years, I have seen several others and none can compare with Prairie Acres."

Of course, those of us who live here have known for nearly seventeen years that our nursing home is second to none, but isn't it a real treat for outsiders to come in and learn about it?

There's an unusual amount of excitement in the home of Larry, Anita, Jason and Randy White in Lubbock this week.

Larry, the father of the family, who was injured in an accident in Friona seven years ago and is confined to a wheelchair, has qualified for participation in the International Wheelchair Games in Stoke Manderville, England and is scheduled to fly from Lubbock Airport on American Airlines at 10:40 a.m. Wednesday, July 28.

In addition to the archery events, in which Larry will be competing, there will be basketball, lawn bowling, quadrathlon, shooting with guns, snooker, swimming, table tennis, weightlifting and wheelchair rugby competition.

Team uniforms are being made for each participant and Larry is taking a camera in hopes of getting some good pictures.

Last month, he participated in a National Athletic Camp in Sacramento, California, and was amazed at the skill of some of the other participants--especially in table tennis.

When Larry isn't busy with his archery practice, he has been assisting one of his uncles, Gary Bradley, remodel a shop building near Lubbock Airport, where he will be moving his airplane repair shop soon.

Larry is scheduled to return to Lubbock at 10:30 p.m. Monday, August 9.

He and Anita want all their Friona friends to know they deeply appreciate all contributions made to a fund to enable him to make the trip.

He says, "Thanks everyone! Without your support, I never could have made it!"

(Editor's note: Less than 24 hours before Larry's departure was scheduled, he received a long distance telephone call which burst the happiness bubble. Officials of the games called to report that no other country had entered the archery events, so there would be no competition.)

Larry said, "Thanks anyway folks! The money will stay in the fund for use at a future time."

I'm sure last week was one of the busiest in the lives of one of Friona's busiest couples, Leon and Jeffie Taley.

In addition to having wall to wall activities connected with the wedding of their middle son, Troy, and Nicole Potts, they had a lot of out-of-town company, Troy had a birthday, Jeffie had a birthday and they made preparations to be gone from home several days this week due to Terron's upcoming surgery.

Terron had surgery at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo, Tuesday morning, and will be hospitalized several days. Perhaps he will be home by the end of the week.

When you blame others for your failures, do you give them credit for your successes?

Successful Market Timing Nearly Impossible With Taxes

Which is the best way to make money in the stock market—buying and holding investments or market timing? One of the most convincing comparisons was made by Mark Hulbert, editor of the Hulbert Financial Digest (HFD).

Market timing is a technique used to decide when to buy or sell securities. Because there are no clear-cut rules, decisions are based on opinions about factors such as economic conditions, interest rates, technical indicators, trading volume and more. Market timing has become so popular that some services promise strategies for getting in and out of the market at the right time. How successful are they?

A five-year HFD study found that of 29 market timing strategies, "28 of the 29 did less well than a buy-and-hold strategy" after deducting taxes paid by an upper-middle-class investor.

The HFD study, published in the American Association of Individual Investors AAI Journal, illustrated how the federal tax bite on profits nearly eliminated any edge market timers might enjoy. For example, the study's best timing strategy outperformed a buy-and-hold technique by about 4.4 per cent per year on a pre-tax basis with an annual return of 19.42 per cent vs. 15.01 per cent. After taxes, however, the 13.49 per cent annual gain attributable to the market-timing strategy only slightly bettered the buy-and-hold's 13.39 per cent gain. In addition, the top timing system required 79 trades to accomplish this performance.

The HFD study also identified several important facts relating active trading to taxes. For example, a portfolio that derives a large portion of its income from Treasury bills, money-market funds and other cash equivalents typically has a large annual tax bite because the income is taxable as ordinary income.

In some cases, however, taxes can enhance the return of a market-timing strategy. If you are losing money, for example, taxes may work in your favor because losses are deductible. On the other hand, if you are making money with a market-timing strategy, the HFD study indicates that frequent trading may mean higher taxes. Although taxes probably should not be your primary concern when investing, their effects should be seriously considered when making investment decisions.

The debate between market timers and those who adhere to a buy-and-hold strategy will undoubtedly continue in the future. However, history has shown that buying and holding is generally the best approach for individual investors.

Museum Receives Works By Houston Painter

Two paintings by Houston artist, Grace Spaulding John (1890-1972), have been received by the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum for its permanent collection. The two paintings, The Indian War Bonnet (1931) and Mother and Child Donkeys (1935) were given by the artist's daughter and son, Patricia John Keightley and John Spaulding John.

Born in Michigan, John's art education was impressive. She studied at the Saint Louis School of Fine Arts, the Art Institute of Chicago, the Parsons School of Design, the National Academy of Design, the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, the Art Students League, the Tiffany Foundation, the Escuela de Bellas Artes (Mexico), and at Taos with Emil Bistram.

During her career John maintained studios in New York, San Francisco, Taos, Santa Fe and Houston.

The Indian War Bonnet was Painted during John's initial trip to New Mexico in 1931, where she was associated with artists, Joseph Henry Sharp, Nicolai Fechin, Gerald Cassidy and Bistram. She probably painted Mother and Child Donkeys during a trip to Mexico.

"We are thrilled to add works by Grace Spaulding John to our growing Texas Art Collection," said Michael R. Grauer, PPHM curator of art. "Her talents are clear and her achievements in Houston make her work integral to our focus on Texas art," Grauer added.

Patricia John Keightley, one of the donors and the artist's daughter said, "I think the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is a most suitable place for my mother's work."

The Indian War Bonnet is being featured in the museum's exhibition, "Women Artists of Texas, 1850-1950," through August 22. Later, both works will be rotated in the museum's permanent Texas Art Gallery.

YOUR EYES

Red Eyes

What does it mean when your eyes get red or bloodshot? Most often it's an irritation of the conjunctiva, the membrane that lines the eyelids and covers the exposed surface of the eyeball. It's also a signal to see your optometrist for an expert opinion.

The problem may range from allergies or air pollutants to loss of sleep, overwear of contact lenses, or infection, with many variables in between. If there is an infection—not uncommon in swimming pool season—medical treatment may be necessary.

Contact lens wearers may get red eyes from overwearing their lenses or from lenses that fit improperly. Stop wearing lenses for a few days, then make an appointment with the eye doctor. Even if the redness disappears, it's important to make sure the lenses fit properly.

If your eyes are often bloodshot, take these preventive steps: wear glasses on windy days to prevent foreign substances from irritating your eyes; remove eye makeup carefully, and get more sleep.
