Nixon Agrees To Turn Over Tapes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon agreed today to comply in full with the U.S. Court of Appeals ruling directing him to give the White House tapes to a federal judge.

The announcement came as the House of Representatives began preliminary investigation into whether the President should be impeached.

Nixon's surprise announcement was made to U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica by Charles Alan Wright, lawyer for the President.

Wright told Sirica that the President had hoped that the compromise he announced Friday night would end the constitutional crisis.

"Events over the weekend made it very apparent it did not," Wright said.

The announcement shocked spectators in the packed courtroom who had been waiting to hear how Sirica would respond to the President's proposal to summarize the tapes and have his summary verified by a senior member of the Senate.

Blast off for the mission is scheduled for Nov. 10.

Nixon Is Tied To Alleged Dairy Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — New evidence has surfaced tying President Nixon to an alleged deal involving a pledge of $2 million in campaign money in exchange for administration favors for the dairy industry.

Investigative sources said Monday they have obtained a letter addressed to Nixon on Dec. 16, 1970, reminding him of the industry's past support and telling him of the milk producer's need for immediate aid.

The letter was written, the sources said, by Pat Hillings of the American Milk Producers Inc., the major industry group.

The Associated Press has confirmed the letter's contents from four separate sources.

SOUGHT APPROVAL

"The thrust of the letter was a request that the President approve new milk tariffs that the industry was interested in," one source said. "It pointed out that the industry had $2 million available for 1972 campaign contributions," but continued aid for the nation's dairy farmers was necessary if they were to continue their support.

Hillings noted that $135,000 already had gone to 1970 congressional candidates who were friends of dairymen, the sources said.

A month later, when the new Nixon budget was announced, proposed dairy subsidies rose nearly 10 per cent, compared to a slight increase for feed-grain subsidies and a major decrease in food-aid shipments, another method of government farm support.

The Hillings letter noted that it was bringing up a "sensitive political matter," the sources said, and evidence indicates it went directly to then-president chief of staff H. R. Halde-man. One source said it isn't certain whether Nixon read the letter or was merely told of its contents.

The following March, however, three events took place:

—On March 22, 1971, the first $10,000 contribution from milk producers was secretly delivered to a group of dummy campaign committees that later turned their holdings over to the Nixon re-election campaign.

—The following day, President Nixon and then-Agriculture Secretary Clifford Hardin met at the White House with 16 spokesmen for the dairy industry.

—On March 25, Hardin reversed a decision not to grant an increase in federal price supports for milk and announced approval of a 27-cent-per-hundredweight hike in price supports, claiming he had received new economic data.

WORTH MILLIONS

The decision was worth between $500 million and $700 million to the nation's milk producers, according to an industry estimate.

The secret campaign contributions later revealed by The Washington Post and federal investigators, poured into the dummy committees and Nixon campaign coffers for many months, eventually reaching more than $400,000.

On Feb. 1, 1972, a Haldeman aide, Gordon Strachan, wrote a memo to his boss reporting that the President's personal attorney and fundraiser, Herbert W. Kalmbach, "is very concerned about his involvement in the milk producers situation." Strachan recommended that Kalmbach be relieved from his assignment "because of the risk of disclosures."

Nixon's orders cover Water-gate matters as well as material and tapes relating to the milk funds, ITT and Ellsberg burglary investigations.

RADICAL CHANGE Main Stem May Close In Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Main Street in Dallas may be turned into outdoor shops and quaint sidewalk cafes.

A proposal for closing it down to all traffic but buses and taxi cabs received support from members of the City Council here at their weekly meeting Monday.

The proposal came from Public Utilities Director Tom Taylor, who had worked on the idea with City Traffic Control Director John DeShazo and the city manager's office.

One of the reasons for the change, said Taylor, would be to increase city taxi service by giving cabs and buses priority on certain downtown streets.

Proposed closing of the thoroughfare comes on the heels of an Environmental Protection Agency plan calling for the limited use of cars in certain metropolitan areas of Texas.

Because of the newness of the proposal, no specific plans were laid out as to what a Main Street mall should be like.

A citywide bond election has been tentatively discussed for 1974, but no plans have yet been formulated on how the project would be financed.

Texan Called In For Work On Cat

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When Madras the Bengal tiger has a toothache he gets the best of care. Madras, who normally jumps through rings of fire and leaps over other tigers as the star of a local animal act, had a split fang operated on Monday.

Dr. John Palmer, a Brownsville, Tex., dentist who has done pioneering dentistry on wild animals, and an associate zoo director, Dr. Don Farst, performed the dental work on Madras.

They had to strap the anesthetized 350-pound patient onto an operating table while they repaired the damage.

Police Radio Out; Did UFO Cause It?

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP) — Brownwood police confirmed their radio went off the air Monday evening as several area residents called to report unidentified flying objects.

Employees at radio station KEAN said instruments at the station began fluctuating wildly and lights on their broadcasting tower began blinking rapidly as they watched three glowing objects southwest of the city.

Police dispatchers said callers told them the objects changed color from red to green and blue.

However, officers said they were unable to confirm the sightings which were similar to reports early Sunday morning.

Airliner Crashes In Rio's Waters

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — A Brazilian airliner, whose passengers included Indiana Lt. Gov. Robert D. Orr and 11 other members of an Indiana trade mission, crashed into Rio de Janeiro's Guanabara Bay today and sank, authorities said.

A spokesman for Viaçao Aerea de Sao Paulo Airlines, which owned the plane, said five persons were confirmed dead, with most of the passengers escaping with slight injuries.

It was not known if any Americans were among the dead or injured.

Fierce tank and artillery clashes exploded along the Suez Canal today and dogfights erupted over the Syrian battleground despite the U.N. cease-fire.

The war raged into its 18th day on both fronts after a only partial overnight pause for the precarious Security Council truce designed to halt the combat in place and open the way to negotiations for a permanent peace.

Egypt called for an emergency Security Council meeting to discuss what it said were Israeli violations of the fragile cease-fire. The council president, Sir Laurence McNary of Australia, called a midday session at U.N. headquarters in New York.

Egypt and Israel had accepted the truce appeal — worked out by the United States and the Soviet Union — and both ordered their armies Monday evening to hold their fire unless fired on.

But Syria kept silent on the U.N. call, and only hours after it went into effect there were mutual accusations of cease-fire violations by Egyptians and Israelis along the Suez front.

A correspondent for Egypt's Middle East News Agency said the Israeli and Egyptian forces by today were "locked in the most vicious fighting since the outbreak of the war."

Insanity Plea For Henley

HOUSTON (AP) — Elmer Wayne Henley, one of two youths accused of murder in Houston's mass murder case, will plead insanity at his trial, his lawyer said today.

Henley, 17, is scheduled to be tried Jan. 14 on a charge of murder in the slaying of Charles Cobble, 17, one of 27 youths whose bodies were found in Houston and two others areas.

Charles Melder, Henley's lawyer, said he did not intend to raise the issue of Henley's current sanity or ability to stand trial. Texas law prohibits conviction of a person adjudged to be insane.

PABLO CASALS

Death Claims Noted Cellist At Age Of 96

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Tributes poured in today acclaiming the greatness of Pablo Casals, the cellist and humanitarian who died Monday at 96.

He was to be buried this afternoon in a black granite vault less than a block from his home.

Casals, who for the last 35 years used his musical talents in a protest against tyranny and a campaign for peace, died after three weeks in Auxilio Jutuo Hospital. He was hospitalized after a heart seizure, but doctors said he also suffered from chronic bronchitis, a kidney failure and circulatory ailments.

He was the foremost cellist of the 20th century and a superlative performer into his 80s. In recent years he won new honors as a conductor. He was a source of inspiration to the musicians with whom he worked every summer at the Mariboro, Vt., music colony.

"Sometimes I feel like a boy," Casals once said. "Music does that. I can never play the same piece twice in the same way. Each time it is new."

"Pablo Casals was one of the greatest musicians of all time and the greatest cellist," said Eugene Ormandy, the music director of the Philadelphia Orchestra. "His love of people was probably the reason for his rich and long life."

Russia's Mstislav Rostropovich, considered Casals' successor as the world's No. 1 cellist, said, "I have lost not only a great teacher but a true friend. I feel a great personal grief."

Born Dec. 29, 1876, in Vendrell, in the fiercely independent part of Spain known as Catalonia, Casals played before Spanish royalty before he reached the age of 15. He was solo cellist for the Paris Opera while still a teen-ager.

At Last! Nov. 6 Ballot Mailed

The county clerk's office has seen the first sign of interest in the Nov. 6 constitutional amendment election here.

Open for absentee voting since Wednesday, the county clerk's office has mailed a ballot to one voter, Mrs. Margaret Ray, chief deputy county clerk.

Citizens unable to appear at the county clerk's office or at voting boxes Nov. 6 may apply for ballots by mail. Mrs. Ray said a doctor's signature is necessary.

As of today, no one has voted absentee in person. Registered to vote in Howard County are an estimated 15,260 persons. Mrs. Dorothy Moore, chief deputy tax collector, said.

Golda Meir Is Playing General To Generals

TEL AVIV (AP) — Premier Golda Meir has been sleeping less, worrying more and chain-smoking her usual three packs of cigarettes a day since Israel went to war 18 days ago. She has spent the days and much of the nights of fighting in an unpretentious office in the Defense Ministry compound, getting home when she could to the two-family house she shares with her son in suburban Ramat Aviv.

Juvenile Held After Stabbing

A 14-year-old juvenile girl was turned over to the juvenile officer today by city police in connection with the stabbing of another 14-year-old girl Monday night. Medical Center Hospital authorities called police at 9:41 p.m. when the stabbing victim reported to the hospital for treatment.

lots who flew in arms and other military equipment. Otherwise, as one observer put it, "she's playing general to the generals."

WITH SON

The gray-haired, 75-year-old grandmother came from Jerusalem to spend Yom Kippur with her son Menachem, a cellist and the head of Tel Aviv University's Academy of Music, and his family.

Instead, she spent the most sacred Jewish holy day in the second-floor corner office at the Defense Ministry, making feverish preparations for the Arab attack that was developing.

Once war began, Mrs. Meir canceled all appointments and cleared her schedule for military matters and the political and diplomatic decisions arising from the conflict. "All her thoughts are with the war, and she keeps to the office because that's where she's most needed," says Lou Kadar, her old friend and assistant. The premier has kept to her usual 7 a.m. rising time and breakfast. With her body-guards, Mrs. Meir makes the five-minute drive to her office and the hours of reading reports, attending briefings and holding meetings begin. She likes to go home for lunch and a little rest, but the demands of running a war have often kept her in the office through lunch and dinner.

GOOD EATER

"She's a good eater and she likes everything," including the food from a 24-hour cafeteria in her office building, Mrs. Kadar said. But given the choice, she likes French or Jewish food, especially gefilte fish and borscht.

On normal days, Mrs. Meir gets home at 7 or 8 p.m., works on handicraft or attends a concert if she has no official engagements. But Mrs. Kadar said she has worked often until 1 a.m. and once until 3 a.m. since the war started.

In her few free moments, Mrs. Meir tries to keep track of her family. Fifteen of them, including her granddaughter's husband, are in the army.

Dance Company Warmly Received In Opener

The Heritage Dance Theatre, a large, vivacious and youthful troupe, assembled by Agnes de Mille led off the 1973-74 season of Community Concerts Monday evening with a program that was warmly received.

There was something for every taste with a range from the ballet to rock, from the poignant to the rollicking. The audience appreciated the beautiful, but got with it on the lively.

The young dancers were accomplished, sometimes brilliant, although the routines occasionally bordered on tedium. Effects were achieved with skill, such as the loggers floating down stream. Floyd's Guitar Blues (Chicago circa 1921) got a fine hand, and Mel Tomlinson was splendid in his portrayal.

"The Gold Rush" combined lyrical narration and with exceptional quality by Nick Munson as the Balladeer, and David Evans and Jeanne Armin in lead parts. A highly descriptive bit, the vehicle presented changing moods from loneliness and fatigue to ribald dance hall vignettes, and finally the migration of the company to greener, or more golden, pastures. Costuming in this, as well as other sequences, was bright, colorful and tastefully done.

A short tableau with quiet dignity told the story of the Nativity with effectiveness. The "four Marys," the ballad of Mary Hamilton, hanged for drowning her baby by the "highest Stuart of all," was well received. Rosemary Harris did the narration; David Evans and Joella Breedlove danced the lead roles. The audience relished the animation and tempo of the finale of "Logger's Clog," and particularly the "Texas Fourth," a spirited sequence with drum majors, marchers, pom-poms and a saxophone-piano-drum rig pitted against a thematic "Eyes of Texas."

Council Turns Down Bid For Monthly Rate Change

A resolution denying an earlier request of Pioneer Natural Gas Co. for a monthly cost of gas adjustment in its commercial service rates here was approved by the City Council this morning.

The measure was passed although Pioneer has not officially presented a current request for the adjustment clause. The company is known to be seeking month-to-month adjustments in some 56 cities in its West Texas system to offset its own cost for gas in the field.

"We need this resolution now to show the other cities that we're with them," said City Manager Harry Nagel. The resolution was drafted by a committee of cities in the Pioneer system and Nagel said representatives of most of the cities recently agreed to adopt the resolution denying the monthly clause in their towns.

LONE STAR CAST

Nagel pointed out that Lone Star Gas Co. is requesting a monthly adjustment order from the Texas Railroad Commission and that a ruling is expected in that case early next year. If the commission rules for Lone Star, "we'd be spinning our wheels trying to keep it (monthly adjustment) from Pioneer," he noted.

Speaking for Pioneer, District Manager Dearl Pittman said the company still feels the monthly adjustment "beneficial and necessary in order for us to compete with other companies for future gas supply for this area." He did not indicate, however, whether Pioneer, like Lone Star, seek a ruling from the Railroad Commission.

The council granted the city staff permission to apply for a Federal grant for the proposed ball field complex at land licensed to the city at the State Hospital.

Crim Engineering was retained to draft a topographical map and set up survey markers, steps necessary prior to applying for federal funding. Nagel said the city will be required to draw up a limited master plan for use of the land.

He also said he will meet with the School Board at its first November meeting regarding possible city use of the high school ball field.

Former Local Man Is Slain

Midland police are still investigating the shooting death of 28-year-old Joe Nunez Jr., former Big Spring resident, who was found dead 7 a.m. Sunday in Midland with three gunshot wounds.

Police Detective Earl Luckey said Midland authorities had several leads in the case and were attempting to locate persons who last saw Nunez alive.

Nunez' body was found in a vacant lot at 306 S. 1st. Homicide was ruled in the death by Peace Justice Robert Pine. According to police reports, Nunez was killed by three slugs from a 22 calibre weapon apparently as he was fleeing. The slugs were lodged in his back.

Luckey said the body may have been in the vacant lot at least 24 hours before it was discovered.

Funeral services were held today in Midland with burial in Fairview Cemetery there. Thomas Funeral Home was in charge.

Upon a request by John Tucker, 1606 Lancaster, for sewer service at 16th and Lancaster, the council and staff reported that extension of service in that area is already budgeted for next year.

Johnson Rallies Broncos To Tie

DENVER (AP) — The Denver Broncos, who've denied the field goal twice this season, learned to live with it Monday night as the Jim Turner-George Blanda kicking duel ended in a standoff.

Turner's third field goal of the second half, a 35-yarder with three seconds to play, enabled Denver to salvage a 23-23 tie with the favored Oakland Raiders in a nationally televised National Football League game.

INTRODUCING THE STEERS

Captain of the specialty teams this year on the Big Spring Steer football team is Wayne Dickens, a 180-pound senior guard.

WAYNE DICKENS

Steer Backers Meet Tonight

The Big Spring Quarterback Club will meet tonight at 8 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Steer coach Bob Burris will show films of last week's 21-10 loss to Odessa Permian, and Glenn Petty will give a scouting report on the Midland Lee Rebels, this week's opponent.

Dist. 5-AAAA turns its attention to San Angelo this week, as the highly-regarded Bobcats entertain Midland High in a battle of the loop's unbeaten. Central will probably be ranked as the state's No. 1 team this week, since previously top-rated Baytown Sterling was upset.

In other district games, Abilene Cooper visits Odessa Permian and Odessa visits Abilene High.

For Burris, this week's tilt is another homecoming affair. Burris coached at Lee in the 1960s, where he posted a 15-15 record during a three-year stint. Earlier, Burris returned to Hobbs with his Steer squad. He coached the Hobbs Eagles in 1965.

Cronin May Resign As AL President

CHICAGO (AP) — Joe Cronin, whose reign as president of the American League included broad and sweeping changes, is expected to step aside in favor of Leo MacPhail today at a meeting of league owners.

Cronin, 67, has two years to go on his present term, but will finish the commitment as chairman of the board of the American League with MacPhail gradually assuming the duties of president.

MacPhail, former general manager of the Baltimore Orioles, currently holds a similar role with the New York Yankees.

Cronin became the American League's fourth president in 1959 when he succeeded the late Will Harridge.

During his term as president, the American League expanded to 12 teams, eventually split into two divisions and early this year adopted the controversial designated hitter rule.

League owners two years ago voted a resolution ordering Cronin to hire an administrative assistant who would be capable of replacing the league president but Cronin made no such move.

"I don't know if it's up or down," said Cronin recently when asked if he would step down as league president. "We haven't come to any conclusion."

"When they extended my contract through 1975, it was with the understanding that I would give up the job when they found a qualified successor. Nobody's been selected yet."

Apparently, the league owners have decided on MacPhail, son of the legendary Larry MacPhail who owned the Cincinnati Reds, New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers and introduced night baseball in the major leagues at Cincinnati.

MacPhail admitted talk that he would replace Cronin "has been going around for a long time. If and when the job is open and if it were to be offered to me, I would certainly have to consider it."

Cronin has had every conceivable success in the game. He was the AL's most valuable player in 1930 with the Washington Senators. He was named player-manager in 1933 and led the team to a pennant.

A year later he was traded to the Boston Red Sox for Lyn Lary and $250,000—the highest price ever paid for a player at the time. He managed the Red Sox through 1947, including a pennant in 1946 and in 1948 he was named the team's general manager.

Cronin was voted into the Hall of Fame in 1956 and three years later took over the league's presidency.

Mustang Girls Nab Third Win

ACKERLY — The Sands girls basketball team ran its record to 3-0 Monday with a 60-45 victory over New Home. Connie Hughes hit 26 points to lead the Mustangs, while Kayla Gaskins was the team's leading guard.

For New Home, Armez had 16 points.

In the B team affair, Sands earned a 35-28 triumph over New Home with Jody Batson hitting 13 points and Linda Feaster 10. Sands is now 2-1.

Tonight the Sands girls visit Forsan. A junior high game will begin at 5:30 p.m., with the varsity tilt to follow.

VASSAR WINS PICKS

Duffy Vassar of 3201 Drexel had the best effort of the year in the Big Spring Herald Football Picks contest last week, missing one of the 30 predictions to win the $12.50 first place prize.

Vassar and Van Fruit of Box 68, Garden City, each missed one, with Vassar winning the playoff on a match-up of tie-breakers.

Pruit received $7.50 for his efforts, while Victor Hewty Jr. of Lenorah, who finished third two weeks ago, missed two and won the $5 third place honors again this week.

In last week's contest, Texas Tech was incorrectly listed as playing Arizona State. Tech played Arizona, so each entry was credited with a correct answer.

Another contest appears in today's edition of The Herald. Entries must be filled in completely and returned to The Herald office or to Coahoma State Bank prior to noon Friday.

Tony Mann, Big Spring, and Jeff Bramlett of Odessa captured first place in the 14-year-old division of the West Texas Open Tennis Tournament in San Angelo over the weekend.

The pair defeated Louis Pricor and Wes Young of Abilene 6-1, 6-7, 6-1 in the opening round; beat Lee Goss, San Angelo and Jimmy Bell, Austin 6-2, 6-2; and Bill Russell of San Angelo and Brent Proctor of Abilene in the finals 7-6, 6-2.

Prissy Mann of Big Spring lost in the semifinals to the girls' 12 singles to Whitney Gillis of San Angelo 6-1, 6-0.

Mann, Bramlett Nab Net Crown

Colorado City won first place while Forsan and Coahoma tied for second in the Forsan Invitational Tennis Tournament played on Big Spring courts last weekend.

The Wolf netters had 16 points, compared to 13 for Coahoma and Forsan. The Figure 7 tennis team was fourth with 10 points and Stanton and Lamesa tied for fifth with five points.

The first nine teams in The Associated Press college football ratings held onto their positions today, but Alabama closed in on top-ranked Ohio State and Nebraska nosed back into the Top Ten.

Ohio State defeated Indiana 37-7 Saturday and received 35 first-place ballots and 1,126 points from the 61 sports writers and broadcasters who voted in this week's poll.

Runner-up Alabama earned 12 votes for the top spot and 1,042 points for a 42-21 triumph over previously unbeaten Tennessee that dropped the Vols from 10th place to 14th.

Last week, the margin was 1,113-930.

Third-place Oklahoma wallowed Colorado 34-7 and picked up eight first-place votes and Wisconsin 35-6 and remained fourth with one first-place vote and 857 points.

Four voters picked Penn State No. 1 following a 49-6 rout of Syracuse and the fifth-place Nittany Lions pulled down 709 points. Southern California, the defending national champion, stayed sixth with 629 points for a 31-10 decision over Oregon.

The other first-place vote and 541 points went to No. 7 Missouri, a 13-9 victor over Oklahoma State.

Notre Dame crushed Army 62-3 and received 508 points while Louisiana State downed Kentucky 28-21 and earned 402 points.

Nebraska, ranked second two weeks ago, dropped to 11th last week after a 13-12 loss to Missouri. Saturday's 10-9 decision over Kansas lifted both teams in the ratings, Nebraska from 11th to 10th and Kansas from 18th to 17th.

Angels, Milwaukee Make Major Swap

ANAHEIM (AP) — Harry Dalton's two-year search for a catcher has ended with the California Angels sending pitcher Clyde Wright to Milwaukee for Elie Rodriguez, key figures in a 10-player swap between the American League teams.

"We had to have a catcher and Rodriguez is a good one," the California general manager said Monday when he announced the trade.

"We have given up some age for younger players," said Dalton, who sent relief pitcher Steve Barber, 34, outfielder Ken Berry, 32, and catcher Art Kusner, 27, packing along with Wright, 30, and a player to be named later.

Wright had an 11-19 record last season and a 3.68 earned run average. He won 36 games over the three previous seasons.

Besides Rodriguez, 27, who batted .269 this year after leading the Brewers at .235 in 1972, the Angels receive outfielders Ollie Brown, 29, and Joe Lahoud, 26, and pitchers Skip Lockwood, 27, and Gary Ryerson, 25.

In addition to his abilities with the bat, Rodriguez is considered a strong defensive catcher. Dalton has said Jeff Torberg, last year's regular, has slipped in that department.

Dalton said the trade "should help our building process. Lockwood can fill either a starting or relief roll and Brown and Lahoud will be given a chance in the outfield."

Lockwood was 5-12 for the Brewers, pitching half of the time in relief. Ryerson was 11-3 with a 2.09 ERA for the Brewers' Evansville, Ind., farm team.

Brown batted .280 with seven homers and 32 runs batted in in 97 games.

Barber pitched in 50 games for the Angels, mostly in relief, and had a 3-2 record. Kusner batted .125 in 41 games.

Berry hit .284 last year. Ryerson, 24, batted .349 for the Angels in September after a spectacular summer at Salt Lake.

Dallas Griddler Paralyzed; Toughest Comeback Ahead

DALLAS (AP) — On the ninth floor in the intensive care unit of Presbyterian Hospital 16-year-old John McClamrock is struggling with an enemy you can't blitz. His only offense is grit.

McClamrock, a middle line-backer for Hillcrest High School B team, suffered a broken neck last week making an open field tackle on a kickoff return against Spruce. It paralyzed him from the shoulders down.

At the time young McClamrock was making a comeback. It was his first football game of the year after he had quit the team in the hot, steamy days of August.

Hillcrest Coach Bobby Ewell recalls "He was having transportation problems and decided he needed a car. John came back two weeks ago and said Coach, I didn't know what I had been missing. Would you give me another chance?"

Ewell, a former star at Dallas Woodrow Wilson High School, liked the boy's honesty and sent the junior to the B squad for seasoning.

"He passed his physicals and started the game last Wednesday after sitting out a week," Ewell says. "He dove under the runner and tried to block him down. He caught a knee on the side of the head."

The break occurred two inches below the diaphragm. Two inches higher and doctors said McClamrock would have been killed.

"I don't mind telling you it has been a jolt—to his family, teammates and to this community," Ewell says. "Our students have been tremendous, setting up a constant vigil of prayer at the school. Parents are at the hospital at all hours comforting the McClamrocks (Mr. and Mrs. Mac McClamrock)."

Ewell, who has spent 18 years in athletics, says "I went home that night and asked myself if I still wanted to be a coach. I had never been associated with anything like this. You know, so many people are waiting to jump on athletics... well, it makes you think."

He went to the McClamrocks and says "The family was great. They realize you can't protect young men in everything they do. While we were at the hospital, there was a bad motorcycle accident and the boy was in bad shape. You see everything at the schools these days—kids involved in narcotics... that's a tragedy you really can't understand."

"We're not holding this against football," McClamrock told Ewell. "It could have happened in a car—anything."

Cronin was voted into the Hall of Fame in 1956 and three years later took over the league's presidency.

Time To Cool It

The dismissal by President Nixon of Archibald Cox as special prosecutor in the Watergate investigation, and the resignation of the attorney general and his first assistant as a result of this, has convulsed the nation once again.

This has set up alternate crises of "bully for you" and "impeach the President." The action, if not autocratic, is abrupt; the reaction, if not hysteria, is premature.

One of the most helpful things that could happen is for both sides to cool it.

Ostensibly the President's course resulted in a refusal of Cox to accept a compromise plan for obtaining portions of the presidential tapes relating to the Watergate matter. The President and the Watergate committee seemed to have reached an understanding where germane parts of the tapes would be transcribed and then compared by a senior senator (Sen. Stennis) with tapes from which the information came. Once the agreement had been reported, there was an immediate disagreement as to what its terms actually stipulated — a summary, a complete verbatim transcript, a verbatim transcript of certain (relevant) parts?

In the midst of this, Cox took the position that the President should turn over all the tapes, and that failure to do so puts him in contempt for non-compliance with a court order. This, apparently, is the legal basis for much of the demand for impeachment proceedings.

The Republican President had engaged Cox, a Democrat, as special prosecutor during an earlier crisis over the Watergate matter, promising Cox a free hand to shape up such prosecutions as seemed warranted by developments. It was apparent from the start the President had no stomach for this, moreover he was less than enchanted with the selection of Cox. The growing tension surfaced over Cox's stand regarding subpoenaing of the presidential tapes. The President, having set in motion a confrontation over the issue of tapes of his conversations, appeared to be working a way around this ticklish constitutional question. Thus, when Cox bowed his legal neck, the chief executive must have figured whom he could hire.

The spin-off from this, however, was that Atty. Gen. Elliott Richardson, three times a cabinet member, who had promised Cox an unfettered hand, felt he could not go back on his word.

Something, Indeed

Both Arabs and the Israelis have accepted, conditionally, a cease fire proposed through the good offices of Soviet Russia and the United States.

While shooting can't be turned off as cleanly as turning off a faucet, the firing can be choked off in short time if there is a degree of commonsense and patience exercised by the principals.

William D. Ruckelshaus, also cabinet level official, must have had similar feelings, for he too stepped out, leaving Solicitor Gen. Robert H. Bork, next in line, to wield the axe — which he did. Adding to the spasm has been the resignation of several advisors to Richardson and Ruckelshaus, and threatened exit of others in the Justice Department.

Yet, demands for impeachment need more sober consideration, because the court order to surrender tapes is still subject to and therefore not finally reached, appeal; the possibility of an acceptable compromise still exists, thus avoiding a definitive judgment which most parties would rather avoid; and finally, there is a difference between ignoring a prior pledge and in actual defiance of legal processes.

All of this may mire expeditious consideration of the President's nomination of Gerald Ford as vice president, for this puts Mr. Ford in a potentially much different role.

Beating A Deadline

Around The Rim

Jo Bright

"Where's your Rim?" Dear Hart, Tommy, caught me completely unaware and, of course, unprepared.

It was the farthest thing from my mind.

SINCE TOMMY'S patience can be measured directly in relation to minutes to deadline, let's take a look at "these changing times."

For what you have to pay per pound for beef today, you could buy a pretty good quarterback.

After all the political upheaval and natural disaster we've been through lately, we're going to hate turning back the clock even one hour.

The man next door made a point of listening to what his teenage son had to say the other day and decided he understood the boy better when he didn't.

This new respect for the single life

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

I am only 16, but I'm looking for an answer to life. Sometimes I think I don't believe in God, or that He is just fate or something. Then, I find myself praying to Him. So, I must need Him. You've got to have the greatest faith in the world. How did you do it?

M.T.

The Bible teaches that "faith" is a gift of God. It is not something that we acquire through hard work or earnest seeking. John wrote that "We love Him because He first loved us." (1 John 4:19.)

God is obviously at work in your life to bring you to spiritual enlightenment. That means a personal knowledge of Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Your generation has been called "the seeking generation" with good reason. Having been disillusioned by the empty goals of a materialistic society, you reach out for reality. Millions have found that reality at the foot of a cross — kneeling in repentance and faith.

Your praying to God is on a similar principle to a compass needle pointing north. You were just made that way. While you can frustrate God's still small voice within, it is done at your own harm and peril.

I would not suggest at all that my faith is the greatest in the world. Furthermore, whatever spiritual powers I have come from God. It

Those Were The Days

Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is a marriage.

It weds man to his past, and there can be no divorce in that union. It is indissoluble.

Memory is the strongest link to life man has, and the most lasting. Only death, if anything, can dissolve it, and we are not even certain of that, for we know little about death.

Yet memory isn't a bondage or an uneasy servitude, but the most durable of our pleasures and the one that brings us the most solace across the years.

You have a pretty extensive chain of memory links yourself if you can look back and remember when — You could buy a Hohner harmonica for a dime or, later, 25 cents, and become the musical genius of your neighborhood.

When you went to a doctor and told him you were feeling

"poorly," like as not he'd say, "You ought to eat more — it'd do you good to fatten up." Fat people were thought then to have more resistance to disease than thin people.

Girls thought nothing of being engaged to a man six months or more to be certain he was the one they wanted to marry.

If a young society lady broke her engagement, she usually went on a tour of Europe to get over her disappointment. If she was poor, she just visited a relative for a while.

People expected as much benefit from a cent bottle of Indian herbal tonic as they do from $25 worth of vitamin pills today.

Adolescence was that miserable period when you were too old to sit in the front rows at the movie any longer and too shy to ask a girl to sit with you in the back row, where the spooning couples sat.

If you wanted to purchase a spool of thread, you went to a business establishment called a dry goods store, where most of the salespeople were elderly ladies wearing long black skirts, high-buttoned shoes and starched white blouses. Dry goods stores seem to have gone the way of the dodo.

When grammar school kids played hooky, they rarely got into trouble because they were too young to hang out in the town pool hall and all they could do was to go swimming or fishing.

Most people didn't know too much about sex — but enough to keep their mouths shut about it in public.

Those were the days — remember?

Mr. Stein's Economics

William F. Buckley Jr.

Mr. Andrew Stein is a young New York Assemblyman of considerable ambition and uncertain taste. He is devoted to fashionable causes, preferably in fashionable settings. A few years ago he presided over a party in Southampton for the benefit of Cesar Chavez' union. At that party he served champagne, which is harvested by Frenchmen, who are paid 50 cents per hour, and urged the socialites in attendance to boycott grapes, harvested by Americans who are paid two dollars per hour.

NOW MR. STEIN has sent a furious letter to Sen. James L. Buckley, protesting his position on school lunch money. Assemblyman Stein sent a copy of his letter — one has a paralyzing suspicion that he thinks it clever — to me; and we workhorses of this world have to acknowledge our mail, so here we go.

Mr. Stein advises Sen. Buckley that "malnutrition of children" is an inappropriate "weapon against inflation." He says that Sen. Buckley should have voted the disputed $200 million dollar increase in federal subsidies for school breakfast and lunch programs because "after all, these children are not responsible for the Vietnam War and its impact on the National budget and on inflation." He then reminds Sen. Buckley — I kid you not — of Dean Swift's modest proposal for reducing Irish hunger by eating children — a brilliant parody which however was over-used by the time, approximately, of the American Revolution. Mr. Stein has evidently rediscovered it, and suggests that Sen. Buckley's indifference to the fate of American children "lacks the grace and humanity of Dean Swift's earlier proposal."

NOW, IN 1968, the federal government was contributing 500 million dollars for school lunches.

In 1973, the Nixon Administration recommended an appropriation of one billion 500 million dollars for school lunches. That is, three times as much as under the last Democratic Administration, under the prodigious spender Lyndon Johnson. One would think that if with one and one half billion Mr. Stein's children would die rationally before arriving at the trenches of a future Vietnam, then with only one third that sum, they'd have disappeared four years ago.

BUT THE story is not even then complete. The House of Representatives took Mr. Nixon's request for $1.5 billion, and added $149 million. That bill arrives in the Senate, and the Senate adds $108 million. Along comes Sen. Humphrey, who wants to add $83 million to the Senate's $108 million to the House's $149 million to the President's $1.5 billion. Sen. Buckley, at this point, raises his voice to point out that the subsidy has by now outpaced the increase in the cost of food by something like 43 per cent, he supports one half of Sen. Humphrey's projected raise, and urges the House to reject the second half. Those figures, processed by Mr. Stein, become a call for children's malnutrition.

MR. STEIN then quotes a New York State welfare official as saying: "If reimbursement rates are not increased there will be general price increases to students and many programs throughout the State will terminate." Presumably Mr. Stein believes this, though it is perhaps uncharitable to suggest that Mr. Stein really believes anything he says.

Prevents Tissue Stretching

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 14, in good shape, but have some questions.

Is it healthy to go braless? Will it hurt my breast? I am used to wearing a bra but I like the braless look.

When I menstruate, one month I have pains, and the next I don't. Is this normal? Is there anything I can take for the pains? — J.J.

Going braless does not cause any disease or physical damage to the breasts. If the breasts are heavy, then obviously a bra will limit the amount of sagging and stretching of tissues — called Cooper's Droop. But that problem ordinarily takes care of itself since with heavy breasts it is more comfortable to have some support. (For example, bras are recommended for nursing mothers simply because of comfort.)

Your second question: some breast pain at menstruation is not especially unusual. Some experience it; many don't. Wearing a bra at the time may give some relief.

The fluctuation in pain from one month to another is not unusual, either, but the cause of this variation is not known.

In most cases, one or another of the drug store analgesics (pain pills) is the best remedy, but it is a good idea to experiment and find which one suits you best.

Dear Sir: I would like to know the symptoms of low blood sugar and how to overcome this. Is this the same as low blood pressure? I am sending 25 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for a booklet on these ailments. — Mrs. P.Z.

Am sending "Help for Hypoglycemia (Low Blood Sugar)" which will include symptoms, various types of low blood sugar, treatment required. There is no booklet covering both that and blood pressure — but there is nothing in common between the two conditions. Low blood sugar means periods when the amount of glucose (sugar) in the blood falls too rapidly or to too low a level. It has nothing to do with blood pressure, either high or low.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you give me some information about Guillain-Barre syndrome. What causes it, and chance of recovery? Is it psychosis? Friends say it is all in the mind. — Mrs. H.J.B.

This is a rare condition, and the cause is not known — except that it is not a psychosis, not "all in the mind."

It is a very real ailment affecting (for whatever reasons) the peripheral nerves. Roughly, that means any or all the nerves outside the brain and spinal cord.

It involves weakness and numbness to the parts of the body served by the nerves that are affected, such as arms and legs.

The condition usually comes on rapidly, reaches a peak within three weeks, but the outlook for complete recovery is good — about 90 per cent of patients returning to normal activity.

If muscles involve breathing, including of course the diaphragm, the condition becomes a very dangerous one, and from 5 to 20 per cent of such patients can die if emergency treatment is not started promptly to keep them breathing.

Guillain-Barre can be confused with polio, although actually there is no relationship.

Meaning Of UFO

WASHINGTON — I happen to be one of those people who believes that the unidentified flying objects which have been reported seen whizzing around the United States are for real. But, like so many people, I have no idea what they want from the United States at this point in time.

I SOUGHT out some of the most learned men in this country to find out if they had any theories.

Prof. Heinrich Applebaum of the Watergate Observatory told me, "This is just speculation, of course, but I wouldn't be surprised if they're trying to make a wheat deal with the United States. They saw what a good contract the Russians made."

"But why should they need wheat?" I asked.

"IF YOU WILL look through this telescope you'll see that there is not too much growing out there. You have to assume that whoever they are, they have to import most of their wheat. They probably were buying their wheat from another planet until they got word that they could get our wheat much cheaper."

DR. FITZHUGH Feelinghouse of the Society for the Preservation of High Sulphur Content in Fuel disagreed. "I am under the impression they want to buy oil from us. We have to assume that if they're from outer space and can make it all the way here, they are a highly industrialized society. Therefore, they must be short on fuel. I am almost certain they've come to discuss the feasibility of building a pipeline to their planet since from their telescopes, they have seen our neon signs advertising Exxon, Gulf, Texaco and BP gasoline."

JEREMY SAITHERWAITE, a political scientist at the Institute of Paranoia, is very skeptical about the UFOs coming from another galaxy. "I think Nixon is trying to get our minds off his domestic troubles by whipping up a flying saucer scare."

"But how could he swing it? Surely you can't launch a flying saucer from somewhere in the United States without someone knowing about it."

"Why do you think he sent those three astronauts up to Skylab for 59 days?"

THE FINAL expert I spoke to was Prof. Charles Simoli, a sociologist, who said, "The most interesting thing is that most of the UFO sightings have been in the South."

"What are you driving at?" I asked. "Has it ever occurred to you that all these poor creatures from outer space are trying to do is bus their kids to a good school?"

Couple Says Vows In Home Ceremony

Miss Donna Phillips and Randy Allen McKinney were married Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Byerley, 1501 Tucson, by Justice of the Peace Walter Grice. They are making their home in Big Spring.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mavis Glass, Big Spring, and James Phillips of Dallas. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McKinney, Rt. 1, Box 194.

The wedding vows were exchanged before an improvised altar, and traditional musical selections were by Mrs. Dennis Polinsky, pianist and vocalist.

The bride was attired in a full-length gown of aqua organza over taffeta with white trim on the bodice. The gown was styled with rounded neckline and short, puffed sleeves. Her bouquet was a nosegay of blue and white carnations.

The maid of honor, Miss Brenda McAdams, was attired in a street-length blue dress with white bodice. Larry Bruns served as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple was honored with a reception in the home, where refreshments were served by the bride's sister, Mrs. Sandra Hendricks, and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Robert Weaver.

The table was covered with a blue linen cloth overlaid with white lace. The centerpiece was the bride's bouquet encircled with blue and white candles. Attending from Dallas were the bride's father and her grandmother, Mrs. Essie Phillips.

The bride attended high school in Dallas, and the bridegroom attended Coahoma High School. He is currently employed by Western Mattress Company.

The first was a kitchen shower at the Valtai Reeves School of Hairdressing and Cosmetology. Hostesses were Miss Dena Sisson, Miss Peggy Hale, Miss Debbie Moore and Miss Becky Hays.

Another shower was held at Vincent Baptist Church. The honoree was presented a corsage of pink and burgundy carnations, as were her mother, Mrs. Eddie Simer, and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Morris Robertson.

The serving table was covered with white lace and appointed with crystal and silver. Pink tapers accented the table. Gifts were displayed on a table laid with white linen, and centered with an arrangement of pink fur flowers.

Hostesses were Miss Cindy Brown, Miss Spring Winters, Mrs. Bruce Hatfield and Miss Barbara Brown.

The final event was held Saturday at Texas Electric Reddy Room. Decorations were done in pink, white and burgundy, and corsages of pink and burgundy carnations were given to the bride and the mothers.

Hostesses were Miss Selma Pace, Miss Nancy Olson, Miss Treca Stewart, Miss Debbie Tibbs, Miss Sharon Plunkett, Mrs. Herbert Johnson Jr. and Mrs. Buddy Andrews.

Miss Simer and Robertson will be married at Vincent Baptist Church.

"Smells Bad"

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Someone signed "SMELLS BAD IN ROANOKE" wrote to say she was extremely clean about herself and her clothing, but she smelled a terrible odor about herself, which nobody said they smelled, and it was driving her out of her mind.

I had the same problem for four years. Finally my doctor discovered I had diabetes. He put me on a low carbohydrate diet, and the smell left me.

CURED NOW

DEAR ABBY: This is my 50th year as a physician and I have seen a number of cases like the one described by "SMELLS BAD."

That person should consult an ear, nose, and throat specialist for possible "Ozena" (stink nose), which causes a breath so foul that everything smells bad to her. The condition is the result of a chronic infection in nose and sinuses causing upper respiratory membranes to degenerate.

ARIZONA, M.D.

DEAR ABBY: I also smelled bad and didn't know why. My doctor looked into my navel with a flashlight and that's where the smell was coming from. He cleaned it out and advised me to keep it clean with a bit of cotton on a toothpick, and my problem was solved.

ON THE BUTTON

DEAR ABBY: Dr. Marion B. Sultzberger, a famous dermatologist, once told me that he had a patient who came to him with the same problem as "SMELLS BAD." The doctor had the man strip. He still smelled bad. Then the doctor told the man to remove his gold wedding band. That was the culprit! In some people, their body chemistry and certain metals create a very

"Personality Should Show"

"The best way to have a pleasantly decorated and designed place for living is to let the family personality show through," said Ted Hatfield of Good Housekeeping Furniture.

Hatfield spoke Friday to The Woman's Forum at the home of Mrs. Arnold Marshall, 709 Highland. He said the first consideration in decorating a home should be to find a style of furniture that suits family needs. Mixing and matching is a modern trend, but he said it must be done with taste.

"Early-marriage type furniture can be used with charm when tied in with newer pieces, and the effect is not too severe," said Hatfield.

"Solid wood furniture is becoming a thing of the past, according to Hatfield, and he predicted a future of beautiful plastic home furnishings. He also discussed use of colors in floor coverings and accessories. "The trend toward the eclectic look allows use of the old with the new," said Hatfield, "but a room must remain uncluttered through use of good basic pieces of furniture with a tasteful selection of keepsakes and accent pieces."

Mrs. John Knox was hostess, and guests were Mrs. Lowell Jones and Mrs. J. D. Jones, the latter being an honorary member. Mrs. W. N. Norred, Big Spring State Hospital representative, announced the hospital needs volunteers. Also, Mrs. Clyde Johnston discussed needs of Westside Community Center and told about progress being made. She asked members to save used light bulbs and felt scraps for use in arts and crafts activities.

The next meeting will be at 2 p.m., Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. Jack Y. Smith. Members of the music department at Howard County Junior College will present the program.

Coahoma Bridge Winners Named

Mrs. Bobby Dodson was high scorer when Coahoma Bridge Club met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Marion Hays, Coahoma. There were three tables in play. Other winners were Mrs. Wendell Walker, low; and Mrs. Tommy Wyrick, bingo. The next meeting will be at 7 p.m., Monday in the home of Mrs. Dodson, 602 E. Culp, Coahoma.

Ethnic Quotas

"American Jews, who constitute some 2 1/2 percent of the population, would suffer heavily in any system which accepted racial or ethnic quotas as the gauge for advancement instead of individual merit," Dr. Marie Syrkin, editor of Herzl Press, New York, at a Conference on the Jewish Tradition and Experience.

Don't Overplant, Iowan Warns Other Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP) - While the federal government and most consumers urge farmers to increase production, Rep. William J. Scherle, an Iowa grain and livestock farmer, bucks the trend by telling his constituents: "Don't Overplant!" or "Plant with Caution!"

Farm income, however, is at its highest level in two decades. Nonetheless, Scherle's aide said, "the farmer just can't go up and plow to the fence rows" as Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has advised since early summer.

What's the reaction been to Scherle's stand? "Well, some people have said, 'Yeah, dog gone right!' but we won't really know until they start planting next spring," the aide said.
