County Road Jobs Sanctioned by Department

Formal sanction of the first four of the Floyd county farm-to-market road jobs, projected by Floyd county Commissioners' court several weeks ago, got formal approval from the State Highway commission Saturday, according to press reports from Austin.

Totalling about 40 miles the four road projects authorized are a part of an overall construction program of nearly 70 miles approved by Floyd county taxpayers in March for improvement in connection with and by the aid of the State Highway department. The roads had been agreed upon by the department's district engineer, E. C. McCarty, and the local court as the first to be undertaken. They are as follows:

From Lockney to the Lone Star school;
From Floydada west through Sand Hill and southwest to Harmony school;
From State Highway 207 eleven miles north of Floydada east to Cedar school; and from State Highway 207 five miles north of Floydada east via Center school to Fairview school.

Total cost of the roads is estimated at $320,000.

The road building set-up is approved by the commission on a 75-25 basis in cooperation with the county.

Hale Roads Approved, Too

Two roads that are likely to be joined up with Floyd county system sooner or later also got the nod of the State Highway commission. They are in Precinct No. 1 and total 19 miles. One extends from Highway 70 in Plainview north and east to the Floyd county line, the other from U. S. Highway 70 five miles east of Plainview, south and east seven miles, to a point near the west boundary line of Floyd county.

City DDT Spray Soon

First spring spraying day for the streets and alleys of Floydada—a repeat of last year's fly and germ-killing campaign by the use of power-propelled DDT—is not far in the future, it was announced this week by J. A. Patterson, member of the city council.

In order to make ready for the spraying it would be a very good idea for all residents to put their premises in top sanitary condition so as to get the fullest benefit of the powerful insect killer that will be used. Same plan as last year is contemplated, said Mr. Patterson.

Patterson has been assigned the streets and alleys as his responsibility on the council. He says that every street and alley will be made by the DDT truck, covering some 40 miles in distance and emitting the atomized spray so as to cover all areas in the city limits. He suggests there are some alleys the truck may not be able to make unless the property owners who have thrown rubbish into the alleys get it removed first.

The city hauls away trash, rubbish, cans that cannot be burned, but anything which can be destroyed by fire is the responsibility of the property owner, according to the city sanitary code.

Exact date of the spraying has not been determined, but the date is not far distant, says the councilman. The spray is not dangerous for humans and it will be suggested, when the time comes, that open doors and windows in residences will be desirable to let the spray help with killing insects in residences as well as in and around the premises. The campaign was first begun a year ago as a possible aid in combating the danger of polio by Floydada Junior Chamber of Commerce. The city took over the responsibility so as to spread the cost to all taxpayers, due to benefit alike.

Country Club Officials Still Spending Money

Directors of Floydada Country club this week report to the nearly 200 families in the county who are members that they are still spending the club's money for improvements the directors consider essential, and add in their discussions of the matter parenthetically that if the members consider their spending ill-advised they can make a change soon. Annual election is due to be held early in June.

E. C. Carter, president, said that at a special meeting Monday morning the board spent $1,760 for a new gear head, housing, shaft and new bowl for the pump at the club's over-driven well to supply water for the swimming pool, as well as for a new pump. Only things not renewed in the deal is the casing and the power plant, a butane-powered engine installed last winter. View of the directors is that the pump setting also should be lowered 30 feet. This on the advice of J. K. Childress, a Plainview man, who is also contractor on the well, booster pump installation, et cetera, for City of Floydada.

Other money which the club has spent or contracted to spend is for a new windmill, additional playground equipment, a tractor, and for the new dam and spillway, which they hope will work. The effort is to give the associate members in the club and their families a run for their money, and to make the grounds a more enjoyable playground for all.

Pool Will Be Ready Sunday
The new equipment is being installed this mid-week and Mr. Carter is sure the newly-cleaned and sterilized swimming pool will be full of clean water and ready for use for Sunday afternoon bathers.

The swimming pool has come in for some expenditures this spring, incidentally. Aquila, the war-born caking material, has been applied to walls and floor and a coat of swimming pool enamel was applied several days ago.

After the various and sundry items for which expenditures have been contracted, have been paid for the club still will have some funds left in the treasury, Mr. Carter said, meeting the requirements of the club's constitution that the board of directors cannot legally spend any money they do not have at hand.

South Plains Team Tops Heap In City League

South Plains, by virtue of two wins and no losses in City League play, is at the top of the heap in evening softball here but they lay their leadership on the line tomorrow night against a strong aggregation in the McCoy crew. McCoy has been light at bat and run into hard luck defensively but is expected to be strong contender before the month is over.

In the won and lost column Ha-gooods, Merchants and Phillips are tied for second place with 666 each. Stansell-Collins and Grigsby Laundry are tied at the 500 mark. McCoy shares the bottom rung with the Footlight club entry with two games lost and none won.

Second game tomorrow night is Stansell-Collins and Grigsby's. Monday night's games will be between Phillips and Footlight and South Plains and Merchants.

First Ten Batters
Calahan of South Plains heads the list of batters in the first early compilation. He has a .750 average. Others in the first 10 are: Cooper (Phillips); L. Grigsby and Bishop (Grigsby); 500; Word (Merchants); 371; Harper (Stansell-Collins); Womack (Ha-gooods) and Stanforth (South Plains) each 500; King (Footlight) and DuBois (Merchants) 400.

Crowds have been good, considering the extremely cool nights, and the players and crowds have been good to the umpires todate.

Merchants Vs. Plainview Tonight
Beginning at 8 o'clock tonight, the Merchants will play a team from Plainview. Thursday nights were left open when the schedule was planned for games with out of town teams.

Stringer Likes Sprinkler Type Irrigation Plant

R. L. Stringer, of the Stringer company, Wichita Falls owners of part of the Callihan county school lands in west Floyd county, is another operator of irrigated farms who likes the sprinkler type of irrigation system. He thinks sprinkling will take the place of gravity flow for watering land in many instances throughout the county.

Mr. Stringer has had a sprinkler-type irrigation system going on one of the farms for several days. He has had some experience with the sprinklers in the Rio Grande valley. He has been irrigating a Floyd county field which he had never watered before.

What is going to make the Floyd county irrigation farmers want to invest in the pipe and the power plant it takes to operate it, in Mr. Stringer's opinion, is that you can water so much faster—20 acres by sprinkler to four for gravity—and 50 per cent less water per hour. Additionally the hand pump that develops from gravity watering on account of heavy application can be avoided. The fact that you can put the water exactly where you want it in the amount you want it also will have a bearing on rolling land and in areas where sand traps gravity flowing water.

County Attorney Candidate Passes State Bar Exam.

Enos T. Jones, law student at Baylor university and candidate for county attorney of Floyd county, has passed the state bar examination, it was learned here last week, and will be ready to begin the practice of law when he finishes his course at the Baylor law school. He took the examination in February, along with a large number of other candidates for the coveted commission.

Mrs. Jones and their son, John, 15 months, have been making their home here since in April, at 220 South Second street.

Memorial Day Remembrance of War Dead

A sunrise ceremony and memorial service at Floydada cemetery will mark Memorial day observance here, it was announced this week by Herschel Swepton, commander of McDermott post, American Legion.

At the sunrise hour a brief address honoring the war dead will be made by Meade F. Griffin, former district attorney of the 64th Judicial district, himself a veteran of World Wars I and II. A committee composed of John B. Stapleton, J. C. Wester, Jack Henry and E. L. Cornelius, appointed by the post commander, has the general plan for the memorial in charge.

Plugs and flowers for the dead of all our nation's wars who have been interred in Floydada cemetery, will be placed on the graves. Markings these graves so that wreaths or other flowers can be placed above their last resting places will be the responsibility of a committee composed of Walter G. Collins, Harry Morckel and J. B. Turner of the post membership.

Flowers Will Be Needed
John B. Stapleton, of the arrangements committee, this week said that shrubs would be welcomed on the committee would need yard flowers from the homes of people of Floydada and Floyd county in considerable profusion and any who would like to help in this manner can contact the flower committee, which is composed of Elton Goen, Carl Jarrett and Rex Brown.

"The ceremony honoring our war dead will be held promptly at sunrise and it would be fitting if we could have many present to pay their respects to the boys who served their country so faithfully in time of trial."

Dead of all wars including the Civil war, the Spanish-American conflict, and the two world wars will be remembered, unless their graves are over-looked, said Mr. Stapleton.

Lay Foundations For More Housing

Buildings recently acquired by Floydada Independent School district from surplus army buildings at Childress and Pampa will soon have foundations ready to receive them on the campus of high school and of the Andrews Ward school.

Work was started the first of the week for three buildings on the high school grounds and foundation was due to be laid for one before the week ends on the campus at the ward school.

Mrs. Woolsey, who accompanied her husband, reported his condition as somewhat improved.

New Mexico Ropers Will Contest Whatley and Kirk in Pioneer Day Contest at Floydada Rodeo Assn.

Floydada Rodeo association have changed part of their plans for the Old Settlers day celebration in Floydada. The quarter horse show, open to all in all classes, will be held as planned on Thursday, May 27, with judging to begin at 11 o'clock a. m.

But the Thursday night show and the Friday (old settlers day) show will not be a full-fledged rodeo, as at first planned, but a matched team roping between Texas and New Mexico lariat artists.

Jack Johnson, vice-president of the association, this week said the change in the plans was decided upon when Plainview on the west and Crosbyton on the south, both announced big rodeo contests almost simultaneously. Since there will be small chance of attracting the much-needed attendance from either Crosby or Hale county for the Floydada event, Johnson said the committee decided to make their plans less ambitious and less likely to cost the association a considerable chunk of money.

Fast Roping a Certainty
This doesn't mean to say the contests here won't have class. For Zeano Ferris, of Las Cruces, New Mexico (See Roping Contest, back page)

EDITORIALS

The Hesperian is by way of being politics conscious. That is we go for politics in a mildly self-effacing sort of way. We know that the politics of the country for the past 70 years has done more to us than any other one thing. We certainly do not sit in the seat of the scornful nor do we walk in the council of the unbeliever when we come to politics. Our perusal of the history of things in Texas makes us know that what the Grand Old Party did to us through many a long, hard year was the cause of such uprisings as the forty acres and a mule movement, the insane (almost) campaign against the railway companies, and many other things including the election of some demagogues to high places who had no business being in the places they held.

Thus putting ourselves on record as politically-minded we call attention to the fact that none of the politicians are taking a public stand on the weather. We here and now assert ourselves, in contrast, as being on the side of the wets. We hanker for rain and we do not mean maybe. We want it to rain on the dry and farms and we want it to rain on the irrigated farms. We are against all and sundry winds that might blow a good rain cloud to pieces. And we are making rain medicine. If we can get this combination of norther blowing off of the Old Mexico mountains broken up there'll be rain, too. Has your candidate announced himself on this important matter? We assert he has not. He does not sense the importance and the need. He is thinking about the office he wants to fill. We are, too. We must have your support. Turn in and support The Hesperian for this important assignment. We missed certain forecasts this spring, we admit. But it was the fault of a most unnatural combination of circumstances over which we had no control. This is important. Lend your help to a wet cycle. Back The Hesperian and let's see if we can't get out of this trough. A lot of feed bundles, millions of tons of alfalfa, much maize, hegira and cottonseed are among the things at stake.

Of course, when it comes to a matter of praying for rain, we will want to do a little picking and choosing as to who heads the list. But for a general run of supporters we'll take most any citizen who comes along. This is an attitude supported by divine writ, or should we be so beholden as to say it. We recall one man who commenced praying when there wasn't a cloud in sight as big as your hand. But he had connections and he got the job done. It is important whom you know.

A good green grass diet would be a fine thing for most people. Chlorophyl has something that is important to cattle and to mankind in general. Mankind is finding that out as we probe deeper into the secrets of health and well-being. So many of the things that have come along down the years, regarded as superstitions fostered by the yarb gatherers, are being discovered all over again by the medicine men and the scientists. Hailed in this age as great discoveries by this and that one, they were known to the mountain people and the plainmen of another age as commonplace. Thus one who eats enough of the grasses, on a change from ordinary diet, finds his eyes keener, his hair blacker or more golden, his inner vitality more vigorous. He will weigh less but he will suffer little or none at all from common colds and headaches. Anybody who puts anything like that into print, of course, doesn't belong to the American Medical association nor depend on it for a living. The AMA is all right, of course, a wonderful organization. Aside from the fact that it is dominated by one man, that is.

The bindweed is getting to be more of a problem in Floyd county. Unlike Johnson grass, which is a problem in the fields and the adjacent bar ditches largely because of carelessness and indifference, it thrives alike in wet or dry weather, in irrigated or non-irrigated fields. When bindweed gets hold you don't fight it with the ordinary methods. Applications of the new 2, 4-D may be the answer, but maybe not. Bindweed has seed above and knots that propagate new growth under the ground as well. Kill it out this season, it re-appears with vigor next. The bindweed most likely was introduced into the plains region through garden seed, since the first ones appeared in garden plots. Iowa, nemesis of things Texans, likely is the area from which they "migrated" to this section. Maybe Tennessee. Anyway, bindweed is a problem in Floyd county and other plains counties. Bindweed, like Russian thistles and goat heads, flies and careless weeds, must, of course, bow to some kind of treatment that will rid the soil of them. The final, accepted procedure is yet to be found, however.

You can usually dodge a question with a long-winded answer.

If she gets all the water she wants, a cow will give 8 to 15 percent more milk.

It's give and take in this world, with too many people trying to take.

Tomorrow sure is going to be a busy day for us lazy fellows.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE CAUSE HAS BEEN DISCOVERED

A prescription has been compounded in tablet form to be taken orally in your home, no dieting, no restrictions of any kind.

After being examined and symptoms recorded, take the medicine for thirty days, return, be re-examined, and if there is no reduction in blood pressure your money for professional services and medicine will be refunded.

Some of the symptoms are headaches, dizziness, pain in back of head and neck, rheumatism, irregular heart, cramping and aching of the limbs.

Records of all cases are kept and are open for inspection to anyone interested. This is a new discovery and has been successfully used for five years.

Revenue Fund at All-Time High on May 4

AUSTIN, Texas. — The general fund of Texas will stand at $64,000,000 after Comptroller, Geo. H. Sheppard transfers over ten million dollars from the clearance funds to the general fund.

The net balance at the end of April was fifty-four million plus. Due to tremendous increases in early all sources of revenue to the available school fund, Sheppard has placed the amount taken from the general fund to make up the fifty-four million per capita. This leaves more than $10 million for the general fund.

Crude oil tax is running at almost eight million per month, an unexampled figure two years ago.

Carbon black, cement, sulphur, natural gas, auto sales, cigarette and Insurance company occupation taxes all exceed last years receipts and contribute to the general revenue surplus.

One Hundred Twenty Register at County Club Women's Meet

Today's home builds tomorrow's world was the theme of the program at the tea held Friday afternoon at American Legion hall to honor past and present home demonstration council chairmen and home demonstration agents.

This celebration was one of many held over the nation by home demonstration club member in observance of National Home Demonstration week.

Spring flowers decorated the lace covered tea table. Punch and cookies were served by Meses. Tate Jones of Dougherty, Lee Rushing of Friendship, G. W. Smith of Lakeview and W. A. Lovell of Sunnyside. Napkins bore the dates "1923-1948." These dates cover the period of time that home demonstration work has been supported in Floyd county. Music was given by Mrs. O. G. Glass-moyer of Dougherty during the refreshment hour.

Mrs. C. L. King Presides
Mrs. C. L. King, chairman of the education-expansion committee of the Home Demonstration Council, had charge of the program, which was opened by the group's singing "Somebody."

Mrs. Carriek Snodgrass, of Harmony, council chairman, gave the welcome address. Three songs were sung by members of the Floyd County chorus. They were "Wonderful Peace of My Saviour," "America the Beautiful," and "Now is the Hour." The chorus was directed by Mrs. Raymond Williams and accompanied by Mrs. O. G. Glassmoyer.

Mrs. Charles B. Smith, of Harmony, gave the talk, using as her subject the theme of the week, "Today's home builds tomorrow's world," a talk appreciated and enjoyed by all.

Highlights of the Years
Highlights of home demonstration work in Floyd county were given by past home demonstration council chairmen.

Home demonstration work was started in Floyd county in 1923 but a council was not formed until 1927. The first chairman, Mrs. A. R.

Hanna, was present and told of some of the work done during its first year.

All but two of the council chairmen (Mrs. Carl McPherson, 1931, and Mrs. M. D. Ramsey, 1939) were present. Some of the events mentioned were taking a play to A. & M. College Short course, the county fair, tours, organization of chorus, mattress making, building and furnishing kitchen, the short course at Lubbock, and the war years.

Throughout each talk the cooperation of the people and the friendships gained by meeting in the clubs were stressed. Council chairmen present were:

Mmes. A. R. Hanna, W. H. Bethel, David Battey, Will Snell, C. A. Caffee, Ed Holmes, S. J. Latta, A. H. Kreis, Clarence Brandes, George Stiles, Raymond Teeple and Mrs. Snodgrass.

Past Agents Heard From
Miss Lelia Petty, county home demonstration agent, spoke briefly in tribute to past agents and council and club members. Mrs. King read the regrets of the past agents who are:

Miss Mabel Faulkner (Mrs. Bob Wilson of Hereford); Miss Blanche Bass (Mrs. Jack Polley of Austin); Miss Marie Strange of Austin; Miss Martha Faulkner (Mrs. Smith of Fort Worth); Miss Ruth Grimes (Mrs. Bob Wade of Lamesa) and Miss Edith Lois Wilson of College Station. A beautiful bouquet of gladioli from Miss Wilson adorned the speaker's table.

Special guests were Judge and Mrs. W. E. Grimes, Commissioner and Mrs. R. B. Calhoun, Mrs. Lon V. Smith, Mrs. Joe Smith (of Silverton) and two former home demonstration agents who live in Floydada: Mrs. J. D. Cleveland and Mrs. George Van Wickel.

The exhibit committee had charge of the exhibits which were articles made as results of demonstrations. Drawn work, crochet, comforts, and leather gloves were shown. Members who worked on this committee were Mrs. George Stiles, Mrs. C. H. Ashton and Mrs. W. A. Lovell.

The exhibit and education-expansion committees of the council planned and directed the tea and were assisted by all club presidents and other members. Members of the education committee other than Mrs. C. L. King were Mmes. R. S. Harless, Otho Sanders, J. B. Smithman, and G. W. Smith.

Mrs. Joe Dunn helped the guests to register. One hundred twenty people registered.

Save the Soil Caravan Sees Demonstrations

Friday's Soil district sponsored tour of irrigated farm operations in northwest Floyd county gave heartening evidence that farm operators are taking seriously their duty to the soil.

In the largest caravan in a series of several years farm operators from all over the county, together with the agricultural classes of Floydada and Lockney, viewed work on farms where the soil is being paid back the nutrients which make it productive. At Lockview farm, where the dinner stop was made, considerably more than 200 persons registered for the barbecue dinner. They were guests of the farm management and of the supervisors of Floyd County Soil Conservation district at a toothsome meal.

Successful jobs of making permanent pasture, of seed inoculation, expert handling of nurse crops, induction of lake grasses, and a spray irrigation system were among the demonstrations seen. On some of the farms, notably the Lockview farm, use of green crops turned under to enrich the soil were seen.

The soil tour has become an annual event. It is sponsored and urged by the board of supervisors of the soil district. Jointing in carrying out the plans of the district this year were County Agent A. L. Hartzog, District Soil Conservationist Ralph Cogdill, Production Marketing Administrative Officer Ray S. McEntire, together with H. G. Barber and F. L. Montanden, vocational agriculture teachers at Floydada and Lockney. Floydada Lions club was one of the local organizations which particularly campaigned for a big crowd on the trip.

Ed Johnson is Praised

The soil district supervisors and agriculture workers in general are courting the favor of business men's groups in soil saving and similar efforts. Numerous business men were listeners and seers on Friday's trip.

Friday night the Lions club barbecue and speaking at Wester field of Floydada School district was addressed by J. B. Lynn, agricultural writer of the Globe-News, Amarillo, and farm editor of KGNC radio station. A. L. Hartzog served as master of ceremonies following the dinner. More than 100 present heard the presentation to Ed Johnson, Lions club stalwart, in recognition of his efforts to promote soil conservation work in the county. He was nominated for this honor by the supervisors of the district, from the ranks of business men not directly associated with the farming industry.

The day also saw the youngsters of Floydada High school presented cash prizes for their windows depicting soil saving practices applicable to Floyd county. The cash prizes were put up by members of the supervisory board, each giving "a day's work" to make the prizes available. Three teams were awarded prizes. Team winning first prize was composed of Billie Mac Shipley, Harvey Dale Tardy and Billie Joe Smith. Second place winners were Don Marble, Buddy Sanders and Franklin Wylie. Third window display prize went to Garvin Beedy, Gordon Hambrick and David Nichols. The prizes were $10, $5 and $2.50.

Members of the board of supervisors are R. G. Dunlap, W. F. Ferguson, Cecil Purcell, W. H. Nelson and John Bell.

Crosby Road Bond Vote on June Fifth

CROSBYTON, May 10—Qualified taxing voters of Crosby County Road District No. 1 will be called upon to vote Saturday, June 5, to decide whether or not $132,000 in bonds shall be issued for the purpose of constructing farm-to-market roads in the district.

The election was called by the Commissioners' Court following a hearing held Saturday, May 1, at the court house. The election, if carried would call for the building of 16 1/2 miles of road in the district.

Opponents Employ Lawyer

An attorney, C. W. Harris of Lubbock, was present at the hearing to protest the calling of the election. He stated that he represented 35 taxpaying voters on the East Plains. The protest grew out of the location on the proposed road on the East Plains. The route as outlined in the bond election notice would run from the Wake school south to the highway.

This will be the second road bond election this year; the first, which was a county-wide issue, being defeated early in February.

Days are not so bad when growing kinda old, as one think. Wilda and Margaret made me a good white cake. Billy gave me a needed sweater and Marjorie's gifts were.

Mrs. E. W. Turner, Mrs. Parrish and Miss Lela Staley were happy with birthday cards. Mirt and sister Edna wrote me. It was a fine birthday and I feel a day older, either.

Youngsters of the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children, Dallas, couldn't wait to try out the new spinnet piano given them recently by the Last We Forget Club, a group of women exceptionally generous in donating equipment for the kitchen and other parts of the hospital. At the piano playing for an impromptu chorus is Betty Nawara. The singers are Sue Plummer, behind the piano, Sailor Shipp and Jean Monteith. Friends all over Texas yearly contribute many such fine gifts, as well as funds, to help carry on the work of the Scottish Rite Hospital.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS

One of the largest offerings of surplus camp buildings to schools and other priorities will involve 815 structures of the Amarillo Army Air Field. The buildings are for off-site use only and include mess halls, recreation, storehouses, hutments, warehouses, latrines, lavatories, officers quarters, office buildings, post office, post exchange, administration and similar types. The Grand Prairie WAA office of Real Property will entertain qualified applications until May 28.

Much additional material has been lotted up in readiness for a final clearance of the Dal 6 warehouse in the North American plant. The sale will include 85 lots of machine tools, industrial equipment, general products, office furniture and supplies, a few motorcycles, 10 passenger cars, and two trucks. However, as pointed out by WAA location clearance men in charge of the sale, the armed forces now have overriding priority rights in withdrawal of any material needed in the interest of national security.

Another big war surplus sale in Texas is being planned at Fort Bliss near El Paso. Besides some $90,000 worth of machine tools and similar equipment to be offered the various purchasers, more than $100,000 worth of consumer goods and veterans set-aside items will be ranged for informal bidding and fixed price awards.

Crosby Killer Appeal Argued

CROSBYTON, May — Following the overruling of a new trial motion by Judge Dan Blair in the case of George Holland, 33-year old Crosby county negro convicted in 72nd District Court in Lubbock of slaying Sheriff J. J. Pierce submitted its appeal Wednesday to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin on brief and oral argument.

Holland's case was transferred to Lubbock county for trial Sept. 15 and 16 last fall.

District Attorney Lloyd Croslin of the 72nd Judicial district was in Austin to argue the case for the state. Bryan B. Dillard and A. C. Cooke, of the firm of Dillard, Cooke and Dillard, were in Austin representing the defense.

The defendant appealed on four bills of exception, all of which were controverted by the state in a brief filed by Croslin and his assistant, E. G. Pharr. The defense bills were: 1. That the trial court erred in overruling a defense motion to squash the indictment voted Aug. 8.

2. That the trial court erred in overruling a defense motion to grant a new trial on the ground of jury misconduct.

3. That the trial court erred in overruling a defense motion to grant a new trial on the ground of jury misconduct.

4. That the trial court erred in overruling a defense motion to grant a new trial on the ground of jury misconduct.

in Crosby county; 2. The court erred in overruling a defense motion of continuance and a "Supplemental motion for continuance"; 3. The state failed to prove commission of the offense alleged in the indictment as having happened in Texas; 4. The court erred in overruling the second amended motion for a new trial.

The state answered that the bills of exception were not properly before the court.

the high rating of Grade A. And that is really something to tell about.

I have never had so many different kinds of flower seed to come up. If there is plenty of water Margaret Nell and I shall have all we can care for and blooms for the house and to give away, which is really the best thing about growing flowers. Snapdragons and pinks, petunias and rose moss, Zinnias and California poppies, gallardia and larkspur. How pretty most names of flowers are.

Grandmother, what did you get for your birthday?" Joe Ellis wanted to know. I told him, "But didn't anybody give you candy?" He was eager to know and was very disappointed when I told him, no.

The rain situation is getting pretty serious. "It can rain in fifteen minutes or fifteen years," so the old-timers said.

What words I can find to say cannot add much to the honor or to help the heart break of loved ones who have given up a grand old man, Mr. Rufus Travis. The bank of blossoming flowers, if each stood for a good deed, would not give the number he did for others in his passing through life. If the beautiful songs that were sung could be comfort at the last hour, they would not begin to tell the comfort he gave his friends when a loved one was laid away. If every word read from the Bible could be repeated numberless times over and over it would not be more times than he had read and quoted them to others. If the sunshine that came in the open windows as he lay so still and calm in the little church he loved and had attended so long could have been distilled and turned into gold, it would not have been a drop in the pan for the sunshine he gave every day of his life. The soft summer wind that blew the fragrance of flowers over the room of grieving people whispered of the fragrance of his life.

Many a time Big Travis stood at the open grave of his friends with words of love of comfort. This time friends stood at his grave and thought in their hearts of the consolation he had been to them in the same kind of grief-stricken hours.

Dear beautiful death, the jewel of the just! Shining nowhere but in the dark; What mysteries do lie beyond thy dust, Could man outlook that mark!

And I am sure our departed friend would say with the poet

Then bless thy secret growth, nor catch At noise, but thrive unseen and dumb: Keep clean, bear fruit, earn life and watch Till the white-wing'd reapers come.

Junior-Senior Banquet Given Western Touch

As the guests for the annual Junior-Senior banquet--the seniors, juniors, the faculty, and the board members--entered the Ward school gymnasium through an archway of flowers on the night of May 1, 1948, they were transported to a western world of a rodeo arena.

Under the light of the beautiful western stars they were seated at tables decorated with gayly colored table cloths. The candles in their paraffin-covered grapefruit candle holders, reflected beautifully in the star-covered blue sky. The moon, rising above the trees shone above the orchestra pit which was enclosed with a rail fence. To the east of the rodeo bleachers were two huge paintings of the early western life. The east end of the arena was also enclosed by a rail fence topped with saddles.

The enjoyable program began when Bill O'Dell gave the invocation. Afterwards Bradford Beedy welcomed the guests with "Howdy Strangers." Travis Jones followed Brad with his response entitled, "Gill Along Little Doggies." Jennie Chowning then read a very appropriate poem, "Out Where the West Begins." Four of the serving girls--Lee Hutchinson, Betty Laster, Molly June French, and Dorothy Bishop--then entertained the guests with "Along the Navajo Trail."

Superintendent I. T. Graves brought the program to a close with a speech, "The Last Roundup."

Waitresses in Costume
The rodeo theme was clearly portrayed by the cowgirl waitresses in their gay colored western costumes. They wore western style skirts and blouses, and to complete the costumes some of the cowgirls wore boots and wide brimmed western hats. Dressed in this typical costume, the girls served the following cowboy menu from an old chuck wagon.

Buffalo cocktail, jerky, ranch-style pinto beans, baked spuds, field corn, corn bread and sorghum, wild greens, a hunk 'o cake and a dash of sweetin', cactus milk.

The generous serving of this delicious food convinced the guests that the Juniors really knew the meaning of the good old western hospitality. After the banquet, the usual prom was held. Happy Roberts and her orchestra furnished the music for the dancing.

The banquet and prom were greatly enjoyed by every junior and senior who attended and was well worth the time and work spent on it.

This beautiful spring weather we're having is marvelous, and this week we are honoring a marvelous young lady, Margaret Green. Margaret was born June 7, 1931, in the big city of Center. Margaret weighs 116 and has blue eyes and brown hair. This 5 feet 4 inches of girl is the smartest of all the seniors. Margaret is an attractive girl of literary ability. She has accomplished very much during her life time. Being the valedictorian of her class, she is honored with the highest honor given in high school.

Margaret loves the color blue and she delights in eating fried chicken and ice cream. Her pet aversion is collected people. She likes night time and she had rather read than do anything else. Margaret likes volleyball and football as they are her favorite sports.

Margaret liked "Gone With The Wind" and is looking forward to seeing it again. Her favorite actress is Linda Darnell, and her favorite actor is Thomas Amburn; although she likes Glenn Ford too. Bob Hope and Betty Hutton can make her laugh (and Margaret likes to laugh). Since Margaret likes to read, she has chosen "China Sky," her favorite, and Pearl S. Buck, her favorite author. Margaret likes all her teachers, and she likes all types of people. Margaret's favorite song is "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Her favorite band is the "Whirlwind Band" and her favorite orchestra is "Happy Robert's Orchestra." She likes all types of music.

Margaret likes friendly people, good shows, pretty clothes, music, good books, church, playing volleyball, our annuals, and about every thing in general.

Her dislikes are: Catty people, conceited people, squash, okra, and turnips.

Margaret's ideal day would begin at 6:00. She would eat breakfast

Aggies Are Guests on County Soil Trip

Forty-five aggies made the tour Thursday sponsored by the Floyd County Soil Conservation district and were shown the practices being carried out by the farmers of Floyd County to conserve and enrich their soil. A big barbecue was given the group at noon by the Lockview farm at which time the winners were announced in the contest for the best soil conservation display that was exhibited in some local store.

Billy Mac Shipley, Harvey Dale Tardy, and Billy Joe Smith won first place with a model farm showing good conservation practices which was displayed in Penney's window. Don Marble, Buddy Sanders, Dean Stewart, and Franklin Wiley won second place with a soil samples display in the Pierce King Grocery. Gordon Hambright, David Nichols, and Garvin Beedy won third place with a placard showing accepted practices displayed in the Webb grocery.

The Ag boys attended an ag meeting held at the high school Wednesday night. A short program and business meeting were held after which refreshments were served.

The aggie softball team defeated the Lockney team at Lockney Thursday evening by a score of 17 - 7.

The F. F. A. boys and the F. H. A. girls went to Boaring Springs Saturday afternoon for a picnic. After swimming and hiking, a picnic lunch was served and the group returned to Floydada about sundown. Everyone seemed to enjoy it very much.

We'd much rather listen to an echo than a gossip, because an echo repeats what you say.

consisting of ham, eggs, and toast. Afterwards she would clean house, practice music until noon, and then eat lunch. For lunch she would have fried chicken with all the trimmings and ice cream. After lunch she would read a book and then go swimming. She would then eat a light supper, go somewhere with her ideal boy and return at 12:00.

Margaret's ideal boy should be six feet tall, with brown eyes and black curly hair. He should be friendly and above all be nice. He should have good traits and live up to good ideals.

Margaret was never so excited in her life as when she was told she was valedictorian. No one deserves it more than she does, because she has strived for that goal and has reached it. The future lies before her with great excitement and new ideals. She is a girl of leaders and one of wisdom. Here's a toast to you, Margaret, from F. H. S.

He Was a Friend

(In memory of Edward Cargile)
By Dale Johnson.
I went to see a friend of mine today. He didn't meet me at the door with a smile.

Because he had gone to a world far better than ours;
But in his place to meet me was his mother.

All she could say was, "Dale, he is now in Heaven with our God."
You see, only yesterday he was another American boy.

In for a good swim, but death struck hard and fast.
You ask, "Did he feel any pain?"
No, he felt no pain.

You see, he was electrocuted. Now he is in Heaven, where he will never feel pain again.

Fashion of the Week

This week we have a very unusual fashion for F. H. S. It is the new annuals. They are green with white title. They have everyone's pictures in there with everyone else's. To be really in style you have to have everyone sign your annual. These are the first annuals F. H. S. has had in several years. Everyone is late to class because of the confusion.

There is a minor fashion with the seniors. That is the exchange of their cards and invitations since they have arrived, so "Beware Everybody," because just anyone is liable to get either one or a dozen invitations!

Man is the only animal that blushes, or has need to.

Well, my lil' chickadees, how is youse today? Is youse as busy as I are? Youse must be 'cause there wuzn't enough doirt in the can this week. Children, youse not behind me youse letting me down - crash, bang, clang!

Kenneth Hollums and Alice Bea were writing notes in study hall the other day, Uh-huh caught ya!

Doris, what happened to Bobby Plumlee? I saw you with Billy Jeter Saturday night.

Eva Waller simply has fits in third period study hall when Junior Johnson is absent. They surely do have fun in there. Eva, what happened to Stanley Corner - or doesn't he rate anymore? ? ?

There is a new romance blooming between Robert Turner and Virginia Odum. They seem to have been doing all right!

I heard George Cardinal say he wished he was in Sweetwater. Wonder why? Has Juanita lost her appeal? ? ?

Did I see Ann West in the car with Gene Saturday night? Gee! I wonder what Joyce had to say about that? ? ? Or does she mind? It seems she has been with Bobby K. quite a bit lately and there's something about a ring too, ha!

Thomas Amburn was placed on the all-star cast of three boys and three girls for his portrayal of "Jesus" in "John Doe".

Eunice and Eddie Joe certainly do have fun in the seventh period math. Better watch it - Darlene may get jealous.

It looks mighty serious between Martin and Mava. They were making house plans in second period typing class. Don't get mad, Hope, but Weims told Martin that he would like to kiss the bride. Now Wow!

Dan Hagood likes sixth period study hall these days. Wonder why? Could it be because Thada Lackey is in there. They surely have been flirting in it. Look out, Thada, you may have a flock of freshman gals on your neck!

Edith and Dub are still going strong. Maybe they mean business! Mary Young is simply crazy over Bill Smith. What happened to Johnny -- what did he do? ? ?

Tommie Hart really gets around these days. First, it's Bruce Womack, Pete McGee, and then along came Sammy Hale. What's next? ? ?

What's this about Carlene in a car full of boys the other night? How many were there? Now tell us all about it!

Billy Mac and Veve really must be crazy about each other. They seemed to be very happy after the picnic at Roaring Springs Saturday!

It seems as though Virginia Dunn has lost out again. Lane was with Lovene Jones Sunday. Well, Virginia, it's better to have had and lost than never had at all!

Bobby Harless and Gloria Ratjen are seen to be the apple of each other's eye. Every day they walk to town together. Could this be a new love affair? ? ?

It seems, like Collins and Bud Turner had a falling out. Was that it, Collins? ? ? Too bad that little romance couldn't last! They were such a cute pair, too!

Well, kids, that's all for this week, but be sure to fill the can in Mr. Baker's office full for next week. Until next week, I'll be keeping my ears and eyes open.

Senior Kid Day

Tuesday, May 4, the assembly program was presented by the seniors. They were dressed and acted as "kids". Everyone had suckers, bubble gum, candy dolls, trucks, and various kinds of toys.

The girls wore short dresses and had their hair in long curls or pig-tails. Most of the boys wore short pants along with the rest of the things little boys usually do.

The program consisted of several numbers including an orchestra; rhythm band; the boys quartet; skit by a few boys; a song by Joyce and Floyce Jarrett and June Dunford; a reading by Carlene Daniel; a piano duet by J. D. Helms and Mava Smith; a reading by Margaret Huckabee.

The last number was the senior class singing the school song.

Thanks, Juniors!

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1948, wish to take this opportunity to thank you, the juniors for the wonderful banquet, which was given in our honor Saturday, May 1.

We all thought the banquet was very beautiful and want to express our gratitude and appreciation to you.

The decorations and arrangements were very clever and showed evidence of much time, thought, and work spent on it.

Once again we want to thank you for the very nice banquet. It will always remain in our hearts, the highlight of our senior year.

Jones' Motion for New Trial Is Over Ruled

Judge Daniel W. Blair of the 72nd District court for Crosby county over ruled the motion for a new trial filed by attorneys of W. Fred Jones at Crosbyton Saturday. He gave the defendant 90 days in which to file bills of exception, when attorneys gave notice of appeal.

The slaying, for which the defendant is charged with murder, occurred on September 27, 1946, when H. C. Love, jr., 23, an employe of the defendant, was shot to death.

Reversed in Hale County
The trial at Crosbyton, from verdict of which appeal is being taken, followed a transfer from Hale county on change of venue. In Hale county a petit jury had found the defendant guilty. The appellate court reversed this conviction and remanded the case for a new trial. In this high court judgement the prosecution failed to prove "express malice."

Original venue was in Floyd county. Trial was changed to Hale county when the district judge ruled that a jury could not be obtained in Floyd county. The second change came when the district judge for the 64th district found that a jury for a second trial could not be obtained there.

The defendant at the time of the slaying was one of the outstanding food store operators in the area. In each trial he testified to the discovery of an illicit relationship between the slain youth and the defendant's wife. Both the slain man and the defendant were reared in Floyd county and both were veterans of World War II. The slain man had been awarded the purple heart for wounds sustained in the Battle of the Bulge.

HER FIRST ORCHID
I wish to thank the people from the Wall Street Church of Christ and especially the Park Florist for the beautiful orchid presented to me for being the oldest mother in church on Mother's Day.

I will be 82 years old May 25 and that was my first orchid to receive so, of course, it made me very happy.

Make Satisfactory Progress on Tests Near Petersburg

An effort was not made by The Hesperian to get detailed reports on progress of the four oil tests in the Petersburg field, three of which are in the southwest corner of Floyd county, in view of reports in yesterday's daily press that no important developments were anticipated for several days.

One of these tests is the A. F. Byrd No. 2 on the same tract as the re-opened test discarded by Humble in 1941. General American has a well of this last named hole. The three Floyd county tests are on the Bob Mayo land, the Crump land and the Carmichael land. All have been re-reported progressing satisfactorily.

Orchids to Mothers at Local Churches

In honor of Mother's day, Park Florist Sunday presented an orchid to the eldest mothers attending church in the Baptist, Methodist, City Park Church of Christ, Wall Street Church of Christ and First Christian churches.

A special Mother's day program was held at the church Sunday morning. The program consisted of a number of readings and a play presented by the juniors and young people of the church. A trio made up of Arch Gibson, Delbur Rose and Ted Ferguson rendered a special song as part of the morning program. While the trio was singing, Mrs. Jess Wright presented Mrs. W. B. Ferguson with a white glad-stoll from the Women's Missionary council. Mrs. Ferguson, 77, was the eldest mother present for the service.

Blanket Care Suggested for Storage

As the warm spring days mean it's time to store the woolen articles of winter. Most housewives are interested in taking the sensible care of their blankets. Lela Petty, County Home Extension agent from the Extension Service of Texas A. and M., says that blankets should be fully cleaned so they will retain their light, soft fluffiness. And woolen blankets is an important job—it must be done correctly there is no risk of moths.

Care of blankets means savings. Keep them clean, light and fluffy. Repair the frayed edges and darn the holes and spots. Protect them against mold and wash and store them properly. They will give you extra service if treated gently.

Blankets cannot live in freshly washed blankets, so for that reason, it is important that they be stored before they are stored.

Make Them Last Longer
Use warm water, plenty of suds and rinsings in clear water when the life of the blanket. Hang in the shade to dry, and brush it with a soft brush more than once. If hung over two lines about 18 inches apart. Brush the entire surface of the blanket when it's dry. Use a soft brush to fluff up the nap and make it softer.

Protect your blankets from moths. Double handful of paradichlorobenzene or naphthalene flakes in each corner as large as the average blanket, or dust lightly with 5% DDT.

Blankets and seal immediately in heavy paper bags, boxes, or a light chest or trunk. They have blankets thoroughly when put into storage.

McMillan Film of Adventure at Lockney May 18

Buffalo bulls charge and lions roar ferociously in a color movie film by famed big-game hunter G. McMillan of Lubbock, during a recent four-month safari into the veldt and jungle country of South East Africa.

The 16mm. record of 5,000 miles of travel and hunting through the most existing concentration of life in the world will be shown in the City Auditorium in Lockney May 18. A commentary on the still film will be supplied by Mr. McMillan.

The hour and one-half film is being brought to Lockney under the auspices of The Lockney Rotary Club.

The movie contains approximately 1000 feet selected from more than 10,000 feet of film exposed while Mr. McMillan, Lubbock building contractor, his son, Bill, Jr., and his wife traveled through the big game country.

Match Equipment
For the safari into the veldt the McMillans used three big trucks, ten command cars, 31 native cooks, and camera bearers, trackers, hunters and skimmers.

In addition to the movie footage,

Mr. McMillan and his son shot 2,000 still pictures.

Animals Didn't Pose
"We filmed the country and the animals just as they are. We couldn't get the animals to pose for us," Mr. McMillan related. He said there was no shortage of subjects at which to aim the lens. Some days the party saw as many as 10,000 animals.

Plans for the expedition began nine years ago, but were interrupted by the war. Equipment was shipped to Nairobi, Kenya Province, several months in advance. The McMillans flew to Nairobi, via London and Cairo.
