

Milo Trickle In; Still No Cotton

Between 10 and 15 carloads of milo had been delivered to Floydada elevators Tuesday night...

Much of the grain was on small disappointing plots, on high ground and the like. But some sizeable fields were delivering grain to the elevators Tuesday afternoon.

Meanwhile slow opening cotton has been an irritant for the first bale watchers.

A "first bale" that lacked several pounds of making a marketable package went through the Bohannon Gin Tuesday night.

News that cotton bolls have begun to crack comes from all over, where there was early cotton left by the severe weather of early spring.

First Bale Due Soon This means a first bale soon, although already five days behind last year and several days behind the average.

One or two other cotton raisers have been checking their crops and there is still possibility that today or certainly the week-end will see the first bale premium go to some raiser in the territory.

Crops continued to deteriorate this week in areas where there has been no rainfall, and farmers have been unable to stretch their irrigation water supply to take care of the wilting grain or cotton.

Irrigated fields are booming and the red in the maize fields makes a pretty sight.

Also there seems no doubt that a lot of the cotton acreage is going to produce pretty well in line with last year's crop. Late cotton will not be in this category, however, unless a late, late frost is vouchsafed. The way the cold hits will also have bearing on what late cotton produces.

Gradual Cold Needed A hard freeze could catch the bolls full of sap, while a gradual nipping of the bolls would dry them out and make much difference in production. There are 85,000 acres of cotton in the county, an estimated 50,000 acres of it planted late.

While south Floyd County elevators are handling a considerable bit of milo, elevators toward the north have not had enough dry grain to make an appreciable showing.

Yesterday morning no grain had been received at South Plains as yet for this season. However, dealers there say their farm operators are checking, and the flow from field to elevator is due to start right away.

OFF TO THE GRIDIRON WARS

These five Ex-Whirlwinds have reported to gridiron camps over the Southwest. Standing left to right are Stanley Vickers a freshman candidate at Tech, Dane Clark, sophomore candidate at McMurray, Jackie Henry, freshman at Tech, Bobby Carmack, freshman at Panhandle A & M and Don Barber who will be battling for his first varsity letter at Tech.

Seventy-Five From Area Leave For Universities and Colleges

With a hint of fall in the air, boys and girls of Floydada and surrounding communities are making preparations for the great migration to the colleges or universities. They have selected to call Alma Mater. A few have already taken departure for their studies, a number of others will leave next week and by the middle of the month the entire group should be off to the opening semester of their chosen schools.

In the list of students attending colleges are the following: Walter Simmons, Barbara Huckabay

Grain Storage Capacity Hiked

Nearly 300,000 bushels of additional capacity will have been added to the grain storage facilities in Floyd County during the next few weeks.

Work on additional storage bins at Poole Grain Company's plant at Dougherty, already under way this week, will add approximately 170,000 bushels of storage at that point.

And this week work of pouring foundations for a new storage plant in Floydada was started by Lon M. Davis Jr., whose father will be associated with him in the enterprise. The new storage plant here will be on the Quannah, Acme & Pacific Railway Company's industrial street, adjacent to the Houston street intersection of Highway 70.

A storage house of steel, 70 feet by 120 feet, is contracted for, with 14-foot walls. An elevator leg and storage tanks are also in the plans. Total capacity will be between 125,000 bushels and 150,000 bushels at this plant.

A recent grain storage addition completed by Farmers Elevator Company on their industrial property on East California Street, has a capacity of 70,000 bushels, Carl Nelson, manager, said.

RED CROSS DRIVE SLOW

The Red Cross disaster relief drive has gotten off to a slow and discouraging start, says one of the workers.

There has been only $14.00 deposited in the Floydada bank at this time.

Donations can be made at any of the tellers windows at the bank.

N. W. Williams is County chairman of the Red Cross. A total of only $260 is being asked from Floyd County.

POTTS BACK TO HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Potts left Floydada Tuesday morning, by plane for McKinney, where Jim will enter the Veterans hospital for observation.

Mrs. Pott's brother, A. B. Davis Jr., of Lubbock piloted the plane.

'Winds Grid Opener Here Friday Night

The Floydada Whirlwinds will kick the lid off the 1955 season here tomorrow night when they meet the Canyon Eagles on Wester Field. Game time is scheduled for 8 o'clock and price of admission will be 50c for students and $1 for adults.

This first encounter of the new season will match Coach Watson's young charges against a team which is loaded with experienced players and is rated as a stronger contender than last year's Canyon team that was defeated only by the state champion Phillips Blackhawks. The contest is expected to be an interesting one, however, and an overflow crowd will probably be on hand to see what the Winds have got this year.

Spirit and Hustle Evident

The locals have undergone a strenuous training campaign since August 23 and early this week had reported only one serious injury. Hot weather may have kept the boys from going full blast on all of their working days but they are ready if spirit and hustle can turn the tide in their favor.

Coach Guy Harrison's Eagles are expected to be especially strong in the line. They have such an excess of heavy linemen some have been converted to the backfield where the Eagles did suffer some losses to graduation this spring. Little is known of their style of play as this is also their first outing and there are no scouting reports. It is believed the visitors will run from the split T formation.

Canyon and Floydada teams have met on the gridiron on several occasions in past years. Files of The Hesperian show the clubs met as early as 1921 when the Randall County boys took a 7-0 decision over the locals. Since then they have come together for six more gridiron duels with 4 contests going to the Winds and three to the Eagles. Last game between the two was in 1952 when the green and white brought home a 32-0 victory.

Probable Starters Named Coach Watson named a probable starting line-up early this week which would be followed barring injuries or late developments. The list which follows is the offensive team: Larry White, 160, and Buddy Watts, 160, ends; Marvin Rucker, 245, and Elmer Williams, 175, tackles; Stanley Burleson, 145, and Laran Nixon, 145, guards; Max Crawford, 165, center; Laron Fulton, 145, and Robert Stovall, 152, half backs; J. E. Waller, 150, quarterback; and Gene Swanner, 165, fullback.

No starting line-up for the Eagles was available at press time. Wester Field is sporting one of the best gridiron turfs in west Texas and this year will make an attractive setting for the big game. The new stadium, lights, and scoreboard which were completed last season will add much to the enjoyment of spectators.

Eighth and B Squad Scheduled Tonight

Games Here Tonight

Tonight there will be football at Wester Field when the Lockney boys come to town to engage the 8th grade and high school B squads. Coaches Charley Tyer and Paul Huntington will have their teams suited out and ready for their first action.

Admission prices will be 25c for adults and 15c for students. The first game will match the 8th grade boys and will be called at 6:30. The B squad tussle will get underway as soon as this match is over.

Area Games This Week

All teams of district 5AA and also those in the Floydada area of other districts will see action Friday in the first big week of scheduled play. Following is a list of many of the games of interest for tomorrow night.

- Oilton at Abernathy; Post at Morton; Crosbyton at Slaton; Spur at Matador; Tahoka at Crane; Lorenzo at Ralls; Lockney at Hale Center; Quannah at Dumas; Childress at Paducah.

their stuff during the half time ceremonies tomorrow night. The band has 73 members in uniform for their marching unit this year and promise to put on quite a show for the spectators. The green and white will be led on the field by Drum Majorette Cheryl Crawford and Twirlers Mary Wilks, Sandra Collier, Jerry Floyd, Sue Nelson, and Gaynell Boothe.

The band has been practicing since August 15 under Director Maurice Jones. The organization has grown from but 47 members at the start of last school year and will number more than 100 by next season.

The Canyon band will make the trip to Floydada but will not take part in the half-time activities.

W. O. Tyes Attend Funeral of Mother

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Tye returned home Monday from Hermosa Beach, California, where they attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. G. G. Tye.

Mrs. Tye, 84, passed away August 26. Interment, August 29, was in the Glen Haven Cemetery, north of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Tye lived in Floydada from 1911 to 1920. He preceded his wife in death in 1947. Survivors include five sons, F. G. of Amarillo, Jim of Kermit, Don of Santa Monica, Calif., Charles of Hermosa Beach and W. O. of Floydada and three daughters, Mrs. Fletcher Haines of Rosville, Calif., Mrs. Lee Moses of Colton, Calif., and Mrs. Sam McCleskey of Lubbock.

Jack Henry Heads Legion Post; Views Need for Revived Spirit

American Legion McDermet Post 118 will depend on the 58-year-old assistant postmaster of Floydada for leadership during the fiscal year of 1956.

Ex-Private Jack Henry, who served with the Marines during World War I, was elevated to the post of commander Monday night for the second time since the end of World War II. He replaced Allen Bingham who was commended for the excellent job he has done this past year. Henry and a slate of new officers were installed for the new year at a ceremony held at the American Legion Hall, with Jim Willson officiating in the installation service.

Upon Henry's shoulders rests the responsibility of reviving interest in the Legion, especially among the World War II Veterans.

Has Heavy Investment The post has a $20 or $30 thousand investment and should be of more importance to the Veterans, says the new commander.

The Legion, Henry says, is active in the enactment of so much legislation for the benefit of veterans, that he thinks the veterans should show more interest in their local organization.

Henry commands respect in the higher echelons of the American Legion and feels at home with "High Brass" from local level to the state level.

At the present time he is away from his duties at the post office on sick leave. He has been an employee at the post office for 35 years and has been quite active in Legion work.

Seeks Ideas and Spark Henry will supply leadership for the post, but he will depend a great deal on a new set of officers for some new ideas and spark.

Officers to serve with him are Darnell Ayers, adjutant and service officer, Kenneth Bain Jr., first vice-commander, Billy Henry, second vice-commander, J. C. Wester, Finance officer, J. C. Covington, Sergeant-at-Arms and E. B. Chesnut, Chaplain.

Members of the executive committee are J. M. Willson Sr., Harry Morckel, and W. O. Newberry.

Commander Henry and his officers face a job that will require imagination, zeal and ingenuity. However he says the veterans are showing signs of rallying and he hopes interest can be aroused.

Bureau Mapping Campaign Plans

O. K. Hoyle, regional director of the Farm Bureau, will meet with the Floyd County Farm Bureau Board of Directors, tonight. All alternates and directors are expected to attend.

Mr. Hoyle will discuss methods of handling the Fall clean-up campaign for membership and will help the local organization perfect a set-up for handling the community and county-wide policy development meetings to be held in this county the latter part of this month.

He will also outline the program for the District 2 policy development meeting at which Hub King, District 2 director from Brownfield and other state officials will be present. This meeting is to be held in the Lubbock Hotel, beginning at 1 p. m., Monday, September 12. Those present will discuss problems to come up in the next sessions of the State Legislature and National Congress.

As the Farm Bureau's policies are made at the "grass roots," this will be one of a series of meetings to be held over the state this month in connection with the Farm Bureau's annual policy development program. State issues to be discussed include financing and administration of a state water development program, feed control laws, right-to-work laws, and refunds of state taxes on non-highway-used gasoline, etc.

THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

Published by the Hesperian Publishing Co., Inc., at 212 South Main St., Floydada, Texas. HOMER STEEN, Editor.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1955

Established 1895 by Congress as second class mail matter at Floydada, Texas, under the act of Congress of 1879.

IEWS AND COMMENT

How many days is it until the first killing frost or a freeze hits on the high plains? A late cotton crop and much late feed in fields just now reaching the boot stage makes this an all-important matter on the farms of Floyd County. Night temperatures below 60 degrees and weak cold fronts that have begun to roll down from the north make an uneasy feeling that the "signs" of the old-timers may not work this time. The first frost or freeze ought to hit November 3. If that proves correct it would give time for the late crops to produce satisfactorily. The weather man carries the key to the events that may transpire. What takes place is important pocketbook-wise.

The Public Pays. It is an approximate statement of fact that the cost of the court house fire in 1949 was paid for by improved property in the corporate limits of Floydada. After the big fire, insurance policies issued carried a "penalty" charge. In the five — nearly six — years since the fire every piece of property that was insured, new improvements as well as old, had a "penalty" charge added in the face of the agreement. This the insurance agent collected under the supervision of the State Fire Insurance Commission. There is a maximum above which penalties cannot be added, and a maximum deduction also for good fire record. Insurance men say that the state has a flexible "rating" also, so that the cost of a holocaust or series of holocausts are spread out over insurance policies throughout the state if the maximum penalty collected in a given community does not meet the bill within a certain period of time. Floydada's credit for good fire record since the court house fire went into effect August 15, just about the time the new key rate was established for the ambitious waterworks improvement program. On this account the new key rate did not make as big a splash in insurance rates as it would have otherwise. And it points up the fact a community in large measure pays for its own fires.

This Seems Like a good arrangement to us. Somebody away off yonder — an insurance company in a skyscraper building, for instance — after all does not pay for our fires. We pay for them ourselves. That is what we have always done all the time in a haphazard sort of way. The idea, not so new but not fully realized until recently by the public, seems equitable enough. It does pin down the responsibility. Hearing the fire alarm and seeing the smoke one realizes at once who is going to help replace the loss.

County Road Machinery has been used within the confines of the municipality of Floydada in the past few weeks, the commissioners working with the city authorities very beneficially. This represents a major policy change. Although property within corporate limits in the county has been taxed all the years for road making purposes the benefits this property received from this tax money, running into many thousands of dollars annually, has been indirect. The assumption was that the city property owners would benefit from good roads in the rural areas surrounding them. This was good logic, too, but it didn't go far enough. A man who gets to town needs to be able to get around after he gets there.

White Towns Paid a relatively larger tax bill than was paid in the rest of the county, it was not thought that towns should ask for the use of county road machinery on their streets. Accordingly towns added taxes of their own to the taxes they paid into county coffers and attempted to provide machinery and money to do their own street work. Often with most discouraging results. That the county, with its very modern machinery can well afford to help municipal authorities maintain streets, particularly in helping provide drainage, seems like common sense to us, and entirely fair and right.

To Darkest Africa. Perhaps we'll read soon of an expedition from some of the southwestern states to Africa in search of some of the same kind of kaffir and maize that was introduced into this country 60 years ago. Dr. Karper, Mr. Martin and other breeders of seed have just about bred the stamina out of the cereal that served and saved this area for many years. The new hybrids are bred to produce a lot if you give them a lot of water. This may not be a statement of fact, perhaps, but it is something for the dry land farmer to put in his cud and chew on. Historically maize does not dry up and die away with the lakes full of water from fine mid-summer rains.

To keep the record straight: The last congress, just adjourned appropriated more than four billion dollars more than the predecessor congress. If the federal budget is balanced next year it will be because of more taxes rolling in, not a reduction in the expense bill. The executive department is also given a good many blank checks by the congress so that its spending can be continued from year to year without direct authorization.

Salting and watering facilities and fences on the range are excellent management tools, but how well they are used determines their value. They can be used to increase the output of the range in the form of meat and lower the per unit cost of production.

Low-cost dieldrin seed treatment protects crops from wireworm damage

Treatment Costs Pennies Per Acre, Assures Better Stands of Grain

Newly seeded fields make good feeding grounds for true and false wireworms and other soil insects. If there is not enough moisture in the soil to permit quick sprouting, seeds are vulnerable to insect attack for several days. But the threat of wireworm damage should be recognized at all times.

A dieldrin preventive seed treatment is a sure way to protect wheat and other small grain seeds until they sprout.

Low-cost protection

It costs just pennies per acre to treat seed with dieldrin, but dollars per acre to feed the wireworms untreated seed! A dieldrin seed treatment prevents "spotty" stands ... eliminates the expense of time and money for re-planting or sowing extra seed for the wireworms to feed on ... assures you of a longer grazing period. And dieldrin does not harm plant development.

Compatible with fungicides

Dieldrin is compatible with fungicides ... can be applied at the same time to save the expense and work of a double treatment. You can buy dieldrin-treated seed from your seed dealer, or treat the seed yourself. Dieldrin can be applied as a slurry, dry, or in a grain drill. A convenient method is to apply dieldrin to the seed in the grain drill as you plant. Follow directions on the label for the particular formulation you buy.

Less work at planting time

Seed can be treated now and stored until planting time. Dieldrin eliminates the rush of treating seed and planting within a few days. Dieldrin formulations are available throughout the wheat growing area. See your local supplier.

Caution Issued On Child Labor During School

ALBUQUERQUE, Aug. — Farm youngsters under 16 years of age are expected to be in school when the fall term opens in this community in September.

Field Office Supervisor Harry B. Nunn of the Department of Labor's Wage-Hour Division here says the child-labor provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act generally prohibit the employment of children under 16 years of age in agriculture, during hours when the local school is in session.

So children under 16 cannot legally be employed for farm work such as cotton picking, etc., during local school hours if the farm products concerned go into interstate or foreign commerce.

Farmers are responsible under the Federal law if they hire under-age children to do farm work during school hours. And the law applies equally to local resident children and to migratory children.

He said "school hours" means those hours when school actually is in session for the school district where the child under 16 is currently living.

The law, he said, sets no minimum age for employing minors on farms before or after school hours, or during school holidays or vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnard and daughter, Barbara and their grandchildren, William and Barbara Anne Vineyard left Sunday for Dallas. Barbara accompanied the children to their home in Atlantic City, New Jersey. They left by plane Tuesday morning. Barbara plans to return home in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Wilson and children visited in Amarillo last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carter.

School of Mission Study Conducted

A school of missions was held this week at the First Baptist Church. Forty-five minute classes were held each night in the different departments, after which the group met in the chapel to hear missionary speakers.

Rev. A. G. Hambricht, missionary pastor of the Alamo Baptist Indian Church, was home missions speaker Sunday night.

Foreign mission night was held Monday night with Rev. M. S. Blair speaking. He has served a number of years as an evangelist in Argentina.

Rev. Charles Luck was heard Tuesday night on State Missions. He is employed by the State Mission Board.

Stewardship night was held Wednesday night with Rev. Roy Davidson, pastor of the Nolan Baptist Church, speaking.

Mission teachers for the various departments were Dr. Earl Allen, Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Mrs. Bill Hardin, Mrs. W. F. Patrick, Mrs. E. D. Morgan, Mrs. Bill Blair, Mrs. C. C. Huckabee and Mrs. O. G. Mayfield.

HALL COUNTY PICNIC

A Hall County Homecoming basket picnic will be held at Memphis City Park, Memphis, Texas, on September 18.

All former Hall countians are invited to bring baskets of food and spend the day with old friends and neighbors. All former old settlers are especially urged to attend.

Mrs. E. R. Henningsen and children, B. F. and Curtis of Austin are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flynn Thagard. They plan to be here for about two more weeks.

Highlights And Sidelights from the State Capitol

(By Vern Sanford, Texas Press Association)

AUSTIN. — Many Texas public schools are holding integration plans in abeyance pending action by the State Supreme Court. But there is no indication the high court will rush to consider the Big Spring test case ahead of its normal schedule.

District court there ruled invalid that part of Texas law which requires public schools to be segregated. Appeal is being made by the Texas Citizens Council in an effort to prevent payment of state money to non-segregated schools.

Both sides had expressed hope for an early decision before the Supreme Court's October term.

Meanwhile, towns such as Waco and Laredo, which had planned to begin desegregation this fall, backed off rather than take a "legal risk." Others, like San Antonio, decided to go ahead, but reserved the right to review the policy in the light of new state-level decisions.

Charter Request Studied

Application of the anti-integration Texas Citizens Council for a state charter bumped into a delay in the Secretary of State's office.

Sec. of State A. M. Muldrow, questioned whether the council's organization is for a "lawful purpose" in view of the Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation.

Muldrow said he might ask the attorney general's department for a ruling.

White Distrusts Red Visitors

State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White took a dim view of the visiting Russian farm delegation.

Farming methods are America's greatest strength, White said, but Russia's weakest. "We might as well sell them guns," he declared.

In Washington officials were undecided whether the Texans who sold some 65 head of Santa Gertrudis cattle to the visitors would be allowed to export them to Russia.

Touring Soviets expressed a desire to buy farm machinery seen in other parts of the country, but the Texas cattle deal was the only actual purchase. At present there is only a trickle of trade between the two countries.

State, Commerce and Foreign Agriculture officials pondered the decision, suggested that public opinion would be a strong factor.

Record Employment Expected

Harvest and reopening of schools are expected to bring Texas new employment records during September.

Public school cafeteria workers will add thousands to the payrolls, said the Texas Employment Commission. A continued raise is forecast through the fall.

A new high in the average pay-check was hit in July, according to T.E.O. Holiday overtime plus wage increases brought the boost.

Druggists Receive Vaccine

Texas druggists are having their first experience in dispensing Salk polio vaccine.

State Health Department officials report 50,000 doses sent to Texas last week by Wyeth Laboratories of Pennsylvania. Of these, 42,000 go to drug stores, 8,000 to the Health Department for public agencies.

Some stores had already received vaccine; others were still awaiting their shipments.

Patients have been asked to contact their doctors who will buy through the retail outlets.

Texas free immunization program for first and second grade school children is expected to be completed by October 1. Eli Lilly Company of Indiana sent 144,603 more shots to Texas for that purpose.

Health Department statistics showed polio coming to its seasonal slackening-off period. Only 80 new cases were reported last week, compared to 98 the week before. Total for the year is now 1195.

Business Peak Passed

Texas business expansion has apparently passed a peak, but no severe decline is expected.

Crest of the current rise was in March, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported. In July the business index dropped two per cent from June.

Three factors, the UT economists believe, bar the possibility of a major recession. They are population growth, the rising standard of living and the high proportion of new investment being made in Texas.

Retail sales, already at record levels, are expected to soar further, making this the largest sales year.

Building boomed also, with a January-July total almost one-third greater than for 1954. A two per cent drop in construction during July was considered "seasonal."

Parr Trial Postponed

Trial site of George Parr on charges of income tax evasion awaits action by the US Supreme Court.

South Texas Political Boss Parr last week won an indefinite postponement of the case scheduled to begin September 6 in federal district court in Austin.

Contending that he would receive a fairer trial in Laredo than in Austin, Parr seeks to have the case moved to the southern federal district. He was originally indicted in Houston on charges of failing to pay some $85,000 in income taxes. This indictment was dismissed and an identical one entered in Austin.

Appealed by Parr, the change was upheld by Circuit Court in New Orleans. A continuance was granted in Austin when Parr's attorneys filed appeals in the Supreme Court.

Quitauque Rain 3.10 in August

Nice showers throughout the month of August in the area around Quitauque have made a rosy outlook for much of the Quitauque Valley, although the entire area did not get the total of 3.1 inches reported at gauges in the City of Quitauque.

Practically all of the area under the hill had enough moisture to bring up wheat for grazing, however.

Similarly the row crop outlook is much brighter than in the past four years, and range grass is in better condition to go into the fall.

Rain at Quitauque was 4-tenths August 7, 1.65 August 10, 42-hundredths August 23, 63-hundredths August 30.

The next meeting of the club will be on September 20 at the home of Mrs. Jack Lackey.

WCS Program Is On Korean Needs

The Women's Society of Christian Service met Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock for their joint business meeting and program. Mrs. C. B. Lyles, president, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. Tilden B. Armstrong was in charge of the program which was on Korea. Others taking part on the program were Mrs. J. M. Willson Jr. and Mrs. C. B. Lyles.

Mass Glynnel Armstrong read a letter from Rev. Carol Jones, pastor of the Muleshoe First Methodist Church, which he wrote while in Korea with the CROP program. The letter told of the living conditions and their church work in Korea. Glynnel also showed some pictures and things of interest which her brother, Keith Armstrong brought back.

After the program Mrs. C. B. Lyles appointed a committee to be making plans for the 15th anniversary of the society. Those to serve were Mrs. Carl Minner Jr., Mrs. J. M. Willson Jr., and Mrs. Tom Hutchins.

The next joint meeting will be October 3 and all members are urged to be present.

Ann Deakins Will Be Wed Sept. 11

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Deakins, 121 W. Houston Street, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ann to Lewis Reddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reddy of Floydada.

The wedding will be solemnized on September 11 at the home of the bride's parents.

Weiner Roast and Volleyball Enjoyed By Young People

A weiner roast and volleyball highlighted a party for the young people of the City Park Church of Christ Tuesday night, Sept. 6, at the Gordon Downing home.

Twenty-five young people and four sponsors met in the Downing's backyard for the weiner roast and fellowship. After eating, the group set up a volleyball net on the city tennis courts and spent the remainder of the evening playing there.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Downing, Carolyn and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Jameson, Jo Ann and Judy, Douglas and Joyce White, Dale Smith, Joy Porter, Gaynell and Juandell Holladay, Shirley and Charlotte Johnston, Jimmy Hrabal, Fred March, Pete Johnson, Neida and David Leatherman, Shirley Mitchell, Elizabeth Morren, Anella Thurston, Kay Robertson, Carroll Patton, Stanley and Gerry Sawyer and Jessie Sledge.

TEL Class Met With Mrs. Daniel

Mrs. W. F. Daniel Sr. was hostess to the T. E. L. Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church, Tuesday, August 31, at her home.

After a lovely lunch was served, members of the class assembled for a devotional and business session. Mrs. C. C. Huckabee brought an inspiring devotional on "Casting our Nets."

Members attending were Mmes. L. E. Baker, C. M. Lyles, Claud Patton, C. C. Huckabee, G. C. Tubbs, H. D. Marshall, John T. Hopper, J. E. Roy, C. O. Spence, T. L. Gilley and the hostess Mrs. W. F. Daniel.

Guests attending and who had previously belonged to the class, included Mrs. W. B. Jordan, Mrs. E. F. Stovall and Mrs. E. P. Nelson.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Poteet of Floydada, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara, to Ewell Dee Kelley, son of Mrs. C. D. Kelley of Lockney.

Vows will be exchanged on October 1 at 10:00 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents. Elder Dennis Taylor of Floydada will officiate.

ALATHEAN CLASS MEETING

The Alathean Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met Sept. 2 in the basement of the church for their regular monthly meeting. A lovely lunch was spread at the noon hour.

Mrs. W. B. Jordan gave the devotional.

Those present were Mmes. W. B. Jordan, Katie Collier, Mollie Winnard, Morgan Wright, A. H. Manning and W. B. Cantrell.

Around Town

(By Jennie Henry)

Mrs. Lee Rushing, Mrs. A. H. Kreiss and Mrs. W. H. Bethel were in Lubbock on Wednesday enjoying the Cavalcade of Homes.

Congratulations to Aubrey Guthrie who has been elected a "Good-fellow" at Texas University. This honor was given to only 55 on the campus.

Needless to say, Aubrey has done remarkably well, not only in grades but in acquiring friends. He was listed on the honor roll and has served in many offices on the campus.

He has entered Baylor Medical School in Houston this semester which marks the beginning of his medical education.

Another native son, Dale Goen who with his wife and son, have just moved to Floydada, deserves a round of applause, too. He has just received his degree from the University and made the honor roll the two years he attended there. Only about 3% of the students make the honor roll.

Here's a tip for you do-it-yourself fans. There is one thing you can give your wife she will appreciate. And it's something you made yourself. It's called Money.

Dr. and Mrs. James Wester and children of Garland were in Floydada last week. They were here to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wester, celebrate their 36th wedding anniversary last Friday.

Also joining in the celebration at the J. C. Wester home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wester and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Jones and son.

Dr. and Mrs. Bill Wester of Weatherford were unable to attend.

Ott Glassmoyer returned to Floydada Tuesday of last week after spending three weeks at Lake City, Colorado. Ott said the fishing was pretty slow. It took him about two hours each day to catch his limit.

Mrs. Clarence Goins was rather excited over her recent trek to Wyoming. She accompanied her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dolk of Amarillo. The main point of interest they visited was Yellowstone Park.

Since several PTA members have expressed a desire for a course in parliamentary procedure, Mrs. Rex Brown, parliamentarian of the local PTA, has arranged for just such a course.

H. G. Barber will conduct the class, to be held next Tuesday, September 13, at 2:45.

The meeting place will be the study hall at Andrews Ward School. Anyone who is interested in this subject is welcome to attend.

One fellow I know says the best way to keep up with the Joneses is to take it easy and meet them coming down.

So many good recipes come from the kitchen of Mrs. Bill Darden. Here's the latest one and it is delicious.

MISS FLORRIE J. CONWAY

Florrie J. Conway Wayland Librarian

PLAINVIEW, Sept. — Miss Florrie J. Conway, Plainview, became Wayland College librarian on Sept. 1, replacing Mrs. James Bottorff who became director of religious activities on a full-time basis, according to President A. Hope Owen.

Mrs. Bottorff has been acting librarian the past two years while Miss Conway has been at the University of Texas working toward the Master of Library Science and serving as counselor at Scottish Rite Dormitory.

Miss Conway is a graduate of Wayland College, when it was a junior college, and holds the B. A. degree from Baylor University, where she majored in English and Education. She has recently completed a seven months library internship at Hardin-Simmons University on which she has written a thesis as part of the requirements for her graduate degree.

Prior to going to the University of Texas, Miss Conway had served for seven years as secretary to the pastor of First Baptist Church in Plainview. She is the author of "The History of the First Baptist Church of Plainview."

Miss Conway's mother, Mrs. O. M. Conway, is a counselor of Matador Hall for young women at Wayland College. Before moving to Plainview, the Conways lived at Floydada.

Center News

(By Mrs. J. E. Green)

CENTER, Sept. 7. — We are having hot, dry days and cool nights. Feed is ripening — prematurely on dry land. Farmers are buying binder twine, and combines are trying out. The church people really worked the last several days and had the building spic and span for home coming Sunday. Now that that event is in the past we look back and feel well paid for our efforts.

Bro. and Mrs. Tom Wesson and family returned home Saturday from a combined vacation and business trip. Mrs. Wesson's father, Mr. A. K. Hobbs of Taylor returned home with them for a visit and attended homecoming here Sunday.

Kenneth and Karen Robertson who were ill part of last week, are in circulation again.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery of Shallowater visited in the Frank Dunn home after homecoming adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moody of Bridgeport, former Center residents and Mrs. Moody our last Center school teacher, visited in the Ross home after the Sunday service. Other visitors in the Ross home at that time were the Ross' daughters, Mrs. Buck Ragdale of Baileyboro and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Craig and son of Roswell.

Mrs. O. C. Vinson has visiting her two sisters, Mrs. Brown of Earth and Mrs. Stroup of San Antonio. Another sister from down state visited in the Vinson home the first of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Battey were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Ola Warren, Mrs. Huckabee and Miss Eula Huckabee.

The J. E. Green's attended funeral services last Wednesday at First Baptist Church, Plainview, for Mrs. E. J. Green who passed away at Houston on early Tuesday. From Plainview, Wednesday, Don Clark went to Big Spring, where he has resumed teaching high school math. Clyde Green and family left for Boulder, Colo., where he will teach in the University and his wife is to teach in La Fayette Grade School.

So summer waves by and the school bus rumbles by as of yore, but some of our children don't ride it any more. Victor Green and son, Jimmy visited home folks, the J. E. Greens Saturday afternoon.

Don Clark Green came home Sunday for homecoming at Center Church.

Visitors in the Earl Huckabee home Friday were Mrs. Huckabee's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Smith of Yukum; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Myrick of South

Center Church Homecoming Is Held on Sunday

(By Mrs. J. E. Green)

Center Baptist Church held its annual homecoming, Sunday, September 4. The day's program began with a song service led by Don Clark Green with Patricia Robertson at the piano.

During Sunday School, the adult class was taught by its former teacher, Mrs. Hodges.

Bro. Hodges, the former pastor brought the morning message, a dedication sermon for the church building. Bro. Wesson, the present pastor, was master of ceremonies throughout the day.

At noon a bountiful dinner was served in the dining hall to about 70 people.

In the afternoon, the ceremonies were started with songs and prayer. Bro. Clay Muncy presented another sermon. This was followed by more songs and talks by visitors and homefolks.

On the program were Mrs. Don Craig, solo; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moody and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery, duets; Mrs. Clarence Ashton, Wesley Foster, Floyd Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Moody quartettes with Patricia Robertson and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery as pianists.

Because of illness and other causes there were many absentees. The president, C. O. Spence and Mrs. Spence, were in another part of the state so there was no election of officers.

Among the guests registering from a distance were Wesley Foster, Priona, his first visit to Center in 29 years; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moody, Bridgeport; A. K. Hobbs Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery, Shallowater; Mrs. Buck Ragdale, Baileyboro; Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Hodges and Jerry, Plainview; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Craig and son of Roswell, N. M.

Plans

Mr. Earl Huckabee spent the week-end in Dublin attending the Rodco and visiting his brother and family there.

Monday night guests of the J. R. Robertson's were Mrs. Robertson's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Strain of Dallas. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Dunn.

Center Home Demonstration Club is to meet Friday, September 9. Let us all try to be present.

W. M. U. will meet Thursday afternoon at the church. Let us really try to be present.

FIVE-STAR AIDE—Lieutenant Olive F. G. Marsh of now an administrative assistant at the White House, star-studded WAC career. She was General Eisenhower's dental secretary when he was Army Chief of Staff, General's as Chief of Staff and as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Dam Busters Will Be Palace Feature

"The Dam Busters" will be the feature attraction at the Palace Theatre starting Sunday September 11. The popular World War II movie is based on experiences of bomb squadrons faced with the task of blowing up enemy dams and power installations.

The plot is an interesting one of how these flyers solved the difficult problems of effectively blowing a dam — with bombs that bounce — and the use of their lights on the water to gauge the extremely low altitude.

Richard Todd plays the starring role of Wing Commander Guy Gibson who led the famous R. A. F.

FUNERAL HELD FOR SON

Funeral service was held Monday for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Trevino.

The baby, which had been born Sept. 2, died at Peoples Hospital, passed living only a few hours.

Survivors other than the mother are two brothers and a sister. The family resides at 3rd Street in Floydada. Burial works for Q & P Burial Home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray are the parents of a seven and a half pound boy born September 2 in Lockney General Hospital. He has been named Vernon Mark.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Carver and paternal grandmother is Mrs. Elza Pullen of Andrews, Texas.

Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Garrett and W. C. Colston.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McNutt of Waco spent the week-end in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Formby and R. A. Burrows. Mrs. McNutt is a daughter of Mr. Burrows and a sister of Mrs. Formby.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Snell of Lubbock spent Sunday in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. Will Snell.

Pete Clark Opens Plainview Plant

L. L. (Pete) Clark opened a new dry cleaning establishment in Plainview Monday of this week. The plant will operate under the same name as the Floydada business — Clark's — with the slogan "Tops In Dry Cleaning."

Elvis Warren will manage the firm which is located at 5th and Quincy. Both Clark and Warren have spent most of their time in Plainview for the past month getting things set up and ready to go.

Clark is well known in both Plainview and Floydada having been in business life in the two cities for a number of years.

The Clarks plan to remain in Floydada. They make their home on West Missouri Street.

JACK CLARK NORMAN PAYS VISIT TO HIS GRANDPARENTS

Jack Clark Norman, six weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Norman of White Deer, made his first visit to Floydada during the Labor Day week-end to visit with his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Norman and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett of Lake Diversion are guests this week in the B. V. Carver home.

Safety Demand Is For Better Check on Cars

Today's driving conditions on Texas' crowded highways make it imperative that the State's automobile owners assume greater personal responsibility for the mechanical safety of their vehicles.

This view was expressed today by G. C. Morris, executive director of the Highway Safety Council of Texas, in a statement announcing that the non-profit, statewide Council is undertaking an educational program to encourage motorists to "Get a Safety Check, Too" each time their automobiles are serviced.

"An oil change and grease job are important to the life of any car," Morris said, "but a thorough check of the key safety points on the automobile may be far more important to the life of the driver and the other occupants."

"Our surveys indicate that a regular 1,000 mile lubrication check-up has become a habit with most automobile owners who are aware of the value of their car," he reported.

"Automotive Servicemen estimate, however, that not one in ten drivers ever ask for a check on the safety of brakes, lights, steering mechanism, wheels, or other such key factors in safe driving."

"The standard practice," he said, "seems to be to wait for trouble to develop and then hope that it does not cause a fatal or crippling crash before it can be corrected."

Morris said that the three-year old Texas inspection law had improved the general standard of mechanical safety for vehicles operating on Texas highways, but that the requirements for this annual inspection do not include some key safety elements.

"On modern day automobiles and other vehicles, the steering mechanism deserves far more frequent and careful attention than it receives," he said as one illustration. "More than five major accidents each week are caused by steering failures and this does not include innumerable accidents in which the cause cannot be determined."

The Texas inspection law no longer requires inspection of the steering mechanism, Morris noted.

Morris said that the Highway Safety Council members hope to make regular voluntary safety inspections a regular habit among automobile owners when they leave their vehicles for servicing at garages.

"No amount of alertness, caution, or training can help a driver prevent an accident when his automobile falls for mechanical reasons while traveling at highway speeds," Morris said. "Mechanical failures must be prevented before the Driver gets on the highway."

Lecturer (in village hall): "Now you all know what a molecule is." Chairman (interrupting): "Most of us do, but perhaps you'd better explain for the benefit of those who have never been up in one."

C. L. Berry returned Tuesday night from a "Nutrena" Feed school held in Wichita Falls. Some 50 dealers were present from this territory.

The occasion was high lighted by announcing two new formula feeds. The entire occasion was handled through the courtesy of the mills.

Mr. Berry received two prizes for his recent amazing sales of "Nutrena" Dog Food.

REDDY'S Farm Report
FROM THE AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT
SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

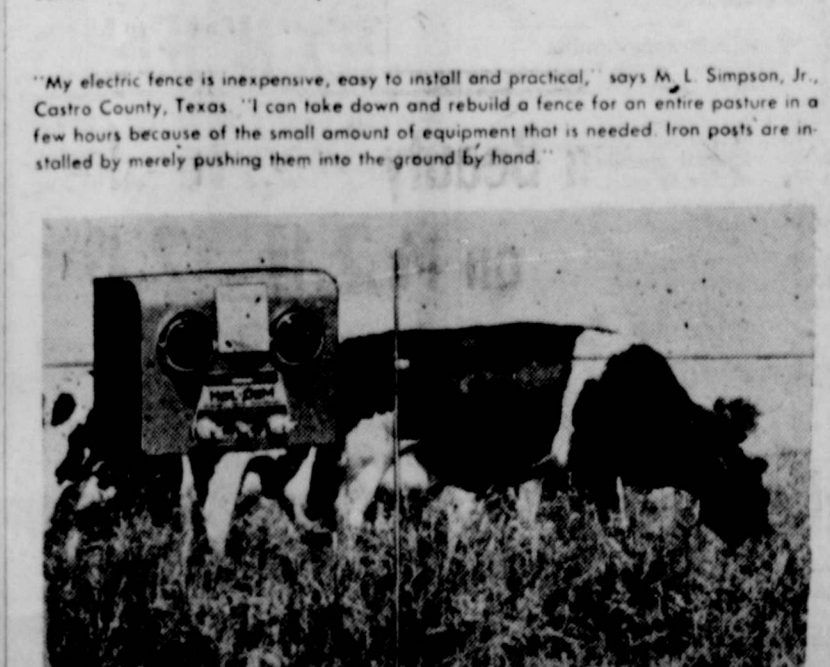

Your grass and legume yield from permanent pasturing can be increased through pasture rotation. This type of pasturing has been greatly simplified with modern electric fences. The electric fence also permits you to take full advantage of temporary pastures, and it is equally as useful for permanent fencing.

M. L. Simpson, Jr., Castro County, reports that his dairy cow pasture produces more profit than any of his crop land. His pasture layout consists of six units divided and fenced all the way around with an electric fence. The dairy cows pasture on one plot only four nights. This system allows the grasses and legumes in the pasture to maintain a high level of vitality that keeps them growing fast and discourages weed infestation. Mr. Simpson has set a record for top production from sixty-five acres of land.

The building of an electric fence is further simplified because the fence is an open circuit. The wire leads from the controller to any number of dead ends; therefore, current for cross fencing may be taken from any point on the fence wire. The circuit is completed through the ground. For this reason your electric fencing equipment need consist of only one wire (for cattle), properly insulated posts and an adequately grounded fence controller.

Experts caution not to use a home-made fence controller of any kind and to install approved units strictly according to the manufacturer's directions. An approved fence controller is designed to deliver only a small fraction of an ampere of electricity for a duration of a small fraction of a second. The current should be interrupted, on-and-off, with impulses carefully limited and spaced. A tested and approved controller makes your electric fence a safe, economical investment for your farm.

"My electric fence is inexpensive, easy to install and practical," says M. L. Simpson, Jr., Castro County, Texas. "I can take down and rebuild a fence for an entire pasture in a few hours because of the small amount of equipment that is needed. Iron posts are installed by merely pushing them into the ground by hand."

Too Many Board Meetings Burden Texas Officials

(By John Ben Sheppard Texas Attorney General)

(Editor's Note: This is the second of a series of four articles written by the Texas Attorney General on the problem of state board membership in Texas. Other articles will follow in later issues.)

In the week from May 3 to May 9, 1955, six major boards on which the Attorney General serves held ten meetings, each lasting more than two hours and requiring additional hours of preparation. On August 3, four ex-officio boards of which the Attorney General is a member—the State Building Commission, the School and Veterans Land Boards and the Banking Commission—met from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. A man can spend so much time feeding the chickens that he doesn't have time to plow.

Service on these boards varies from handling details which are purely administrative to deciding large scale policy matters which require the experience of a man specializing in a particular field.

The board of Trustees of the Employees Retirement System passes on the application of every individual employee who wants to retire. These citizens should be able to receive their retirement savings without the special attention of the Attorney General, the Chairman of the Highway Commission, and the Chairman of the Board of Control who serve on this Board.

State Office Buildings

On the other hand there is no reason why the Governor and the Attorney General should be saddled with the huge job of deciding the site of the new State Office buildings. There has been argument and legislative debate for a number of decades as to whether to use the vacant lot owned by the State across the street from the Capitol. This new Construction Board not only has to decide on this political hot potato, but is required to hire a full new staff and tackle a number of building and repair jobs such as "modernizing and remodeling the old Land Office Building, installing safety treads on the capitol stairs and air conditioning the Legislative chambers by 1957." It looks like future Attorneys General will have to study engineering or municipal planning to qualify for the job.

Certainly a good many of these construction and planning functions should have been given to an already existing agency—the Board of Control, with its 3 full time paid members, and its staff of architects, designers and engineers.

Sour Dough

The volume of business handled by many state boards has ballooned beyond the wildest imagination of those who set up the boards. The situation is like that of the little girl who was sent to Grandmother's house with a bucket of sour dough. Before she got there the sun began to swell the dough, which exploded the bucket, enveloped the girl and rolled down on Grandmother's house like an avalanche.

Take the Intangible Tax Board. When it was established in 1906 only the railroads were included in its tax jurisdiction. Recent years have seen the addition of ferry companies, bridge companies, common motor carriers, turnpikes, oil pipelines, common carrier pipelines motor bus companies and many other types of concerns in our rapidly expanding modern transportation system.

Or take the School Land Board, which succeeded the old Mineral Board. In 1939 it handled $1,788,635 worth of leases. Recently, the Board has passed on lease sales amounting to over 32 million dollars at one sitting. That's a lot of money for a man to have an "ex-officio" responsibility for.

They say government establishes a bureau in the morning and by night it's a full bedroom suite. Some of these boards have reached the proportions of a furniture factory.

Assistants Help

Some constitutional officers get a little relief in that their first assistant may act in their absence. But these men are in the same position as the elected official—busy with their primary duties. They don't have time to qualify as a bank examiner, an accountant or an engineer.

Window Dressing

Actually, and unavoidably, board members who sit in an ex-officio capacity are usually only window-dressing. The Legislature put in each of these boards a man who was expert in that particular field and who had the agency staff to carry out the work. These boards are given responsibility for governmental functions which are largely administrative and have to be handled by one man.

The problem of the Veterans Land Board illustrates this clearly. The work of the program—receiving applications, making surveys and appraisals, examining titles, plating, clearing up legal tangles, checking veterans qualifications and executing contracts—is handled of necessity in the Land Office. This was clearly the intent of the Legislature since they made the employees part of the Land Office staff and charged the Land Commissioner with keeping the records and approving the contracts. The board was required to act only on the issuance of bonds, matters of policy and forfeiture by veterans.

This is direct contrast to duties of a Board like the Railroad Commission composed of three full time elected officials whose duty is to regulate oil and gas production, enforce conservation practices and set rates. The matters they handle are equally technical and they require also a large staff of assistants, but their decisions are primarily judicial and are made after holding public fact-finding hearings.

Program Changed

The administration of the Veterans Land Program was established by the Legislature in writing the law. A number of changes in the law were made by the past session of the Legislature to tighten up the procedures.

However, the Legislature, in their debate on the program refused a number of amendments to prohibit the Land Commissioner from administering the program. This procedure seemed to them the only way of handling the thousands of veterans applications under this program.

The Veterans Land Board is not the only ex-officio board on which the other two members must depend on the Chairman and his permanent staff. This caused criticism of the Board during the investigations, but such criticism must be properly laid to the whole ex-officio system.

(Another article on this subject will appear soon.)

Household furniture, like the family, becomes so much a part of our daily routine that we take it for granted — until the pieces are moved from their accustomed place. Last week we decided to repaper a couple of rooms, so we had to clear things out. Now, stacked in the 'other' bedroom, are a hodgepodge of tables, chairs, lamps and knick-knacks looking as homeless as lost dogs. We feel as if we're getting acquainted all over again.

There's the easy chair we bought to celebrate the spouse's first big promotion; the old mahogany table we got at a bargain from an antique shop because one leaf was cracked; the heavy oval mirror that seemed such an extravagance when we moved into the new house fifteen years ago. And the knick-knacks: a pair of barber's bottles that used to grace the mantel; a crystal sugar bowl that belonged to the spouse's grandmother; a figurine that a friend bought in England; the china teapot and green glass elephant that were wedding gifts.

Removed from their proper setting, some of them keep their dignity, others look worn and out of date. But the 'change' has been good for both family and furniture. Some of those pieces are getting examined with a critical eye for the first time in years.

The gate-legged table that was for twenty years held whatever we asked it to hold is having its first chance to say it needs a fresh coat of varnish.

The 'free boarders' — an old orthophonic and a huge cabinet radio — will be moved out because they've outlived their usefulness.

As soon as we can afford it, the faded divan will get a new cover. And everything gets a good polish job.

Furniture, like family, is more appreciated when it has been away; and when it is returned to its old location there's not a doubt that the household gods will be pleased.

Birthday Party Is Event Honoring Dwina Glassmoyer

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Glassmoyer honored their daughter, Dwina, with a party on her birthday last Saturday night.

Dinner was served on the terrace of their home to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Drysdale and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Mize, Mrs. Maxine Morrums, the honoree Dwina, and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Glassmoyer.

A surprise telephone call came Saturday night from their son, Larry, who is stationed in Fort Eustis, Virginia, to wish Dwina a "Happy Birthday."

Larry has just finished his schooling there and has been assigned a job as clerk typist at Fort Eustis.

Dwina returned to her home in Midland Monday after having spent the Labor Day week-end here.

Poores Celebrate 50th Anniversary At Floydada Home

In celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Poore were honored Sunday at a reception given by their children from 3 to 5 p.m.

More than 100 guests registered at the reception held at the family home at 424 West Missouri Street.

Coffee and cake were served from a table laid with a gold lace cloth and decorated with a miniature bride and groom which had faces made from recent photographs of the honored couple.

The bride and groom stood before gold tapers on a gold metallic board covered with net and yellow daisies.

A wedding bell cake, a double-ring wedding cake and a cake in the shape of 50 were used on the table as decoration.

Mr. and Mrs. Poore were married September 3, 1916, in Cudiff, Texas, and moved to Floyd County in January, 1920.

The children present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Mollomon of Wichita Falls, Miss Odessa Poore of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Odam of Floydada.

Two of their children, Orville of Purdy, Missouri, and Mrs. Willis Frohock of Atchison, Kansas, were unable to attend the reception.

JERRY POWELL CELEBRATES HIS TWELFTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Parnell Powell honored her son Jerry, with a birthday party last Thursday afternoon from 5 until 7. Jerry celebrated his 12th birthday.

The group was entertained with party games after which ice cream and cake was served.

Favors of horns, whistles and party caps were given the following guests: Janet Boren, Hope Robertson, Linda Roe, Helen Foster, Nita Payne Gollightly, Sara Holmes, Don Switzer, Max Bradley, Joe Rainer, Ricky Holland, Rodney Teague, Bill Henry and the honoree, Jerry.

Too Many Board Meetings Burden Texas Officials

(By John Ben Shepperd Texas Attorney General)

(Editor's Note: This is the second of a series of four articles written by the Texas Attorney General on the problem of state board membership in Texas. Other articles will follow in later issues.)

In the week from May 3 to May 9, 1955, six major boards on which the Attorney General serves held ten meetings, each lasting more than two hours and requiring additional hours of preparation. On August 3, four ex-officio boards of which the Attorney General is a member—the State Building Commission, the School and Veterans' Land Boards and the Banking Commission—met from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. A man can spend so much time feeding the chickens that he doesn't have time to plow. Service on these boards varies from handling details which are purely administrative to deciding large scale policy matters which require the experience of a man specializing in a particular field. The board of Trustees of the Employees Retirement System passes on the application of every individual employee who wants to retire. These citizens should be able to receive their retirement savings without the special attention of the Attorney General, the Chairman of the Highway Commission, and the Chairman of the Board of Control who serve on this Board.

State Office Buildings

On the other hand there is no reason why the Governor and the Attorney General should be saddled with the huge job of deciding the site of the new State Office buildings. There has been argument and legislative debate for a number of decades as to whether to use the vacant lot owned by the State across the street from the Capitol. This new Construction Board not only has to decide on this political hot potato, but is required to hire a full new staff and tackle a number of building and repair jobs such as "modernizing and remodeling the old Land Office Building, installing safety treads on the capitol stairs, and air conditioning the Legislative chambers by 1957." It looks like future Attorneys General will have to study engineering or municipal planning to qualify for the job.

Certainly a good many of these construction and planning functions should have been given to an already existing agency—the Board of Control, with its 3 full time paid members, and its staff of architects, designers and engineers.

Sour Dough

The volume of business handled by many state boards has ballooned beyond the wildest imagination of those who set up the boards. The situation is like that of the little girl who was sent to Grandmother's house with a bucket of sour dough. Before she got there the sun began to swell the dough, which exploded the bucket, enveloped the girl and rolled down on Grandmother's house like an avalanche.

Take the Intangible Tax Board. When it was established in 1906, only the railroads were included in its tax jurisdiction. Recent years have seen the addition of ferry companies, bridge companies, common motor carriers, turnpikes, oil pipelines, common carrier pipelines, motor bus companies and many other types of concerns in our rapidly expanding modern transportation system.

Or take the School Land Board which succeeded the old Mineral Board. In 1939 it handled $1,788,635 worth of leases. Recently, the Board has passed on lease sales amounting to over 32 million dollars at one sitting. That's a lot of money for a man to have an "ex-officio" responsibility for.

They say government establishes a bureau in the morning and by night it's a full bedroom suite. Some of these boards have reached the proportions of a furniture factory.

Assistants Help

Some constitutional officers get a little relief in that their first assistant may act in their absence. But these men are in the same position as the elected official—busy with their primary duties. They don't have time to qualify as a bank examiner, an accountant or an engineer.

Window Dressing

Actually, and unavoidably, board members who sit in an ex-officio capacity are usually only window-dressing. The Legislature put in each of these boards a man who was expert in that particular field and who had the agency staff to carry out the work. These boards are given responsibility for governmental functions which are largely administrative and have to be handled by one man.

The problem of the Veterans' Land Board illustrates this clearly. The work of the program—receiving applications, making surveys and appraisals, examining titles, platting, clearing up legal tangles, checking veterans qualifications and executing contracts—is handled of necessity in the Land Office. This was clearly the intent of the Legislature since they made the employees part of the Land Office staff and charged the Land Commissioner with keeping the records and approving the contracts. The board was required to act only on the issuance of bonds, matters of policy and forfeiture by veterans.

This is direct contrast to duties of a Board like the Railroad Commission composed of three full time elected officials whose duty is to regulate oil and gas production, enforce conservation practices and set rates. The matters they handle are equally technical and they require also a large staff of assistants, but their decisions are primarily judicial and are made after holding public fact-finding hearings.

Program Changed

The administration of the Veterans' Land Program was established by the Legislature in writing the law. A number of changes in the law were made by the past session of the Legislature to tighten up the procedures.

However, the Legislature, in their debate on the program refused a number of amendments to prohibit the Land Commissioner from administering the program. This procedure seemed to them the only way of handling the thousands of veterans applications under this program.

The Veterans' Land Board is not the only ex-officio board on which the other two members must depend on the Chairman and his permanent staff. This caused criticism of the Board during the investigations, but such criticism must be properly laid to the whole ex-officio system.

Norman, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Koenen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. M. Willson, treasurer; and Mrs. J. C. Keeling, historian.

PTA Committee Meets

The PTA executive committee met last Friday afternoon and made plans for the coming year. Working together is the theme of the year, as announced by Mrs. Willson Edwards, president.

The talent hour as well as the nursery will be continued for the coming year. The nursery will be open during the meetings for preschool age children.

The first meeting will be held Wednesday, September 14, at 2:45. The meeting place has been changed from the music room to the study hall on the second floor of Andrews Ward School.

Officers serving with Mrs. Edwards will be Mrs. Billy Staniforth, vice-president; Mrs. John Kimble, secretary and Mrs. Carl Minor Jr., treasurer.

Friendship Class Tea On Wednesday

The home of Mrs. Edd Muncy was the scene of a tea last week on Wednesday afternoon from 5 until 6. The tea was given by the Friendship Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Muncy. Seasonal flowers decorated the receiving rooms. The serving table was laid with a pink linen cloth and decorated with red carnations. Mrs. John Hoffman presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. J. C. Veach had charge of the games, after which Mrs. Clarence Guffee gave a tribute to the class teacher, Mrs. H. G. Barber.

Those present for the occasion were Mrs. Raymond Evens, Mrs. O. G. Mayfield, Mrs. Clarence Guffee, Mrs. J. C. Veach, Mrs. Charlie Lewis, Mrs. Ott Glassmoyer, Mrs. John Hoffman, Mrs. H. G. Barber, Mrs. Bob Rosson and the hostess Mrs. Muncy.

GUESTS FROM SHREVEPORT AND DALLAS VISIT WOMACKS

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Womack and family Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Farmer and children of Lubbock and Mrs. Marvin Womack of Dallas. Mrs. Marvin Womack remained to visit until Sunday.

Sunday the Womacks were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vernon and children of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gotham and daughter of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Womack and children of Shreveport, La., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Teague and children and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Womack Jr. and children of Floydada.

Mike and Donna Womack returned home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Womack, after a month's visit with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Reid Bethel and son Donald of Lamesa were guests last week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fuller returned home last Wednesday from Belton, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Fuller's brother, Mr. James Calhoun.

LIPSTICK LOGIC

Household furniture, like the family, becomes so much a part of our daily routine that we take it for granted — until the pieces are moved from their accustomed place. Last week we decided to repaper a couple of rooms, so we had to clear things out. Now, stacked in the 'other' bedroom, are a hodgepodge of tables, chairs, lamps and knick-knacks looking as homeless as lost dogs. We feel as if we're getting acquainted all over again.

There's the easy chair we bought to celebrate the spouse's first big promotion; the old mahogany table we got at a bargain from an antique shop because one leaf was cracked; the heavy oval mirror that seemed such an extravagance when we moved into the new house fifteen years ago. And the knick-knacks: a pair of barber's bottles that used to grace the mantel; a crystal sugar bowl that belonged to the spouse's grandmother; a figurine that a friend bought in England; the china teapot and green glass elephant that were wedding gifts.

Removed from their proper setting, some of them keep their dignity, others look worn and out of date. But the 'change' has been good for both family and furniture. Some of those pieces are getting examined with a critical eye for the first time in years.

The gate-legged table that was for twenty years held whatever we asked it to hold is having its first chance to say it needs a fresh coat of varnish.

The "free boarders" — an old orthophonic and a huge cabinet radio — will be moved out because they've outlived their usefulness.

As soon as we can afford it, the faded divan will get a new cover. And everything gets a good polish job.

Furniture, like family, is more appreciated when it has been away; and when it is returned to its old location there's not a doubt that the household gods will be pleased.

Birthday Party Is Event Honoring Dwina Glassmoyer

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Glassmoyer honored their daughter, Dwina, with a party on her birthday last Saturday night.

Dinner was served on the terrace of their home to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Drysdale and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Mize, Mrs. Maxine Morrums, the honoree Dwina, and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Glassmoyer.

A surprise telephone call came Saturday night from their son, Larry, who is stationed in Fort Eustis, Virginia, to wish Dwina a "Happy Birthday."

Larry has just finished his schooling there and has been assigned a job as clerk typist at Fort Eustis.

Dwina returned to her home in Midland Monday after having spent the Labor Day week-end here.

Poores Celebrate 50th Anniversary At Floydada Home

In celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Poore were honored Sunday at a reception given by their children from 3 to 5 p.m.

More than 100 guests registered at the reception held at the family home at 424 West Missouri Street.

Coffee and cake were served from a table laid with a gold lace cloth and decorated with a miniature bride and groom which had faces made from recent photographs of the honored couple.

The bride and groom stood before gold tapers on a gold metallic board covered with net and yellow daisies. A wedding bell cake, a doubling wedding cake and a cake in the shape of 50 were used on the table as decoration.

Mr. and Mrs. Poore were married September 3, 1905, in Cudiff, Texas, and moved to Floyd County in January, 1920.

The children present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Molomon of Wichita Falls, Miss Odessa Poore of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Odum of Floydada.

Two of their children, Orville of Purdy, Missouri, and Mrs. Willis Frohock of Atchison, Kansas, were unable to attend the reception.

JERRY POWELL CELEBRATES HIS TWELFTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Parnell Powell honored her son Jerry, with a birthday party last Thursday afternoon from 5 until 7. Jerry celebrated his 12th birthday.

The group was entertained with party games after which ice cream and cake was served.

Favors of horns, whistles and party caps were given the following guests: Janet Boren, Hope Roberson, Linda Roe, Helen Foster, Nita Faye Golithly, Sara Holmes, Don Switzer, Max Bradley, Joe Rainier, Ricky Holland, Rodney Teague, Bill Henry and the honoree, Jerry.

Year for Federated Floydada Is Foreseen

Club. Mrs. Harry Koenen will assist in the hospitalities.

Leading the program will be Mrs. John Hoffman, after which the club will hear the club president, Mrs. J. P. Moss.

Serving with her this year will be Mrs. George Smith, first vice-president; Mrs. J. D. McBrien, second vice-president; Mrs. John Hoffman, third vice-president; Mrs. E. L. Norman, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Koenen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. M. Wilson, treasurer; and Mrs. J. C. Keeling, historian.

PTA Committee Meets

The PTA executive committee met last Friday afternoon and made plans for the coming year.

Working together is the theme of the year, as announced by Mrs. Wilson Edwards, president.

The talent hour as well as the nursery will be continued for the coming year. The nursery will be open during the meetings for pre-school age children.

The first meeting will be held Wednesday, September 14, at 2:45. The meeting place has been changed from the music room to the study hall on the second floor of Andrews Ward School.

Officers serving with Mrs. Edwards will be Mrs. Billy Stanforth, vice-president; Mrs. John Kimble, secretary and Mrs. Carl Minor Jr., treasurer.

Friendship Class Tea On Wednesday

The home of Mrs. Edd Muncy was the scene of a tea last week on Wednesday afternoon from 5 until 6. The tea was given by the Friendship Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Muncy.

Seasonal flowers decorated the receiving rooms. The serving table was laid with a pink linen cloth and decorated with red carnations. Mrs. John Hoffman presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. J. C. Veach had charge of the games, after which Mrs. Clarence Guffee gave a tribute to the class teacher, Mrs. H. G. Barber.

Those present for the occasion were Mrs. Raymond Evens, Mrs. O. G. Mayfield, Mrs. Clarence Guffee, Mrs. J. C. Veach, Mrs. Charlie Lewis, Mrs. Ott Glassmoyer, Mrs. John Hoffman, Mrs. H. G. Barber, Mrs. Bob Rosson and the hostess Mrs. Muncy.

GUESTS FROM SHREVEPORT AND DALLAS VISIT WOMACKS

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Womack and family Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Farmer and children of Lubbock and Mrs. Marvin Womack of Dallas. Mrs. Marvin Womack remained to visit until Sunday.

Sunday the Womacks were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vernon and children of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Cotham and daughter of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Womack and children of Shreveport, La., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Teague and children and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Womack Jr. and children of Floydada.

Mike and Donna Womack returned home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Womack, after a month's visit with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Reid Bethel and son Donald of Lamesa were guests last week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fuller returned home last Wednesday from Belton, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Fuller's brother, Mr. James Calhoun.

Household furniture, like the family, becomes so much a part of our daily routine that we take it for granted — until the pieces are moved from their accustomed place. Last week we decided to repaper a couple of rooms, so we had to clear things out. Now, stacked in the 'other' bedroom, are a hodgepodge of tables, chairs, lamps and knick-knacks looking as homeless as lost dogs. We feel as if we're getting acquainted all over again.

There's the easy chair we bought to celebrate the spouse's first big promotion; the old mahogany table we got at a bargain from an antique shop because one leg was cracked; the heavy oval mirror that seemed such an extravagance when we moved into the new house fifteen years ago. And the knick-knacks: a pair of barber's bottles that used to grace the mantel; a crystal sugar bowl that belonged to the spouse's grandmother; a figurine that a friend bought in England; the china teapot and green glass elephant that were wedding gifts.

Removed from their proper setting, some of them keep their dignity, others look worn and out of date. But the 'change' has been good for both family and furniture. Some of those pieces are getting examined with a critical eye for the first time in years.

The gate-legged table that was for twenty years held whatever we asked it to hold is having its first chance to say it needs a fresh coat of varnish.

The "free boarders" — an old orthophonic and a huge cabinet radio — will be moved out because they've outlived their usefulness.

As soon as we can afford it, the faded divan will get a new 'cover'. And everything gets a good polish job.

Furniture, like family, is more appreciated when it has been away; and when it is returned to its old location there's not a doubt that the household gods will be pleased.

Birthday Party Is Event Honoring Dwina Glassmoyer

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Glassmoyer honored their daughter, Dwina, with a party on her birthday last Saturday night.

Dinner was served on the terrace of their home to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Drysdale and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Mize, Mrs. Maxine Morriss, the honoree Dwina, and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Glassmoyer.

A surprise telephone call came Saturday night from their son, Larry, who is stationed in Fort Eustis, Virginia, to wish Dwina a "Happy Birthday."

Larry has just finished his schooling there and has been assigned a job as clerk typist at Fort Eustis.

Dwina returned to her home in Midland Monday after having spent the Labor Day week-end here.

Poores Celebrate 50th Anniversary At Floydada Home

In celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Poore were honored Sunday at a reception given by their children from 3 to 5 p.m.

More than 100 guests registered at the reception held at the family home at 424 West Missouri Street.

Coffee and cake were served from a table laid with a gold lace cloth and decorated with a miniature bride and groom which had faces made from recent photographs of the honored couple.

The bride and groom stood before gold tapers on a gold metallic board covered with net and yellow daisies.

A wedding bell cake, a double-ring wedding cake and a cake in the shape of 50 were used on the table as decoration.

Mr. and Mrs. Poore were married September 3, 1916, in Cudiff, Texas, and moved to Floyd County in January, 1920.

The children present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Mollomon of Wichita Falls, Miss Odessa Poore of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Odam of Floydada.

Two of their children, Orville of Purdy, Missouri, and Mrs. Willis Frohock of Atchison, Kansas, were unable to attend the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Reid Bethel and son Donald of Lamesa were guests last week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fuller returned home last Wednesday from Belton, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Fuller's brother, Mr. James Calhoun.

JERRY POWELL CELEBRATES HIS TWELFTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Parnell Powell honored her son Jerry, with a birthday party last Thursday afternoon from 5 until 7. Jerry celebrated his 12th birthday.

The group was entertained with party games after which ice cream and cake was served.

Favors of horns, whistles and party caps were given the following guests: Janet Boren, Hope Robertson, Linda Roe, Helen Foster, Nita Payne Goughly, Sara Holmes, Don Switzer, Max Bradley, Joe Rainer, Ricky Holland, Rodney Teague, Bill Henry and the honoree, Jerry.

The Passing Scene by Irvin

"There's still nothing wrong with the old road the way I avoided that joker in the car."

Despite Budget Figures Officer and Employee Salaries Show No Increase Since

Despite the fact that the Commissioners Court last week adopted a budget that calls for no increase in the official salary list for the year of 1956, it seemed likely this week that there would be some pressure for increased salaries. The budget adopted is incorrect in reflecting salary increases as having been made in the year of 1954. Five officials — county judge county attorney, county clerk, sheriff, and assessor-collector — have been on a basis of $4,125 annual salary since January of 1952. The increase at that time was given to meet the pressure of increased living costs. Similarly the treasurer was increased to the present rate of $3,600 annual pay in 1953, as were also the county clerk, county attorney and the district clerk. These court orders, disclosed by the Commissioners Court minutes also gave the caretaker at the court house, and justice of the peace of Precinct No. 1 their raises in 1953. They are at $2,940 and $1,748 per annum respectively. Justice of the peace No. 2 got raises from 1954 and to $1,200 in 1955. The district clerk pay effective since 1953 has been on a $3,100. Employees of the the elective status of the commission joined by the state changes as are the state's January budget session, sets the figures on salary commitments. Judge W. E. Crum not know what the commissioners would vary arrives. The banjo was played by Joseph Swearing, Jr.

State Laws Effective

A considerable batch of new laws became effective in Texas Tuesday. The effect of some to be beginning at once and others in the months roll by.

The new tax law is expected to raise $50 million in increased expenses of the state.

Among the tax increases are a cent per gallon on gasoline, 8-tenths of a cent on beer per bottle. The remainder consists of a bite on corporations, whose franchise taxes are to be raised with the next reporting date.

Here are most of the laws which became effective Tuesday, indicated in brief paragraphs:

Insurance Reforms
 The Trinity River Authority, one of the hardest-fought topics of the legislative session, became law Tuesday. Gov. Allan Shivers is expected to appoint its governing board a few days later. After that, the authority can get under way surveying and developing the river from Fort Worth and Dallas to the Gulf of Mexico.

More than a score of insurance reforms will become law. Sales of other securities, regulated under the Secretary of State also are subject to a new law. Its principal change puts under state supervision the stocks of certain trust companies previously exempt.

Large Welfare Checks
 State welfare checks will be larger. Under a constitutional amendment which voters adopted, the Legislature boosted state welfare spending by $7,000,000 a year. Checks mailed this month to old age pensioners will average $4 higher than for August. A smaller increase will be made to the blind.

A watered-down "unfair trade act" will become law. It prohibits any grocer who advertises merchandise for sale at below wholesale cost from limiting quantities a customer can buy.

Resort Lodges in State Parks
 The State Parks Board's proposal to build resort lodges at several state parks by selling bonds to private investors also got the Legislature's blessing.

The veterans land program, will operate under a stricter law. State employees and other gov-

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Floyd County Hesperian, issue dated September 11, 1941.)

Migratory grasshoppers by the millions flew over Floydada Tuesday afternoon for more than two hours and reports both east and west of this point indicate the army of winged insects must have covered an area forty miles or more in width. Whence the hoppers came is not known but D. P. Bredthauer, county agricultural agent, said they were on the wing for an egg deposit ground.

Enma Louise Smith, deputy in the office of the county clerk of Floyd County since June 1, 1939, will assume the duties of county clerk on Monday of this week. She will succeed A. B. Clark, whose resignation effective on September 15, was filed with the commissioners court Monday.

The marriage of Miss Mary Katherine Daniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Daniel, and J. S. Hale Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hale Sr., was solemnized Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents with Rev. L. A. Doyle, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Jeff Welborn Is Hospitalized

Jeff Welborn and daughter, Ann, returned home Sunday from Houston where Mrs. Welborn is a patient in the M. D. Anderson Hospital.

As yet, Mr. Welborn says, the doctors have not given them any definite report. Mrs. Welborn is doing nicely, he says, but missing all her Floydada friends.

Her address is Room E-310-B, M. D. Anderson Hospital, Houston, Texas.

Mr. Welborn and Ann will return to Houston next Saturday. Ann will enroll in Baylor University at Waco next week for her junior year.

SHE KEPT A DIARY OF TELEPHONE CALLS

Mrs. Martha Chance — homemaker, church worker, bowler, and keeper of a telephone diary that revealed an important fact.

Mrs. Chance finds the telephone a young homemaker's best friend

What one service helps the homemaker through busy days more different ways than any other?

Mrs. Martha Chance is sure she knows the answer. Her telephone. Mrs. Chance recently kept a week-long diary of telephone calls made and received in her home. The results surprised her.

Mrs. Chance listed 95 calls during the week. Not only did her calls save time and energy in managing her home, but many were actually the start of a pleasant afternoon or evening out.

In Mrs. Chance's own words, "It's so easy to take your telephone for granted. You just don't realize how much it means to you until you stop and think about it as I have."

Mrs. Chance is right. Telephone service is a busy homemaker's best friend.

Match Tourney Of Golfers to Open Saturday

The Floydada Country Club will hold their annual club tournament starting Sunday, September 10. The tournament will be match play for all players with consolation matches for first round losers. All member golfers that are interested in entering this tourney will register by 6:00 p. m. Friday, September 9. Players may register with Russell King, Gene Collins Jr., or at the Pro Shop at the club house. Entrance fee is $3.00 per player.

"When you register, you will be prepared to turn in your qualifying score," said Carl L. Minor Jr., who is helping the committee with the advance plans. "This score will be subject to and/or change by the tournament committee," he said.

Parings will be posted by noon Saturday at the following places—KFLD, Stansell-Collins Co., Floydada Country Club and First State Bank in Petersburg.

The first two matches will be completed by Sunday evening, Sept. 18 and the last match will be completed on Sept. 26.

Also, a presentation dinner is being planned by the tournament committee and this will be optional at $1.50 per plate for all tournament players and their wives and guests. The dinner will be Monday night, Sept. 26.

Bill Brown is chairman of the tournament committee, other members of which are Gene Collins Jr., Russell King, Dub Scarborough, Claude Weathersbee and Rex Brown.

Mayo on Cruise

D. T. Mayo left Floydada Tuesday morning on a trip that will take him as far as Canada before he returns the middle of next week. Mayo went to Oklahoma City where he joined a group of Dodge dealers and proceeded by train to Chicago.

The group were to spend two or three days on a cruise on Lake Michigan and Lake Huron making a stop in Canada before going to Detroit where they will see the new Dodge truck factory.

Snyder Banker Roby Man Team Up at Lockney

New executive of the First National Bank of Lockney will be Charles L. Duran of Snyder, who comes to Lockney from the West Texas State Bank at the Scurry County site for five and a half years.

Duran, with B. C. Drinkard, of Roby, has bought the interest of M. W. Wiley in the Lockney bank, which is about 70 per cent of the stock in a transaction that slightly exceeded $200 thousand.

Drinkard is president of the Citizens State Bank at Roby. He will be active in the bank's affairs but will not move to Lockney, at least for the present, according to reports which come from Lockney.

A re-organization of the official personnel is due to be effected soon, the same source indicated. No stockholders meeting had been called last mid-week, but is expected to be held as soon as practical.

Duran, the new banker, is married, has three children. He is 31 years of age.

M. W. Wiley, whose resignation six weeks ago as president of the bank after six years of sensational success, was prompted by the state of his health, confirmed the sale of his stock in the bank.

In the interim Claude Holley has been serving as executive vice-president of the bank.

Maize, Cotton

(Continued from front page) Yesterday maize was bringing $1.50 on the market, with moisture content not exceeding 15 per cent.

For storage no wheat is accepted with moisture content above 13 per cent. Loan value yesterday was $1.51. At this time there seems to be no reason to worry about ample storage capacity in the elevators of the southwest, say grain dealers.

Crops Under The Hill
The cotton crop in that large area of the county below the escarpment will be as good as or better than last year in the judgement of interested people who have been holding tongue in cheek while the heat wave of late August and early September has been in progress.

Production, if luck holds, is going to run about a half bale cotton per acre on an average. Some portions of the area which had more of the August showers may do better.

Cecil Purcell, a member of the board of supervisors of Floyd County Soil Conservation District, says that for some reason the maize held up during August better than the cotton did and is doing better than the cotton on most farms. Purcell did not hazard a guess on the date for the first bale either at Flomot or Quitaque, where most of the cotton of that area is ginned and marketed.

Morckel Adding New Warehouse

HARRY Morckel, of Morckel Farm Chemical Company, this week spread caliche to cover an area of 60 by 70 feet at the rear of the company's present quarters on Q & P industrial switch, on which will be laid floor and foundation for a new Quonset type warehouse.

The company deals in chemicals, insecticides and fertilizers, rendering a service which is designed to meet the needs of farm operators in particular.

The warehouse will be used for the storage of shipments of fertilizers and chemicals in large quantities to anticipate seasonal needs Morckel said.

Contract for the building had not been let the first of the week, but most of the material for the structure is on the ground.

Quarterback Club Met Monday Eve

The Whirlwind Quarterback Club had about fifty members present for their meeting Monday night. President L. F. Gresham presided at the business session and Coach Preston Watson discussed rules and rule changes of the game.

The club voted to purchase a movie projector for the athletic department of the school and also for the use of the club. The new projector will be one with remote control cord which can be slowed down, stopped or backed up for better study of plays. The machine will cost about $260 it is believed.

Other projects of the club this year are the filming of five football games and that of assisting with the financing of the football banquet. Next meeting night will be Monday, September 19.

School Enrollment Higher Than 1934

Superintendent I. T. Graves announced this week the enrollment in Floydada schools this term has already passed last years figures by a total of 68 students. Both Andrews Ward and North Ward show sharp gains with only the High School lagging slightly behind.

The figures as of Tuesday for Andrews Ward 768 against last terms 705, for North Ward 107 for present enrollment total against 90 last year, at High School the total for this term is still 12 short of a year ago with 331 enrolled at present.

From past experience school officials expect enrollment to be even higher when seasonal labor demands bring additional families to Floyd County this fall. Present building plans of the school district call for a new Senior High to be completed some time next year. School officials are faced with a shortage of class rooms and teaching facilities until that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Boteler and their two daughters from Artesia, N. M., visited over the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lyles.

One good way to have a clean mind is to change it occasionally.

Forty And Fat Should Look To Eating Habits

Austin, August—Friend, if you're 40 and fat, this is for you: pass up the candied yams and boiled potatoes and cream-filled toothsome tidbits that spell extra pounds and an early grave.

State health authorities can quote chapter and verse as to why too much weight can kill you as you grow older. It increases the likelihood of diabetes, contributes to high blood pressure, is associated with hardening of the arteries and with various heart diseases.

Besides influencing these conditions, extra weight means impaired vigor, increased fatigability, liver breakdown, greater surgical risk, and greater danger of complications from otherwise minor illnesses.

"There's just no doubt about obesity being one of the biggest problems to be faced after 40," these authorities say. "The more overweight you are, the poorer are your chances of living to a ripe old age."

Are you as much as 25 per cent overweight? People in your group die at a rate 75 per cent higher than the rate for people of normal weight.

If you're still gravitating toward the pastry tray, maybe this will slow you down. Despite the general excellence of medical care in this country, men and women over 45 die at a rate 25 per cent higher than do Western Europeans of the same age group. And the reason is nothing more than galloping appetites.

Poor food habits among older people complicate the problem of obesity, health officials believe. Those who live alone have no incentive to eat sensibly. They snack on fattening rather than wholesome foods.

Others have no knowledge of food nutrition. Still others rationalize their obesity by clinging to the belief that stoutness is a mark of distinction. But health officials know that each pound of extra flesh means fewer years of life.

Here are the State Department of Health's suggestions for avoiding fat after 40:

1. Drink plenty of water, and center your diet on milk, fruits, vegetables, bread and whole grain cereals with modest amounts of

Fugitive Items In Old Papers Are Invaluable

Austin—That old newspaper in the attic—the one grandma saved because it contained a paragraph about grandpa's election as secretary of his lodge—could have lasting value in a permanent depository at the University of Texas.

Dr. H. Bailey Carroll, history professor and Texas State Historical Association director, says these "fugitive items" could help reconstruct the life that has gone on in a community. Your copy of the old newspaper might very well be the only one in existence.

"The University Newspaper Collection is already the greatest in the state," Dr. Carroll pointed out. "It could be tremendously increased in value."

Newspapers are a major source of local history, and local communities will be richer for having the yellowed old copies in a depository, where they can be preserved properly and where their contents can be dispersed. Such facilities are provided at the University.

Dr. Carroll urged citizens who are keeping old newspapers merely as "antiquarian curiosities" to send them to the Texas State Historical Association, University of Texas, Austin 12. The Association will place them in the Newspaper Collection a unit of the University library.

eggs and meat.

2. Limit your use of sugar, alcohol, and fats. Use brown sugar and dark molasses. Choose fruits such as apples for dessert, and insist that meals afford both milk and coffee, rather than milk or coffee.

3. Use dry brewer's yeast and wheat germ rather than synthetic vitamins. Use whole wheat, dark rye, or soya-enriched breads.

4. Use dry skimmed milk if you cannot afford evaporated or whole milk.

But most important of all, keep that appetite under control.

Time after time a man may not ring the bell but he isn't a failure until he begins to blame the machine or somebody else.

ARMY FRIENDS PAY DEBT FOR SOLDIER'S MOTHER

FORT LAWTON, Wash.—Officers and enlisted men of Washington Military District headquarters here have paid off an obligation incurred by the mother of Private Anthony C. Berwald of Keego Harbor, Mich. Mrs. Gertrude Berwald "owed" the Red Cross 28 pints of whole blood following recovery from a rare and difficult operation.

Berwald mentioned the debt to a fellow soldier. The word spread in the office. When the Red Cross mobile unit made its regular visit here, 40 officers and enlisted men were waiting to contribute blood in Mrs. Berwald's name.

They not only paid back the 28 pints but left a sizeable supply in excess against a time when the soldier's mother has a second operation.

BALD SPOTS

A certain city in an arid region, desiring to beautify its streets and parks, engaged the great American sculptor, Gutzon Borglum, to address a mass meeting and arouse the citizens to a sense of pride and civic duty.

"Trees! Trees!" exclaimed the artistic Borglum; "where are your trees?"

"Do you know why trees do not grow in this city?" came a squawk voice from the rear.

"There is no reason that I know why trees should not grow here," replied the genius with emphasis; "you have good soil, plenty of water, lots of sunshine. Why won't trees grow here?"

"Trees don't grow here," continued the squawk, "because we don't plant them."

When Lord Leverhulme, the English naturalist, bought a tract of land on a stony hill near London, and announced his intention to make it a garden spot, the people laughed. Why, nothing had ever grown up there, and it was as bare as a floor. Silly to waste money and time to do anything with that hill!

"Did anybody ever try to make any thing grow up there?" asked the nobleman. He brought plants from all parts of the world and made his fifty acres of rock gardens one of the show places of England.

"How did you do it?" asked the astonished natives.

Lord Leverhulme answered, pointedly, "When we are told that something cannot be done, it is because that thing has never been tried, or has been tried by people limited in vision or ability."

LEARN THAT WOMAN

A philosophical treatise discovered in Canada. Ansen Pratt of Hamilton, Ont., told a recent gathering of culturalists that women's strapless evening gowns are the once lucrative side-line of the heaviest of their wardrobe.

Pratt complained to the florists that they may be up hope until styles change in the first place so much has been found to attach bare skin and in the modern dance conversation impossible to derive waist.

Pratt is a wise man. He is a great truth to women's world.—Houston Chronicle.

"You're sweet enough to said in accents warm and I do eat," said the woman.

"Where do you want to go?"

South Plains News

(By Mrs. Murray Julian)

SOUTH PLAINS, Sept. 5—Rev. M. S. Blair, retired missionary serving in Buenos Aires, Argentina, area, was the speaker at the South Plains Baptist Church Sunday morning. He is a guest of Rev. and Mrs. Larry Faus at the parsonage this week. He will serve at surrounding churches every night during the coming week, and different members of the church will take him to the meetings. Rev. and Mrs. Larry Faus will start their college classes at Wayland in Plainview on Thursday, Sept. 8.

Every housewife in this area is busy these days with canning and freezing of black eye peas, beans, corn, and tomatoes as well as sweet potatoes, okra and other vegetables which are in abundance this fall.

Don Thornton, from Lockney spent the week end in South Plains at the I. H. Parks home, the guest of Eddie Parks.

South Plains School started last Wednesday, and the three teachers, Mr. Whitaker, Mrs. Hewitt and Mrs. Smith, have enrolled in their classes a total of 58 children, with Mrs. Stewart working in the lunch room. The school building is now in good repair, thanks to the parents who cleared the grounds and shined the school rooms.

This week the School of Missions is in session Sunday night. Rev. Blair went to the Baptist Church at Come to speak, and Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves took him there. Monday night Murray Julian, accompanied by Horace Marble, took Rev. Blair to Floydada where he spoke at both the First Baptist and Calvary Baptist Churches. There will be different speakers each night this week at the South Plains Church, and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. John Smitherman visited with Mrs. Murray Julian and family on Monday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Colston and son of Roswell, N. M., were among the week-end guests last week at the George Weast cabin in Ruidoso, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvain Kinnibrugh, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Calahan, Jr., left for Lake Kemp on Friday at noon to spend the week end at the J. A. Kinnibrugh cabin. They fished and went boat riding over the weekend. They had Sunday dinner at Mrs. J. R. Spivey's in Truscott, where they got Beth and Marilyn Kinnibrugh, who had spent the week end with their grandmother. The families were home in time for church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Karr and Yvonne spent last Sunday down in Quanah at the Quanah Memorial Hospital where Bryan's mother had undergone surgery. Mrs. Karr is reported to be doing fine at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure had as their guests Saturday and Sunday their son, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClure, of Houston. Saturday night they all went to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Weast, where they enjoyed seeing movies the different families had taken this past summer on vacation trips. This Monday morning the Frank McClures went to Snyder, where they are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Alliston from Lubbock were all day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Parks last Sunday.

WMU of the South Plains Church met at the church for Royal Service on Monday afternoon, Sept. 5. Seven members were present, and the study was Along the Elephant Trail with material taken from the missionaries of Thailand, or Siam, as it was formerly known. The South Plains WMU will go to Lone Star Baptist Church on Sept. 14 for a Week of Prayer all day meeting at the church, with five other churches in attendance there. Each lady is to bring a covered dish for the noon day meal. WMU members present on this Monday meeting were Mmes. Larry Faus, Grigsby Milton Jr., Bryan Karr, Shelby Calahan, John Smitherman, Sim Reeves and Dock Jones.

LIBRARY NEWS

1583 was the total number of books checked out of the Library during the month of August. School students are already using the Library to help with home work. There are many new biographies and non-fiction books to select from, so come in and get that book report off in short order!

Around the U.S.A. in 1,000 pictures by Milton Runyon, captures something of the 48 states as you might see it if you had a long enough vacation to visit personally the more than one thousand places the editors take you to in this book. Around the World in 1,000 pictures is not a guide book, but a preview of things you may want to see some day.

New in the library for the "little one" is "John's Back Yard Camp" by Marion Renick. Who was Archie? Read and see!

The "Books on Bikes Club" delivered books to four new places Saturday morning along with the regular ones. We are happy to report that the service is growing and the boys and girls who render the service are proving very efficient. Call 1061 if you wish a book delivered to you.

Story hour was attended by 20 children Saturday morning with Mrs. Gordon Downing as story teller assisted by Mrs. W. H. Bethel.

Richard Rice attended the funeral of Frank Rice, his grandfather, at Lawton, Okla., on August 27.

Bert Grimes will enter Texas Tech next week. He plans to go to Lubbock Saturday. He moved most of his things to Lubbock on Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Womack of Shreveport, La., spent the week-end holiday here with relatives. Their children accompanied them home—they had been here for the past month with their grandparents.

Nora Mae Savage of Happy spent the week-end with Catherine Applying in the Mt. Blanco Community. They were schoolmates at Crosbyton.

Mr. and Mrs. Curkey Guffee and Larry spent the week-end at Headley with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spalding and daughters.

Gene Miller left Saturday night to go to Lincoln, Neb., where he is now stationed. He had been here at the home of his mother for two weeks leave.

Mrs. Mary C. Reese of Carlisle left for her home Sunday after spending three weeks here with her niece Mrs. D. M. Moore and Mr. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henry and Pat went to Buffalo Lake fishing over the week-end.

Sue Baker of Lubbock spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Baker.

Wiley Rogers spent his Labor Day holiday "laboring," so he says. He sowed grass seed on his lawn.

Mrs. Joe Stroud of Mt. Blanco community was a co-op visitor on Tuesday morning. She said her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Stroud was in the Crosbyton Hospital. We hope Mrs. Stroud will soon be well and back home again.

Jackie Henry will attend school at Texas Tech this fall.

Wiley Rogers reports that the condition of his mother Mrs. Annie Rogers who has been in People's Hospital for some time is improved at this time.

A lot of interesting things are being worked out for the Floyd County Fair that is to be held at the old cotton-oil mill building in Lockney on October 13, 14 and 15. Dick Whiteley is fair manager. He is a good leader. All department superintendents and their helpers and the fair officials are working hard to make this a good fair — one that everyone will enjoy. Competition is open to Floyd and adjoining counties. So be sure to make your plans now to attend and to exhibit something that you have made or grown this year.

Probably the two cooked vegetables which freeze well, and actually improve after being frozen are baked beans and candied sweet potatoes. Do not overlook this fact while preparing foods for your food freezer; and sweet potatoes and beans are plentiful from your garden.

BAKED BEANS: (Use your favorite recipe and be sure to cool beans before packaging.)
HOW TO PACKAGE — Glass jars suitable for freezing, polyethylene bags or rigid containers.
STORAGE TIME — one year maximum.
HOW TO REHEAT — Remove from package and place in covered saucepan. Heat on low heat for 1½ hours or use a covered casserole in 350°F oven for 1½ hours.

SWEET POTATOES: Select large well-shaped sweet potatoes. Bake or cook until done. Cool, peel and quarter or cut into slices. Dip slices in granulated sugar.
HOW TO PACKAGE — Package flat with layers of waxed paper or cellophane between each layer of potatoes. Wrap in aluminum foil or cellophane.
HOW TO REHEAT: Remove from wrappings. Spread in shallow pan. Heat for 30 minutes in 325-350 degree oven. Butter or other seasonings may be added to suit taste.
FRENCH FRIED POTATOES: Use your favorite recipe.
HOW TO PACKAGE: Package in polyethylene bags.
HOW TO REHEAT — Spread frozen potatoes, in single layer, in shallow pan. Place in preheated over 400 degrees F. After 10 minutes stir potatoes.
Heat 10 minutes longer. Salt Serve.

Riley Holmes and Zant Scott from the Harmony community were co-op visitors on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Price were co-op visitors last Thursday morning. They spend part of their time in Plainview and part on their farm near Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Overly and family of Kingsville are guests this week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morehead.

Crosby County Discovery Well

Crosby County's first oil producer, was brought in last week in the extreme south part of the county. It is Bond Oil Corporation's No. 1 Robertson, Section 19, Block B-9 ELARR survey, one and a half miles northeast of the Irwin Gloria pool across the line of Garza County.

Production is at 3,769 to 3,776 feet the report says. The formation was fractured with 10,000 gallons. It was put on the pump yielding 83.77 barrels of 40 gravity oil, plus 70 per cent water, daily, the report given out stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Curry and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Withey and son Bobby have returned from a fishing trip to Possum Kingdom.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fry were in Lubbock Sunday to attend the Fry reunion which was held at the MacKenzie Park.
