Worship Services Begins Sunday

Outstanding speakers are appearing in lectureships at Park Church of Christ for worship services Sunday morning, and through Sunday, Feb. 11.

Persons who are serving churches in the southwest, minister with a long record of evangelism in South Texas, are listed in the announcement.

P. Ewing, minister of Park Church, will be the speaker during the week. Week-day services are held for evenings only. On Sundays the events are held for 10:20 in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening.

L. Downing, who has been a lecturer Sunday, is minister of the church. He is presently at Canyon and will be counseling with West Texas State.

Wilbur P. Dennis of Dallas, is to discuss "The Bible and the Church" Tuesday evening by the church. Hamlin of Dallas is to discuss "The Law and the Gospel" Saturday evening.

Sunday assignments are discussed by Bill Lubbock. He will be the second speaker in the series. Last week's audience was the largest in the church area. Members are hopeful of good attendance and in-year.

H. Hulsey, 64 year old resident of Floyd County, died Sunday at 3 o'clock at Peoples Hospital where he had been suffering a heart attack. Hulsey had been employed by Lighthouse since Feb. 20, 1952. He lived in the McCoy family home in 1917, where he was born.

Hulsey was feeling ill and assisted other Sunday morning in re-digger at the yard. He died at 11:30 a.m. in an apartment on Mission. Later in the afternoon he was taken to the hospital. Death was shortly thereafter.

Services were conducted in the First Baptist Church with burial in a cemetery. Harmon was in charge of the services.

Live Stock Feeding Meeting Announced

Floyd County Committee To Meet Monday

Estimating that 15 per cent of the eligible voters in Floyd County are "over age", and adding actual poll tax payments and exemptions, Floyd County will have a voting strength this year of about 3,170 when the first primary day, May 5, rolls around.

T. T. Hamilton, county assessor-collector of taxes, reports a late surge of poll tax payers brought the county total up to 2,711, and the issuance of 42 exemptions makes the recorded voting strength of the county 2,753.

With the deadline past for filing for places on the ticket, the Democrats have a full slate of officers to nominate in the May 5 election. State Democratic Executive Committee Secretary J. Edd Connally listed the following:

Governor: John B. Connally of Fort Worth, Price Daniel of Liberty, Marshall Formby of Plainview, Edwin A. Walker of Center Point, Will Wilson of Dallas and Don Yarborough of Houston. Lieutenant Governor: Robert W. Baker of Houston, Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, Jarrard Secret of Temple, Gene Smith of Fort Worth, Preston Smith of Lubbock and James A. Turman of Gober.

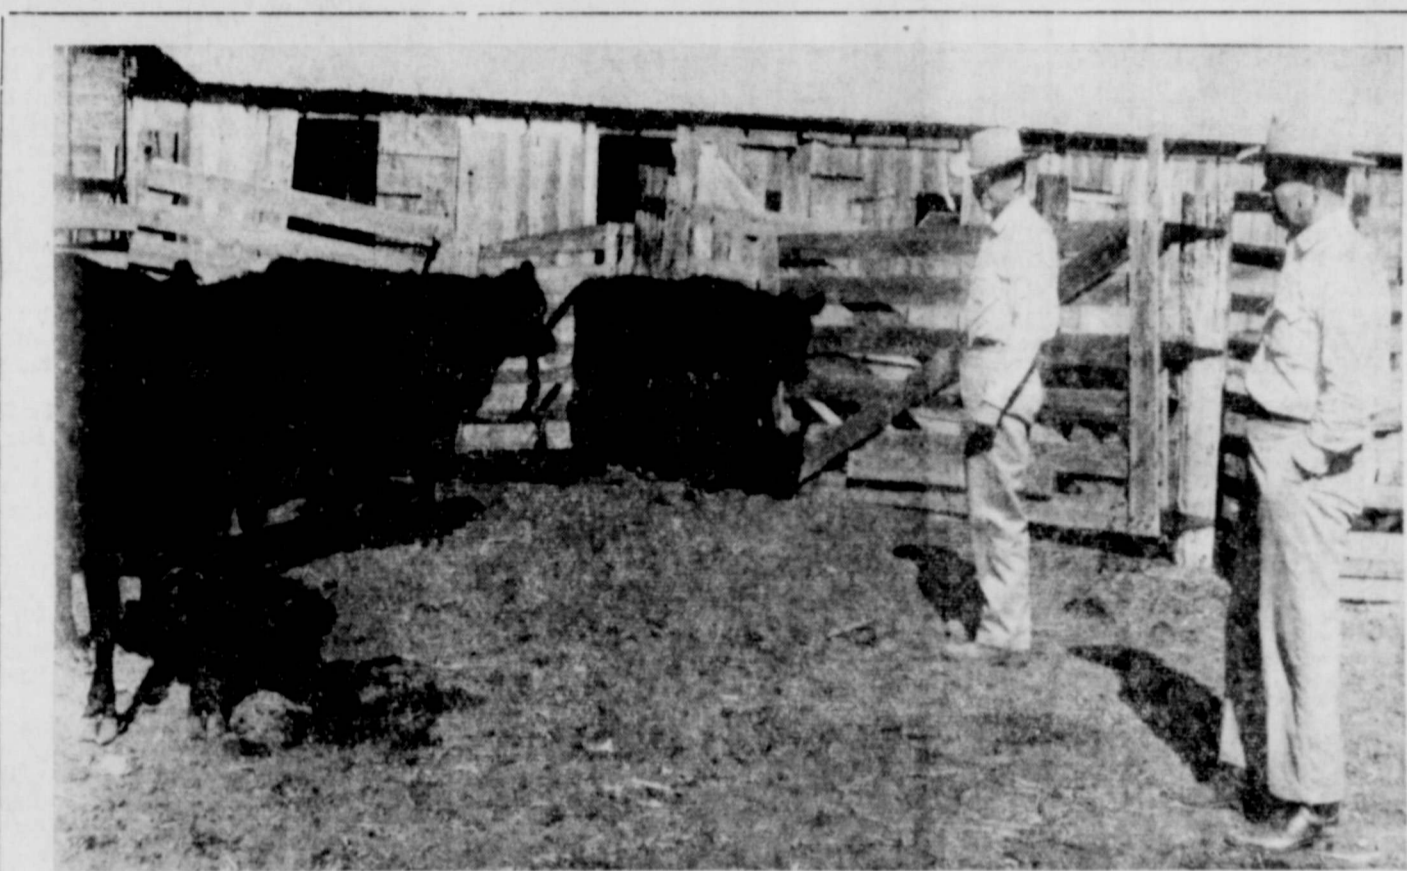

Attorney General: Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, Tom James of Dallas, W. T. McDonald of Bryan, Les Procter of Austin and Tom Beavley of Austin.

Congressman-at-Large: Woodrow Bean of El Paso, J. Ed Connally of Abilene, Manley Head of Austin, Russell T. Van Keuren of Houston, and Warren G. Moore of Tyler.

Railroad Commissioner: Ben Ramsey of San Augustine and Keith Wheatley of Stamford.

Railroad Commissioner: William J. Murray Jr. of Houston, unopposed.

Land Commissioner: Jerry Sadler of Permian, unopposed.

STOCKMEN EYE FEEDING PROGRAM — J. S. Hale, at left and Kinder Farris are among the Floyd County stock men interested in studying the possibilities of co-operative or custom stock feeding. Area ranchers and stockmen in the past have been content for the most part to stay with stock breeding and pasturing, but recent developments in surplus grains and feeds have made the prospects of a local feeding program look more inviting. The Floydada Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a program at First National Bank on February 12 to bring out some interesting facts on these subjects. The public is invited to attend. (Staff photo).

Sorghum Sign-Up Monday

Producers who participate in the 1962 Feed Grain Program are entitled to payments for diverting acreage from production of corn and grain sorghum (or barley), according to Thomas J. Hutchins, office manager Floyd County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Up to half of the estimated payment to be earned may be paid in advance when the producer signs up under the program.

Hutchins said this program provisions should be of substantial benefit to growers who can use some extra ready cash during the spring planting season. Signup for the program runs from February 12 through March 30.

The program offers payments to producers for diversion of feed grain cropland to approved soil conserving uses. The program is voluntary, but farmers who cooperate must divert a minimum acreage in order to be eligible for price support on the normal production of their 1962-crop corn and grain sorghum acreage (or barley acreage).

Payments under the program will be in the form of a cash advance or a feed grain certificate, whichever the producer chooses.

Each county will have two county average rates of payment per acre for corn, two for grain sorghum, and two for barley. One rate will be based on 50 per cent of the county normal yield per acre times $1.89, $1.89, or $1.97 — the county support rates respectively for corn, grain sorghum and barley. The second rate will be based on 60 per cent of the county normal yield per acre times the applicable county support rate.

Poster Reveals Identity Of Long Sought Fugitive

FBI agents, in arresting a fugitive from a Kansas jail, here Monday, pulled out all publicity stops to give regional newspapers coverage of the coup. The story below picks up the event on the rebound.—Ed. Note

Linaweaver made good use of his time. After escaping from the Kansas prison he joined a combine crew and worked the harvest which took him into Canada. In November, 1960 he returned with the crew and the following month he took a job with Johnny West.

Linaweaver was hired by West when the combine crew he was working for, harvested West's wheat. The boss of the crew said Linaweaver was a good worker and West found him so during the period he employed him.

Linaweaver was arrested on the West farm by federal agents about 6 o'clock p. m. Monday as he was plowing.

Living in this area for the past 14 months as a law abiding citizen was Delbert Henry Linaweaver, 30, who was going by the name of James Edward Thomas. He was described by the FBI as an escapee from the Salina, Kan., jail where he was awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary to serve from five to ten years for burglary.

C-C Programs Discussions On Monday

The Floydada Chamber of Commerce and Board of County Development has lined up a program for Monday, February 12, which promises to hold wide interest to area residents.

Reports will be heard from John Seibert and Dr. Byron Greiman, of Texas Tech, who are specialists in this field. The two have made tours of the southwest feeding projects as well as trips into Arizona and California to see what is being done in this field.

Cooperative feeding programs of this type allow farmers, ranchers, business men or other interested investors to set up a feeding operation which would be managed and handled for the entire group and at a central location. Seibert and Greiman will give figures on the efficiency of different size operations and tell of problems and expectations that would face persons interested in starting such a program.

Local men believe that a feeding operation of around 2,000 head of cattle would probably be the most efficient size profit wise, but the speakers will tell them what they have learned in their study and of what profits they can expect from both smaller and larger unit sizes.

The study of cooperative feeding is sponsored by the C of C under a program of work adopted by the agriculture committee. The stock feeding committee of the chamber is headed by J. S. Hale Jr., and working with him are Jim Simpson, Kinder Farris, Alvin Battey, Bill Staniforth, W. F. Daniel Jr., Cecil Lewis and Lon M. Davis.

All persons interested in the type information to be given are urged to be present and hear the speakers. If a larger meeting area is needed the program can be changed to the court house or

All interested persons are invited to attend a livestock feeding meeting, Monday, February 12, in the community room of the First National Bank in Floydada at 2:30 p. m.

Such facilities, investments, and comparative costs will be discussed. Also arrangements in corporations and cooperative feeding lots will be brought out. This will be an educational meeting. All persons interested in livestock feeding are invited to attend.

Monday, February 12, 2:30 p. m. First National Bank, Floydada.

WINS NEW CAR—Albert Mankins at left is shown looking over a new Oldsmobile he has just won in a tire sale contest. George Mize, on sales force at Odens, helps the winner admire the big prize. Mankins, as manager of Consumers Fuel Association in Floydada, was top man in a tri-state area in the sale of Co-op tires and received the F-85 Olds as his prize from Southern Farm Supply Association in Amarillo. Mankins piled up 107,012 points representing some $61,000 in Co-op tire sales in the 12 months of 1961. (Staff photo).

Floydada Tire Dealer Paces Tri-State Area

Albert Mankins has just completed one of his biggest years in the sale of tires at Consumers Fuel Association in Floydada. In 1961 under his leadership among members of the Consumers Staff, several south plains managers placed high in the competition with cooperatives at Hale Center, Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Closest competition to the first place winner was Thomas L. Lloyd of Consumers in Friona. Lloyd had 68,322 points while Mankins finished with 107,012. The Floydada winner received an F-85 Oldsmobile for his accomplishment. The prize offered was a four door sedan, but Mankins traded his prize in on a sports model F-85 Cutlass. Both cars came through Oden Chevrolet in Floydada.

The Friona man who came in second won a Ford Falcon for his efforts and Floydada was in the picture on this prize also as it was purchased and delivered through Bishop Motor Company, the local Ford dealer.

Southern Farm Supply has held three tire sales contests in the past six years offering a big list of prizes to cooperative managers in their area. Mankins has never finished below second in these contests and this is the second time he has claimed the first prize. Two years ago he won a Ram-time he notified Lubbock officials.

He understood Linaweaver lived in Floydada. After investigating they found the couple, however, to be living in Silverton, Briscoe County.

Soil Fertility Day, scheduled for Friday, Feb. 23, this year, will be held again at Plains Theatre. Fort Worth & Denver Railway Co., the Texas Extension Service and Lockney Chamber of Commerce, are sponsors of the meet.

Eddie Fortenberry will be chairman of the morning sessions and J. S. Hale Jr., chairman in the afternoon.

Use of commercial fertilizer on grain sorghum and cotton, farm grazing and farm feeding of live stock, chemical weed control methods, as well as the economic outlook for Floyd County agriculture will be discussed by highly competent speakers.

High School Election Is Slated Today

They are voting today up at Floydada High School for student council officers and other student body leaders for the year of 1962-63.

Balloting will begin at noon today. Candidates announced who have been engaged in electioneering in the week are indicated below.

Eligible voters are members of the student body and the members of the faculty:

For Student Council president: Ronald Bertram, Fred Thayer; For Student Council vice president: Mitchell Abelman, Vernie Moore, Max Rucker, Dale West; For Student Council secretary: Donna Holt, Janice Trapp;

For Student Council treasurer: Charlie Caldwell, Wayne Mankins; For Whirl Editor: Larry Fagan; Janet Moore;

For Annual Editor: LaJuana Rimmer.

Name Adams Outstanding Young Farmer

Wilbur Adams, 25 year old farmer of the Aiken community, was named outstanding Young Farmer of the Lockney Young Farmer Chapter at their second annual banquet Saturday night.

Adams served as vice-president of the Lockney group last year and was installed as the chapter's president at the banquet.

VANDALISM USUALLY IMPERSONAL

More often than not the vandalism done by people who break into schools, churches, stores, shops, whatnot, is not personal malice but malice against things as they are.

An acquaintance had his plate glass windows broken out and his place messed up twice within three months. The first instance, he thought, must be malice, somebody with a grudge. The second time he was quite sure. He was hot about it and offered a reward.

When it came to light, as such things usually do, the vandalism was the work of a couple of underprivileged kids, 10 and 12, who got bad treatment at home.

THEY DID A GOOD JOB

But while vandalism is usually the impersonal work of a morose or drunk, one would have to call the lawless work of the mischief makers Friday night at the Modern Beauty Shop the work of a genius. Those who viewed the shop the next morning were amazed at the thoroughness of the ruffian or ruffians.

Everything, but everything, was either broken or disordered, equipment strewn around. The liquids were poured around over the furnishings, walls and floors as though the perpetrator had a giant pepper sauce bottle and wanted to be sure everything was well seasoned.

The business community, it seems to us, couldn't take a dose a week like that.

THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY

Latest bulletin from information service of the European Community indicates the common market is being spoken of as reaching the end of the "first stage." Belgium, France, West Germany, Italy, Luxemburg and the Netherlands have confidence that economic circumstance are in their favor.

Denmark, England and Ireland see the handwriting and are knocking at the door.

This is mentioned here because it is most likely to be as important to Floydada and Floyd County people as the problems of the schools and city affairs. It is a thing those nations might have been doing a hundred years ago, but they had to learn their lesson in sorrow, poverty, pestilence, and war.

EFFECT WILL BE WIDESPREAD

The things we wear, the things we eat possibly, certainly living costs, the steel we buy to put into our public buildings, even to whom and at what price we export our maize and cotton, all are due to be affected by the European Community plan.

All over the United States it will be the same general pattern. No wonder, then, the president mentioned it in his recent talks to the congress. National policy will have a lot to do with the way we adjust to the new circumstance in the world of trade. But we will have to adjust. In the long run it will work out good, no doubt, but those who have to adjust to the new competition may find it difficult.

POSTAL CHANGES IMMINENT

The House of Representatives in Washington on Jan. 23 by a voice vote passed a bill raising the postal rates, and when they did scared the pants off of a good many printers union members. The postal changes (or the changing times or something) are putting magazines and newspapers out of business by the scores.

The bill as passed had a hodge podge of amendments to amendments and one is not sure just what the bill will look like when it gets to the Senate and finally to the president for his signature.

Basically, if we are correctly informed, the measure will raise second class mail by one cent per copy, a surcharge that will be added half this July and half a year hence.

When the bill becomes law, if it is not changed it will leave The Hesperian with free in-country postage to rural routes and to other towns in the county. Papers delivered in the city and all others require postage by weight.

When the republic was founded periodicals and newspapers were given free postal service to encourage reading and culture in the nation. More recently the screws have been applied a bit more decade by decade as the multitude of periodicals flooded the mails, and simultaneously wages in the postal service increased along with other costs. Nowdays many of the services once taken for granted, such as sorting and routing the mails, is now required of newspapers and magazines, the services done by the post offices being transportation and delivery.

Most newspapers will "have to do something about it" but the biggest complaint heard from any source is that the new rates, if adopted, will add heavily to the poor man's burden—his letters will cost him 5 cents instead of four.

FROM BONDAGE TO BONDAGE

Eddie Rickenbacker, ace of the automobile race track, flying daredevil of the Second World War in the Southwest Pacific, comes of the old school. Dubbed a "malicious old man" by one writer, Rickenbacker does date back a long way. He was a good, personal friend of Woodrow Wilson. Rickenbacker, in his speech to newspaper publishers at San Antonio last week, revived that old truism about shirt sleeve to shirt sleeve, only he calls it "bondage to bondage." It goes this way:

"The release of initiative and enterprise made possible by popular self-government ultimately generates disintegrating forces from within. Again and again, after freedom has brought opportunity and some degree of plenty, the competent become selfish, luxury-loving, and complacent; the incompetent and the unfortunate grow envious and covetous; and all three groups turn aside from the hard road of freedom to worship the golden calf of economic security."

"The historical cycle seems to be — from bondage to spiritual faith; from spiritual faith to courage; from courage to liberty; from liberty to abundance; from abundance to selfishness; from selfishness to apathy; from apathy to dependence, and from dependence back to bondage once more."

Fall Out Shelters. A good many of our readers may be as confused as we are over what to do about fall out shelters.

Shelters as elaborate as some plans suggest are out of the question for many. Additionally, the list of things one must have to survive a siege in a shelter seems a somewhat forbidding. Accordingly the inclination is to relax and hope the worst does not come to the worst.

The Shelter Survey, Floyd County, originally on the first week list, for a reason we wouldn't know, has been moved to a March date for survey of possible shelter in existence against bomb fall out.

Keep Reading. If yours is one of the minds that can't grasp the many angles of the fall out shelter program there are a lot of suggestion in various pamphlets and magazines that rate study. The booklet of the Department of Defense entitled "Fallout Protection" has some interesting suggestions, one a shelter that would be satisfactory for an overnight stay, for as little as $125.

Human beings are strange creatures. We spend the first two years of a child's life trying to teach him to walk and talk, and the next 16 to sit down and be quiet.

Mirages. At what time of the year is the phenomenon of the mirage the most pronounced on the high plains? We have thought that February might be the "best month." The early mornings recently have revealed the bottom of Blanco Canyon, and also have brought some of the neighboring cities and towns in view. Tall houses and long legged cattle, too! We've never experienced this one, however: Evidences of mirage before there is a semblance of daybreak. A fellow the other morning said the lights of all the towns in this area stood out on stilts in the sky.

Change Coming. In another year or so, probably in 1963, watch for amber turn signals to take the place of the present type. More noticeable, safety precaution, researchers say.

Carla Still Costing. After all the hoopla over Hurricane Carla has died down there is still work to do as a result of it. Who would you guess is among those who did not pull up stakes and leave after the spotlight was turned off? Salvation Army is one answer. Carla and a few other disasters left Salvation Army scraping the bottom of the barrel.

The Playboy Club. A recent mailing from a syndicate somewhere—perhaps Chicago, San Francisco—has been enticing old heads in business to join a club, so that when one gets to New Orleans or some other exotic place, he will have full rights and privileges as soon as he identifies himself with a key or some insignia. Inside there'll be frolicking and lots of fun. Femmes with graceful legs and bunny tails also belong, the pictures indicate. So, if, when we read a bit further down and the price is not too high, we'll be filling in the blanks and joining up, no doubt. Lots of us tycoons are getting invitations. We are going to get on the Charter Roster!

There is nothing new save that which has been forgotten.—Mme Bertin.

SOUND OFF

By Beth Pratt

WHAT IS GOD LIKE — Ardis Whitman has written an excellent article entitled "What Not to Tell a Child About God." These points are commonly agreed on by theologians and psychologists: Don't tell a little child that "God is watching him to see whether he is good." Don't tell your child that God is a magic solution for all his troubles, a benevolent benefactor who gives us whatever we ask for. Don't tell your child that it doesn't matter what he believes, so long as he believes in something. Don't tell even a small child that "God's in His heaven; all's right with the world." Don't give your child a God too small to believe in when he is grown up. If you are interested in the reasoning behind this list of "don't's" you will find the article condensed in the February "Reader's Digest."

LIPSTICK LOGIC

Lipstick Logic Most of the time we're too busy defending our own favorite pastimes to question other people's. Everything we like to do, for instance, is a sitting-down occupation: reading, working with words at a typewriter, playing duplicate bridge with the spouse. So we get little exercise.

And at bridge, we spend hours in poorly ventilated rooms, where three-fourths of the people smoke incessantly. Being allergic to cigarette smoke, we come out of each session with a second-hand hangover. Naturally, our non-bridge friends say, "But how silly!"

GOOD QUESTION

The adoring grandmother, baby-sitting on the parent's night out, tucked the child cozily in bed. "Now then," she said fondly, "let's have a bedtime story, shall we?" Fuzzy Wuzzy was a bear, Fuzzy Wuzzy had no hair, Fuzzy Wuzzy wasn't fuzzy, was he?"

I WONDER

The thought occurs to me quite often that we may pay dearly for using the television so often as an easy babysitter. How can we measure the effects of violence so prevalent on the shows our children see? I am not speaking of the western and crime shows and excluding the cartoons. If you have ever watched the cartoons you will have found that many of them are filled with violence. Before television most children were not exposed to these plots until they had learned the road, but now they watch the most gory shows before they can even talk! Of course television has a great potential for learning, but I am afraid we underestimate its effects upon our children.

LISTEN TO ME

If you talk to yourself, don't worry about it. A psychologist suggests that the measure of human intelligence may be how broadly we can converse with ourselves. Most of our activities are the result of carrying out instructions we give ourselves. For example, even in so small a task as picking out fruit at the store, we follow our own orders: choose one of such a color, firmness, size. In time these instructions become so automatic that we don't actually formulate the words. In short, don't worry about an intensive conversation that takes place between you and yourself. But one warning: don't talk out loud... someone else might not realize that your intelligence was just showing!

See Pastors and Churches in Services Feb. 18

Services for the second Sunday evening Family Fellowship at the First Methodist Church are scheduled to be held by three pastors to inaugurate Sunday.

Paul Fullerton, of the Christian Church; Rev. Dixon, of Cumberland Presbyterian Church; and Rev. Lutrick, of First Methodist Church will conduct services beginning through Mar. 11.

Three church congregations are beginning to have papers spread all around, and are working on the income tax reports, while her folks are in Houston from Saturday to Thursday of the coming week at co-op meetings.

Each pastor will have his turn at preaching, thus giving each congregation the opportunity to hear another pastor.

Rev. Fullerton will be first to preach at the opening service, Feb. 18. His subject will be "The Foundation for Christian Living." All the sermons will be of a general nature centered around the family.

All members of the three denominations, Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist are urged to attend all four evenings. Any person from other denominations is also cordially welcomed to attend.

So. Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, February 5—The north wind felt bitter cold this Monday morning after such beautiful weather all last week when days were in the seventies. However, the Ground Hog saw his shadow, February 2, and we are promised some real winter weather in the next few weeks.

107 were at Sunday School Sunday even though several families of the church were away. Mrs. Kendis Julian of Floydada was a visitor and Jimmy Snead of Las Vegas, New Mex. came into the church by letter. Singer Gene Johnson and Miss Judy Jarrett of Plainview had dinner with Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wimberly and youth leaders met Sunday afternoon to plan the Valentine Sweetheart banquet, which they plan to have Saturday night, Feb. 17, at Fellowship Hall.

All our community is pulling for Mrs. Paul Snodgrass who is in the Paris Sanatorium, Room 213, Paris, Tex. where she underwent major surgery Tuesday morning, Jan. 29. She lived and taught school in our area for many years, and is loved by everyone. She has been very ill since Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Calahan Jr. and Mrs. Shelby Calahan went to Paris to see "Miss Verna" as we all call her, and they found her doing much better, and were able to get her Monday morning. Mrs. Carl Smith and Shelby Calahan for a younger person but Mrs. Anderson has taken to her walking stick like a duck to water.

Another very ill is Miss Jo Ann Newton who was taken to the Lockney Hospital this Monday morning, and will undergo an emergency major operation Monday afternoon. We are all hoping she will be fine soon. She had been working in Amarillo, but during the recent ice storm up there, she fell and pulled a ligament in her shoulder, so had to come home, and was working the past week in Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas and Mrs. Maud Bristler went to Post Sunday to spend the day visiting with Bill's and Maud's sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hester. They reported a bad dust storm down that way Sunday morning.

Mrs. Don Bean, Judi and Mike, and Mrs. Arby Mulder went to Tullia last Wednesday where they spent the day with Mrs. Bean's mother, and Mrs. Mulder's sister, Mrs. C. G. Cobb and family.

Note: The surprise party that was given the Sylvan Kinniburgh family last week was not sponsored by the Adult No. 3 Sunday School Class, but several members from it that were present.

Twenty-two ladies from our vicinity are meeting each Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock for the next four weeks at the schoolhouse, where Mrs. Mickey McDonald of Amarillo is conducting a "Charm School". It started last Tuesday, and Mrs. McDonald is well known throughout the country, as many have attended her schools. At Berkeley went up to Amarillo to a o'clock the same days she has a charm school for teen-agers, and nine are attending from here.

Mrs. Nell McGuffey and Mrs. Mickey McDonald from Amarillo had lunch at noon and supper here Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder and children, then left at night for their home in Amarillo.

Surprise Anniversary Party At the Sterling Cummings

Several couples went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings Monday night of this week to surprise them on their twelfth wedding anniversary. The group took coffee and doughnuts to serve, and they all enjoyed games of forty two during the evening. Attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Garvin Beedy, Sylvan Kinniburgh, Kendall Cummings, and H. S. Calahan, Jr. They presented Sterling and Glynn Earle linen, and the Shelby Calahans helped participate in the gift. Little Paula Cummings has a case of the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bledsoe spent Friday in Lubbock where they visited her sister, Mrs. Fay Sledge and then attended to income tax business. All of us are beginning to have papers spread all around, and are working on the income tax reports, while her folks are in Houston from Saturday to Thursday of the coming week at co-op meetings.

Mrs. Anderson Has Zest For New Home

Riding from Plainview to Lockney, from a hospital to a convalescent home and in a brand spanking new car could be a happy occurrence for most, but for Mrs. Laura Anderson of Floydada it was more than that. She was "coming home" after being in the hospital since December suffering from a broken hip and shoulder.

The 96 year old woman quipped to her daughter after she asked if she were tired, "Goodness no, I could have ridden 50 more miles". The daughter, Mrs. Roy Fawver, said her mother was in the best of spirits after the trip and has asked all her Floydada friends to visit her at the Crum Convalescent Home in Lockney.

Her zest for living is remarkable. Never did the pioneer woman give up when she sustained her injuries. Able to get up after a week's stay in the hospital following surgery there last Tuesday.

Mrs. Kendis Julian will be honored at a Pink and Blue coffee Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Sylvan Kinniburgh. Guests will call from 9:30 - 11:00 o'clock.

There are 94 boys and girls registered at the South Plains School with Mrs. Joe McClelland having 27, for the largest number of pupils.

Mrs. W. M. Stanforth, Sr. visited last Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Bryant Higginbotham.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. J. H. Barnard of Barwise, Mrs. L. T. Wood, and Mrs. M. M. Julian met with Mrs. Roy Bledsoe at the Bledsoe home and they worked all afternoon on books for the Baptist Church Library. They plan to meet again next Friday afternoon at the Baptist Church to get all the books put on the shelves, and to have the library all ready for use.

Directors of the South Plains Co-operative Cotton Gin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burks, Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Karr, and Mr. and Mrs. John Key West left Saturday for Fort Worth where they planned to attend the Fat Stock Exposition held there and the L. N. Johnsons returned home Monday evening. His mother, Mrs. O. A. Johnson kept their children. Others of the group went on to Houston where this coming week they plan to attend Co-operative meetings. The Wests plan to stay on and fish a few days, but most of them would be home Wednesday or Thursday. The Leighton Teeplets did not go because Dwight has the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wells and Kim had dinner Sunday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marble and boys.

Lakeview News

By Mrs. Q. D. Williams

LAKEVIEW, February 5 — Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston and family visited relatives in Cleburne Friday through Sunday. Altha's brother of Ft. Polk, La., was home on furlough.

The Lakeview 4-H met Monday night in the Lakeview school house. There were twelve members present. The two adult leaders were Mrs. Q. D. Williams and Earl Edwards. Members turned in their project sheets for the year. Some of the requested projects include cooking, clothing, automobile mechanics, home improvements, cotton growing, calf feeding, wild life conservation, horse raising, and a four man rifle team all set to challenge other rifle teams in the county and district. Q. D. Williams, a former Marine Corps sharpshooter, will coach the rifle team. Mrs. Milton Harrison will teach sewing. Cooking will be taught by Mrs. Earl Edwards. Gregory Williams led the club in singing several songs. Cynthia Edwards led the 4-H Refreshments and Motto.

Refreshments were served by Sue and Rex Harrison. Present were Shirley Johnson, Jean Jones, Nancy Williams, Cynthia Edwards, Judy Beth Newberry, Jana Galt Bertrand, Janice Edwards, James Williams, Douglas Rainbolt, Rex Harrison, Gregory Williams, and the leaders. Next months meeting on Civil Defense will be at the Warner Johnson fall out shelter.

Mrs. Alvin Battey was hostess for a tupperware party in her home Thursday afternoon.

Miss Bonnie Helms visited the Tom Penningtons in Amarillo over the weekend.

Rodney Miller of Lubbock visited his uncle, Q. D. Williams, over the weekend. He brought two friends from Dallas, Keith Miller and Lloyd Robinet.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. R. L. Johnson were the Vernon Wheelless family of Crosbyton, Gene Johnsons and Charles Johnsons of Lakeview.

Mrs. Clifford Helms was hostess in her home, to her W. M. U. Circle Tuesday morning. She served coffee cake and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Polasek and son of Masterson visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones and Jean over the weekend. Mr. Jones is feeling fine, after his stay in the hospital. Home Demonstration Club meets Thursday, February 8, in the home of Mrs. W. Earl Edwards.

The Lakeview Home Demonstration Club will sponsor a home demonstration class of Mexican women of the community. All interested are invited to the organizational meeting in the auditorium of the Lakeview school Friday, February 9, at 2:00 p. m. Mrs. W. Earl Edwards is chairman of the Education Expansion committee which will direct the work. The council voted to have the Mexican classes in the individual communities this year, rather than in Floydada and Lockney.

All the tractors in the community must have been running last week during the pretty weather. Many farmers plowed night and day. The cold weather this week has curtailed outdoor work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Battey entertained with a 42 party Saturday night. Guests included the Milton Harrison, Clifford Helms, Harold Bertrands, Duane McClintock and Louis Pyles.

Mrs. Howard Bishop and Mrs. Clifford Helms were co-hostess for the 1950 Study Club meeting Tuesday night in the community room of the First National Bank in Floydada.

HEART TROUBLE

Radiologists now have refined a technique that will make it easier for them to diagnose defects of the heart—the dreaded disease that kills more people than any other single cause.

The technique is explained this way: a newly-refined hollow tube, called a catheter, is inserted into the left side of the heart through a blood vessel and an opaque liquid is injected through the tube into the area. This opaque chemical "stops" x-rays so that when films are taken, the vessels and structures of the heart are left outlined on the x-ray film.

As a result, doctors can better study the condition of the heart, and the information they receive will help them prevent further trouble before it occurs. This technique could be life-saving for the patient who has some indications of heart disease.

Plans Near Completion For District Federation Meet

Interesting plans are nearing completion for the Caprock District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention to be held in Plainview on April 9-10. Hospitality headquarters will be in the Plainview Women's Club House and the business session will be conducted in the First Christian Church.

Mrs. A. E. Boyd, Plainview, district president, reminds clubs in the Caprock District that the deadline for mailing 1961-62 reports from Federated Clubs is approaching. The final mailing date is February 13 with the deadline on the 15th. The compiling and filing of annual reports is in preparation for the district convention.

Mrs. Frank Gaston of Plainview, will be general chairman of the convention, with Mrs. Walker B. Jones and Mrs. Bob Hamman co-chairmen.

On the decorating committee will be Mrs. W. J. B. Gouley as chairman with Mrs. Ben Quebe as co-chairman. Presidents of the Plainview Women's Clubs will assist. Hostesses for the convention will be Athenaean, Beta Delphin, Delta Delphin, Twentieth Century, M. M. As You Like It, Les Progres, Coronado, Travel Study, Newcomers, Pioneers and Quarters Clubs of Plainview.

Mrs. Louis Cummings will serve as chairman of the courtesy committee and Mrs. C. L. Craig as registration chairman. Convention treasurer will be Mrs. H. T. Wilcher.

The district convention will feature the naming of "Teacher of the Year." District winners will be presented awards at their respective conventions and from these winners the state committee will make their selection. Each of the 14 districts conducts a teacher of the year contest.

Mrs. T. M. Chesser of Plainview is Caprock District chairman of the state committee and Mrs. J. W. Walker is Caprock District representative on the state nominating committee.

Another feature of the convention will be the naming of the "Federation Member of the Year." Mrs. Ovid Lewis of Bovina is chairman for the committee.

Press books, year books, and art exhibits will be on display during the two day convention.

Conservation Of Wild Life Topic At 29 Study Club

The Community Room of the First National Bank was the meeting place Thursday for members of the 1929 Study Club for a program Conserving Our World of Natural Resources.

Mrs. Jewel Norman was program leader and Mrs. R. W. Overstreet read from the 10th Chapter of Proverbs, ninth verse.

Mrs. Norman introduced the guest speaker, Cecil Fox, game warden from Spur. Mr. Fox spoke on wild life in general and showed slides of Colorado's wild life. He had on display numerous articles covered with the hides of rattle snakes which he had killed. Some of the items included gun holsters and handbags, and shoes and hand bags.

Mrs. Hollis R. Bond presided during business and accepted the resignation of Mrs. Paul Fullerton. Mrs. George V. Smith was voted in as a new member of the club.

Mrs. Lee Rushing was hostess and served refreshments to Mrs. Hollis R. Bond, Newell Burke, C. W. Denison, R. E. Fry, Clarence Goin, Jack G. Jordan, J. Latta, J. G. Martin, J. D. McBrien, Jewel Norman, R. W. Overstreet, J. B. Sneathman, Q. D. Williams and Henry Willis. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. R. E. Fry at which time members will model dresses for the Vogue Dressmaking Review and of the early twenties.

Food Sense Not Nonsense

Fat Cats Fight Back

Little doubt remains that America's youth are becoming fat cats. That they are not as fit as they could be is borne out by the scientific studies of the last decade: Japanese children excelled Iowans in physical tests... British girls, 10 to 12 years old, beat American boys in leg-power tests for endurance... Italian and Austrian youths surpassed Americans in physical fitness. The clincher for these studies was America's disappointing performance in the Olympics.

Teen-age delegates at the recent National Youthpower Congress fought a fat-cat status. In asking for help to achieve fitness, they took note of a king-sized obstacle in many schools: Physical education facilities oriented to team needs. Those not on the team often are neglected.

To be a fit cat calls for a personal fitness program, experts say, not elaborate gym equipment. Daily exercise and physical activity make up one phase of the fight. Nutrition is another.

If nutrition is inadequate, the basis for performance is affected. A thiamine deficiency, short but severe, seriously disturbs coordination. Vitamin A deficiency handicaps anyone whose eyes have to adapt to darkness. A calorie deficiency drops endurance to low levels and loss of strength is dramatic. To build your nutrition, eat from a variety of foods each day. A teenager should include at least:

- 4 servings of enriched or whole grain bread or cereal
- 4 servings of fruit and vegetables
- 4 servings of milk or cheese
- 4 ounces of meat, fish, poultry, or dried peas or beans

Fat cats can become fit. Start with well-chosen food and exercise.

Compliment Miss Ginn At Shower Friday Evening

Colors of blue and white were used in the shower setting Friday evening for a courtesy extended Miss Janice Ginn, bride-elect of Ronnie Dalton. The affair was held in the parlor of the First Baptist Church between the hours of 7 and 8:30. The couple exchanged wedding vows yesterday, Feb. 7th.

In the receiving line with the honoree were Mrs. E. L. Ginn, her mother, and Mrs. Loy Dalton of Littlefield, mother of the bridegroom.

Miss Dana Walding registered guests and Misses Donna Welborn and Diane Davis served.

The bridal table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white and blue flowers, flanked by blue tapers in white holders. Crystal appointments completed the setting.

Assisting with the houseparty were Mrs. E. I. Durham, Felt Patterson, T. S. Brown, A. S. Mize, M. H. Roddam, J. D. Welborn, Nolan Arney, Wylie Bollman, Marie Baxter, Helen Patterson, Gary Cantrell, T. T. Hamilton, W. H. Bunch, Jim Elliott, J. E. Elza, Carl Lewis, Bob Owens, Pike Hanna, Emmitt Dutton, Hazel Bradley, Lee Burton and Misses Donna Welborn, Dana Walding, Janice Elliott, Judy Yandell, and Diane Davis.

Hostess gift was Corningware and an electric iron.

Layette Shower Compliment To Mrs. Marquis

Mrs. Jimmy Marquis was honored last Wednesday afternoon in the PCA entertainment room with a layette shower. Approximately 70 guests called or sent gifts between the hours of 4 and 6 p. m.

Pink and blue sand tarts, mints, nuts and pink punch was served by alternating hostesses. The table was laid with a pink cloth and centered by crystal appointments.

Assisting with hostess duties were Mrs. Floyd Webb, J. D. Parkey, A. G. Tyler, Jim Elliott, W. O. Tye, A. W. Channing, Hubert Davis, Donnie Holliday, J. B. Grundy, Charrie Horton, Harry Reeves and Mrs. Bobby Welborn.

The hostess gift was a car bed and infant seat and corsages to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Troy Cranford and her husband's mother, Mrs. F. M. Marquis.

Club To Sponsor Talented Girls In Sewing Contest

This year, fashion conscious becomingness to wear will be all home economics students at the considered in the judging. To Floydada High School are plan-illustrate the last points, stunning to participate in the Student Division competition of the 1962 to model their own costumes. Fashion Sewing Contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Vogue Pattern Service.

The Floydada Federated Clubs, working in cooperation with the school's home economics student competition.

According to Mrs. Charles Craig, local contest chairman, each girl entering the contest will make what she considers the "Ideal Dress-Up Costume For The High School Student", bringing to bear all of her sewing skill and fashion knowledge in the hope of creating the winning entry.

The local student winner will receive $5.00 in cash and will be eligible to represent Floydada Federated Clubs and Floydada High School at the District Judging. District winner will go on to compete for State and National honors. Grand prize at the National level is $1,000 scholarship and additional scholarships of $500 and $250 will be awarded to the National second and third winners respectively.

To Develop Skills The main purpose of this community centered contest is to encourage young students to develop a deeper appreciation of homemaking skills. The satisfaction gained from creating her own wardrobe from selecting an appropriate and becoming pattern, choosing practical yet fashionable fabrics, and using skill to create her costume, will provide an important experience in a teen-ager's learning and growing.

Appropriateness of the costume for dress-up occasions, workmanship, fashion effect and

Birthday Party Compliments Mrs. Murrett Dorsey

Mrs. Murrett Dorsey was honored last week with a birthday party in the Dorsey home. Pink roses graced the refreshment table laid with a lace cloth and accented by pink candles.

A birthday cake iced in white with pink roses and the name of the honoree was served along with coffee and punch.

Present for the occasion were Lillie Henry, Mrs. Eula Thurman, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Smith, his mother, Mrs. J. R. Monthly bills of $4895.70 were examined and voted to be paid.

The secretary reported tax collections for the year just past at $237,459.00 and said this was 93 percent of the $255,182.58 total tax levy by the school district.

The next meeting date of the board was set for Monday night March 12 at 7:00 p. m. at the high school. Superintendent I. T. Graves will present an agenda of business on this date that will include the election of teachers for the next school year.

Lions Entertain Ladies Tonight

Claude Estes, program chairman for Floydada Lions Club annual ladies night, said this week everything is all set for a fine banquet and evening of entertainment. The club is honoring the wives and sweethearts of members in a valentine program to be held at the Floydada High School Cafeteria tonight (Feb. 8) at 7:30 p. m.

Estes has been buzzing about for several weeks lining up talent for the program but has been keeping everything a secret except to say it will be a banquet and there will be no speaker.

Out of town guests other than those on the program will be District Governor and Mrs. Jack Strong of Lubbock; past District Governor J. D. Dyer of Lamesa; Zone Chairman, and Mrs. Ken Roberson of Petersburg; and the Lions District Queen Miss Cheryl Poteet of Olton.

Mrs. Mark H. Martin is at home and doing nicely after several days spent in a Lubbock hospital for treatment of a broken arm.

Motley Pioneer Passed Tuesday

James Thomas King, 78 year old Motley County pioneer, died at noon Tuesday in Stanley Hospital where he had been a patient for over a week. Bites for Mr. King, who is an uncle of Mrs. J. B. Grunty of Floydada, were held yesterday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Matador. Burial was in East Mount Cemetery. Mr. King was a native of Mississippi and came to Motley County in 1901. He was an old-time cowboy on the famed Matador Ranch and later was a cook and calf owner. Survivors include a daughter, three sons; one brother; two sisters and three grandchildren.

The next meeting date was set for June 16 and 17.

MRS. SHIREY IMPROVED

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Finley have returned from Azle where they spent some time with Mrs. Finley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Shirey. They took Mrs. Shirey home from a Fort Worth Convalescent home Sunday. She is reported to be improved. Friends wishing to send greetings to Mrs. Shirey may mail them to 912 N. Stewart, Azle.

Rabbit Cry of Distress

In a quirk of luck, they changed to see a pack of wolves pursuing a doe. The lean and muscular killers caught the deer and began tearing her to pieces. Morton Burnham grabbed the arm of his friend and pulled him down behind a log. As they lay there, Burnham imitated the cry of an injured rabbit. A big she wolf raised her head and looked around. Without hesitation, she quit the downed deer and headed for the source of the cries. On her heels came the other wolves, rushing toward the two boys as if hypnotized. Morton Burnham waited until the big wolf was almost on him before he shot. She fell heavily. The other wolves wheeled and scrambled for safety. Before the day's hunt was ended the boys shot two more wolves.

Hunter Was Stalked

Another time, while on a hunt, he was calling while seated in the fork of a tree. Little did he know that he too was being hunted. Two bobcats were stalking whatever was making the noise. When two wildcats are after something in a tree... such as a wild turkey... one cat will climb the tree and knock the game out. The other cat, waiting impatiently on the ground, will immediately pounce upon it. This is what happened to Morton Burnham. Suddenly he felt something on his back, a clawing bundle of fury. He tumbled earthward, only to be attacked by another hungry bobcat. That incident sort of soured him on calling at night. And well it might! Today, Morton Burnham doesn't go "calling" any more. He leaves that to his sons, Murry and Winston.

Woods Come Alive

The shot set off a chain reaction which young Morton Burnham didn't immediately comprehend. A jackrabbit feeding in the field was spooked by the noise. It tried to squirm under the barbed wire fence but was caught. It began squealing. Almost instantly a pack of wolves pounced out of the dark timber and devoured the helpless rabbit. Morton Burnham didn't stick around to find out what happened. He ran for home! Later, back in the safety of the house, he got to thinking about the incident. Why couldn't

Student Nurses Get Vocational Nursing Caps

Student nurses of Lockney General Hospital School of Vocational Nursing received their caps, signifying the successful completion of their pre-clinical training, last Friday evening at the hospital. Rev. Gene Hawkin, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Lockney, gave the invocation. Students were introduced and caps presented by Mrs. Florence Barnes, RN, and Mrs. Evelyn Usher, RN. Receiving caps were Mrs. R. C. (Inez) Stewart Jr. Floydada; Miss Bertha Amaya, Lockney; Misses Glendell Morrison and Willie Mae Wood of Quitaque. Following the presentation, refreshments were served to students and their guests. Attending the ceremony from Floydada were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stewart Sr., Mrs. William Bertrand, Mrs. Neil Bertrand and Becky.

Italian Meat Balls and Sauce

This is a recipe I received from an Italian friend that I think is very good. I like to make two recipes at a time and freeze part of it. Sauté 2 or 3 cloves garlic and 1 onion in oil until yellow and tender. Combine in large sauce pan: 1 No. 2 1/2 can tomatoes, chopped 1 (6 oz.) can tomato paste 1 (6 oz.) can tomato sauce 3/4 tsp. pepper 1/4 tsp. chili powder 1 tsp. oregano 1 tsp. salt 1 pint water Add garlic and onion. When this begins to boil, add 1 tsp. soda and stir till foaming stops. Simmer 2 or 3 hours. Soak 2 slices bread in water. Squeeze dry and crumble into 1 lb. hamburger Add 1 egg. 1 tsp. salt 1 tsp. salt pepper Mix well. Form into balls. Brown in oil on all sides Add meat balls to sauce and cook till done, then remove. Serve on cooked spaghetti. Serves 4 - 6.

I Give You Texas Boyce House Says

When I was a small boy, while my father was away on his duties as a traveling salesman, my mother was at home alone except for my little sister Vivian and me. One night, (I was then about four) while my father was away, two men stopped in front of our house. One, who had been drinking, said, "I believe I'll go in." His friend tried to dissuade him but he reiterated his intention of entering. My mother flung the front door open and said, "I don't believe you will" and fired twice with my father's Smith & Wesson. It is hardly necessary to add that the two men took to their heels. Soon after my father became a traveling salesman, we moved to Benton, Ark. In Benton, I fell from my toy wagon, hit my chin on a stump and acquired a permanent scar. It was in Benton that I made my first appearance before the public—at a lawn fete, magnificent with Japanese lanterns where, of all things, I sang! My Aunt Agnes, wearing a shawl and a bonnet to appear much older than the girl she was, also took part in the dramatic scene wherein I warbled, "I'll Always Be Good to You, Grandma." I do not recall that an encore was necessary. Marion was born in Benton. She inherited her dark hair, brown eyes and olive skin from our father. Vivian and I "took after" our mother. It was while we were living in Benton that I took my first train trip alone—and forgot where I was going! Then I overheard a middle-aged couple (they were probably twenty-five or twenty-six) across the aisle say, "When we got to Little Rock—" and I said to myself, "That's where I'm going; I must remember." Little Rock was the State capital and the largest city in Arkansas and furthermore, I couldn't have been carried past for that was the end of the line.

Farm Bureau Will Hold Open House at New Office Building

Floyd County Farm Bureau will hold open house on Saturday, Feb. 10, at their new office quarters on East Highway 70 in Floydada. The celebration will have a two fold purpose, that of recognizing national Farm Bureau week and also to show off the new office plant to members and friends.

Visiting hours at Farm Bureau will be between 9:00 and 11:00 a. m., on open house day.

Lee Burton is president of Floyd County Farm Bureau. Serving with him are Jack Yearney, vice president; Rex Smitherman, secretary; and directors J. R. Turner, H. P. Bertrand, Howard Gregory, Hollis McLain, Tom Duvall, and Herman Thornton.

The completion of the office plant here is looked on as a milestone in the progress of Farm Bureau in Floyd County. The first full time office was opened here in 1932 with W. R. Puckett as service agent and Mrs. Puckett as office secretary.

Ben Quebe is looked on as father of the county organization working long and hard to get things started. The efforts paid off but Quebe did not get to see the growth of the movement as he passed away a few days before

The group decided on the sale of building bonds to finance the project and the remodeling was completed in August of 1961 at which time the new quarters were occupied.

The officers and directors in this week's Hesperian are extending a cordial invitation to members and their families to come out and see the plant and enjoy the visit.

The new Farm Bureau office is located at 325 East Houston Street in the former location of Lunch Box Cafe. In the building is a reception room and office for office secretary Katherine King, two private offices for Sam Puckett, insurance service agent, and for J. L. Dalton, special agent. The remainder of the building is arranged to accommodate a board room for directors, storage space and a coffee bar.

Total cost of building, remodeling and furnishing came to $9,500.00. All bonds have been sold and all bills connected with the building program have been paid, officers report.

Morton's Schedules February Push on Chip-o's Corn Chips

February 1962 will mark the chip-o's corn chips. Van C. Ellis, celebration of the 30th Anniversary Morton vice-president in charge of Morton Foods, a leading of sales, announced that Southwestern shipper and Instapany surveys indicated an additional supplier, according to approximate 20 per cent share of G. C. Morton, president, who founded the company in 1932.

A general sales meeting was held at the firm's home office in Dallas on January 20 for managers and supervisory personnel. Ellis also revealed that chip-o's would be featured as the plus Morton franchise distributors from North Texas. Branch and Divisional sales meetings were held also in Houston, Amarillo, Lubbock, El Paso, and Dallas-Ft. Worth, appropriately. One hundred Morton's potato chips have eight newspapers and 19 television stations will support the brands in sales volume in the Southwest, and this past year public thanks for making the achieved major prominence with company's remarkable 30-year introduction of their new growth record possible.

E. L. Landtroop Rites Conducted Here Yesterday

Funeral rites were conducted yesterday in Harmon Funeral Home Chapel at 2:30 o'clock for Edward Luther Landtroop, 83, of Silvertown.

Masonic burial service was in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Harmon Funeral Home.

Rev. Marvin Fisher, Methodist minister of Silvertown, officiated at the funeral.

Mr. Landtroop died in Silvertown Monday after a year's illness. He was making his home with a foster son and his family there at the time of death.

Born on Feb. 7, 1879, the deceased was a native of Alabama. He and his wife, who died in 1949 in Floyd County, came to this area from Abernathy. They made their home at Sand Hill for some ten years. Following his wife's death Mr. Landtroop moved to Silvertown.

Survivors in addition to the foster son, Joe Fowler, are two foster grandchildren. Mrs. Fowler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gross of Sand Hill.

LLOYDS ATTEND FUNERAL OF KINSMAN AT CHARLIE

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lloyd spent Saturday at Charlie near Henrietta, where they attended the funeral of James W. Barger, 81, a cousin of Mrs. Lloyd. Memorial service was held at the Charlie Baptist Church.

A pioneer of that section Mr. Barger came to Texas from Missouri at the age of 8. His widow, three sons, three daughters, two brothers, a sister, and a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren are among the survivors.

ATTEND MINISTERS' MEET

Rev. and Mrs. Chas. E. Lutrick are due home Friday from Dallas, where they have been since Sunday and Mr. Lutrick has been attending a Methodist Ministers meeting at McFarland Auditorium, SMU.

Shop Is Left In Shambles By Vandals

A place that was in shambles was found Saturday morning at Modern Beauty Shop, 113 South Fifth, when Viola Golightly, shop owner, opened up.

Bottles of hair preparations, lotions and beauty aides of all kinds were broken and the contents splattered all over the walls and floor. Not stopping at this the vandals turned over the cash register, destroying it. Some three or four dollars in the register were left behind.

Nothing in the shop was insured against vandalism, Miss Golightly said.

Furniture and beauty shop equipment had been turned over and the entire place left in confusion.

Deputy Sheriff Foster Amburn, who assisted city officials in the investigation, said persons doing the damage also entered the office of Bolinger Segars and Burk, but that nothing was found missing there. However, a soiled hat, evidently worn by one of the persons, was left behind. Amburn said this was the only good clue but he felt it was one worth while.

Gaining entry through a back window in the bathroom the vandals took an easier way out and left by the back door.

The break-in took place about 5:30 Saturday morning or thereabouts. An electric clock in the beauty shop had been ripped from the wall and had stopped at ten minutes before six.

COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD HAS ROUTINE SESSION MONDAY

The session of the Floyd County School Board Monday morning was brief and only routine matters were considered.

Odell Breed was named a member of the Lakeview School Board to take the place of O. K. Custer, who has moved from the district.

Floydada Independent School District was given permission to buy two 54-passenger school buses through the State Board of Control.

Members of the board present at the meeting held at 9 o'clock Monday morning in the county superintendent's office were Tom Porter, Milton Evans, H. E. Frizzell and Joe Thurston.

All members were present for the first meeting except Shirley Irwin and Mrs. J. L. Self who were unable to attend. The group named Mr. and Mrs. Ned Bradley to assist them with the program and Ned as Master of Ceremonies.

E. L. Gaither Has Enviably Safe Record

(Ed. Note: Elbert L. Gaither, named in the story below, is the son of Mrs. E. B. Mullins of Floydada. When he was growing up here and in his young manhood he was called by the nickname Eb. The award mentioned was given him in the early days of the new year.)

ROSWELL — Elbert L. Gaither, 612 S. Kentucky Ave., has racked up an enviable record for safe driving with the New Mexico Transportation Co. He makes the bus run between Roswell and Pecos, Tex., currently. In 25 years of driving, he's wheeled buses 2,246,015 miles, according to a safe driving card issued him by an insurance company. Actually he's been driving 26 years, so add another hundred thousand miles to that total. That's lots of ground covered.

Gaither says one policy he has had paid off. On the few close calls he's had, he says he'll take the barrow ditch any time rather than risk a head-on collision - if the ditch isn't so steep that his bus would overturn. He cited an experience recently where a car was coming down the highway in the black of night with no lights on. The car driver suddenly switched his lights on just as it was approaching the bus.

"That's always a shock," he said.

Gaither says a bus driver must "drive for the other fellow. This, we'd say, is the basis day to let someone know we're safe driving - driving for yourself and the other fellow, which means, in other words, keeping your eyes and ears open every second you are on the road. The driver who puts 10,000 miles a year on his car would have to drive over 200 years to match Gaither's record with New Mexico Transportation.

Second Story Is First

An architect named Ross Garner designed old Fort English and the City of Bonham, in northeast Texas, still maintains a replica of it.

It is well preserving too, for it quickly catches the eye of all who pass its way.

One can't help but compare this historical building with that of the Leaning Tower of Pisa. Both bring to mind that the builder must have read the architect's plans wrong. Or made some error.

Fort English gives the appearance that its three floors have somehow become confused. The second story is the largest of the three floors and overhangs the main floor, which is the second largest.

One Texas old timer is said to have teased tourists by claiming that one of our Texas Tornadoes caused the two bottom floors to be reversed.

Be watching for further announcements concerning your meeting from time to time as the details are worked out.

FEBRUARY 1962!

 February is always such an interesting month, "weather-wise" and otherwise. We are never quite sure if we should be prepared for a bit of winter, maybe some snow, or spring, or our first taste of ice. Regardless of the weather we do know there are many things to which we always look forward. — Valentine Day, a day to let someone know we love them. And to February falls the honor of commemorating two of America's great words, keeping your eyes and ears open every second you are on the road. The driver who puts 10,000 miles a year on his car would have to drive over 200 years to match Gaither's record with New Mexico Transportation.

Shortsweat Forecast

A softer, more feminine look is due in women's sportswear this season.

Waistlines will be marked, but not cinched.

Expressions of the feminine influence will include ruffles, flounces, frills and fringes. Skirts may have pleats or gentle flares.

Overblouse will be more fitted and a bit shorter.

Knit wear will follow two directions: there will be fine gauge knits as well as bulky textures. Sweaters may be worn tucked in for the first time in a long time.

Stretch fabric will be widely used in pants, jackets, pullovers, skirts and tops.

Colors, which have been on the vivid side, will swing away from the brights toward the darks.

New Publication on Home Decorations

Thinking of redecorating all or part of your home? If you are, you would do well to read a recent publication of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This bulletin "Beautify Your Windows and Glass Walls" deals with the beautification of windows and glass walls, important parts of any room.

There are few set rules for window decoration, but window treatments should help control light and heat as well as enhance the beauty of the room in which they are used. Each window or group of windows challenges its owner to make it contribute to the comfort, utility, beauty and joy of the home.

How is this accomplished? By utilizing the basic art concepts of harmony, proportion, balance, rhythm and emphasis.

When choosing draperies, consider the room proportions, exposure, view, walls, floors, furnishings, accessories and the finished surface which needs to be draped. Remember that the walls and floor form the background, which is the basis for pattern and color selections. A room's location also plays an important role in the selection of color. South and west rooms are usually more pleasant when done in cool, quiet tints, while north and east rooms are better in warm colors.

Valances or cornices can make windows that are too tall or too narrow seem shorter. They may also be used to cover and conceal the rods and fixtures at the top of draperies. Lighting fixtures may be installed behind them to add soft lighting to the room.

There are myriads of combinations for decorating rooms and each person must choose the one that is most pleasing personally. Before you make your choice, however, get a free copy of "Beautify Your Windows and Glass Walls" from my office.

Agent in Training

Jorja Hue Blackman began her work as Agent-in-training in Floyd County last week. She will be here for three months. Jorja Hue is a former 4-H girl from Shallowater. She graduated from Texas Tech mid-term of this year. We hope you will meet Jorja Hue while she is here.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

By Cecil Lewis

Floyd County Junior Fat Stock Show will be held March 5, 6, 7.

March 5, activities include weighing and sifting to begin at 1:00 p. m.

March 6, judging day with barrow judging to begin at 9:00 a. m., lamb judging at 1:00 p. m. and steer judging at 3:00 p. m.

March 7, will be sale day and will begin at 1:15 p. m.

Two outstanding judges have been selected to judge this year's show. T. D. Tanksley, Jr., Extension Animal Husbandman from College Station, will judge the barrows. "Tank," as he is called, has judged at some of the outstanding barrow shows including the world series of swine barrow shows, the National barrow show at Austin, Minnesota.

Douglas Wythe, the livestock judging team coach at Texas A & M College will judge the lambs. Mr. Wythe's judging teams have placed high at many shows.

The two judges will work as a team to place steers. Gerald Lackey, is president of this year's Floyd County Junior Fat Stock Show.

Eldon Fortenberry who has served very capably in the past will again serve as general superintendent.

The stock show officials are again looking for a very good show.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Burns returned home Sunday night from a skiing trip to Red River over the weekend, where they found excellent condition for the winter sport. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Neil Smith of Plainview.

The new size Dodge Dart has the most powerful standard six engine in the business. It develops 145 horsepower from 225 cubic inches. It takes a V8 in other cars priced near Dart to keep up with it. Even then most of them can't. Dead weight and useless overhang have been all but eliminated in the '62 Dart. What results is an astonishing power-to-weight ratio that makes a Dart-6 act like an eight. And remember, this is the same six that got better than 23 miles to the gallon in last year's Mobilgas Economy Run. Frankly, we don't think anybody but a pro can get this kind of mileage. But it does give you an idea of the engine's potential. Repeated tests in the new size Dart prove that it will deliver at least 5% better gas economy than last year. See your Dodge Dealer now and drive the new size Dodge Dart. There's no better value on the market today.

Plainview Production Credit Assn. Sees Good Year in 1962

An excellent outlook for agricultural credit in 1962 for an eight-county area of the High Plains has been forecast by an official of the Plainview Production Credit Association, in a report of 1961 activities of the agricultural credit organization, made last week.

"Credit outlook for 1962 is excellent," Olan Alexander, general manager of the Plainview Production Credit Association, stated. "Our farmers in this area made one of the best crops in history and are in the best financial position they have been in a long time."

Alexander said that most of them are investing profits in land and new equipment and expanding their farming operations.

"We are expecting to loan between forty and fifty-five million dollars during 1962," Alexander said.

The Plainview Production Credit Association, the nation's largest in loan volume, had one of its brightest years in 1961. Loan volume totalled $37,000,000 which was then an all-time record for the association.

Number of loans increased from 1385 in 1960 to 1,589 in 1961. Association stockholders increased from 1,685 in 1960 to 1,742 in 1961.

The association has loaned $206,912,900 to area farmers and ranchers in its 28-year history.

The home-owned and operated Plainview Production Credit Association provides short and intermediate - term agricultural credit in Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Bailey, Lamb, Hale and Floyd counties. Alexander pointed out that the $37,000,000 in loans made by the association in 1961 represents new money put into circulation in the area, providing a healthy boost to the area's economy.

Ample loan funds are available from the nation's commercial money market through the Intermediate Credit Bank in Houston, discount agency for all 26 associations in Texas.

"Our association has but one reason for its existence and that is to serve as a dependable agricultural credit source," Alexander explained. He pointed out that the association's directors, two of whom are members of the loan committee, as farmers and ranchers themselves, are thoroughly familiar with agricultural conditions and problems throughout the area.

"We want to help each of our borrowers make more money in his operation through the application of sound credit practices," he said.

Central office of the association is in Plainview and field offices are operated in Friona, Dimmitt, Tulia, Silverton, Muleshoe, Littlefield and Floydada.

BROADWAY, February 5 — Once again we enjoyed a very lovely week, as most of last week was warm and sunny. This Monday morning the wind is high out of the East and fairly cold. The weather man tells us it will be quite cold this night.

Mrs. M. R. Givens and Mrs. Cleve Maize were callers of Mrs. Starrett (Aunt Dodie) in a convalescent home in Lubbock Monday last week.

Sunday School and Church attendance was good Sunday considering the fact that there is still so much sickness in the community. Mickey Givens and Tommy Thornhill were among those who had to miss some school last week, due to illness.

Wednesday night of last week Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Rainbolt and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Thornhill enjoyed several games of 84 with Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Thornhill, Marcia, Doug, and Jan Rainbolt enjoyed TV with Tommy Thornhill at the same time. Friday night the A. L. Winegars came over to the D. D.'s and again we enjoyed games of 84.

Mrs. Keltan Winegar, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Spence visited a short while Thursday afternoon with S. H. Starrett in Lubbock. Mrs. D. D. Thornhill, Mrs. M. R. Givens and son, Mickey enjoyed viewing the art work of Mrs. Flora Lembley at her home in Crosbyton Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Homer Smith of Crosbyton and Mr. M. R. Givens spent the day Friday with Mrs. D. D. Thornhill, where the ladies were quite busy sewing. They were making a suit for Mrs. Smith. This suit is special as the material is a gift to Mrs. Smith from her sister, Mrs. Shady Woods of Houston. M. R. Givens also came over for dinner. After school, Teddy, Preston and Mickey Givens, and Miss Bessie Smith were visitors. Most any way one could look last week there was a tractor going. The farmers were making good use of the pretty weather.

Arvis Moore visited awhile Tuesday in the home of his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mack Moore and baby son, Scotty.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Spence of Floydada had as their callers Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Thornhill and Mr. and Mrs. Keltan Winegar.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank every one that we contacted on the Mothers March of Dimes Drive for their contribution. To we didn't see nearly all members of the community, we hope you were able to give your donation through other channels. Our community is fairly large and quite scattered so we worked until we had to get some people out of bed. We hope they will forgive us for that.

Mrs. Kenneth Havens and baby daughter, as well as family, have been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Rathel, since Mrs. Havens and baby came home from the hospital.

The new home that has been moved over to the W. H. Rathel farm, for Lee Roy Rathel and his bride to be Miss Yvonna Marley, seems to be about ready for occupancy.

Jerry Withers Of Arlington, Passed Jan. 28

H. A. (Jerry) Withers, brother of L. G. Withers, passed January 28 at 2:30 a.m. in a Fort Worth hospital.

Mr. Withers was a former Floyd County resident, having lived in Floydada from 1928 until 1932, and was in the cafe business here with his brother.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Shipley Withers, and two sons, H. A. Withers, Jr. and Dan Withers, of Fort Worth.

John R. Shipley and Frank Shipley, the latter of Clovis, N. Mex., attended the funeral service which was held January 29 in Moore's Funeral Chapel, Arlington Cemetery at Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Withers and daughters, Wanda and Mary Alice left Floydada to attend the funeral but developed car trouble and failed to reach Arlington in time.

Mrs. R. M. Spence to Lubbock, Thursday of last week where Mr. Spence was to have seen a Nose Specialist, but due to the doctor being ill, they will see him this Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keltan Winegar were Sunday dinner guests of the T. E. Thornhills.

Spikes Add Spice to Ensemble Despite Dangers

With Female Wearers Hereabouts

By Peggy Medley

Whatever the case may be, women love the tiny high heels, danger or not.

Not saying high heels will cause one to fall but a spike is not much of a foundation, say for instance when a hundred and fifty pound woman stands on a three inch spike and expects to keep her balance, especially stepping up and down on curbs.

At the Game on Stilts

I have seen - and I'm guilty myself - women at football games and other sports, walking along the ramps in high fashion, maybe carrying an in-woman lose balance while faint, and on stilts. The Floydada Homecoming game cured me of wearing them to such activities.

I swear I had my footing and was walking down the ramp with as much grace as possible and carrying my camera, when from out of nowhere someone or something tripped me. When I stopped tumbling I had ruined a pair of hose, skinned both knees that required treatment, besides the embarrassment of falling in the day time in front of thousands of Floydada fans. Believe it or not the spike heels were not damaged so they must be put on to stay.

I myself love them, as I find every fashion minded person does. But since my incident I feel there must be a time and place to wear them.

Women not only find them good to look at but say they are comfortable walking shoes. True they may be, but not long ago I came out of a business place wearing what used to be called a saucy city slicker. A sensible shoe, wedged high heel with glove leather top. A prominent Floydada man who knew me just as a local resident, paid me a compliment that will make thoseband that discovered them. You shoes always my favorite walking shoes.

He said his "good morning" then out of the blue, "Those are the most sensible looking shoes I have seen on a woman's foot in many a year."

It makes one feel good to be admired but to wear shoes for comfort and not for looks and still receive compliments and from a man, makes one wonder if the spike heels are here to stay. Most men (not men fashion experts) say not if they have anything to do with it.

5,000 Autos Not Inspected His Estimate

Less than thirty per cent of the registered vehicles in this area have been safety inspected for 1962, according to Patrolman J. R. Whitmire Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

With the April 15 deadline for having the vehicles checked, approaching, this means there are approximately 3,000 vehicles in Floyd County remaining to be inspected by the twelve approved inspection stations available.

Many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline draws nearer, due to the inspection stations not being able to cope with this large number.

The patrolman urged drivers to have their vehicles inspected as soon as possible to avoid this last minute rush. In addition, he reminded drivers that this time of the year is noted for adverse weather conditions which prevents the inspection stations from checking the vehicles.

"Passenger cars are inspected for brakes, lights, reflectors, horn and windshield wipers; while commercial vehicles are inspected for the above plus additional items required by law," Patrolman Whitmire said. "All motorists not displaying a valid 1962 inspection sticker by April 15 will be in violation of state law."

Patrolman Whitmire named the following as official inspection stations in Floyd County:

Floydada: Bishop Motor Co., City Auto Service, Daniel Automobile, Oden Chevrolet Co., Spears Auto Co., Sparks Auto Service, Ted Allen Auto Service, Lockney Bacus Motor Co., High Plains Motor Co., Inc., Lockney Auto Co., Poole's Auto Service, Aiken: Aiken Garage.

J. T. McLain, were wed in a candlelight ceremony on Sunday evening. The couple will make their home in Floydada.

Work of building the extension to the city light and power plant foundation and the cooling tower basin for it will start in about four weeks.

Biggest news for Floyd County people this week is that telephone service for all who want it on an area-wide basis is going to become a reality soon. This was the forecast last fall. Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. officials have plans all made and will put sollicitors into the field soon out of the Floydada extension and this is to be followed by a campaign as soon as practicable out of Lockney exchange.

DOUGHERTY, February 5 — The Dougherty School has had seven new pupils enroll since January 1. The present enrollment is 55.

The Rev. Jim Dewese conducted services at the local church morning and evening Sunday. There were 34 present for the morning service and 24 for the evening service.

Saturday afternoon the Neff farm house in the Antelope community was destroyed by fire. The house was vacant and a quantity of cotton seed was stored in it. Presumably it caught from a weed fire.

With the favorable weather of the past week local farmers were busy ploughing, shredding stalks and several were working on irrigation plants. As usual there have been a few farm sales in the county although none in this immediate vicinity. The attendance at such sales is reported to be large and excellent sales.

A few crews of Latin Americans are picking up cotton left by machine harvesting. While it varies from field to field a bale per 15 acres is approximately average. The cotton is a fair quality. Definite days have not been set for ginning at the Darty gin but is ginned as enough cotton is delivered to the gin yard to make it practical.

The Dougherty Home Demonstration Club will entertain the members and their husbands with a 42 party at the P. C. A. Party Room on the evening of February 5. Refreshments of assorted tid-bits will be served during the evening.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — A hectic final night have provided money to advertise the special session of the Texas Legislature. Two major problems — loan regulation and appropriations — were left unfinished.

Senate killed the loan regulatory bill by a two-vote margin, after the House had approved it by 18 votes. It was described by experts as the strongest loan regulatory law in the nation.

Death came to the appropriations bill in the House. It would

Governor Daniel studied a flood of mail, telegrams and phone calls, which he had elicited, and decided that there was a definite public demand for him to try to become Texas' first four-term governor.

WHO SHOULD CENSOR? — Question of school book censorship was buffeted about by 22 witnesses, when the House Textbook Investigating Committee held its fourth weekly public hearing.

Frank Wardlaw, director of the University of Texas Press, said, "There are no men wise enough to serve as censors." He stated that he would prefer that his children's textbooks be censored by authoritative professors, rather than by unqualified individuals.

Author J. Frank Dobie said "the more textbooks are censored, the weaker they become."

The opinion that regulation of teaching materials by elected trustees has worked satisfactorily was expressed by former Baylor University trustee Joseph M. Dawson.

Other witnesses, such as Mrs. A. A. Forester of Texarkana, Richard L. Harvey of Tyler and M. F. Gabler of Hawkins, criticized the Board of Education's formula for censorship. They said they firmly believe that modern textbooks fail to instill a sense of patriotism and love of country.

Committee will hold another hearing February 9.

NAMES IN THE HAT — With the special session of the Texas Legislature ended, candidates for state offices quickly grabbed the spotlight.

Most surprising announcement was the filing of former Gen. Edwin A. Walker as a Democratic candidate for governor.

Then came Gov. Price Daniel's statement that he would seek re-election to a fourth term as governor.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler predicted that Daniel would run again, and cancelled his tentative plans to seek that post. Instead, he announced for re-election.

Attorney General Will Wilson said failure of the loan shark bill to pass was the determining point in his decision to file as candidate for governor.

John Connally, already actively campaigning for the office of governor, came to Austin to pay his $1,000 filing fee and left immediately on a flying organizational trip to West Texas.

Gubernatorial candidate Marshall Formy opened state headquarters in Austin. He appointed Dr. James B. Ray of Austin, Wendell Gambill, Dr. Joe Webb and Clint Formy to organize his campaign.

Don Yarborough, Houston attorney, paid Austin a visit to announce his candidacy for governor.

So far, the only Republican contender for governor is Jack Cox of Breckenridge.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White filed for re-election to the post he has held since 1950. White said 1962 should be a turning point in achieving greater self-determination for farmers and ranchmen.

J. Evetts Haley of Canyon is the only other announced candidate for commissioner of agriculture.

Other candidates for state-wide offices flooded the State Democratic Central Committee headquarters.

William G. Street of Littlefield, filed for associate justice of the Supreme Court, Place Three, against incumbent Judge Zollie Steakley. Judge Meade Griffin, who holds Place One on the Supreme Court, drew Jesse Owens of Amarillo as an opponent. As of Saturday Judge James R. Norvell had no opponent in his campaign for re-election to Place Two on the court.

County Judge Woodrow W. Bean of El Paso; Warren G. Moore of Tyler; and Manley Head of Austin, filed for Congressman-at-large.

Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan, Court of Criminal Appeals and justice, joined the attorney general race.

Immediately after the House passed the loan bill, Speaker of the House James A. Turman announced for lieutenant governor.

That brought the total of democrats running for the second top spot to six: Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock; Sen. Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro; Sen. Robert W. Baker of Houston; Sen. Jarrard Secrest of Temple and former representative Gene Smith of Fort Worth, plus Turman.

There was activity on the Republican side, too.

O. W. (Bill) Hayes of Temple and Kellis Dibrell of Seguin both filed as candidates for lieutenant governor. Dibrell practices law in San Antonio. Hayes is vice president of Continental Belton Company in Belton. Both are 43 years old.

Earlier, two other Republicans had filed for the same office—Congressman-at-large. They were Giles E. Miller, Dallas publisher, and Desmond Barry, Houston industrialist.

SUGGESTS FORUM — Tom Reavley, Austin attorney running for attorney general, suggested joint appearances for himself and opponents, Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, Les Procter of Austin, Tom James of Dallas and Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan.

"Joint appearances of the candidates will bring the issues and the candidates squarely before the people of Texas," he said.

To determine whether or not she has rheumatoid arthritis, Barbara Singleton, 10, gives blood sample to medical technician at a March of Dimes-supported clinic. Each year 30,000 children are afflicted.

Governor Price Daniel announced the appointment of Rep. H. Dewey Jr. of Bryan to the executive committee of the Southern Regional Education Board.

In another appointment, Governor Daniel named J. Walter Friberg, Wichita Falls attorney, as district judge to fill the unexpired term of newly-elected Congressman Graham B. Purcell Jr.

State Highway Commission ordered State Engineer D. C. Greer to start plans for a four-lane highway to serve the NASA space center in Harris County.

Assistant Attorney General Gordon C. Cass resigned effective March 1 to practice law in Langasas.

Fairview News

By Mrs. Clyde Bagwell
FAIRVIEW, February 5 — February is here and the groundhog saw his shadow. Many special days come in this month. Lincoln's birthday, Valentine's day and Washington's birthday. February makes a good party month so many things to use for decorations and table favors.

Even though this is a short month it is a very busy one for us all. The farmers do a lot of field work this time of year. This is the month to trim trees and shrubs and put out certain flowers and bulbs.

Our weather has been beautiful for the past ten days but has changed some this morning. A cold north wind is blowing and the report is it will get colder by tomorrow.

Visitors last week in the Galen Holland home were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopper on Thursday and Friday Mrs. E. W. Walls visited in the afternoon.

Mrs. C. W. Payne spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Clyde Bagwell.

Thursday night guests in the Clyde Bagwell home were Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls. The group enjoyed games of 84.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndal Carey and Carolyn and Mrs. Roy Meek went to Anson Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carey. They also visited in Hamlin with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wigginton. Mrs. Wigginton is Lyndal Carey's aunt. On the return home the above group came by Lake Stamford and stopped for awhile.

Mrs. W. U. Riggles, of Floydada, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wise.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wise visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edell DuBois Friday.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edell DuBois were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McMeans, of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Bud DuBois and family, of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill DuBois and sons, of Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Irwin and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Helms and family Saturday night. They enjoyed games of 84 together.

Mrs. R. R. Waller and Mrs. Shirley Irwin and children went to Lubbock Saturday shopping.

Lee Rushing went to Houston Tuesday to move his daughter, Dorothy, here. They arrived home Sunday morning. Dorothy will later move her things on to Amarillo where she will make her home after her marriage Saturday to Bob Poe.

Dorothy Rushing has made her home in Houston for a number

Pioneer West Texan Passes At Lewisville

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. (Joe) Green of Lewisville were in this area last week for the funeral of Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. Laura J. Young, 98 year old former resident of Floyd County. Mrs. Young died Friday, Jan. 26 at Lewisville after an illness of two weeks.

Graveside rites were conducted on the 28th at Kress, her former home. The deceased was a native of Texas born in Van Zandt County. She had been a member of the Church of Christ over 80 years.

She and her husband settled in Lockney around 1904 living there several years before going to Kress. Her husband, T. F. Young, died 30 years ago and was buried at Kress.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Green of Lewisville, who along with her husband were early day residents of Floyd County; and Mrs. William Hill of Georgetown; two brothers, Lee Flowers of Houston and O. K. Flowers of Stephenville; two sisters, Mrs. Belle Wilson of Lubbock and Mrs. Fannie Robinson of Detroit; and several grandchildren.

The daughter's husband, Joe Green, was once an employee of The First National Bank.

The Greens were guests here for a short time with Mr. Green's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Green and at Lubbock with a son while in West Texas.

4-H Club January Meeting Held

Floydada 4-H Club met in the Home Demonstration Room of the County Court House on January 16 at 7:00 p.m.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Doris Fawver. The 4-H pledge was given by Billy Finley and the motto by Jimmy James.

Mrs. James Lovell announced the 4-H demonstration contest to be held April 21.

The program was a movie on "Rescue Breathing" shown by Miss Phyllis Roggendorf.

Allen Fawver read the minutes.

Mrs. Gilbert Fawver served refreshments and Jimmy James conducted games. There was 100 per cent attendance.

Dedicate Catholic Church At Lockney

The San Jose de Calazan Catholic Church, located in East Lockney, was dedicated Sunday afternoon of last week in a formal ceremony. Bishop John L. Marquassi of Amarillo led the benediction and dedication and concluded services with High Mass. Pastor of the Lockney Church is Rev. John Jose Magana.

The new church building was completed last fall and is now completely furnished. It is of concrete tile with brick front. The land site on which the church stands was given by Mrs. R. C. Wilson.

PAMPA MAN TAKES PLACE IN LOCAL AUTO AGENCY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Turner and children are new residents of Floydada, having moved here last week from Pampa. Turner is associated with his father, V. D. Turner and brother-in-law, Leroy Burns at City Auto Service. He was formerly with International Harvester in Pampa.

The family consists of Mrs. Turner, the former Louise Pritchitt and two children Kelly and Karen. Mrs. Turner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Pritchitt of South Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall of Hereford and their daughter, Mrs. Louie Womble and little son, Dusty of Lubbock, were weekend guests in Floydada of Mrs. R. F. Hall.

Basketball Season Nears End

Title May Be On Game Today Night

Next week will see the end of the basketball season as the teams fortunate to win playoff spots will meet in the hardwood.

Qualifications will continue until the elimination of the teams is named for both boys and girls in each division will come in early.

Winds and whirllets of games left on schedule. Tomorrow night is the last home game when the boys meet Olton (Feb. 9). On Feb. 10, February 13, the girls go to Lockney for the regular season.

The girls seem to have defended their district play-off. 2AA and Abernathy are in contention for the boys much will ride on between Floydada and Lockney on February 13.

Flash-O-Gas and Muleshoe. In Floydada came out to remain in a first place with Lockney.

The "Villager" is the model name for this new luxury Mercury Comet compact station wagon. Simulated wood paneling and railings for the full length of the sides and the tailgate give the compact wagon highly distinctive styling. The Comet Villager also has luxury interior trim and offers optional bucket front seats with a dividing storage console. Production of the Villager will start in February as a mid-model-year addition to the Mercury Comet line.
