And still the anvil chorus of the Republican clatters on, abusing the New Deal. When they get it into their dense skulls that nobody, not even the staunchest supporter of the administration, admits it to be a flawless program, and that it is only a sincere effort to reach the needy, the better off everybody will be. Some of those wisacres should run for president—they'll get an idea of just how popular they are.

The textile strike lacked a whole lot of being an unanimous affair, and seemed to rile the leaders, who refuse to mediate until every worker quits his loom. This condition shows that SOME workers are content—even with a half loaf.

"Woman, 101, Finds Flaw in New Deal," reads a headline. It forgot to state whether the "deal" was the recovery program or a bridge game.

Bridge, by the way is a funny game. It's accountable for more skinned shins than football. We once saw a happy couple who verged on the brink of divorce over mere mention of the game. They were out riding and noticed a Hereford bull, all by itself, so helpless looking. "Wonder where's its mammy?" said the wife. "Over on the other side of the pasture playing bridge," said her husband. They glared at each other for a month.

Whenever one is alluded to as "Half Pint," we wonder if it means their stature, or their party capacity.

With such conflicting stories by woman and passengers, it's doubtful if the true version of the Morro Castle fire will ever be unearthed. Those who have travelled by steamship, and know what "last night" parties are, have an idea as to how it could have happened.

Amused at an account of the reception in honor of Dr. Brinkley on his recent arrival in Del Rio. One of the decorative effects was a boat in replica "with the American flag in the stern, the Brinkley flag on the main mast." Goat, glands, "never-thing," we suppose.

Those who don't take much stock in movement for boys—we have the Boy Scout movement in mind—will be surprised to know that such training as they receive saved a human life last week, here in Sanderson. One youth riding the running board of a car was brushed against a barbed wire fence, his leg all but severed from his body. A companion sensing the seriousness of the wound and the danger of death from loss of blood, stripped his shirt, made a tourniquet and stopped the free bleeding—and saved a life.

HOUSTON AND SAN ANTONIO OTHER BIDDERS. GROUNDS OF STATE FAIR WILL HOUSE MAMMOTH EXPOSITION

3 CITIES MAKE BIDS

Dallas was named the central exposition city for the Texas Centennial celebration to be held in commemorating Texas 100th anniversary as an independent state.

The choice was made last Sunday at a gathering of representative men and women, who had visited Dallas, Houston and San Antonio—the three cities submitting bids to bring the central exposition to their respective cities.

Dallas, according to announcement of those selecting the key-city, was chosen due to the fact that it offered the largest cash consideration, and the best physical equipment for such a celebration—the State Fair grounds and buildings. Added to these advantages is the fact that, geographically, Dallas is better situated for the convenience of the millions of visitors who will be drawn to Texas by this exposition. It is evident, also that Dallas is ready to start preparations for the enterprise at once.

Headquarters for the Centennial Commission will be transferred immediately to Dallas, with offices in the Baker hotel. George Waverly (Continued on page 4)

Commissioners in Session

County Judge G. J. Henshaw presided at the regular session of commissioners' court held Monday, with but two of the four commissioners present, W. E. Stirman of precinct 1, and R. E. Fred of precinct 4. Routine business was attended to, and the court also approved the county budget plan outlined by Judge Henshaw, and approved the tax rolls as reported by Jim Nance, assessor.

Attends Drought Relief Sessions

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr were visitors in San Angelo for several days this week, where Mr. Kerr attended the Six-State drought relief conference which was held in that city Monday afternoon and Tuesday of this week.

FEDERAL BUYING AFFECTS BEEF HERDS

By J. A. McNAUGHTON

Los Angeles, Sept. 10.—Recent figures on the number of cattle in the United States continue to show a decline in the percentage of beef cattle as compared with all cattle.

In 1920 there were 36,728,000 beef cattle in the United States and 32,145,000 dairy cattle; 53% of all cattle being beef types. In 1924 there were 28,259,000 beef cattle and 39,093,000 dairy cattle, the beef cattle percentage of the total cattle being 42%. These figures will be changed by the federal purchase of drought cattle, which depends a great deal upon the feed situation, and the percentage of beef cattle of the total number of cattle will be reduced further as the bulk of the drought purchases are beef cattle.

The bulk of dairy cattle find their way into beef channels, so naturally the increased number of dairy cattle has a very direct influence upon the volume of beef supplies. There is considerable divergence of opinion as to cattle price trends in the next several months. The dominating factor is the federal purchase of drought cattle. In some quarters it is predicted that purchases may go as high as from ten to twelve million head, a very substantial part of our total beef cattle. In viewing future cattle prices

First Gridiron Tilt Next Friday

Youth Seriously Injured When Car Runs Into Fence

Last Saturday about noon, while riding on the running board of a small Ford truck, Eugene Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kelly, had the misfortune to have his left leg cut above the knee.

In company with a bunch of boys Eugene was riding on the running board of the truck which was driven by "Tunny" Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, and the boys were hauling rock. In some manner the truck was driven too near a barbed wire fence with the result that Eugene's leg was almost severed from his body. The wound was about 4 inches wide and was cut to the bone, with the main artery just being missed. He was rushed into town and taken to his home by his frightened companions.

Upon being rushed to the office of Dr. Sharp it was found that numerous stitches were required to close the wound.

Reports from his bedside are that he is getting along as well as can be expected under the circumstances and while suffering from shock and loss of blood it is thought that the injured lad will not suffer the loss of his leg. He will be confined to his bed for many months.

Relief Checks Mailed

Relief checks in an amount a little less than $2,000,000 were mailed out from the office of state director Adam R. Johnson. This amount, it was stated, exhausts all available relief funds until state funds available by the recent action of the Texas legislature comes to the rescue. For this reason county relief agencies were advised to "conserve these funds, but at the same time, do not allow the people to suffer. Terrell's allotment was not learned, but L. A. Lowe, in charge of county relief stated the number on the rolls had somewhat decreased.

MARFA FIRST VICTIM

COACH SMITH'S EAGLES OPEN SEASON HERE ON SEPT. 21; SEVERAL NEW FACES ON THE SQUAD THIS YEAR.

The Eagles, football team of the Sanderson high school, have been driving at full speed for the past two weeks, conditioning themselves for the opening game of the season next Friday afternoon, when they will endeavor to claw their initials on the Shorthorns from Marfa high.

Looking the squad over, the opinion is that Sanderson will be ably qualified to take care of laurels already won on the gridiron. They form a pretty well balanced line-up, with one or two fleet-footed men who are going to be hard to head off in an open field.

Coach Duane Smith, who is working as hard as his charges each afternoon, is pleased with the showing of the squad. "Most of my men are experienced players," the coach said, "they are whipping into shape nicely, and the new men are rounding into shape in fine order."

This year has one advantage over other years, in that 23 men showed up for the opening workouts, providing ample material for real scrimmages. This not only gives them conditioning exercises, but it enables them to better learn signals and their execution.

New members of the squad are Woodrow Mason, Bob Lea, Nelson Billings, Richard Haley, Hollis Haley and Albert Appel. Roy Deaton, rangy end, has been shifted to center, seems to have found his niche at that position, his passing is accurate. In the backfield there are Newton, Sullivan, Halley and Bays Robertson, plenty of brains, all fast, and all with several years' experience. Newton will direct the plays, punt and assist in the passing game.

In the line the Eagles have Mussey, Jack Deaton, Litton and Lochausen. Carson Durbin, a member of last year's squad, is expected to arrive this week.

Workouts so far have been featuring signal work, and one new shift for offensive play.

Tax Assessments For 1934 Approved

Tax Assessor Jim Nance has completed the tax rolls for 1934, and on Monday of this week his report was received and approved at a regular session of the commissioners' court.

The figures show a decrease of $34,600 in county property valuation over 1933, the renditions for last year showing property valuations in the sum of $4,888,876.00. This year the total is given as $4,854,276.00.

The total of state taxes assessed on the 1934 rolls amount to $35,680.97; while county taxes for this year total $54,771.98. Poll taxes listed for collection amount to $1,235.50, dividend (Continued on page 4)

5,967 HEAD ARE PURCHASED OR SLAUGHTERED DURING THE TWO MONTHS CAMPAIGN; NO LIGHT ON FUTURE PLANS.

PROGRAM HELD UP

Capt. L. E. Bailey, of Ft. Stockton, county director, phoned to the office of Joe Kerr Wednesday, he had received instructions to stop buying cattle on the government's drought relief plan. Just how long the program of purchasing will be held up was not stated, nor was any reason given why the Federal government had halted the campaign, as plans were but recently made to take care of all cattle purchased.

Compilations at the local office show that, up to date, a total of 5,967 head of cattle had been purchased in Terrell county, and that checks totaling $65,876.00 were received in payment of same.

Deputies Puncture Auto Tires Arrest Three Hijack Suspects

TRIO OF EMBRYO BANDITS ARE TRANSFERRED TO THE VAL VERDE JAIL AFTER ARREST NEAR DRYDEN.

One crime wave had short shift in this county Wednesday evening when deputies from the office of Sheriff Cook, attempted to halt an automobile near Dryden, answering the description of a car in which a filling station at Comstock. They refused to halt, but stopped suddenly after the deputies unlimbered a sub-machine rifle and shot off one of the wheels and punctured the gas tank. Thus ended the crime career of three youths, one of them a young woman, who wielded a small revolver, al la Bonnie Parker. Jim Nance and C. M. Blackwell made the arrest.

Brought to Sanderson and lodged in jail, the trio gave their names as Marian Young, John Zetterstrom, both of Bellville, N. J., and Alfred Radlay of Akron, Mich.

Took Shot at Deputy

Questioned at the jail they admitted holding up the filling station. A search revealed but $9.20, and a small automatic, in possession of the woman.

"What's this," asked one of the officers, as he handled the tiny pistol. "That's a gun," said the woman, "and I took a shot at you with it when you tried to flag us down."

"Well," grinned the deputy, "if you hit me I never noticed it."

Radlay, it seems, got into the mess with his fingers crossed, according to the woman's story. "He was a hitch hiker," she explained. "He thumbed us down out of San Antonio. After he heard us planning on robbing the station he readily fell in with our plans, and from then on it was 'all for one, and one for all.'" According to her story Radlay, wielded the gun in the hold-up at Comstock.

A pint bottle in which a little liquor still remained was found in the car, probably the impetus for their foolhardy crime.

The car belonged to a sister of Zetterstrom in New Jersey, and according to officers was easily described and recognized.

As the offense was committed in Val Verde county, Sheriff Steinmetz of Del Rio, accompanied by Capt. Barler of the customs service, arrived on the midnight train and took the youthful trio to the Val Verde bastle, where they will have plenty of time to ponder the phrase that crime doesn't pay.

Sheep and Goat Buying Starts 17th

The federal sheep and goat purchasing program will get under in Terrell county next Monday, Sept. 16, according to Joe Kerr, county director, who returned from San Angelo Wednesday, and where he attended the Six-State drought conference Tuesday.

Mr. Kerr stated that information was given to those at the meeting that the buying program will be on lines similar to the cattle purchasing campaign—that is, on a quota basis. It was announced, also, that shorn sheep and goats would be purchased later, but at present only ewes and nannies one year and over will be purchased. Mr. Kerr also stated that "sorters" had been selected, but their names were not made public, and it would probably be the last of the week before it will be known who has been named "sorter" for Terrell county.

This county has in excess of 63,000 head of sheep and 15,000 goats listed for purchase.

Lamb Shipments Heavy for Week

Shipments of spring lambs from this section continue heavy, and the buyers have about cleaned up the ranges of all marketable animals. The heaviest shipment since the last report was from Sanderson Monday, when a trainload of 28 cars left here consigned to points in California, Arizona and the Panhandle. Ten or twelve cars of this shipment were picked up at Marathon. In it were 4 cars, for Smart & Howells, Alrich, Arizona; 10 cars to Quality Sheep company in Sarcrosa, Calif., and 14 cars shipped by Dick Norris, consigned to Bond & Son, Boise, Texas.

On the same day Russell Menzies of Sanderson shipped 2 cars of lambs to St. Joseph, Mo.

Wednesday W. M. Edwards, Pecos county rancher, shipped 6 cars of lambs from this place, consigned to Fort Worth markets.

Several of our ranchmen have now disposed of their lambs, or at least those they intended to sell, and with the government purchase of ewes, one year old and over, range conditions will be considerably relieved in this section.

NEED SPIRIT OF PIONEERS

The government has been pouring out relief funds for two years. There has been an emergency and it was imperative that relief be given millions of people. In this land of plenty no one should go hungry nor be cold for lack of clothes.

But the public relief has been abused, and it is high time that men and women, for their own future welfare, take stock of their situation. We do not want our people to become improvident and shiftless dependents.

Relief workers report that it is difficult or even impossible to induce some persons who are asking for public relief to go to the exertion of planting a garden, or canning vegetables or fruits. Men have been hired to grow community gardens, and women are to be paid for their services in canning the vegetables from these gardens. The canned goods will then be given to people who are in need of food next winter. The garden and canning projects are commendable enterprises. There are families in this country where the mother in the household is ill and who has not the strength or the equipment with which to can vegetables. She and her family must be given food that has been prepared for them.

But, according to reports there are men and women who have the physical strength to plant and care for gardens and the produce from them who simply neglect to do so through shiftlessness. These people will have to be fed; they cannot be allowed to starve, but the brunt of public opinion should bear down heavily on them. It is disgraceful for a person to ask for public charity or to take feed and supplies from public relief agencies who does not actually need them.

The greatest recovery program that could be launched in this country would be to arouse the latent spark of pride in self-support. It is demoralizing to have thousands of people in this state maintained by public charity. We need more of the spirit of the pioneers.—Union, Princeton, Minn.

MORALS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Morals and ethics, say some smart business folks, are something you hear about on Sunday, but you have to forget them Monday. "All right in the pulpit, of course, but they don't apply when you are buying and selling."

Many men say that if they paid strict attention to the rules of honesty they would have to quit business. Some claim it would be impossible to succeed in this world if you tell the whole truth and deceive no one.

"I'd lose orders if I did not some time hand a rake-off to the buyer," salesmen have been known to say.

Possibly a firm or an individual can win a temporary success by these excessive clever methods. But one should not be too confident that such success will last. The merchant who sells you inferior stuff for a good price, without making it clear that it is inferior, often makes money for a time. But some day his customers will wake up to the fact that they are being buncoed. Gradually they disappear and patronize old-fashioned concerns that are more anxious to please their customers than to get rich all at once.

Similarly the salesman who depends on rake-offs and hand-outs, may be known as a tremendous go-getter, for a time. But the concerns that permit their buyers to accept such tips will probably get loaded up with a lot of inferior stuff. The account sold to such houses do not appear to be too good a risk. A trade built up of honest sales, to buyers whose only concern is to get reliable goods at the best possible price, will last longer. Our guess is that when you find a concern that has a substantial business that lasted through the recent hard times, it paid some attention to morals and ethics on days other than Sunday. That's the kind of business that begets lasting success.—Chronicle, Milford, Del.

20 PER CENT FOR TAXES

An illuminating article on the heavy burden of taxation borne by the American people appeared in a recent issue of the United States News, which shows that 20 per cent, or one-fifth, of the entire national income is swallowed up by federal, state and local taxation.

This is more than is spent for food, and much more than is spent for clothing and rent on homes combined. Careful estimates indicate that the average citizen's dollar of income is spent as follows:

Taxes 20c, food 17c clothing 9c, rent 9c, automobile 6c, fuel and light 5c, household furnishings 4c, insurance 3c, medical attention, travel, recreation and the movies, about 2c each; tobacco and laundry 1c each. This leaves about 18c for miscellaneous expense and savings. These figures are averages, and vary greatly according to individual incomes and spending habits.

Persons who own little or no property may imagine that they do not contribute much in the way of taxes, but it should be borne in mind that all taxes are finally passed on to the ultimate consumer of goods or services.

The nation's tax bill is now more than nine billion dollars a year, and the federal government, as well as many state and local governments, are still going farther and farther in debt. What the tax bill will be a little later can only be guessed, but it is sure to be much higher than at present if government spending on its present lavish scale continues.

Still continues uncomfortably warm, with no prospects of rain in this immediate section. But it won't be long before the anvil chorus will be singing "Turn on the Heat."

Don't be afraid to tackle any life-job. We all make mistakes, and mistakes are worth money if the one making them learns anything.

He is no fool who displaces ignorance with knowledge. So take full advantage of that greatest of American institutions—the free public school system—where all may drink at the knowledge fountain, as yet unsullied by political influences, and unmarred by ethics which places one class above another. It's the real starting point whereby the highest national goal may be reached.

Fee Payments at U. of Texas Made Easy For Students

Austin, Sept. 14.—Another step has been taken by the University of Texas authorities in scaling down registration fees for students. When they register this fall students will pay a general "property" deposit of $7, returnable at the end of the year instead of the numerous laboratory, library and key deposits formerly charged. Deposits formerly included a $6 library deposit and deposits for various laboratory courses, each amounting to several additional dollars. The whole general property tax will be returned to the student at the end of the year provided no fines for breakage or loss of laboratory equipment or keys, or abuse of library privileges have accumulated. This must not be confused with the regular laboratory fees, which are still payable.

This fall all fees will be payable at registration, September 19 and 20, with the exception of the registration fee itself, only half being due this fall and the remainder being due at the beginning of the second semester. Thus a student whose residence is in Texas and consequently is charged the minimum registration fee of $50 per long session, will find it necessary to pay, at registration, the following sums: Registration, $25; general property deposit, $7; physical training for men, $2; or for women, $3.50; making a total for men of $34; for women $35.50. Should the student register for laboratory courses he will also have to pay a laboratory fee of $2 for each three-hour course, making a total of $36, or $37.50.

In addition there is an optional $3 hospitalization fee and an optional $10.50 student activity fee. Should the student decide to pay both of these and be registered for one laboratory course, he will have a total enrollment charge of $49.50, if a man or $51 if a woman.

It is imperative that any student proposing to enter the University have sufficient cash on hand to pay all his fees. Since all fees are payable at registration, no student is considered enrolled in the University until he has paid his fees.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Doty left Sunday for San Antonio where they spent this week visiting their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doty, and where they were called on account of the illness of Mrs. Henry Doty.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Green and family over the week end were her mother, Mrs. W. E. Bell, her sister, Mrs. Nona Hollebeke and daughter, Mary Bell, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ford Bell and daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, of Valentine.

Mrs. Sue Douglas arrived last week from San Antonio and is visiting her brother, Elbert Lea and family.

Football Warmups Now in Full Swing

Austin.—Texas high school gridiron players of more than 400 interscholastic League schools already are in training for their annual attempt at the state championship.

Roy Henderson, League athletic director, this week predicted that there would be an increase over the 400 entrants of last year. With the deadline for registration set for September 15, 366 schools have already signed in classes A, B and C of the League.

Coaches at most schools have conditioned their prospects in outdoor camps, interspersing the regular exercises with fundamental drills.

At Sanderson, where the Times understands, little or no funds are available for athletics, Coach Smith is doing his best to whip available material into shape for their opening game, next Friday, when the Shorthorn squad from Marfa invade Sanderson.

S. Wilson Resumes Duties As Appraiser

Stanley Wilson was scheduled to resume his work as appraiser and buyer of cattle under the drought relief purchase program of the government last Monday morning, according to the Fort Stockton Pioneer. Mr. Wilson was the Pecos county appraiser during the entire time that county was in an area to itself, but for the last few weeks, during which time Terrell and Pecos counties had been grouped for administration, Carl P. Cochran of Sanderson was the appraiser.

Mr. Cochran has resigned as appraiser for the two counties and Mr. Wilson will take over the work, and will spend three days of each week buying in each county.

Mrs. C. W. Newberry and grandsons, Earl and Wallace, enroute to their home in New Orleans, La., spent several days in Sanderson this week. Mrs. Newberry has been in El Paso where she attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. M. Boozer, who recently passed away. She also visited in Arizona and on the west coast.

Alfred E. Creigh, Jr., returned on Tuesday night from an extended visit in Ronceverte, W. Va., with relatives. Mrs. Creigh and son, Al, remained in San Antonio until Thursday night, when they left for Sanderson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John Craig, who will spend the winter here.

Mrs. M. L. Heisler of El Paso is visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. I. Daniels.

Joe Brown at Best "In Circus Clown" At Princess Tonite

The Circus is Coming! Magic words to the kiddies and, we suspect, to most of the grown-ups.
Joe E. Brown is a circus by himself, but when you see him as a member of a real circus, surrounded by all kind of wild animals, acrobats, elephants, "everything, you can figure it's a picture worth seeing. And the "Circus Clown," with Joe in the leading role, is just that. It comes to the Princess tonight and Saturday night.
In one of the scenes ten elephants take part. One kept pulling on Joe, feeling in his pockets. Joe was puzzled until the trainer explained it was the same elephant Joe had fed peanuts to 50 years ago. Joe put in a whole day feeding "Alonzo." But you must remember, Joe has a face that's hard to forget.
In another scene Joe had to enter a cage with the lion. The lion acted funny.
"Go on in," said the trainer, "that lion won't bite you; he was raised on a bottle."
"Oh, yeah," said Joe. Well, so was I—but I eat meat now!

Hints for the Household

Have you ever thought of community-owned household conveniences? Not far from me are three young married women who wanted vacuum cleaners, sewing machines, and washing machines. They could not afford them separately, so, on the suggestion of one, they pooled their funds and got all three!

Their Program
Now Mary uses the vacuum cleaner on Mondays and Tuesdays, the sewing machine on Wednesdays and Thursdays, and the washing machine on Fridays. Helen washes on Tuesdays, cleans house on Wednesday and Thursday, and sews on Friday and Saturday. Jean sews on Monday and Tuesday, washes Wednesday and cleans Friday and Saturday. These housewives have done this for two years now, and say that it has been a perfect arrangement.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

EXECUTIVES OF SHEEP AND GOAT RAISERS NAME DEL RIO FOR MEET

WILL ASK GOVERNMENT AID IN HOLDING UP PRICE OF WOOL AT ANNUAL MEET, DECEMBER 5 AND 6.

Mason, Sept. 6.—The annual convention of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association of Texas will be held in Del Rio December 5 and 6, it was decided at a meeting of the executive committee held here at the court house last Thursday, September 6. T. A. Kincaid, president of the association, and other present said they favored a plan by which the federal government might strengthen the position of the 25 million pounds of unsold wool in Texas and New Mexico, and if necessary purchase it or lend money against it, as has been done for cotton. The ranchmen said rains had been spotted, but that the entire sheep country needs further moisture. It was estimated by visitors here today in the forthcoming sheep and goat buying program that the biggest percentage of the animals would be condemned.

Resolutions Are Passed
Resolutions passed by the body asked that range commission charges on sheep and goats shall not exceed 2 per cent of the sale value of the animals and never in excess of 10 cents a head; thanked the city of Mason, the ranchmen of Mason County, and the Mason hotel for the hospitality and for the banquet that was served in the hotel at noon, asked the relief agencies to permit all sheep and goats purchased and condemned by the government to be buried or burned without the necessity of skinning or pelting the animals or delivering their hides to shipping points.

The ruling today is that such condemned animals must be skinned and the hides delivered to shipping points, a wire from Harry Petrie to the president of the association said. The resolution asked that all wool and mohair shorn from purchased sheep and goats be withheld by the government until such time as it will not disturb the market; also requested that no news items other than those adopted at an executive meeting or an annual convention be printed without consent and approval of the secretary and president.

Newspapers Are Thanked
The same paragraph thanked the official organ of the association, the Southwestern Sheep and Goat Raisers Magazine, and all newspapers for their cooperation. Another asked that executive committeemen in various counties arrange meetings at which representatives of the association would attend seeking members; asked that the legislature pass a bill empowering the Board of Control, acting with the State Highway commission, to buy tracts of land not exceeding 50 acres at various points in the state for highway building and maintenance materials and for livestock hold-over pens. Judge Weaver Baker said the State highway department had spent approximately $680,000 for such building materials last year and that this money could have been used in part in the purchase of such sites containing the materials with no loss of efficiency by the department.

Adoption of a resolution asking the president to appoint a committee to meet in San Angelo to make plans to be presented before the federal officials who will attend the meeting. The following were appointed: Abe Mayer, Fred Earwood, D. T. Jones, T. L. Drisdale, Scott Schreiner, Dolph Briscoe, Aaron Slater, L. A. Clark, Walker White, J. T. Baker, J. T. Davis, Lucius Stephens, Lee Pfluger, Joe Decker, R. G. Armor, P. L. Childress, Captain H. W. Rieck, S. S. Bundy, Sol Mayer, Roger Gillis, Judge J. A. Whitten, Jess Koy, Adolph Steiler, Chas. Canon, Jim Lackey, Price Maddox, Walter Burnett, R. H. Martin.

Resolutions Committee Named
Judge J. A. Whitten offered a resolution of thanks and commendation to Judge Weaver Baker and to Johnny Graham, sheriff of Kimble county, for their work in capturing men accused of sheep, wool and mohair thefts.

Members of the resolutions committee were Weaver Baker, chairman; Abe Mayer, Price Maddox, L. A. Clark, Frank Montague, Sol Mayer and Jack Turner.

The secretary, H. M. Phillips, reported collections of $1,140.99 in the last quarter, with a total of $1,409.96 on hand today. Expenses in the last quarter were $1,481.29.

Roscoe Runge, former member of the legislature and an attorney of Mason, gave the welcome address, with a response by Dr. W. W. Nipper of Brackettville, former president of the Texas Angora Goat Raisers' As-

Deposits in Local Bank Now Insured

The Sanderson State Bank is one of the nation's banks now displaying the "safety emblem," signifying that the deposits of their customers are now fully insured. This sign hangs near the receiving teller's window at the bank, and is reproduced in their announcement on page two of the Times. It protects depositors in a sum up to $5,000.

A statement by the Insurance Corporation regarding the new plan explains: "If, by unforeseen circumstances an insured bank suspends, the Insurance Corporation would begin paying off depositors just as soon as a receiver was appointed for the closed institution. Depositors would receive their money in a few days instead of waiting months or years as was the case in former methods of liquidation."

Freshmen Class Elects
The Freshman class of the Sanderson high school elected officers at a business meeting held last Friday afternoon. The following will serve: Allen Hardgrave, president; Bennie Mussey, vice president; Jimmy Goodykootz, social chairman, and Wesley Lochausen, reporter.

association and an executive committee member.

Discuss Sheep and Goat Buying
The morning was spent in the discussion of the government sheep and goat buying program. The date on which buying will begin seemed uncertain. Counties over the state have been sending in their listings of sheep and goats, and it seems the program will be on a basis of state allotments. Details of the government purchasing plans were deferred until the San Angelo meeting which was to be held early this week.

::: Like to Smile? :::

Victim—Now I've lost my money, and you assured me that horse was going to win in a walk.

Gambler—That was true—but it was a running race.

"Is that parrot your neighbor has a smart bird?"

"Smart—I should say so. The other day when I went up to him and said 'Hello Hello!' he opened one eye and drowsily answered: 'Line's busy'."

"The harder it rains the better I like it," commented the stranger after the drought had been broken by a steady downpour of a week.

"You must be an optimist," commented another.

"No; but I'm an umbrella salesman."

Husband—I understand that old Quiggle is going to pay his creditors 100 cents on the dollar.

Little Wifey—But, dear, why does he want to give them so many pennies?

"Where did Fibson get his training as a war correspondent?"

"He used to be a reporter on a paper in Reno."

Tramp—Kin you let me have a cake of soap, mum?

Housewife—Do you mean to tell me that you really want some soap? Tramp—Yessum! My pardner's got the hiccoughs, and I want to scare him.

Merchant—There goes a married man.

Stranger—How do you know?

Merchant—He used to buy a 3-lb box of chocolates twice a week and now he only buys 10 cents worth of peppermints once a week.

Mrs. Gadder—Does your husband believe in the idea that there are germs in kisses, Mrs. Dillpick?

Mrs. Dillpick—No. He believes that germs are mostly transmitted by the passing of money, and so he very seldom lets me handle any.

They were sitting in an obscure corner of a porch. For a long time neither of them had spoken. Suddenly he took her little hand in his. His voice was choked with emotion as he blurted out: "Phoebe, do you think you could ever learn to love a man?"

"Yes," she breathed in a soft low whisper. "Bring on your man and introduce him to me."

Mrs. Sewzuk—I wish to get a divorce and I want to get it as soon as possible. Can you take my case?

Lawyer—I'm very busy, Madam, but I will get your divorce in short order. Your husband is an old friend of mine and I'll do it as a favor to him.

"I grovel here in the dust at your feet," exclaimed the impassioned young suitor as he knelt before her.

"Dust! Dust! Do you mean to insult me?" she gasped—"after I've spent the whole day cleaning this room."

"Do you know, my dear, that it costs lots of money for women to paint their cheeks red?"

"Not as much honey, as it does to paint your nose red."

tax rate of $1.93 per $100 dollar valuation. For 1933 were based on a valuation. For 1934 the rate is 4 cents higher, or $1.97. The State receives 77 cents, and the county $1.20.

Unlike many other counties, Terrell has, to date, been able to take care of all outstanding warrants, and is operating on a cash basis. The only let-down in our school fund, which has been unable to care for vouchers. This, however, is due to no fault on the part of county officials, but due, rather, to the double fact that the State has been slow in forwarding money due on a per capita basis for education, and also, several large taxpayers of the county have failed to pay their taxes.

October 1st is the starting date for tax payments, and until November 30th taxpayers may take advantage of the split tax payment plan.
