U. S. SHOULD BE THANKFUL SAYS F. D. R.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

By the President of the United States of America

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-eighth of November, 1935, as a day of national thanksgiving.

In traversing a period of national stress our country has been knit together in a closer fellowship of mutual interest and common purpose. We can be grateful that more and more our people understand and seek the greater good of the greater number. We can be grateful that self-interest is less strongly asserted. We can be grateful that peace at home is strengthened by a growing willingness to common counsel. We can be grateful that our peace with other nations continues through recognition of our own peaceful purpose.

But in appreciation of the blessings that Divine Providence has bestowed upon us in America, we shall not rejoice as the Pharisee rejoiced. War and strife still live in the world. Rather, must America by example and in practice help to bind the wounds of others, strive against disorder and aggression, encourage the lessening of distress among the peoples and advance peaceful trade and friendship.

The future of many generations of mankind will be greatly guided by our acts in these present years. We hew to a new trail.

Let us then on the day appointed offer our devotions and our humble thanks to Almighty God and pray that the people of America will be guided by Him in helping their fellow men.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-five, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixtieth.

(Signed)

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

BUY
CHRISTMAS SEALS

Christmas Seal Sale Will Begin Friday, Nov. 29

The annual sale of Christmas seals will start Friday, November 29, according to Mrs. W. M. Dyal, chairman of the health department of the Sanderson P. T. A., who sponsor the sales here each year.

The stamps will be distributed among the children of the grades school, to be sold by them. The sale will continue through until Christmas.

The picture on the Christmas seals this year depicts a young lady of the 1860's mailing a letter. In those days nobody knew the cause of tuberculosis. But we know today. And, what is better, we know how to prevent and cure it. Christmas seals raise money to help pay the cost of prevention.

Christmas seals, which cost but a penny each, make possible adequate methods for the control and prevention of tuberculosis. By buying these seals from the P. T. A. you help support this valuable work right here in your own community.

In addition to the penny seals the association will also have for sale bonds in the denomination of $5.00.

Four-Unit Road Show Coming to Princess Theatre

The O. K. circuit of theatres will bring its first big 4-unit road show to the Princess Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 26 and 27. For this especially fine assembled show, Mr. Oskar Korn, managing director of the O. K. Circuit, personally assembled and selected each unit of the show.

Unit No. 1 offers as the senior unit "Red Salute," a delightful romance produced by United Artists Corp., who gave you "Hell's Angels," "Sacrifice," and many other outstanding specials. The cast include Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Young and Cliff Edwards. The story deals with a neat romance in the locale of the Rio Grande, and offers the most wholesome of entertainments.

Unit No. 2—The nationally famous Radio Ramblers in a delightful featurette entitled "Nutville." This unique short is entertainment plus.

Unit No. 3—Mickey Mouse and his greatest brother, Donald Duck will be seen in their very latest Technicolor cartoon entitled "On Ice." This feature of the show is genuinely clever and brings fun and cheer in great measure.

Unit No. 4—The famous Hollywood Meglin Kids in a noble featurette "What Kids." This unit will show you that these bunch knows all the new tricks, and it is a rare treat.

The management of the Princess Theatre wishes to personally endorse this road show as one of the outstanding attractions that will be seen at the Princess Theatre this season.

Be the first to praise. Those who come later will sound like echoes.

Eldorado Youth Fatally Shot On Deer Hunt in Mts.

Alton M. Williams, 23, of Eldorado, was the first west Texas casualty of the 1935 deer season when he was fatally shot while hunting at the Nine Point Hunting lodge, 60 miles south of Alpine Saturday morning. He lived two hours after a high-powered rifle bullet had entered his abdomen from the front. Charley Caston, auditor for the San Angelo Telephone company, rushed to his aid. The shooting was declared to have been accidental at an inquest held after his death.

Though Williams lived for two hours after his shooting he was unable to throw any light on the accident.

On the same hunting preserve Joe Weatherford of Midland sustained a bullet wound in the leg which was feared might necessitate amputation. He is now in an Alpine hospital. This accident, also, happened on Saturday, and Weatherford stated he did not even hear the explosion of a gun.

The Nine Point hunting lodge is operated by Earl McElroy, son-in-law of Sheriff Newt Gourley of Alpine, who owns a ranch in that section. Officials at Alpine stated they did not know who shot Williams or Weatherford and details were lacking as to what distance apart the injuries were received.

Williams died enroute to Alpine and his body was taken to San Angelo Saturday night and from there to his home in Eldorado where funeral services were held Sunday afternoon. He is survived by his parents, a brother, Otto, and a sister, Mrs. Walter King, all of Schleicher county.

Governor Allred To Be Sanderson Guest Next Week

Representative Stanford Payne was in Sanderson for a few minutes Thursday morning enroute to Alpine where he will join Governor James V. Allred and party on a deer hunt in the Big Bend.

Mr. Payne stated that the governor and party would visit in Sanderson on their return trip, and that he would be here either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, at about noon.

Plans are being made to entertain the governor during his brief stay and, if it is possible, he will address our citizens. The exact date and hour to be announced later. It is hoped that a large number of our citizens will be on hand to meet the governor and extend him a welcome to our city.

Mexican Girl is Accidentally Shot Handling Rifle

Aurelia Zepeda, a grammar school pupil in the sixth grade, received a painful, though not serious wound when a 22 rifle which she and a brother were handling at their home in east Sanderson.

The accident happened Sunday afternoon, when the children were examining the rifle, supposedly unloaded. The bullet entered the girl's arm just above the elbow, ranged upwards about 3 inches and emerged under the bicep muscle of the left arm. The wound had immediate attention of a local physician, who stated that the bullet had missed the muscular ligaments, producing a clean wound that should heal quickly, barring complications.

Annual Roll Call For Red Cross Members Begins

The annual Red Cross membership drive got under way here on Wednesday of this week, according to Judge G. J. Henshaw, general chairman. Mrs. Kenderick Harrell, assisted by Miss Louise White, was conducting the drive for members, the quota for Terrell county being set at one hundred members.

"The American Red Cross is an institution in which our people in every walk of life and in every section of the nation can unite in a common tie of brotherhood. It represents them in their instinctive desire to be of service to suffering humanity. It knows no distinction of race, creed or color. There are no boundary lines either state or national in its never-ending mission of mercy for those who are in distress.

"During the last year one hundred twenty-eight disasters occurred in 37 of our states. In each catastrophe the afflicted community turned with assurance to the Red Cross for the efficient relief which was so speedily given. During the same time this great organization has developed a country wide program for safeguarding our homes and our highways from the mounting toll of accidental deaths.

"Each year at this time the Red Cross appeals to our people for the support which will enable it to continue its service to our people. Each American everywhere is given an opportunity to participate in Red Cross work, local and national, through individual membership.

"It is of the utmost importance that we maintain the Red Cross as our great national relief agency. I earnestly urge all who can possibly do so, to respond generously and promptly to the Red Cross appeal."

O. S. Ellingson Succeeds Nelson As Prison Head

O. S. Ellingson, 51, who was assistant prison manager under Lee Simmons, was elected manager to succeed Dave Nelson, at a meeting to the prison board held in Houston Monday.

Nelson, who had been manager for 16 days, succeeding Simmons, died last week of pneumonia. Ellingson had been in charge of the prisons since that time, and was assistant manager under Lee Simmons for three years.

The new manager is a native of Kansas, but has lived in Texas since he was sixteen years old. He lives at Huntsville, has a wife and two sons, both of whom are attending the University of Texas.

Army Dirigible Sails Over City Headed for Coast

The TC-12, large army non-rigid dirigible, passed over Sanderson about 1 p. m. Tuesday. It passed over the north part of the city, headed in a northwesterly direction, flying low and apparently was making good speed.

The dirigible enroute to the coast, had been at Brooks Field, San Antonio for several weeks undergoing repairs on the gondola which was wrecked in an attempted takeoff. Last Wednesday test flights were made and the ship was pronounced ready to continue its journey westward. Unsettled weather delayed it for several more days.

The dirigible is 225 feet long, and when it reaches the Pacific coast will be assigned to the navy for fleet maneuvers.

Special Session Ends; Act on 4 Major Problems

Prior to adjournment of the second called session of the Texas legislature, last Thursday at midnight, four of the five major subjects submitted by the governor were passed. The included pensions, liquor regulation, which provided for sale in unbroken packages only, placing county and district officers on a salary basis, and licensing of automobile drivers.

Friday Governor Allred signed the liquor regulation bill, and the bill for licensing automobile drivers, and studied the bill establishing old age pensions.

The liquor control bill becomes effective at once, and Gov. Allred appointed D. B. Benson of Bowie, D. J. Decherd of Flatonia, and J. W. Williams of Port Arthur as a three-member control board. On Monday these members appointed Charles R. Miller, formerly of Electra and Taylor, as its administrator.

Liquor dealers must make application to the board for license and, in addition, must advertise their intentions in newspapers at least two weeks before the board can act on their application.

The law levies a tax of 80 cents a gallon on whisky and distilled liquors, with smaller taxes on beverage of lighter alcoholic content.

The drivers' license law will not become effective until April 1, and requires all automobile drivers to obtain a license which will be supplied free. License will be issued when automobiles are registered. No person under 18 years of age will be licensed.

Licenses will be revoked on conviction of violating major traffic laws, or on conviction of a felony where an automobile was used; driving while intoxicated; failure to stop and render aid after a collision.

Assessors and collectors of taxes will issue licenses in the smaller counties, but agents of the safety department would supervise issuance in large counties, with authority to examine applicants. The cost of administering this duty will be paid from chauffeur's license fees.

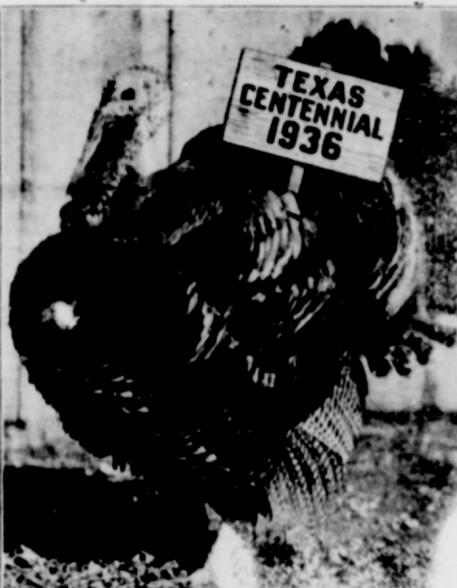

Though the old age pension bill was passed, and a sum stipulated, no provision was made for raising the fund and it is likely that a Gov. Allred will call a third special session in January to raise revenue to pay the old age pensions.

MRS. MINER DIES

Mrs. L. B. Miner, who at one time made her home here, passed away at her home in Del Rio early Thursday morning. Death followed a lingering illness. In addition to her husband, L. B. Miner, who is an engineer on the T. & N. O. between Sanderson and Del Rio, she is survived by her son, L. B., Jr.

Funeral services will be held in Del Rio, with interment in the cemetery in that city.

Leads Texas Turkey Derby

Don't blame this big fellow for strutting. He will represent the Texas Centennial celebrations on President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving table—that is, if he wins over a few thousand like him that are competing for the honor in a section wide "Turkey Derby" at Brady, west Texas capital of this flourishing industry. The President has announced his intention of visiting Texas next summer, and here's his reward for "talking turkey" about the Centennial. Anyway, when Texas gives the President the bird, that's news.

Business Houses Here to Observe Thanksgiving

The post office, bank, and all business houses in Sanderson will close next Thursday, in observance of Thanksgiving. Filling stations will probably observe Sunday closing hours.

In order that the Times force may be able to take off for at least part of the day, all having items, or advertisements for the paper next week are urged to get them to this office early.

The public schools will close Wednesday afternoon and will reopen the following Monday, giving Friday also as a holiday as some of the teachers are planning to attend the Teachers state convention which meets in San Antonio over the week end.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

A union Thanksgiving service will be held here Thursday, Nov. 28, at 10 a. m. in the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Philip Brown, pastor of the Baptist church, will deliver the sermon. An offering to help the local Mexican Protestant church will be taken.

Prison System Succumbs to Pneumonia

Nelson, who on Nov. 1 assumed his duties as manager of the state prison at Huntsville, in that city last Saturday.

Death was due to pneumonia, with heart disease contributory cause.

After his appointment as prison manager, the 47-year-old ex-prisoner had established an enviable reputation as a successful administrator. He was head of the agricultural interests in Texas, capitalist. Nelson resigned as chairman of the livestock sanitary committee to accept the manager job.

World War veteran, Nelson had discipline in his prison work that he had taken over from his predecessor. He had announced he was to bring military precision to the prison.

He said all guards in the future would be former soldiers picked from members of the American Legion. Regulation of hardened criminals whom there was little hope of reform from first term.

His prison environment determined their future, was the principle of Nelson's. He was in salvaging inmates if they were not.

On last Sunday morning where services were held at 2 p. m. Monday afternoon.

DR. STANSELL HERE

Dr. L. A. Stansell of San Antonio, L. A. Stansell of Longview, Texas, and Wednesday morning they were enroute home about the Chisos mountains.

While here Dr. Stansell and the Times sent him for a long time, for which he has thanks. Dr. Stansell is a person boy, a graduate of our school that has made good. He is practicing a nice medical practice in San Antonio. His brother, also, also has a good medical practice in that city.

Nov. 30 Deadline for Split Tax Payment Plan

Eight days remain for those who wish to take advantage of the split-tax payment, by one-half their taxes on or before midnight of November 30, remaining half being due on or before June 30, 1936.

Very few have taken advantage of the split-payment plan for county taxes, according to W. Haynes, deputy in the assessor and collector's office this week.

Those who do not pay on the payment plan must pay tax in full by January 31, 1936, to avoid penalty and interest.

Order to vote in the 1936 elections one must pay poll tax by midnight January 31, 1936. Those who become of age before November 1, 1936, must secure a tax exemption certificate before they will be allowed to vote in 1936 elections. Persons over 21 also will be required to secure exemption certificates. Certificates and ovals will be issued free of charge by the tax assessor-collector.

DUCK SEASON OPENED

Duck season in this section of Texas opened Wednesday of this week and will continue through November 19. The new regulations prohibit hunting before 7 a. m. and after 4 p. m. The bag limit is 10 a day, and only ten may be possession of a person at any one time. There are also a lot of stringent laws regarding guns, traps, etc., that makes advisable a careful study of the game laws before going duck hunting.

Nobody's Business

By JULIAN CAPERS, Jr.

Austin—Massed in the east gallery of the house of representatives, lobbying brains that are paid perhaps $250,000 a year and expenses to influence Texas lawmakers, smirked at each other last Thursday night, as they watched the hands of the big house clock move ponderously to the midnight adjournment hour. Thruout the evening they watched the house anti sales tax majority, snarled in a parliamentary tangle, struggle futilely to extricate the revenue bill from a very hopeless conference deadlock. Speaker Coke Stevenson ruled that nothing could be done about the dying bill unless the conference committee reported formally a deadlock, so a new committee could be named that would bring in a tax bill without a sales tax, as the house had instructed its conferees.

The lobbyists cheered as they heard this ruling; they cheered as they heard Bob Calvert, Hillsboro legislator regarded as an administration spokesman, who has always opposed the sales tax, waver and offer a resolution instructing the conference committee to make a "reasonable sales tax on luxuries." They cheered again as Calvert's resolution went down to defeat, but by a narrow margin of only eight votes. They had cheered previously when Walter Woodul, the lieutenant-governor, broke a tie vote in the senate, and put the sales tax into the revenue bill.

These developments marked the denouement of the lobbyists' plan outlined two weeks ago in this column of offering the house the alternative of accepting a sales tax or passing no tax bill at all. The house took no tax bill. The governor announced another special session for January to raise revenue. The lobbyists immediately began making plans for the biggest push in January. Opponents of the sales tax began making plans to force thru an income tax along with the sales tax. They recognized that Texas will have a sales tax next year unless a miracle happens and the people turn loose tremendous pressure on the legislature in the next 60 days. They do not believe that will happen because the people are not organized and the sales tax lobby is highly organized.

The house, which changes its mind oftener than the most fickle woman, will indulge its mania again for investigating, by probing the public safety commission and its administration of the rangers. It first voted down a resolution by Sam Hanna of Dallas, a former house clerk, and next day adopted one by Lon Alsop of Carthage. The anti-administration forces were elated at their "victory," until they learned that Albert Sidney Johnson, commission chairman, had quietly passed the word to Austin that the commission was fully prepared to take care of itself in any legislative investigation of its official acts.

Enough administrative votes were quietly shifted to pass the probe resolution. Now the investigation sponsors are wondering if they have been trapped. The dismissal of Tom Hickman, ex-senior ranger captain, brought on the investigation resolution.

Hint of possible friction in another state department was seen in the action of Rep. J. W. Youngblood, Ft. Worth, who put into the record in connection with House Resolution 25, as the session closed, a vigorous denunciation of Chief Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist, whom he accused of "lobbying to death a bill providing for establishment of a minimum wage on the state highway work" defeated in the regular session. Meanwhile the highway department let another $1,800,000 of contracts Tuesday, and the commissioners declared they will have 35,000 to 40,000 recently jobless men at work by January 1 on the highway program.

The death by pneumonia last week of Dave Nelson, Orange business executive and civic leader, after only two weeks at his new job as manager of the prison system, leaves a large gap for the prison board to fill. If cut short a sweeping experiment in rehabilitation of felons, planned in detail by Nelson, by which he hoped to return hundreds of one-time offenders back to useful citizenship. Nelson was no dreamer, but a practical executive and as an ex-soldier who demanded discipline, but knew how to get it, and without brutality. His passing was mourned by all who knew anything about the complicated prison problem.

Local option elections thruout Texas will probably be in order during the next few months, so that communities may determine their status under the new liquor law. Many obviously dry communities probably will remain dry without a test, but changes of sentiment have occurred during the lapse of years since national prohibition came, and may local tests of the will of the voters will be ordered by the commissioners courts on their own motion or by petitions of electors. Saloons are doomed in all communities where local officials are willing to enforce the laws. Package sales only may be made in licensed stores where local option permits.

Col. E. O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, and original proponent of state control of oil—back in the days when it wasn't popular—was accorded the place on the APT program occupied at the 1935 Dallas convention by Secretary Ickes, father of the federal dictatorship for oil plan. A. C. Schreiner, Kerrville Pioneer Died Tuesday

A. C. Schreiner, 73, pioneer merchant and philanthropist, of Kerrville, passed away in that city on Tuesday of heart disease, according to news reports.

Mr. Schreiner was well known throughout this section of Texas and was one of the pioneers of Kerrville. For many years he has been prominently identified with the financial, commercial and social life of Kerrville, where he was its leading merchant and one of the largest individual wool and mohair dealers in the United States.

Fonnie Woodward, who is now ranching near Sheffield, was a business visitor in Sanderson Wednesday.

Guests of Roy Milton Bogush over the week end were Jay Salbre and Archie Brown of San Antonio. While here they enjoyed a hunting trip to the mountains but did not succeed in getting a deer.

Guests of Hugh and John Cox since last Thursday are their father, Haimon Cox, of Cedar Park, and Holms Allen and William Allen of Leander, John Haden of Liberty Hill, and Harul Haden of Austin. The party enjoyed a hunt on the Des Landes ranch over the week end and succeeded in killing a 10-point buck.

Dick Sullivan—(to Gant who is leading a skinny mongrel pup): What kind of a dog is that?

Gant: Nope; it's in the secret service.

Coach Smith: Nature is a wonderful thing: A million years ago she didn't know we were going to wear spectacles, yet look at the way she placed our ears.

Jokes are the spice of life. Who likes potatoes without salt? Who wants a paper that hasn't some jokes in it? This semester we shall make our jokes spicier than ever.

Miss Wilson: So you like your geography, do you?

Poor old H. C. Monroe surely has hard luck on account of such brittle bones.

"Red" Appel, the old standby guard on the Sanderson high school football team this year, has taken on a new name the last few days. Get him to tell you what it is.

O. T. says he can hardly wait till the football team goes to Big Lake, so he can stop off at McCamey. We wonder?

Mrs. Pollard: Melven, why are you late?
Melven: Teacher kept me in.
Mrs. Pollard: Why?
Melven: In class he asked me how many teeth a person had and I said "a mouthful."

It looks like all the boys are going to have to buy a black shirt so that some one will give them a party.

We guess Roy Deaton will have to start hunting dears if he expects to get one this year.

Saturday, Nov. 23, the Warbirds of Sanderson high school will pack their war bags and invade the territory of the Big Lake Owls.

The Owls were defeated last week by the Fort Stockton Panthers by a score of 21 to 7, so, if scores mean anything, the Eagles should come home with some Owl feathers. Sanderson defeated Ft. Stockton by a score of 7 to 6.

On Saturday, Nov. 23, all of you town people who have cars grab your hats and journey to Big Lake to see the football game. You will enjoy yourself and also see a good ball game. Don't forget Saturday, Nov. 23, at Big Lake. The football boys need and appreciate your help.

I see that Cy Mussey is back in a uniform ready for action, although he still has a slightly stiff knee from the Iran game last month. He may get to see some action Saturday, but not much, because of the injury.

Eagles to Tackle Big Lake Owls in Last Dist. Game

The Eagles of Sanderson high school will go on the road for their last district game of the season Saturday, when they journey to Big Lake to meet the Owls football team of Big Lake high school. The game will be played on the Owls' field at 2:30, November 23.

The Warbirds should have their strongest combination of the entire season. Mussey, who has been on the injured list for the past month, is back in uniform and ready to go. His injured knee will slow him down some, but not enough to hurt. He will take his regular position in the backfield and Essary Haines will be shifted to guard.

Coach Duane Smith will use everything he has in this game. He has put on some new plays that should be hard to stop. He has reverses, double reverses and laterals; power plays, forward passes and wide end runs. With Mussey back in form that leaves Coach Smith four basketball stars to handle the ball. These boys will be out to play their best, as it is the last district game in high school. Two other boys in the line are seniors, Roy Deaton and Billy Smith.

Owls Scored on McCamey
The Owls boast of one fast man in the backfield and an end that is good. They scored against McCamey, which the Eagles failed to do, and therefore have a slight edge on the dope margin. They have been improving considerably as the season goes on.

Jesse Lochausen, star passer and place kicker, was slightly injured in scrimmage Tuesday, and may be handicapped. The muscles in his back were bruised, but he will be ready to start Saturday. Dick Sullivan also received a cut over the eye.

If the Eagles defeat the Owls it will give a clear title to second place in the district. If they are defeated they go into a tie for second place.

The support of the faculty, student body, and fans has been appreciated by the team and their coach this year. Don't let them down in their last district game, as they will need plenty of support to get a victory. We will see you at Big Lake when we come to root for the Eagles!

School Attendance Is Nearly Perfect

According to a survey made by Mr. Duane Smith, high school principal, the total attendance of pupils in the 9th, 10th, and 11th grades so far this year has been 97% perfect. This is a 5% increase in total attendance over last year's report.

Last year the total attendance per centage for these grades was: 9th grade, 82.52%; 10th grade, 93.16%; 11th grade, 94.11%.

Mr. Smith pointed out that absences has been less than last year, and the pupils are attending more regularly than during the previous school year.

Museum News

A request has been issued by the American History class for townspeople owning any relics of historical interest to loan them to the newly created museum at the Sanderson high school. Mr. R. D. Holt, superintendent, is teacher of the class, and Dick Mussey has charge of the museum.

Dick pointed out that all relics donated would be kept in glass cases in a locked room.

Relics of various types have been loaned and donated, and the class wishes to make the exhibit more extensive. Any relic of historical interest, and particularly those pertaining to local history are desired.

An old wind bellows and bridle used in the Civil War were presented recently by Bernard Kerr. An O. K. spur was presented to the museum last week.

The class will be glad to have visitors any time to inspect the relics now in the museum.

Leaves From the Diary of a S. H. S. Student

Nov. 18, 1935.

Dear Diary:
Today many of the Sanderson high school boys returned to school from a long deer (not deer) hunt.

Nov. 19.—Curly Gant, working for his father, sold a bottle of medicine for colds. The stranger asked if one bottle would cure a cold. Curly said it would, because nobody ever came back for a second bottle.

Nov. 20.—Sully came to school at 10 a. m. today and Mr. Holt said: "Dick, you're one hour late. You should have been here at 9 a. m."

Sully said: "Why? What happened?"

November 21.—The barber: Hair cut, sir?

Mr. Parker: No, throat, please.

Nov. 22.—Porkey can't wait until Saturday to play Big Lake.

PLAN AMATEUR PROGRAM

Students Study Big Businesses

Reports on subjects pertaining to the business world were made as a part of the regular class meeting in bookkeeping last Friday. The reports concerned big businesses and gave the pupils an opportunity to learn how the big businesses are carried on and how they started.

A three-minute report was made by each member of the class. A report of the history of the Walgreen drug store was given by Sammie Carter. "18,500,000 Gallons of Paint," a story of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Co., was told by Florence Van Cleave, and Zada Van Cleave reported on the story of Campbell's products. Cleveland Deaton reported on "Locomotives," giving a review of the businesses of three large locomotive manufacturing companies. Bernard Kerr reported on "The Evolution of the Cash Register," and Lillian Halley chose for her subject "What of Beginning Bookkeeping?" A report on the Chrysler motor car corporation was made by Mildred Hurst.

Typing Students Staging Contest

Pupils in the first year typing class were organized into two clubs at the beginning of last week. The captains of the two sides are Adair Edmiston and Lois Taylor. The names of the clubs, as chosen by their captains, are the Fords and the Chevrolets.

The object of this club project is to stimulate interest in typing and to prepare the students for the Interscholastic League typing contests. Two tests in accuracy and two tests in speed are taken each week. For every error decreased from the first test counts a point for that student's side and for every word increased in speed over the first test counts a point.

The "Chevrolets" are Adair Edmiston, captain, Maxine Clatfelter, Laurence Gutierrez, Emma Fay Harris, Pat Sullivan, Henry Maddux, Billie Louise St. Clair, and Charlie Laughlin.

The Chevrolets are ahead at present with a score of 27 points earned. The Fords have a total of 12 points.

The best speed records made in the class have been by Adair Edmiston, with a total of 22 words a minute, and Laurence Gutierrez with a score of 31 words a minute. The greatest number of errors made by any member of a team has been five errors for a test of 200 words in length.

Band Members Review Lives of Great Composers

The history of music has been the study of band classes at Sanderson high school this fall. There are two regular classes on this subject that meet daily at 11:15 and 12:45 o'clock. A study is also made of band and orchestra instruments.

There are band rehearsals twice each week and one band rehearsal from 8:15 to 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

This week the classes are giving reports on great composers. The classes are also studying ear sounds and tone qualities.

Grammar Pupils Give Program

The second grade presented the assembly program Thursday, November 14, in the high school auditorium.

Billy Savage was announcer. The hello speech was given by Francis Grigsby. A song "Where are You Going My Pretty Maid," was sung by Preston Lester, Joan Anderson, Billy Dyal and Delores Pender. A story was told by Earl Pierson entitled "The Pine Tree Mail Box." Joan Anderson gave two tap dances. Two plays were presented: "The Little Library Book" and "The Sanderson Gang." Two songs, "Beautiful Texas" and "The Eyes of Texas," were sung by the entire assembly. Billy Savage's good-bye speech concluded the program.

Juniors Present One-Act Play

The assembly, which is usually held on Tuesday afternoons, was postponed until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Members of the Junior class will present a one-act play entitled "One Dollar Down."

Everybody come to this Junior assembly Friday, Nov. 22, at 1:30. It will be a good program and you will find out what happens in the Cordovan family and why it happens.

The program for next Tuesday, Nov. 26, will be a talk by Mr. A. E. Creigh on "Good Citizenship."

JUNIORS PLANNING PARTY

The Juniors held a class meeting held Friday, Nov. 15. The object of the meeting was to plan a party. The president, Mildred Underwood, presided at the meeting. Mildred Stavley, chairman of the entertainment committee, planned all the games. Nell Lea and Sammie Carter were to provide and serve the refreshments.

It was decided that the party be given Saturday, Nov. 16, at the home of Dorothy Lewellen.

H. E. NEWS

By Constance Richardson

The second year girls have almost completed their study of dinners. Last Tuesday they made fruit cake for their Christmas party they plan to give for the club. Two kinds of cake were baked, "Alabama fruit cake" and "Kentucky dark cake."

The Home Economics club meeting was called to order last Tuesday afternoon. The first number on the program was a reading by Elizabeth Brown. Constance Richardson played a piano solo. Mildred Haines and Bertha Mae O'Bryant presented a short play. The girls then practiced their play that they plan to present Dec. 3 in assembly. Mary Beth Banner and Margaret Ann Gregory took charge of the meeting and entertained the club with a game.

DINNER FOR SENIORS

Mrs. Ferguson, senior room mother, has invited the members of the senior class to be special guests at a dinner at the Kerr Hotel at 7:30 today. The dinner will be given for Mary Ferguson.

NEW EQUIPMENT

Orders have been placed this with Lowe & Campbell Co. for twelve new basketball suits including sweat equipment for the Sanderson high school basketball team. The colors are in burnt orange and black. They will be used for games only, and the team will work out in its old equipment, Coach Duane Smith stated.

JUNIORS ENTERTAINED

6th Grade Study Flags of Texas

The pupils of the sixth grade history class have been studying the six flags of Texas. As a project the class has made miniature models of these flags during the past two weeks.

The pupils have finished making model Alamos as an art project. The best models were displayed in a downtown drug store window. The students owning models that were displayed were Bobby Mason, Bill Cargile, John Hardgrave, Earl Hurst, Margaret Reed Arrington, Roberta Lochausen, Al Creigh, Theo McDonald, Lonnie Rustin, J. D. Vincent, and Helen Ruth Harrell.
