JIM WEAVER DIES OF INJURIES AFTER FALL FROM HORSE

Funeral Services To Be Held Today In Fort Stockton

Funeral services are scheduled for this morning at 10:00 o'clock at Fort Stockton for James I. Weaver, about 54, who died Tuesday as result of injuries sustained when he became dragged and kicked by his horse. He had been employed with the West Cattle Co. for the past several months, and in company with Claude Hill and son, had started doctoring calves. Mr. Weaver had roped a calf when his horse became scared and threw him. In falling his foot became tangled in his lariat and the horse started dragging and kicking him. His head struck a rock, causing a concussion, and his back was said to have been broken. The accident occurred about 9:00 o'clock in the morning.

An ambulance and doctor was called from Fort Stockton and he was placed in the ambulance to be taken to Fort Stockton. Death came shortly after they had started for that point, about 1:10 o'clock that afternoon. The deceased had lived in Sanderson for a time, and had a daughter, Mrs. Lonnie Burleson, living at Fort Stockton. He is also survived by a widow and several other children.

Government Is Concerned Over Public Discussion

The extent of current public discussion of radar is causing increasing concern to the Government.

The principal of radar is generally understood here and abroad, and some limited disclosures have been made officially. New methods of applying the principle are being developed, however, and there is much the enemy does not know.

The fact of prior publication should not be used to cover added description, discussion, and deduction, or to support a theory or draw a conclusion.

Radar is a secret weapon within the meaning of the code. Editors and broadcasters are especially requested to be alert to every mention of radar and military electronic devices; to establish beyond all question that there is appropriate authority for every statement made; and to submit all material on the subject—other than that released by appropriate Government authority—to the Office of Censorship for review in advance of publication or broadcast.

No inclusive request would not be made if the highest considerations of national security were not directly involved.

Mrs. Jesse Martin Entertains With Swimming Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dillard returned home Sunday from Godley. They were accompanied home by Mr. Dillard's mother, Mrs. J. T. Dillard Sr. who will visit with them.

TEMPERATURE SOARS

It was not learned just what kind, but some kind of a record was broken—or set—Tuesday of this week when the mercury reached a maximum of 110½. Monday saw the mercury rise to 108 but Tuesday proved to be the hottest day here for the past three years, and how much longer is not known since no record was kept. The thermometer has stood at 100 and in the 90's since then, each day registering about the same.

"FROM TEXAS TO TOKIO" COLUMN DRAWS COMMENT

The column in the times carrying the news of local boys in the service which is conducted by Miss Billie Corder, drew the following comment from the editor of the Alpine Avalanche in his column, "Mountain Peeks":

Hearing from the boys in the service and writing about them, is one of the Old Man's greatest pleasures. Incidentally the "Following the Flag" column started in this newspaper some weeks back is proving one of the most popular we've ever attempted although it is no little job to get this information together. Which reminds us that the cleverest heading we've seen on a like column is that in the Sanderson Times. It's called "From Texas to Tokio" and is ably edited by (Miss?) Billie Corder, who really gets the news about the Terrell county boys in the service. If we were not so dumb, maybe we could have thought up a clever head like that.

Miss Corder is doing her bit to get the news about every man in the service of Uncle Sam and she would appreciate the cooperation of members of their family in gathering this material. She is unable to make a personal call on each and every person who has some loved one in the service, but she can and will be more than glad to accept the information offered. Her column will grow and become more interesting as the people of the community show enough interest in their boys to call in and give interesting items concerning them to Miss Corder or to other members of the Times force.

Presbyterian Circle Meets In Home of Mrs. John Byrd

The circle meeting of the women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met Monday, July 26th at 4 P. M. in the home of Mrs. John W. Byrd.

There were ten members and two visitors present. Following the business meeting Mrs. J. W. McKee led the devotional on "Philip, the Faithful Personal Worker" and Mrs. W. C. Vaughan conducted an interesting program on "My World Begins in the Home."

The following members and visitors were present: Mrs. J. W. Byrd, Mrs. John Nichols, Mrs. W. C. Vaughan, Mrs. C. L. Sims, Mrs. Lee McCue, Mrs. J. H. Lochausen, Mrs. J. W. McKee, Mrs. C. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Earl Pierson, Mrs. Elton Secrest, Mrs. N. E. Charlton, and Miss Mabel Lanum.

TO PREACH SUNDAY

T. H. Ethridge, of Alpine, will preach at the Church of Christ at both the morning and evening services next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Allen and Robert Reece Scruggs of Abilene and Judith Ann and Tommie Allen of Lamesa are visiting at the R. N. Allen and E. W. Hardgrave ranches.

Mrs. Lee Grigsby returned Monday from San Antonio where she had visited the past week with friends.

MARFA MAN FOUND DEAD ON TRAIN THURSDAY MORNING

Crushed When Pinned Under Heavy Door of Gondola Car

David W. Deanda, about 30, was found dead under the end gate of a gondola car here early Thursday morning of last week by J. W. Wolfe, car knocker.

The endgate, which weighs between six and eight hundred pounds according to railway workers, required three men to lift it from the body. The right chest had been crushed, and the body had other bruises, indicating that the endgate had bounced off its fasteners and fallen upon him. It was thought that he had boarded the train at Marfa and was enroute to Eagle Pass. Papers carried indicated that he was a painter.

His parents, who reside at Marfa, were notified and a funeral coach was sent here from Marfa for the body. No details were learned as to funeral arrangements.

Officers Are Needed By Navy In Procurement

A limited number of vacancies for men to serve as commissioned officers in the Naval Reserve in all phases of procurement, control, storage and transportation of supplies and materials now exists, it was announced today by Lieutenant Commander Preston Moore, Officer-in-charge of the Office of Naval Officer Procurement here.

"As there are but a few existing vacancies, only well qualified men with experience in responsible charge of the handling of supplies on a large scale can be considered," Lt. Commander Moore said.

Young men with limited experience if they possess a degree in Business Administration from an accredited college may qualify. All applicants must meet the basic requirement for appointment to commissioned rank in the United States Naval Reserve by possessing demonstrated leadership ability, high personal integrity and a progressively successful experience record. A college degree is desirable but consideration may be given applicants who have had sufficient successful experience to compensate for lack of formal education.

Applicants can be made by mail to the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, 824 Niels Esperson Building, Houston.

Mrs. P. P. Courtney Is Hostess to the Friday Bridge Club

Mrs. P. P. Courtney was hostess to members of the Friday Bridge Club at her home last Friday afternoon. Mixed Summer flowers decorated the entertaining rooms.

Mrs. Roger Rose was winner of high score prize and Mrs. Horace Fletcher won second high.

The hostess served a salad plate to Mesdames S. H. Underwood, W. H. Buchanan, Ted Baker, Roger Rose, Horace Fletcher, Jack Laughlin, Jess Mullins, and Conway Pickard.

ATTENDS SCHOOL

Dr. Bertha Whistler left Sunday for San Antonio where she is taking a Chiropractic refresher course, preparatory to taking the state chiropractic examination required by a recent law. She will probably be gone two weeks or longer.

Mrs. O. B. Warren of Houston is here for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Jesse Martin and family.

FROM TEXAS TO TOKIO

By Billie Corder

The girls he left behind him stood by Sunday for a call from B. F. DAVIS, U. S. Navy. He flew from Bermuda to Norfolk expressly for the purpose. Here's another testimonial to the similarity of America and Australia. PRIVATE FIRST CLASS ZACK BLAIR, U. S. Army, who has just arrived Down Under, writes his parents that it's just about like here. Beautiful horses, good cattle, same climate.

PRIVATE HENRY MANSFIELD lost sixteen pounds merely by driving ambulances, going to school, and executing the general duties his status entails.

Correction: PRIVATE FIRST CLASS DICK SULLIVAN, U. S. Marine Corps, not U. S. Army.

Dick is in Oceanside, California. His brother, AVIATION CADET PAT SULLIVAN, U. S. Army Air Corps, is going through pre-flight at the Cadet Center in San Antonio.

Another three-star family. FIRST LIEUTENANT JESSE LOCHAUSEN, U. S. Army Air Corps, is in instructing in B-25's at La Junta, Colorado.

He was recently made a flight commander. WESLEY LOCHAUSEN, U. S. Naval Reserve, spends his week-ends from school roaming around New England, uncovering fragments of the history and charm of Revolutionary days.

He first became interested when he was the house guest of a friend's parents at their country place one week-end in New Hampshire.

His hostess took him up to the attic and showed him the hand-hewn beams, driven with wooden nails. There were fireplaces in every room, and the floors dated back to the 18th century.

In his browsing through Boston Wesley found an old tavern, "The Cradle of Liberty," still maintained in the colonial manner.

The food is cooked on the hearth. Boston Harbor and the waterfront are faithfully historic to this day. Back to 1943.

Within the next two weeks the Naval Reserve men at Boston University and neighboring schools will put on naval officers' uniforms, sans stripes, and start drilling in earnest.

AVIATION STUDENT ROBERT LOCHAUSEN, U. S. Army Air Corps, is doing some brilliant work in College Training at the Baptist University, Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Physics, 90; First Aid, 91; Math, 98 3/4. CORPORAL JESUS TREVINO, U. S. Army, is on maneuvers in Louisiana.

He was promoted about three weeks ago. Also in Louisiana for the war games is MR. "WINDY" FARLEY, W. O., U. S. Army, Engineers Battalion.

Windy moved from Camp Swift to Shreveport. CAPTAIN SETH DAVENPORT, U. S. Army, is training for battalion commander at Fort Benning, Georgia.

And still another family with three men in the service. AVIATION CADET ROBERTO CALZADA, U. S. Army Air Corps, is at the Alliance Air Base, Nebraska.

PRIVATE ALBERTO CALZADA, U. S. Army, is stationed at Camp Pine-dale, Fresno, California.

North Africa is hunting grounds for CORPORAL IZADORO CALZADA, U. S. Army. He has roamed from Casablanca to Algiers and over thousands of miles of Sahara between his tank-truck, reviewing with his comrades the parades of broken Afrika Korps divisions who can't follow Rommel into Sicily.

PRIVATE O. R. MONTALVO, U. S. Army, is stationed at Camp Roberts, California.

It's round-up time in the South Pacific. After running into Corporal Bernard Kerr, PRINCE DISHMAN, PHARMACIST'S MATE, Second Class, U. S. Navy, went up to bat one afternoon on a New Caledonia diamond in a game between two hard-hitting.

Wink Bulletin — At a special called meeting of the city council Monday, an ordinance was read, passed and approved, prohibiting the keeping of swine within the city limits of Wink.

The ordinance goes into immediate effect, and Mayor L. M. Prater warned the order will be strictly enforced.

Alpine Avalanche — Dedication of Alpine's new USO building will be held Wednesday, with Dr. W. W. Jackson, San Antonio, regional executive, presenting the building to Mrs. Fred S. Rogers, chairman of the local USO council.

The club, operating under YWCA sponsorship, will serve three military groups in this locality—the AAF advanced flying school, located between Marfa and Alpine; the WAAC training school at Sul Ross college and Fort D. A. Russell, Marfa. Commanding officers of these three groups will join Mrs. Rogers in accepting the building.

Hudspeth County News — Darwin Ivey, government prairie dog killer, killed three coyotes and a bobcat at the edge of Sierra Blanca a few days ago. He was out in the early hours of the morning just south of town and the animals came close enough to him that he shot them.

Big Bend Sentinel, Marfa — Japanese-Americans who are to be re-located away from the western area of the United States last week inspected the Presidio valley of the Rio Grande as a possible place where they might engage in farming.

Ozona Stockman — After approximately 2300 miles of summer travel, during which he interviewed prospective teachers for the local school faculty during the coming year in cities and towns all over the state, Supt. C. S. Denham returned to Ozona the first of the week with the announcement that to date the faculty for next year is complete.

Fort Stockton Pioneer — Possibility of securing location in Fort Stockton of a sub-camp for 150 prisoners of war to provide labor for harvesting a promising 1943 cotton crop in Pecos County is being studied by farm leaders of the county on the basis of information obtained by County Agent W. T. Posey.

Uvalde Leader-News — Directors of the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce, in a special meeting Wednesday morning, voted to sponsor an intensive two-weeks county-wide campaign to obtain more blood donors for the American Red Cross blood bank and at the same time to enlist the aid of a vastly greater number of women in the making of Red Cross surgical dressings.

OVEN CANNING NOT RECOMMENDED

Home canners have been warned against the oven method of canning food by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Not only is oven canning slow and unsatisfactory, but it may lead to serious accidents as a result of misunderstanding of canning techniques. Disadvantages of oven canning mentioned by the USDA are: "Juice bubbles out or steams away; peaches and pears are likely to darken. For the vegetables that need high heat to kill bacteria, oven canning is not safe. Even though the oven goes to 250 degrees F., or higher, food inside the glass jars stays at about the boiling point." And the boiling point of water, 212 degrees

F., is not sufficient to kill dangerous bacteria in a reasonable time in beans, peas and other non-acid fruits and vegetables. For these reasons, the department recommends steam pressure canning for fruits and tomatoes in water bath.

YOUR ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR

is working harder than ever now

MIDSUMMER heat means extra duty for your electric refrigerator. The hotter the weather, the longer and harder it works to protect your perishables and provide you with extra quantities of ice cubes, frozen desserts and cold drinks.

No matter how high the temperature soars, you can depend upon your economical electric refrigerator to provide constant, food-saving cold. And although it may be using a little more electricity now, the small added cost is far outweighed by the food savings it makes possible.

HOT WEATHER TIPS ON REFRIGERATOR CARE

- 1 Defrost whenever frost reaches 1/4-inch thickness. Frost forms faster in hot weather.
- 2 Open door only when necessary and close it quickly.
- 3 Do not store hot foods. Let them cool first.
- 4 Cover all liquids. Moisture drawn to freezing unit speeds formation of frost.
- 5 Keep cold control at lowest setting necessary to assure safe temperatures.
- 6 Use fast freezing sparingly. Return to normal setting promptly.
- 7 Don't overcrowd shelves. It hinders air circulation.
- 8 Don't use refrigerator as a pantry. Store only perishables and foods requiring chilling.

TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

SUBJECT: A RECOMMENDATION...

FROM THE CONGRESS OF THE U. S.

FROM THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE U. S.

Dear Mr. Secretary:
Both you and the country are to be congratulated on the striking success of the Voluntary Payroll Savings Plan. Through it twenty-seven million wage earners are regularly investing in Government bonds more than $200,000,000 a month to meet the cost of the war. This is of primary importance as an aid to winning the war and as a safeguard against inflation. But it is also important that so many of our fellow citizens are reviving the forgotten art of saving from earnings. One way of securing freedom from want in the future is by saving something from the plenty of today.

Congress of the United States
Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation
Washington
June 29, 1943

Dear Mr. Secretary:
Thank you for sending us the description of your expanded payroll savings drive based on the theme "Figure It Out Yourself".
The House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Committee are happy to support the present drive to increase the purchases of War Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. This plan has already achieved a fine record. The fact that twenty-seven million American workmen and women are setting aside almost ten percent of every pay envelope and salary check speaks for itself.
We agree with you, however, that public participation in the financing of this war should be and must be stepped up materially. Not only does the Treasury need added funds, but every dollar diverted from the purchasing stream into savings is a contribution to the fight against inflation. We wish you success in this campaign and we know that the American people will respond to this appeal as they have in the past.

Senator Walter F. George, Chairman, Senate Finance Committee
Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Michigan, Minority Ranking Member
Hon. Robert L. Doughton, North Carolina, Chairman, House Ways and Means Committee
Hon. Harold Knutson, Minnesota, Member House Ways and Means Committee

pany in stitches, but Laurel and Hardy, undaunted, went at it in dead earnest.

In the picture, which plays Wednesday and Thursday at the Princess Theatre, they are cast as two way-faring musicians of the hep-cat class who fall in with a confidence man. Hardy must play a whole assembly of wind instruments, while partner Laurel makes with a collection of large and small drums.

Musicians on the set laughed at the bungling efforts of the team. Hardy's first cornet cadenza sounded like an air-raid alarm while Laurel's beating of the skins was a throwback to the dark ages of pagan drums without the rhythm. Director Mal St. Clair, however, cautioned the on-lookers not to laugh at the fumbling of the two budding maestros and told about how the team had once tackled the study of a foreign language and mastered it in the course of completing a single picture.

Laurel and Hardy comedies were sensations in foreign countries, especially South America, and the business-like comics realized they could make a fortune if they could speak the language of the various countries. Almost overnight they had mastered Spanish and made a feature in it, speaking the lines themselves. Their language lessons paid well!

"Jitterbug," the newest screw-loose episode of the two slapstick artists, has a top notch supporting cast headed by lovely, blonde Vivian Blaine, who makes a perfect foil for the famed comedy team.

A NAZI BLITZ PUT ON FRITZ BY LONE WOLF

That debonair rogue, the Lone Wolf, is back again... using Yankee wits to put a Nazi Blitz on the Fritz! The Nazis think he's on their side... the London Police think he's up to his old tricks... a woman thinks he's wonderful... and everyone agrees he's the most fascinating scoundrel of all time! Prowling through the darkness of a London blackout... the Lone Wolf turns spy... to turn Nazis pale with terror... and cops green with envy!

Thrill fans are certain to turn out when the Lone Wolf turns the heat on a Nazi spy ring in Columbia's "Counter-Espionage," scheduled for local showing on Tuesday at the Princess Theatre. Directed by Edward Dmytryk, the exciting thriller is said to be the best in the long series of Lone Wolf hits and again features Warren William in the leading role. Other familiar players who return include Eric Blore, Fred Kelsey and Thurston Hall, while lovely Hillary Brooke is cast in the top feminine role.

FILM OF CHINA FRONT STARS PRESTON, DREW

Replete with action, romance and thrills "Night Plane From Chungking" shows at the Princess Theatre Friday and Saturday, August 13 & 14. Co-stars Robert Preston and Ellen Drew. "Night Plane From Chungking" has the exciting Chinese battle theatre for background and the bomb-scarred Assam Road as its immediate local. The action begins when Jap planes attack a convoy of munitions trucks. A bus with its curiously assorted passengers still aboard, is pressed into service to carry the wounded to a secret air field. There Ellen Drew, a Red Cross nurse, meets Preston, an American flyer attached to the Chinese Army. Preston is ordered to fly the travelers, in-

"Corregidor" Film Is Authentic In Realism

Time was when Hollywood didn't have to worry about getting things authentic down to the very last detail. Technical directors, research departments and prop men did manage to maintain a modicum of exactitude but nobody cared particularly if every picture slipped a little. But no more!

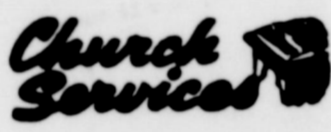

"Corregidor," for example, which shows Friday and Saturday at the Princess Theatre, is an epic picture about an epic battle, the heroic 28-day defense of the island fortress in Manila Bay against everything that the Japanese invaders of the Philippines could throw at it—and that was plenty. Because the picture depicts contemporary history the War Department in Washington was super-careful in seeing to it that everything was exact down to the last item.

The result, according to the directors, is that the picture's stars, Elissa Landi, Donald Woods and Otto Kreger, act out their exciting romance against a background of war that has a realism never before seen on the silver screen.

Exact miniatures were made from official blueprints and recluding a French officer, an aged Chinese lady, a piersman, a Russian Countess, and the nurse. From this point on the film moves from one thrill to another with speed enough to give any audience the jitters. There's an air battle with Zero fighters, a crash in the steaming jungles and some exciting moments when the fugitives are caught by Jap troops.

Adding a mystery flavor to an already spine-tingling picture, one of the airplane passengers is a spy.

records of Corregidor so that even a veteran of that battle would swear he was seeing the real thing. These miniatures, some used as models for larger sets and others photographed for the picture, were checked by the War Department. Costumes, events, dialogue, even personalities, vegetation and other details were scrutinized and checked and rechecked to make sure that no error crept into the film.

The studio had the day-by-day temperature records from Corregidor and the scenes were made to fit. Most of the time during the siege the heat on "The Rock" was terrific. Hence, doctors worked on their patients with perspiration on their faces. American and Filipino soldiers fought in a miasma of heat.

Actually, Hollywood was in the midst of an unusual cold spell when these scenes were filmed. Stars, feature players and extras alike, when before the cameras looked as if they would wilt any minute. The moment the cameras stopped they rushed to don fur coats.

Full employment at good wages depends upon exporting, not importing.

Fifteen billion dollars is the goal for the Third War Loan which President Roosevelt has proclaimed will be launched September 9. NEED TURKEYS FOR SOLDIERS

Because turkey will be the main course of Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day dinners on every battlefield, American turkey raisers have been asked by the WFA to supply about 10 million pounds of turkey meat during August and September for shipping to armed forces overseas. The public is asked to refrain from eating turkey for a few weeks until this urgent demand for the armed forces has been met. Later in the fall civilians will have a supply of turkeys approaching an all-time record production.

HOME REPAIRS ARE ESSENTIAL

War-time restrictions on building new homes make it important that houses should be kept in good repair, according to Federal Housing officials. New home building is largely restricted to war industry areas and the majority of American families must depend on their present housing for the duration of the war.
