EAGLES TROUCE RED DEVILS 13-6 AT RANKIN NOV. 18

SLICK FIELD STALLS BOTH TEAMS IN LAST GAME OF YEAR

The Sanderson Eagles followed up their Armistice Day victory over the Rankin Red Devils in a fast moving game Saturday night, November 18, on the Devil's home ground, clawing them to the tune of 13 to 6. This was the last scheduled game of the season.

Sanderson won the toss and chose to receive. The initial kick was made by a high school girl, formally opening a home game for Rankin. The first kick of the game went short to Yeates who was unable to return it. Sanderson took the ball and drove to the goal with Dishman passing to Harrell for the first touchdown. Rankin received the next kick and penetrated Eagle territory for twenty yards before being forced to kick on the thirty-yard line. Sanderson made several first downs on end runs and passes. The first six passes resulted in four completions. Sanderson kicked to Rankin, who returned to the thirty. On successive end runs and off-tackle plays the Red Devils carried the ball to the Sanderson four-yard line. Prude did most of the ball carrying for Rankin. Jim Davis' hard tackle kept the determined Devils from a touchdown, leaving Sanderson leading 6-0 at the end of the half.

Rankin chose to receive in the opening of the second half. After several plays Sanderson took over with Harrell calling the plays and drove to the second touchdown. A pass to Wells gained the final yardage. Scoreless Rankin received the next kick and went through for a belated touchdown, leaving the score static for the rest of the game.

Both teams faced the handicap of a slick, muddy field. Sanderson was weakened by the loss of Talbot and Savage, who was able to play only one quarter. Yeates' return strengthened the team. This player did some fine blocking throughout the game.

After the game Rankin girls played hostess to the Sanderson team with a hot dog treat and a dance.

MAJOR SAVELL LEA SHARP

Flier Comes Back to the States After Spending 17 Months in South Pacific

Major Savell Lea Sharp, Operations Officer, U. S. Army Air Force, was home on leave in Sonora the last week of October from seventeen months of service in the South Pacific for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Harry Sharp, and brother, Jackie. Entering the Air Force in 1940, Major Sharp received his wings in August of 1941 and was stationed at the Boise Army Air Field, Idaho, and later at Portland Oregon before going over. Since then he has seen action in New Caledonia, the Solomons, and New Guinea.

Far from the idyllic islands inhabited with lei-draped hula dancers that Hollywood delights to portray, Major Sharp found the tropics rugged jungles and the New Guinea natives small, ugly and wizened, covered with skin diseases, teeth black with betel nut. "The best-looking ones we saw," he said, "with the exception of those of Polynesian descent on the Admiralty Islands, were those on Malaita Island in the Solomons. They were larger, better-looking, and more intelligent than those in New Guinea." These natives are friendly and industrious, raising gardens and livestock, and doing some handiwork.

Many of them have been Christianized by missionaries. It was interesting, Major Sharp added, how quickly the natives learned the value of American currency. When the group was first on Malaita they accepted small change for grass skirts, ceremonial sticks and bows, and other articles. Later, when the Americans returned, the same natives had gone into the curio business in a big way, displaying their stock and making change. One had set up a shop at the crossroads, advertising his merchandise with a sales-making display.

Major Sharp found the most handsome South Sea natives on the Admiralty Islands. Plainly showing their Polynesian descent, some of the younger women were extremely good-looking, but practically all of the natives have a common mark to beauty—teeth stained black from chewing betel nuts.

During Major Sharp's only two leaves, spent in New Zealand, he saw the most attractive natives of all, the Maoris, resembling the American Indians. "They make some of the best soldiers New Zealand has, too," he said. These people live in their own villages, many are educated and all are adept in handiwork.

The Maoris make beautiful articles from silver, wood and stone. Their displayed work is reminiscent of the jewelry marts in Old Mexico. The natives' specialty is "tikis", good-luck charms, worked in silver and semi-precious green-stone. Major Sharp stayed in the modern city of Auckland on his leaves in New Zealand, stopping at the government-operated recreation center or in hotels in town. Auckland is a clean, up-to-date typically Western city with recreational facilities like those of the U. S.

CHRISTMAS SEALS TO GO ON SALE MONDAY NOV. 17

MRS. SAM BELL IS NAMED COUNTY CHAIRMAN HERE

The 1944 Christmas Seal drive is set to begin here Monday, November 27, headed by Mrs. Sam Bell, who has been named county chairman. This year marks the fortieth anniversary of the Seal sale, which began as an annual event in 1904 in Copenhagen, Denmark.

The seal originated in the mind of a Danish postal clerk who was very concerned with the terrible toll the White Plague was taking among the children of Copenhagen and all Denmark. One day during the heavy Christmas rush he occurred to this clerk that if each of the thousands of letters that he sorted in the season rush would carry, besides regular postage, a stamp that had no value in conveying a letter but that represented a contribution to an anti-tuberculosis movement, great sums could be quickly and easily raised to combat the death-dealing disease. He talked to fellow clerks, who approved of the idea. Thus the first Christmas Seals were put on sale in Denmark in the winter of 1904, and the proceeds were used to aid tubercular children.

Einar Holbeell, the Danish postal clerk, probably did not know that earlier that same year an organization had been formed in the United States called the National Tuberculosis Association, whose plan was to combat the White Plague by research and an educational campaign, eventually adopted Holbeell's Christmas Seals to finance its health program. Since this great movement started, the T. B. death rate has been cut 75 per cent, a great testimonial to the effectiveness of the campaign and the worthiness of the cause. Yet tuberculosis still takes a life every nine minutes and kills more Americans between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease.

The fight against the White Plague is by no means ended. The next round starts this coming Monday when Seals will be mailed out to all citizens. Mrs. Bell announced. Checks or cash in payment for Seals received should be mailed in envelopes which will be supplied to all purchasers.

TURKEY SHOOT TO START 2 O'CLOCK SUN. AFTERNOON

All arrangements have been completed for the Fireman's Annual Turkey Shoot, which will take place Sunday afternoon, November 26. To be held on the traditional site, the Sanderson Canyon, northeast of the old ball park grounds on the Henshaw Estate property, the shoot will start at 2 o'clock, with plenty of turkeys for targets.

Both pistol and rifle ranges will be used, 25 and 90 yards respectively. Three shots sell for two dollars. If the marksman gets his bird on the first or second shot, he must pay again before he gets another chance at a turkey. The bag limit is two turkeys.

All citizens are urged to come out Sunday afternoon to try their skill with firearms and win turkeys for Thanksgiving dinner. The proceeds will go to the fund of the Sanderson Fire Department.

DAUGHTER TO PICKARDS

A daughter, Ann, was born Wednesday, November 15 in a El Paso hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Conway F. Pickard.

W. W. Sudduth left Thursday for Dallas where he will receive medical attention.

BOND SALES SLOW END OF 1ST WEEK

With the first week of the Sixth War Loan Drive nearly ended, C. P. Peavy, Terrell County Chairman, announced Thursday afternoon that war bond sales had reached $12,345. But this figure includes all bonds that have been purchased since the first day of November, and the total amount falls short of the $90,000 quota by $77,655.

In case some of us haven't realized it, the Sixth War Loan Drive opened all over the nation last Monday morning. U. S. dollars are on the march to the fighting fronts in the form of guns, ammunition, medicine, and supplies. Terrell County has been outstanding in meeting and exceeding its quotas. Let's put our dollars into the fight; help General Eisenhower lift the rationing on Reich-bound American shells and speed up the end of our own wartime rationing. Buy more than before and finish the war!

SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. EMMA CANON IN SAN ANGELO

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Jane Canon, 71, mother of Bustin Canon, were conducted at 10 o'clock, Friday, November 17, from Robert Massie Chapel in San Angelo with Dr. George C. Baker, Jr., officiating. Burial was in Fairmont Cemetery.

Mrs. Canon, a resident of San Angelo since 1899, died at 12:30 o'clock Thursday morning in a hospital there.

Mrs. Canon resided at 439 W. Beauregard, having moved from Pecos County. Born December 23, 1872, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Coulson. Her father helped to organize Sterling County and was its first county judge.

Survivors include two sons, Bustin Canon of Sanderson, and Charles Canon of San Angelo; four daughters, Mrs. John Clegg, Dallas; Mrs. P. B. Scott, Alexis, Illinois; Mrs. George Bailey and Mrs. E. M. Reynolds, both of San Angelo; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Palbearers were L. H. Stephens, Frank Keichline, J. G. Rooney, Maj. Robert L. Dulin, John Mattox, and B. A. Austin of Robert Lee.

Mrs. A. D. Brown Entertains Baptist Women's Society

The Baptist Women's Society met at the home of Mrs. A. D. Brown Monday, November 20.

Miss Una Lee was the leader of the program which was on "Wondrous Work of God in South America". Mrs. James O. Toid was the devotional leader.

Subjects discussed during the program were "Rediscovering South America" by Mrs. T. M. Beckett; "Missionaries Discover South America", by Mrs. M. H. Greenwood; "Wondrous Work in Brazil" by Mrs. R. D. Craig; "Wondrous Work in Argentina" by Mrs. Haney Sutton; "Wondrous Work in Chile" by Mrs. M. B. Parker; and "Agulera Frontier Chilean Preacher" by Miss Ella Savage.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. McAdams went to San Antonio Sunday where she will receive medical treatment.

MY DOCTOR

Last spring a woman of culture left her home in one of America's principal cities to spend six months in Arkansas. Soon after her arrival she came down with a common ailment and needed a surgeon. Her new neighbors almost failed to convince her that the village doctor was safe to consult. She asked: "If he's so wonderful, what's he doing here? A good doctor can make a lot more money in a city."

She was right on one point. This doctor could make a lot of money in a city. He has not fared poorly where he is, but he never will be rich. He is not so much interested in money, however, as in a certain kind of success that's not measurable in dollars. He has a priceless estate of human lives. He can't leave his house without meeting people who owe their very existence to his skill.

A Rich Estate

This country doctor has the unfeigned love of his neighbors. His work has their unqualified approval, but that's only part of the story. He likes them too. Nobody suffers for medical attention where he lives. "He gets paid for it," do you say? Yes, he collects from about half of his patients. But the humblest sharecropper can have the best doctor he ever heard of, and never see a bill.

Writing this, I have a particular physician in mind, but I'm satisfied you are thinking about another doctor as you read it. There is one in just about every country town; two or three in big places. America still has plenty of neighborhoods where men grow up and live to a ripe old age at one address. These are the spots where a doctor is a real person, not just a service.

The Case History

Knowing the people of his neighborhood is worth a great deal to a physician's success. Even a specialist, who treats strangers almost exclusively, will agree that a patient's history is more helpful to the doctor than an examination. That's why I don't want to swap doctors with you, and I hope you feel the same way. Together, we can save this country from the political curse of socialized medicine.

A firm protest from the forks of the creek, mountain coves and farming towns can keep the Wagner National Health Bill, now decomposing in a pigeon-hole of a Senate sub-committee, from ever coming into life. It was introduced with small hope of passage, its chief purpose was to raise the issue and start people talking about medical service as something to be standardized and rationed.

Certain to Lose

My doctor is a busy man. He works more nearly 16 hours a day than eight. A standardized working week of, say 40 hours for him would make two new doctors in our neighborhood necessary. Of course both new men would have to study the community's health record, have to be as well schooled as the older doctor and have to receive suitable salaries. It would be a bad deal, three ways:

(1) Some of my doctor's patients would have to accept treatment from a man with all to learn about them. (2) Since three men cost more to maintain than one, all of us would spend more money for medical aid. (3) My good doctor wouldn't be busy. The work he loves (his estate of lives) would be taken away from him. I figure his agile mind would turn to something else, and that he'd quit being a doctor at all.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Haley returned Sunday from Marfa where he has been in the hospital for a week, suffering from arthritis. His condition is not much improved.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Sanderson schools observed Book Week with an assembly program Friday morning. This program was one of a general nature in which each grade from the grammar school produced a very good number. Mrs. Holley had charge of the high school part of the program. I am sure that through this program we are all more conscious of the good points in having a "Book Week".

The Dopes Club met November 20, 1944. Bobby Edwards, president, called the meeting to order. Wilma Jean Northcut, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. There was no old or new business. Clyde Griffith, program chairman, took over. Charles Yeates gave a talk on the "Island of Ireland as a Whole". Earline Cox talked of "Ireland's Many Writers." Clyde Griffith read to them, "How to Get the Floor". Roll call was answered with something interesting about Ireland. The club was then adjourned.

The Junior Red Cross Membership drive ended Nov. 15. To date a total of $40.03 has been turned in. The seventh grade was first to turn in a hundred per cent enrollment and a total of $3.60.

Have you seen the good looking leather strap Mr. Holley is displaying so proudly? Yep, John Lewis made it and sent it special to him to use for his whistle during basket ball season.

FIFTH GRADE NEWS

James Bean has spent the past ten days in Beaumont, where his father is attending a V. F. W. meeting.

Bobby Wilkinson has gone with his parents to San Antonio. Herbert Saegert has been ill for several days.

We don't know just what happened to Suzie. She has missed several days since her trip to San Antonio.

The class was divided into six groups. Each group wrote a play from a short story and presented the play to the class.

Our class read twenty-eight books during Book Week.

The assembly program observing Book Week was a representation of the following books: "Little Women," "Tales of a Grandfather," "Tom Sawyer," "Tom Brown's School Days," "We," and "Black Beauty". The assembly guessed these rather easily with the exception of "Tales of a Grandfather."

Our group was 100 per cent in donating to the Red Cross.

We were sorry to lose R. E. Mason, who moved to Crane.

In his place we welcome Delma Stidham, who comes from Wingate.

Jackie Lou's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wise from Sheffield spent four days with the Slover family.

Jackie Lou went with her parents to Alpine to spend two days with her grandmother and grandfather Slover.

On Barbara's birthday last week Mrs. Slover served punch and muffins just as school closed.

Mrs. House, our room mother, gave us a party last Friday. We had time for only one game. Then she served ice cream cups, cookies, and all-day suckers. Everyone enjoyed this treat.

Mrs. Greenwood left before the party to go to her mother's in order to see her brother before he left for overseas.

Punch and cookies were served. Due to the football boys playing Rankin the next day, the dance closed at 10:30. All had a wonderful time!

A group of girls met at Mrs. Holley's Saturday night to stay until the boys came in from Rankin. Mr. Holley phoned about 10:00 to tell that the game had been won. We made popcorn and candy. Later Mrs. Holley made some ice box cookies and cocoa for the boys. The girls with the help of Miss Richardson entertained herself until four o'clock. Holley took the girls to the bus after the boys through eating. We all enjoyed the party very much, thank Mrs. Holley.

VACATION TRAVEL CAN COST GAS COUPONS

Motorists who use gasoline illegally to travel to winter resorts face the loss of their mileage rations, the Office of Price Administration warns. Chester Bowles, OPA Administrator said: "The millions of patriotic drivers throughout the country who are abiding by the mileage regulations and getting along on tight rations so that all may share fairly the scarce civilian supplies have a right to expect OPA to shut down hard on those who obtain gasoline unfairly for non-essential trips. We intend to do just that." The agency has ruled that persons who are planning a seasonal trip for a definite period of time are not making a bona fide change of residence and that special rations may not be granted for such trips.

Marines Recover Flag on Guam

The flag held by Marine Private First Class Leon J. Oliver of Pawtucket, R. I., is believed to be the one that flew over the Marine Barracks in Guam prior to the Japanese invasion. When Leathernecks recaptured the island, the flag was found concealed in a pillow case in a native hut.

Grub Control Is Urged By Texas A. and M. College

Proper Treatment Told in Pamphlet Recently Issued

Cattle grubs each year in Texas destroy enough leather to furnish shoes for a million soldiers and enough meat to feed nearly five thousand for a 12-month period.

In view of these and other losses, the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service is waging a strenuous control program which already is under way in South Texas and will continue to late December in the north-eastern section. A leaflet describing control measures entitled "Are Your Cattle Grubby?" just has been issued by the Extension Service and is generally available from county agricultural agents.

Dr. H. G. Johnson, Extension entomologist and author of the new leaflet, says in addition to causing losses of meat and leather, grubs are known to reduce milk flow approximately 25 per cent. In addition, grubby cattle require about 15 per cent more feed. Looking at grub damage as a whole, it costs Texas farmers and ranchers about five million dollars each year. Dr. Johnson believes this can be saved by simple, inexpensive treatment.

For small numbers of animals, dusting is easy and effective, since the dust simply is rubbed into the hair with the finger tips. A fruit jar with a dozen or so holes in the lid can be used. A mixture of 5 per cent rotenone and sulfur is preferable, but where these ingredients are unobtainable substitutions can be made.

Cube or derris, sulfur, and water also combine to make a suitable spray mixture. Dr. Johnson recommends use of a power spray producing not less than 250 pounds pressure. The backs of the animals should be wet thoroughly. When both grubs and lice are to be controlled animals should be dipped. Two applications 17 to 21 days apart are necessary. The first should be made 10 to 14 days after the first grubs are mature, that is, a dark brown or black color.

NOV. TIRE QUOTA INCREASED

The November quota of automobile tires allocated by the War Production Board will be 1,850,000 or 250,000 more than in October, it is announced by the Office of Price Administration and War Production Board. "As near as we can tell, this quota should satisfy normal November replacement needs of eligible 'B' and 'C' ration holders," Max McCullough, Deputy OPA Rationing Administrator said. He pointed out that the ration quota makes it "clear that re-capping will still be necessary for most motorists if they are to keep their cars in operation". Unfilled "B" and "C" tire applications, needed increases in dealer inventories and a higher production rate are required before "A" ration holders can expect new tires.

Marine Capt. Ralph Mayfield of Cameron has been awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement while on cargo dropping mission in the Solomon Islands area." Risking his life to save the lives of men on the ground, Captain Mayfield kept the men supplied with ammunition during a particularly bitter battle against the Japs on New Georgia Island.

In Italy, 1st Lt. Dan Cunningham, 22-year-old native of Corsicana, received the Air Medal for his many exploits aboard a Flying Fortress. And back in Texas, Mrs. Shirley Quillen of Taylor received the Distinguished Flying Cross during ceremonies at Bergstrom Field. The coveted decoration was won by her husband, Maj. Monroe B. Quillen, during heroic flights against the Nazis in Europe. Major Quillen was shot down and is now a prisoner-of-war in Germany.

To keep busy until he returns, Mrs. Quillen works in the office of the United War Chest of Texas, helping with the statewide campaign for the National War Funds.
