LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert: ---
Luke has been somewhat incapacitated this week with two broken ribs, the result of missing his footing stepping out the back door and stumbling against the sink in the garage.

In his mood, we figured it best not to let him get started writing a column this week.

The stories surrounding the shooting of Sheriff Cooksey last week are about as numerous as they can be.

It is odd to hear explanations and opinions as to what happened and why.

One observation that we feel is worth making is this: Let us say, for example, that the situation were reversed. The sheriff had shot the man and had seriously wounded him. Then some would probably have said that Bill was "trigger-happy", he shouldn't have shot the man. And that probably would be said by the same one who would now that Bill was careless.

And while we are on the subject of the sheriff, Jimmie Hanson said Monday that the collections were coming in slowly on the "love gift" that is being taken up for the sheriff to help defray the expenses involved with his hospitalization, etc.

Anyone who wishes to contribute to this cause is asked to contact Hanson or one of the other solicitors for the fund.

After writing the above information about the collection of funds for the sheriff, it was learned about the action of the commissioners' court. This will not stop the collection of the special fund, since there will be other expenses involved. Other collectors have also been designated so that it will be simpler for those who wish to contribute to the fund.

With Thanksgiving not yet upon us, it seems a little early to begin talking about the possibility of certain people running for certain offices next year.

Eagles Lose 13-40 To Eldorado

The Sanderson Eagles hit the scoring column twice against Eldorado for their best effort of the season, but lost the game by the score of 40-13. It was the final home game for the Eagles.

Sanderson received the opening kickoff and was forced to punt on the fourth down.

In their first offensive effort, the Eldorado Eagles made five continuous first downs and went from their own 27-yard line to the goal in 11 plays. The final 5 yards was made by Charles Nixon and Scott McGregor kicked the extra point. In the same period and on their next offensive series, Eldorado went from their own 41 to the goal line in eight plays, Jay Halbert running the final 3 yards and McGregor added the one point extra on the place kick.

In the second period, Eldorado scored early from the 2-yard line with Sam Henderson getting the call. McGregor again added the extra point with a kick.

Sanderson's first tally came on the successive series for the local Eagles. They went from their own 39 to the goal line in 9 plays with Bill Adams going in from the 10-yard line. The try for the extra point failed.

On the next kickoff, after the first play, Sam Henderson ran 44 yards for a TD and McGregor put one more point on the scoreboard with the kick.

The second Sanderson score of the game also came in the second period when Travis Harkins threw a pass caught on the run by Andrew Riess who went in for the score. The play was good for 35 yards.

On the opening kickoff of the second half, Jay Halbert ran 85 yards for the score and the kick by McGregor was good.

Sanderson punted on their offensive series and three plays later Eldorado had another touchdown, made by Danny Halbert, on a 2-yard run. McGregor missed on the kick try.

Later in the same period, Eldorado tried a field goal which hit the upright, bounced down to the horizontal bar and from there to the playing field and was not good.

There was no score in the final period, but Eldorado had one re-called because of a penalty.

During the half-time, following the exhibition by the Eldorado band, the Sanderson Junior High School band marched onto the field and put on a show and were followed by the Eagle band which did some marching maneuvers to their music and they were joined by the Junior band for some additional maneuvers and a musical salute to the senior members of the band and football team.

Senior football players are Simon Fuentes, Bill Adams, Billy Golden, Ruperto Perez, Darrell Howard, Bobby Allen, Milton Hope, Don Deaton, Steve Harkins, and Danny Hodgkins.

Senior band members are Suzanne Downie, drum major, and twirlers, Pam Stavley and Jodie Tronson, Bill Turner, Isidoro Calzada, Yolanda Calzada, Carla Dunn, Billy McSparran, Lydia Munoz, Janie Sanchez, and Toni Salas.

Before the game, the parents of the boys on the team were introduced and all lined up on the field after the introductions.

Following the game, the parents

Wool Company Moves To New Warehouse

The Sanderson Wool Commission Co. moved into their new warehouse this week. The building is north of Sanderson on US 285 north of the Texas Highway Department Maintenance barn.

The new warehouse is fire-proof throughout, with a concrete floor, sheet metal walls and roof. The office space is insulated and the ceiling is of fire-proof material, with the inside partitions being of hollow-tile construction.

There are two sets of doors on the front and back sides of the building and doors on each end for loading and unloading. Two sets of scales in the warehouse will also facilitate the handling of wool and speed up unloading.

The office and sales room arrangement are similar to that in the old building with an adjacent office for J. T. Williams, owner and manager of the business.

There is a large walk-in vault for the preservation of valuable papers and the like.

The building, built by Moore and Gray, general contractors, of Alpine, has 27,500 square feet of floor space and the dimensions are 250 feet by 110 feet.

Besides Mr. Williams as the manager of the business and Mrs. Williams as part-time bookkeeper, the business employs W. D. O'Bryant as the bookkeeper and Tony Calzada as warehouseman.

The old warehouse was destroyed by the flood June 11.

Sheriff Cooksey Shot Twice By Mexican Near Dryden

Terrell County Sheriff Bill C. Cooksey was shot down and seriously wounded by a lone gunman Thursday afternoon while investigating a large cache of stolen merchandise hidden in a cave about two miles east of Dryden near the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks.

Cooksey, sheriff of Terrell County since his appointment in 1960, underwent emergency surgery early Thursday night in the Val Verde Hospital in Del Rio with bullet wounds in his left leg and back. The bullet that entered his back near the waist and at the spine, emerged under the left arm.

About 50 law enforcement officers, summoned from a five-county area, combed rugged country south of Dryden Thursday night using bloodhounds, but no trace of the man could be found. They called off their search at about 9:00 p. m., theorizing the man, who apparently had entered the country illegally, had returned to Mexico.

The story is recounted as follows:

There had been some reports of theft in the Dryden area and one of the men who works for Indio Calzada reported finding a cave with several items in it that aroused his suspicions. He reported the fact and Sheriff Cooksey went to Dryden to investigate. He stopped there and enlisted the aid of Lewis Cash, because of his knowledge of the Mexican language, and Benny Ray Ross was there and went with Cooksey, Cash, and Alfredo Gallegos, a ranch hand of Indio Calzada's, who had found the cave and the contents and reported it to the officers.

On approaching the cave, the suspect stepped around a bush as he came out of the cave, and fired a shot which struck Cooksey in the leg and he fired the second shot after Cooksey had fallen.

Cash took a .30-.30 out of one of the pickups and was able to pull the trigger while the rifle was pointing at the man, but the rifle did not have a shell in the chamber. The gunman then made a threat to Cash and made him throw the rifle down. He picked up the rifle and turned Cooksey over on his back and holding the end of the barrel against Cooksey's neck, made other threats.

The gunman then forced Ross to tie Cash with a wire and then Ross was tied with a piece of rope. He then took the keys to both pickups and forced Gallegos to drive him to near the river.

After the two had left, Cash managed to get Ross untied and he then untied Cash who wired around the ignition of the pickup and left Ross to care for Cooksey while he went for aid.

Ross heard a train coming and flagged it down and notified the crew of the shooting and they in turn radioed in to Sanderson for aid. They also gave Ross some bandages to use on Cooksey's leg and did what they could to help.

"We've been having some stealing," said Terrell County Deputy Sheriff Dalton Hogg, "and Gallegos reported finding stuff in a cave."

Hogg described the thefts as house burglaries where either food or clothing was stolen.

Hogg said Cooksey, Gallegos, Ross and Cash had gone to investigate the cave which is along the Southern Pacific railroad tracks.

"I talked to Bill at 1 p. m.," said Hogg, "so it must have happened between 1:30 and 2."

"They found this Mexican man in the cave and got him out to talk to him. When he came out he pulled a gun and shot Bill (Cooksey) in the left leg and after he fell to the ground shot him in the back."

Hogg said Cooksey told him the man handled the gun "real professional like."

"He (Cooksey) never did see the gun," Hogg said. "He said the man was stepping around a bush."

Hogg said the pistol the Mexican used was apparently a .32 or .38. He said Cooksey described the man as small, five feet, six inches and 140 pounds. He said the man was about 35 to 40 years old.

Portrait by Stan's Alpine Studio
Mrs. Ron Sanders
...nee Miss Elizabeth Felts

In the First Baptist Church on Saturday at 4:00 p. m., Miss Elizabeth (Cookie) Felts became the bride of Rondell Gene Sanders with Rev. Robert Davis of Big Bend National Park officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felts of Bushland, former residents of the El Paso Gas camp. Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Sanders of Smiths Grove, Kentucky, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Floor baskets of white mums and greenery decorated the altar where the couple stood for the exchange of marriage vows in the presence of a few close relatives and friends.

Miss Donnie Sue Taylor of Austin, cousin of the bride, was the pianist and Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson the organist who also accompanied Mrs. Irvin Robbins, soloist, who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Perfect Love".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white delustered satin fashioned with sculptured bodice having a round neck with lace appliques re-embroidered in pearls and long petal-pointed sleeves. The floor-length skirt caught with self-fabric roses in the back to form a semi-bustle, fell in graceful folds to form a chapel train.

Her finger-tip length veil of French illusion was attached to a pearl tiara. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses centered with an orchid atop her satin-covered Bible, and wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Pixie Mansfield was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Linda Babb of Dallas, Miss Candy Bunch of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Alvin Cook of Valentine.

Their dresses were of royal blue brocade satin with fitted bodice, long sleeves, and A-line street-length skirts. Circular nose veils worn with their pill box hats completed their ensemble. They carried crescent bouquets of pink carnations.

The bride's gown and the dresses worn by her attendants were designed and made by the bride's mother.

Alvin Cook of Valentine was the best man. Ushers were Ricky Felts, brother of the bride and a student at Tarleton State College; Doyle Taylor of Austin, a cousin of the bride, and J. A. Mansfield.

A reception in the Legion Hall followed the wedding. Gwyn Mansfield, Brenda Sanders of Smiths Grove, Ky., sister of the bridegroom, and Brenda Babb of San Antonio were at the bride's book to register the guests.

The bride's table, covered in a white satin cloth, was centered with a small arrangement of white mums. Mrs. J. A. Mansfield served the four-tiered cake and the punch.

The groom's table was covered in an ecru hand-crocheted cloth. The bride's cousin, Mrs. Doyle Taylor of Austin, served coffee and fruit cake.

After a short wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple will be at home in Big Bend Park where both are employed.

The bride, a graduate of the Sanderson High School, attended the University of Texas one year.

Among out-of-town relatives and friends here for the wedding were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandeis of Smiths Grove, Ky., the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chisholm and children of Denver City; Mrs. Jimmy Shinn, the bride's cousin, and her uncle, M. T. Shinn, both of Stephenville; Mrs. Willadean Babb of San Antonio; Miss Barbara Cates, Baylor University, Waco; Mike Wood, and Charles Riggs, Sul Ross College, Alpine; Wally Welch, SW SC, San Marcos.

Mr. and Mrs. Felts were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Ernestine Rogers. The members of the wedding party, the bridegroom's parents, and Vicki and Sandra Rogers were the invited guests.

Miss Carol Lynne Baker
... to wed January 29

Former Sanderson residents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Baker Sr., of El Paso, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Carol Lynne, to Charles Burton Dedmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dedmon Jr. of Dallas.

The couple plans a January 29 wedding in Asbury Methodist Church in El Paso.

Miss Baker attended Rice University and plans to continue her studies at Southern Methodist University in Dallas after her wedding.

At El Paso Burges High School where she was graduated summa cum laude, the bride-elect was a military princess, N. D. C. C., sponsor colonel, a football princess, royal visitor to Austin-in-Action, student council officer, and a beauty. A member of the National and Spanish Honor Societies, she was a recipient of an all-Burges award three years and was elected to Who's Who in Spanish and Math.
