Open house for the new wing, which like the rest of the hospital will be paid for by citizens of the Friona and Parmer County area, will be held Sunday from 2 to 5 p. m. (STAFF PHOTO)

ADDITION IS COMPLETE

Open House For Hospital's New Wing Is Slated Sunday

Open house for the new $100,000 addition to Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona will be held from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday.

The new wing adds 10 rooms to the hospital, and the rooms are constructed so that two beds per room is a possibility. The addition extends the hospital's capacity from 25 beds at present to 35 to 45-bed capacity, depending on the makeup of the occupancy.

Parmer County Community Hospital is noted for being completely financed and built by the people of Parmer County, and receives no assistance from federal or state funds.

The addition was built by a Friona firm, Taylor Construction Co., who was general contractor. The bid was for $104,000. The new area covers 4,400 square feet.

The new rooms are ultra-modern. The beds are raised and lowered by electricity, and the head, foot or knee portion of the bed can be positioned electrically by the patient himself, merely by working a control lever.

Each room has its own individual three-speed temperature control unit and thermostat, so that every room can be adjusted to suit the individual patient.

There is a bedside cabinet designed for the rooms. Those which have been furnished have the cabinet positioned between the two beds. The cabinet has a reversible door which can be changed to open from either the left or right, depending upon which of the room's beds are being used at the time.

Each room has a telephone and television jack, in case the patient desires either or both during his hospital stay. The bathrooms have grab bars over the tub and stool, to aid the patient in rising.

A built-in lavatory-dresser is constructed in each room. The units are made of wood and are finished to bring out the texture of the wood.

Two of the new rooms are for pediatrics. A reclining chair is to be placed in these rooms, for the benefit of mothers of babies who are hospitalized overnight.

There are other full-equipped rooms also, such as an airy day room with a large glass wall on the south, opening onto a sun porch. These facilities will allow patients a refreshing change, when they are able to move about, or wheel into the lounge area.

Also included in the addition are storage rooms, supply rooms and a sterilization room.

One of the pediatric rooms is built adjacent to the nurses desk, so that babies who might require closer watch can be visible. Also, medicine can be passed directly into this room through a window to the nurses' quarters.

A silver tea and art show by local artists, sponsored by the Parmer County Community Hospital Auxiliary, will be held in conjunction with the open house.

The nurses desk has been re-arranged and a sterilization room. The nurses desk has been re-modeled. The new wing juts out to the west of the older part of the hospital, connecting at the point adjacent to the nurses desk.

Bond Sales Hit 32 Per Cent

Frank A. Spring, Chairman of the Parmer County Savings Bonds Committee, reports that Series E and H Bond sales in Parmer County totaled $4,063 in April. Sales for the first four months of 1965 were $32,130 and 32 per cent of the year's goal has been achieved.

April sales in Texas totaled $12,300,751. Sales for the first four months of the year were $51,586,943 which represents 34 per cent of the 1965 bond goal.

"During this time of year I am sure many people are searching for a suitable graduation or wedding gift. Savings Bonds make the ideal gift for every occasion for they are the gift that keeps on giving. The Savings Bonds Division has supplied banks with a special gift envelope when bonds are being used as gifts," Chairman Spring stated.

Fifth Doctor Added To Local Hospital's Staff

Dr. Robert S. Alexander, a former classmate of Friona's Dr. J. L. Humphrey, will move to Friona as the fifth medical doctor on the staff of Parmer County Community Hospital on July 1.

The association of Dr. Alexander with the local hospital will mark the first time in its history that there have been five medical doctors on the staff.

A native of Houston, Dr. Alexander has spent the past two years working with the Public Health Service in the Federal Correctional Institute at LaTuna, near El Paso.

Prior to that, Dr. Alexander spent a year with the Public Health Service at the federal reformatory at El Reno, Okla. He attended the University of Texas and the UT medical school at Galveston, from which he received his medical degree in 1962. Dr. Alexander did his internship at Breckenridge Hospital in Austin, as did Dr.

Humphrey. At the University of Texas, Dr. Alexander was a member of Kappa Alpha, and at medical school belonged to Alpha Kappa Kappa. Also, he was a member of the honorary medical society.

Alpha Omega Alpha. The Alexanders are to reside at 1201 W. Fifth in Friona. Mrs. Alexander and the children are already in Friona. The children are Robert Synder Alexander, Jr., three and Cynthia Diane, two. The family attended the Presbyterian church at El Paso.

Mrs. David Moseley Claimed By Death

Funeral services were held at Friona Methodist Church at 4 p. m. Sunday, May 30, for Mrs. David Moseley. Rev. L. L. Hill of Amarillo officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Russell McAnally.

Eva Blanche Collier was born June 3, 1897 at Bridgeport, Texas. She moved with her parents to Hammon, Oklahoma, while still a young girl. On July 3, 1919 she was married to David Moseley at Ringling, Oklahoma.

The Moseleys lived near Ringling several years before moving to Hammon, Okla. in 1922. In 1926 they moved to the Friona area and have lived here since that time.

Mrs. Moseley joined the Methodist Church at an early age and was active in the affairs of Friona Methodist Church and the Woman's Society of Christian Service until she became ill a few weeks ago.

She died at Parmer County Community Hospital Friday, May 28, after an illness of three weeks.

Survivors include her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Herschel (Edith) Johnson, Friona, two sons, Hugh of Farwell and Jack of Friona; four grandchildren and one brother, Joe E. Collier, also of Friona.

Funeral services were held at Friona Methodist Church at 4 p. m. today at Friona Lanes. All merchants are invited to attend.

Sunday Shower Gives .45 Inches Of Rain

A shower measuring .45 inches of rain fell in Friona Sunday evening. The shower also was fairly general in the area, with many farmers reporting a half-inch or more of gentle-falling rain.

The rain, though fairly small in amount, was just right for the area's small farm plants, many of which were looking good this week.

Sunday's total rounded out the month of May with a total rainfall in the city of Friona of 2.31 inches. The year's total through May stands at 4.44 inches, which is almost three inches more than through the same time a year ago, when the total at 1.50 inches.

End Of School Marked By Moving Preparations

This year the end of school was approached quite differently than it normally would have been. You see, it's a "moving year," and certain preparatory measures have been taken in anticipation of next fall's "big move."

The high school library spent a major portion of the last semester cataloging and boxing books from its shelves.

The library books were boxed according to shelves, and the boxes were marked, so they could easily be re-shelved when the high school re-opens in its new quarters next fall.

Have you ever had trouble getting enough large boxes for a move? Well, that was even more of a problem in boxing the approximately 4,000 books in the high school library.

"We had saved boxes all semester for the packing operation," stated Mrs. Ira Holt, high school librarian. She explained that students working in the library actually did practically all of the boxing work.

"I just more or less directed the show," she said. Meanwhile, similar operations were conducted at the library for the middle grades, which will move into the present high school to form for the first time an actual Friona Junior High School.

"This has been sort of a semester project," stated high school principal Raymond Cook in reference to the move. "We've done as much advance work on the moving job as possible so as to minimize the work when move-in time comes," he said.

The textbooks, of which there are about 2,500 in high school, were not boxed. Since they run in series with several books being identical, they were merely grouped and stacked together.

Because the new high school building won't be completed for some time, some items will have to be moved twice.

For instance, the vocational agriculture department at the old high school building is to be remodelled for use by the junior high school as classrooms. Thus, the "Ag boys" had to move out all the fixtures of the department, and store them in the junior high school field house until completion of the new vocational agriculture and shop building.

Also, some 450 desks from the "Old Red" building (which

Here's All You Do To Get Your Name In

Many times as newspaper people we're asked the following question "What do you have to do to get your name in the paper?"

However, when Mrs. Cordie Potts asked it the other day, she had a perfect right to do so.

All that happened at the Potts residence on Wednesday, May 19 was that the Potts home was struck by lightning which burned their garage and caused smoke damage to the rest of the house. In addition, Potts lost his wheat to hail during the thunderstorm.

All this happened about the time the Star was being printed for that week, and in the ensuing week we forgot to write the story. Our apologies to the Potts family. And don't try to outdo yourselves to get your name in print again. It just isn't worth it.

GETS SCHOLARSHIP. . . Doug Dodd, Friona Chieftain football star, is shown signing a letter of intent to play football at East Central State College in Oklahoma, where he was offered a full scholarship (room and board, books and tuition). Coach Light, shown with Doug, stated that the college, located at Ada, Okla., was especially interested in Dodd's kicking ability.

Final Rites Conducted For Mrs. H. Williams

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Williams, 77, resident of Friona for the past 32 years, were conducted from Sixth Street Church of Christ at 3 p.m. Sunday. C.J. Horton officiated.

Mrs. Williams who had been ill several months, died at Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford Thursday.

Survivors include six sons, Woodrow Williams, of Albany, Oregon; Elton Williams of Beaver, Oregon; George Williams of McMinnville, Oregon; Ivan Williams and Gene Williams, both of Liberal, Kansas, and Raymond Williams of Amarillo.

Also four daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Wallace, Wellington, Kansas; Mrs. Arletta Brooks, Hereford; Mrs. Arvilla Elmore, Friona and Mrs. Lucille Wilson, San Lorenzo, Calif.

Twenty-three grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren were also survivors.

Palbearers were Orville Houser, Bob Riethmayer, Bill Woolley, S.S. Prichard, Elroy Wilson and John Hays.

Near-Tragedy Mars Party

A Sunday School class party on Memorial Day almost ended in tragedy in Friona Monday.

Several youngsters attending the party at the Warren Conner home decided to play volleyball, but first had to move an automobile parked in the driveway.

Some of the kids crawled onto the car's hood as it was being backed out of the drive. Ann Ayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ayers, jumped from the car and it rolled over her leg.

She is hospitalized at Parmer County Community hospital with a fractured ankle bone, broken collar bone and several bruises.

Pool To Offer Lifesaving

Junior and senior lifesaving classes are to be offered at Friona Dive-Inn swimming pool. The classes will be given at night for the benefit of working people.

A meeting will be held Wednesday, June 9 at 8:30 p. m. for all those interested in the classes.

The present office at the high school building, formerly occupied by principal Raymond Cook, will be made into a book room. A new office will be built from one of the existing classrooms.

After sorghum has emerged, spray Atrazine to control weeds and grasses.

The idea is to spray Atrazine 80W herbicide right after sorghum has emerged, but before weeds are 1 1/2 inches high. This one application, moved to the weed root zone by rainfall, will control most annual broad-leaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

Control of weeds and grasses in sorghum with Atrazine can greatly reduce the need for cultivating. And so your crop goes through the entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients.

The results of weed control in sorghum are higher yields and lower production costs. And you can now graze or feed forage to livestock from treated sorghum fields 60 days after Atrazine application.

Contact your local supplier now for Atrazine 80W herbicide.

The following article about a former Friona resident and her current activities recently appeared in a Minot, North Dakota newspaper, Gay Cass Price, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenyth Cass, and her husband, George, are both graduates of Friona High School.

TIOGA -- The power of the written word has made the name Gay Cass Price known in virtually every household here even though she and her family have been residents for only eight months.

In type she is Gay Cass Price but at home with her husband and two children she is Mrs. George Price. Her column and feature stories in the Tioga Tribune, published by Plus Hornstein, have made her a popular woman in the oil city.

Hinging between fantasy and reality in her column, she uses a basic truth from everyday incidents of life, adding a little exaggeration. Her exaggerations, however, do not put the particular incident beyond the realm of possibility.

There's a certain degree of peril, she acknowledges, in mixing literary license with facts. People often stop her on the street to ask for further details on a story she has told of some individual's plight. "Some people take these column stories for absolute fact," she confides.

In the column she related the problems of moving from a three-bedroom home with a basement into a two-bedroom duplex apartment, with ten year's collection of household items and two children; a woman attempting to hold a garden party in North Dakota in early April; and a husband attempting to put a do-it-yourself toy together.

Her story of the husband and the toy included his having to sleep with a portion of it stuck to his finger.

Discussing her feature stories, she said she did not think the possibility of running out of subjects in the Tioga community exists. "I have come to the conclusion everyone has a story behind him. Most people enjoy reading about Joe Blow down the street," she said.

Hornstein attests to Mrs.

Price's success as a writer for his paper. "Since her features and column were started in December, I have received more paid subscriptions than before," he said. "I like the column and stories, and they have added to the paper," the publisher said.

Hornstein sells advertising, works in the back shop and writes the local news stories. "Consequently," he added, "I don't have time to write feature stories and columns. She has filled in where I needed it."

In the five months Mrs. Price has been writing for the paper, Hornstein said he has received about 100 letters and comments, "all favorable."

"I hope she is around for a long time," he said.

Her husband, a gas engineer for Signal Oil and Gas Company at Tioga, said he approves her taking the time for her writing every week.

"It sort of brings out the best in my wife and she is happy doing it. Besides that," he said, "it keeps her from going out and getting a full-time job."

Journalism, however, is not a new fancy of Mrs. Price.

Her connections with newspapers goes back to when she was 16-years-old working on the Friona, Tex., Star, also weekly. At that time, she said, she did everything from working as a printer's devil to writing news and feature stories for the paper. She is a native of Friona.

As a freshman in college at Lubbock, Tex., majoring in journalism, she applied and was employed as a feature writer on the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

"My getting the job flabbergasted the teachers," she said. "Being a little on the naive side, I didn't know the college sent Junior and senior journalism students down for interviews for possible employment, and then I, a freshman, applied and was accepted."

Mrs. Price said she quit both writing and college when she and her husband were married. "However," she said, "if we ever get transferred back to a college town, I am going to finish my journalism major."

Mrs. Price met Hornstein at a bridge party. Their visit established the fact that he was looking for help and she wanted to get back to writing. The deal they made has been a happy one for both parties.

GEORGE PRICE FAMILY . . . The George Price family, who now lives at Minot, North Dakota, is pictured in their home there. Mrs. Price, the former Gay Cass, is a former employee of Friona Star and Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. She is currently a feature writer for several North Dakota papers. Mr. and Mrs. Price are both graduates of Friona High School. Their children are Laurie and Russell.

Graduating Seniors Plan Wide Range Of Pursuits

Future plans of the 61 recent graduates of Friona High School are many and varied. Forty members of the graduating class of 1965 plan to pursue higher educational courses in colleges in Texas, Missouri and Oklahoma.

Three members of the class were married before graduation and three more are making summer wedding plans. Seven students have chosen beauty or business schools; three plan to start farming; one will soon be joining the armed forces; one is undecided about his plans and one will be continuing her education in Australia.

The paths of 39 members of the class who started to school in Friona will soon be going in several directions. Those who were first graders here include Keith Black, Ronnie Brookfield, Kim Buske, Jerry Cass, Jan Wells Chesher, Darrell Collier, Barbara Bracken Cunningham and Linda Jo Davis.

Also Sharon Dean, Julia Dennis, Charles Fields, Donna Fulks, Gary Hand, Dennis Howell, Teto Jennings, Joe Bob Johnson, Nan Lillard, Barbara Lloyd, Sheryl Long, Doyle Mabry, Merylene Masie and Danny Murphee.

Also Karen Sue Osborn, Roscoe Parr, David Perkins, Shirley Phipps, Ann Prewett, Linda Rector, George Rushing, Jim Snead, Robert Stewart, Jeanne Taylor, John Taylor, Lynn Wilson and Jonelle Wood.

Thirteen others completed all four years of their high school work here. They were Pat Burton, Jackie Clark, Doug Dodd, Elizabeth Drager, Letha Fletcher, Shirley Hutson, Glenda Milner, Kay McBroom, Dale McClellan, Bobby Perkins, Chris Tannahill, Milton Hargus, and Larry Buckley.

When colleges were selected, Texas Tech at Lubbock was by far the most popular with members of the class. The thirteen who have chosen Tech are Ronnie Brookfield, Kim Buske, Jerry Cass, Julia Dennis, Teto Jennings, Barbara Lloyd, Sheryl Long, Kay McBroom, Linda Rector, George Rushing, Jim Snead, Jeanne Taylor and Lynn Wilson.

Ranking second in popularity is West Texas University at Canyon. Those planning to enroll there are Keith Black, Charles Fields, Merylene Masie, Glenda McClellan, Shirley Phipps and Chris Tannahill.

Only three of the graduates have selected out-of-state colleges. Karen Sue Osborn will be going to Cottey College at Nevada, Missouri; Doug Dodd will enter East Central College at Ada, Oklahoma; and Linda Jo Davis will be attending Panhandle A&M at Goodwell, Oklahoma.

Three Wayland Baptist College freshmen will be changing addresses from Friona to Plainview for the 1964-65 school year. They are Dennis Howell, Doyle Mabry and Danny Murphee.

Nan Lillard plans to go to Abilene Christian College and Carol Struve has not decided whether she will attend the same college or go to David Lipscomb College at Nashville, Tennessee.

Bobby Perkins and Darrell Collier plan to attend South Plains Junior College at Levelland; Pat Burton and Ann Prewett will be enrolling at Baylor University at Waco and Jackie Clark plans to attend Sul Ross College at Alpine.

Sharon Dean will attend Lubbock Christian College; Neel

Lyles will attend University of Texas, Austin; and Jimmy Shelton will attend Tyler Junior College, Tyler.

Five graduates who plan to attend college but have not made definite decisions are Larry Buckley, Roscoe Parr, Robert Stewart, Jackie Stowers and John Taylor.

Six feminine members of the class are making plans to enroll in beauty schools and one plans a business course. Those planning to enter beauty schools are Neola Bohner, Janice Cunningham, Elizabeth Drager, Janell Daniel, Letha Fletcher, and Barbara White.

Jonelle Wood plans to attend business college at Amarillo. Brenda Hawker will soon return to her native country, Australia, and will continue her education there; David Perkins plans to enter the armed forces; and Milton Hargus has not made a definite decision.

Summer wedding plans are being made by Rita Underdown, Donna Fulks, and Shirley Hutson. The three class members who were married before graduation were Jan Wells Chesher, Carolyn Melton Dement, and Barbara Bracken Cunningham.

Travel is also included in the plans of several of the graduates. Nan Lillard and Carol Struve left last week for a trip to Houston to visit relatives and go sightseeing. Later this summer Carol will go to New York where she will serve as a senior counselor at a church camp. She will go by way of Nashville, Tennessee, to visit the campus of David Lipscomb College.

Merylene Masie will be going to Europe for a visit in the home of her foreign exchange student sister from Denmark.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means to express my appreciation to my many friends for the beautiful flowers and nice cards with expressions of concern which were sent me during my recent stay in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

I would also like to thank Bro. McAnally and Bro. Lester Hill for their visits and prayers.

I appreciate these expressions of friendship more than I am able to say. May God bless and keep you in my prayer.

mark, Ann Jensen. She will also tour several other European countries before returning home in time for the fall session at West Texas State.

Barbara Lloyd plans a trip to California to visit relatives and Linda Rector will accompany her grandparents, with whom she has made her home for several years, on a tour of the Pacific Northwest in the early summer and later the trio will tour middle eastern and southern states.

If present plans materialize, future reunions of this class will be attended by one doctor, two nurses, one pharmacist, two lawyers, one accountant and a number of teachers.

Dennis Howell plans to study medicine; Nan Lillard and Kay McBroom will go into nursing; Kim Buske and Jerry Cass have made plans to attend law school and Doyle Mabry hopes to be a Certified Public Accountant.

Many residents of this area were saddened this past week end because of the death of Mrs. David Moseley, long time resident of Friona. If any quotation I can think of could begin to describe this fine lady, it is, "To know her was to love her."

When I first met her face to face, I had visited with her a number of times over the telephone, but had never met her personally. At a Friona Wheat Growers barbecue I was standing in line visiting with neighbors when a pleasant little lady with a very friendly voice came up to me.

Her introduction went like this, "You are June Floyd and I'm Mrs. Moseley." She had recognized my voice from hearing it over the telephone.

From that day forward she was on my list of favorite Frionans. I'm sure I interrupted her Monday washing and her Tuesday chores more times than one, but she was always ready to help out with any information I needed and never felt I was imposing on her.

She sincerely loved her friends and neighbors and seemed to have an extra sense built-in to tell her someone needed cheering up and enjoyed baking an extra loaf of bread, a tray of cookies or some other goodie. A cheery pop in visit from Mrs. Moseley would have been a boost to a person's morale even without the extra bit.

Young Frionans should be reminded that reading certificates will be available from the library again this summer. All school age readers who read many as 12 books will earn a certificate from the Texas State Library and Friona Public Library.

The first session of the pre-school age story hour was held this morning from 10 to 11 a.m. Each Thursday through the month of August all pre school age children are being invited to attend a story hour at this same time.

Residents of Friona can rightfully be proud of the Friona Public Library and should take advantage of its facilities at every opportunity. It is sponsored by Modern Study Club and is staffed by volunteer workers and is a fine indication of community cooperation.

Three young residents of the Black Community are anxious to receive some word about the whereabouts of their pet. It is a small puppy weighing about 2 1/2 pounds and strayed from the J.B. Snead residence at 807 West Sixth.

They wrote us a letter to the editor asking assistance in location her. Contents of the letter were as follows:

"Our puppy is lost. Will you please help us find her. She was visiting our grandparents in their new home and wasn't accustomed to her surroundings. She is the color of honey and that is what we called her even though she wasn't big enough to answer to any name. Please help us find her and we will do something nice for you.

Our grandmommy's telephone number is 247-2747." Jay, Karen and Mike Ferguson.

CORRECTION PLEASE -- Recently in this column the recipe of "Refrigerated Muffins," appeared. Through error, one ingredient was left out. This was the "5 teaspoons of soda." Add this and all will be well. Sorry this happened but as someone said "The biggest room in the world is the room for improvement" and it does seem that applies to this column too.

Foods & Medical Quacks -- Health hucksters are using "scare tactics," to sell their minerals, vitamins and herbal preparations and other medical quackery items to American consumers.

One of the target audiences of these propagandists and "quacks" is the older American - those who are 65 or over. According to the Food and Drug Administration representative these food and medical "quacks" are bulking American consumers "to the tune of a half billion dollars annually."

These "quacks" descend upon the public in the form of health food lecturers, mail order promotions, health writers and door-to-door salesmen. They are quite skilled at their trade, and generally just barely stay within the law-knowing full well that the public can be confused by pseudo-scientific double-talk. False ideas about food are their stock in trade and all too often, the older citizens are their victims.

The Food & Drug Administration carries on a constant program to protect the public and combat such quackery, nevertheless even sophisticated people are often victims of these hoaxes.

Aging and aches and pains and fear of what a doctor might say all work in favor of the mail-order capsule and the radio pitchman. Here is one thing one may do. Read the label on the product - and it says what advertisements have said, then it must be true. But if the label is noncommittal on a product that is vigorously promoted -- then beware. A reference list of good books on food for older people is available in the Home Demonstration Agent's office on the 2nd floor of the courthouse and you are invited to come by and pick up a copy free or call 481-3619 or write in for these and they will be mailed to you.

COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Root Rot Is Spotted In Some Area Wheat

In the past 10 days several wheat fields have turned up with dead or dying spots in them. Samples from some of these fields have been identified as having Foot-rotor Root-rot.

We suspect that other fields we have heard about have this same Foot-rot problem.

Affected plants may occur singly, in small circular spots, or in large areas in the field. Roots, crown and lower stalks are rotted. Plants mature early and are usually stunted with little grain.

Near maturity, affected plants are killed and appear as "white heads" in the field. These "white heads" may be in spots, scattered throughout a field, or a combination of both.

In West Texas Foot-rot is caused largely by soil-borne fungi.

Crop rotation with non-grass crops is desirable. Get rid of crop residues as fast as possible by plowing under straw so it will rot quickly. Summer fallow infested fields is a good practice to follow. Probably cotton should be the next crop grown on infested fields and it will be better if this is grown after leaving the ground fallow for a season. We suggest you plant cotton because it is a low residue crop. Grain sorghum would not be a good crop to follow with.

Anyone needing assistance with a field that has dead spots in it should contact the County Agricultural Agent, Joe Vanzandt, in Farwell.

FLOOD-CONTROL MEASURE

County's Survey Work On Draw Project Ends

Survey work on the portion of the Running Water Draw Watershed project in Parmer County will be completely finished by the end of the week, according to Jimmy Smith, local work unit conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service.

According to the survey work, it appears that the county will get at least two flood-control structures, and perhaps more, depending on the outcome of the proposal to locate a multi-purpose structure on the draw.

Sites which appear practically certain to receive one of the smaller or flood-prevention structures are points on the farms of Jack McCracken north of Bovina and Jack Dunn, south of Bovina. The flood-control structures will hold approximately 250 to 500 acre feet of water under normal conditions, and will have a maximum flood-control capacity of around 5,000 acre feet of water.

Some problems have arisen as to surveying potential locations for the proposed multi-purpose structure, which can be built along with the project, so that nothing definite has been done along that line.

Project officials are still hopeful of securing the multi-purpose structure, however. Andy Hurst is chairman of a county steering committee which is looking into the possibility of the larger structure, which would be a big recreational boon to the area.

Almost all the earth's air is below 500 miles above its surface.

Andrew J. Mastronardi tells us that a friend of his is a strong advocate of seat belts. He buckles himself in every time he drives his car, no matter how short the distance. Recently, while his own car was being serviced, he was driving a borrowed car which did not have seat belts. Forgetting this, he parked in front of the bank building, unbuckled his belt, stepped out of the car -- and made a desperate grab for his pants.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By JOE VANZANDT
County Agent

All the wind we have had since our rains have sure helped dig things out. We are coming down the home stretch on this year's wheat crop. In a matter of 2 or 3 weeks we should be hearing the hum of combines.

Several farmers asked me what I thought about watering some of this wheat the later part of May. There is not one sure-fire, cure-all answer as I see it. There are several considerations and the safest alternative would probably be not to water again. That is providing there was enough moisture to make your wheat crop.

If you watered, it might rain also, or you might get it on too late and have trouble getting the land dried out to get combines in.

GRASS MANAGEMENT
Deferred grazing is one of the best practices available to stockmen for improving the condition of native grass pastures. It is nothing more than the removal of livestock from a pasture for a part or preferable the entire growing season to allow the grass plants to resupply food reserves in the root system, make top growth to produce food, and produce seed for natural reseeding.

Native ranges in the county have declined to condition during the past two growing seasons due to lack of moisture. Most range grasses need an opportunity now to reestablish themselves and deferment will give them that chance.

Coupled with deferment, attention should be given to the balancing of cattle numbers with the forage being produced in order to get the best use from the forage. Proper use of the forage results in an accumulation of litter on the soil surface which is not wasted forage but an aid to more efficient water use, soil stabilization and improved soil fertility. Call the County Agent if you would like assistance on planning a deferred grazing program.

COTTON INSECTS
Cotton growers need to be checking their cotton for thrip damage. We can expect to see some thrip damage in cotton about now.

Good cotton insect control just doesn't happen. It must follow a plan. The planned program must include use of the right insecticide at the right time, in the right amount, and in the right way. Then when you are right all the way, you can't be wrong.

In order for cotton producers to have the latest available information on insect control methods and recommended insecticides, Experiment Station and Extension entomologists at Texas A&M University working with their U. S. Department of Agriculture counterparts annually provide this current information.

The information was recently released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service as L-218, "Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects." Also, in order to further localize the recommendations, guides have been prepared for our High Plains area.

Copies of the publications containing information needed by Parmer County growers are available at the County Agent's office in Farwell.

We suggest that growers pick up a copy of B-933, "Cotton Insects." This publication contains valuable information on the life history of cotton insects and how to identify them. We have other publications available on many subjects relating to cotton production. They are available for the asking. For the next week or two in my news column I am going to discuss different topics on nitrate poisoning.

Nitrate poisoning in animals is usually caused by their consuming fertilizers or water or feed (including plants) that contain abnormally high concentrations. One such compound is potassium nitrate. Potassium nitrate is much more toxic than the nitrate. Moisture and heat may change the nitrate to nitrite, but most of this change occurs in the gastro-intestinal tract, and is thought to occur in the rumen in ruminants.

The condition is characterized by sudden death, abortion, reduction of milk flow, or signs of vitamin "A" deficiency.

When non-portein nitrogen is excessive in the plant, it may combine with other elements to produce poisons that add to the complexity of the nitrate poisoning. One of those compounds is nitrogen dioxide, a brown or yellowish-red gas, heavier than air, which form in silos when high nitrate plants are ensiled.

AT HUB

Irrigation Farmers Meet Next Thursday

A meeting of Parmer County Irrigation Gas Users Association will be held next Thursday, June 10, at the Hub Community Center. The meeting will begin at 8 p. m.

The organization, which has had as its principal aim the securing of better and less expensive gas service for irrigation, will hear a report of farmers in the Black area who are to begin purchasing gas from Transwestern Gas Company.

The group, which formed a cooperative under the name of Plains Gas Farmers Cooperative, owns a total of 87 wells, and has requested that Pioneer Natural Gas Company, the present gas supplier for the entire area, cut off the service to their farms on June 15.

Also on the program, a report will be heard from the Tri-County Gas Co., Inc., a group of farmers from the southern portion of Parmer County, as well as parts of Bailey and Lamb counties, who are attempting to buy gas from El Paso Natural Gas Company, which has a line traversing their area.

Directors of Plains Irrigation Gas Users Association will also attend the meeting.

All irrigation farmers are invited to attend.
