

THIS WEEKEND

Tenth Annual Junior Livestock Show On Tap

As our young daughter would put it, this is the weekend to go and see the "piggies, sheepies and calves."

Yes the annual Parmer County Junior Livestock Show, under the sponsorship of the Friona Lions Club, will unroll. Judging will begin at 9 a.m. Friday.

Prospects for one of the best shows in the 10-year history of the county-wide event held here have been held out by show officials.

"Everything has gone smoothly right from the start. It's unbelievable that things have gone so well," stated the show's general chairman, Wes Long, the other day.

So, if you want to see some fine livestock and support the youngsters in their FFA and 4-H work, come out this weekend and see the results of their project work.

Some top-notch animals will be displayed, in each of the show's three divisions. Parmer County animals placed well in recent shows at Hereford, Amarillo and Fort Worth, and some of the same stock will be on display locally.

The basketball season ended in Friona with Tuesday's games, and both the Chieftain and Squaws posted good season records.

We don't believe there is any room for criticism for the job done either by Coach Mel Williams of the Squaws or Coach James Anglin of the Chiefs.

Some people are probably disappointed that the Squaws aren't in the playoffs after going all the way to the state tournament for three straight years.

We would hasten to point out that three straight years and four times in six years isn't a bad average, even for a place that is as basketball-minded as Friona.

We were talking with a friend the other night, and suggested that the girls' state basketball tournament will be a dilly if it could have lined up with four teams from Friona's District 3-AA making up the field.

They could have, for instance, Friona playing Olton and Dimmitt meeting Floydada in the semi-finals, with winners and losers meeting. It would be a much better state field than you see many times.

Coach James Anglin, whose Chieftains wowed fans by scoring a 110-40 win over Olton here the other night, said that after the team lost its second game of the season to Abernathy, it established a couple of "goals" to achieve for the rest of the season.

One was to score a hundred points in a game, and they did that and then some. The other was to win 20 games. They needed to beat Dimmitt Tuesday night to achieve that, and the close 51-50 setback left the team with a 19-8 season record.

In two years, Anglin's Chieftains have compiled a record of 41-13, or a 76 per cent winning record. This is just about a complete form reversal from the two years preceding his coming here, when the team's combined mark was 13-37.

The Squaws, meanwhile, finished the season with a record of 19-9; practically identical to that of the Chieftains, except that they played one more game than did the Chiefs.

Coach Mel Williams has compiled a personal won-lost record of 45-17 in his two seasons at Friona High School, a respectable 72.6 per cent on the winning ledger.

The Squaws in the past four years have won a total of 104 games and lost just 25, or 80.6 per cent wins, so no one can kick too much about records, at least justifiably so.

Springs Return From Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spring returned from a trip to Washington, D.C., where Spring attended a meeting of the Independent Bankers Association. He is a member of the association's cotton committee.

The Springs also went to New York and saw some shows there, and visited friends in New York.

The tenth annual Parmer County Junior Livestock Show will be held Friday and Saturday at the School bus barn in Friona.

Judging of barrows and lambs will be held on Friday. Lennie Tucker, vocational agriculture instructor at Hart High School, will judge these two shows.

The fat steer show will be held on Saturday. Kenneth Holloway, Oldham County Agent, will judge the steers.

The barn will open at 1 p.m. on Thursday to receive the lambs and barrows. All lambs and barrows must be weighed and in place by 6 p.m. Thursday. The judging will begin with the barrow division at 9 a.m. Friday, to be followed by the Lamb show.

Fat steers are to be weighed and in place by 8 a.m. on Saturday. The judging of the steers will begin at 9 a.m. that morning.

A sale of the prize animals will begin at 1 p.m. on Saturday. All buyers are urged to attend the sale.

A total of 251 animals are expected for the tenth annual county show. This is an increase of more than 10 per cent over last year's total of 225, and is a 40 per cent increase over the total of 180 animals which were entered in the 1964 show.

Broken down, there will be 158 barrows entered, 52 steers and 41 sheep, according to a preliminary count by county vocational agriculture instructors and County Agent Joe VanZandt.

The show is open to any vocational agriculture student attending a Parmer County school, or any county 4-H Club member.

The Friona Lions Club acts as sponsor for the annual show.

Wes Long is general superintendent of the show, assisted by Gary Brown. Dwain Menefee is chairman of the barrow show. Flake Barmer is chairman of the steer show and Otho Whitefield is chairman of the lamb show.

Trophies will be presented to champion animals. Banners and ribbons also will be awarded. In addition, showmanship awards will be presented to the top showmen in each of the three shows.

The top 60 pigs, 30 lambs and 70 per cent of the steers will be eligible for the sale.

The quality of the animals to be shown should make it one of the best county shows ever, judging by county exhibitors' success in top shows in this area.

CHIEFS FALL, 51-50

Teams Close Season Before Large Crowd

The Friona Chieftains and Squaws finished their 1965-66 season here Tuesday, splitting a pair of games against Dimmitt before the largest home crowd of the season.

The Squaws gained revenge for a previous defeat with a 62-56 win, but the Chiefs came out on the short end of a 51-50 score in a hard-fought contest.

Dimmitt's boys, needing the win to clinch a tie for the district championship, almost saw their title hopes go up in smoke, meeting an aroused bunch of Friona Chieftains.

Friona got off to a bad start, falling behind 8-0, but rallied to trail by only three, 11-8 at the end of the quarter.

A fine twisting jump shot by Bobby Jordan gave Friona its first lead at 12-11, and the teams swapped baskets for most of the second quarter. Jordan hit four more baskets to pace the team to a 26-23 halftime lead.

A cold spell by Friona midway of the third quarter proved fatal. Dimmitt roared ahead, and went from a 29-29 tie to a six-point lead at 38-32 at the third quarter end.

Dimmitt grabbed an eight-point lead as the final quarter began, but Friona battled back. Timely baskets by Gene Weatherly, Joe Mabry and Ray Braxton kept the Chiefs in the game, but foul shots by Dimmitt kept the Bobcats on top.

Four free throws by Friona cut a seven-point Dimmitt lead to three, 47-44, with a minute to play. A bad break gave Dimmitt a five-point lead, when a player slipped and fell with the ball, and was awarded two free throws on a foul call.

Two clutch baskets by Weatherly brought the team back to within a point, 49-48, but again Dimmitt scored a pair of free throws to ice the game. Lonnie Ellis' last second basket for Friona left the team a point shy.

The Squaws - Dimmitt game was almost as good. The teams volleyed for position in the early stages, with Friona getting a 20-11 lead after a quarter.

Friona appeared to "get satisfied" with its lead during the second quarter, and as a result Dimmitt pulled to within five points, 30-25 at halftime.

The Squaws came out pressing, and had increased their lead to 10 points after Dimmitt cut it to three. It was 47-34 at the end of three quarters, but two free throws after time had run out cut the margin to 47-36.

After regaining their 13-point lead, the Squaws saw Dimmitt come back to within six at 52-46 midway through the final quarter.

Friona responded, and Cindy Ingram scored a pair of lay-ins and two free throws to personally account for a 58-48 lead.

AN EDITORIAL

The Real Delinquent

We read in the papers, We hear on the air - Of killing and stealing And crime everywhere.

We sigh and we say As we notice the trend, "This young generation!" Where will it all end?"

But can we be sure That it's their fault alone - That maybe most it isn't really our own?

Too much money to spend, Too much idle time, Too many movies Of passion and crime;

Too many books Not fit to be read, Too much evil In what they hear said;

Too many children Encouraged to read, By too many parents Who won't stay home.

Kids don't make the movies; They don't write the books That paint a gay picture Of gangsters and crooks.

They don't make the liquor, They don't run the bars, They don't pass the laws, And they don't drive the cars.

They don't make the drugs That addle the brain; It's all done by older folks Greedy for gain.

Thus, in so many cases, It must be confessed The label "Delinquent" Fits older folks best.

"Americanism" Essay Winners Are Named

Winners in the Friona Woman's Club annual essay contest on "Americanism" were announced this week by the club.

First place winner was Gary Crump, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Crump. He received a cash prize of $5. Second place winner was Norman Mohr, son of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Mohr, receiving a cash prize of $3. Third place was won by Roger Dorrell, son of Mrs. Terrell Dorrell, winner of $2 in cash.

The three winners were chosen from among 105 entries received from eighth grade students at Friona Junior High School. The essays were sponsored through Wayne Hodgson's social studies classes. The winning essays were as follows:

ing our way of life, our schools, our way of worship and even the simple choice of recreation.

A great display of emotion does not necessarily show true qualities of a good American. Americanism is the everlasting faith in our Creator and in the nation's ability to preserve freedom in our time.

Americanism is the promise to the future.

directly vote for our presidents. Our government is based on what the people want.

We have the freedom to travel and to see the blessings that we take for granted and which we are now destroying.

In America there is the importance of the individual which I class as a very high honor. Some people take this wrong. The majority still rules but the human individual is still very important.

As an American I think we should take much more pride in our country. We should appreciate all that we have. We should work to keep what we have and try to improve what we have.

If all the people of the U.S. would work together as one unit for the betterment of mankind, what a wonderful place the world would be. With the help of God, someday we might be able to reach this goal.

dence states that all men have certain God give rights, among these, life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Most of us will have to admit that we take many of these rights and freedoms that Americanism offers for granted.

It has taken many great men to make America what it is today. Even in this day and time our young men are fighting and dying on foreign battlefields to make America a stronger and more respected nation.

One can look over this great and wonderful nation and see that our great men did not shed their blood in vain.

ROGER DORRELL

WHAT IS AMERICANISM by Roger Dorrell

Just what is Americanism? Is Americanism just a word we hear in everyday life? Yes, I am afraid that many American citizens have never taken time to think of Americanism and the many freedoms it offers us. Many of our nation's young men have sacrificed their lives to make America what it is today.

Americanism offers us freedoms that many people of other nations have never dreamed of possessing. Freedom of speech, freedom of religion, and freedom of the press are only a few of the many and great freedoms Americanism offers to us.

The Declaration of Independence

GARY CRUMP

"Americanism" by Gary Crump

Americanism is our inheritance from the past.

Many of us take for granted that we have the greatest nation in the world.

Americanism is not just saying the pledge at school or standing erect when the National Anthem is being played. It is the loyalty shown when people give their lives for this great country. It is the pride, when we gaze upon the lands and see the great majesty, that is ours.

Americanism is the feeling of security when we hear the drone of aircraft overhead and know that bombs will fall low their roar. It is the awareness of the privileges of everyday life; the freedom of choos-

WHAT AMERICANISM MEANS TO ME by Norman Mohr

As an American I think that all of us have a wonderful heritage under God. We have so many freedoms such as freedom of speech and freedom of religion which we as people of the U.S. do not really appreciate as much as we should.

I know these freedoms we have didn't just begin. There have been many men and women who have died to get and preserve these freedoms. I think as an American we have the obligation to stand up for these freedoms, put them at our highest value and never forget them.

We have the freedom of religion which enables us to worship in the church of our choice or not to worship at all.

We also have the wonderful freedom to criticize our government and give our point of view. We also have the freedom which allows everyone of age to vote. We vote for people in our area to go to the capital of the U.S. and every state to vote for laws under which we live. We also in-

Clayton Reports On Special Vote Session

State Representative Bill Clayton in a telephone call to the Star on Tuesday, reported on the progress of the special congressional session pertaining to voter registration.

"When we convened Monday Governor Connally addressed a joint session of the House and Senate indicated in his message he did not want to open call to other legislative matters other than voter registration act.

"A bill has been introduced in the House by Representative Gene Fondren of Taylor and is being co-sponsored by 84 other House members. Bill has been referred to state affairs committee, of which I am a member, and a public hearing has been set for Wednesday, February 16 at 2 p.m. This hearing will be open to anyone who would like to testify for or against the bill.

"It will take a 2/3 majority vote in the House and Senate to put this into immediate effect. It is anticipated there will be 104 or 105 votes for it in the House. If the Senate can get a 2/3 majority and transmit business as fast as the House has, it is possible the called session will be finished by the middle of next week.

"However, there is a possibility of a filibuster in the Senate. If this develops, the session will probably continue for the full 30 days.

"This particular bill provides for annual registration of voters with no fees. Date for registration of voters will be the same as we presently have for payment of poll taxes.

"The bill provides for temporary registration for those who failed to register. This will be the first fifteen days in March.

"The bill is contingent upon two factors.

1. The Attorney General is going to appeal the Federal Court decision to abolish poll tax as prerequisite to voting to the Supreme Court. Should the Supreme Court uphold the lower court decision, this legislation will become effective immediately.

"The other contingency is that if the people in November pass the constitutional amendment to abolish poll tax, the bill will also become effective."

NEW SURVEY SETTLES THE QUESTION:

"When you have an accident, who is more likely to help you—an independent agent or a one-company salesman?"

ANSWER:

An independent agent, by a big margin.

The National Association of Insurance Agents asked an impartial, nationally recognized research organization to accurately measure the difference. Here is what their research showed:

9 out of 10 independent agents help with claims. A far lower percentage of other agents do.

This research proved that The Big Difference in insurance is the continuing, personal attention of an independent agent.

To insure your car, home, or business through an independent agent, look for this seal. Only an independent agent—a man pledged to help you when you have a loss—can display it.

Chiefs Maul Olton By 110-40 Margin 110 Points Were Easily A New Record

The 110 points scored by Friona's Chieftains against Olton last Friday were easily a school scoring record.

Largest single game score prior to this had been the 89 points scored in an 89-39 win over Happy's B team last year in the Happy tournament. The most scored against another varsity team were 78 points against Muleshoe here in December of 1964.

Thus, the 110 points were 32 more than had previously ever been scored against another varsity team. The 78 point total was also cracked the next day against Lockney, when the Chiefs won, 78-46.

Other high point totals achieved by the Chiefs in recent years include 77 against Dalhart here in 1960; 75 against Vega in the Farwell tournament of 1964 and 74 against Olton and Lockney here last season and against Canyon in 1960.

Going into last season, the team had scored as many as 70 points only five times, but last year's team scored 70 or more points in six games.

The 1960-61 team, for example, didn't ever score as many as 50 points, a 48-point total being its largest total. Olton has always been a "cousin" to the Chieftains. In the 1963-64 season, when the team won only four games, one of the wins was a 66-60 decision over the Mustangs.

The Squaws' contest with the Olton "Fillies" was everyting the boys' contest wasn't. It was a real fan-pleaser from start to finish.

The visitors, who got good shooting all night from the floor and free throw line, grabbed the lead early in the game and held it through much of the first quarter.

Olton led 2-0, 4-2, and 5-2 in the early stages. Field goals by Cindy Ingram kept it close for Friona, and Janet Rushing's hook shot gave the Squaws their first lead at 6-5. Olton responded with an 8-6 lead, and it looked as though the teams would play "swapout" all night.

However, Miss Rushing scored 10 consecutive points for Friona to vault the Squaws into a 14-10 lead and the home team assumed a lead they were not to lose during the rest of the game.

It was 17-13 at the end of the first quarter, and Friona built that into a 27-20 halftime advantage.

The Squaws became cold midway through the third quarter, and allowed Olton to pull within three points at 35-32. Miss Rushing scored a timely three-point play, however, and Betty Taylor added free throws to give Friona its seven point lead back at 39-32 after three quarters. Cindy Ingram scored a lay-up following the fourth-quarter tip to give Friona a nine-point bulge, its longest lead of the game. After Olton trimmed the margin to five points, another three-point play by Miss Rushing stretched the advantage to eight, 44-36 with 5:30 left to play.

Olton didn't ever give up. The visitors trimmed the lead back to five at 50-45, but Miss Rushing's jump shot gave the team a nine-point bulge, 56-47 as the final minute began.

It took one of the better games of the year for Miss Rushing, who scored 32 points plus some good defensive work to insure the win over Olton,

WE BELIEVE IN THE FUTURE OF FARMING & RANCHING

The Future Farmers of America and the 4-H Clubs are learning more about farming and ranching . . . in the classrooms and on the farm. Thus they are becoming more proficient in farming and the future of farming is in safe hands . . . for only through a strong agriculture can this nation hope to survive.

Frionans Tour Stahmann Farms

Mr. and Mrs. G.B. Buske returned home late Sunday after spending the weekend visiting places of interest in southern sections of New Mexico. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Schwartz of Clovis. At Las Cruces they visited Jay Lynn Schwartz, who attends the university there. Then the group were conducted on a tour of Stahmann Farms, Inc. by the owner. This firm operates a diversified farming project on a large scale.

Projects on this farm include production of fresh eggs, Del Cerro pecans and oven-ready geese. Approximately 200,000 White Chinese geese are processed and frozen annually. About 12,000 dozen fresh eggs are processed daily. Before returning home they toured the ski run at Cloudcroft and several interesting spots in the vicinity of Ruidoso. In a wedding, the groom is far more intuitive than the bride. She is elated and he is scared within an inch of his life.

Double Ring Vows Unite Mabry, Carthel

An arched candelabra holding white tapers entwined with greenery and flanked by baskets of white gladioli formed the setting for exchange of wedding vows between Terri Sue Mabry and Malcolm Carthel in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mabry.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Helen Carthel and the late Ed Carthel.

The double ring ceremony was read by Willie Hamblin, minister of the Lazbuddie Church of Christ, at 6 p.m. Thursday, February 3.

Sherry Robinson attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a beige dress and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a three piece suit of pink knit with black patent accessories and carried a cascade arrangement of cymbidium orchids and white carnations.

A reception in the home of the groom's mother followed the wedding ceremony. The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over white satin and centered with an arrangement centered with white wedding bells topped with pink carnations flanked by silver candles.

The three tiered wedding cake of white with pink floral decorations was topped with a miniature bride and groom under an archway of white flowers. Crystal and silver appointments complemented the table setting.

Everyone who enjoys Ideal publications will be glad to know they are on sale locally. Mrs. O.F. Lange, who has long purchased these books for gifts for members of her family and friends on many occasions, is one of Friona's most enthusiastic boosters.

She said, "I want you to tell everyone about it. I've long had to go out of town to purchase Ideal books when I wanted them and now I can just go down to Graphic Arts and purchase any one I want."

"I'm borrowing an item from the Friendship book that I especially like. It goes like this: 'It's the hand we clasp with an honest grasp That gives us a hearty thrill. It's the good we pour into others' lives That comes back our own to fill.'"

It's the drugs we drain from another's cup That makes our own seem sweet. And the hours we give to another's need That makes our life complete."

Solomon said, "If you want friends, you must first show yourself to be friendly. Someone else has said, 'To be a friend a man should close his eyes to the faults of others and open them to his own.'"

Something New For February? by Betty Crocker

By George, why not! Everybody does hearts and cupid and decorates in red and white. So why don't you do an authentic Colonial Days dessert—and serve with a little pomp, under the circumstances. The perfect choice is Boston Cream Pie which dates back to George Washington's time. My version is strictly modern day American, using today's convenience foods. Far easier, of course, and much more elegant than when Martha was baking it. Especially if it's served with very fancy Hessian Coffee: creamy sweetened meringue spooned into hot cups and topped with strong black coffee.

WASHINGTON'S BOSTON CREAM PIE
 1 1/2 cups Bisquick
 1/2 cup sugar
 3 tablespoons shortening
 1 egg
 1/2 cup milk
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 package (about 3 1/2 ounces) vanilla pudding and pie filling Thin Chocolate Icing (next col.)

flour an 8-inch round layer pan. Mix Bisquick and sugar. Add shortening, egg and 1/4 cup of the milk. Beat 1 minute at medium speed on mixer or vigorously by hand. Stir in gradually the remaining milk and the vanilla. Beat 1/2 minute longer. Pour into prepared pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes. Remove from pan and cool thoroughly. Prepare pudding and pie filling as directed on package. Cool. Split cake into two layers. Spread half the pudding between layers (reserve remaining for future use). Spread icing over top of cake. THE FRIONA FARM NEWS

Outdoors In Texas

By Vern Sanford

Many shooters make the mistake of taking their trusty rifles to gunsmiths and asking them to "sight 'em in." Then they head afield without further ado and wonder why they miss easy shots at deer.

This idea of having a gunsmith doing the job for you is okay. But you should test the rifle yourself, to see if you and the gunsmith both see alike.

On the surface that statement might seem ridiculous. But actually, different people do see in a different way. They hold the rifles different, therefore they get different sight patterns.

Very seldom can one man zero in a rifle to hit in the center of the bull's-eye at 100 yards and another duplicate the feat with the same rifle.

For this reason, it pays to "sight in" your own rifle. This isn't as difficult as you would first imagine. In fact, if done correctly, it can be quite simple.

Most common mistake is for someone to set up a piece of cardboard, get back 100 or 200 yards and start blazing away. At this distance, any error in sight adjustment will be magnified, and with a new sight you'll be lucky to hit the cardboard, even if it is of extremely large size. This kind of haphazard sighting only makes the ammunition manufacturers happy.

There is a much easier way. Suppose you've just installed a new scope sight on your rifle. You want to sight it in, so here's how to do it, the quick and easy way.

First, to make sure you're steady and solid, get set up where you have a good rest for shooting. Then, if possible, remove the bolt from your rifle, steady it on a rest and bore sight the rifle at a chunk of cardboard 25 yards away.

When you get the bore lined up, raise your sight and look in the scope. Adjust it until the crosshairs are on the target. This way you'll be reasonably sure of putting your first shot on the paper and you can work from there.

But even if you're shooting something like a lever-action gun where bore sighting isn't possible, at a range of 25 yards you're more than likely to hit the cardboard anyway. Once you've established your first shot you're in business.

Scope sights have adjustments for elevation and windage. The first is to move the bullet placement either up or down, and the other either left or right.

decomposed. As a result, weed control with post-emergence herbicides or mechanical methods should be started immediately.

HERBICIDES RECOMMENDED ARE TREFLAN & DACTHAL

Treflan is a liquid formulation containing 4 pounds per gallon of trifluralin. Thorough incorporation 2 to 4 inches deep is essential when using this herbicide. This herbicide is used also for soybeans, castor beans and many vegetables. It is very effective against volunteer sorghum, weedy grasses, and common broadleaf weeds, but frequently does not control devil's claw, buffalobur, cocklebur and sunflower.

APPLICATION RATES FOR COARSE, MEDIUM AND FINE TEXTURED SOILS ARE 3/8, 1/2, and 3/4 A OF TRIFLURALIN. This is equivalent to 3/4, 1 and 1 1/2 pints of Treflan per acre. Do not plant sorghum for 12 months after Treflan application at the above rates. If higher rates are used, do not plant sorghum for 18 months.

DACTHAL is the trademark for DCPA, Thorough soil incorporation 2 to 4 inches deep insures maximum effectiveness. This herbicide is used on vegetables and is safe to use where vegetables follow cotton. Dacthal is formulated as a wettable powder containing 50 to 75 per cent active ingredient.

APPLICATION RATES OF ACTIVE INGREDIENT ARE 4, 6 and 8 lb./A ON COARSE, MEDIUM AND FINE TEXTURED SOILS.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By JOE VANZANDT
County Agent

The Parmer County Junior Livestock Show will be held in Friona February 17 thru 19 at the school bus barn.

Lambs and barrows must arrive Thursday, February 17, between 2 and 6 p.m. They will be weighed and sifted upon arrival.

Steers must arrive and be weighed in before 8 p.m. Saturday, February 19. Steers can arrive after 4 p.m. Friday.

The pigs will be shown at 9 a.m. Friday, February 18. The lambs will show at about 1 p.m. Friday. The steers show at 9 a.m. Saturday morning.

The auction sale of prize winning stock will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday afternoon. This will include 60 pigs, 30 lambs, and 70 per cent of the steers entered in the show.

Show officials estimate about 160 pigs, 40 lambs, and 50 steers to be entered in the competition. There will be many high quality animals exhibited here as evidence by the prizes some of these animals have already won in State competition.

Lanny Tucker, Voc-Agriculture teacher from Hart, will judge the pigs and lambs. The steer judge is Kenneth Hollaway, Oldham County Agent. We believe anyone interested in livestock production can learn something by watching these men select and place these animals.

The following 4-H members will be exhibiting livestock in the show. From Bovina: Al Kerby, Raymond Hise, Glenn Hise, Gregory Bell, and Brenda Dyer; Farwell: Darwin Green, Charles Morton, Sam Morton, Craig Capps and Barry Williams; Friona: Floyd Schlenker, Matt Garth, Nick Collier, Greg Collier, Kay Riethmayer, Jill

WEED CONTROL MEETING

We want to discuss pre-plant herbicide recommendations on cotton for those of you who missed our Weed Control meeting in Hub on Feb. 3.

Use of pre-plant herbicides is most profitable on fields where severe weed problems exist and hoeing costs are customarily high. Best results have been obtained when herbicides are applied to dry flat soil prior to bedding for pre-irrigation. After application and before bedding, herbicides must be incorporated two to four inches deep. This is best accomplished with a tandem disk. Care should be taken not to list deeper than incorporation or middles will become weedy prior to planting. Cotton should be planted on top of the bed or in a shallow furrow to avoid moving herbicides to the middles thus leaving the cotton row unprotected.

Successful pre-plant application of herbicides can be made to band on beds with power incorporators just prior to pre-irrigation. Because herbicides are not incorporated deeply, planting must be done on top of the bed.

Weed emergence in cotton during the summer after application of pre-plant herbicides indicates that the herbicide has

Qualified Vote May Hit 3,000

Farmer County may have as many as 3,000 qualified voters for local, county and state elections in 1966, according to County Tax Assessor-Collector Hugh Moseley.

Moseley reported that a total of 2,150 voters paid their poll tax, and another 80 received first-vote exemptions. Voters over 60 do not have to pay a poll tax, and this will add considerably to the voting strength.

4-H NEWS

Some 4-H'ers are busy working on demonstrations these days.

I visited with Jan Jamison and her mother recently and Jan has two method demonstrations prepared for County 4-H Contests March 19 but can't really decide which she will do. They were her original ideas and work.

If other girls or boys are interested and want help and materials for a demonstration, they can contact our office and materials and help will be available. Of course parents must give help and encouragement if they succeed.

This is very good training for girls and boys in learning to speak before people.

The Bovina 4-H Club reported a very good and interesting meeting on Driving Safety. The speaker was Deputy Henry Minter and the information given was very good. Mrs. Travis Dyer, organizational leader for that club will probably be contacting some 4-H parents soon in an effort to get leaders for clothing project work to start after the Favorite Food Show and Contests in March.

Lack of leaders has prevented some girls in that club from taking project work that they really wanted. The age group from 9 to 12 is in an important developmental stage of their life and activities, with a group is an important contribution to this stage. Mrs. Paul Lloyd is doing a fine job with her group in Foods and all because she feels that this is a worthwhile way to spend several hours a month - that is helping and encouraging your girls in project work that contribute to better living. Women like Mrs. Lloyd are to be commended for interest in youth-even outside of own family.

PATTERN ADJUSTMENT classes are coming along fine. Bovina group has finished. Rhea starts theirs Friday.

Interest in sewing and in clothing styles is high among homemakers.

Friona workshop (first day) will be held Tuesday, February 15 in the Homemaking Department at the High School. We appreciate the kindness of Mrs. Caffey in allowing us to use her facilities for this work.

once for our pencils and "essential food" lists and start figuring.

Inevitably, unless most of us stick a little closer to the rules for good eating some of us will be thin-- to easily tired-- perhaps to irritable and prone to illness.

Some of us are going to be too fat -- subject to the ills doctors ascribe to "obesity" in later years.

After fifty, some may find themselves with stoop and brittle bones of old men and women, found in shocking number of middle-aged women recently studied.

There is indeed, good sense in making a check of eating habits now to acquaint yourself with the valuable nutrients in food that is needed in the body before marked changes occur in your life and figure.

Eat, then, not only to add years to your life but add some life to those years.

Simplified Guide To Medicare

Should the over-65 person drop his private health and accident insurance coverage now that Medicare has become law? The answer is no if he wants to remain protected until July 1, 1966. The date Medicare benefits begin. We found a "new booklet," "A Simplified Guide To Medicare," issued by Continental Casualty Co.

The booklet answers such questions as who is eligible for Medicare benefits, what are the benefits, how does one qualify, who will pay for Medicare, what is covered by the program, and many more features of Medicare.

Continental Casualty, the country's leading national insurer of older people with its three Golden 65 plans, which prepared the booklet for the information of its policyholders, has made it available to anyone at no cost. A free copy can be obtained by either completing and forwarding the coupon below, or by writing to "Medicare Booklet, Continental Center, Chicago, Ill. 60694."

In responding to requests from policyholders for information on Medicare, Continental Casualty also has advised them that the company is planning a new over-65 insurance program to supplement the benefits offered by the federal program. The new policies will cover those areas not included under Medicare and provide an opportunity for the older person to obtain extra protection against extensive medical and physicians' expenses.
