Red Devils Romp Over Christoval 52-15 Friday

The Rankin Red Devils exploded a warning to the members of District 8 last Friday night when they humbled what was thought to be a strong Christoval team, 52-15. The ease with which the Red Devils outplayed the heavy Cougars was a surprise to everyone.

The Rankin team unveiled some terrific blocking that soon beat down the Cougar defense.

Norman Yocham scored the first time he got hold of the pigskin on a power play that carried 44 yds. The try for point was missed. This started a blast of scoring that brought Rankin four TD's in their first seven plays from the line of scrimmage. Elbert Eckols did an outstanding job of getting extra points after touchdowns. Only two attempts failed for the 120 back.

One of the sensations of the game was when Jimmy Yocham intercepted a pass two yards behind his own goal and returned it all the way for a score. This run was supported by some of the best blocking ever seen in high school football.

Christoval's scores came late in the game against second and third stringers. The first score came on a picked up fumble and the other on a flat zone pass from ten yards out. The final score, Rankin 52, Christoval 15.

The district leadership will be at stake this Friday night when the Garden City Bearkats invade Rankin for a conference tilt with the Red Devils. Rankin and Garden City have won one conference game each and lost none to hold a tie for the district leadership.

Name	W.	L.	Pts.	Opp.
Rankin	1	0	52	15
Gard. City	1	0	33	12
Sterl City	2	1	78	55
Christoval	1-1-2	1-1-2	52	78
Forsan	1	2	48	89
Water Val.	1-2	1-2	64	98

Final Services For W. E. Stephenson Held On Sunday Afternoon

Funeral services for W. E. Stephenson, 68, pioneer West Texas ranchman, were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Rankin Cemetery with Rev. Don Cochran, pastor of the Rankin Methodist Church, officiating.

Burial was in the Rankin Cemetery. Jacobsen Funeral Home of McCamey and Porter Johnson Funeral Home were in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Stephenson died Friday at his home here. He was a native of Tennessee and came to Texas in 1902. He lived at Merkel before coming to Upton County in 1907. He has ranched near Rankin since 1918.

Survivors include his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Chas. Vardy, Rankin; one son, Pfc. W. R. Stephenson, Kessler Field, Miss.; one sister, Mrs. S. H. Bean, Rankin; and three brothers, including Bob of Alpine.

Red Devils Host To Garden City In Conference Game Friday Night

The undefeated Rankin Red Devils will clash with the Garden City Bearkats in Rankin Friday night at 8 o'clock with the district leadership in six man football at stake.

Rankin and Garden City are the only teams with a clean conference game at Christoval last Friday night, 52-15. Garden City holds a 33-12 victory over Water Valley.

Rankin has crushed three opponents this season.

Coach Joe Scrivner's first string has not been scored on this season. The Devils have had 36 points scored against them. However, these were scored against the second and third stringers.

The Red Devils flash an offense with power, deception and good passing. Hard running backs like All-District Norman Yocham and George Broyles along with Don Murphy, Elbert Eckols, Jimmy Yocham and Bobby Goodwin have made the Devil offense hard for any other opponent to handle.

The Devil defense is outstanding along with their offense. All-District Bruce McCain, along with Gentry Holmes at center and ends Paul Johnson, Joe Loftin, Joe Ellis and Loyd Yocham, make Rankin's defensive patterns hard to penetrate.

E. Chandler, and Mrs. Ed Anderson.

Bobby Godwin, Jimmy Yocham Are Chosen Outstanding Players

Bobby Goodwin and Jimmy Yocham were selected as the outstanding Red Devils of the week for their performance in the Christoval game. Two boys from the Red Devils team are selected by the football squad after each game.

Bobby played a jam-up defense game along with outstanding blocking and running to gain this week's recognition.

Jimmy intercepted a Christoval pass and returned it to pay dirt from two yards behind his own goal line. In addition to this, Jimmy turned in a good defense game and quarterbacked the team to their 52-15 victory.

ATTEMPT JAIL BREAK THWARTED

The efforts of a trio to escape from the Upton County jail in Rankin was brought to a quick halt last Friday afternoon when discovered by Deputy Sheriff Bob Schlagal.

Schlagal was making a routine check when he found John White, Richard Scott and Palmer Dowiat attempting the break. One of the men was trying to file his way into the box that works the levers to the cell door, while the other two were clipping away at the cement in the ceiling after they had removed the vent pipe.

The trio was moved to another cell, and early the next morning taken to Huntsville where they entered the penitentiary.

Scott and Dowiat had been sentenced the day before to three years in the penitentiary for theft by Judge Allan Frazer, while White had been given five years for forgery.

Hearings On Road Plans Set Monday

With an open meeting set for Monday, October 15 for the proposed sites of roads to be included in a bond election, the Upton County Commissioners Court took a step closer last Monday in making preparations for the road building.

Last Monday, the court heard proposals from four bonding firms relative to handling the proceedings and printing of the bonds with the R. K. Dunbar Company of San Angelo as the successful firm. Jack Brown of San Angelo represented the company.

Under the contract, Upton County will be out no money in the event that the bond election does not carry. The firm agreed to offer all services needed in processing the bonds under the contract.

The contract letting received the unanimous vote of the commissioners.

Immediately following, a group of oil men, along with landowners in the Pembroke and Spraberry fields met with the commissioners seeking to open a road into the area from Rankin.

After a lengthy discussion, it appeared that a program meeting of the approval of all concerned was made, and the commissioners pledged immediate attention to open the road at the earliest time. The commissioners hoped to have the short route leading into the field open during the current week. There were some three miles of fencing to be moved and erected before the road could be opened.

All taxpayers were reminded of the meeting to be held at the District Courtroom in Rankin Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The meeting will determine the locations of the roads to be built under the pending road bond election.

Rankin Youths Can Now Register In County Clerk's Office

AUSTIN, Oct. 5. — Boys who reach the age of 18, required to register with the nearest draft board, can register in Rankin with Ralph H. Daugherty, County and District Clerk, and Mrs. Sara Lee Vardy.

The nearest draft board is Local Board No. 121, at McCamey, which has jurisdiction over Upton, Crane and Reagan counties.

Services of these registrars enables boys in the Rankin area to register nearby without having to go to McCamey.

A local board is maintained for the three-county area because one board can take care of it under present circumstances and thus help keep down the cost of government.

Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, State Selective Service director, said today that "people should appreciate the service these registrars are rendering to the people of the Rankin area. They do this job without pay as a patriotic service to the country."

All males are required to register under the draft law on their 18th birthday or within five days thereafter.

Maximum penalties that can be applied for failure to register is $10,000 fine, or five years in prison, or both.

SPEND! SPEND! SPEND!

Raymond Moley devoted one of his recent Newsweek columns to Senator Paul Douglas's valiant and almost totally unsuccessful effort to wring a little of the water out of the Federal budget. In conclusion he wrote: "It will take more than name calling, phony statistics, and wisecracks by the President to dissipate the feeling over this country that since people are being forced by higher taxes to practice self-denial, the government should set the example. All through the country there are too many glaring examples of Federal extravagance to escape notice. The country is a rich one, but it cannot stand military expenses of the size that will be essential, unless there is economy in nonmilitary spending. Taxes will not suffice, and inflation must be the deadly harvest."

Every proposal to economize has been steamrollered to death in Congress. That is true of the huge rivers and harbors bill, which is the pork-barrel deluxe. It is true of such lesser matters as Senator Douglas's proposal to abolish the old practice of maintaining, at the taxpayers' expense, a free barber shop for Senators. The number of Congressional voices which have been raised against waste are pitifully few, and can hardly be heard over the roaring "spend, spend, spend; tax, tax, tax" chorus.

If there is any better way to destroy a country from within than to countenance waste, extravagance and corruption in government, no one has thought of it. The people are being bled white by taxes now, and the incentive to work, to save, and to achieve is being destroyed. If we keep on going in the present direction, there can be only one end—and that is national bankruptcy and national ruin. It happened to great empires of past times. It can happen here.

SOCIALISM IN ACTION

Do we want to create severe shortages of essential goods and services? There seems to be one certain way to do that—socialized enterprise.

England's current electric power situation is a perfect case in point. In Britain, the power industry, along with most other basic enterprise, is totally socialistic, and is run by civil servants who may or may not know anything about power production.

Now, in the words of a news story from London which recently appeared in the Wall Street Journal, "The blackout is coming back in Britain."

"Its return promises an industrial production crisis here this winter, delayed defense timetables and misery for the average Briton—in short, one more blow at this country's sagging economy."

"Unannounced power cuts have been suddenly dousing lights, slowing factory production schedules and causing kitchen stoves to grow cold in some parts of England all summer. But this is only a mild foretaste of what's in store for Britons when winter arrives."

The story quotes the chairman of the British Electricity Authority as saying winter prospects are "grim." Another British expert said the outlook "is very serious indeed." Still another said, "Unless stern measures are taken, there's every indication of a serious industrial shutdown this coming winter, even in normal weather conditions." The "stern measures," apparently, will take the form of iron-handed power rationing.

When the Labor government socialized the power industry, the people were promised abundant service, better service and low-cost service. Not one of these goals has been attained or is in sight. The situation has simply grown worse and worse, with the pending crisis as the culmination.

You can't beat socialism when it comes to creating scarcity.

IT CANNOT BE DONE!

It is reported that some retailers "seeing red and getting mad." For the most part, their volume of business is good, even though it is well under the abnormal highs which were touched some months ago. But certain of the government's price control policies threaten to take the profit out of doing business.

Top-level price control officials seem to think that the best way to hold prices down is to force retailers to absorb price increases occurring at the wholesale level. An amendment to the price control law, as passed by Congress, prohibits that. But the amendment apparently has some holes in it, and it may not do the job as intended. Today a great many retailers are caught in a price-profit squeeze that is becoming mor e serious.

What makes this important is that retailers just can't absorb wholesale price increases, or increases in their operating overhead, to any material extent. They can't do it for the simple reason that, under the competitive system, their profits are not big enough. Financial reports from some of the food chain systems show a net profit of only one-cent-plus on each dollar of sales. Other kinds of stores generally earn three to four cents, after all the bills are paid. It is clear that if the stores earned no profit at all, the consumer would hardly notice the difference to his budget. It is equally clear that if retailers were forced to absorb sizeable price increases, the small profit per dollar sale would disappear and a large loss take its place. In that case, a great many stores, particularly the smaller operations, would have no alternative but to close their doors and salvage what they could.

Competition in retailing always keeps prices and profits at the lowest level which will maintain progressive, efficient operation, and top service to the people.

"... there is one standard which must be applied to every dollar of our government spending, and that standard is: Is it necessary?"—James C. Davis.

Coast Guard Academy To Have Competitive Exams February 18-19

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congressman Ken Regan, 16th Congressional district, announces that the nationwide competitive examination for entrance to the US Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., will be held Feb. 18-19, 1952. This year approximately 200 young men will be appointed, therefore, a candidate to gain admittance to the Academy must not only pass the examination but must pass high enough so as to be assured a selection for appointment.

"Graduates of the Coast Guard Academy 4-year course," he said, "receive a commission as ensign in the US Coast Guard and a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering."

Congressman Regan pointed out that "there is no limit on the number of candidates that come from any single area. I urge all interested young men to write to the Coast Guard Headquarters as soon as possible, since the necessary papers should be completed by Jan. 1, 1952."

"Young men who take the examinations must be between the ages of 17 and 22. American citizens in excellent physical condition, and must show proof of their good moral character and standing in the community," the Congressman said.

"Minimum educational requirement is a high school diploma, although high school seniors who will complete their course at the end of the year are eligible to take the competitive examination, if they have the necessary credits upon graduation. These credits include mathematics, English, Physics and other standard high school subjects."

"The examinations, which are given over a two day period, include achievement tests in English, social studies, mathematics, science and aptitude and ability tests. Applicants who are interested in careers as commissioned officers in the Coast Guard should write for further information to the Commandant, US Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C.

BABY HEARD CRYING BEFORE BIRTH
HANFORD, Calif.—Medical authorities today had no explanation for the fact that Beatrice Judy Avilez was heard crying before she was born—but they agree that the tiny youngster is perfectly normal. The infant, who weighed five pounds 14 ounces, is shown with mother in the hospital after birth.

Cpl. Bruce Ployhar Has Outstanding Record

Cpl. Bruce E. Ployhar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ployhar of McCamey, visited his parents in McCamey last week and left Tuesday for Albuquerque, N. M., where he will be stationed at Sandia Air Force Base.

Ployhar recently completed a 36 weeks course in less than five months by washing ahead in two phases of Electronics Fundamentals and also passing up four phases in advanced sets, are only a few of Cpl. Ployhar's achievements since he has attended classes at Keesler AFB.

Graduating from school Sept. 21, he was also selected "Honor Student," completing the entire course with a remarkable 4.5 average, very rarely excelled by students. Ployhar was in Q-13, 07021 class of fundamentals and airborne sets. In only seven days the 21 year old airman completed the final six weeks of sets without attending classes.

A concrete background in Electrical Engineering at Park College in Kansas City, Mo., and Los Angeles City College paved the way for Corp. Ployhar in his studies with radar. He attended Park College in 1949, and studied at the Los Angeles school in 1950, before coming into service. He is a graduate of Artesia High School in New Mexico.

Ployhar, a member of the 3388th Student Squadron, enlisted in the Air Force Jan. 8, and received his basic training at Lackland AFB prior to being sent to Keesler.
