

Headlines From 1966 Reviewed In Passing

If we were a Roger Babson, or better yet, a Jean Dixon, perhaps we could enlighten you with predictions about what the year 1967 has in store.

But alas, we're neither, and perhaps that's just as well.

Some predictions have a way of casting a gloomy outlook on the world; and if this be the case maybe we're better off without them. Besides, it has been illustrated that mankind is better off if he doesn't know what the future holds.

With a clean slate of 365 days (or at least 360 of them left by now), we all have an opportunity to make what we will of the year 1967.

Of course, we're limited to a certain extent by certain tangible things, but to a large extent, the new year will be just about the kind of year we allow it to be.

The year 1966 is now history, and admittedly, it has not been a "record" year locally. Business in general was off in varying degrees.

This is, of course, in comparison with recent good to excellent years business-wise. However, compared to years of the dust bowl and depression days, 1966 does not seem bad at all. Almost everyone can readily see that it could have been a lot worse.

We're blessed by being able to live in the world's greatest country -- and no doubt in one of the best parts of this great land. As stated above, we have the opportunity to shape, to an extent, what our year will be like. People in many countries, perhaps some even in our own will not have this opportunity. So, we should not take our responsibility lightly.

Let's resolve to make the year 1967 one of which we can look back upon at this time next year and be proud.

A note in the latest news letter from the Grain Sorghum Producers Association hints of possible new uses for grain from this area in the future.

A $30 million paper mill has been proposed for development on the Isleta Reservation near Albuquerque. Bill Nelson points out that one of the large requirements of paper manufacturing is the use of starch for sizing.

"Such a paper mill this close to the grain sorghum producing area offers encouragement and enhances the potential outlet from grain sorghum wet milling plants such as scheduling for Dimmitt," Nelson says.

The GSPA has established active liaison between those interested in both the starch and paper mills.

Grain producers are reminded to get behind the GSPA, especially in the payment of their membership dues, so that the organization's program of work can be carried out.

The work of the organization has meant many new markets for our area's number one cash crop.

Many varied events made headlines in Friona during 1966, highlighted by political races which saw some changes made in local and area offices.

Also, some changes were noted in local offices and businesses.

January was highlighted by an open house for the new Friona High School building on Sunday, January 15. A huge crowd turned out to tour the magnificent new educational facilities, despite cold weather.

Friona High School's annual football banquet was spiced by the appearance of Texas Tech All-American Donny Anderson, who received the biggest bonus in history for signing with the Green Bay Packers. Anderson was coached in high school at Stinnett by Friona's Coach Don Light.

Cold weather in January was highlighted by eight inches of snow locally the week of January 19-26. The moisture content, as measured by the City of Friona, was .34 inches, and helped area farmland.

Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace, who has held the sheriff's position 18 years, was honored with an appreciation night on January 27 in Bovina, attended by over 500 friends of the county lawman.

Friona's local politics began to stir in February with the announcement of three candidates for the Justice of the Peace position. They were the incumbent, Walter Lovelace, as well as J.W. Roberts and Mrs. Ben McDonald. Roberts eventually unseated Lovelace for the JP position.

Ben McDonald made it a contested mayor's race for the first time in recent years, opposing Preach Edelman.

The Chieftains and Squaws, who had both won district basketball championships the preceding year, once again had very good seasons, although placing third in district. The Chiefs finished with a 19-8 mark, to a 19-9 for the Squaws.

The Chieftains climaxed their season with a record scoring performance against Olton, in a 110-40 romp.

Another successful Parmer County Junior Livestock show in Friona February 17-19 was highlighted on Saturday when Friona's Gary Phipps made county history by exhibiting both the grand and reserve champion steers.

Top premiums were paid for winning animals during the sale at the 10th annual show. Lazbuddie showmen dominated the barrow and sheep division of the show.

Friona's mayor for two years Jay Claborn, and Mrs. Dan Ethridge, were honored March 1 as Friona's "Man and Woman of the Year" at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. Ralph Shirley and Benny Pryor were also honored.

Monsanto Ag Center opened its new bulk fertilizer plant in Friona early in 1966, with Bill Wooley as manager. Wooley had originated Hub Fertilizer Company, with outlets in Friona and Hub.

Friona Farmers Co-op Gin announced the hiring of David Bailey, formerly of Pecos, as their new manager, replacing Steve Hargus.

GRANT RECEIVED

Parmer County Community Hospital announced in March that it had received a $25,000 grant from the Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Okla.

Also, in March, Reeve Chevrolet Co. announced a $30,000 remodeling project, which was to double the company's floor space.

Preach Edelman was elected mayor, and Rene Snead and Dr. Lee Cranfill won alderman spots in Friona's most interesting city election in several years. Six men vied for the alderman posts.

W.M. Massie and W.D. Buske were elected to terms on the Friona school board from a field of six candidates.

Friona's Masonic Lodge held dedication services for its new lodge on April 11. Masonic officials from throughout the area had a part in the dedication. Shares were sold by Billy Graham Foods, Inc., and an announcement was made April 21 to locate the salad dressing plant in Friona.

Total assets and deposits set an all-time record at Friona State Bank when on April 5 the deposit figure stood at $7,403,903.19, according to the first quarter's official financial statement.

The political scene again took the spotlight on May 7, when Andy Rogers, longtime state senator for the area, was forced by re-districting to run against another senator, Jack Hightower. Hightower won the race, and in Friona's JP battle, Lovelace and Roberts were forced into a runoff.

Tommy Sherley and Madalyn Binger were the honor students at FHS graduation exercises May 23.

Parmer County Commissioners, as well as those from three adjointing counties, agreed to continue the operation of the Bookmobile program, which had been enjoyed by residents on a free trial basis for more than two years.

Friona's radio station, KNNN, went on the air June 8, with special sign-on ceremonies at the station. Longtime resident Rose Lange threw the switch to officially inaugurate the city's new enterprise.

Ken McDermitt was named Friona's Chief of Police June 6, as former chief, Travis Clements, was relieved of the position.

TWO HONORED

Clyde Goodwine and Arthur Drake, who retired as director and manager for Friona Wheat Growers, were honored at the company's annual meeting and saluted for their collective 59 years of service to the company.

BATTLE FIRE . . . Friona Volunteer firemen, are shown battling smoke and flames at the Friona Motors fire Dec. 23. Several passing motorists stopped and some are seen as they look on inquisitively. Friona Motors officials estimate that the fire caused around $25,000 in damage.

Management School Begins January 10

The most intensive Extension Service farm and home management program ever conducted in the county will be held each Tuesday for six consecutive weeks starting January 10 and continuing through February 14.

Called "Get In Step for 1967" Management School," the educational program will feature 16 authorities and will cover a wide range of management topics, according to County Extension Agents Cricket B. Taylor and Ronny F. McNutt.

Each of the six Tuesday sessions will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Hub Community Center.

"We designed these meetings primarily for farm and ranch couples, but everyone is welcome," Mrs. Taylor said. "We feel that attendance at all six meetings could have tremendous impact on any families financial future."

The two Extension Agents said registration forms for the meetings are available at their office in the Courthouse, at banks throughout the county, at the County ASCS office and PCA office in Friona.

They expressed hope that those planning to attend any or all sessions will complete one of the forms so that they will have some idea of the crowd to expect.

Topics to be covered at the "Get In Step for 1967--Management School" range from income tax and insurance to estate planning and equipping the farm and home business center.

Speakers will include Extension Specialists, A Texas Tech agricultural economist, a Muleshoe accountant, an Amarillo investment broker, and a Clovis social security representative.

The Squaws, beaten 56-54 by the Floydada girls at Farwell last Friday in tournament play, dropped a 51-33 decision at Floydada Tuesday night, their first loss in district play. The loss knocked Friona out of the district lead with a 3-1 record.

Meanwhile, the surprising Chieftains upped their season record to 15-2 and kept a share of the district lead by downing Floydada, 54-49. The Chiefs are now 4-0 in district warfare, the same as Dimmitt's Bobcats.

The Squaws trailed the Floyd county girls all the way in Tuesday's game. Cindy Ingram scored 16 points for the Squaws.

The Chiefs fell behind their opponents, but caught up at halftime and pulled away in the final quarter. Ray Murphree's 19 points paced the team.

Chiefs, Squaws Are Runners-up In Meet

Both the Friona High School Chieftains and Squaws reached the finals for the third time in as many tournament appearances, and captured runner-up honors in the Farwell Invitational tourney last week.

The Squaws, forced to play four games posted wins over Lazbuddie, Adrian and Olton enroute to the finals. The Chiefs bested Springlake and Muleshoe before bowing to host Farwell in an overtime in the finals.

The Squaws lost a two-point thriller to surprising Floydada in the finals. Floydada, the defending district champions supposedly in a re-building year with two freshmen in the starting lineup, upended Dimmitt in the semi-finals, then had the Squaws in check virtually all the way in the finals.

Having to play two games in the tournament's opening day Coach Mel Williams used two completely different teams during the day. He threw his reserves against Lazbuddie in the tournament opener, and they responded with a 29-22 win. The regular starters then blasted Adrian, 65-31.

In their semi-finals game, the Squaws met Olton for the fourth time this season, and made it four in a row over the Fillies, 57-44, as Hazel Fallwell scored 29 points. She had 31 against Adrian.

The Chiefs edged Springlake, 65-67 in their opening game, then "stole" one from Muleshoe, 65-63 to reach the finals.

Against Muleshoe, the Mules had a four-point lead with 38 seconds left in the game, and the Chiefs pulled the game out of the fire.

With about 20 seconds left, Friona intercepted a pass and tied up the game at 63-61. Muleshoe missed a chance to take the lead with a free shot with seven seconds left. Ray Murphree rebounded, was fouled, and calmly sank both shots with five seconds left, and that was the game.

Against Farwell in the finals, Friona led for practically the entire game, but a Farwell rally caught the Chiefs and forced the game into overtime.

With Bobby Jordan scoring all his team's points in the first quarter, Friona jumped to a 6-0 lead and had it 12-9 at the quarter.

Farwell was never too far back, although the Chiefs had a seven-point lead, 33-26, midway through the third period.

The Steers slowly cut the lead, though, and finally went ahead on a three-point play with 6:32 left in the game. Jordan's jump shot with 4:37 left game Friona a 41-38 lead, but Farwell regained the lead, Jordan fouled out of the game a moment later.

It took two free shots by Ray Murphree with 1:30 left to tie the game. Friona had the ball the last 58 seconds of regulation play, but could not get off a final shot.

Although the steers won by two points, they had three chances to increase their lead on one-and-one free shots, missing the first shot each time, to leave Friona with hope of tying the score.

The Squaws met a fired-up band of Floydada Whirlwinds, who jumped out to an 8-0 and then an 11-3 lead. Cindy Ingram's free shots and Betty Taylor's field goals got the team back in the game, 13-9 after a quarter.

Floydada again bolted to leads of 17-11 and 19-14, but the Squaws came back and Miss Taylor's set shot at the buzzer left Friona trailing by just one, 26-25 at halftime.

The Whirlwinds protected their lead during the third quarter, and then at the start of the final quarter almost made a shambles of things, grabbing a 40-32 edge.

Betty Taylor hit two field goals and Cindy Ingram four free shots, though, and Friona had its first lead of the game, 43-42, with 3:02 left. It didn't last long, though, and the last three minutes were pressure-packed.

When the smoke had cleared, Floydada became the second team to claim a victory over the Squaws this season, and by a narrow 54-52 margin.

SLOW BALL . . . The action seems to be getting ahead of the basketball in this stop-action shot by the Friona Star camera. Linda Fallwell (50) is corraling the ball, being contested by Olton's Karen Hipp (15) and Lynn McGill (35). In the background is another Squaw guard, Judy Shirley.

Management School Begins January 10

tion; John Aldridge, attorney; Prentice Mills, ASCS director; and Joe Jones, of Security State Bank.

The February 7 meeting on insurance will be presented by Dan Ethridge, of Friona; Mrs. Bob Estes, of Bovina; and Jimmy Ware, of Bovina.

The local insurance agents will cover life, medical, education, fire, casualty, liability and crops insurance.

The coordinator of the new Panhandle Economic Program, James Murphrey, of Amarillo, will be one of the speakers at the first meeting of the management school Tuesday, January 10.

Murphrey, who is also an Extension Service farm management specialist, will talk on "Understanding Financial Management."

Deaf Smith County Home agent, Mrs. Argen Draper, will also speak at the first session. Her topic will be "Planning for Spending." She will discuss spending of the family, farm and business.

Chairman of the first session will be Freeman Davis, of the Farmer County Farmers Union. Hostesses will be members of the County Home Demonstration Council.

Records and family business centers will be discussed at the second session of the "Get In Step for 1967 -- Management School." This second meeting will be on Tuesday, January 17.

Extension Home Management Specialist Joy Arrington, of College Station will explain the equipment, organization, files and arrangements for various kinds of farm and home management centers.

Records -- their importance, purpose, use and how to keep them -- will be explained by a three man team.

Featured at the record-keeping session will be Rex Kennedy, Texas Tech, Cricket Taylor and Bill Boling.

Chairman of the second session will be Larry Fairchild, president of the Friona Young Farmers. Hostesses will be the Friona Young Homemaking Club.

Sponsors of the "Get In Step for 1967 -- Management School is the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the Farmer County Program Building Committee, a group of leaders which places priority and gives direction to informal education and other improvement activities for the county.

On The Farm In Parmer County

RONNIE McNUTT
County Agent

Make plans to attend the six-meeting Management School to begin January 10th. All Parmer County residents are encouraged to attend free of charge.

Programs of the school can be found at any of the local lending agencies. Registration forms are also available at the lending agencies to complete and return to the County Agents office in Farwell.

The School will be held at the Hub Community Center from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. each Tuesday for 6 weeks.

Small Grain Insect Survey During the period of November 21 to November 30 a small grain pest survey was made in 27 Panhandle Counties.

Greenbugs were found in Parmer County. Light populations of the apple grain and crown aphid were found but in no case was significant aphid damage noted.

The Parmer County Junior Livestock Show has been set for Feb. 16-18 at Friona. Judges are being contacted to judge and final plans are progressing.

"Closing time", as it refers to 1966 farm records, is at hand. This means totaling the balance sheets on farm and home enterprises and taking a look at what happened during the year.

A close look should point out problems must be met in planning for 1967 and the years ahead. Records often reflect whether management changes are needed and also whether an enterprise should be dropped or expanded.

Furthermore a complete set of records is a must for proper income tax reporting. Regular kept records can save dollars at tax paying time, for deductible expenses are often overlooked, especially if paid in cash.

Complete farm records are an asset when money must be borrowed for production and operating expenses. Knowing what the business is doing makes a strong taking point in effecting credit arrangements. Farm facilities need facts on which to base their decisions and none are more reliable than those obtained from well-kept records.

Vo-Ag Teacher Is Announced

Superintendent of Schools Alton Farr this week announced the hiring of Larry L. Howe, 23, as vocational-agriculture instructor at Friona High School to replace David T. McVey, who is leaving at mid-term to accept a position at El Paso's Bowie High School.

A native of Arnett, Oklahoma, Howe is single. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in animal husbandry at Panhandle A&M College. He completed work on his master's degree January of last year at Texas Tech.

Howe has just completed his student teaching at Spearman High School. He is a Methodist.

BULL SOLD

Charles Short, Friona, recently purchased an Aberdeen-Angus bull from H.C. Wells, also of Friona.

Year's Rainfall Comes Close To 1965 Total

Friona's rainfall, as recorded by the City of Friona, amounted to 17.20 inches for 1966. This was just .12 inches less than the 17.32 total for the preceding year.

Wettest month was August, when 6.83 inches were recorded, 2.6 inches of that total falling on one day, the most of any single day during the year.

Three months registered practically "nil." March had no rainfall at all. October recorded only .03, and December, thanks to a late-month snow, came out to .06.

June was the other wet month with 4.22. Eight of the twelve months came out with less than an inch.

Nunn Named Design Center

Nunn Lumber Co. of Friona has been designated as a "Farm and Ranch Design Center Dealer" by the Lumbermen's Association of Texas, and plans for most types of farm structures, from feeders to barns and houses, are now available.

This new service offered through designated dealers-members of the 80 year old non-profit trade association has been made possible through the assistance of Texas A&M University, species associations, and manufacturers and suppliers of building materials, according to Bill Nunn, owner.

In addition to plans for most types of structures used in rural areas, the "Farm and Ranch Design Center Dealer" yards can assist the buying public by furnishing information on how to obtain financing through the Farmers Home Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Local Girl Is Contest Winner

A contest idea by Mrs. Gerald Jenkins (the former Kay Coffey) earned her the $100 first prize in a Denton newspaper Christmas contest. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins worked on the winning entry, and told contest officials they spent about 24 hours preparing it. The contest idea was to present "Santa Items" in illustrations. Kay and Gerald's entry had characters from the cartoon series "Peanuts" singing out the items as if in Christmas Carols. The contest was sponsored by the Denton Record-Chronicle.

Two apple trees found in private orchards, the Golden Delicious and Red Stark Delicious, were bought by Stark Nurseries for a total of $76,000!

Water District To Vote On Committeemen Tuesday

Qualified voters will name their choices in the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 election Tuesday when Parmer County selects two county committeemen, and decides whether or not to admit three counties to the organization.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Tuesday at Wilson-Brock Insurance Co. in Bovina for agricultural real estate property owners in Parmer County, who are otherwise also qualified or registered voters, according to Carl Rea of Bovina, election judge.

Voters in Parmer County Precinct 4 (Lazbuddie) will name a county committeeman while all Parmer farmers will elect a committeeman at large. The names of H. L. Ivy and Wesley Barnes appear for one place in Commissioner Precinct 4.

To replace Walter Kaltwasser of Farwell, who has served two terms as county commissioner at large, voters will pick one man from a list of four: Ernest Anthony of Friona, J. D. Kirkpatrick of Bovina, Henry Haseloff of Farwell and Jim Ray Daniel of Friona.

In separate issues, farmers will vote for or against the admittance of Hale County, Swisher County and Crosby County into the High Plains Undergrround Conservation Water District, and also for or against the counties assuming their share of indebtedness and/or maintenance taxes that may be owed, contracted or authorized by or for the Water District.

Officials here say there has been little interest in the past in electing county committeemen to the Water District. However, they point out that "water is our most important resource -- and as the water goes, so does Parmer County."

Black Is Honored By Irrigation Magazine

A.L. Black Friona farmer-cattlemán was one of five named merit winners by Irrigation Age magazine, according to an announcement from Palmer Norton of Hereford, publisher of the magazine.

The merit winners were pictured and editorially featured in the December edition of Irrigation Age.

Others honored were D.L. McDonald of Hereford, the late George E. Green, Plainview; Bervin Tilson of Plainview and J.W. (Buck) Buchanan, Dumas. Black was cited as one of the first irrigators in Parmer County, always looking for better ways to use and conserve soil and water.

He has been on the board of supervisors of Parmer County Soil Conservation District since its formation in 1949, and presently is serving as its secretary-treasurer.

Instrumental in the Running Water Draw Watershed flood prevention project, Black has encouraged area farmers to back this conservation program. Always active in the community, he participates in Lions, the FFA, and is Sunday School Superintendent of the First Baptist Church.

It is the time of year again for all of us to make resolutions in various areas of our lives. We generally resolve about the same things year after year and then break the resolutions almost as soon as we make them.

Really, any time of year is a good time for each of us to take inventory of the job we are doing and to take the necessary steps to direct us in changes we need to make.

Members of the Star staff generally voice our intention of doing a better job for our readers, advertising and supporters. We would like to express our sincere appreciation to each of you for your cooperation during the past year and will endeavor to serve you better during 1967.

"As You Go Through Life", a poem which was written by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, expresses a philosophy which each of us could include in resolutions for any time of year.

It goes like this:
"Don't look for the flaws as you go through life;
And even when you find them, it is wise and kind to be somewhat blind
And look for the virtue behind them;

For the cloudiest night has a hint of light
Somewhere in its shadow hiding;
It's better by far to hunt for a star
Than the spots on the sun abiding.
The current of life runs every way
To the bosom of God's great ocean.
Don't set your course
'gainst the river's course
And think to alter its motion
Don't waste a curse on the universe,
Remember, it lived before you
Don't butt at the storm
with your puny form,
But bend and let it go o'er you
This world will never adjust itself
To suit your whims to the letter;

Some things must go wrong
your whole life long,
And the sooner you know it the better.
It is folly to fight with the infinite
And go under at last in the wrestle.
The wiser man shapes into God's plan
As the watershapes into a vessel.
