BY DALTON

I READ somewhere the other day that the "five-cent candy bar is on the way out." Before I read another line, I thought, "As little as they are now, it'll take a mighty small hole to provide an exit." And then I read further:

"Manufacturers say rising costs, due to higher wages and other incidentals, are forcing them to make the move much as they dislike the idea. Previously, realizing their obligations to kids who have only a nickel to spend now and then, manufacturers reduced the size of bars rather than raise prices.

"Now they say the bars are so small they can hardly be found in the wrappers and the only solution is to hike the price to 10 cents, or at least two for 15 cents, which would mean eight cents for a single bar."

So they admit that candy bars for a nickel have dwindled to nearly nothing. A Baby Ruth for a nickel these days is only a tiny bit larger than they used to sell for a penny when our old codgers were younger. But, as I think I may have mentioned one time before, these little bitty nickel bars have one advantage: one candy bar is hardly enough to hurt a person's diet.

Pretty soon nothing will be priced at a nickel. Even stamps are supposed to go up, I hear. What this country needs is a good five-cent anything.

GYP NOTE: Insider's Newsletter asks this question: If you have ever bought a 15-transistor radio, did you stop to ask yourself what all those 15 transistors did? Five of them may pick up signals, says the Federal Trade Commission, but the other 10 are apt to do absolutely nothing, except to give you the illusion of spending your money on an extra-powerful set.

The FTC recently warned advertisers of radios it was time to stop this nonsense, and has, in fact, proposed a rule that would require advertisers to drop from the transistor count any dummy transistors that do not contribute to amplifying radio signals.

PLAN 4-H WEEK - Shown above are a group of Lamb County 4-H members as they complete plans for National 4-H Week, Sept. 30 - Oct. 7.

Plans Set For National 4-H Week

A four-leaf clover is the symbol of good luck to many people, but to some 300 Lamb County 4-H club members it is part of the emblem of their organization. Lamb County 4-H members are going to observe National 4-H Week, Sept. 30-Oct. 7 and highlighting this will be speeches on the radio by members of the seven Lamb County clubs as they discuss club projects and accomplishments.

Kicking off the week will be a Steer Roundup Saturday at the County Show Barns in Littlefield with several local members participating.

All calves will receive ribbons with the judging to begin at 1 p. m. following a workshop in the morning beginning at 9:30.

Next week all 4-H members will be wearing club buttons to school and anyone interested in becoming a member is urged to inquire about meetings and club information. A special meeting for guests is planned during the month of October.

ROD BOWLING

BOWLING NAMED FFA DISTRICT PRESIDENT

leadership and judging contest, and discussion of the district banquet.

Thirty-three Sudan FFA members attended the South Plains Fair Monday in Lubbock when Mickey Gilbert and Green Underwood showed swine. Gilbert showed two gilts and a young boar and Underwood had a mature Spot boar.

Damon Provence entered his farrowing crate in the farm mechanics contest.

HORNETS TAKE BULLDOGS 19-0

SUDAN WINS NO. 3

The Hornets made it three wins in a row by defeating the Anton Bulldogs, 19-0 Friday night. Although the Hornets were plagued by fumbles and penalties, the will to win was kept alive by the outstanding defensive and offensive playing.

The Hornets began their play when Jerry Bellar recovered a Bulldog fumble on the 35 yard line. The Hornet offensive unit did a fine job of moving the ball and planted it on the five yard line before they fumbled with the Bulldogs there to gobble it up. However, the Bulldogs were forced to punt on downs. A short punt was in the Hornets favor and play began on the 20 yard line with the Hornets in good field position.

The Hornets ran into the invisible shield again at the 13 yard line where the Bulldogs recovered another Hornet fumble.

This was the give and take of the ballgame until the Hornets took over with their backs to the wall and 97 yards to pay-dirt, QB Ronnie Hill drew back and threw a bomb to End Joe Hines for some 54 yards. Later PB Larry Hanna went over for the TD from four yards out. Bellar's kick for PAT was not successful, but the Hornets were on the scoreboard, 6-0.

With only a few seconds left in the first half, Shawn Potter recovered a Bulldog fumble on the Bulldog 28 yard line. Moving the ball down, Hill carried over from a yard out for the second TD. Bellar tried for the conversion points but was stopped short of the goal line, giving the Hornets a 12-0 lead at the half.

Fumbles, on both sides, again took over in the third quarter as the Hornets recovered a Bulldog pass only to loose it a couple of plays later.

Later the Hornets were in good field condition due to a 25 yard pass play from Hill to Bellar and a 15 yard personal foul mark-off against Anton. Bellar made a fine run, picking up 14 yards before Sudan lost the ball to Anton by a fumble on the two yard line. The Bulldogs managed to move the ball out to 30 yard line before Billy Ford recovered another fumble for the Hornets.

Hill moved the Hornet swarm down to the goal posts and went over from three yards. Bellar's kick was good and although Hill intercepted two Anton passes in the fourth quarter Sudan was unable to capitalize on either of them. Thus, the battle was over and Sudan was the victor, 19-0.

Quarterback Hill was the leading yardage gainer for the Hornets as he passed for 106 yards and carried for 55 yards in 10 tries. He also ran across for two Hornet touchdowns.

The defensive unit was outstanding against the Bulldogs as they will need to be Friday night when Sudan will host the high-flying Eagles from Seagraves. Seagraves is rated as the number one Class A team in the state. It is very possible that they will be out for blood as Sudan upset their winnings last year with a 12-8 victory.

Let's attend the game Friday night at 8 p. m. in Masten Stadium and watch the Sudan Hornets clip the Eagles' wings!
