FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR NUMBER 2

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1972

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

"THE WHITE BASS is king in the spring," says a release from the Texas Parks & Wildlife Dept., adding: "Spring is the time when the scrappy white—a rather elusive fish at times—sheds his cloak of mystery and becomes a sucker for any angler's spoon or spinner."

That's fine rhetoric, but it's a bunch of baloney (balogna). If they hadn't said "any angler's spoon" it might be more accurate. It is that time of year when I must remind all my friends to please refrain from telling me about how many fish they just caught, and how much fun it was. It upsets me greatly because I am the worst fisherman anybody ever heard of.

I talked with a fellow who recently went flying away to the west coast of Old Mexico to go fishing with some other people and they all caught a disgusting amount of fish.

Another man was in the office the other day and he has become so adept at trout fishing that he enters contests. And when you're in the coffee house and somebody starts talking about fishing, everyone else immediately wants to tell you about the great places they know about where the fishing is so great that you can almost walk along the bank and the fish jump out into your hand, dressed, rolled in corn meal and smeared with tartare sauce.

Fishing must be a great sport for those who catch fish, though—or maybe these guys just like to get away for a few days. I used to think there were more boats in Sudan and Amherst, a heck of a long way from any sizeable body of water, than there were in some of the coastal communities. Some of these people drag a boat 600 miles to go fishing, so obviously they like it.

Some of you have heard this before, but I'll say it again: I've been fishing at some of the best fishing spots, with some people who are recognized as good fishermen, and never have I caught a fish big enough to bring home. Puled in one once at Texoma about 3 inches long one time; it probably was somebody's bait. But otherwise, nothing, from about four fishing expeditions at Texoma, one in Galveston Bay, two at Possum Kingdom, once at whatever lake that is a Daingerfield, and once at Lake of the Pines.

Statements such as the one above invariably start my fisherman friends to saying things like "If you'll just go fishing with ME, I'll guarantee you will catch some fish." I've tried that too. They just don't understand. At least three people have told me this and I took them up on it. I didn't catch any. They didn't catch any. They couldn't understand why not. One guy sheared the pin off his motor.

I could go into a lot more detail, but it's too sordid. Let it suffice to say that I'd just as soon you guys didn't mention these fantastic fishing trips to me. I love to get outside, but I suppose I have enough hobbies

WHO'S WHO - Miss Ellen Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Williams was recently appointed as "Who's Who" of South Plains College and American Junior Colleges. A second year student at SPC, she was also named Tex-Ann for the month of March.

Cancer Program Slated Monday

The Young Homemakers organization and the ESA will co-sponsor a program on Cancer Monday, March 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the Community Center.

The program will be presented by Dr. J. R. Fain of Littlefield.

A spokesman for the organization issued a special invitation to all women of the community to attend this program.

Spelling Bee Set March 18

Two representatives for the Lamb County Spelling Bee were chosen Thursday at the local school by means of elimination from a field of 25 contestants. Representing Sudan on March 18 in the county contest at Littlefield will be two eighth grade girls, Shelley Hargrove and Gaylene Rogers. Both girls are previous entrants in the county contest with Miss Hargrove being named winner in 1970 and representing Lamb County at Lubbock. Shelley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bob Hargrove, and Gaylene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rogers.

Giving the two eighth graders strong competition in the local contest was runner-up Linda Evans, fifth grade daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Evis.

There will be two contestants from each school in the county eliminations with the action to begin at 2 p. m. Saturday, March 18.

MISS GAYLENE ROGERS

Incumbents File For City Election

The incumbents in the city election announced for re-election this week. They are Arnold Reed, mayor; F. M. Smith and Paul D. Provence for city councilmen.

Tommy Moss filed Tuesday as a candidate for the Board of Trustee Election of the Sudan Independent School District. James Withrow had previously announced as a candidate for re-election to the school board.

Deadline for filing was Wednesday, March 1 at 5 p. m. and at presstime no other candidates had announced.

COACHES RE-ASSIGNED

It was brought to our attention that the position of the coaches was erroneously reported last week. Following is a re-assignment of the local coaches as reported by school officials.

Bill Adams will continue to serve as head football coach. Dwayne Gray will be head basketball coach and will coach junior high football. Bill Smith will assist as football coach then serve as junior high basketball coach. Gary Campbell will general the junior varsity in both basketball and football.

PRE-SCHOOL DAY SCHEDULED

Elementary principal B. M. Wilson announced this week that Pre-School Day will be held Friday, March 24, when children who will begin the first grade in September will attend classes.

A full itinerary will be published next week along with what essential information will be needed by the school at the time of registration.

RED CROSS TO MEET TOMORROW

The Lamb County Chapter of the American Red Cross will have a regular meeting Friday, March 3, at 4:00 p. m. in the Red Cross office. Expected guests are Mr. and Mrs. Les Watson, chairman of the Fund Campaign for Springlake, and Bill Scott, chairman for Earth.

FIRE REPORT

The Sudan Volunteer Fire Department answered two calls this week. The first was Wednesday, Feb. 23, at approximately 2:15 p. m. when a car fire was reported. A 1964 Ford Thunderbird belonging to Glenn Gatewood received minor damage to the wiring under the hood. It was reported that the car flooded and back-fired causing the blaze.

The second call came Friday, Feb. 25, at 2:45 p. m. when a grass fire was reported at Homer McLaury's. The bermuda grass caught from a trash barrel fire on the west side of the pasture and the high winds rapidly swept the fire. The blaze reached within 10 or 15 feet from a barn located at the rear of the residence before the alert firemen veered the fire away from the buildings.

Track News

The first track meet of the season will be held Saturday, March 4, in Littlefield. The open meet will involve Class AA, A and B schools participating in one division.

Coach Bill Adams reported that Sudan will participate in all 14 events but he was undecided at presstime as to what boys would enter which events. Some 30 boys are participating in the high school track program.

Open House - Concert Set Tuesday At School

There have been many developments in education since the Public Schools were established in Texas one hundred and eighteen years ago. The celebration of Texas Public Schools Week points this out. During this special week from March 6 through March 10, the Public Schools of Texas hold open house for everyone. It gives those who are interested the opportunity of seeing how our schools are equipped, how they are staffed, and how the children are taught. The Texas Public Schools have kept pace with the space age and are providing the type of instruction which you have a right to expect. The new scientific methods are combined with the three R's to give the children of today unparalleled opportunities to learn.

The Sudan Schools will hold Open House, Tuesday, March 7, from 6:45 to 7:45 p. m. when parents and friends are invited to view classroom, science and without fishing. I have to tell this, though. Once I was determined to go home with some fish. We fished and fished and didn't get a nibble. Finally I went by the fish market on the way home. It was closed.

art exhibits in the elementary school. All teachers will be present during this time for consultation and visitation.

A band concert will be held in the school auditorium at 7:45 p. m. and will feature all band students.

The week will begin locally with a holiday from school for all students while the teachers have an in-service workday.

Everyone is invited to visit school through the week and to have lunch in the school cafeteria. However, a special invitation is extended to everyone for the activities Tuesday night.

SCHOOL MENU FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK

Tuesday, March 7—Fish portions, garden peas with carrots, potatoes in cream sauce, rolls, milk, honey, butter.

Wednesday—Enchiladas with crackers, lettuce-tomato salad, baked corn, orange push-ups, milk.

Thursday—Hamburgers, onion, pickle slices, potato chips, fresh apple half, peanut butter cookie, milk.

Friday—Vegetable-beef stew, crackers, cheese toast, cinnamon rolls, milk.

SLATED MEETINGS

The Sudan Senior Citizens will meet Friday, March 10, at 2:30 p. m. in the Community Center. The program will be sponsored by the Honor Society and the Future Teachers Association of Sudan High School. Everyone is invited to attend.

All Baptist men are invited to a dinner, Friday, March 3, at 7:30 p. m. in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church.

The covered-dish dinner is sponsored by members of the Brotherhood.

Littlefield Cotton Products

This well-known firm is located on the Lubbock Hwy. in Littlefield, phone 385-5176.

In this particular field of endeavor there is no company more worthy of extended mention in this review than this well known institution. Under the direction of men thoroughly conversant with every feature of this industry, it has become a very important asset to this area.

By reason of the fact that the management has had wide experience in every area of this business and because of their comprehensive knowledge of every branch of the trade, this firm has continued to witness an increase in the number of their patrons.

We, in this Good Neighbor Review issue, highly recommend Littlefield Cotton Products as being an asset to this community. For many years they have added to the progress and prosperity of this entire section.

The management and assistants are men of practical experience in this type of business.

WEATHER CONTROL FUNDS SOUGHT

Better Weather, Inc. met recently to complete plans for this year's hail suppression and rain stimulation program.

Letters are going out this week to solicit funds to support this year's program by March 20, because Lamb County fell short last year. Atmospheric, Inc. who conducts the cloud seeding said all money must be paid in advance before a contract can be signed.

In order to raise the necessary funds, farmers in the county are asked to pay a total of 25 cents for dryland and 50 cents for irrigated. This is divided equally between the tenant and owner for leased land.

All money will be returned to the farmers if the program does not go into effect.
