

Board Dismisses Mary Kaye Everitt

A news release from the Social Security Administration told this week some facts concerning the first full year of Medicare in Texas.

According to the regional Assistant Social Security commissioner, over $130,300,000 was paid out by the federal medicare program for the care of people age 65 and over in Texas during the year.

The Social Security official said that there are 895,500 people over 65 in the state who are eligible for hospital insurance under Medicare. This group produced 300,000 hospital admissions. (Some of these may be duplicates).

It was stated that there was an increase in hospital use by older people, but it was described as "within reasonable limits."

Overall, the program was credited with increasing the total hospital occupancy during Medicare's first year by around five per cent.

The State Fair of Texas said "Only a mother could have loved a newly-hatched Brontosaurus, but visitors to the 1967 State Fair of Texas Oct. 7-22 in Dallas will get their chance to try."

That goes not just for Brontosaurus babies but for eleven other dinosaurs which will be on display between the Music Hall and Automobile Building.

Sponsored by the Sinclair Refining Company, the giant exhibit was created at a cost of approximately $500,000 and took two years to construct.

Largest of the twelve life-size fibreglass reproductions of members of the dinosaur family is the Brontosaurus which measures 80 feet. Sculptor was Dr. Louis Paul Jonas, naturalist-sculptor and creator of many wild life dioramas at New York's Museum of Natural History.

Many varieties of dinosaurs lived for about 140 million years in pre-historic times, a longer life than man's existence. Primitive forms of man appeared in the dinosaur's later days but existed in the shadow of that reptile. Dinosaurs lived on land and in the sea, and some in the air. Most were vegetarians but some were meat-eaters. Most notable among the latter group was the Tyrannosaurus, the fierce beast with six-inch teeth.

Briefly, the dinosaur from Greek meaning "terrible lizard" dominated the Earth longer than any other kind of creature. In the late Paleozoic Era, the dinosaur's vegetarian forebears appeared as small, agile creatures. Following ancient life, into intermediate life (Mesozoic Era), most species grew tremendously in size. They flourished during Triassic, Jurassic and Cretaceous geologic periods. During that time, man's predecessors first appeared in the shadow of the dinosaur.

Extinction of the dinosaur is laid, in theory, to three factors: change in climate, evolution of different plant life and/or rise in early mammal population. Its revival has been brought about by the interest of Sinclair, which sought to dramatize the age and origin of its basic natural resource: crude oil.

With all of our rain of June and July, the following story is not perhaps as time as it would have been prior to the rain but we pass it on anyway.

Seems a motorist from another part of the country was passing through West Texas, and stopped in Hale Center, knowing of the area's arid reputation, and seeing how dry it was, he asked the filling station attendant: "Doesn't it ever rain around here?"

To which the attendant answered, "Oh, yes. It rained about five years ago up at Plainview, but I couldn't get off to see it."

And where, someone asked, is the sweet little old grey-haired lady of yesterday?
—Only her hairdresser knows for sure!

Men used to criticize women's hats, but not anymore. With short skirts now in style, they don't look that far.

Mary Kaye Everitt, Chamber of Commerce Manager in Friona since last October 1, has been relieved of her duties it was announced by the Chamber this week.

In a written statement, the board of directors said: "The board of directors of the Friona Chamber of Commerce announced today that they plan to employ a manager who specializes or is experienced in industrial and labor relations. As a result of Friona's recent acquisition of several new industries, as well as the remaining potential for the area's industrial development it was the board's expressed feeling that personnel of this type would be beneficial to the future of the local economy. The new manager will work in the areas of industrial and agricultural labor relations, industrial development, city planning, public relations, and chamber work in general.

"Several chamber members as well as the industrial development committee, have visited other cities which have experienced exceptional industrial growth. After speaking with Chamber managers and other officials in these towns it became obvious that a tremendous advantage would be enjoyed by having a chamber manager employed such as described above. The board has several prospects for the job and are now screening applications.

Mrs. Mary Kaye Everitt, who has been serving as manager, will complete her tenure as manager here effective August 1, 1967. The board wishes to thank Mrs. Everitt for her efforts during her tenure as manager."

Anni Jensen To Be Honored With Tea

Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Massie are hosting a reception and tea on Sunday for Erik and Anni Jensen, at their farm home two miles north of Friona.

"We invite all of Anni's friends to come by to greet her and her new husband," the Massies say. The event will be from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

The couple, which have been houseguests of the Massies the past month, will leave Friona on August 8.

Williams Takes New Home Job

Mel Williams, coach of the Friona High School Squaws the past three years, has accepted a position as high school girls basketball coach and elementary school principal at New Home, South of Lubbock.

At Friona High School, Williams also served as assistant football coach.

Bond Sales Are Noted

Frank A. Spring, Chairman of the Farmer County Savings Bonds Committee, reports that E and H Savings Bond sales during the first six months of 1967 totaled $47,468. June sales for the county were $2,575 and 37 per cent of the sales goal has been achieved.

January-June 1967 sales for Texas were $83,851,046 and 46 per cent of the sales goal has been achieved. This is an increase of 8.6 per cent during the same period last year.

Nationally, sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds totaled $408 million during June. This is the highest of any June for the past 12 years; 3 per cent more than a year ago. Sales for the first 6 months of 1967 amounted to $2,617 million -- 4.2 per cent above 1966.

Landowners Get Rt-Of-Way Damages

A group of special commissioners made awards in 17 cases they heard last week in Farwell regarding right of way damages for a gas pipeline which will cross the county. Some 33 landowners in Farmer County are affected by the line, which crosses the southeast corner of the county, from southwest to northeast.

The company involved is the National Gas Pipeline Company of America. It involves 16.9 miles in the county. The line is being laid from the Permian Basin, near Wink, to Chicago.

Hearings were held after farmers disputed the amount of damages offered them by the pipeline company.

The awards given by the three-man commission last week ran approximately $14 per rod. The right-of-way will concern a 75-foot strip.

Some of the farmers settled on their own, and others settled through their attorneys, out of court.

Members of the commission were E.C. Phipps, Joe Magness and I.W. Quickell.

Cindy Ingram Plays In All-Star Classic

Cindy Ingram participated in the Texas Girls Basketball Association's North-South all-star game July 22, becoming the seventh Friona player in eight years selected for the game.

Miss Ingram, leading scorer for the Squaws' team which tied Floydada for the district title last spring, saw action in every quarter in the game which saw the North squeeze past the South, 58-56 on a last ditch shot.

The win enabled the North to win its eighth straight all-star classic, and brought its record overall to 10-1.

However, the North team was forced to scramble, and to overcome South leads which reached as much as 15 points much of the game. They tied the score in the last 20 seconds, and managed to get the ball with less than 10 seconds left in the game. Tulla's all-state forward, Frieda Rousseau, who led her team to the state championship the past year, sank a set shot with six seconds left to give the North its "storybook" finish win.

Friona High School has had 10 girls participate in the state all-star game, and one year furnished three players for the "North" team.

Possible Bottle Club Drawing Fire Locally

Farmer County citizens moved this week to block an attempt by two Hereford men to establish a private club on the outskirts of Friona.

FRIDAY-SATURDAY

The grand opening of Wheeler's Fina Station will be held Friday and Saturday in Friona. The station is located at 410 West 11th (Highway 60). Patrons those two days will receive a coupon good for five gallons of Fina gasoline, which they may redeem anytime during the next month.

Also, there will be free cold drinks, courtesy of Hereford's Coca-Cola distributor, along with free ice cream, candy and balloons for the children.

J.H. Wheeler, owner, has been in the service station business in Friona the past two years.

Wheeler invites everyone in the Friona area to come by and take advantage of the free offers, and try out his good Fina

The two, Charles Joseph Lance and Adolph Eugene Vasek, were in the process of applying for a permit for the club through the Texas Liquor Control Board's Lubbock office.

Lance and Vasek seek to establish a club in the former Farmer County Farm Supply office just northeast of the Friona city limits on the north side of Highway 60. It would be the first such club located in Farmer County.

Patrons those two days will receive a coupon good for five gallons of Fina gasoline, which they may redeem anytime during the next month.

The station is open seven days a week, from 6 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Grows 'Em Big...

Jim Griffith, 711 Fifth Street, is noted for the large Russian Giant Sunflowers he grows each year. Griffith termed his flowers as "small" this year. He competes annually in a national contest against flower-growers for the largest sunflower head, which turned out to be a 24-inch diameter giant from Oregon last summer. His largest flower has been 18 inches across. Griffith doubts that sunflowers ever become a commercial crop locally because of our high winds. Approximately a quart of seed is harvested from each flower each year. Griffith also grows castor beans corn and several varieties of flowers in his garden east of his house.

City Budget Draft To Highlight Session

The City of Friona's annual city budget for the fiscal year 1967-68 will be presented in draft form to the city council at its regular meeting Monday night at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend the budget session if interested.

Projected total revenue for the city in 1967-68 is $304,284. The budget in draft form calls for disbursements of $239,243. The past year's revenue amounted to $277,315 and disbursements budgeted were $220,205.

One of the principal items on the budget as drafted by City Manager Jake Outland is an $8,000 item for street repairs and maintenance, an annual item. Also included are $4,000 items for a sewer "roder" machine for maintenance of sewer lines, and a like amount for the possible purchase of an additional patrol car.

Also included are items of $3,000 for maintenance of city wells and $700 for library furniture. The latter is a new item, since the library has been added as a city function.

'Treasure Hunt' Is Called Off

Because of lack of interest the proposed shopping promotion for downtown Friona on Saturday, which was to have been a "treasure hunt" has been called off.

The merchants who will conduct their monthly meeting today at the Friona Lanes Cafe at 1 p.m., will discuss other possible alternatives.

Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

There seems to be a great mystery abroad in our land. All manner of news media report the inability of the powers that be to solve the question of what causes riots.

We cannot bury our heads in the sand and expect things to get better unassisted. We cannot deny the facts. Riots exist to the great shame of all of us.

They will continue to exist until the cause is removed. The cause is not to be found by committees of intellectuals meeting over a period of months.

By the time 15 or 20 thousand pages of reports are finished our country could be torn apart, our troops in Vietnam disillusioned and demoralized, our enemies moral strengthened.

The time for action is now -- today, and we must find the cause and more quickly to eliminate it.

There is no one factor that can be singled out. We hear that the answer is being sought in several areas of our (economy.) Lets look at a few:

Civil Rights? A lifetime spent mostly in the southern part of the United States clearly shows that our negro population has not always received an even break, but is it smart to demand better treatment at gunpoint? What part of civil rights can be obtained by killing fellow Americans, burning buildings, and stealing? The negro (Martin Luther Kings, Nobel Peace Prize notwithstanding) have set their race back almost a hundred years. And how would the civil rights experts explain the presence of numerous white people in the drunken howling mobs?

Another main reason given out is poverty. Nuts! Our unemployment is at one of the lowest points in our industrial history.

During a T.V. Newscast a Newark citizen was asked if he had a job, give a listen to his reply "Naw! a man wanted me to go to work for $1.15 an hour, I told him Hell! I draw $42.00 a week on relief!" Remember when $1.15 an hour was big money? Yours truly cut grass during the early thirties for .75 a day! Poverty cause riots? Not by itself it doesn't. A sign on a truck read thusly "I fight poverty -- I work."

There is one of the main causes right there. If these rioters would get out and find a job and get off the relief rolls they would not have the time or the energy to roam the streets. If more attention was paid to who draws the Federal Aid a lot of unemployed poverty stricken 200 pound loafers would have to go to work, and so would a large number of immoral women both white and colored.

No one can deny that true charity is a noble, Christian act, but the hardworking taxpayer shall not be called upon to support anyone who is not willing to at least try to help himself.

So while the people managers sit in air conditioned rooms and pat each other on the backs the trouble goes on.

Some one should tell them the "Secret word" Laziness -- Trifling indifference to their surroundings -- no pride and self respect -- no manhood -- no regard for the future of the youths involved.

Our cities must be rebuilt and so must a lot of our thinkings.

We could stop trying to populate the moon and build churches, homes and schools. We could stop trying to feed and police the entire world and do a better job of both here at home.

Have we lost sight of two important facts? "He is best governed who is least governed" and "Laziness travels so slowly that poverty soon overtakes it."

No More Kitchen Chores

See-through glass doors and eye-level controls on this new liquefied petroleum gas oven and broiler mean easier and more convenient meal preparation in this modern kitchen. The large suspended oven-broiler eliminates stooping, and permits watching cakes and pies as they bake. Four LP-gas top burners slide out of sight when not in use. Handsome kitchens such as the one above, equipped with modern automatic LP-gas appliances, are in the spotlight throughout the nation during observance of National LP-Gas Month.

OUR READERS Write

Mr. Bill Ellis
Editor Friona Star

Dear Sir:

We are writing you in regard to something which has happened in our community this past week about which we as Christians, parents, and Farmer County citizens should hang our heads in shame! A permit for a private club in which to serve liquor has been applied for to the District Supervisor of Texas Liquor Control. This club -- if the permit is issued -- is to be located 7/10 mile east of Friona in Farmer County.

Recently, this community raised approximately $100,000-000 to help locate industries in our community. Will this private club do anything for the betterment and economy of our community?

We were under the impression that the purpose of this newspaper is to keep the residents of Farmer County informed of things of interest to us. Certainly this is of great interest to us! Due to the lack of publicity on the part of this local newspaper, it may be too late for the protesting citizens of this community to prevent this permit being issued. Why did you not publish information on this? Were our Mayor and Chamber of Commerce alerted? Are our law enforcement officials large enough to handle situations arising from this club? If the Christians of this community had been alerted in time, we have no doubt that the progress of this club would not have gone this far!

Sincerely
Mr. and Mrs. Jean K. Anthony

Dear Mrs. Anthony:

Yes, we had been hearing rumors for some time about the proposed private club, but we had nothing official to print. We can't print rumors, of course, but perhaps we were negligent in not making mention somehow or other about the prospects of such a club.

At any rate, we understand that the Liquor Board will give our citizens ample time to protest, so perhaps it is not too late to do something about it.

As for the mayor and Chamber of Commerce, we cannot speak for them.

Thank you for your letter.

Bill Ellis

PANGBORN THE PEANUT BEAR AND HIS TUMMY DRUM, Ray Broekel

By: Rhonda Webster

Pangborn was a peanut bear. He lived in the Pecksmith Zoo. He did tricks for peanuts. He got lots and lots of peanuts. Best of all he could play his tummy drum.

Mr. Murphy was a band leader. One day he heard Pangborn. He asked Pangborn if he would join his band. Pangborn said, "Yes. Pangborn got a uniform. Three days went by. Then Pangborn went to the band leader and said, "My Feet Hurt." "My Feet Hurt". My tummy drum is too small. "I'm leaving." Then he left. No longer was Pangborn happy. The band leader was not happy either. When he went back to the zoo he got lots of peanuts. Pangborn wanted to eat peanuts and play his tummy drum at the same time. He got all confused. He couldn't play his tummy drum and pitch peanuts in his mouth at the same time.

He went to see a man with a big factory. The factory went to work on a machine to help Pangborn catch and eat and play at the same time. Thousands of men worked on the machine and finally invented the right machine. Pangborn went back to the band. The band leader was so happy. He made big posters announcing Pangborn's return to the band.

"HIAWATHA" Walt Disney's Version
By: Mike Edwards

Hiawatha was a little Indian boy. He wanted to become a great hunter. One day Hiawatha tracked a little rabbit but the little rabbit begged for mercy so he didn't shoot it. Instead it made friends with all the little animals. He swore he would never hunt again, so he smashed his bow and arrows. Then he decided he would be an explorer. He found some big paw marks on the ground and followed them. He found a Mother Bear and she chased him. All the little animals helped him get away.

I liked the book because I like to read about animals and I thought the book was funny.

"OLD BLUE, THE COW PONY" Sanford Tousey

By: Mike Edwards

This is a true story about a horse named "Old Blue." The men from the 7XL Ranch in Wyoming captured "Old Blue" as a wild mustang and broke him to ride when Gil Prentess was nine years old.

Gil wanted the pony for his own, but his father told him he was too young.

One day Gil saved "Old Blue" and some more horses from eating too much grain and his father told him he was big enough to have Old Blue for his very own.

"Old Blue" learned to do everything a horse needs to know. He was a good ranch horse. One day he saved Gil by getting him through a stampede. Everybody on the 7XL ranch loved him and "Old Blue" seemed to love them, too.

One winter a wild disobedient boy from town came to live on the ranch. He would not mind his mother and she thought living on the ranch would help him. Then one day he wanted to take some tools to another ranch for Mr. Prentiss. The boy didn't know how to ride a horse very well, so they told him to take "Old Blue."

Mr. Prentiss told him not to run "Old Blue" because he was old and fat. But the boy ran "Old Blue" until he dropped dead. The boy ran off. The men at the ranch buried "Old Blue" and put up a marker. Now all the cowboys from the 7XL Ranch take off their hats when they pass by his grave.

LITTLE JOHNNY SHORTSTEP

Mary Louise Friebele

By: Stephen Jones

This story is about Little Johnny Shortstep. He was called Johnny Shortstep because he limped real bad. Johnny tried to keep up with the other boys, but he couldn't. Johnny hated the boys, school and sometimes the whole world. Johnny found a new book in his schoolroom about baseball. As he read it he forgot all his troubles. After a while a man came and talked to him about baseball. He asked Johnny to come to baseball practice with him. At practice the man found Johnny knew a lot about baseball. After practice the boys asked Johnny to join the team. Johnny was to get a suit before the next game. Johnny was very happy because he could play on the team. Now Johnny didn't hate the boys, school or the world. He was too happy.

LEFTY THE WRONG WAY PONY, Florence Laughlin

By: Stephen Jones

It was a fine day at the ranch. The boys came running down the hill to choose the horse for the morning ride. All the boys hated Lefty because he wouldn't turn right. There was a new boy at the ranch. He chos Lefty. The other boys laughed and made fun of him because he had chosen Lefty.

Lefty did just fine until he came to the first right turn. Then he made a foolish little circle. Pete tried to make him turn right by giving him sugar lumps. No use. He tried to scare him into turning to the right, but he wouldn't do it.

One day the boys decided to swim the river. They had been swimming for a while when Lefty heard Pet Cry, "Help," "Help!" Lefty tried to make his circle to the left but he couldn't because the other horses blocked him. There was nothing left for him to do but go straight right and so he did. Pete climbed onto Lefty's back and rode to shore. Lefty was not sold. All the boys wanted Lefty.

TAKES TITLE

Bailey Bats .800--

A couple of players ran off with batting championships in their respective leagues, according to statistics compiled by Don Reeve, Friona Little League director.

Bill Bailey of Friona State Bank coasted in for the title in the Intermediate League, with 20 hits in 25 times at bat for a phenomenal .800 batting mark. Bailey was one of only two players in the league with as many as 10 hits.

Bailey won by over 300 points over his nearest rivals, James Sims, of J.D.'s Gas Service and Jodean Harrelson of Star-Hurst each of whom batted .473.

One other Intermediate League player batted .400 - Tommy Long of Reeve Chevrolet, before an injury forced him to miss the last four games.

In the Pee-Wee League, Monty Phipps of Southwest Irrigation led the league with a .550 batting average, with 11 hits in 20 times at bat.

Phipps led the league by exactly 100 points over teammate Clay Bandy, who had nine hits for 20 at-bats, a .450 mark. One other player in the league batted .400-Kyle McDermitt of White Auto.

Southwest Irrigation had three of the top four batters in the final standings and four of the top six.

Phipps was the only Pee-Wee League player to get as many as 10 hits during the ten-game season.

Friona Tops Bovina Twice

The Friona Cowboys took two baseball games from the Bovina "Giants" in games played recently, winning at Bovina 7-3 and at Friona, 25-3.

Jackie Morgan was the winning pitcher in both games. S.D. Baize, who played while on leave in Friona, crashed a home run in the latter game, as did Frank Castillo. Henry Ramirez and Mario Castillo each had four hits for Friona.

Ramirez also had four hits at Bovina, as did Lupe Ruiz and Mario Castillo, including a home run. In that game, Friona scored four runs in the last two innings to break a 3-3 tie.

The team had a 7-2 record going into last Sunday's game.

for them to get their protests in line," Bowman said.

The Liquor Control Board's district supervisor indicated that he already had a "desk full" of protests, when he returned from his vacation Monday morning. Meanwhile, more protests were being prepared by Friona residents.

Bowman indicated that it was the responsibility of his office to investigate the people who apply for a club permit. If the character of those applying for the permit is okay, the Lubbock office would then send a "clearance report" to Austin, where the permits are issued.

A private club normally seeks members, who bring their liquor to be kept at the club. No liquor may be actually sold at the club, since it is kept for the members.

One of the objections being raised locally is the fact that the Sheriff's office would be 25 miles away (Farwell), and there would be just a county deputy to police the club, it being outside the City of Friona's police jurisdiction.

Sheriff Lovelace said this week that he thought his office probably could take care of the policing angle, but objected to the "additional hazards" which would be imposed.

The food specialists also evaluated other low-fat baked products. Muffins, they found, can be made with half the usual amount of fat. Biscuits can be made with two-thirds and pastry with three-fourths as much fat. In each case, taste panels noted a reduction in tenderness and flavor, but they likewise found the products highly acceptable.

Everybody's Doing It

New Compact Cadets Have Everything

Whatever the family seeks in getting big jobs done faster in the yard and garden — all year around — is answered in this latest tractor from International Harvester. Patterned after big, heavy-duty tractors, the new Cub Cadet Lawn and Garden tractors come in 7, 10, 12-horsepower models. With new starting ease, familiar controls and quick response, they're fun to run. Sports car shifting and steering lure teen-agers. A wide line of attachments for dozens of jobs around the home, farm and factory help Cub Cadets say their way a dozen times over. The Cadet hustles through mowing, snow removal, rotary tilling, lawn rolling, fertilizing, sweeping, spraying, harrowing, seeding and mowing with the greatest of ease. Instant starting is possible in below weather — even with a weak battery. Engineers have "child-proofed" this new home accessory: starting is possible only with a key and when the clutch is depressed. There are no belts or chains in the drive thus eliminating slippage or power loss. Heavy, precision-cut gears, ball and roller bearings and heavy shafts and casings deliver power direct to rear wheels. New styling, new features, new handling ease make the Cadet fun to run, safe to run, and a powerhouse for work.

Outdoor Supper In Jones Home

Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewellen and Mr. and Mrs. George Brock. ATTEND CAMP . . . Captain Maurice Gaede, Anderson, Indiana, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaede, is attending Army Reserve Summer Camp at Camp McCoy, Wis. Gaede, a former student of the Friona schools, is a sales engineer for Guide Lamp Division of General Motors in Anderson.

IN AREA
New Disease Seen In Corn & Maize

A disease new to the West Texas area is suspected in some corn and grain sorghum fields. The invader is believed to be maize dwarf mosaic virus, says Dr. Robert W. Berry, Extension plant pathologist at Texas A&M University's South Plains Research and Extension Center. Fields heavily infected with the suspected virus have been found in the Hereford, Deaf Smith County, as well as in parts of Parmer, Castro, Dallam, Moore, Donley, Hale, Crosby, and Floyd Counties.

Infected plants show a mottled pattern of light and dark green on the new leaves as they emerge from the whorl, explains Berry. In grain sorghum, infected plants will turn bright red or reddish-brown in cool weather. In corn, however, the mottling is primarily brown. Grain does not develop normally in crops infected by MD-MW, points out the pathologist. On corn only a few grains may form on the cob while grain sorghum heads may be practically sterile.

This particular virus was first uncovered in South Central Texas last year in sweet corn and losses ranged from 10 to 50 per cent.

MDMW over winters in the rhizomes of Johnson grass and is transmitted by aphids, explains Berry. As the tender shoots of this grass emerge in the spring, the aphids begin feeding, acquire the virus and move to susceptible crops where they transmit the disease.

There appear to be some varietal differences, adds Berry, but all varieties examined in the area are seemingly susceptible to the suspected virus.

At this time there are no control practices which will be of benefit to susceptible crops, the pathologist explains. Many specimens of infected plants have been submitted to Dr. Robert W. Toler, virologist with the Department of Plant Sciences at Texas A&M, for positive identification of the disease.

Local Man Attends National Convention

W.S. (Red) Crow, owner and manager of Crow's Slaughter House, was scheduled to return to Friona Wednesday evening, after spending four days at the Locker and Freezer Producers national convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Presiding over the business meeting at the convention was George Walsh, national president of the organization and owner of Walsh Food Service of Amarillo.

Registration opened at 9 a. m. Sunday morning, and was followed by three days of exhibits and business sessions.

Attending the convention were some 2,000 meat processors and locker servicemen from all over the nation.

The convention was held at Leamington Hotel, in downtown Minneapolis.

A grand prize of a trip to Europe will be awarded to a lucky processor at the closing session on Wednesday.

Highlighting the convention was the annual livestock judging contest, and also several meat judging contests.

Entertainment for the event was provided by Sammy Kaye and his orchestra.

At Home In Parmer County

By CRICKET TAYLOR
County HD Agent

Vacation, camps, re-unions and many activities are in full swing. Everyone is trying to keep cool. Leaders, parents, and 4-H members left for camp this week-high in New Mexico mountains east of Pecos. They will keep cool — no doubt about that, especially at night.

After a two weeks vacation — part of which was spent in the mountains, my return to the Extension office found a desk piled high with mail that will require some hours to reduce. Vacations are wonderful-but work is too, because it makes one appreciate just "being lazy" for a while.

KEEP SUMMER FOODS COOL With many summer activities, food is a major concern. People will use more foods such as chicken, tuna, egg salad for cold plates and sandwiches. Remember this — these delicious foods are subject to bacteria growth that cause food poisoning.

In tests with chicken salad the researchers found that the most critical factor is the time required for cooling from room temperature to refrigerator temperature. About three hours are required for chicken salad four inches deep to reach refrigerator temperature of (41 degrees F., after it has been moved from room temperature.

Put the salad in shallow pans or dishes so that it will cool rapidly. Don't make up too much at a time. Serve promptly after removal from refrigerator.

Frozen sandwiches are high on list for picnics, provided they are eaten as soon as they are thawed.

It's well to remember that many of the illnesses in summer, sometime called the "summer complaint" or "upset stomach," can be the result of rapid bacterial growth in summer foods. Keep them well refrigerated for a safety.

HELPFUL BRIEF NOTES What a child wants for breakfast and what mother wants him to eat often are nutritionally equal. A breakfast of hog dog, bun, milkshake and an orange is the same nutritionally as a breakfast of orange juice, egg, cereal and milk.

To remove a meat juice stain from a white or colorfast cotton tablecloth, first sponge the stain with cool water. Or soak the cloth in cool water for 30 minutes. Then run detergent into spot and laundry the cloth in hot suds.

WHAT PRICE PEACE

Peaceful Pursuits and a Friendly Nature That Breed Trust

No studying of war is indicated in the above scene. No wholesale atomic destruction is being planned here. Only traits of industry and that "Kingdom of Heaven Kindness" that breed trust and love show here. No sign of hatred or fear. What wonder then that the Prince of Peace chose humble fishermen for disciples. Those who possess that "Kingdom of Heaven Kindness," they who spread it, study peace and the Will of God.

If you would know God's Will go to church regularly and often.

Troop 244 Has Overnight Camp

Several very excited Girl Scouts from Troop 244 met at the Congregational Church Friday at 4 p.m. Each girl carried her bedroll and essentials for an "overnight". Loading up at 4:30 we all started out for the Spawm Ranch Headquarters. Arriving at the Ranch Headquarters at 4:45 p.m., we all bailed out and headed for the windmill and a cool refreshing drink of real country water. Everyone agreed that it was quite the best water in the whole world! In the smaller ranch house, cots were set up for each girl--so bedmaking was the first chore. We were all thrilled to see the old pot-bellied stove in the living room, and could imagine how warm it would be in the winter when we have another "overnight." After beds were made, we were off through the pasture and to the lake on a nature hike. We all worked up a hearty appetite on the long hike, and were happy to be served such a delicious supper, which was prepared by the camp director, with help from adult leaders. We had campfire stew with biscuits and melted cheese, cantalopes, corn on the cob, chips and cooldaid, for dessert--somores--a favorite of all Girl Scouts.

HURST'S
Home of Nationally Advertised Merchandise
618 Main Friona, Texas

The end of July proved to be a very busy time for doctors, nurses and others employed by Farmer County Community Hospital. For several days the nursery was filled almost to its capacity. Someone, who must believe in signs, said, "There must have been a change in the moon."

Think baby boys were in the majority and most of them were larger than average babies. At one time there were five or six in the nursery and each one had weighed more than eight pounds at birth.

It seems that even hospitals have their "dull" and "good" days.

One of the most energetic groups in our community is the newest women's club. Advance planning is going into an arts and crafts show for Maize Days. Members of the club plan to invite anyone who does any kind of handwork to show it at this show.

Another project being planned by club members is a new idea in recipe filing. Most homemakers have cookbooks, cookbooks and cookbooks and most of us use them often. This is good and I wouldn't want to be without my favorites.

However, I want to be one of the first to get my name on the list for a hobby club recipe box. Each recipe will be one which is a favorite of one of the club members. I think there will be five categories of recipes with room to add more as a person desires.

This is something each homemaker, who enjoys trying new dishes, can look forward to for fall.

Something new is being added. For quite some time now we have had a "drive-in" window at the bank and one at each of the Drive In eating establishments. Soon Bud and Juanita Reed will move their cleaning shop into the building formerly occupied by Western Auto and then we will have "drive-in" window cleaning.

I haven't observed the window real closely yet. It seems to me such a window would be fine for leaving cleaning to be done, but not so good for picking them up.

Maybe we will have to get out of the car to get them. Wouldn't that be a chore?

Someone has said, "When the time comes when a person can do all his work with a push button, he will want someone to push the button for him."

The building at the corner of Seventh and Main, which was formerly occupied by Houser Grocery and Market is being re-done and is going to be a real attractive combination of the "old" and "new". I like the light colored brick combined with red brick.

An office, which faces Seventh Street, will soon be occupied by Dr. Jon Mack Roden. Frionas who have known him all his life will probably soon get used to saying and hearing "Dr. Roden." Think the experts say it is a compliment to a small town to have its young people to go away to college then return home to put their knowledge and skills into practice.

Dr. Roden and his wife, the former Nancy Outland, and their two sons, Rick and Russ, live on West Seventh Street. He is the fifth "local boy" who has returned to Friona to practice after becoming a doctor.

The way to happiness according to the world seems to be: Happy are the pushers; for they get on in the world. Happy are the hard boiled; for they never let life hurt them. Happy are they who complain; for they get their own way in the end.

Happy are the blasé; for they never worry over their sins. Happy are the slave-drivers; for they get results.

Happy are the knowledgeable men of the world; for they know their way around.

Happy are the trouble-makers; for people have to take notice of them.
