Check With SCS Before Plowing Up Stand of Grass

Grass seedings have moved steadily forward since the middle of May. Some fields are up to an excellant stand, others are just fair, few show a poor stand.

Should you be one that feels the stand will not justify leaving, we ask you to please contact one of your Soil Conservation Service persennel before completely giving up on the project as lost. In most all instances you will find that nature did not cause all of the planted seed to germinate at the same time; consequently ,there will be few plants up, there will be some seed sprouted and at the same time dry seed lying dormant waiting to see if the plant that did get its head out can survive the trials of erosion above the surface of the soil.

As to what constitutes a good stand of grass, should plants be found from 8 inches to 18 inches apart, this is a good stand. We consider that bunch grasses will expand from a seedling one thirty seconds of an inch in diameter to 8 to 12 inches within a period of one year, thus closing an 18 inch gap almost entirely.

Grasses give excellant wind erosion protection, condition the soil, Your Favorite are used for grazing, will keep soil temperature on a more even keel, will hold rainfall a longer period of time, thus allowing more and deeper penetration as well as providing additional humus.

Your Cochran Soil Conservation District has on hand approximately 100 lbs of weeping love grass.

The Church of Christ OBJECTION: You don't believe in heartfelt religion

Misconceptions Concerning

ANSWER: I surely do! A change of heart is about tely essential to conversion. However, a change of h is not some mysterious emotion, but an intelligent pr cess that goes along with hearing, understanding, believes ing, and obeying the gospel message.

The heart of the Bible is not the fleshly lobe in the che that people often pat over and talk of a change, as is set from the following passage. According to the Bible the heart of man is thus posed of his intellect, will, and emotions. Thus when person hears the gospel message, his thinking or in is changed, his will is changed in his determination to the the Lord's commands. Upon the completion of his de dience to the commands of the gospel he rejoices that is now a child of God, and he takes pleasure in living life of faithful obedience to Christ- He has turned ito love and practice of sin. Thus in a sane and sens manner, man has a change of heart-
